“There’s a Lot to Talk About!”

KBLA 1580 Talk Radio has been in the news lately, from the L.A. Times reporting KBLA’s ability “to interview or win support from a broad array of individuals including Mayor Karen Bass, civil rights attorney Connie Rice, L.A. Urban League Chief Executive Michael Lawson, U.S. Rep Adam Shiff, rap star Snoop Dogg and U.S. Transportation Secretary Pete Buttigieg.”

“KBLA is attracting a network of leaders & thinkers...that will translate into strong radio,” “reaching beyond KBLA’s SoCal signal...downloads of podcast are moving toward 30,000 a month.”

Other industry talk radio programs are saying, “...this is going to have an impact! KBLA is giving a voice to a large segment of the population in Los Angeles (and beyond)” and Los Angeles Mayor Karen Bass says “Thank You for bringing us KBLA and all that you do in our city.”

To close out Black History Month, KBLA talk radio held an amazing, well-attended & successful luncheon including the Honorable Mayor Karen Bass, paying tribute to Legendary Black Journalists of Los Angeles.

Among the extinguished guests were L.A.’s Icon Sports Anchor Jim Hill, Broadcast Journalists Pat Harvey, Mark Brown, Leslie Styles, Beverly White, Radio Host Pat Prescott and L.A. Times Columnist Sandy Banks.

The money raised from KBLA’s BHM tribute to Black Legends in L.A. Media, KBLA Talk Radio & Host Tavis Smiley presented a total of $20,000 to the National Association of Black Journalists of Los Angeles (NABJLA) and the Minority Photo-Journalism Institute (MPJI).

Additional community support from the KBLA family, Tavis Smiley along with new KBLA Host Areva Martin were among the community members & clergy from across Los Angeles to gather, offering spiritual support to Mark Ridley Thomas at the historical Holman United Methodist Church in Los Angeles.
