

ITEMIZED LÍNEA INFORMATIVA AMOR
2024 MARCH

Línea Informativa/ WPAT-FM:

Sunday, March 3, 2024

4:30AM - 5:00 AM

24:00 minutes

Summary of contents

- A report on rejection of asylum seekers and new immigrants of the part of a part of the Latino community.
- A report on the meaning of “Sanctuary City,” and what being one means for New York and recent immigrants.
- A report on foreclosures in the Long Island Latino community, why they are still happening and how to prevent them.
- An interview with Margarita Grassing, Executive Director, Hispanic Brotherhood, Rockville Center. First of a multipart series.
- A report on frauds and scams related to registration and reregistration in ACA and other health programs and plans.
- Report on the HIV/AIDS hotline.

Línea Informativa/ WPAT-FM:

Sunday, March 10, 2024

4:30AM - 5:00 AM

24:00 minutes

Summary of contents

A report on political participation of the Latino community and what the Hispanic Federation is doing to increase it.

- A report on the growing numbers of first home buyers in the Latino community.
- A report on foreclosures in the Long Island Latino community, why they are still happening and how to prevent them.
- An interview with Margarita Grassing, Executive Director, Hispanic Brotherhood, Rockville Center. Second of a multipart series.
- Report on a Hispanic Federation member agency: Teatro SEA, for Sociedad Creativa de las Artes. The agency's mission and its programs and services.
- An interview with SEA's founder and Executive Director, Manuel Morán. First of a multipart series.

Línea Informativa/ WPAT-FM:

Sunday, March 17, 2024

4:30AM - 5:00 AM

24:00 minutes

Summary of contents

- .A report on the NYC budget debate and how this affects the Latino community in New York.
- A report on several forms of fraud by phone, email, WhatsApp, and other media aimed at Latinas and Latinos.
- A report on foreclosures in the Long Island Latino community, why they are still happening and how to prevent them.
- An interview with Margarita Grassing, Executive Director, Hispanic Brotherhood, Rockville Center. Third of a three-part series.
- A report on Medicaid Manage Care, a new program for undocumented immigrants over 65 who meet certain income requirements.
- Report on the HIV/AIDS hotline.

Línea Informativa/ WPAT-FM:

Sunday, March 24, 2024

4:30AM - 5:00 AM

24:00 minutes

Summary of contents

- A report on the free and bilingual information line to reach and ask for information and help from the Hispanic Federation.
- A report on all Hispanic Federation member theater companies and what they are currently offering to the public.
- Report on a Hispanic Federation member agency: Teatro SEA, for Sociedad Creativa de las Artes. The agency's mission and its programs and services.
- An interview with SEA's founder and Executive Director, Manuel Morán. Second of a multipart series.

- A report on frauds and scams related to registration and reregistration in ACA and other health programs and plans

Línea Informativa/ WPAT-FM:

Sunday, March 31, 2024

4:30AM - 5:00 AM

24:00 minutes

Summary of contents

- A report on the April 2 and June 25 primary elections and the November general election in New York, and the ways in which the Hispanic Federation helps in registering Latino voters.
- Report on a Hispanic Federation member agency: Teatro SEA, for Sociedad Creativa de las Artes. The agency's mission and its programs and services.
- An interview with SEA's founder and Executive Director, Manuel Morán. Third of a multipart series.
- A report on how the Hispanic Federation assists the Latino community to apply for US citizenship and the dreamers in the removal of their DACA protections.
- A report on the help provided by the Hispanic Federation to those interested in registering for any of the health insurance plans covered by Obamacare.
- A report on the need of the public to help the HF help Puerto Rico.