This is Tina Wittington with Students for Life.

As a Pro-Life Leader and person of faith, I work tirelessly to make sure there are wrap-around services and medical support for women, children, and families and every stage of pregnancy and birth, which includes providing unrestricted care for mothers suffering complications like miscarriages, without fear of stigma.

This is the compassionate approach all people of faith can take to make abortion unthinkable. Alongside asking our legislators to support and pass policies like the child tax credit and paid family leave, that give support after birth and beyond. Our Pro-Life legislators must protect life and law and service by opening pathways to help young families succeed. A majority of abortions take place among low income and financially challenged families. But together, through our church and para-church ministries, alongside public policies serving families during their most economically vulnerable time, after birth and during early childhood, we can create a real culture of life.
