

Arts

30 minute weekly program
Thursdays at 9:00pm on KLRN

Join us each week as we visit art openings, music and theater performances in the San Antonio arts and culture scene. In this series, we also explore breathtaking art from around the country.

Program number: 528
Program length: 26:46
First air date/time: October 5, 2017 9:00pm

The San Antonio Museum of Art docent training programs provides museum volunteers with three years training in the static and rotating exhibitions, so they can provide history and background of the hundreds of works of art on display. This is a behind-the-scenes look into the SAMA docents training and what it takes to provide guidance to the 100K+ museum visitors each year.

Participants and their affiliations, titles:

CG: JESSICA NELSON, PROGRAMS MANAGER, SAN ANTONIO MUSEUM OF ART
CG: JOHN CORNELL, SAMA DOCENT-IN-TRAINING
CG: DEB KOENIG, SAMA DOCENT
CG: ANNE HARDING, SAMA DOCENT
CG: KELLIS CHANDLER, SAMA DOCENT

Program number: 529
Program length: 26:46
First air date/time: October 12, 2017 9:00pm

Visible Light is an alumni photographer exhibition at Trinity University, showcasing the talents of former college students. Each photographer employs a different artistic style; type of camera--either digital or film; and approach to creating thought-provoking photographs that are works of art.

Participants and their affiliations, titles:

Cade Bradshaw, photographer
Shelby M. Rocca, photographer
Elizabeth Ward, professor Department of Art, Trinity University
Anh Viet Dinh, photographer

Program number: 530

Program length: 26:46

First air date/time: October 19, 2017

For the very first time, the Magik Children's Theatre invited local playwrights to submit adaptations of popular literature for youth, or original screenplays destined for the stage. Selected playwrights will collaborate over the next year to provide the foundation of this popular theatre that has entertained more than 1M people, over the past 23 years.

Participants and their affiliations, titles:

Frances Limocelli, Artistic Director, Magik Theatre

John Smedley, Actor

Anna Smedley, Acting Student

Rebekah Williams, Education Coordinator, Magik Theatre

Rick, Selected Playwright

Program number: 531

Program length: 26:46

First air date/time: October 26, 2017 9:00pm

Mandalas are Spiritual Symbols in Buddhism and Hinduism, made of sand and created with ceremonies by Tibetan Monks. Reporter Donna Parker attends the Institute of Texan Culture to give us a closer look At the "mystical arts of Tibet-Mandala sand paintings."

Participants and their affiliations, titles:

Christian Clark, UTSA Director of Education and Interpretation

Gesha Loden, Spokesperson of the Tibetiian Monks

Beth Coleman, Guest (Mother)

Brandon Lippe, Guest

Program number: 532

Program length: 26:46

First air date/time: November 9, 2017 9:00pm

Comedians on comedians explores the motivation of three San Antonio comics standing up on stage in small comedy clubs, trying to get a laugh. What drives a comic to want to divulge his life stories on a public stage just to make people laugh. We take a look at the process they go through before each performance, to produce this particular form of art.

Participants and their affiliations, titles:

Joey McCormick, Comedian

George Anthony, Comedian

Raul Castro, Comedian

Program number: 533

Program length: 26:46

First air date/time: November 16, 2017 9:00pm

Arts San Antonio Recently brought the Aesche Accordion Orchestra and Yodeling club to town to showcase this fascinating form of singing, that has been around for centuries, since farmers called in their herds. Yodelins is still around today and can even be heard in certain punk and rock songs.

Participants and their affiliations, titles:
Maria Mehring, Yodeling Enthusiast
Rolf Blatter, Accordion Orchestra
Peter Gysi, Yodel Singer

Program number: 534
Program length: 26:46
First air date/time: November 30, 2017 9:00pm

Local Artist Gilbert Duran has painted beautiful designs inside some of San Antonio's most popular eating establishment, but its his discovery of a priceless work of art found in a thrift store that has him on a mission to restore this sculpture to its original place on the commerce street bridge.

Participants and their affiliations, titles:
Gilbert Duran, Artist and Sculptor

Program number: 535
Program length: 26:46
First air date/time: December 14, 2017 9:00pm

Chuck Ramirez was a renowned contemporary artist, whose photograph displayed the best of humanity, although most contained no human subjects. Recently, the McNay museum hosted an exhibition of chuck's work called, 'all this and heaven, too.' the talented artist was killed in a bicycle accident several years ago, but his work continues to be celebrated.

Participants and their affiliations, titles:
Rene Barilleaux, McNay Curator
Ethel Shipton, Artist

Program number: 536
Program length: 26:46
First air date/time: December 21, 2017 9:00pm

TONIGHT, THE MONKS OF TIBET CREATE AN AWE-INSPIRING MONDALA WITH TINY, COLORED GRAINS OF SAND, ONLY TO BE DESTROYED AS SOON AS IT'S COMPLETED. THOUSANDS OF SAN ANTONIANS SHARE THEIR FAMILY STORIES IN A COLLABORATION KNOWN AS ARBOR DE LA VIDA, OR TREE OF LIFE...AND THE SOUND OF MUSIC RESONATES FROM DEEP INSIDE A LIMESTONE CAVE IN THE TEXAS HILL COUNTRY.

2017 "BEST OF" Locally Pt. 1

Program number: 537

Program length: 26:46

First air date/time: December 28, 2017 9:00pm

SAN ANTONIO'S ART SCENE IS DIVERSE AND THRIVING. WHERE ELSE COULD YOU SEE THE WORK OF THE WORLD-FAMOUS 'DA VINCI OF DIRT...HAVE A SIT-DOWN WITH LOCAL COMEDIANS WHO SWEAT IT OUT MAKING PEOPLE LAUGH...AND A LOCAL JUNK SHOP THAT GAVE UP A TREASURE THAT COULD BE FROM THE HAND OF COMMERCE STREET BRIDGE ARTIST AND RENOWNED SCULPTOR, WALDINE TAUCH? HERE WE GO, WITH "THE BEST OF" LOCALLY PT. 2