Subject: RE: Please register for the Emma Bowen Career Fair - July 15th

Good morning,

Please register before the end of the day today. If you have any issues registering, let me know.

Additionally, since there are 16 of us, only 10 of us allowed to participate at a time at our FTS booth. I divided the time periods among us. If these times do not work out for you, feel free to switch with another colleague or you can also participate at the end, which is open. It will be interesting to see how the Career Fair works virtually this year. The candidates will be coming in and out of our booth (like an actual career booth) and we can answer any questions they have about our stations and job opportunities. You will also be able to pull them aside and chat with them separately.

4. Testimonials

Lumiere Rostick , EBF' 20, Fox 13 WTVT Tampa intern

Working at Fox13 in Tampa, I never felt like just an intern. From day one, I was treated as another crucial cog in the well-oiled machine of the newsroom. By the end of my first two weeks, I was a regular in the edit bays. By the end of my first year, I had credited nat sound packages on air. When I returned for my second and third summers, my ideas in pitch meetings were received just as any other reporter in the room. Field reporters, photogs, in house producers, and editors alike all treated me as an equal. Not once did I feel like a lowly intern, sequestered in a back room making copies. My supervisors served as true mentors, helping me hone my craft. They gave me the support and confidence to push for stories and learn all I could. They invested so much of their time and energy into my future, a simple thank you is not enough. My experience at Fox13 was more than a stepping stone. It created a firm foundation for my work ethic, my storytellings skills, and my overall career. I am eternally grateful.

Victoria Holmes, EBF '20, FOX 4 KDFW intern

I interned for three summers at KDFW Fox 4 in Dallas, Texas. The lessons I learned with that newsroom have been the most valuable in terms of preparing me for a career in broadcast journalism. Without the internship, I doubt I would have been able to land a job right out of college as a MultiMedia Journalist. Additionally, the newsroom staff and advisors from other departments were incredibly supportive and open to the interns, especially Elaine Catloth who was the most impactful mentor I have ever had in my life. Her generous spirit and caring nature really helped guide me in my skill set, and even helped me develop a sense of confidence and pride in my work. I will forever be grateful for the fellowship, and hopefully will be able to return to the Fox family.

Brielle Ashford, EBF 20, Fox2Detroit intern

My three summers at FOX 2 in Detroit, Michigan were incredible. I met such impactful mentors, from my amazing supervisor Katie to all of the thoughtful producers, invested anchors and caring photographers I was lucky enough to work with. I'll never forget my time there and how so many guided me in my passion for producing. FOX 2 was a marvelous launching point for what I hope to be my successful career in broadcast media.

May Phan, EBF '20, KSAZ Phoenix

Getting my internship at FOX has changed the course of my career and my life. I have been able to work in so many different departments I would never be able to experience otherwise as a college student. Incredibly smart, talented people mentored me and gave me skills in broadcast and digital that made me a huge asset to my newsroom in Phoenix. Considering that I was hired full time before even graduating university - this internship was definitely worth it.

Alexus Baldwin, EBF '20, WTTG Washington DC

Having an internship at FOX meant "new beginnings" for me. I say "new beginnings" because it was the start of my broadcasting journey. It paved a way for new opportunities, more networking, and the internship truly built me as a journalist. They allowed me to pitch stories and taught me how to be a reporter. Not only was I taught how to be an on-air personality but they also taught me how to be behind the camera as well which is extremely important. Behind the camera included writing, learning the production room, and shadowing some of the best producers who I still keep in contact with. A mentor I have there also helped me with my voice by putting me in the booth and practicing so that way I was able to get more comfortable with how I sound. Also, they helped me break out of my shell. Interning at FOX will be a memory I will never forget and I'm grateful for the opportunity. I recommend this station to any upcoming journalists. Thank you so much.

Lily forwarded me your email so I could send you my resume. I am currently looking for a Fall news internship in the DC area to fulfill my graduation requirement and would appreciate any insight about working at a FOX station near me.

I am also very interested in FOX's six month training program immediately after I graduate in December. After our conversation, I tried to research more information about the program and application but could not find anything for 2022. When you get the chance, I would greatly appreciate any advice on how to get involved with this program. I am more than willing to move to New York for this opportunity.

If you have any questions, please feel free to email me at this address. Thank you for your time and I look forward to hearing from you soon.

Best,

Hi Lily,

Thank you for following up! I have attached my resume to this email. Thank you for passing it along for me. As for stations, I am pretty flexible and open to whichever ones are hiring interns. However, I am specifically interested in Chicago stations.

Thanks again for the help!

Hi Lily,

I hope that this email finds you well. My name is Neda Kakish, and I am a Junior at the University of Illinois at Urbana-Champaign studying Advertising and Journalism. I attended a career fair through the Emma Bowen Foundation last week, where I had the opportunity of getting to know and chatting with Iris Sierra.

Iris passed along your information to me and told me to reach out to you with my resume. I just wanted to connect with you to introduce myself and to hear about your experiences at FOX Television Stations. Iris told me that you would be a great person to reach out to, so I also wanted to get in touch to hear about any other opportunities that FOX T.V. Stations has for college students.

If there is anyone else that I should reach out to for more information, I would love to connect with them as well. Thank you so much for your time and enjoy the rest of your day!

Best,
Neda
