

WNBC-TV

QUARTERLY ISSUES REPORT

3rd Quarter 2019:
JULY, AUGUST AND SEPTEMBER

Quarterly Issues and Programs Report APRIL, MAY AND JUNE 2019

Through formal and informal ascertainment of the general public, community leaders, public officials - inclusive of different ethnic organizations and service organizations, the following list emerged as potential, community-themed issues which require media attention and support.

Accidents and Disasters	Elderly-Seniors-Retirement
Animal Welfare and Adoption	Environment
Civil Rights	Funerals and Memorials
Children & Youth	Government and Politics
Consumer	Health
Court and Legal Decisions	Housing
Crime and Law Enforcement	Poverty
Diversity	Safety
Education	Transportation

The programs produced to meet the needs of the public included locally-produced shows and newscasts as well as national programs, public service announcement campaigns and sales marketing campaigns.

Regularly Scheduled Programs

Our locally produced, regularly scheduled programs are aired specifically to address community issues, concerns and needs. The programs include News 4 New York.

WNBC's daily newscasts devote considerable time to local issues and community problems.

Regularly scheduled newscasts include:

Program	Time	Days
Today in New York	4:00am-7:00am	Monday-Friday
News 4 NY at 11:00am	11:00am-11:30am	Monday-Friday
News 4 NY at 4:00pm	4:00pm-5:00pm	Monday-Friday
News 4 NY at 5:00pm	5:00pm-6:00pm	Monday-Friday
News 4 NY at 6:00pm	6:00pm-6:30pm	Monday-Friday
News 4 NY at 11:00pm	11:00pm-11:30pm	Monday-Friday
Saturday Today in NY	6:00am-7:00am	Saturday
Saturday Today in NY	8:30am-9:30am	Saturday
News 4 NY at 6:00pm	6:00pm-6:30pm	Saturday
News 4 NY at 11:00pm	11:00pm-11:30pm	Saturday
Sunday Today in NY	6:00am-8:00am	Sunday
Sunday Today in NY	10:00am-10:30am	Sunday
News 4 NY at 6:00pm	6:00pm-6:30pm	Sunday
News 4 NY at 11:00pm	11:00pm-11:30pm	Sunday

Date	Category	Title	Start Time	End Time	Duration	Source	Description
1-July-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Medical Procedure Bill	4:45 PM	4:47 PM	2:36	Local Origination	In Irvington, NJ, Courtney Manning developed a cancerous mass that had to be removed from her left breast. The surgery was a success, but five years after the procedure, Courtney received a bill for over $5,000 from her insurance. Lynda Baquero reports.
1-July-19	Safety	Testing a New Life-Saving Tool	5:16 PM	5:18 PM	2:08	Local Origination	In Wildwood, NJ, drones are being tested as a potential life-saving resource to prevent people from drowning. A lifeguard operates the drone from the sand. The drone carries a rescue buoy to the drowning individual. A lifeguard on a watercraft then brings the individual to shore. Officials in Wildwood hope to have the drones implemented by next summer. Ted Greenberg reports.
1-July-19	Government and Politics	I-Team: Demanding an Audit of Hempstead's Building Dept.	5:46 PM	5:49 PM	2:30	Local Origination	On Bellmore, Long Island, homeowners are still recovering from the damages left by Hurricane Sandy. Almost seven years after the hurricane struck, some residents are now being told they need to pay a minimum of one hundred thousand of dollars to elevate their homes. State Senator John Brooks and other officials are now demanding an audit of Hempstead's building department. Pei-Sze Cheng reports.
1-July-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Canine Crime Story	5:57 PM	5:58 PM	1:33	Local Origination	In Park Slope, Brooklyn, 15-year-old chihuahua Fidel was stolen during off-leash hours in Prospect Park. When Danielle Maveal spotted Fidel in Park Slope after hearing he went missing on social media, she grabbed his leash from the thieves who, in turn, aggressively pursued her. Maveal got away safely and returned Fidel to her owner. Jamie Roth reports.

2-July-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Lost Car Keys	4:46 PM	4:49 PM	2:15	Local Origination	In Palisades Park, NJ, a traveling salesman utilized the SpotHero app to park his car near JFK Airport while he traveled. When he returned, he discovered the parking lot lost his car keys. They promised him a refund for his new keys and a taxi ride home, but that promise was not honored. Lynda Baquero reports.
2-July-19	Animal Welfare and Adoption	Abandoned Dog Found Dead in Crate	5:06 PM	5:08 PM	2:28	Local Origination	In Woodbridge, CT, a dog was put inside a crate and left on the side of the road. Animal Control is pursuing the perpetrator by collecting forensics from the dog's collar. Roseanne Colletti reports.
2-July-19	Safety	Parents Share Drowning Tragedy	5:09 PM	5:11 PM	2:03	Local Origination	In White Plains, NY, parents Heather Landau and Daniel Pfeffer shared the story of how their daughter drowned in a pool as they were packing their bags into their car. Drowning is the leading cause of accidental deaths in children under the age of five. Landau and Pfeffer developed an ID card on a lanyard that reminds adults to supervise their children when close to water. Ida Siegal reports.
2-July-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Police Shoot Men Playing with Fireworks	5:30 PM	5:32 PM	2:00	Local Origination	In Jersey City, NJ, Police shot a 21-year-old man and his friend as both were playing with fireworks. Friends and neighbors are unsure of how this happened, and detectives are investigating footage from the incident. Brian Thompson reports.
2-July-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: One-On- One Interview with Fotis Dulos	11:01 PM	11:04 PM	3:46	Local Origination	In Farmington, CT, Sarah Wallace conducted an exclusive interview with Fotis Dulos, the estranged husband of Jennifer Dulos. Jennifer has been missing since May, and while Fotis is a suspect for murder, he's maintained his innocence and has asked the public to wait for the truth to come out. Sarah Wallace reports.
3-July-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Refund Check in Wrong Name	4:43 PM	4:46 PM	2:17	Local Origination	In Brooklyn, NY, a widow received a refund check for overpaid home taxes. The check, however, arrived in her late husband's name, and a replacement check in her name never arrived. Lynda Baquero reports.

3-July-19	Children & Youth	New Jersey Counselors Suspended After Child Suffers Burns at Summer Camp	5:07 PM	5:09 PM	1:50	Local Origination	In Tom's River, NJ, three summer camp counselors forced children to sit on hot asphalt as a form of punishment. The case sparked community outrage after one of the child's mother posted photos of her child's burned hands on Facebook. Brian Thompson reports.
3-July-19	Court and Legal Decisions	New Jersey Judge Spares Teen Rape Suspect Because He Came From 'A Good Family'	5:15 PM	5:17 PM	2:17	Local Origination	In Freehold, NJ, a judge declined to try a teen as an adult for raping a 16-year-old girl. His reasonings left the court and the community outraged. Roseanne Colletti reports.
3-July-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Man Arrested for Trying to Abduct Teen Girl	5:45 PM	5:48 PM	2:42	Local Origination	On Uniondale, Long Island, Nassau police arrested a man who attempted to abduct a 13-year-old girl. Surveillance cameras from her house captured the incident, showing her fight back and the perpetrator's face. Greg Cergol reports.
3-July-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: One-On-One Interview with Fotis Dulos	6:07 PM	6:10 PM	3:00	Local Origination	In Farmington, CT, Fotis Dulos's children have been in custody of their maternal grandmother since he has been accused of murder. His lawyers are waiting for prosecution to release the evidence that will be used against their client in court. Sarah Wallace reports.
4-July-19	Transportation	Gridlock on the Sand at Jones Beach	5:06 PM	5:08 PM	2:00	Local Origination	On Jones Beach, Long Island, close to 200,000 people arrived to enjoy the weather, causing bumper-to-bumper traffic and gridlock on the sand. More visitors are expected to watch the nighttime fireworks show. Greg Cergol reports.
4-July-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Central Park Explosion: 3 years Later	5:24 PM	5:27 PM	2:50	Local Origination	In Union City, NY, a college student jumped on a bag with a La Unica Bakery design which was filled with explosives. The explosion blew off his leg. La Unica Bakery has not been using bags with that design for more than 10 years, and Police have yet to catch the culprit yet. Chris Glorioso reports.
4-July-19	Government and Politics	Katz Takes Stunning Lead in Queens DA Race	5:31 PM	5:33 PM	1:47	Local Origination	In Queens, NY, Queensborough President Melinda Katz is ahead of opponent Tiffany Caban by 20 votes. The votes are being recounted after 2,000 affidavit ballots were invalid. Rana Novini reports.

4-July-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Man Found Murdered Inside Car	5:57 PM	5:58 PM	1:15	Local Origination	On Wyandanch, Long Island, a woman found a man who was shot in the head inside a car. Police are investigating the case. Greg Cergol reports.
5-July-19	Funerals and Memorials	Two Years Later: Fallen Detective Honored	5:03 PM	5:06 PM	2:20	Local Origination	In the Bronx, NY former NYPD Detective Miosotis Villella was honored by members of the public, current NYPD officers and her family. Miosotis was shot and killed on duty two years ago. A permanent mural has been created by Artist Kenny Altidor on the corner of the Bronx precinct. Marc Santia reports.
5-July-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Officers Caught Doing Good Deed	5:15 PM	5:17 PM	2:01	Local Origination	In Union Square, NY, three NYPD officers noticed a woman being detained by Whole Foods security. The officers were informed that the woman had attempted to steal food. Instead of arresting her, the officers paid for her food. Chris Glorioso reports.
5-July-19	Transportation	This Weekend at the Shore	5:46 PM	5:47 PM	1:23	Local Origination	In Atlantic City, NJ, the Jersey Shore was especially crowded this weekend following July 4 th celebrations. This has prompted visitors of the Shore to be concerned about the high volume of traffic they expect on their rides home Sunday morning. Stephania Jimenez reports.
5-July-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Search for Armed Robbers	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	1:49	Local Origination	In the Bronx, NY, three friends were confronted by armed robbers just steps away from their homes. One of the victims was wrestled to the ground—a gun pressed to his head. The robbers are still being pursued by police. Marc Santia reports.
6-July-19	Diversity	Visiones: A Pipeline for Bilingual Doctors & Medical Staff	6:46 AM	6:49 AM	3:18	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero interviews David Lenehan, CEO of Ponce Health Sciences University in Puerto Rico. The university offers programs at low costs on medicine, psychology, public health, nursing and others to minority students.

7-July-19	Diversity	Positively Black: Harlem Honeys & Bears	6:49 AM	5:54 AM	5:41	Local Origination	Tracie Strahan interviews Rasheedah Ali of the Harlem Honeys & Bears—a synchronized swim team comprised of African Americans aged 55 and older. Ali, an 83-year-old woman, discusses the health benefits of swimming, the success the Harlem Honeys & Bears have had in competition, and the importance of teaching swimming to everyone regardless of age.
8-July-19	Children & Youth	Team USA Inspiring Athletes	5:09 PM	5:10 PM	1:41	Local Origination	On Rockville Centre, Long Island, Crystal Dunn—a native of the town and the current right back for the U.S. Women's National Soccer team—has become a role model for children. She is remembered by coaches and other residents as an energetic and determined individual. Gaby Acevedo reports.
8-July-19	Education	Messages from Space	5:57 PM	5:59 PM	1:43	Local Origination	In Lower Manhattan, NY, the NYPD brought in more than 1,200 students to have a live conversation with two astronauts currently onboard the International Space Station. Gus Rosendale reports.
8-July-19	Housing	I-Team: NYCHA Cooling Centers Without A.C.	6:03 PM	6:05 PM	2:54	Local Origination	In East Harlem, NY, many official cooling centers across the city have not had air conditioning throughout the summer. In addition to impacting summer camps, this is especially damaging to the elderly who depend on the centers to outlast the heat. Melissa Russo reports.
9-July-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Returning a Vacuum	4:45 PM	4:47 PM	2:15	Local Origination	In Mill Basin, Brooklyn, Bernice Joseph purchased a $979 vacuum cleaner made by Aerus. She went back to the Aerus dealer to return it, only to be told she passed a three-day return period she was never warned about. Lynda Baquero reports.
9-July-19	Transportation	Neighbors Say Billionaire Created Fake Parking Space	5:14 PM	5:16 PM	2:25	Local Origination	In Manhattan, NY, a hedge fund billionaire created an illegal personal parking spot by building a curb cut in front of his house. A DOB inspector will be investigating the case. Ida Siegal reports.

9-July-19	Accidents and Disasters	3 Women Killed in Crash	5:59 PM	6:01 PM	2:14	Local Origination	On Mount Sinai, Long Island, a Jeep crashed into a utility pole and flipped on its side, catching on fire. The three women inside the car died at the scene. The neighborhood surrounding the crash attempted to aid the victims, but the site was too dangerous to approach. Greg Cergol reports.
9-July-19	Safety	NYPD Security for Ticker-Tape Parade	6:05 PM	6:06 PM	1:52	Local Origination	In Manhattan, NY, the NYPD is preparing aviation, drones, K9 units, long gun teams, and gearing up officers for on the ground patrol of the World Cup Parade. Marc Santia reports.
9-July-19	Housing	I-Team: NYCHA Promising to Fix A.C. Units	6:12 PM	6:13 PM	1:45	Local Origination	After yesterday's I-Team report, NYCHA delivered several A.C. units to their Manhattanville location. However, they did not fix the center's central A.C. system, and several other cooling centers around New York still have no A.C. Melissa Russo reports.
10-July-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Home Generator Inspection	4:55 PM	4:58 PM	3:00	Local Origination	In Skillman, NJ, Dave Campeas purchased a home generator a month before Superstorm Sandy hit. The manufacturer, Generac, sent him a letter about a voluntary inspection, which Campeas opted-in. He was, however, charged $85 for the inspection even though he kept his product in great condition. Lynda Baquero reports.
10-July-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Mom Pleads Not Guilty to Killing Twin Daughters	5:10 PM	5:11 PM	1:36	Local Origination	On Riverhead, Long Island, a mother was indicted on two counts of first degree murder for suffocating her twin daughters. She is pleading not guilty, on the cause of mental illness. Greg Cergol reports.
10-July-19	Accidents and Disasters	Firefighter Badly Hurt in Hit & Run	5:16 PM	5:18 PM	2:00	Local Origination	In Bridgeport, CT, a firefighter was badly injured when a car hit him. The car fled the scene and police are now looking for the driver. Ken Buffa reports.
10-July-19	Accidents and Disasters	Garbage Truck Crashes into Parked Cars	5:47 PM	5:49 PM	2:00	Local Origination	In Brooklyn, NY, a garbage truck flipped on its side and crashed into several cars around 4am. The truck drivers were sent to the hospital, and no pedestrians or other drivers were injured. Rana Novini reports.

10-July-19	Transportation	I-Team: Congestion Pricing: Will It Work?	6:17 PM	6:21 PM	4:08	Local Origination	In Manhattan, NY, starting in 2021, drivers will be charged when driving south of 60 th Street in order to decrease congestion. MTA asked London, Singapore, and Stockholm Congestion Pricing Experts for advice. Andrew Siff reports.
11-July-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Star Exemption Dropped	4:45 PM	4:49 PM	3:45	Local Origination	On Massapequa Park, Long Island, Marie Macri qualified for the Enhancement Star Exemption. However, when she received her latest tax bill, the exemption wasn't applied because of a sudden change in the enrollment process. Lynda Baquero reports.
11-July-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	School Stabbing Suspect Testifies	5:06 PM	5:09 PM	2:40	Local Origination	In the Concourse section of the Bronx, NY, a teen is on trial for fatally stabbing a classmate and injuring another. He argues the two were bullying him, and that he acted in self-defense. Ida Siegal reports.
11-July-19	Housing	Camp Canceled Due to Lack of Air Conditioning	5:45 PM	5:48 PM	2:50	Local Origination	In East Harlem, NY, the King Towers Community Center Summer Camp was cancelled due to the NYCHA center's lack of A.C. NYCHA said that they will fix the center's issues tomorrow. Rana Novini reports.
11-July-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Little Girl Lost: 14 Years Later	6:15 PM	6:20 PM	5:10	Local Origination	In Middle Village, Queens, Valery was left alone in the street by her mother's boyfriend, 14 years ago. The I-Team helped authorities identify her and discover that the man killed Valery's mother. Today, Valery lives in Bolivia and still hopes to know why her mother was murdered. Melissa Russo reports.
12-July-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Solar Panel Connection	4:45 PM	4:47 PM	2:21	Local Origination	In Astoria, Queens, Selma de Oliveira bought solar panels from Green Street Solar Power to power the building complex she owns. She purchased 30 panels, but months after they were installed she realized that some of the panels were not functioning. Lynda Baquero reports.

12-July-19	Consumer	Concert Confusion	5:03 PM	5:05 PM	2:01	Local Origination	In Holmdel, NJ, severe weather caused the delay of a Florida Georgia Line concert. However, many audience members were told by PNC Bank Arts Center officials that the concert was cancelled, causing them to return home before the band took the stage. These individuals are demanding a refund. Jamie Roth reports.
12-July-19	Safety	NJ Infant Left in Hot Car	5:24 PM	5:26 PM	2:05	Local Origination	In Berkeley Township, NJ, UPS Delivery Driver Jesse DiStefano called police when he discovered a crying infant locked inside a hot van. The baby was left in the van by his grandma who was tending to her friend's pets across the street. Ted Greenberg reports.
12-July-19	Consumer	A Real New York "Family"	5:49 PM	5:51 PM	1:51	Local Origination	In Crown Heights, Brooklyn, Gabriel Pierre—the home helper of an elderly rabbi—lost $18,000 to a phone scam. Police reported that the scam, which imitates a social security administration, had stolen about $2 million from families by the end of April. A GoFundMe was created for Gabriel, which raised $11,000 and helped build awareness about the scam. George Spencer reports.
12-July-19	Education	I-Team: Help for Little Girl Lost 14 Years Ago	6:09 PM	6:13 PM	3:53	Local Origination	Executive Director of New Yorkers for Children Saroya Friedman-Gonzalez created the Valery Fund after the I-Team re-aired Valery's story on July 11 th . The nonprofit supports college costs for foster children, and the new donation-based fund will help Valery pay for her college education. Melissa Russo reports.
13-July-19	Diversity	Visiones: Gina Brillon	6:45 AM	6:48 AM	3:11	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero interviews comedienne Gina Brillon about the current state of Latinos in the comedy industry. Brillon is the host of HBO Latino—an upcoming series that will feature a stand-up competition between Latino comediennes.

14-July-19	Diversity	Positively Black: Barbershop Books	6:53 AM	6:57 AM	3:56	Local Origination	Tracie Strahan interviews the founder of Barbershop Books, Alvin Irby. Barbershop Books is a nonprofit company creating child-friendly reading spaces in barbershops across the tri-state area. Irby hopes the barbershops will encourage kids to be excited about reading.
15-July-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Relinquishing a Timeshare	4:54 PM	4:58 PM	3:30	Local Origination	In Danbury, CT, Bonnie Davis and her husband decided it was time to get out of their timeshare agreement. The couple used a company called "Timeshare Exit Team" and were told that it would take about 9 to 18 months to close their agreement. When no progress was made after three years, the couple asked for their money back, but were told they would not be granted a refund. Lynda Baquero reports.
15-July-19	Environment	The Heat of Battle	5:34 PM	5:36 PM	1:30	Local Origination	In Plainview, NY, Larry Baron and other members of the Plainview Fire Department discuss the toll that the recent hot weather has had on firefighters. Photojournalist Mike DeGiudice reports.
15-July-19	Government and Politics	Saving the Victims' Fund	5:47 PM	5:49 PM	1:56	Local Origination	In lower Manhattan, NY, lawmakers and advocates urged the U.S. Senate to replenish the 9/11 Victim Compensation Fund after it was approved by the House. The Fund would help the many first-responders who are suffering from respiratory ailments and other illnesses. Rana Novini reports.
15-July-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Keeping the Search Going	5:57 PM	5:58 PM	1:39	Local Origination	In Norwalk, CT, Sky Mercede —owner of Forever Sweet Bakery—has been printing out and posting flyers of Jennifer Dulos across his community. He hopes the flyers will help prevent the case from going cold. Marc Santia reports.

16-July-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Property Tax Breaks for Veterans	4:45 PM	4:49 PM	3:43	Local Origination	In Peekskill, NY, veteran Nicholas Ceraldi benefited from Veteran Tax Exemptions. In 2018, he received notice he qualified for an extra benefit and quickly applied but was told that the new tax break would only be in effect in 2020. Lynda Baquero reports.
16-July-19	Accidents and Disasters	24 Sickened by Carbon Monoxide at Church	5:04 PM	5:05 PM	1:32	Local Origination	In Hell's Kitchen, NY, 24 visitors and workers of Saint Malachy's church were helped after being poisoned by carbon monoxide. The leak came from a malfunctioning motor from a stove ventilation hood, prompting the workers to call the FDNY. Marc Santia reports.
16-July-19	Transportation	City Bike Expansion	5:44 PM	5:45 PM	1:33	Local Origination	In New York City, NY, a five-year plan has been announced to double Citi Bike service areas and triple the number of available bikes. It will also test a hand-cycling program for riders of different abilities. Wale Aliyu reports.
16-July-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: DSK Accuser Tells Her Story	6:17 PM	6:20 PM	3:29	Local Origination	In Midtown, NY, Nafissatou Diallo was sexually assaulted by Dominique Strauss-Kahn in 2011. Now, Diallo published a book titled "Re-Maid," in hopes people will know who she truly is after being highly exposed and judged after this high-profile case. Pat Battle reports.
17-July-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Dog Owner's Billing Battle	4:46 PM	4:48 PM	2:32	Local Origination	In East Harlem, NY, Amy O'Bryan Matthews still receives bills from Banfield Pet Hospital for a product she no longer uses for her dog, George. Banfield Pet Hospital has been uncooperative with Amy, and she has been charged roughly $500 for the product. Lynda Baquero reports.
17-July-19	Consumer	Recipe for Success	5:24 PM	5:26 PM	1:55	Local Origination	In Teaneck, NJ, Angela Logan recounts how, back in 2009, she raised the $2,500 necessary to prevent her house from being foreclosed by selling cakes at $40 apiece. Logan's story received significant media attention, which has helped her bakery, Mortgage Apple Cakes, expand. Roseanne Colletti reports.

17-July-19	Education	Long Island's Link to Apollo 11	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	1:44	Local Origination	On Garden City, Long Island, the 50-year anniversary celebration of Apollo 11's moon-landing took place at the Cradle of Aviation Museum. The museum is home to a simulator that was practiced on by each of the astronauts who walked on the moon, as well as a fully-intact lunar module. Jen Maxfield reports.
17-July-19	Government and Politics	I-Team: Day 9 and Still No A.C. at NYCHA Centers	6:01 PM	6:04 PM	3:08	Local Origination	In West Harlem, NY, Mayor Bill de Blasio accused his administration of mishandling the city's ongoing air-conditioning situation. 49 of the 159 NYCHA centers are still without air conditioning. Community members have expressed frustration with Mayor de Blasio; many believe that he has been distracted by his presidential campaign. Melissa Russo reports.
18-July-19	Accidents and Disasters	Man Killed by Falling Tree Branch	5:17 PM	5:18 PM	1:00	Local Origination	In Fairfield, CT, lightning struck a tree and caused a branch to fall on a car and kill the driver. The driver's community spoke on how he will be deeply missed. Ken Buffa reports.
18-July-19	Housing	I-Team: Con Edison's Relay System Reliability	5:32 PM	5:35 PM	3:24	Local Origination	In Gramercy, NY, city leaders question whether Con Edison is spending enough money to modernize its relay protection systems. In 2013, Con Edison estimated that 90 percent of its electromechanical relays were out of date, though the company has spent no money to fix the issue. Chris Glorioso reports.
18-July-19	Children and Youth	Super Surfers	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	1:29	Local Origination	In Flatbush, Brooklyn, 9-year-old Logan Passe, through the guidance offered by Surf for All, learned how to surf despite having no legs. Passe was joined by other children who have had either one or both of their legs amputated. Greg Cergol reports.
19-July-19	Health	Coping with the Heat	5:32 PM	5:34 PM	1:40	Local Origination	In Manhattan, NY, the SRG team of the NYPD geared up to police the city while beating the heatwave. NYPD Chief of Patrol Rodney Harrison monitored the officers to make sure they stayed hydrated and healthy. Marc Santia reports.

19-July-19	Court and Legal Decisions	Waiting for Justice	5:47 PM	5:48 PM	1:43	Local Origination	On Long Island, NY, David O'Brien appears in court for a car accident in 2018 that killed two of his passengers. The judge granted his lawyer's plea to delay his sentence for another week, causing outrage from the victims' families. Greg Cergol reports.
19-July-19	Consumer	The Ice Cream Man of Rockaway Beach	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	2:39	Local Origination	In Rockaway Beach, Queens, Georgios and Ari Koscaris have been serving ice cream for the community for the past 30 years. Their sundaes and shakes have become a summer staple of Rockaway Beach. Drew Wilder reports.
19-July-19	Housing	I-Team: City Promises to Get NYCHA Centers Cool	6:05 PM	6:08 PM	3:00	Local Origination	In Harlem, NY, the Clinton Center NYCHA was able to continue its summer camp after getting new fans. However, at the Johnson Center NYCHA, senior citizens decided to cool off elsewhere since the center was still too warm. In the Manhattanville location, the new A.C. unit proved to work better, except for the gym. Melissa Russo reports.
20-July-19	Diversity	Visiones: El Museo Del Barrio Celebrates 50 Years	6:49 AM	6:52 AM	3:23	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero interviews Susanna Temkin and Rose May Cortes about El Museo Del Barrio's 50 th anniversary celebration. El Museo will put on a show and exhibit talking about its history, including a free summer block party.
21-July-19	Diversity	Positively Black: NamiNYCMetro.org	5:51 AM	5:55 AM	4:00	Local Origination	Tracie Strahan interviews Christina Bradley, the manager of support programs of the New York National Alliance of Mental Illness. They talk about the stigma of mental illness in the African American community, and steps people can take to get help.
22-July-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Cancellation Exemption?	4:54 PM	4:57 PM	3:13	Local Origination	In Chatham, NJ, John Cataldo booked a trip to the Dominican Republic's Hard Rock Hotel. He discovered that two people had died at that hotel and tried to cancel his trip. However, the hotel refused to refund his non-refundable deposit. Lynda Baquero reports.
22-July-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Wild Ride Leaves Trail of Destruction	5:07 PM	5:09 PM	2:00	Local Origination	In Jersey City, NJ, a driver hit multiple cars and pedestrians while attempting to escape police. The episode left the residential community shaken. Ida Siegal reports.

22-July-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Mother Pleads for Help Catching Son's Killer	5:15 PM	5:17 PM	2:00	Local Origination	On Long Island, NY family members of shooting victim are asking for help from the public to catch the victim's killer, Alejandro Vargas Diaz. One year ago, Diaz shot and killed the father of three after an argument. Police have a $5000 reward for information on his location. Greg Cergol reports.
22-July-19	Safety	I-Team: Camp Canceled Due to Rats	6:17 PM	6:20 PM	3:00	Local Origination	In East Harlem, NY, the Jackie Robison Community Center Camp was cancelled due to lack of sanitation. The compact room is next to the camp room, causing the rats to get trapped in the ceiling and bugs to multiply. NYCHA sanitized the space after the I-Team revealed they were working on a story, but the center is still dirty. Melissa Russo reports.
23-July-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Tree Trouble	4:44 PM	4:47 PM	2:42	Local Origination	In Carroll Gardens, Brooklyn, Jenia Molnar discovered that the roots of a tree are causing a wall in her basement to curve inwards. Molnar, however, cannot cut down the tree because it is technically not on her property and is owned by the MTA. Molnar has reached out to the MTA multiple times but has not received a response. Lynda Baquero reports.
23-July-19	Children and Youth	Making "Back to School" Better	4:56 PM	4:57 PM	1:29	Local Origination	In New Rochelle, NY, members of the Boys and Girls Club are preparing for the start of the next school year. The Boys and Girls Club will be partnering with NBC 4, Telemundo 47, and Raymour & Flanigan for the third annual installment of Supporting Our Schools, which will help students and teachers stock up on supplies for the coming year. Stacey Bell reports.
23-July-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Attacked Monk Gives Lessons in Forgiveness	5:30 PM	5:31 PM	1:36	Local Origination	In Queens, NY, Swami Harishchander Puri, a Hindu monk, was the victim of a surprise attack just a few blocks from his temple. Puri was hospitalized following the attack, but he remains committed to advocating for forgiveness rather than hatred. Gaby Acevedo reports.

24-July-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Retirement Account Payout	4:44 PM	4:47 PM	2:45	Local Origination	On Dix Hills, Long Island, Jonathan Schurz discusses his mom, Sally, who retired at the age of 84 after teaching special education at a public school in Brooklyn. When Sally passed away last November, Jonathan reached out to the Teacher's Retirement System (TRS) of the City of New York to receive Sally's retirement payout. However, Jonathan has yet to receive the payout. Lynda Baquero reports.
24-July-19	Funerals and Memorials	Funeral for FDNY Firefighter & 9/11 Hero	5:16 PM	5:18 PM	1:42	Local Origination	In Monroe, NY, people gathered to honor Richard Driscoll, who died at 73 to ailments stemming from working at the World Trade center in the aftermath of the 9/11 attacks. Driscoll is the 200 th firefighter to lose his life to a 9/11-related illness. Ida Siegal reports.
24-July-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Questionable Conviction	5:30 PM	5:32 PM	2:32	Local Origination	In Queens, NY, the family of convicted-murderer Robert Majors has not yet received a verdict on whether a judge will grant Majors a new hearing. The family appealed that prosecutors committed violations by withholding evidence that implicated someone else for the same crime. Other pieces of evidence have also recently surfaced that point to Majors' innocence. Chris Glorioso reports.
24-July-19	Poverty	Homeless Problems on the Rails	5:45 PM	5:47 PM	2:17	Local Origination	In Midtown, NY, the significant number of homeless individuals is causing problems, such as travel delays, across the MTA. The MTA has promised to increase outreach and decrease the number of homeless people by the end of the year. Gus Rosendale reports.
24-July-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Long Island Burglar Busted	5:50 PM	5:52 PM	1:36	Local Origination	On Oyster Bay, Long Island, cameras helped identify a suspected thief a year after he robbed multiple apartment complexes. Greg Cergol reports.

25-July-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Body Contouring Results	4:45 PM	4:48 PM	2:50	Local Origination	Joanne Lamb, from North Bergen, NJ, went to a Long Island doctor for six liposuction procedures. After having four procedures done, she didn't see any results. She asked for a full refund of the four procedures plus the deposit for the leftover two. Lynda Baquero reports.
25-July-19	Children & Youth	Students Volunteer For 'Supporting Our Schools'	4:54 PM	4:58 PM	2:00	Local Origination	On Long Island, children and volunteers gathered at the United Way of Long Island to set up their distribution center in preparation of the Supporting Our Schools campaign on Saturday. Stacey Bell reports.
25-July-19	Accidents and Disasters	Sinkhole Swallows Perth Amboy Street	5:15 PM	5:16 PM	1:30	Local Origination	In Perth Amboy, NJ, a 20-foot deep sinkhole swallowed the ground. There were no casualties or accidents, but the sewer main became compromised because of the heavy rainfall. Ida Siegal reports.
25-July-19	Transportation	New $58-Million Bike Safety Plan	5:43 PM	5:46 PM	3:00	Local Origination	In Bay Ridge, Brooklyn, Transportation Commissioner Polly Trottenberg proposed The Green Wave, which will cost $58.4 million and finance 'protected' bike lanes in New York. The plan comes as a response to Mayor Bill DeBlasio's initiatives and after 17 bikers were killed by cars this year alone. Andrew Siff reports.
25-July-19	Safety	New Problems at Infested Camp	5:59 PM	6:01 PM	2:00	Local Origination	In East Harlem, NY, sanitation visited the Jackie Robinson Community Center and deemed it unfit. In addition to the rats and roaches previously reported by the I-Team, sanitation found live maggots. Bill DeBlasio and NYCHA told The I-Team that they will be cracking down on the issues soon. Melissa Russo reports.

26-July-19	Education	Supporting our Schools – Marine Park	4:04 PM	4:06 PM	2:15	Local Origination	In Marine Park, Brooklyn, the third-annual Supporting Our Schools drive call-to-action day, benefitting low-income students, is set for July 27. All 62 Raymour & Flanigan stores in the Tri-State area will be collecting school supplies in conjunction with NBC 4 and Telemundo 47, benefitting the United Way and Boys & Girls Clubs of America. Dave Price reports during weather.
26-July-19	Education	Supporting our Schools – Marine Park	4:15 PM	4:18 PM	3:47	Local Origination	In Marine Park, Brooklyn, the third-annual Supporting Our Schools supply drive call-to-action day is set to July 27. Without the proper school supplies, students can fall behind in their studies, sometimes even prompting teachers to pay out-of-pocket for materials. Dave Price reports during a weather broadcast.
26-July-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Mysterious Withdrawl	4:45 PM	4:48 PM	2:50	Local Origination	On Ridge, Long Island, Donna Chorzepa's business account reported a fraudulent $19,258.50 withdrawal. Chase Bank replied that since it was a business-to-business transaction and that it was not reported within 24 hours, it would not refund the money. Lynda Baquero reports.
26-July-19	Education	Supporting our Schools – Marine Park	4:48 PM	4:52 PM	3:43	Local Origination	In Marine Park, Brooklyn, Raymour & Flanigan will be open and collecting school supplies on Saturday, July 27. Many families cannot afford the $500 that the average student spends on school supplies a year. Dave Price reports during a weather broadcast.
26-July-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Scammers Con Cancer Patient out of $18,000	5:01 PM	5:03 PM	1:59	Local Origination	In Ocean County, NJ, John recounts how his 76-year-old father, who is suffering from cancer, payed $18,000 through various gift cards to a scammer posing as the county's police chief. Brian Thompson reports.
26-July-19	Education	Supporting our Schools – Marine Park	5:20 PM	5:22 PM	2:12	Local Origination	In Marine Park, Brooklyn, Marielys Divanne, VP of Education at United Way of New York City, discusses how important it is for children to have the proper supplies when they begin school. Dave Price reports.

26-July-19	Accidents and Disasters	Suspicious Package Scare	5:32 PM	5:34 PM	1:48	Local Origination	In Queens, NY, a man who jumped in front of a train in an apparent suicide attempt also threw a backpack on the tracks. The suspicious shape of the bag prompted concerns that it contained a pipe bomb, but the NYPD bomb squad determined it was just a thermos. Eight trains were stopped for two hours during the investigation. Andrew Siff reports.
26-July-19	Consumer	New Jersey Balloon Festival	5:57 PM	5:58 PM	1:03	Local Origination	In Readington Township, NJ, over 100,000 people are expected to attend a hot air balloon festival this coming weekend. Hundreds of balloons with different designs and characters will be displayed. Stacey Bell reports.
26-July-19	Children and Youth	I-Team: Infested Camp to be Cleaned this Weekend	6:05 PM	6:07 PM	2:15	Local Origination	In East Harlem, NY, parents were told, yet again, that their children would be displaced from camp at the Jackie Robinson Center following reports of rats and maggots. The camp is scrambling to find creative ways to keep children outdoors so NYCHA can remedy the situation, despite their promising to do so a week prior. Melissa Russo reports.
27-July-19	Diversity	Visiones: "Arts for All Festival" On Lower East Side	6:46 AM	6:49 AM	3:00	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero interviews Nicole Morales, associate marketing director of Teatro Sea. Teatro Sea will hold the 6 th Arts for All Festival, a free outdoor festival that focuses on the celebration of Puerto Rican culture as it intersects with the other Latino identities in New York.
27-July-19	Education	Supporting our Schools – Garden City	7:11 AM	7:14 AM	3:00	Local Origination	On Garden City, Long Island, the third-annual Supporting Our Schools supply drive continues. Devera Lynn of United Way of Long Island discusses the positive impact the event has on the children. Darlene Rodriguez and Michael Gargiulo report.
27-July-19	Education	Supporting our Schools – Garden City	7:41 AM	7:45 AM	3:06	Local Origination	On Garden City, Long Island, Kishore Kuncham, superintendent of Freeport Public Schools, stresses how important it is that every child has the proper supplies at the start of the school year. Darlene Rodriguez and Michael Gargiulo report.

27-July-19	Education	Supporting our Schools – Garden City	11:59 AM	12:00 PM	1:00	Local Origination	On Garden City, Long Island, the third-annual Supporting Our Schools supply drive is underway. Darlene Rodriguez and Michael Gargiulo report.
27-July-19	Education	Supporting our Schools – Garden City	12:17 PM	12:18 PM	1:28	Local Origination	On Garden City, Long Island, Tom Bruno, executive director of the Boys & Girls Club of Hicksville, discusses the disadvantage that children are put at when they do not have the proper school supplies. Darlene Rodriguez and Michael Gargiulo report.
27-July-19	Education	Supporting our Schools – Paramus	12:43 PM	12:45 PM	1:28	Local Origination	In Paramus, NJ, the Paramus Raymour & Flanigan store hosts this year's Supporting Our Schools campaign, which will help several low-income families and students receive school supplies for the upcoming academic year. Natalie Pasquarella and Stefan Holt report.
27-July-19	Education	Supporting our Schools – Paramus	1:15 PM	1:16 PM	1:28	Local Origination	In Paramus, NJ, students Darielys Hierro and Keitty Lopez from the Boys & Girls Clubs of Lodi & Hackensack explain how important it is to start the school year off right with the proper school supplies. Natalie Pasquarella and Stefan Holt report.
27-July-19	Education	Supporting our Schools – Paramus	1:46 PM	1:47 PM	1:24	Local Origination	In Paramus, NJ, students Kevin Lopez and Pablo Batista from the Boys & Girls Clubs of Lodi & Hackensack talk about how the supply donations make them feel. Natalie Pasquarella and Stefan Holt report.
27-July-19	Education	Supporting our Schools – Bronx Terminal	2:16 PM	2:17 PM	1:09	Local Origination	In the Bronx, NY, the Raymour & Flanigan store at the Bronx Terminal Market hosts this year's Supporting Our Schools campaign, which will help several low-income families and students receive school supplies for the upcoming academic year. Gaby Acevedo reports.
27-July-19	Education	Supporting our Schools – Bronx Terminal	2:48 PM	2:50 PM	1:34	Local Origination	In the Bronx, NY, Marielys Divanne, VP of Education at United Way of New York City, discusses how important it is for children to have the proper supplies to face the new school year. Gaby Acevedo reports.

27-July-19	Education	Supporting our Schools – Bronx Terminal	3:16 PM	3:17 PM	1:34	Local Origination	In the Bronx, NY, Dominique R. Jones, the executive director of Boys & Girls Club of Harlem, discusses how important it is for children to have the proper supplies to succeed in school. Gaby Acevedo reports.
27-July-19	Education	Supporting our Schools – Bronx Terminal	3:48 PM	3:50 PM	1:34	Local Origination	In the Bronx, NY, Liz Dwyer from Raymour & Flanigan explains how excited the brand is to be in partnership for Supporting Our Schools, helping students and families. Gaby Acevedo reports.
28-July-19	Diversity	Positively Black: "Fela! The Concert" at Summerstage in Central Park	6:49 AM	6:53 AM	4:04	Local Origination	Tracie Strahan interviews actor Duain Richmond, Summerstage dance curator Danni Gee, and dancer Oneika Phillips. They speak on the process of bringing Broadway's "Fela! The Concert" to Central Park's Summerstage, and on representing Fela's legacy and artistry.
29-July-19	Animal Welfare and Adoption	New Jersey Officer Kills Rescue Dog	5:07 PM	5:09 PM	2:18	Local Origination	In Vernon, NJ, a dog named Hero was rescued three years ago by a family from Vernon. A police officer was looking for a dog whom he believed was aggressive, and a neighbor pointed to Hero, prompting the officer to shoot and kill the animal. Ida Siegal reports.
29-July-19	Safety	Push for Beach Umbrella Safety	5:24 PM	5:26 PM	2:00	Local Origination	In Manasquan, NJ, U.S. Senator Robert Menendez urged the U.S. Consumer Product Safety Commission to have better regulations for beach umbrellas. Several beach-goers get hurt yearly by unsecured beach umbrellas that fly away easily because of wind. Brian Thompson reports.
29-July-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Search for Block Party Shooting Suspects	5:29 PM	5:31 PM	2:12	Local Origination	In Brooklyn, NY, police discovered that several of 12 victims of the 'Old Timers Festival' shooting were gang members. Police are still searching for the suspects and for the motive. Drew Wilder reports.
29-July-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Tragic Trend in the NYPD	5:37 PM	5:40 PM	3:00	Local Origination	The NYPD is making changes to its mental health counseling procedures after a 5th police officer died by suicide in just 8 weeks. Pei-Sze Cheng reports.

30-July-19	Court and Legal Decisions	Alleged Hit & Run Driver Appears in Court	5:03 PM	5:05 PM	2:00	Local Origination	On Central Islip, Long Island, an AutoZone delivery driver appears in court today for running over two people and killing one of them. Police charged him with leaving the scene of an accident, facing a maximum sentence of 7 years in prison. Erica Byfield reports.
30-July-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Man Spotted Defecating Outside S.I. Home	5:05 PM	5:07 PM	2:00	Local Origination	On Eltingville, Staten Island, the Staten Island district attorney tweeted out surveillance footage of a man defecating on an Eltingville street. This has happened twice this month, on the same spot. Neighbors do not recognize the man but are distraught by the situation. Rana Novini reports.
30-July-19	Accidents and Disasters	Train Operator Saves Woman on Tracks	5:14 PM	5:17 PM	2:32	Local Origination	In Fort Greene, NY, a woman jumped onto the train tracks at the Fulton Street Station. A passenger waved down the train operator, who was able to stop the train in time. Ida Siegal reports.
30-July-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Family Frustrated Over 'Most Wanted' Case	6:18 PM	6:21 PM	3:34	Local Origination	Angel Gonzalez is on the Essex County 'Most Wanted' list for sexual assault. The aunt of one of his victims wants police to better update the 'Most Wanted' website and to put more effort into finding Gonzalez, as he is a dangerous child rapist. Chris Glorioso reports.
31-July-19	Animal Welfare and Adoption	Cat Fight on Long Island	5:15 PM	5:17 PM	1:29	Local Origination	On Nassau County, Long Island, 33-year-old Rebecca Katz stole a cat from the couple she worked as a nanny for after learning they intended to euthanize him. Katz turned herself into police on July 8, maintaining that the cat is not terminally ill and that she deserves custody of him. Gaby Acevedo reports.
31-July-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Felony Level Water Fight?	5:31 PM	5:33 PM	2:00	Local Origination	In Lower Manhattan, NY, recent water bucket attacks on police officers have led several politicians and NYPD officials to campaign for turning the offenses into felonies. Erica Byfield reports.

31-July-19	Consumer	Still not Ready to Roll	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	1:53	Local Origination	In North Wildwood, NJ, the grand opening of the new rollercoaster, Runaway Tram, has been postponed since July 2. Visitors continue to anxiously await the ride's opening. Ted Greenberg reports.
1-August-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: R. Kelly Lands in New Jersey	5:02 PM	5:04 PM	1:50	Local Origination	In Teterboro Airport, NJ, R. Kelly was recently transported to a jail cell in Brooklyn where he will await his court appearance on Aug. 2. Kelly will face racketeering and sex-trafficking charges. Jonathan Dienst reports.
1-August-19	Court and Legal Decisions	Family Sues Long Island Superintendent Accused of Deleting Student's Grades	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	1:42	Local Origination	On Long Island, NY, Dimitri Funderburke-Ivey finished his senior year of high school three years ago but has no diploma to show for it. Funderburke-Ivey was unable to graduate because he had no record of completing tenth grade; his attorney alleges that the superintendent of the Roosevelt school district deleted his record. Greg Cergol reports.
1-August-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Twist in 'Serial Impersonator' Case	6:16 PM	6:20 PM	3:31	Local Origination	In Paterson, NJ, Leonard Miles maintains that he is a legal law enforcement officer despite being charged with impersonation and illegal gun possession. Miles has been labeled as a "serial impersonator," though he can defend himself in an ongoing court case. Sarah Wallace reports.
2-August-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Summer Phone Dangers	4:45 PM	4:46 PM	1:41	Local Origination	In Manhattan, NY, Asurion, a gadget insurance company, says summer can bring spiking claims for cracked screens or water damage. A spokesperson for the insurance company shares tips on how you can prevent your phone from breaking this summer. Lynda Baquero reports.
2-August-19	Consumer	Strong Summer Down the Shore	5:50 PM	5:52 PM	1:51	Local Origination	In Cape May, NJ, the 97 th annual baby parade recently took place. The area has been popular during the summer, as beach tag sales in Cape May increased by $42,630 through July 31. Ted Greenberg reports.

2-August-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Black Market Bust	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	1:40	Local Origination	On Nassau County, Long Island, fake e-cigarette products were being sold at five Long Island stores. $1.5 million in the counterfeit products were seized; officials believe a father and his two sons are behind the scheme. Greg Cergol reports.
3-August-19	Diversity	Visiones: Young at Arts	6:22 AM	6:26 AM	3:28	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero talks with Sharyn Pirtle, founder of Young at Arts, and Kat Rodriguez, director at Young at Arts. Many studies have proven that music-education has positive effects on children's performance at school and overall well-being. Young at Arts has had success at various locations in Westchester County and is preparing for an upcoming summer festival in Puerto Rico.
4-August-19	Diversity	Positively Black: The Dad Gang	6:49 AM	6:54 AM	4:54	Local Origination	Tracie Strahan interviews representatives of The Dad Gang, including its founder, Sean Williams. The Dad Gang is an organization that looks to confront the negative stigmas associated with black fathers. The evolving organization currently creates "dad link-ups" for black dads and their kids, including events such as brunches, karaokes, and "strollin' with the homies" for fathers to walk together with their kids in strollers.
5-August-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Cruise to Cuba Canceled	4:44 PM	4:47 PM	2:50	Local Origination	In Port Jefferson Station, NY, Marty Morris purchased a cruise package to Cuba and airplane tickets to meet the cruise in Miami. After the government banned cruise ships from going to Cuba, American Airlines refused to refund Marty's plane tickets. Lynda Baquero reports.
5-August-19	Safety	Training for Tragedy	5:06 PM	5:07 PM	1:20	Local Origination	In Suffolk County, NY, Detective Cliff Lent held a seminar teaching how to protect yourself in case of a shooting. Greg Cergol reports.

5-August-19	Accidents and Disasters	6 Hurt in Bronx Apartment Fire	5:08 PM	5:10 PM	2:00	Local Origination	In the Concourse section of the Bronx, NY, a fire started on the ground level of a building, inside a grocery store. It caused major damage to the building and to a coffee shop. Residents of the complex lost everything, but there were no fatalities. Gaby Acevedo reports.
5-August-19	Housing	I-Team: Report: Illegal Construction Concerns	6:17 PM	6:21 PM	3:50	Local Origination	In Ramapo, NY, Senator James Skoufis will release a report in which he examines illegal housing and code violations in several New York cities. The report is also critical to mismanagement in Mount Vernon and its history of corruption. Sarah Wallace reports.
6-August-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Tourist Visa Double Charge	4:44 PM	4:46 PM	2:21	Local Origination	In Rockaway, NJ, a woman applied for a tourist visa to India for her son. She applied once but noticed a mistake and cancelled the request. She then submitted a new application but was charged twice. Lynda Baquero reports.
6-August-19	Education	Teachers Back in the Classroom	4:56 PM	4:57 PM	1:52	Local Origination	In Manhattan, NY, Kim and Ruth, two New York public school teachers, participate in the Columbia University Summer Science Research Program. The program allows teachers to learn and research while gathering new skills to teach their students in the new school year. Gaby Acevedo reports.
6-August-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Man Hangs onto Hood of SUV During Robbery	5:30 PM	5:32 PM	2:10	Local Origination	In Belleville, NJ, two thieves broke into James Dillon's home and stole his car. To stop the thieves, James jumped on the hood of his car and held on for two miles before falling off. James is recuperating from injuries, and his car was recovered in Newark. Ida Siegal reports.
6-August-19	Government and Politics	I-Team: Disqualified Votes in the Queens D.A. Race	6:16 PM	6:20 PM	4:00	Local Origination	In Queens, NY, several affidavit ballots did not count for the recent D.A. election. Common Cause New York, which acts as a watchdog for the New York Board of Elections, has fought against several wrongful NYBOE procedures and states that the Board is still not acting as lawfully as it should be. Chris Glorioso reports.

7-August-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Hospital Bill	4:46 PM	4:48 PM	2:07	Local Origination	In South Plainfield, NJ, Michael Canavan received a hospital bill of over $62,000 after a gruesome motorcycle accident. His insurer, Horizon Blue Cross Blue Shield of New Jersey, covered the cost but refused to pay the additional $3,000 surgeon fee. Lynda Baquero reports.
7-August-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Backfires Made to Mimic Gunfire	5:34 PM	5:37 PM	3:48	Local Origination	In Times Square, NY, chaos spread quickly when people mistakenly equated a motorcycle's exhaust to gunshots. The I-Team covered a story earlier in the year about "straight pipe exhaust," which is an illegal modification that makes vehicles louder and sound like gun fire. Investigators are looking into whether the Times Square motorcycle had exhaust modifications. Chris Glorioso reports.
7-August-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Climbing for a Cause	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	1:57	Local Origination	In Manhattan, NY, three NYPD officers recount their experiences climbing Mt. Kilimanjaro to raise money for pediatric cancer. John Chandler reports.
8-August-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Debit Card Charges	4:45 PM	4:48 PM	3:10	Local Origination	In Montclair, NJ, Shari Fox was fraudulently charged roughly $1,000 by Facebook. She received $400 back from her bank, but Facebook took a year to refund her the remaining $600. Lynda Baquero reports.
8-August-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Police: Man Kills Wife in Queens Salon	5:12 PM	5:15 PM	2:10	Local Origination	In Jackson Heights, Queens, a man barged into a nail salon and stabbed his wife to death. Some salon workers tried to stop him but were unsuccessful. Katherine Creag reports.
8-August-19	Accidents and Disasters	Saving a Life in the Subway	5:45 PM	5:47 PM	1:50	Local Origination	In Brooklyn, NY, MTA worker Anthony Mannino heard a woman screaming from the train tracks as a train approached. Anthony signaled to Train Driver Larry Moreno, so he could stop the train. After being saved, the woman vanished. Marc Santia reports.
8-August-19	Children and Youth	I-Team: Infested Camp Remains Closed for 2 Weeks	6:17 PM	6:20 PM	2:40	Local Origination	In East Harlem, NY, Mayor Bill de Blasio promised in July to clean up the Jackie Robinson Community Center. However, the Center is still infested with rats and maggots, forcing its summer camp to remain closed. Melissa Russo reports.

9-August-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Mother of Shooting Victim Says he was Trying to Stop Gunman	5:04 PM	5:06 PM	2:29	Local Origination	In Irvington, NJ, Celina Williams claims that her son—an unnamed 20-year-old—was shot and killed trying to prevent Kaizen Crossen from firing his weapon and ultimately injuring three police officers. Tracie Strahan reports.
9-August-19	Safety	Surviving a Lightning Strike	5:47 PM	5:49 PM	1:29	Local Origination	In Chatham, NJ, Brendan Darby describes his experience of being struck by lightning. Darby was disoriented by the lightning but was able to return home after spending two hours at the hospital. Gaby Acevedo reports.
9-August-19	Consumer	Beach Season Bonus	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	1:46	Local Origination	In Seaside Heights, NJ, beach pass prices will be discounted for the remaining weeks of August. Business owners hope this will bring more people to the beach and their stores. Ted Greenberg reports.
10-August-19	Diversity	Visiones: NY Latino Film Festival	6:45 AM	6:50 AM	4:21	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero interviews Calixto Chinchilla, founder of the NY Latino Film Festival, about the impressive growth of the festival. Armando Riesco also discusses his film “Seneca,” which will be on display during the festival. Angel Sanchez, actor for “Churros,” discusses his experiences on-set.
11-August-19	Diversity	Positively Black: Classical Theatre of Harlem	6:48 AM	6:52 AM	4:11	Local Origination	Tracie Strahan interviews Ty Jones, the producing artistic director for the Classical Theatre of Harlem. Jones discusses the strategies he uses to engage children in classical theatre. To Jones, the Classical Theatre of Harlem—a free program—is integral because it not only helps educate children, but also builds their confidence.
11-August-19	Animal Welfare and Adoption	Clear the Shelters: Little Wanderers Holding 2 Adoption Events	10:20 AM	10:24 AM	4:10	Local Origination	Courtney Chandel, co-founder of Little Wanderers—a cat rescue based in New York City — shares the backgrounds of four rescued cats. Since the start of 2019, Little Wanderers has rescued over 800 cats, and the organization will host two adoption events for Clear the Shelters. Rana Novini reports.

12-August-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Policy for Auto Repairs	4:55 PM	4:58 PM	3:00	Local Origination	In Clark, NJ, Lisa Glackin bought her son, Matthew, a used truck and payed Delta Auto Protect $1,438 for a three-year policy. However, when the truck required a steering wheel repair, Delta Auto Protect did not pay for it. Lynda Baquero reports.
12-August-19	Court and Legal Decisions	I-Team: Hempstead Building Dept. to be Audited	5:46 PM	5:48 PM	2:15	Local Origination	In Oceanside, Long Island, the Hempstead Building Department's failure to adequately assess buildings following Hurricane Sandy has led politicians, including Town Supervisor Laura Gillen, to push for an audit. Pei-Sze Cheng reports.
12-August-19	Safety	I-Team: Camp Building Fails Inspection	6:07 PM	6:11 PM	3:23	Local Origination	In Harlem, NY, a summer camp previously located at the Jackie Robinson NYCHA Center has again been cancelled despite plans to relocate to a public school. This is the fourth time that this camp has been cancelled due to building complications. Melissa Russo reports.
13-August-19	Animal Welfare and Adoption	Clear the Shelters: Annual Adoption Event this Weekend	5:43 AM	5:46 AM	2:58	Local Origination	In Teterboro, NJ, pets at the Bergen County Animal Shelter await Clear the Shelters this Saturday, August 17 in hopes of finding a forever home. The SPCA of Westchester will also be participating in the event and have many young and old pets hoping to be adopted. Jen Maxfield reports.
13-August-19	Animal Welfare and Adoption	Clear the Shelters: Annual Adoption Event this Saturday	4:12 PM	4:14 PM	1:58	Local Origination	This Saturday, August 17, the fifth annual Clear the Shelters pet-adoption event will kick off. Rescued pets at the Bergen County Animal Shelter, Ridgefield Operation for Animal Rescue and SPCA of Westchester hope to find their forever homes. Jen Maxfield reports.
13-August-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Travel Scam Warning	4:44 PM	4:47 PM	3:13	Local Origination	In Fort Lee, NJ, Jackie Ross scheduled a flight to Vietnam using Expedia, but when she tried to upgrade her seating she fell victim to a travel scam that mimicked Expedia's services. Ross was asked to pay using gift cards from Google Play and Ebay, ultimately giving the scammers nearly $13,000. Lynda Baquero reports.

13-August-19	Education	Teaching the History of Hate	5:16 PM	5:17 PM	1:35	Local Origination	On Nassau County, recent acts of vandalism by minors—including spray-painting swastikas and nooses—has prompted politicians to push for mandatory school lessons on symbols of hate. Greg Cergol reports.
13-August-19	Transportation	14 th Street Busway Battle	5:55 PM	5:58 PM	3:00	Local Origination	In Union Square, NY, Arthur Schwartz sued to block a proposed 18-month trial that would only allow buses and deliveries on 14 th Street, between 3 rd and 9 th Avenues. Members of the community are protesting this block. Andrew Siff reports.
13-August-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Harvard Grad Mystery Death	5:59 PM	6:03 PM	3:45	Local Origination	In Ozone Park, Queens, Maryse Heriveaux is frustrated by the lack of answers she has received from the NYPD two months after the death of her 36-year-old son, Anthony Sylvester. All Maryse knows is that Anthony's body was found on the second floor of a run-down Brooklyn apartment with his phone missing. The cause of Anthony's death is still being investigated, though Maryse claims she has been kept entirely out of the loop. Sarah Wallace reports.
14-August-19	Animal Welfare and Adoption	Clear the Shelters: Rescue Dogs Waiting for Their Forever Homes	4:13 PM	4:16 PM	3:19	Local Origination	In Madison, NJ, rescue dogs at the St. Hubert's Animal Welfare Center hope to find their forever homes during Clear the Shelters this Saturday, Aug. 17. In June, this shelter took in nearly 200 unkempt dogs after an investigation into a top New Jersey breeder uncovered cruel conditions. Pat Battle reports.
14-August-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Buying Concert Tickets	4:44 PM	4:47 PM	2:54	Local Origination	In Toms River, NJ, Susan Perez bought tickets from ticketscenter.com to see Billy Idol in concert. However, the tickets were not expected to arrive on time, and Perez has not been assigned seats. Lynda Baquero reports.
14-August-19	Court and Legal Decisions	Lawsuits Filed as Child Victims Act Goes into Effect in New York	5:31 PM	5:34 PM	2:44	Local Origination	In New York, as of Aug. 14, victims of sexual abuse can file charges no matter how long ago the incident occurred. Rana Novini reports.

14-August-19	Children & Youth	Local Little League Team Honors NJ State Trooper	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	1:30	Local Origination	In Elizabeth, NJ, Little League players for the Elmora Youth League honor Trooper Thomas Hanratty, a former player for Elmora who died in the line of duty in 1992. John Chandler reports.
15-August-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Trip Cancellation Coverage	4:45 PM	4:48 PM	3:10	Local Origination	In Carlstadt, NJ, Geri Sabia bought a plane ticket to Orlando, including cancelation insurance. When the trip approached, she became ill and could not fly anymore, so she cancelled the trip hoping to be refunded. However, United Airlines denied her request. Lynda Baquero reports.
15-August-19	Accidents and Disasters	Search for Driver After Hit-and-Run Crash	5:29 PM	5:31 PM	2:50	Local Origination	In Jamaica, Queens, a man was walking in front of York College when he was hit by a car. That intersection worries the community for being extremely dangerous and constantly busy. Gaby Acevedo reports.
15-August-19	Children and Youth	I-Team: Mayor Makes Amends for Kids Camps Nightmare	5:44 PM	5:48 PM	3:40	Local Origination	In Kensington, Brooklyn, Mayor de Blasio gifted kids in NYCHA summer camps different experiences, such as trips to Zoos and Broadway tickets. The gifts come as an apology after the unsanitary conditions of the NYCHA Centers and the closing of summer camps. Melissa Russo reports.
15-August-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Gun Scare at NJ Walmart	5:59 PM	6:02 PM	2:30	Local Origination	In Union Township, NJ, a man shoplifted a toy gun, which another shopper mistook for a real gun. She alerted authorities, which caused the Walmart to temporarily close and shoppers to be evacuated. Brian Thompson reports.
15-August-19	Court and Legal Decisions	I-Team: Parking Privilege or Punishment?	6:17 PM	6:20 PM	3:13	Local Origination	In Manhattan, NY, Port Authority is being sued by parking lot owners who were required to pay a fee for operating parking lots and airport shuttles near New York's three major airports. The lawsuit came after Port Authority failed to comply with their part of the contract as well as not regulate illegal parking lots. Pei-Sze Cheng reports.

16-August-19	Animal Welfare & Adoption	One More Day Until Clear the Shelters	4:13 PM	4:16 PM	2:40	Local Origination	In Port Washington, NY, Rachel Rudman, the Kennel Manager for North Shore Animal League America, explains the procedures for their shelter's Clear the Shelters day, and provides insight on cats and kittens. Lauren Scala reports.
16-August-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Questionable Charge	4:46 PM	4:48 PM	2:15	Local Origination	In Croton-On-Hudson, NY, Sara Mills-Cohen got a $1,902 charge from Airbnb for a purchase she had not made. When she disputed the charge, Airbnb refused to refund her. Lynda Baquero reports.
16-August-19	Animal Welfare & Adoption	Couple believes Family Dog Was Stolen	5:04 PM	5:06 PM	2:00	Local Origination	On Levittown, Long Island, a couple believes that their dog was stolen from inside their fenced yard. The couple will give a reward to whoever returns them the dog safely. Greg Cergol reports.
16-August-19	Animal Welfare & Adoption	Countdown to Clear the Shelters	5:15 PM	5:17 PM	2:10	Local Origination	In Port Washington, NY, Sean-Patrick Molloy, the operations manager for North Shore Animal League America, talks about adoptable-Pitbull Cosmo, and explains the procedures for their shelter's Clear the Shelters day. Lauren Scala reports.
16-August-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Emotional Plea in Hit & Run Case	5:45 PM	5:47 PM	2:18	Local Origination	In the Bronx, NY, Christopher Nieves was killed by a hit-and-run on Father's Day. The police have still not arrested the suspect, even though they have apprehended the car. The family demands justice. Gaby Acevedo reports.
16-August-19	Animal Welfare & Adoption	5 th Annual Pet Adoption Drive Tomorrow	6:21 PM	6:22 PM	1:17	Local Origination	In Port Washington, NY, North Shore Animal League America will waive adoption fees for dogs and cats one-year or older as part of Clear the Shelters . Lauren Scala reports.
17-August-19	Animal Welfare & Adoption	Rescue Dogs Waiting for Their Forever Homes	6:19 AM	6:21 AM	2:28	Local Origination	In Monmouth County, NJ, 200 Russell Terriers were rescued and brought to St. Hubert's Animal Welfare Center. The center is hoping to adopt out even more pets during this year's Clear the Shelters . Pat Battle reports.

17-August-19	Diversity	Visiones: "Census & The City: Overcoming NYC's Digital Divide in the 2020 Census"	6:45 AM	6:48 AM	3:00	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero interviews New York City Comptroller Scott Stringer about the Census. Since the new Census requires broadband internet, the government wants to increase broadband capacity around the city to increase submissions.
17-August-19	Animal Welfare & Adoption	Clear the Shelters	8:42 AM	8:45 AM	3:08	Local Origination	On Bay Shore, Long Island, Teri Giacalone, the shelter director of Islip Town Shelter explains the procedures for their shelter's Clear the Shelters day. Greg Cergol reports.
17-August-19	Animal Welfare & Adoption	Islip Town Shelter	10:17 AM	10:19 AM	1:17	Local Origination	On Bay Shore, Long Island, the doctor of Islip Town Shelter talks which vaccines dogs and cats should get once they are adopted. Greg Cergol reports.
17-August-19	Animal Welfare & Adoption	Humane Society of Westchester	10:45 AM	10:47 AM	1:30	Local Origination	In New Rochelle, NY, Lee Anne Veley, from the Humane Society of Westchester Board of Directors, explains that the shelter currently has 150 cats in need of adoption. Stefan Holt and Natalie Pasquarella report.
17-August-19	Animal Welfare & Adoption	Humane Society of Westchester	11:14 AM	11:16 AM	1:33	Local Origination	In New Rochelle, NY, Ferdie Yao, the staff dog trainer for the Humane Society of Westchester, encourages viewers to adopt a pet on National Clear the Shelters day. Stefan Holt and Natalie Pasquarella report.
17-August-19	Animal Welfare & Adoption	Humane Society of Westchester	11:47 AM	11:48 AM	1:31	Local Origination	In New Rochelle, NY, the Bryan family adopted puppy Max during Clear the Shelters day. Stefan Holt and Natalie Pasquarella report.
17-August-19	Animal Welfare & Adoption	Bideawee	12:14 PM	12:16 PM	1:32	Local Origination	In Murray Hill, NY, Leslie Granger, the president and CEO of Bideawee, talks about Horton, a 7-year-old dog that is up for adoption. Adam Kuperstein reports.
17-August-19	Animal Welfare & Adoption	Bideawee	2:59 PM	3:00 PM	1:03	Local Origination	In Murray Hill, NY, Ryan Eggold of NBC's New Amsterdam explains the importance of adopting a pet. Adam Kuperstein reports.
17-August-19	Animal Welfare & Adoption	Bideawee	4:35 PM	4:36 PM	0:34	Local Origination	In Murray Hill, NY, Ryan Eggold of NBC's New Amsterdam showcases the success of Bideawee during Clear the Shelters day. Adam Kuperstein reports.

17-August-19	Animal Welfare & Adoption	Tri-State Breaks Record with 12k+ Adoptions	11:10 PM	11:12 PM	2:47	Local Origination	In Montclair, NJ, Molly Debarros talks about Stella, a special needs dog she just adopted from Montclair Township Animal Shelter. Stella was one of the thousands of pets adopted in the tri-state area thanks to Clear the Shelters . Janice Huff reports.
18-August-19	Diversity	Positively Black	6:50 AM	6:55 AM	4:40	Local Origination	Tracie Strahan interviews Yusuf Hasan and Jasmine Robinson about the African American Day Parade. They explain how the parade focuses in areas that will strengthen, honor and showcase the community.
19-August-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Dinner Cruise Location	4:44 PM	4:47 PM	2:50	Local Origination	On Glen Cove, Long Island, Laurie Kutscea's business's address was deleted from Google, despite Laurie sending in several documents and information proving its legitimacy. Lynda Baquero reports.
19-August-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Violent Home Invasion	5:30 PM	5:32 PM	2:00	Local Origination	In Maplewood, NJ, two armed-robbers entered a home from the bathroom window and held the homeowners at gunpoint. The robbers fired a shot at the couple, and police are investigating the case. Rana Novini reports.
19-August-19	Health	Living on Bottled Time	5:50 PM	5:52 PM	2:00	Local Origination	In Newark, NJ, tap water is contaminated with lead. Families must use bottled water for everyday activities, which proves an inconvenience for older members of the community. Brian Thompson reports.
20-August-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Catering Hall Deposit	4:45 PM	4:48 PM	3:00	Local Origination	In Cypress Hills, Brooklyn, Anais Valdez booked an event space with a catering venue. The company told her it would return her the $300 deposit but have yet to do so. Lynda Baquero reports.
20-August-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Search for Stolen Dog	5:06 PM	5:07 PM	1:00	Local Origination	In the Bushwick section of Brooklyn, two men stole a dog who was tied to a food stand. The dog, who is 11-years-old, needs medication, and his owner wants him back home safely. Marc Santia reports.

20-August-19	Transportation	NJ Transit Passenger Falls onto Tracks When Doors on the Wrong Side Open	5:45 PM	5:47 PM	2:00	Local Origination	In Secaucus, NJ, a NJ Transit train opened its doors on the track side instead of on the platform side. A man, consequently, fell out, and passengers started screaming. NJ Transit is blaming it on human error. Tracie Strahan reports.
20-August-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: A Mother's Journey for Justice	6:04 PM	6:08 PM	3:20	Local Origination	In Nassau County, Johmeik Simmons died of a gunshot wound in 2016, and police ruled it a suicide. His mother believes it was a homicide, hiring an independent team to investigate and to fight for justice. Sarah Wallace reports.
21-August-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Prepaid Vacation Trouble	4:45 PM	4:48 PM	2:45	Local Origination	On Smithtown, Long Island, Lisa Slattery booked a vacation package for her and her family through a travel agency. The agency, however, proved to be unreliable and left Lisa out of more than $3,000 plus the price of the package. Lynda Baquero reports.
21-August-19	Education	Families Search for New School After Closure	5:00 PM	5:02 PM	2:00	Local Origination	In Congers, NY, Rockland Country Day School is closing due to low enrollment and funding. Families are now scrambling to find their children a new school. Ken Buffa reports.
21-August-19	Health	Water Worries in Newark	5:51 PM	5:52 PM	1:39	Local Origination	In Newark, NJ, some residents are buying bottled water in fear of lead contamination, even though the lead is only affecting the tap water of the other side of town. Brian Thompson reports.
22-August-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Credit Help Refund	4:45 PM	4:48 PM	3:08	Local Origination	On Uniondale, Long Island, Maria Messias answered a radio show's trivia question correctly. As a prize, they connected her with a company that promised a credit-repair service. The company, however, charged her for the service without completing it. Lynda Baquero reports.
22-August-19	Health	Water Pouring into Newark	5:14 PM	5:17 PM	3:07	Local Origination	In Newark, NJ, Bishop Jethro James and the Paradise Baptist Church organized a water collection movement for the Newark community. Several organizations, like Coca-Cola and a team from Flint, Michigan, have sent donations. Brian Thompson reports.

22-August-19	Education	School Fights to Save Sports Teams	5:46 PM	5:49 PM	2:30	Local Origination	On Wyandanch, Long Island, the Wyandanch High School's sports programs are all on hold because the district failed to pass its budget for the school year. The district needs $300,000 to restart its programs. Rana Novini reports.
22-August-19	Health	I-Team: Flu Vaccine Delays	6:06 PM	6:08 PM	1:50	Local Origination	In New York, Sanofi Pasteur, the largest flu vaccine manufacturer, has shipment delays. This worries pediatricians, who need to administer two spaced-out doses in small children. Melissa Russo reports.
23-August-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Warning About Con Ed Impersonators	5:30 PM	5:32 PM	1:56	Local Origination	In Washington Heights, NY, two people who pretended to be Con Ed workers entered an apartment building and knocked on several doors. One of them tried to grab a teenage girl as she walked past them in a stairwell. Erica Byfield reports.
23-August-19	Transportation	Newark Warning of Gridlock Nightmare	5:46 PM	5:48 PM	1:40	Local Origination	In Newark, NJ, downtown businesses are closing early due to the gridlock from the MTV Music Video Awards happening at the Prudential Center. Brian Thompson reports.
23-August-19	Animal Welfare and Adoption	Coyote Warning in Connecticut	5:57 PM	5:58 PM	1:30	Local Origination	In New Canaan, CT, Animal Control is urging pet owners to protect their pets against coyotes after two dogs were attacked. Pet owners need to be alert and ready to act upon seeing a coyote. Ken Buffa reports.
24-August-19	Diversity	Visiones: 'Promotores de Salud' Program	6:45 AM	6:49 AM	3:24	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero interviews Daisy Walker and Larissa Vasquez of Planned Parenthood of New York City. They explain the 'Promotores de Salud' program, composed of health educators and advocates for the latinx community.
25-August-19	Diversity	Positively Black: "Calling All Brothers"	6:51 AM	6:56 PM	4:23	Local Origination	Tracie Strahan interviews Pastor AJ Johnson, the founder of "Calling All Brothers." The program gathers mostly black men to greet Connecticut students as they arrive for their first day of school.
26-August-19	Accidents and Disasters	17 Year Old Killed by Hit-and-Run Driver	5:03 PM	5:06 PM	2:40	Local Origination	On Long Island, NY, at Port Jefferson Station, a driver struck and killed a teenager while she crossed a busy intersection. Police are looking for the driver. Greg Cergol reports.

26-August-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Brazen Diamond District Heist	5:30 PM	5:32 PM	2:00	Local Origination	In Midtown, NY, three men walked into a jewelry store pretending to be customers and robbed it. Police said they may have stolen millions of dollars' worth of jewelry. Gus Rosendale reports
26-August-19	Accidents and Disasters	2 Teens Dead, 4 Hurt in Car Crash	6:02 PM	6:04 PM	2:06	Local Origination	In Stamford, CT, two teens died and four were severely injured after a car crash. Police say speeding was the main factor for the accident. Gaby Acevedo reports.
27-August-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Drugs on Demand?	5:02 PM	5:04 PM	2:05	Local Origination	In Newark, NJ, police arrested 31 suspects of a big drug operation. The suspects were apprehended in a makeshift, casino-like gambling spot in Newark. Police are still looking for another 16 co-conspirators. Brian Thompson reports.
27-August-19	Accidents and Disasters	Worker Killed in Partial Building Collapse	5:59 PM	6:01 PM	2:04	Local Origination	In the Norwood section of the Bronx, a building collapsed, severely injuring two workers and killing one. The City's Department calls this a 'preventable tragedy,' and the DOB continues to investigate it. Gus Rosendale reports.
27-August-19	Housing	I-Team: Housing Boom Battle	6:16 PM	6:20 PM	4:22	Local Origination	In Ramapo, NY, the organization CUPON is suing to stop a multi-unit condominium project from building in a peaceful, family-only residential area. Opposers accuse the organization of being anti-Semitic. Sarah Wallace reports.
28-August-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	State Police to Investigate Anti-Semitic Attack	5:05 PM	5:07 PM	3:17	Local Origination	In Crown Heights, Brooklyn, a Rabbi was hit with an alleged man-made rock while he exercised in a park. A new surveillance video gave police images of the suspect. Ray Villeda reports.
28-August-19	Transportation	Hoboken's Vision Zero Plan	5:46 PM	5:47 PM	1:54	Local Origination	In Hoboken, NJ, Mayor Ravi Bhalla wants to turn Hoboken into the first city to go without any deaths or injuries from motor vehicle/bike/pedestrian accidents. He recently signed a Vision Zero plan. Brian Thompson reports.
28-August-19	Accidents and Disasters	Helping When It's Needed Most	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	2:12	Local Origination	In Paterson, NJ, Straight and Narrow, a drug treatment center, was burnt down. The Father English Community Center offered the 200 plus people affected shelter and food. Pat Battle reports.

29-August-19	Transportation	Kosciuszko Bridge Officially Opens	5:07 PM	5:09 PM	1:40	Local Origination	In Queens, NY, the new span of the Kosciuszko Bridge has officially opened. The bridge is expected to handle 200,000 drivers per day, and it also has two lanes for bikers and joggers. Katherine Creag reports.
29-August-19	Housing	Business Causing A Neighborhood Stink	5:12 PM	5:14 PM	2:28	Local Origination	In West Haverstraw, NY, a portable toilet company utilizes its outdoor space to store its portable toilets, which creates a foul smell. Residents of the surrounding area are complaining about the stench. Rana Novini reports.
29-August-19	Court and Legal Decisions	I-Team: Drinking & New York's Rape Law	6:15 PM	6:19 PM	3:50	Local Origination	Attorneys and sexual assault survivors are pushing to pass legislation to protect rape victims who were too inebriated to consent to sex. Chris Glorioso reports.
30-August-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Hunts Point Cocaine Bust	5:05 PM	5:07 PM	2:00	Local Origination	In the Hunts Point section of the Bronx, police found $10 million worth of cocaine inside of a shipping container in an autobody shop. Erica Byfield reports.
30-August-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Queens Fatal Police-Involved Shooting	5:33 PM	5:34 PM	1:54	Local Origination	In Queens, NY, a drug dispute between gang members lead to a shooting outside a bodega. Police responded to the scene, and the suspect started a shootout with the NYPD. Erica Byfield reports.
30-August-19	Accidents and Disasters	5-Year-Old Crushed by Stone Fence	6:04 PM	6:06 PM	2:23	Local Origination	In Bushwick, Brooklyn, a section of a granite fence toppled over and fatally fell on top of a 5-year-old girl. The city asked the homeowner to remove the entire fence, since it was still a potential hazard. Marc Santia reports.
31-August-19	Diversity	Visiones: "A Touch of Sugar"	6:47 AM	6:50 AM	3:00	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero interviews Leticia Moreinos Schwartz about the documentary "A Touch of Sugar." The film, narrated by Viola Davis, raises awareness about type-2 diabetes, more specifically in underserved communities.
1-September-19	Diversity	Positively Black: Sarah Jones	6:50 AM	6:55 AM	5:20	Local Origination	Tracie Strahan interviews Sarah Jones about her one-woman show, "Sell Buy Date." The show has 19 characters and speaks on current issues, such as the #MeToo movement.

2-September-19	Diversity	Security Tight for West Indian Day Parade	5:05 PM	5:07 PM	2:00	Local Origination	In Crown Heights, Brooklyn, rainy weather and heavy NYPD presence did not worry the attendees of the West Indian Day Parade. This year's parade was the first without any reported incidents. Marc Santia reports.
2-September-19	Accidents and Disasters	Police: Drunk Driver Caused Crash That Killed Ambulance Patient	5:14 PM	5:16 PM	1:37	Local Origination	In Lynbrook, Long Island, a drunk driver hit an ambulance, causing it to flip on its side. The patient inside the ambulance was killed, and the drunk driver was charged with a DWI and with vehicular manslaughter. Greg Cergol reports.
2-September-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Hateful Confrontations in Rockland Co.	6:17 PM	6:20 PM	3:16	Local Origination	In Rockland County, NY, residents received packages with rusty nails and hateful messages about Legislator Laurie Santulli. Police have no information on who sent the packages yet. Sarah Wallace reports.
3-September-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Tree Removal Insurance	4:47 PM	4:50 PM	3:00	Local Origination	In Plainfield, NJ, a tree was leaning on Carolyn Miller's house. Her insurance, State Farm, would cover the claim but was not sending enough money over to do so. Lynda Baquero reports.
3-September-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	'Holiday Bandit' Busted	5:06 PM	5:09 PM	3:00	Local Origination	In Manhattan, NY, a Florida man would travel to New York City during major holidays and burglarize homes. It is estimated he has stolen over $400,000 in valuables. Although he has been dodging the police for years, the NYPD has finally apprehended him. Marc Santia reports.
3-September-19	Accidents and Disasters	Tornado Touches Down in Suffolk County	5:30 PM	5:32 PM	2:10	Local Origination	On Manorville, Long Island, a tornado passed through a small area, bringing down trees and damaging a few homes. The tornado was classified as the weakest on its scale. Greg Cergol reports.
3-September-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Money Mess Threatens Retirement	6:17 PM	6:21 PM	3:10	Local Origination	In Hempstead, NY, New York Rising gave a couple money to repair their house after superstorm Sandy. The organization is now asking for their money back, claiming the homeowners did not comply with regulations. However, the homeowners were not made aware of these regulations. Pei-Sze Cheng reports.

4-September-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Westchester Gas Moratorium	4:44 PM	4:48 PM	3:35	Local Origination	In Mount Vernon, NY, Lauriette Whyte purchased a house in an area she did not know was in a Con Ed gas moratorium. Even though she still receives no gas, she was still being billed for it. Lynda Baquero reports.
4-September-19	Housing	NYCHA Residents Call for Removal of Zombie Scaffolding in Brooklyn	5:09 PM	5:11 PM	2:07	Local Origination	In Brownsville, Brooklyn, scaffolding around NYCHA's Howard Houses have been up for three years. Even though residents complained several times, the city has not removed them yet. Erica Byfield reports.
4-September-19	Children & Youth	4 th Grader Receives Warm Welcome Back to School After Heart Transplant	5:25 PM	5:27 PM	1:36	Local Origination	In Westbury, Long Island, Mahdi Islam, a 4 th grader at Bowling Green Elementary School, went back to school after receiving a heart transplant. His community fully supported him and his family through this trying time. Greg Cergol reports.
4-September-19	Housing	Fight Over Trash at Queens Home	6:18 PM	6:20 PM	2:27	Local Origination	In Jamaica, Queens, a homeowner has collected several piles of trash over roughly ten years. The city has fined her several times to no avail, and now the mayor has gotten involved. Ida Siegal reports.
5-September-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Apartment Equity Refund	4:44 PM	4:47 PM	3:10	Local Origination	In Rockaway Beach, Queens, Warren Edward Boyce III moved out of a Co-Op apartment and expected to receive his equity deposit back. Seven years later, he realized he has never received his money. Lynda Baquero reports.
5-September-19	Government and Politics	Fiery Debate Over Future of Rikers Island	5:29 PM	5:32 PM	3:00	Local Origination	In Manhattan, NY, the city plans to close Rikers Island and open four new borough jails and a separate facility for women in Queens. Protesters believe the plan is sketchy and too broad brushed. Andrew Siff reports.
5-September-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Fixing a Loophole in the Rape Law	6:16 PM	6:18 PM	2:10	Local Origination	In Manhattan, NY, State Senator Alessandra Biaggi drafted a reform bill to close the loophole which doesn't consider sexual assault on people too drunk to consent rape. Chris Glorioso reports.
6-September-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Fake Check Scam	4:44 PM	4:48 PM	3:22	Local Origination	In Sheepshead Bay, Brooklyn, Joanne Castagna listed a sofa bed on Craigslist. She received a check for the bed, but the check ended up being fraudulent. Lynda Baquero reports.

6-September-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Fotis Dulos Interview	5:06 PM	5:09 PM	3:50	Local Origination	In New Canaan, CT, Fotis Dulos's girlfriend has now taken back her alibi stating that she was with Dulos during Jennifer Dulos's alleged murder. New incriminating evidence against Fotis Dulos has also appeared. Sarah Wallace reports.
6-September-19	Accidents and Disasters	Remarkable Recovery	5:14 PM	5:15 PM	1:31	Local Origination	On Long Island, NY, Officer George Day left the hospital after almost dying in a hit-and-run. His fellow officers and supporters went to celebrate his departure and hope he recovers soon. Michael George reports.
7-September-19	Diversity	Visiones: "Silent Procession NYC4PR" Takes Place 9/22 in Manhattan	6:45 AM	6:49 AM	4:00	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero interviews Carmen Cruz, the founder of Silent Procession NYC4PR. The organization is putting together a silent procession to showcase the terrible conditions that continue in Puerto Rico.
8-September-19	Diversity	Positively Black: Harlem Junior Tennis	6:50 AM	6:54 AM	4:10	Local Origination	Tracie Strahan interviews tennis players Lulu Jenkins and Sophie Shen, and Coach Simone Spigner from Harlem Junior Tennis. The program gives kids in the community the opportunity to learn and play tennis.
9-September-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Mobile Ticketing	4:45 PM	4:48 PM	3:00	Local Origination	On East Meadow, Long Island, Mark Hallquest purchased season tickets for Jets games. However, the new ticketing policy required Hallquest to present his tickets on a smartphone, which he does not have. Lynda Baquero reports.
9-September-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Search for Suspect Accused of Shooting Child	5:01 PM	5:03 PM	2:13	Local Origination	In Yonkers, NY, a 12-year-old was shot in front of a family member's residence. The child is in stable condition and detectives are actively searching for the shooter, but the community is shaken. Ida Siegal reports.
9-September-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Cops Warn Students About Making School Threats	5:29 PM	5:31 PM	1:55	Local Origination	On Center Moriches, Long Island, Suffolk County Police Commissioner Geraldine Hart addresses the department's zero tolerance for school threats after there were three reported in one week. Previous incidents in the district are still under investigations. Erica Byfield reports.

10-September-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Scam Call Warning	4:55 PM	4:58 PM	3:00	Local Origination	In Kips Bay, NY, Steve Matzura received a scam call from someone impersonating an SSA employee. Steve warns others to avoid sharing personal information over the phone. Lynda Baquero Reports.
10-September- 19	Health	Push to End Teen Vaping Epidemic	5:30 PM	5:33 PM	3:00	Local Origination	In Long Island City, Queens, vape shops and bodega sales of e-cigarettes have skyrocketed, as have safety warnings about vaping. Stores are unsure of whether to continue selling products after Governor Cuomo's ban. Adam Kuperstein reports.
10-September- 19	Court and Legal Decisions	Protecting Your Vote in New Jersey	5:47 PM	5:49 PM	2:02	Local Origination	In Princeton, NJ, as state elections approach, officials from all 22 counties joined to discuss security issues, cyber-attacks and corrections to protect voters' ballots. Brian Thompson reports.
10-September- 19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Is an Anti-Abuse Law Abused?	6:17 PM	6:20 PM	3:38	Local Origination	On Long Island, NY, a woman falsely accused her husband of domestic abuse. The woman was able to expedite her US citizenship through filing a VAWA claim, which her husband believes was deliberate. Pei-Sze Cheng reports.
11-September- 19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Trip Insurance	4:44 PM	4:47 PM	3:04	Local Origination	In Montvale, NJ, a couple purchased travel insurance for their cruise. When the couple had to cancel their trip, Viking Cruises and Trip Mate did not honor the insurance and failed to reimburse them. Lynda Baquero reports.
11-September- 19	Funerals and Memorials	Honoring the Fallen in Westchester Co.	5:02 PM	5:04 PM	2:29	Local Origination	In Valhalla, NY, the community of Westchester County gathers near The Rising Memorial to honor the many residents who lost their lives in the 9/11 attacks. County officials share plans of another monument installation for the victims of post 9/11 related illnesses. Ken Buffa reports.

11-September- 19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: The State of Al-Qaeda	5:31 PM	5:34 PM	3:06	Local Origination	On the 18 th anniversary of 9/11, Al-Qaeda leader Ayman Al-Zawahiri releases another unsettling video of himself boasting about the terror inflicted on the US on 9/11/01. U.S. Senator Charles Schumer who receives frequent intelligence briefings says finding Al-Zawahiri is currently high priority. Jonathan Dienst reports.
11-September- 19	Consumer	Late Summer Boost on the Jersey Shore	5:47 PM	5:49 PM	1:44	Local Origination	In Ocean County, NJ, local business owners are happy with the late boost in sales thanks to warm September weather. This past beach season, several Jersey shore towns reported drastic spikes in beach tag sales. Ted Greenberg reports.
12-September- 19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: House Closing Scam	4:44 PM	4:48 PM	3:18	Local Origination	In Butler, NJ, a woman was the victim of a house closing scam which ultimately cost her $50,000. She received an email from someone impersonating her attorney, instructing her to wire the precise closing amount immediately. Lynda Baquero reports.
12-September- 19	Safety	I-Team: Boxer's Fight for Better Ringside Care	6:17 PM	6:21 PM	3:58	Local Origination	Boxing champion Magomed Abdusalamova was discharged by MSG's ring-side doctors who neglected to observe the boxer's signs of serious head trauma. He now suffers from paralysis as a result of the medical oversight. The family is fighting to reform the NY laws involving injury examinations for the sport. Chris Glorioso reports.
12-September- 19	Accidents and Disasters	Local Volunteers Helping Dorian Survivors	5:15 PM	5:17 PM	1:51	Local Origination	In North Arlington, NJ, volunteers are calling on the community to donate supplies for the victims of Hurricane Dorian. The shipping containers donated by Port Newark will be sent to the Bahamas on 9/16. Pat Battle reports.
12-September- 19	Health	Is the Water Safe?	5:46 PM	5:48 PM	1:32	Local Origination	In Belville, NJ, residents have growing concerns regarding the safety of their water given the recent reports of contamination in Newark, NJ, where Belville water is sourced. Residents are seeking water bottle donations and help from county officials. Brian Thompson reports.

13-September- 19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Income Tax Error	4:45 PM	4:47 PM	2:49	Local Origination	In North Arlington, NJ, Jackson Hewitt made a mistake on Howard Heatherly's taxes. Despite the company's 100% accuracy guarantee, Heatherly waited several months for the penalty and fee reimbursement he requested. Lynda Baquero reports.
13-September- 19	Safety	Securing Seaside's Semper Five Run	5:46 PM	5:48 PM	1:54	Local Origination	In Seaside Heights, NJ, officials and law enforcement prepare for a strong security presence this weekend in lieu of the terrorist bombing that canceled the Semper Five 5K two years ago. Ted Greenberg Reports.
13-September- 19	Transportation	Trading Spaces	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	1:37	Local Origination	In the Upper East Side, NY, residents have mixed emotions regarding the Department of Transportation's plan to swap 100 parking spots with charging stations for electric vehicles. Some believe it is a positive push towards green transportation and others are concerned about limited parking availability. Erica Byfield reports.
14-September- 19	Diversity	Visiones: Urbanworld Film Festival Begins Wednesday	6:45 AM	6:48 AM	5:05	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero interviews Director Zoe Salicrup Junco, Performer Caridad De La Luz and Actress Camila Perez. They discuss their films "Maria," "Release" and "Message Sent" that'll premier at the Urbanworld Film Festival.
15-September- 19	Diversity	Positively Black: Hattie Carthan Community Garden	6:50 AM	6:55 AM	5:34	Local Origination	Tracie Strahan interviews farmer and community advocate Yonette Fleming and Constance Gervois from the Hattie Carthan Community Garden. The garden operates community programs and increases locally grown food.
16-September-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Profile Pic Switch	4:44 PM	4:47 PM	2:52	Local Origination	In Hartsdale, NY, Claus Von Schorn's Facebook was hacked and his profile changed to appear as if it were singer Reba McEntire's page. When he reached out to Facebook, they locked his account. Lynda Baquero reports.

16-September-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Woman Bound and Robbed in Long Island Home	4:59 PM	5:01 PM	2:12	Local Origination	On Farmingdale, Long Island, three attackers entered a young woman's apartment, tying up both her and her friend. The masked men escaped with cash, cell phones and two handbags. Investigators believe it was a targeted attack and are searching for the suspects. Greg Cergol reports.
16-September-19	Children & Youth	Brooklyn Man Inspires in Viral Video	5:57 PM	5:58 PM	1:25	Local Origination	In Brooklyn, NY, Jermaine Greaves became an internet star after a video of him dancing at a Brooklyn music festival went viral. He has cerebral palsy and is not letting his disability or wheelchair keep him from dancing. The video has over 10 million views. Jamie Roth reports.
17-September-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Waiting for a Rebate	4:44 PM	4:47 PM	2:42	Local Origination	In Wood-Ridge, NJ, Val Mazzucca applied for a rebate from Hankook Tire. He believes he fulfilled all the requirements, yet he did not receive the rebate. Lynda Baquero reports.
17-September-19	Education	The Buzz on One High School Campus	5:16 PM	5:18 PM	2:02	Local Origination	In Mamaroneck, NY, a high school project is teaching students beekeeping and honey production. The students are selling the harvested honey to raise money for their school. Gus Rosendale reports.
17-September-19	Health	Council Votes to Ban Flavored E-Cigarettes	5:31 PM	5:33 PM	2:34	Local Origination	In Lower Manhattan, NY, the Public Health Planning Council voted to approve a ban on flavored e-cigarettes. The state of New York is now set to ban all flavored e-cigarettes, except menthol, to help tackle the rise in teenage use. Vaping advocates are speaking out. Adam Kuperstein reports.
17-September-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Battle Over New DNA Evidence	6:16 PM	6:21 PM	4:47	Local Origination	In Queens, NY, Michael Robinson was charged with stabbing his ex-wife to death in 1993. He was convicted on a single identification based on an 89-year-old who had questionable eyesight. DNA testing wasn't on anyone's radar at the time of the incident. The DA's office came up with excuses, saying the evidence had been destroyed, but it hadn't. Sarah Wallace reports.

18-September-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Limited RX Supplies	4:44 PM	4:47 PM	2:53	Local Origination	In Sloatsburg, NY, Rafael Fonseca is legally blind and diabetic. He's worried about a change in his medical supply that now makes it more difficult for him to deliver insulin to his body, due to his eyesight. Lynda Baquero reports.
18-September-19	Health	E-Cigarette Retailers Respond to Ban	5:02 PM	5:05 PM	2:57	Local Origination	In Yonkers, NY, flavored e-cigarettes are banned, and retailers are worried about their businesses. Yonkers resident Michael Bowers owns a vape shop and says most of his sales come from his flavored products. He says his business will not survive. Adam Kuperstein reports.
18-September-19	Safety	NYPD Expands Patrols Ahead of High Holy Days	5:29 PM	5:32 PM	2:33	Local Origination	In Lower Manhattan, NY, police are heightening security at synagogues and religious schools as the Jewish community enters the high holy days. Hate crimes and anti-Semitic crimes have spiked in New York City and the NYPD isn't letting their guard down. Andrew Siff reports.
18-September-19	Court and Legal Decisions	I-Team: Rape Law Loophole	6:07 PM	6:10 PM	2:44	Local Origination	In Albany, NY, prosecutors cannot bring sex crime charges in cases where the victim became voluntarily intoxicated and was unable to consent. It's being called the Voluntary Intoxication Loophole. Governor Cuomo wants to make closing this loophole a priority. Chris Glorioso reports.
19-September-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Collecting on a Debt	4:44 PM	4:47 PM	3:05	Local Origination	In the Bronx, NY, Soraya Diaz received a phone call saying she owed over $6,000 from a credit card. She does not recall owing this money and now the statute of limitations is expired. Lynda Baquero reports.
19-September- 19	Transportation	Inside Metro North's New Training System	5:16 PM	5:18 PM	2:14	Local Origination	In Manhattan, NY, Metro North has a new training system called Positive Train Control. Engineers are able to train using simulators. This will help them familiarize themselves with the new system before a critical breaking system is mandated by law. Andrew Siff reports.

19-September- 19	Transportation	I-Team:Fixing the Street: What's Taking so Long	6:18 PM	6:21 PM	2:48	Local Origination	In Lower Manhattan, NY, New Yorkers are frustrated with the ongoing and seemingly halted construction on Worth Street the last few years. The construction began in 2016 with an anticipated completion by 2021. However, work was delayed because of the destructive crane collapse on the site three years ago. Andrew Siff reports.
20-September- 19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Converting to Free Plan	4:45 PM	4:48 PM	2:33	Local Origination	In Jamaica, Queens, a woman was unaware that the AOL dialup and email service she currently pays for is offered for free. She unknowingly auto payed the monthly charges for the last 13 years. Lynda Baquero reports.
20-September- 19	Environment	Youth March Against Climate Change	5:06 PM	5:08 PM	1:34	Local Origination	In Manhattan, NY, thousands of protesters march for urgent action against climate change. The protesters, most of whom are young people, are demanding the attention of political leaders. Michael George reports.
20-September- 19	Education	Teaching the ABCs Inside a Hospital	5:25 PM	5:27 PM	2:02	Local Origination	In Westchester County, NY, Blythedale Children's Hospital has a school inside the hospital. The goal is to give the patients a break from focusing on their health challenges and a chance to just be a kid. They get homework, quizzes and report cards just like everyone else. Jen Maxfield reports.
20-September- 19	Government and Politics	I-Team: Out-Of-Town Voters?	5:29 PM	5:35 PM	5:53	Local Origination	In North Bergen, NJ, a North Bergen Board of Education employee claimed some of his co-workers have voted fraudulently. He says, they don't live in the town or the county, yet they still vote in North Bergen. Jonathan Dienst reports.
21-September- 19	Diversity	Visiones: "Friends of Karen" Supporting Critically-Ill Children and their Families	6:45 AM	6:49 AM	3:50	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero interviews Executive Director of "Friends of Karen" Judith Factor and Social Worker Jackie Nunez about "Friends of Karen." It's an organization that provides emotional support, financial assistance, illness education and supportive counseling for families with a child who has cancer.

22-September- 19	Diversity	Positively Black: Success in Motion	6:51 AM	6:55 AM	4:24	Local Origination	Tracie Strahan interviews Alex Cabraie, Tiffany Duncan and Molly Cohen about "Success in Motion." It's an organization that offers fitness classes for teachers after school on campus. They say it helps teachers get a workout in and boosts their overall mental health.
23-September- 19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Con Edison Account Charge	4:45 PM	4:47 PM	2:39	Local Origination	In Westerleigh, Staten Island, a couple was hit with a $6,500 bill from Con Edison, but her monthly bill is usually about $100. They were instructed to file an identity theft report with police. Lynda Baquero reports.
23-September- 19	Crime and Law Enforcement	New Jersey Man Ordered Held in Jail as Search Continues for Woman Missing After Fire	5:12 PM	5:14 PM	1:51	Local Origination	In Monmouth County, NJ, Ronald Teschner appeared at a detention hearing at Monmouth Superior Court and has been in custody for more than a week. This comes after the Ocean Township home he and four others were staying in caught fire. One guest in the home, Jacquelyn Terrulli, is still missing. Officers arrested Tecschnr in a car that belonged to Terrulli. Brian Thompson reports.
23-September- 19	Education	Bronx Native Makes Emmy History	5:25 PM	5:27 PM	1:50	Local Origination	In the Bronx, NY, Becky Woods shares her excitement for her old theater student, Jharrel Jerome, who just won an Emmy Award for his role in "When They See Us." She reminisces on his time at the Riverdale Children's Theater in the Bronx. Jamie Roth reports.
23-September- 19	Court and Legal Decisions	Fotis Dulos in Court Over GPS Monitoring	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	1:53	Local Origination	In Stamford, CT, the husband of missing mother Jennifer Dulos, was back in court for not charging his court ordered ankle monitor. Fotis Dulos was warned by the judge that an ankle monitor with low battery in the future will have serious repercussions. Marc Santia reports.

24-September- 19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Handbag for Auction	4:45 PM	4:48 PM	3:23	Local Origination	In Bethpage, Long Island, Emilia Baer purchased a designer handbag that cost her over $1,000. Years later she decided to have Christie's sell her handbag. When the bag was ready to go on sale, Christies re-cataloged it due to stains and mold. Emilia says the bag never had stains or mold before she turned it in. She now wants compensation from Christies. Lynda Baquero reports.
24-September- 19	Accidents and Disasters	New Details in East River Chopper Crash	5:29 PM	5:31 PM	1:37	Local Origination	In Manhattan, NY, new details emerge from the East River chopper crash that happened over a year ago. The sightseeing helicopter took off from New Jersey and crashed in the East River 14 minutes later, killing 5 passengers. The NTSB released GoPro images and say the passengers could not free themselves from the safety harness. Stefan Holt reports.
24-September- 19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Neighbor Threatens Woman & Grandson	5:45 PM	5:47 PM	2:09	Local Origination	In Wantagh, Long Island, the windows of a black family's home were shattered. They were broken by barbells allegedly thrown by their white neighbor. The neighbor was also holding a loaded gun, threatening and shouting racial slurs at the family inside the home. The suspect was charged with a hate crime. Greg Cergol reports.
24-September- 19	Health	I-Team: Personal Medical Files in the Trash	6:05 PM	6:09 PM	4:09	Local Origination	In Manhattan, NY, boxes containing personal patient information were found outside a medical office on the curb. These boxes contained files that had patient's social security numbers, addresses, birthdates, everything one would need for financial fraud. The doctors responsible say they don't know who threw them out. Pei-Sze Cheng reports.
25-September- 19	Transport	MTA Approves $51 Billion Spending Plan	5:30 PM	5:33 PM	2:30	Local Origination	In Lower Manhattan, NY, the MTA approved a $51 Capital plan to revamp the city's mass transit system. Commuters and officials have mixed emotions about the execution of the plan. Andrew Siff reports.

25-September- 19	Court and Legal Decisions	Westchester Co. to Track Pawn Shop Items	5:46 PM	5:47 PM	1:12	Local Origination	In Mount Vernon, NY, Westchester county passed the Precious Metals and Jems Law which will require pawn shop owners to enter pawned items into a countywide database. The law aims to help locate stolen items and potentially the people who steal them. Ken Buffa reports.
25-September- 19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Ancient Gold Coffin Returned to Egypt	5:55 PM	5:57 PM	1:49	Local Origination	In Manhattan, NY, a gold coffin from Egypt was on display at the MET. However, it was discovered that it was stolen from Egypt during the uprisings in 2011. The MET says it was fooled by a phony document when it purchased the coffin in Europe two years ago. It's now back in Egypt. Gus Rosendale reports.
26-September- 19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Hospital Bills for Baby	4:44 PM	4:47 PM	3:11	Local Origination	In Carteret, NJ, Evelyn Aggrey received medical bills for over $41,000. These bills were for the birth of her son who was born two years ago. Evelyn had health insurance when her son was delivered and thought the medical bills would be mostly covered. Lynda Baquero reports.
26-September- 19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Family Calls for Criminal Charges After Son's Death	5:01 PM	5:04 PM	3:11	Local Origination	In East New York, Brooklyn, the parents of a baby boy, who died after falling out the window of their high-rise apartment, say they asked the building for child guards repeatedly. They were ignored. The family filed a civil lawsuit but now want the district attorney to file criminal charges against management. Ida Siegal reports.
26-September- 19	Environment	New Storm Protection on the Jersey Shore	5:47 PM	5:49 PM	1:49	Local Origination	In Little Egg Harbor, NJ, a restoration project on Great Bay restored an acre of coastal marshland eroded by storms and waves. The project aims to protect and stabilize shorelines, and other towns are taking interest. Ted Greenberg reports.

26-September- 19	Housing	I-Team: NYCHA's New Boss One-On-One	6:15 PM	6:19 PM	3:48	Local Origination	Chris Glorioso interviews NYCHA's new chief, Gregory Russ, who recently inherited multiple challenges of the NY public housing agency. The organization is already under fire for planning to privatize management for some public housing in order to close the massive funding gap. Chris Glorioso reports.
27-September- 19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Troubleshooting Pool Issue	4:45 PM	4:48 PM	2:57	Local Origination	In Baldwin Place, NY, the Sgroi family called American Pool Liner to replace their pool liner for almost $4,000. The service included a warranty. When they opened their pool for the summer there was a leak in the liner. They reached out to American Pool Liner multiple times and they never came to fix the liner. Lynda Baquero reports.
27-September- 19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Neighbor Charged in Therapy Dog's Shooting Death	5:12 PM	5:14 PM	2:04	Local Origination	In Burlington, NJ, Bob Cook is a Vietnam War veteran with PTSD and depression. He owned a therapy dog. A neighbor is accused of shooting Cook's dog in the head. The injuries were so catastrophic, the dog had to be put down. Jamie Roth reports.
27-September- 19	Government and Politics	Teed Off Golfers Take Aim at Famous Faces	5:23 PM	5:25 PM	2:04	Local Origination	In Middletown, NJ, at Cape May Par 3 Golf and Driving Range you can try to hit blown up photos of political figures in the face like President Trump or Presidential Candidates. The owner changes the photos on the yardage markers periodically and says it's helped his business. Ted Greenberg reports.
28-September- 19	Diversity	Visiones: Fashion Designer Celebrates Colombian Roots	6:46 AM	6:50 AM	3:51	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero interviews Fashion Designer Raul Penaranda about his upcoming Spring and Summer 2020 collection. The collection will mark 10 years of 'Raul Penaranda' being part of the official calendar of New York Fashion Week. He says he'll be pulling inspiration from his Colombian roots for the collection.

29-September- 19	Diversity	Positively Black: "Supreme Glamour"	7:22 AM	7:27 AM	5:47	Local Origination	Tracie Strahan interviews founding member of The Supremes, Mary Wilson. She talks about her new book "Supreme Glamour," which focuses on the iconic costumes and gowns the Motown group wore.
30-September- 19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: App Privacy	4:45 PM	4:47 PM	1:28	Local Origination	The more apps you download, the more personal data you might give away to third party companies. WNBC suggests limiting your apps permissions in settings and delete rarely used apps. Lynda Baquero reports.
30-September- 19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team Update: Out-of-Town Voters?	5:31 PM	5:34 PM	3:06	Local Origination	In North Bergen, NJ, the I-Team discovered that many people employed in North Bergen voted in the town, although they live in neighboring counties. The former Head of FBI in New Jersey, Tim Gallagher says the possible voter fraud is a serious matter that could invoke additional charges like tax or insurance fraud. Jonathan Dienst reports.
30-September- 19	Environment	Dry Weather Fuels Brush Fire Worries	5:47 PM	5:49 PM	2:00	Local Origination	In Andover, NJ, state forest firefighters warn the community that fire danger is high as result of the consistently dry weather. This year's fire season started early but relief is expected later in the week with a predicted rainfall. Brian Thompson reports.