

WNBC-TV

QUARTERLY ISSUES REPORT

2ND Quarter 2019:
APRIL, MAY AND JUNE

Quarterly Issues and Programs Report APRIL, MAY AND JUNE 2019

Through formal and informal ascertainment of the general public, community leaders, public officials - inclusive of different ethnic organizations and service organizations, the following list emerged as potential, community-themed issues which require media attention and support.

Accidents and Disasters	Elderly-Seniors-Retirement
Animal Welfare and Adoption	Environment
Civil Rights	Funerals and Memorials
Children & Youth	Government and Politics
Consumer	Health
Court and Legal Decisions	Housing
Crime and Law Enforcement	Poverty
Diversity	Safety
Education	Transportation

The programs produced to meet the needs of the public included locally-produced shows and newscasts as well as national programs, public service announcement campaigns and sales marketing campaigns.

Regularly Scheduled Programs

Our locally produced, regularly scheduled programs are aired specifically to address community issues, concerns and needs. The programs include News 4 New York.

WNBC's daily newscasts devote considerable time to local issues and community problems.

Regularly scheduled newscasts include:

Program	Time	Days
Today in New York	4:00am-7:00am	Monday-Friday
News 4 NY at 11:00am	11:00am-11:30am	Monday-Friday
News 4 NY at 4:00pm	4:00pm-5:00pm	Monday-Friday
News 4 NY at 5:00pm	5:00pm-6:00pm	Monday-Friday
News 4 NY at 6:00pm	6:00pm-6:30pm	Monday-Friday
News 4 NY at 11:00pm	11:00pm-11:30pm	Monday-Friday
Saturday Today in NY	6:00am-7:00am	Saturday
Saturday Today in NY	8:30am-9:30am	Saturday
News 4 NY at 6:00pm	6:00pm-6:30pm	Saturday
News 4 NY at 11:00pm	11:00pm-11:30pm	Saturday
Sunday Today in NY	6:00am-8:00am	Sunday
Sunday Today in NY	10:00am-10:30am	Sunday
News 4 NY at 6:00pm	6:00pm-6:30pm	Sunday
News 4 NY at 11:00pm	11:00pm-11:30pm	Sunday

Date	Category	Title	Start Time	End Time	Duration	Source	Description
1-April-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Navigating Travel Insurance Claims	4:45 PM	4:47 PM	2:06	Local Origination	A couple loved to travel and planned a trip for the both of them. When the husband got sick, they were unable to go and canceled his flight expecting a refund. As she continued to call, the company kept saying it was under review. Lynda Baquero reports.
1-April-19	Education	Former Teacher Sues School District	5:00 PM	5:02 PM	2:14	Local Origination	In Bellport, NY, teacher Lauren Miranda was fired for an inappropriate selfie that a student got his hands on and she believes she is being discriminated against because of her gender. She plans to sue the school for being fired unjustly. Greg Cergol reports.
1-April-19	Safety	FDNY Cracking Down on Escape Rooms	5:17 PM	5:19 PM	2:16	Local Origination	In Manhattan, multiple people died after a fire broke out in an escape room. Now, the FDNY is cracking down on safety violations and launched a task force for escape rooms. Seven buildings have already been shut down. Gaby Acevedo reports.
1-April-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Crime Lab Controversy	5:30 PM	5:33 PM	3:22	Local Origination	The opening of a state-of-the-art crime lab in Nassau County is behind schedule, sparking concerns about how well the county will be able to handle investigations. Pei-Sze Cheng reports.
1-April-19	Health	NYCHA Lead Paint Abatement	5:46 PM	5:48 PM	2:00	Local Origination	Multiple NYCHA apartments have paint chipping, and parents fear that their children will be exposed to lead poisoning. Ida Siegal reports.
1-April-19	Safety	Verrazano Bridge Rescue	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	2:12	Local Origination	A man at the Verrazano Bridge intended to jump, but a good Samaritan and state trooper saw the man get out of his car. They ran out and tried to pull him up, while other officers and good Samaritans helped. Rana Novini reports.
2-April-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Managing Medicare Reimbursements	4:54 PM	4:57 PM	2:40	Local Origination	A woman signed up for Medicare part B, and paid the first months upfront. When she attempted to get her money back, they never responded or refunded her money. Lynda Baquero reports.
2-April-19	Transportation	Full "L-Train" Shutdown Called Off	5:59 PM	6:02 PM	3:04	Local Origination	Governor Cuomo announced the L-Train will no longer shut down and will instead shift to a new renovation plan to update wiring with renovations on nights and weekends. John Chandler reports.

3-April-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Student Loan Debt	4:44 PM	4:46 PM	2:30	Local Origination	A Long Island woman owes hundreds of thousands of dollars in student loans. She immediately started paying off the loans when she graduated in 2007, but her student loan debt kept increasing. Lynda Baquero reports.
3-April-19	Accidents and Disasters	New Jersey Wildfire Threat	5:17 PM	5:18 PM	1:27	Local Origination	After a huge blaze in the Jersey Pinelands, in Ocean County, NJ, there is a red-flag warning for these fires. Members of the NJ Forest Fire Service are on high alert, watching for any signs of smoke on top of the observation tower in the county. Ted Greenberg reports.
3-April-19	Children and Youth	High School Showstopper	6:17 PM	5:19 PM	2:53	Local Origination	A Hasbrouck Heights High School student in NJ has taken on the role of Dorothy in the high school's production of Wizard of Oz. The student who took the lead role suffers from a disability that leaves her in a wheelchair but that doesn't stop her from chasing her dreams. Pat Battle reports.
4-April-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Waiting For Tax Refund	4:44 PM	4:46 PM	2:19	Local Origination	A Harlem woman filed her taxes two years ago and has been waiting a year and a half for her tax refund. When she received the checks, they had already been cashed but not by her. Lynda Baquero reports.
4-April-19	Accidents and Disasters	FDNY Investigating Major Fire In Brooklyn	5:31 PM	5:32 PM	1:42	Local Origination	In Brooklyn, a major fire struck an apartment building. 23 tenants were hurt but no one was fatally injured. Ken Buffa reports.
4-April-19	Children and Youth	School Struggles With Overcrowding	6:06 PM	6:08 PM	2:08	Local Origination	In Long Island, Westbury Middle School is a building built for 900 students but the school has over 1,200. They have problems of overcrowding and not enough classroom space for everyone to learn. Greg Cergol reports.
4-April-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Religious Order Lawsuits	11:14 PM	11:18 PM	4:19	Local Origination	An attorney who targets accused pedophile priests say lawsuits filed under New York's Child Victims Act could ravage the finances of some Catholic religious orders. Chris Glorioso reports.
5-April-19	Children and Youth	Weather Kids At Walter Kassenbrock School	4:19 PM	4:19 PM	:42	Local Origination	Storm Team 4's Meteorologist Erica Grow visits P.S. 185 Walter Kassenbrock in Brooklyn to discuss weather with 109 fourth graders.

5-April-19	Transportation	Fixing The MTA	5:46 PM	5:48 PM	2:20	Local Origination	In Manhattan, transit employees have been placing their vests on their car dashboards in hopes that they will be exempt from paying for parking in wrong areas. Local residents are upset and MTA President Andy Byford has released a statement. Gaby Acevedo reports.
5-April-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Push To Stop Hate On Facebook	6:03 PM	6:05 PM	2:11	Local Origination	In Lakewood, NJ, an Orthodox Jewish community has been the target of hate from an anti-Semitic Facebook page. Mayor Ray Coles urged the attorney general to write letters to Facebook founder, Mark Zuckerberg. Brian Thompson reports.
6-April-19	Diversity	Visiones: BrooklynMuseum.org	6:45 AM	6:47 AM	2:44	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero interviews Lisa Small and Catherine Morris from the Brooklyn Museum about a new exhibit in the museum that reflects on Frida Kahlo's life including her jewelry, clothing, and parts of her identity.
7-April-19	Diversity	Positively Black: Dionne Warwick "She's Back"	6:45 AM	6:50 AM	5:28	Local Origination	Tracie Strahan interviews Dionne Warwick about her new album "She's Back." She has not recorded in five years and finally got back into the studio. She describes her journey from singing in church where she grew up in East Orange to now Hollywood.
8-April-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Photo Inspections For Car Insurance	4:45 PM	4:48 PM	3:59	Local Origination	A Tri-state area man had opted for collision coverage and then got into an accident and later found out his insurance company had taken it off a month prior without his knowledge. The insurance company said they needed a photo inspection of his vehicle before they could provide him collision coverage. Lynda Baquero reports.
8-April-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	String Of Suspicious Car Fires In Harlem	5:00 PM	5:02 PM	2:00	Local Origination	In Harlem, a series of cars have been set on fire. Residents are asking police to catch whoever is doing this as soon as possible. Gus Rosendale reports.
8-April-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Baseball Field Set On Fire	6:18 PM	6:20 PM	2:20	Local Origination	In Ridgefield, CT, a high school's baseball field was set on fire. Several parents were pouring gasoline on the field as residents watched. Erica Byfield reports.

9-April-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Glass Lid Repair	4:44 PM	4:47 PM	3:00	Local Origination	A Rockland County woman's washing machine appeared to be completely shattered and sent a complaint to the manufacturer. The manufacturer told her that her washing machine was too old for them to provide service on it. Lynda Baquero reports.
9-April-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Easter Display Destroyed	5:06 PM	5:08 PM	2:58	Local Origination	In Clifton, NJ, a dentist put up mannequins dressed as raunchy Easter bunnies for the upcoming holiday. One resident was so mad that she destroyed the display. Checkey Beckford reports.
9-April-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	81-Year-Old Woman Attacked At Movie Theater	6:12 PM	6:14 PM	2:40	Local Origination	A Manhattan woman was standing in line for a movie when another woman and her two kids got in front of her. When the woman tried to tell the mother that they had cut her in line, the mother became violent. Marc Santia reports.
10-April-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Pet Insurance Coverage	4:45 PM	4:48 PM	3:15	Local Origination	A Long Island family took out pet insurance in case their pet became injured or ill. When they contacted the insurance company to make sure they were still covered for their pet's surgery, the company told them because of specific reasons that their claim was denied. Lynda Baquero reports.
10-April-19	Environment	Smell From Landfill Reaches Soccer Field	4:55 PM	4:57 PM	2:19	Local Origination	The Kearny, NJ, landfill has inundated the adjacent soccer field with a horrible smell. Pat Battle reports.
10-April-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Nassau County Crime Lab	5:55 PM	5:57 PM	2:10	Local Origination	In Nassau County, NY, the new Nassau County Crime Lab will open in June still as a work in progress, missing Trace & Ballistic accreditation. The new lab could potentially save tax payers millions of dollars testing locally. Pei-Sze Cheng reports.
11-April-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Freezing Your Credit	4:45 PM	4:47 PM	2:35	Local Origination	In Lower Manhattan, a woman was among several who were impacted by the 2017 data breach when millions of Americans saw their personal data exposed. She was instructed to freeze her account, but when she wanted to unfreeze it, her credit card company wouldn't allow her. Lynda Baquero reports.

11-April-19	Children and Youth	School Changing Slave-Owner Name	5:16 PM	5:19 PM	3:00	Local Origination	In Brooklyn, 4 th and 5 th graders at PS 9 Teunis Bergen Elementary School decided it was time to dig deeper into the name that represents the school. They realized he was a slave owner and have started a movement to change the name of the school. Rana Novini reports.
11-April-19	Children and Youth	High School Musical Controversy	6:11 PM	6:13 PM	2:54	Local Origination	On Huntington, Long Island, a school's musical was accused of being racist towards the Asian-American community. A parent complained about the message behind the musical and how it was portrayed. Erica Byfield reports.
12-April-19	Health	Measles Vaccine Clinics In Westchester	5:04 PM	5:06 PM	2:00	Local Origination	In Westchester County, three measles vaccine clinics are opening. There have been several cases in the surrounding geographic areas. Ken Buffa reports.
12-April-19	Health	Sidelining Unvaccinated Kids From Sports?	6:18 PM	6:20 PM	2:35	Local Origination	In Teaneck, NJ, officials are saying either vaccinate your kids or they will be sidelined from sports teams and other recreational activities. The Health Department will make a decision whether it makes sense to provide proof of vaccinations. Brian Thompson reports.
13-April-19	Diversity	Visiones: Autism Speaks	6:45 AM	6:49 AM	4:09	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero interviews Angela Geiger, President and CEO of the non-profit Autism Speaks to discuss the early diagnosis stage of autism and how to deal with it.
14-April-19	Diversity	Positively Black: The National Prostate Cancer Foundation	6:47 AM	6:51 AM	4:36	Local Origination	Tracie Strahan interviews Harry Lennix, an actor who advocates to fight cancer. Lennix is teaming up with The National Prostate Cancer Foundation to help those in need.
15-April-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Dog Food Recall Follow-Up	4:44 PM	4:47 PM	3:40	Local Origination	A Long Island woman became aware of a recall of pet food that contained dangerous levels of a toxic substance. Pet owners were urged to contact their veterinarian and the woman did just that, but when she had to go in a second time, the company didn't want to reimburse her. Lynda Baquero reports.
15-April-19	Accidents and Disasters	Shocking Close Call	5:16 PM	5:18 PM	2:00	Local Origination	In Manchester, NJ, a worker was trying to fix a fallen wire when it fell and sparked a huge fire. He was forced to escape, and he was not hurt. Ted Greenberg reports.

15-April-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: New Delay for Sidelined NJ Sergeant	5:30 PM	5:33 PM	3:48	Local Origination	A police sergeant in New Jersey who sued her department for sexual discrimination is facing another delay in her bid to get reinstated to full duty. Sarah Wallace reports.
16-April-19	Transportation	Discount Proposal For Verrazzano Bridge	4:56 PM	4:58 PM	2:06	Local Origination	Many are angry that Staten Island residents have a discount when driving across the Verrazzano bridge, while others coming from Brooklyn do not. Andrew Siff reports.
16-April-19	Funerals and Memorials	Principal Laid to Rest	5:14 PM	5:15 PM	1:35	Local Origination	In Scotch Plains, NJ, the community gathered to honor Principal Derrick Nelson as he was laid to rest. Hundreds of students, friends, and family paid their respects. Brian Thompson reports.
16-April-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Dark Web Drug Takedown	6:12 PM	6:14 PM	2:00	Local Origination	Three New Jersey residents were taken into custody, charged with money laundering and conspiracy. Brian Thompson reports.
17-April-19	Accidents and Disasters	Inferno Demolishes Building in Brooklyn	5:29 PM	5:31 PM	2:00	Local Origination	A fire in Brooklyn tore through a restaurant and an office early at 6 AM. The high winds made the fire spread and forced the building to collapse. Michael George reports.
17-April-19	Government and Politics	Climate Change Confrontation	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	1:43	Local Origination	Protestors near City Hall blocked the streets and hung up banners regarding climate change. Some were arrested for disorderly conduct while trying to express their beliefs. Gaby Acevedo reports.
17-April-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Sentencing Delayed in Jogger Murder Case	6:11 PM	6:13 PM	2:00	Local Origination	In Howard Beach, Queens, the Chanel Lewis sentencing was delayed due to jury misconduct during deliberations. Roseanne Colletti reports.
18-April-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Easter Lunch Reservation	4:45 PM	4:47 PM	2:10	Local Origination	A Queens woman planned to make reservations for Easter lunch. When they took down her credit card information, she later saw that she was charged over 140 dollars for this reservation and was not told it would be that amount. Lynda Baquero reports.
18-April-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Parole Controversy	5:46 PM	5:48 PM	2:20	Local Origination	Judith Clark has been paroled after being in jail for over 30 years, she served time for her role in a robbery that killed three people. Roseanne Colletti reports.
18-April-19	Children & Youth	Child Hit & Killed Getting Off School Bus	6:17 PM	6:19 PM	2:00	Local Origination	In Rockaway, seven year old Cameron Brown was killed in a tragic vehicle accident. Cameron's aunt expressed how heartbroken their family is. Rana Novini reports.

19-April-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: NYC Property Tax Deferral Program	4:44 PM	4:48 PM	2:17	Local Origination	A new program in NYC allows homeowners to spread payments over time if they are qualified. This program lets people defer payments if they have not kept up with them, and they will not be forced out of their homes. Lynda Baquero reports.
19-April-19	Environment	Pollution Threatens Lake Hopatcong	5:24 PM	5:26 PM	2:12	Local Origination	Lake Hopatcong is being filled with pollution that is harming the water and fish. Residents have taken pictures of the milky water for months to show the progression of how bad the pollution has become. Brian Thompson reports.
19-April-19	Transportation	MTA Fare Hike in Effect Sunday	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	2:00	Local Origination	The MTA Fare Hike has raised the price of a weekly pass. Drew Wilder reports.
20-April-19	Diversity	Visiones: "Gay Chorus Deep South"	6:44 AM	6:48 AM	4:00	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero interviews David Charles Rodrigues the Director of "Gay Chorus Deep South." He describes this documentary and the journey the group has been through on tour.
21-April-19	Diversity	Positively Black: "Burning Cane" Premieres At Tribeca	6:45 AM	6:49 AM	4:10	Local Origination	Tracie Strahan interviews the teenage director of Burning Cane, Phillip Youmans. He talks about how the movie came to be and how it's being shown at the Tribeca Film Festival.
22-April-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Solar Panel Installation	4:43 PM	4:45 PM	2:40	Local Origination	A Westchester County woman installed solar panels above her house after hearing about the many benefits of it. The panels did not meet her expectations. Lynda Baquero reports.
22-April-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Search Underway For Burial Ground In Bergen County	5:05 PM	5:07 PM	2:40	Local Origination	In New Milford, NJ, residents have sparked an interest in the search for an African-American burial ground. One woman discovered the burial site when she looked through old documents in her house and realized her house used to be a slave site. Brian Thompson reports.
22-April-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Dozens of LinkNYC Signs Smashed	6:06 PM	6:07 PM	1:19	Local Origination	In the West Village and in Chelsea, dozens of LinkNYC kiosks were vandalized. They are intended to provide free internet access to those in need. Michael George reports.
23-April-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Puppy Adoption Warning	4:43 PM	4:46 PM	3:50	Local Origination	A New Jersey family adopted a puppy off social media. When the puppy never arrived, they never got a refund. Lynda Baquero reports.

23-April-19	Children and Youth	Food Fight Fallout	5:04 PM	5:06 PM	2:50	Local Origination	In Stamford, Connecticut, a high school food fight escalated to an actual fight. Michael George reports.
24-April-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Pension Money Search	4:44 PM	4:46 PM	2:50	Local Origination	A Staten Island woman believed she had created a pension with her former employer, and wished to collect that money upon retirement. The company responded saying she was not in the system and had no benefits. Lynda Baquero reports.
24-April-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	16 Arrested In NJ Child Predator Sting	5:30 PM	5:32 PM	2:57	Local Origination	In Hackensack, New Jersey, parents are urged to closely monitor their children's activity online after predators were trying to lure children into sending inappropriate photos. Several predators, who pretended to be teenagers, were caught after making arrangements to see the child they were talking to. Pat Battle reports.
24-April-19	Transportation	14 th Street Traffic Changes	6:03 PM	6:05 PM	2:02	Local Origination	The L Train project is reportedly underway to limit cars and turn the street into a bus way. The changes won't go into effect until June and have some residents worried. Erica Byfield reports.
25-April-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Computer Update	4:45 PM	4:47 PM	2:07	Local Origination	In Peekskill, NY, a woman updated her computer desktop, but when it stopped working she tried reaching out to Microsoft. Lynda Baquero reports.
25-April-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Suicide or Homicide?	5:33 PM	5:35 PM	2:03	Local Origination	A Long Island high school football player was killed in 2016 in a fatal shooting. The medical examiners ruled it as a suicide but new updates say that it a homicide, not a suicide. Sarah Wallace reports.
25-April-19	Health	Rockland Renews Measles Emergency	6:04 PM	6:06 PM	2:14	Local Origination	In Rockland County, officials are trying to ban residents who have been exposed to measles from public places. The number of cases in the county is now 200. Ken Buffa reports.
26-April-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	'Mirror Stripping' on the Rise on The Upper West Side	5:14 PM	5:16 PM	2:20	Local Origination	A series of targeted thefts are plaguing the Upper West Side where crime has been on the decline. Mirror stripping has been happening for several months where crooks are coming up to cars, ripping your mirror out, and selling it to the black market. Wale Aliyu reports.

26-April-19	Children and Youth	Presidential Letter of Support	6:17 PM	6:18 PM	1:46	Local Origination	A 6 th grade girl from Long Island did a school report on her hero, the President of the United States Donald Trump. Her teacher said the project was inappropriate, but the President disagreed and wrote her a letter. Greg Cergol reports.
27-April-19	Diversity	Visiones: The Dominican Dream	6:45 AM	6:50 AM	5:59	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero interviews Felipe Lopez, who ranked number one in high school basketball in the entire country. Lopez is the subject of a film at the Tribeca Film Festival by an 11-time Emmy award-winning director.
28-April-19	Diversity	Positively Black: "Too Heavy for Your Pockets"	6:47 AM	6:51 AM	4:55	Local Origination	Tracie Strahan interviews Felicia Boswell and LA Williams—the stars for the new musical, "Too Heavy for your Pockets." The musical portrays the struggles African Americans faced during the Civil Rights Movement.
29-April-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Limit on Glucose Strips	4:45 PM	4:47 PM	2:23	Local Origination	A local Tri-State area doctor is fighting a restriction on giving out more glucose strips to those with diabetes. The restriction allows only two test strips a day rather than however many you would need. Lynda Baquero reports.
29-April-19	Accidents and Disasters	Beloved Bakery Destroyed in Fire	6:02 PM	6:04 PM	2:30	Local Origination	A beloved Long Island bakery has suffered permanent damages after catching on fire. Fire marshals have yet to identify what caused the fire, but the bakery's owner has already vowed to rebuild the bakery. Greg Cergol reports.
29-April-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Scammer Uses Sports Anchor's Photo on Dating Sites	11:13 PM	11:17 PM	4:00	Local Origination	The I-Team has a cautionary tale about internet dating and is the person who you're speaking with really who they say they are. Pei-Sze Cheng reports.
30-April-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Money Apps for Kids	4:46 PM	4:48 PM	2:40	Local Origination	Parents from the Tri-State area have been trying to teach financial skills to their sons by using mobile apps. The parents hope to teach them the value of saving money. Lynda Baquero reports.
30-April-19	Housing	Homeless Shelter Battle on Billionaires' Row	5:15 PM	5:17 PM	2:10	Local Origination	In Manhattan, the "ultra-rich" are protesting the Mayor's decision to turn a high-class hotel into a men's homeless shelter. Jummy Olabanji reports.

30-April-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Teen Sought in Fatal Stray Bullet Shooting	6:06 PM	6:08 PM	2:31	Local Origination	In Yonkers, NY, police are investigating an 8 th grade boy for firing a gun and killing an 18-year-old girl with the stray bullet. The girl was walking with her sister down the street when she was struck. A memorial has been placed in her honor on that same street. Marc Santia reports.
1-May-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Duplicate Billing Code	4:46 PM	4:46 PM	2:20	Local Origination	In West Brighton, Staten Island, a woman was injured while exercising at home on her treadmill. She went to the hospital and assumed Aetna, her health insurance provider, would cover her, but she ended up being double billed. Lynda Baquero reports.
1-May-19	Court and Legal Decisions	Police Chief & Others Indicted	5:29 PM	5:31 PM	2:00	Local Origination	Hempstead Police Chief Paul Johnson was charged with fixing traffic tickets in the time prior to his appointment as Chief of Police. Three other police officers have been indicted, all of whom pleaded not guilty and were released without bail. Greg Cergol reports.
1-May-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Protecting Your Privacy	11:15 PM	11:18 PM	3:01	Local Origination	Sven Dietrich, a Professor at John Jay College, explains that cyber security has decreased and your phone may be watching or listening to you. Andrew Siff reports.
2-May-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Billed For Someone Else's Tolls	4:45 PM	4:47 PM	2:14	Local Origination	In Westchester County, NY, a man was consistently being billed for unpaid EZ Pass tolls, but the car and license plate did not match his. He was concerned for his credit score and license renewal. Lynda Baquero reports.
2-May-19	Transportation	Summer of Train Pain	5:29 PM	5:31 PM	2:00	Local Origination	The MTA continues to work on railroad construction in Penn Station New York, leaving many commuters with delayed or alternative routes this summer. Brian Thompson reports.
2-May-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Former NYPD Officer Stops School Shooter	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	2:00	Local Origination	NYPD Commissioner O'Neill honored former NYPD Police Officer Rich Gundacker as a hero after he disarmed the UNC Charlotte school shooter. Andrew Siff reports.
2-May-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Terror Plot Ring Leader to be Set Free	6:00 PM	6:03 PM	2:52	Local Origination	The ringleader of a thwarted plot to bomb the New York City subway system in 2009 was effectively sentenced to time served. Jonathan Dienst reports.

3-May-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Travel Insurance Claim	4:45 PM	4:47 PM	2:26	Local Origination	A man from Brick, NJ, planned to take his girlfriend fishing in Ixtapa, Mexico. The U.S. State Department reported the area as a Level 4, meaning it was not safe to travel. When he canceled the trip, he was told he could not get a refund. Lynda Baquero reports.
3-May-19	Safety	Five Boro Bike Tour Co-Founder Remembered Ahead of Annual Event	5:15 PM	5:17 PM	2:03	Local Origination	In New York City, the Five Boro Bike Tour remembered its co-founder who was killed in a hit-and-run on Long Island. His friend, Leonard Diamond, spoke about how upsetting and weird it feels being without him at the event. They plan to continue holding this event in honor of him. Jamie Roth reports.
3-May-19	Safety	"Divine Intervention" in Sea Rescue	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	2:00	Local Origination	In Brick Township, NJ, a man took his boat out and spotted two teenagers in the water waving for help. They had been swept out to sea for two hours and were praying to be rescued. As the name of the man's boat was "Amen," the teens believe their prayers were answered. Ted Greenberg reports.
3-May-19	Transportation	Fight to Fund Transit Infrastructure	6:05 PM	6:07 PM	2:03	Local Origination	New York lawmakers visited the Second Avenue Subway in East Harlem in hopes to improve it. Many tunnels for commuters in the city are being reviewed for new improvements and renovations. Andrew Siff reports.
3-May-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: When Technology Turns into a Weapon	11:15 PM	11:18 PM	3:59	Local Origination	Law enforcement officials say harassers are increasingly using technology to get at their victims and tracking their every move. Jonathan Dienst reports.
4-May-19	Diversity	Visiones: Harvest Season Movie	6:44 AM	6:47 AM	3:32	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero interviews Bernardo Ruiz, director of the new documentary "Harvest Season." This documentary focuses on entrepreneurs and wine makers in Mexico. While filming, the lives of many were changed when a wildfire struck and destroyed the wine fields.
5-May-19	Diversity	Positively Black: The GEM Program	6:45 AM	6:48 AM	3:07	Local Origination	Tracie Strahan interviews Chyla Rivera, a sixth grader who is a part of the GEMs program at her school. GEMs is a district of Queens movement focused on empowering and providing strengths-based services young girls.

6-May-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Rodent Damage to Car	4:46 PM	4:49 PM	2:50	Local Origination	A woman in Whitestone, Queens, brought her Volkswagen to the mechanic when the engine light kept going on. The mechanic told her that the wires in her car were being eaten by rodents and she continued to pay for to repair the damages. Lynda Baquero reports.
6-May-19	Transportation	Section of Bridge Ahead of Schedule	4:56 PM	4:58 PM	2:03	Local Origination	In Queens, NY, the Kosciuszko Bridge will be opening in four months, according to Governor Cuomo. The bridge will be reducing traffic by adding three more lanes. Andrew Siff reports.
6-May-19	Environment	Power Pole Chemical Concerns	5:25 PM	5:26 PM	1:26	Local Origination	In Cranford, NJ, Pentachlorophenol has been damaging the power poles. Residents are concerned about the voltages and wires on the poles, and if they could possibly hit their house. Brian Thompson reports.
6-May-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Officer of the Month	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	2:14	Local Origination	On Staten Island, Detective Benny Colecchia and K-9 Timoshenko were honored for their exemplary performance and dedication. Detective Colecchia described how close of a bond Timoshenko and he have. Gaby Acevedo reports.
6-May-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Tenants Fight Building Owners	11:15 PM	11:16 PM	1:47	Local Origination	NYC tenants have endured horrendous conditions after being forced out of an East New York building and now a group of tenants are demanding to get their homes back. Melissa Russo reports.
7-May-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Waiting for a Rebate	4:46 PM	4:48 PM	2:42	Local Origination	In Massapequa, NY, a man spent thousands of dollars on Samsung products and applied to receive a rebate, which was a $150 Visa gift card. He waited for the rebate for a year, but never received it. Lynda Baquero reports.
7-May-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	New EMS Chief Marks First For FDNY	4:56 PM	4:58 PM	1:43	Local Origination	In Brooklyn, NY, Lillian Bonsignore was honored and promoted as the first woman Chief of EMS. Her family, friends, and children came to celebrate and support her on this day. Roseanne Colletti reports.

7-May-19	Safety	Lawsuits Over Cooking Spray Explosions	5:15 PM	5:17 PM	2:00	Local Origination	A Staten Island woman describes the blisters and pain that she faced after a cooking spray explosion in the kitchen. Other people across the country who have experienced these explosions and burns have filed a lawsuit against Conagra. Marc Santia reports.
7-May-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Illegal Housing Battle	11:15 PM	11:19 PM	3:56	Local Origination	There is a new battle over illegal housing in Rockland County. There is mounting pressure by a special task force and hearings ordered by a state senator. Sarah Wallace reports.
8-May-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Rental Car Accident	4:44 PM	4:47 PM	2:38	Local Origination	In Hoboken, NJ, a woman rented a car to drive home to Ohio for the holidays. While driving, she got into an accident and her car was towed. She had paid for insurance on the car but was still charged over $3,000 for the accident. Lynda Baquero reports.
8-May-19	Environment	Clean Street Fight	5:47 PM	5:48 PM	1:43	Local Origination	The Newark, NJ, police are starting to write tickets for cars parked in the street when trucks come to sweep. On sweeping days, parked cars will now be getting warnings, tickets, and towed. Brian Thompson reports.
9-May-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Hotel Reservation Fee	4:43 PM	4:46 PM	3:00	Local Origination	In Sparta, NJ, a woman planned a trip to Yellowstone National Park and reserved two rooms on the website U.S. Park Lodging. When she paid, she was charged a 10% fee on the cost that she had never agreed to. Lynda Baquero reports.
9-May-19	Environment	"Project Innovation" Reaches New Heights	4:56 PM	4:58 PM	2:10	Local Origination	The HOPE Program in the Bronx was honored through WNBC's Project Innovation, earning a check for $100,000. Jennifer Mitchell, the executive director, explains how HOPE helps people in the community build themselves and their futures while also helping the environment. Adam Kuperstein reports.
9-May-19	Accidents and Disasters	Fire Destroys HBO Film Location	5:59 PM	6:01 PM	1:11	Local Origination	In Ellenville, NY, a large fire destroyed a movie set where HBO was shooting a new series. Neighbors described the explosions they heard, and how everything is now covered in debris. Ken Buffa reports.

9-May-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Underage Access	11:14 PM	11:18 PM	3:56	Local Origination	An I-Team investigation found club promoters, working as independent contractors, offering to sneak underage women past bouncers and into seats at expensive, reserved tables. Chris Glorioso reports.
10-May-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Extra Charge on Resort Tab	4:45 PM	4:47 PM	2:30	Local Origination	A couple from Monticello, NY, decided to take a trip with other couples to the Dominican Republic. When they got their credit card bill, they noticed an additional $600 fee from the trip that they were unaware of. Lynda Baquero reports.
10-May-19	Environment	Old Garden May Get New Life	5:51 PM	5:53 PM	2:07	Local Origination	In Washington Heights, NY, the community came together to clean an old garden filled with garbage near a local school, turning it into a new, clean one. Gaby Acevedo reports.
10-May-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Deadly Armed Robbery Spree	6:02 PM	6:05 PM	2:52	Local Origination	A few armed men have been on a robbery spree in Irvington and Newark, NJ. There was a casualty in Newark, and police continue to search for the group of robbers. Brian Thompson reports.
11-May-19	Diversity	Visiones: Cirque Du Soleil's "Luzia" in Queens	6:45 AM	6:49 AM	3:34	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero interviews Majo Cornejo, the first female Mexican singer on the Cirque Du Soleil stage, and Kelly McDonald, an acrobat for Cirque Du Soleil. The two discuss their favorite aspects of "Luzia," their paths towards reaching the stage, and what they hope their audiences will take from the performance. "Luzia" will be performed through June 9 th at Under the Big Top, which is located near Citi Field.
12-May-19	Diversity	Positively Black: "We Build Black"	6:46 AM	6:51 AM	4:35	Local Origination	Tracie Strahan interviews Aditi Green and Chloe Rice, the founders of "We Build Black." They share their stories about being black women with jobs in technology. Their organization holds conferences to inform black women in technology and to encourage start up technology companies.
13-May-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Fire Insurance Claim	4:44 PM	4:46 PM	2:38	Local Origination	On Farmingdale, Long Island, a family's barbecue caused a fire, damaging most of their home. The family had Liberty Mutual Insurance, who kept sending the family letters that the amount they would cover was being reduced. Lynda Baquero reports.

13-May-19	Elderly-Seniors-Retirement	Veterans Take the Green	4:56 PM	4:57 PM	1:44	Local Origination	On Long Island, a golf tournament was held through the PGA Hope Program, which teaches golf to disabled veterans. Veterans in the tournament all agreed that golf takes their mind off any PTSD or disabilities and teaches them new life lessons. Greg Cergol reports.
13-May-19	Environment	The Hundred Stairs	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	2:08	Local Origination	In Passaic, NJ, the well-known The Hundred Stairs is falling into disrepair, forcing the city to shutdown visitor access. Many are hoping the historical landmark can be repaired. Gaby Acevedo reports.
14-May-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Vacation Medical Bill	4:44 PM	4:47 PM	2:40	Local Origination	Two friends from Brooklyn, NY, traveled to Jamaica on vacation and left with an expensive medical bill. They had travel insurance, which they believed covered all medical issues. When one of them was injured, the bill totaled nearly $5,000, prompting them to file a claim with Travel Guard. Lynda Baquero reports.
14-May-19	Civil Rights	Local Group Wants To "Reclaim Pride"	4:55 PM	4:57 PM	2:05	Local Origination	In New York City, the Reclaim Pride Coalition will march to reclaim Pride. They believe the massive Pride Parade in the city is commercialized and seems to be losing sight of the message of civil rights for all LGBTQ+ Americans. Jummy Olanji reports.
14-May-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Punished for Service?	5:30 PM	5:34 PM	4:04	Local Origination	The police chief at the center of a discrimination case claims he's actually the victim of discrimination by other city officials, because he's a veteran. Sarah Wallace reports.
14-May-19	Education	A Star Teacher is Born	5:47 PM	5:49 PM	1:40	Local Origination	In Fort Lee, NJ, science teacher Ann Cervone was honored as WNBC's Star Teacher at Christ The Teacher School. The students expressed their love and appreciation for her. Janice Huff reports.
15-May-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Paying for Parking	4:44 PM	4:47 PM	3:06	Local Origination	A man from Pompton Lakes, NJ, used a new parking app for when he commutes in and out of New York City. While using the app, he kept getting tickets even though he was paying for parking. He appealed the tickets, which totaled $260. Lynda Baquero reports.

15-May-19	Education	A Family Affair	5:25 PM	5:28 PM	2:09	Local Origination	A New Jersey family immigrated from Colombia with goals to graduate college. Both mother and daughter graduated together from William Paterson University, feeling especially accomplished to share this experience together. Gaby Acevedo reports.
15-May-19	Environment	What Happened to Point Pleasant Beach?	5:46 PM	5:48 PM	2:05	Local Origination	In Point Pleasant, NJ, Mayor Stephen Reid says that the Army Corp planned to fix the beach three years ago but it still has not happened. It is affecting business in the area. Brian Thompson reports.
15-May-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Bias Attack on Bus	6:04 PM	6:06 PM	2:05	Local Origination	In Paramus, NJ, police received a call from a bus driver when one passenger attacked the other. The attacker had a box cutter and was yelling racial slurs at the other man. Pat Battle reports.
16-May-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Trip Cancellation Insurance	4:43 PM	4:46 PM	2:35	Local Origination	In Scarsdale, NY, a man booked a trip with his wife with the airline "WOW." When the trip was canceled, he expected a full refund, as promised. He filed a claim, but they said no benefits were payable. Lynda Baquero reports.
16-May-19	Education	Science Teacher Now A Star	4:49 PM	4:52 PM	2:40	Local Origination	In Queens, NY, science teacher Greg Grambo was honored as WNBC's Star Teacher at Louis Armstrong Middle School. The students expressed their love and appreciation for him. Dave Price reports.
16-May-19	Health	Rats Cause Sickening Problem for School	5:48 PM	5:49 PM	1:52	Local Origination	At Deer Park High School on Long Island, many students have been sent home for being sick and throwing up due to a strong odor. The odor was found to be dead rats. Greg Cergol reports.
16-May-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Deed Disaster	11:15 PM	11:19 PM	3:58	Local Origination	A Long Island woman thought she owned her home – until she started getting eviction notices and learned the deed she signed is worthless. Pei-Sze Cheng reports.
17-May-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Auto Gap Insurance	4:44 PM	2:26 PM	2:30	Local Origination	A New Jersey man bought a car and agreed to pay $750 extra for gap insurance. When his son got into an accident, the gap insurance did not cover the damage. Lynda Baquero reports.

17-May-19	Government and Politics	Meet NJ's Youngest Mayor	4:55 PM	4:58 PM	3:07	Local Origination	In Elmwood Park, NJ, the youngest mayor, Dan Golabek, was sworn in at 24 years old. He explains how he needs to work twice as hard than his colleagues that are older than him. Brian Thompson reports.
17-May-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Family Treasure Stolen	5:31 PM	5:33 PM	1:45	Local Origination	In Midwood, Brooklyn, an elderly couple that has asked to be kept anonymous lost many priceless pieces of jewelry and family heirlooms after their home was burglarized. The couple was on vacation when the burglary occurred; when they returned, they found that cash, a credit card, and jewelry worth hundreds of thousands of dollars were stolen. Marc Santia reports.
17-May-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Missing Woman Mystery	11:14 PM	11:18 PM	4:23	Local Origination	A woman adopted at birth is searching for her biological mother and stumbles onto what could be a 40-year-old Long Island murder mystery. Jonathan Dienst reports.
18-May-19	Diversity	Visiones: Time of Transition for Dominican Day Parade	6:46 AM	6:50 AM	4:00	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero interviews Maria Khury, the Board Chairperson of the Dominican Day Parade, about how she is handing over her leadership to incoming Board Chair Wilton Cedeno. Cedeno plans on awarding more scholarships to students as he takes over.
19-May-19	Diversity	Positively Black: "Cocktails and Cancer"	6:47 AM	6:52 AM	5:25	Local Origination	Tracie Strahan interviews two women, Danielle Brown and Michelle James, who host a podcast called "Cocktails and Cancer." Their podcast allows them to tell their story and help others going through cancer or who have a loved one going through treatment.
20-May-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Vacation Double Charge	4:44 PM	4:46 PM	2:27	Local Origination	A Long Island mother used HomeAway.com to book a trip for her two sons. When she arrived, the resort told her she did not have a reservation there, and upon being directed to a different resort, she discovered she would have to pay for the hotel again. Lynda Baquero reports.
20-May-19	Safety	School Gyms Test Positive for Mercury Vapor	4:55 PM	4:57 PM	2:00	Local Origination	On Merrick, Long Island, three schools have detected mercury vapor in the air. State Senator Todd Kaminsky demands a ban on this type of flooring in the gym, where they believe the mercury vapor is coming from. Jamie Roth reports.

20-May-19	Transportation	Hoboken Begins E-Scooter Sharing	5:46 PM	5:48 PM	1:36	Local Origination	In Hoboken, NJ, Lime e-scooters have become available for public use. Safety, however, is a concern, as there have been accidents related to intoxication and recklessness in other cities that have permitted e-scooters for public use. Brian Thompson reports.
21-May-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Deposit Held for Three Years	4:45 PM	4:47 PM	2:20	Local Origination	A Bronx woman lost her pet parakeet and planned to keep his remains. She put down a deposit with a company, but never received the remains of her bird. Lynda Baquero reports.
21-May-19	Education	All in the Family	5:25 PM	5:27 PM	2:02	Local Origination	In Paterson, NJ, Avante and Taniesha Gilbert are brother and sister and basketball stars at Kennedy High School. The siblings will be attending St. Thomas Aquinas College on full scholarships and both will be studying Criminal Justice. Jen Maxfield reports.
21-May-19	Education	A Star Shines in Brooklyn	5:47 PM	5:49 PM	1:50	Local Origination	In Brooklyn, NY, Mr. Brent Smart was honored as WNBC's Star Teacher at Brownsville Ascend Lower School. The students and faculty expressed their love and appreciation for Mr. Smart. Janice Huff reports.
22-May-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Conflicting Calendar Birthday	4:44 PM	4:47 PM	2:30	Local Origination	In Toms River, NJ, a woman was planning on celebrating her 100 th birthday. She tried to apply for Medicare benefits, but received a notice about a discrepancy in her birth certificate. Lynda Baquero reports.
22-May-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Losing Count in the Tri-State	5:45 PM	5:48 PM	3:26	Local Origination	New York has one of the lowest response rates to the U.S. Census, due to either it's trust of the government that has dropped in immigrant communities, or high resident turnover rates in high poverty areas. Andrew Siff reports.
22-May-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Murder-For-Hire Target Talks	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	1:50	Local Origination	Former NYPD officer, Valerie Cincinelli, was charged with attempting to hire a hitman to kill her estranged husband. She released statements about planning a hit against her husband and her boyfriend's teenage daughter. Rana Novini reports.

22-May-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: NJ Man Arrested on Terror Charges	11:02 PM	11:04 PM	2:38	Local Origination	In Midtown, NY, a suspect planning on bombing Trump Tower went to the building to check out security, even allegedly laughing about the ways he could kill people in the area. Jonathan Dienst reports.
23-May-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Fire Safety for Seniors	4:44 PM	4:47 PM	3:00	Local Origination	A Brooklyn woman explains that she has trouble hearing and may not be able to hear the fire alarm. The National Fire Protection Association recommends smoke alarms on every level of the house. Lynda Baquero reports.
23-May-19	Transportation	Rescuing Items from the Subway Tracks	4:56 PM	4:57 PM	1:47	Local Origination	The MTA pick up crew has rescued many personal items for those who dropped them on the subway tracks. The crew does not charge any money or accept any tips. Adam Kuperstein reports.
23-May-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Illegal Housing Battle in NY	5:31 PM	5:34 PM	2:54	Local Origination	Illegal housing and lax code enforcement in Rockland County and across the state led New York legislators to host the first hearing on the crisis. Sarah Wallace reports.
23-May-19	Safety	Spotting A Potential School Shooter	5:51 PM	5:52 PM	1:52	Local Origination	In Morristown, NJ, town officials hold a training class on how to identify a potential school shooter. After the Newtown shooting, faculty are being trained how to identify the signs of a possible school shooter. Brian Thompson reports.
24-May-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Event Insurance	4:45 PM	4:47 PM	2:27	Local Origination	In Paramus, NJ, a woman bought Book of Mormon tickets for her family. She had Allianz insurance on the tickets in case something came up and they needed to cancel. When her family unexpectedly could not attend, she filed a claim to get her money back, but it was denied. Lynda Baquero reports.
24-May-19	Safety	Speed Camera Program Expansion	5:08 PM	5:10 PM	1:55	Local Origination	In New York City, NY, advocates speak out about the need for speed camera expansion. Rana Novini reports.
24-May-19	Safety	Training A Pack of Police Dogs	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	2:18	Local Origination	In New York City, police dogs are being trained to detect bombs on MTA transportation services. The dogs will be able to sniff out any bombs or weapons that may be dangerous. Jonathan Dienst reports.

25-May-19	Diversity	Visiones: Zon Del Barrio	6:45 AM	6:49 AM	5:27	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero interviews a group of performers that play at a street festival called Zon Del Barrio. The music they play celebrate all Latino and salsa music of New York City .
26-May-19	Diversity	Positively Black: African Film Festival	6:45 AM	6:49 AM	4:25	Local Origination	Tracie Strahan interviews Mahen Bonetti, director and founder of the African Film Festival, and actress Ellie Foubi. They describe the different films, locations, and story lines that are being made.
27-May-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Monitoring Online Behavior	4:45 PM	4:48 PM	2:30	Local Origination	The Barr family has recently began using the resource "uKnowKids," designed to monitor youth cell phone activity. uKnowKids scans social media and data activity, and provides parents with a report at the end of each day. Lynda Baquero reports.
27-May-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Thief Caught on Camera Stealing Savings Jar	5:06 PM	5:08 PM	1:30	Local Origination	The Morrisania section of the Bronx footage shows a thief stealing a savings jar with $4,000 from a storefront counter. The store owner had been saving up for years to send her daughter to college. Police are searching for the culprit. Gaby Acevedo reports.
28-May-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Insurance Premium Payments	4:44 PM	4:47 PM	2:45	Local Origination	In Monroe Township, NJ, Kaitlyn Muns's her father lost coverage for his vital medication after missing one payment. Lynda Baquero reports.
28-May-19	Health	Teen's Sight Saved	5:24 PM	5:26 PM	1:45	Local Origination	In Queens, NY, eighth-grader Ryan Bala tells the story of how he was blinded in his left eye and how Dr. Lee, despite every other doctor proclaiming it would be too risky, saved his eyesight by operating on him. Jummy Olabanji reports.
28-May-19	Government and Politics	I-Team: Dirty Politics	11:15 PM	11:18 PM	3:27	Local Origination	Andrew Boden is a candidate for Sussex County sheriff who has been deemed unfit for work. Boden believes the sheriff, Mike Strada, characterized him as such to deter Boden's candidacy. Strada denies the claim. Sarah Wallace reports.

29-May-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Dashboard Complaint	4:45 PM	4:47 PM	1:56	Local Origination	In Hillsdale, NJ, Suzanne Franco believed the dashboard on her Nissan was melting. Franco filed a complaint with Nissan, but the company won't issue her a new dashboard because her car is out of warranty. A lawsuit had previously taken place in Florida on similar grounds. Lynda Baquero reports.
29-May-19	Court and Legal Decisions	Mother Testifies Against Accused Killer Son	5:04 PM	5:06 PM	1:51	Local Origination	Tommy Gilbert is on trial in Lower Manhattan for reportedly killing his father. His mother, Shelly Gilbert, recently testified against him. Although she believes he should be hospitalized and not sent to prison, the court has determined him fit to stand trial. Roseanne Colletti reports.
29-May-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Knife-Wielding Robber Caught Without Mask	5:13 PM	5:15 PM	2:02	Local Origination	Video footage in the Lower East Side shows the face of a man who robbed a pizzeria while threatening the employee with a knife. The man is believed to have robbed three different pizza joints, and police forces are attempting to locate him. Gus Rosendale reports.
29-May-19	Government and Politics	I-Team: Disturbing Allegations in Sussex	5:50 PM	5:54 PM	4:17	Local Origination	A race for sheriff in Sussex County has gotten dirty and has prompted several officers to come forward with disturbing claims. Sarah Wallace reports.
30-May-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Prescription Drug Costs	4:48 PM	4:50 PM	2:03	Local Origination	A Rockland County man picked up his dog's medication at CVS for over $100, and later was informed that the Stop and Shop pharmacy price was significantly lower. Lynda Baquero reports.
30-May-19	Environment	Living Lesson at Brooklyn Cemetery	4:55 PM	4:57 PM	2:00	Local Origination	In Brooklyn, NY, students turned their lesson into an outdoor classroom by planting at a cemetery. The cemetery is a green historical landmark, and while cleaning it up, the class learned about nature. Gaby Acevedo reports.
30-May-19	Safety	Pair Found Clinging to Capsized Boat 65 Miles off New Jersey Coast	5:24 PM	5:27 PM	2:10	Local Origination	65 miles off the coast of Barnegat Light, on the Jersey Shore, a boat capsized and put a married couple in serious danger. After being stranded for three hours, a US Coast Guard rescued the couple, and they could not be more thankful. Ted Greenberg reports.

31-May-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Buying A Car Online	4:48 PM	4:51 PM	1:44	Local Origination	In Leonia, NJ, a man decided to order a car online for a reasonable price and believed it was reliable after seeing the pictures on the website. When he got the car, the parts were broken, and the car was unsafe to drive. When he asked to get reimbursed, he was denied. Lynda Baquero reports.
31-May-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Homeless Housing Scandal in Rockland Co.	5:29 PM	5:32 PM	3:19	Local Origination	A hotel in Rockland County has been given more than $40,000 in taxpayer money to help give temporary homes for those in need, but the conditions shared on social media were not welcoming. Sarah Wallace reports.
31-May-19	Transportation	Tap & Go Launched in Subways	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	1:30	Local Origination	In Fulton Street Station, Manhattan, the first OMNY tap & go system – which utilizes Apple Pay and contactless credit cards rather than metro cards – has been established. Physical OMNY cards are not available yet, though they are set to be integrated around 2021. Andrew Siff reports.
1-June-19	Diversity	Visiones: A Touch of Sugar	6:46 AM	6:49 AM	3:28	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero interviews Leticia Moreinos Schwartz, an author of three healthy cookbooks and a role in the documentary “A Touch of Sugar.” The documentary focuses on healthy lifestyles, Type 2 diabetes, and how to manage diabetes through healthy foods and changes.
2-June-19	Diversity	Positively Black: “Much Ado About Nothing”	6:45 AM	6:51 AM	5:35	Local Origination	Tracie Strahan interviews Kenny Leon, director of a Shakespeare production “Much Ado About Nothing,” and actor Jeremie Harris and actress Margaret Odette. The three describe the production and process of filming and how they work together.
3-June-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Losartan Drug Recall	4:43 PM	4:45 PM	2:35	Local Origination	In Jersey City, NJ, Deborah McWilliams has been a long-time user of Losartan, but the drug was recalled in January. Although Deborah has taken the necessary steps to be refunded, three months have passed, and she still hasn’t received her money back. Lynda Baquero reports.

3-June-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	New Law Prohibiting Panhandling	5:24 PM	5:26 PM	1:34	Local Origination	In Newark, NJ, residents discuss a new law that outlaws people from panhandling and fines anyone who gives money to panhandlers. It is unclear whether this will guide panhandlers to seek help or force them down criminal paths. Brian Thompson reports.
3-June-19	Funerals and Memorials	D-Day 75 Years Later	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	1:50	Local Origination	Three World War II veterans recount their experiences during the invasion of Normandy. The three men include Harry Arlin and Irving Goodman from Huntington, NY and John McHugh from Whitestone, NY. The veterans will be honored Thursday, June 6, which marks the 75-year anniversary of D-Day. Roseanne Colletti reports.
4-June-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Trading in a Cell Phone	4:45 PM	4:47 PM	2:28	Local Origination	A Connecticut woman traded in an old phone for a new phone expecting a reimbursement for the old one. When she was billed for her new phone, Samsung emailed her that the trade-in requirements were not met and that she would not receive credit for her old phone. Lynda Baquero reports.
4-June-19	Civil Rights	Living Monument Honors 50 Years of Pride	4:56 PM	4:58 PM	1:56	Local Origination	The Stonewall Monument honors the LGBTQ community and the 50 years of pride in Greenwich Village. A digital archive was created to share the monument of the stone wall all around the world for those excluded from the landmark. Gus Rosendale reports.
4-June-19	Accidents and Disasters	Woman Nearly Hit by Falling Subway Track Debris	5:24 PM	5:26 PM	2:03	Local Origination	In Woodside, Queens, a woman was crossing the street under the subway and just nearly missed two rusted metal debris falling on her. This is the fifth time debris had fallen from these tracks. People living in the community believe the bridge is dangerous and the MTA should put netting up. Katherine Creag reports.
4-June-19	Environment	Newest Section of the High Line Opens	5:47 PM	5:49 PM	2:10	Local Origination	In Manhattan, the newest section of the High Line, The Spur, opened with views of 40 th street and 10 th Avenue. Tourists and New Yorkers love the new section and the new sculpture, representing black beauty. Rana Novini reports.

5-June-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Medication Insurance Coverage	4:44 PM	4:47 PM	2:29	Local Origination	In Battery Park City, Tracey Keay-Powell was informed that her medical coverage would cover injections to treat her eczema and psoriasis. However, after receiving the injections, she received a bill for over $10,000 and was informed that she was not covered. Lynda Baquero reports.
5-June-19	Court and Legal Decisions	Defense Witness Testifies Chokehold did not Kill Eric Garner	5:02 PM	5:04 PM	2:17	Local Origination	Stu London, the defense attorney for Officer Pantaleo, who is charged with killing Eric Garner, claims that Pantaleo's chokehold did not contribute to Garner's death. Retired NYPD Sgt. Russel Jung also testified that the officer did not administer a chokehold, but rather the "seatbelt maneuver" that officers are trained to use. Andrew Siff reports.
5-June-19	Animal Welfare and Adoption	Love is Blind for Four-Legged Father	5:24 PM	5:25 PM	1:34	Local Origination	In Lacey Township, NJ, two dogs—a father and son—are up for co-adoption. The father serves as a guide-dog for his blind son, and the two refuse to be separated from each other. The dogs are still up for co-adoption, and the clinic is looking for an experienced dog owner. Ted Greenberg reports.
5-June-19	Funerals and Memorials	A D-Day Pilot's Reflections	5:55 PM	5:58 PM	3:14	Local Origination	In Oxford, CT, 96-year-old David Hamilton recounts his experiences as a pilot on D-Day. In commemoration of the 75-year anniversary of D-Day, troops will fly Douglas C-47s—the same type of plane that Hamilton and his fellow pilots flew—over Normandy. Stefan Holt reports.
5-June-19	Court and Legal Decisions	I-Team: Minister's Son on Trial for Murder	6:06 PM	6:09 PM	3:01	Local Origination	In Queens Criminal Court, Ajaye Neale continues to defend himself against claims that he committed murder. The case has gone on for over five years and has been plagued by controversy, including questionable line-ups and allegations of witness coercion on both sides. Sarah Wallace reports.

6-June-19	Funerals and Memorials	Better Get Baquero: Funeral Home Prices	4:45 PM	4:48 PM	3:19	Local Origination	A new website has been created called "funeralocity.com" which allows users to compare funeral prices. The website is designed to counteract surging funeral prices, inform users of the rights they have when preparing for a funeral, and recommend certain companies. Lynda Baquero reports.
6-June-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Criticized for Service	5:45 PM	5:48 PM	3:29	Local Origination	In Edison, NJ, Sgt. David Tingle, an Air Force veteran, was criticized by Anthony Russomanno—the town's director of public works—on a series of Facebook posts. Russomanno characterized Tingle's service as "just flying around the world" in one of his posts. When interviewed, Russomanno stood strong by his comments. Sarah Wallace reports.
6-June-19	Environment	Toxic Clinging Jellyfish Down the Shore	5:55 PM	5:57 PM	1:59	Local Origination	In North Wildwood, NJ, a toxic strand of clinging jellyfish is showing up in several small bodies of water. Researchers from Montclair State University confirm that it is unlikely the jellyfish will begin appearing in the Jersey Shore, and they are continuing to research them to learn more information. Ted Greenberg reports.
7-June-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Military Accident Medical Bill	4:45 PM	4:48 PM	3:20	Local Origination	In Brooklyn, Deborah Perez, a veteran of the US military, recounts the gruesome car accident she was a part of that resulted in her leg being amputated. When she arrived home after two years of recovery, she found a bill for $4,439 for x-rays, despite the injury occurring while Perez was on active duty. Lynda Baquero reports.
7-June-19	Animal Welfare and Adoption	New Jersey Turtle Patrol	5:25 PM	5:26 PM	1:11	Local Origination	In New Jersey, members of the "Turtle Patrol" work to prevent terrapins from becoming road kill. This year, the terrapins' nesting season began earlier than normal. Members of the Turtle Patrol believe this is due to warmer weather. Ted Greenberg reports.

7-June-19	Court and Legal Decisions	I-Team: Challenging a Conviction	5:46 PM	5:49 PM	2:33	Local Origination	Robert Majors, who is in his 22 nd year of imprisonment, is accusing Queens prosecutors of an “egregious violation.” A police report was recently found claiming that Majors was nowhere near the crime he was imprisoned for; Majors argues that he was never shown this report. Chris Glorioso reports.
7-June-19	Funerals and Memorials	Temptations now on Apollo Walk of Fame	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	1:58	Local Origination	In Harlem, lines of people crowded the streets to celebrate The Temptations’ new spot on the Apollo Walk of Fame. Otis Williams, the last surviving member of the group, was present for the celebration. Roseanne Colletti reports.
8-June-19	Diversity	Visiones: Ailey School Celebrating 50 Years with Special Performances at Lincoln Center	6:44 AM	6:48 AM	3:34	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero interviews Guillermo Asca about his experiences with the Ailey School, which is celebrating its 50 th year with a variety of musical performances at Lincoln Center.
9-June-19	Diversity	Positively Black: Universal Hip Hop Museum in the Bronx Expected to Open in 2023	6:46 AM	6:50 AM	3:57	Local Origination	Tracie Strahan interviews Rocky Bucano, the co-founder of Universal Hip Hop Museum, and the two discuss the steps that were taken to make the museum a reality
10-June-19	Accidents and Disasters	Breaking News: One Dead in Midtown Chopper Crash	5:29 PM	5:32 PM	2:42	Local Origination	A helicopter crashed on a skyscraper in Midtown, killing the pilot and damaging the building. Everyone within and surrounding the building was evacuated, and there were no additional injuries. Andrew Siff reports.
10-June-19	Health	Rare Virus Spread by Ticks	5:57 PM	5:58 PM	1:25	Local Origination	In Sussex County, NJ, Dianne Rude tells the story of how her father died from a tick-borne disease. Rude’s father is the second person in Sussex County to contract the rare disease. The CDC cautions everyone to be especially aware of any potential tick bites. Brian Thompson reports.
11-June-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Car Repair Delay	4:45 PM	4:47 PM	2:54	Local Origination	A Staten Island man’s car was hit by another driver when he was inside his house and heard the noise. The damages cost $8,000 and he waited weeks for the parts to repair the damage. He called his insurance company Geico, but he had not heard back from the car company as he waited for the repairs. Lynda Baquero reports.

11-June-19	Children & Youth	Weather Kids Hawkins Street School	4:51 PM	4:51 PM	0:45	Local Origination	Storm Team 4's Reporter Dave Price visits Hawkins Street Elementary School in Newark, NJ to discuss weather to over 30 third graders.
11-June-19	Education	Immigrant Professors Teaching Free Classes	4:55 PM	4:57 PM	1:47	Local Origination	In Prospect Park, Manhattan, immigrant professors teach free classes at a spot in the park and share different cultures and stories to the public. Larger crowds are coming week to week, allowing those to learn while meeting new people. Gaby Acevedo reports.
12-June-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Collection Notice for Ambulance	4:44 PM	4:46 PM	2:28	Local Origination	In Ozone Park, Queens, Antonio Medina recounts the time when, two years ago while working with the US Postal Service, he was rushed to the hospital for chest pain. Although he thought his insurance covered the hospital charges, he received a bill for about $1,900 more than a year later. Lynda Baquero reports.
12-June-19	Government and Politics	I-Team: Political Controversy in Edison, NJ	5:30 PM	5:33 PM	2:54	Local Origination	In Edison, NJ, the Edison City Councilman is expected to call for the ouster of the public official who questioned a police sergeant's military service. This report is a follow-up to the previous I-Team segment on the controversy in Edison, and it focuses on showing the many people who have come to Sgt. Tingle's defense. Sarah Wallace reports.
13-June-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Water Line Protection Plan	4:44 PM	4:47 PM	2:50	Local Origination	In Richmond Hill, Queens, Christine Persuade purchased a water line protection plan. About four months after enrolling, Christine noticed her water pressure began to decrease. When she asked her insurer to investigate the problem, they informed her that her insurance would not cover repairs because the problem was caused by electrolysis. Lynda Baquero reports.
13-June-19	Government and Politics	Historic Next Step for LGBTQ-Owned Business	5:24 PM	5:26 PM	1:58	Local Origination	The LGBTQ-owned restaurant, Etcetera Etcetera is sparking discussion on whether LGBTQ-owned businesses should receive certain certifications in NYC, in large part due to the significant revenue they garner. Erica Byfield reports.

13-June-19	Court and Legal Decisions	I-Team: Interview with Girl who went Missing from ACS	5:30 PM	5:33 PM	2:57	Local Origination	In Lower Manhattan, Laquana Clotter discusses how she desired to receive full custody of a teenager months before she went missing. Clotter was a close friend of the teenager's mom, whose death caused Clotter to pursue custody. Sarah Wallace reports.
13-June-19	Funerals and Memorials	Following the "Unknown Trail"	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	1:40	Local Origination	In NJ, public officials and family members of the late Anthony Bourdain celebrate the opening of the Bourdain Food Trail, almost one year after his death. Bourdain grew up in NJ and had always desired to open a food hub there. The Bourdain Food Trail will feature different restaurants that all showcase the diversity of NJ food. Adam Kuperstein reports.
14-June-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	School Shooting Threat Thwarted	5:00 PM	5:02 PM	2:06	Local Origination	In Westfield, NJ, police arrested a Delaware man at an Elementary school. He was caught with a gun and ammunition. His brother called Delaware police and warned them about his brother's state of mind. Delaware police then contacted Westfield police, who made the arrest. Checkey Beckford reports.
14-June-19	Environment	Confirmed Tornado Touchdown	5:15 PM	5:17 PM	2:06	Local Origination	In Mullica Hill, NJ, a tornado hits. Residents tell NBC 4 NY about the damage it made to their properties. Emergency management surveys the area to determine if this and another tornado are related. Ted Greenberg reports.
14-June-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Minister's Son Cleared of Murder	5:30 PM	5:33 PM	3:04	Local Origination	In Queens, Ejjah Neil was acquitted of opening fire in a crowded park in May 2014, killing an alleged gang member. The case lasted five years and had allegations of coercion on both sides. Sarah Wallace reports.
14-June-19	Consumer	Betting the Farm on Hemp	5:55 PM	5:58 PM	3:13	Local Origination	In Goshen, NY, a fifth-generation farm now grows and sells hemp, which is now legal. The Orange County Industrial Development Agency, a non-profit, is helping as many as 12 farms in five counties navigate the commerce of hemp. Adam Kuperstein reports.

15-June-19	Diversity	Visiones: Camp Junior	6:45 AM	6:49 AM	3:21	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero interviews Fatima Sharma, the executive director of the Fresh Air Fund, about her creation of Camp Junior—a free summer camp named in honor of Lesandro, “Junior,” Guzman-Felix, the young man who was recently murdered in the Bronx.
16-June-19	Diversity	Positively Black: Harlem Lacrosse Program	6:46 AM	6:50 AM	4:29	Local Origination	Tracie Strahan interviews Drew Jenkins, the coach and director of the Harlem Lacrosse Program. The HLP is a non-profit organization formed over a decade ago at the Frederick Douglass Academy in West Harlem.
17-June-19	Children & Youth	Weather Kids Space Shuttle Columbia School	4:19 PM	4:20 PM	0:30	Local Origination	Storm Team 4’s Weather Anchor Dave Price visits P.S. 58, Space Shuttle Columbia School, in Staten Island to discuss the weather to over 90 third graders.
17-June-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Deal on Smartphones	4:45 PM	4:47 PM	2:32	Local Origination	In the Upper West Side, Erin Hardtke purchased a new iPhone on Black Friday and expected to receive about a $400 discount, but she ended up being billed in full. After trying to resolve the issue with Verizon for about 6 months, Hardtke decided to reach out to Baquero. Lynda Baquero reports.
17-June-19	Children & Youth	Hoop Dreams in the Bronx	5:57 PM	5:58 PM	1:32	Local Origination	In the Bronx, students at P.S. 176 watch their teachers face off against the Harlem Globetrotters. Over the past year, the Globetrotters have played in over 450 communities across the U.S. and have raised thousands of dollars to rebuild schools in Southeast Africa. Gaby Acevedo reports.
18-June-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Money for Home Repairs	4:43 PM	4:46 PM	3:01	Local Origination	On Point Lookout, Long Island, Michael Towers’ home has been rendered unsafe. After going through an extensive process to secure insurance for the repairs, Towers is still owed $65,000 from Bank of America. Lynda Baquero reports.
18-June-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Gang Drug Bust in Newark	5:32 PM	5:33 PM	1:28	Local Origination	In Newark, NJ, a “violent Newark Gang” was taking in $10,000 a day in exchange for heroin and crack cocaine. The building they sold from was boarded up prior to a federal raid this morning. Agents have identified 27 suspects, all of whom are arrested aside from four individuals. Brian Thompson reports.

18-June-19	Safety	Fighting the Opioid Crisis in New Jersey	5:50 PM	5:52 PM	1:39	Local Origination	Pharmacies across the state of New Jersey are giving out Narcan—the drug used to save lives in opioid overdose emergencies—for free. Over 20,000 Narcan boxes were shipped out by the Health Department, pharmacies report that they're selling fast. Ida Siegel reports.
18-June-19	Education	Learning to Teach	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	1:41	Local Origination	In the Bronx, a non-profit called HIPPY—Home Instruction for Parents of Pre-kindergarten Youngsters—is helping parents prepare their children for school. HIPPY helps parents teach their children discipline and structure, and the program focuses on subjects such as reading, math, and science. Roseanne Colletti reports.
18-June-19	Transportation	I-Team: Tricked out & Dangerous	6:17 PM	6:19 PM	2:38	Local Origination	New "straight pipe exhaust modifications" make some cars exhaust sound like gunfire. In addition to scaring nearby individuals, the modification also has the potential to trigger the NYPD's gunshot detection system, which would result in the unnecessary dispatch of officers. Chris Glorioso reports.
19-June-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Using Credit Card Points for Travel	4:44 PM	4:46 PM	2:29	Local Origination	In Fort Lee, NJ, Eunseon Kim believed she would be rewarded travel points for using her Hilton Honors American Express credit card. However, the points never showed up on her account, despite how frequently she used her credit card. Lynda Baquero reports.
19-June-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Finding New Police Recruits in Newark	5:05 PM	5:06 PM	1:26	Local Origination	In Newark, NJ, police are on the streets recruiting Newark residents to join the Newark Police Department. Det. Idell Robinson considers it a great opportunity for residents, particularly teenagers and recently graduated college students, to have a positive impact on themselves and the community. Brian Thompson reports.
19-June-19	Consumer	Too Sexy for the Subway?	5:14 PM	5:16 PM	1:58	Local Origination	In Brooklyn, Alexandra Fine reached out to the MTA requesting to advertise her company's sex toys and, though MTA originally agreed, the company later refused Fine's request. Adam Kuperstein reports.

19-June-19	Housing	New Hope for Homeless Teenagers	5:57 PM	5:58 PM	1:43	Local Origination	In Manhattan, NY, Nancy Downing, the executive director of Covenant House, discusses her company's plans to tear down its old building and construct a new, 80,000 square foot space for homeless teenagers. The new building will include art and music studios, as well as basketball courts. The building is set to open sometime in 2021. John Chandler reports.
20-June-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Exchanging Event Tickets	4:44 PM	4:47 PM	2:20	Local Origination	A New Jersey woman bought tickets to the 2018 Lantern Fest, in the Poconos. The event got rescheduled, and upon contacting the company, she found out they were no longer operating. A similar event put on by a different company, upon request, honored the woman's tickets for this year's event. Lynda Baquero reports.
20-June-19	Education	Proposal to Monitor Hempstead Schools	5:09 PM	5:11 PM	2:05	Local Origination	The Albany State Assembly will vote on a bill that already passed the Senate. The bill would appoint three monitors to supervise the finances of the troubled school district. The monitors would also have some control powers on school board decisions. Pei-Sze Cheng reports.
20-June-19	Court and Legal Decisions	Governor Murphy Signs 'Sami's Law'	5:16 PM	5:18 PM	2:00	Local Origination	In Robbinsville, NJ, Governor Murphy signed a measure that requires enhanced identification for ride-share vehicles. Roseanne Colletti reports.
20-June-19	Transportation	Creating a new PATH	5:46 PM	5:48 PM	2:03	Local Origination	Port Authority announced a major new plan for PATH trains between Hudson county and Manhattan. The improvement plan also promises to increase in Newark-WTC service by September, and in the rest of the lines by 2022. Andrew Siff reports.
20-June-19	Children & Youth	Kicking It at the Health & Fitness Expo	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	2:00	Local Origination	The New York Red Bulls' Brian White discusses his soccer journey. Pat Battle reports.
20-June-19	Children & Youth	I-Team: Puppet Program Saved	6:17 PM	6:20 PM	3:00	Local Origination	The City Council put more than $200,000 into the city budget to help fund a New York program that uses puppets to help children talk about abuse. Run by the non-profit The New York Foundling, which was running out of funds in January, the program is saved. Melissa Russo reports.

21-June-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	1 Month Since Connecticut Mom Disappeared	5:15 PM	5:17 PM	1:54	Local Origination	In New Canaan, CT, police continue to search for evidence of Jennifer Dulos, who disappeared one month ago. Dulos was last seen dropping off her children at school. Both Dulos' estranged husband and his current girlfriend have been arrested on charges of evidence tampering. Marc Santia reports.
21-June-19	Accidents and Disasters	Drying out & Cleaning Up	5:46 PM	5:48 PM	2:09	Local Origination	In Lumberton, NJ, residents are cleaning up after a flash flood hit the community. Some homeowners cannot even begin cleaning their houses because the water has not yet receded enough. Farm owners are also concerned that the floods will permanently damage their crops. Ted Greenberg reports.
21-June-19	Elderly-Seniors-Retirement	A Veteran and Now a Scholar	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	1:56	Local Origination	In Garfield, NJ, John Benanti discusses his experiences being drafted into World War II as a teenager. Gaby Acevedo reports.
22-June-19	Diversity	Visiones: Naturalization Clinic in Queens	6:45 AM	6:48 AM	2:58	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero interviews Yleana Roman of NY Lawyers for the Public Interest and Chloe Moore of Catholic Migration Services. The two discuss their corporations' partnership to offer free legal advice to anyone who is pursuing citizenship and has held a green card for at least five years.
23-June-19	Diversity	Positively Black: 'Ain't Too Proud'	6:45 AM	6:49 AM	4:20	Local Origination	Tracie Strahan interviews Ephraim Sykes, the actor who plays David Ruffin in the musical about The Temptations, "Ain't Too Proud." Sykes discusses how honored he has felt playing the role and the valuable time he spent working with Otis Williams of The Temptations.
24-June-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Stadium Seating Chart	4:46 PM	4:49 PM	3:15	Local Origination	A Staten Island grandmother bought tickets to a Yankees game for her grandson's birthday. She bought four tickets via Ticketmaster and selected front row seats. However, on the Yankees official seating chart, the seats were in a completely different location and Ticketmaster refused a complete refund. Lynda Baquero reports.

24-June-19	Transportation	Combating Fare Evasion with Shame	5:30 PM	5:32 PM	1:50	Local Origination	MTA Board member, Sarah Feinberg, wants to shame fare beaters by releasing footage from surveillance cameras. This year alone, the MTA is set to lose $260M due to fare evasion. Erica Byfield reports.
24-June-19	Health	Drinking Water Safety Concerns	5:46 PM	5:48 PM	1:55	Local Origination	In Long Beach, Long Island, a ban on drinking tap water was lifted, however residents are skeptical. Suspected E. Coli contamination forced restaurants to post warning signs, and schools to close as precaution. Residents are turning to bottle and boiled water. Gus Rosendale reports.
24-June-19	Children & Youth	Kicking it with the Women's Soccer Team	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	1:40	Local Origination	In Somerset, NJ, youth soccer and Sky Blue FC players came together to watch the Women's USA soccer team play against Spain. The First Lady of New Jersey, Tammy Murphy, hosted the event. Gaby Acevedo reports.
25-June-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Pet Car Seat Issue	4:45 PM	4:48 PM	2:38	Local Origination	In Woodland Park, NJ, Barbara Wood discusses her purchase of a protective layer for the white leather seats of her car to prevent damage from her dog. Wood paid $30 for the protective layer from Pet Ninja, but she soon discovered that Pet Ninja's product caused permanent marks to form on her seat. After requesting a full refund and payment for her damaged seat from Pet Ninja, Wood was denied. Lynda Baquero reports.
25-June-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Police Track Down Accused Bike Thief	5:15 PM	5:17 PM	1:39	Local Origination	In Piermont, NY, the man caught on camera stealing a $6,000 bike last August was recently tracked down and charged by police. Police used facial recognition software, EZ-Pass trips, and other techniques to track down the thief. Ida Siegal reports.
25-June-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Video Shows Suspect Shoot at Car	5:29 PM	5:31 PM	1:15	Local Origination	In Sheepshead Bay, Brooklyn, video footage caught a man shooting at a car following a brief altercation. A passenger in the car was struck in the head, though he is expected to recover. Police are investigating whether the incident was a result of road rage and are actively pursuing the shooter. Erica Byfield reports.

25-June-19	Accidents and Disasters	Fire Destroys Paterson, NJ Homes	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	1:27	Local Origination	In Paterson, NJ, 13 families been displaced due to a fire that spread across Paterson Summer Street. It is unclear what caused the fire, but Charlie Harris—whose home and many personal belongings were destroyed—believes intruders may be responsible for the fire. Roseanne Colletti reports.
25-June-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Newark Cop Breaking his Silence	5:59 PM	6:02 PM	3:52	Local Origination	In Newark, NJ, Police Officer Jovanny Crespo fired at a fleeing car three times during a police pursuit in January. The driver of the car was killed. Last month, Crespo was indicted on aggravated manslaughter and assault charges. Sarah Wallace reports.
26-June-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Broken Glasses	4:45 PM	4:48 PM	2:49	Local Origination	In Lyceum Estates, Staten Island, Tracey Henriquez decided to invest in a new pair of prescription glasses. She went to Cohens Fashion Optical and paid $831 for a pair of Jimmy Choo frames. When the frames broke out of no fault of Henriquez's, she sent them back to Jimmy Choo, but was told that it wasn't a manufacturing defect and she would have to buy another pair of frames on her own. Lynda Baquero reports.
26-June-19	Children & Youth	Prom for LGBTQ Youth	5:16 PM	5:18 PM	1:50	Local Origination	In Hauppauge, LI, top-level hair stylists and makeup artists have volunteered to prepare LGBTQ Prom participants for the night free of charge. Over 220 people are expected to attend the event. Gaby Acevedo reports.
26-June-19	Safety	Jersey Shore Lifeguard Shortage	5:45 PM	5:47 PM	1:46	Local Origination	In Cape May, NJ, many beaches along the Jersey Shore do not have a sufficient number of lifeguards on duty. Authorities attribute the shortage to a lack of affordable summer housing, as well as demanding academic obligations such as internships or school credits. Ted Greenberg reports.
26-June-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Indicted Newark Cop on the Offensive	6:06 PM	6:09 PM	2:39	Local Origination	In Newark, NJ, Police Officer Jovanny Crespo held a news conference to again proclaim his innocence with his attorney noting specific circumstances which support his case. Sarah Wallace reports.

27-June-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Window Installation	4:45 PM	4:47 PM	2:02	Local Origination	In Towaco, NJ, Joseph Rombola has been waiting for a new window to be installed in his kitchen for months. He bought the window from Lowe's and paid for installation. The contractor gave him a timetable of two months for the job, but the installation has continuously been pushed back. Lynda Baquero reports.
27-June-19	Housing	Cracking Down on Problem Properties	5:24 PM	5:26 PM	1:49	Local Origination	In Seaside Heights, NJ, the community has renewed its crackdown on problematic rental properties. Mayor Tony Vaz discusses his goal to increase the quality of life for both year-round and summer Seaside Heights residents. Ted Greenberg reports.
27-June-19	Animal Welfare and Adoption	Beach Goes to the Birds	5:48 PM	5:50 PM	1:47	Local Origination	In Point Pleasant, NJ, different species of endangered birds have been flocking to the community beach by Jenkinson's Boardwalk. A section of the beach has been roped off to the public in order to provide a safe environment for the birds. Brian Thompson reports.
28-June-19	Children & Youth	'Camp Junior' Opens in Honor of Bronx Teen	4:23 PM	4:35 PM	1:44	Local Origination	In the Belmont section of the Bronx, Camp Junior—a free sleepaway camp for Bronx residents—has opened for its first summer. The camp is named in honor of Lesandro "Junior" Guzman-Felix, who was a victim of gang violence in the Bronx last summer. Gaby Acevedo reports.
28-June-19	Court and Legal Decisions	Accomplice Sentenced in Stern Murder	4:31 PM	4:33 PM	1:41	Local Origination	In Freehold, NJ, Preston Taylor apologized in court for his role in murdering and throwing 19-year-old Sarah Stern's body off the Route 35 bridge into Shark River. The murder occurred over two and a half years ago, and Taylor has received a sentence of 18 years in prison. Brian Thompson reports.
28-June-19	Health	Fighting Food Allergies	5:55 PM	5:58 PM	3:42	Local Origination	In Teaneck, NJ, two of Cheryl Jacobo's daughters were born with severe food allergies. When one of Jacobo's daughters, Emmy, was eight, her doctor suggested Oral Immuno Therapy to combat the allergies. Over 100 kids have graduated the program. Pat Battle Reports.

28-June-19	Court and Legal Decisions	Mom Charged with Murders of 2-Year-Old Twins	6:11 PM	6:13 PM	1:50	Local Origination	In Suffolk County, NY, Tenia Campbell has been accused of murdering her twin, 2-year-old girls. Tenia was the subject of a county-wide police search after her mother alerted authorities that Tenia had expressed plans to kill herself and her children. Tenia is expected back in court on July 3 rd and will face 25 years to life in prison. Pei-Sze Cheng reports.
29-June-19	Diversity	Visiones: "Backpack Full of Cash"	6:45 AM	6:49 AM	4:15	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero interviews Sarah Mondale, Vera Aronow, and Nicholas Cruz from the upcoming documentary Backpack Full of Cash . The film explores the privatization in private schools.
30-June-19	Diversity	Positively Black: "Lady 5 @ Savion Glover's BaRoQUE TaP Café"	6:46 AM	6:51 AM	4:30	Local Origination	Tracie Strahan interviews Savion Glover, a Tony-Award winning tap dancer, about his new show, "BaRoQUE'BLaK TaP CaFe," which will play in Chelsea, NY. With this show, Glover hopes the audience examines themselves, and become mindful of what they hear versus what they think they see.