

WNBC-TV

QUARTERLY ISSUES REPORT

4th Quarter 2019:
OCTOBER, NOVEMBER AND DECEMBER

Quarterly Issues and Programs Report OCTOBER, NOVEMBER AND DECEMBER 2019

Through formal and informal ascertainment of the general public, community leaders, public officials - inclusive of different ethnic organizations and service organizations, the following list emerged as potential, community-themed issues which require media attention and support.

Accidents and Disasters	Elderly-Seniors-Retirement
Animal Welfare and Adoption	Environment
Civil Rights	Funerals and Memorials
Children & Youth	Government and Politics
Consumer	Health
Court and Legal Decisions	Housing
Crime and Law Enforcement	Poverty
Diversity	Safety
Education	Transportation

The programs produced to meet the needs of the public included locally-produced shows and newscasts as well as national programs, public service announcement campaigns and sales marketing campaigns.

Regularly Scheduled Programs

Our locally produced, regularly scheduled programs are aired specifically to address community issues, concerns and needs. The programs include News 4 New York.

WNBC's daily newscasts devote considerable time to local issues and community problems.

Regularly scheduled newscasts include:

Program	Time	Days
Today in New York	4:00am-7:00am	Monday-Friday
News 4 NY at 11:00am	11:00am-11:30am	Monday-Friday
News 4 NY at 4:00pm	4:00pm-5:00pm	Monday-Friday
News 4 NY at 5:00pm	5:00pm-6:00pm	Monday-Friday
News 4 NY at 6:00pm	6:00pm-6:30pm	Monday-Friday
News 4 NY at 11:00pm	11:00pm-11:30pm	Monday-Friday
Saturday Today in NY	6:00am-7:00am	Saturday
Saturday Today in NY	8:30am-9:30am	Saturday
News 4 NY at 6:00pm	6:00pm-6:30pm	Saturday
News 4 NY at 11:00pm	11:00pm-11:30pm	Saturday
Sunday Today in NY	6:00am-8:00am	Sunday
Sunday Today in NY	10:00am-10:30am	Sunday
News 4 NY at 6:00pm	6:00pm-6:30pm	Sunday
News 4 NY at 11:00pm	11:00pm-11:30pm	Sunday

Date	Category	Title	Start Time	End Time	Duration	Source	Description
1-October-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Airport Parking Charge	4:44 PM	4:47 PM	2:23	Local Origination	At Newark Liberty Airport in Newark, NJ, Angela Hark's E-ZPass was charged $1,248 for 20 minutes of parking due to a glitch in the airport's new parking system. The airport's short-term parking lot can be paid using E-ZPass. Hark disputed the toll, but it was denied. Lynda Baquero reports.
1-October-19	Court and Legal Decisions	Chris Collins Pleads Guilty to Insider Trading	5:02 PM	5:04 PM	1:53	Local Origination	In Lower Manhattan, NY, former Upstate New York Congressman Chris Collins pleaded guilty in court to insider trading. Collins admitted to sharing confidential information with his son and soon-to-be father-in-law knowing they would sell their shares in the company. Rana Novini reports.
1-October-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Bike Thieves Target Packages on Porches	5:31 PM	5:33 PM	2:07	Local Origination	In Belleville, NJ, three young men on bikes are stealing packages off the front porch of people's homes. A few residents have captured surveillance footage of the thieves. Police are on the lookout for where the men will strike next. Brian Thompson reports.
1-October-19	Safety	I-Team: A Deadly Year for Bicyclists	6:16 PM	6:20 PM	3:40	Local Origination	In New York, NY, 22 bicyclists have died in the city this year. The I-Team reviewed federal data from 54 fatal crashes in the city that occurred between 2015 and 2017 to figure out why these deadly crashes happen so often. Andrew Siff reports.
2-October-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: New Wheelchair	4:44 PM	4:48 PM	3:24	Local Origination	In the Bronx, NY, Margie Cruz had been trying to get a new motorized wheelchair after her old one broke. Her doctor then mistakenly prescribed her a scooter. Due to her weight, she needed a motorized wheelchair. It took over a year to get the chair she needed. Lynda Baquero reports.

2-October-19	Accidents and Disasters	Vintage B-17 Crashes at Bradley Airport	4:59 PM	5:01 PM	2:30	Local Origination	In Windsor Locks, CT, multiple fatalities and injuries have been reported after a vintage WWII B-17 aircraft crashed at Bradley Airport. There were 10 passengers and three crew members on board. Gus Rosendale reports.
2-October-19	Animal Welfare and Adoption	Feral Feline Problem in Garfield	5:57 PM	5:59 PM	1:48	Local Origination	In Garfield, NJ, colonies of feral cats are taking over the neighborhoods. Town officials have an active trap neuter release program set up to resolve the problem. Neighbors have been dealing with this issue for four years and say town officials aren't doing enough to fix the issue. Brian Thompson reports.
2-October-19	Court and Legal Decisions	I-Team: Fit or Unfit for Duty?	5:46 PM	5:49 PM	3:44	Local Origination	In Neptune, NJ, Neptune Township Police Sargent Christine Savage was placed on administrative leave after filing a sexual discrimination lawsuit against the township in 2013. Savage has passed numerous psychological evaluations, but now, she claims the town is retaliating against the suit by re-ordering evaluations, withholding her pay and lengthening her absence. Sarah Wallace reports.
3-October-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Medicare Claim Denial	4:43 PM	4:46 PM	3:31	Local Origination	In Greenwich, CT, Judy Gorman visited an urgent care facility after catching a stomach virus. She asked the clinic if they took Medicare and they said they did not, however, they said the fee would be recovered. She paid over $200 for the visit and submitted a claim for reimbursement from Medicare. They denied it. Lynda Baquero reports.
3-October-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Dad Sentenced for Killing Daughter	5:10 PM	5:12 PM	1:57	Local Origination	In White Plains, NY, Neil White was sentenced to 25 years to life in prison for killing his 7-year-old daughter two years ago, by smothering her with a pillow. Stacey Bell reports.

3-October-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Laser Threats at JFK Airport	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	1:45	Local Origination	In 2019, there has been 31 incidents of lasers aimed at inbound aircrafts to John F. Kennedy International Airport. According to the FBI, 25 of those incidents, including two that injured pilots' eyes, allegedly originated on Roslyn, Long Island. The FBI's Joint Terrorism Task Force urges any witnesses to call their hotline or 911. Greg Cergol reports.
3-October-19	Court and Legal Decisions	I-Team: Will Bail Reform Endanger Witnesses?	6:17 PM	6:20 PM	3:34	Local Origination	In Westchester County, NY, a new bail law will enable many suspects in drug cases to be released while awaiting trial and will require names of witnesses disclosed to the defense within 15 days. Some fear the new law will increase witness intimidation and further deter witnesses from coming forward. Others believe it will help reduce instances where defendants detained pre-trial, accept plea deals. Jonathan Dienst reports.
4-October-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Meal Delivery Problem	4:43 PM	4:46 PM	3:19	Local Origination	In Washington Heights, Queens, Jessica Castellano came across a great sale for Instagram-based meal delivery company "prepped_gourmet." She paid $160 for her first delivery, but the food never arrived, prompting Castellano to cancel her order and request a refund. The owner of the company promised to refund her, but has since stopped answering. Lynda Baquero reports.
4-October-19	Health	Newark to Stop Bottled Water Distribution	5:03 PM	5:05 PM	2:28	Local Origination	For the past month, Newark, NJ, has distributed free bottled water to half its residents in lieu of the recent lead crisis. After further testing, this week, town officials declared it is now safe for residents to resume using filtered tap water and they are reducing free bottled water distribution. Brian Thompson reports.
4-October-19	Consumer	Inside New York Comic Con 2019	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	1:30	Local Origination	At the Jacob K. Javits Convention Center in New York, NY, thousands of people gathered for Comic Con 2019. Erica Byfield reports.

5-October-19	Diversity	Visiones: A Lifelong Love of Ballet	6:45 AM	6:48 AM	3:11	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero interviews ballet dancer Luca Anaya. He is a student at the School of American Ballet. He spoke about his journey to becoming a dancer and how he's able to balance dance and academics.
6-October-19	Diversity	Positively Black: Culture Con	6:44 AM	6:48 AM	3:31	Local Origination	Tracie Strahan interviews Michael Oloyede and Simone Arrington from The Creative Collective NYC about Culture Con. It's a daylong conference for "creatives." This can be anyone from chefs, to actors, to artists. Participants will have the opportunity to attend panels and network.
7-October-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Travel Nightmare	4:44 PM	4:47 PM	2:55	Local Origination	In Morganville, NJ, Hal Katzen and his family took a trip to Europe. One of their flights in Berlin, Germany, got canceled. Lufthansa Airlines offered them the maximum compensation for their flight and reimbursement for their rail tickets. He was expecting a total of almost $4,000. A month past and he never received the money. Lynda Baquero reports.
7-October-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Police Locate Vehicle in Deadly Hit-and-Run	5:04 PM	5:06 PM	2:22	Local Origination	In Lakewood, NJ, a 15-year-old boy was walking home from work when a car struck and killed him. The suspect fled the scene. A tipster led police to the driver's home, where the vehicle was found. Officials are now in contact with the suspect's attorney. Brian Thompson reports.
7-October-19	Safety	Neighbors Concerned About Bobcats	5:11 PM	5:12 PM	1:41	Local Origination	In Westchester County, NY, residents are keeping an eye out for bobcats. Although spotting wildlife in the neighborhood is common, police are asking people to leave the bobcat alone and call 911 if they see the animal lurking in the area. Erica Byfield reports.
8-October-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Medicare Part B Late Enrollment	4:45 PM	4:48 PM	2:53	Local Origination	In Inwood, Manhattan, 65-year-old Traffic Agent Josephina Medina worried about a penalty fee for not enrolling in Medicare Part B by the age 65. According to Medicare, "For every twelve months that you're eligible for Part B and don't take it, there can be a 10% lifetime penalty." Lynda Baquero reports.

8-October-19	Court and Legal Decisions	Chelsea Bomber Convicted of Attempted Murder	5:30 PM	5:33 PM	2:57	Local Origination	In Elizabeth, NJ, Ahmad Rahimi, known as the Chelsea Bomber, was convicted of the attempted murder of five Linden, NJ police officers during a shootout that led to his arrest. Rahimi is already serving two life sentences plus a 30-year sentence on Manhattan federal convictions. Brian Thompson reports.
8-October-19	Animal Welfare and Adoption	Home "Invadeer"!	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	2:02	Local Origination	In Lakewood, NJ, a young deer entered a family's home after they left their front door open. Police and a member of Lakewood Chaveirim Volunteer Emergency Services were able to escort the deer out of the home, unharmed. Ted Greenberg reports.
8-October-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Marriage Mistake?	6:16 PM	6:19 PM	3:20	Local Origination	On Long Island, NY, a woman from Mexico married a man from Long Island. After tying the knot, she says her husband would abuse her and threatened her with deportation if she didn't do what he said. She then submitted a VAWA application, which she says changed her life. Pei-Sze Cheng reports.
9-October-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Phone Insurance Fee Fight	4:55 PM	4:57 PM	2:14	Local Origination	To switch phone providers, Erin O'Sullivan of Denville, NJ, paid off her remaining $120 phone contract and returned her old phone to Sprint. Sprint then charged her an additional $199 damage fee for her cracked screen, even though her insurance coverage should reduce the fee to $30. Lynda Baquero reports.
9-October-19	Health	Stopping E-Cigarette Companies from Targeting Kids	5:15 PM	5:17 PM	1:39	Local Origination	On Ronkonkoma, Long Island, IPVideo Corporation demonstrated the company's Halo IOT Smart Sensor vape detector for Long Island Congressman Peter King, who is pushing for legislation on the vaping crisis. The devices have only been on the market since April, but are already used in thousands of schools nationwide. Greg Cergol reports.

9-October-19	Environment	Rain and Wind Hit Long Island	5:31 PM	5:33 PM	1:42	Local Origination	On Long Beach, Long Island, conditions worsen as the Nor'easter approaches. The storm is anticipated to bring one to three inches of rainfall and 50-60 mile per hour winds. Surfers are enjoying the rough waves and nearby residents are preparing for potential coastal flooding. Gus Rosendale reports.
9-October-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Trinitarios Gang Members Arrested in Raids	5:46 PM	5:48 PM	1:50	Local Origination	In the Soundview section of the Bronx, today the NYPD arrested 10 out of 15 identified Trinitarios gang members. The group faces charges including attempted murder, conspiracy and gang assault. Police are asking for help from the public to locate the five outstanding members. Ken Buffa reports.
10-October-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Foreign Transaction Fee Confusion	4:44 PM	4:47 PM	2:50	Local Origination	In Guttenberg, NJ, a man booked a Norwegian Air flight to London online using his Bank of America card. However, he was charged a 3% foreign transaction fee of almost $20. When he called Bank of America to ask why, they said it's because the company, Norwegian Air is based in Norway. Lynda Baquero reports.
10-October-19	Safety	New Concerns After NJ Deck Collapse	5:08 PM	5:10 PM	2:17	Local Origination	In Wildwood, NJ, after a massive deck collapse that left more than 20 people injured, the city is sending a letter to residents urging property owners to check their exterior decks for damage, excessive wear and other problems. Officials are also asking homeowners to get their decks inspected by professionals. Ted Greenberg reports.
10-October-19	Government and Politics	Gambling Taxes: Where Does the Money Go?	6:16 PM	6:20 PM	3:28	Local Origination	In New Jersey, over the last six years, more than $874 million of the state's gambling revenue was spent on group homes. However, in the same timeframe, reports of abuse and neglect in group homes rose about 30%. Terry McKeon manages 14 group homes in New Jersey and believes low wages and high turnover of 'direct support professionals' are partially to blame. Chris Glorioso reports.

10-October-19	Safety	New Technology to Keep Newborns Safe	5:21 PM	5:23 PM	1:37	Local Origination	In Manhasset, NY, North Shore University Hospital introduced a new digital system for foot printing newborns. The system takes a high-resolution digital footprint which is only accessible to parents via a secured portal and it is linked to the National Center for Missing and Exploited Children. The technology is believed to be a safer alternative to traditional ink foot printing. Erica Byfield reports.
11-October-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Negotiating Prices	4:45 PM	4:47 PM	2:28	Local Origination	In Manhattan, NY, Eric Price wanted to purchase a TV for a good price. He turned to a website called "Price Waiter," a site that allows you to negotiate prices. He was able to save $300 after negotiating a price. The site features hundreds of products and price reductions can range from 10 to 15 percent. Lynda Baquero reports.
11-October-19	Accidents and Disasters	Fatal Construction Accident	5:29 PM	5:32 PM	2:29	Local Origination	In Woodbridge, NJ, a construction worker lost control of a pole and two of his co-workers were on the ground trying to break its fall just as it encountered a high voltage wire. They were both electrocuted leaving one dead. Pat Battle reports.
11-October-19	Environment	Battling Flood Waters Along the Shore	5:46 PM	5:48 PM	2:26	Local Origination	In Beach Haven, NJ, a subtropical storm spinning off the coast delivered a wave of flooding that's affected homes and businesses. Residents along the coast are now preparing for another wave of flooding expected to hit later in the evening. Ted Greenberg reports.
12-October-19	Diversity	Visiones: "Decade of Fire" New Film Looks at Tumultuous Times in the Bronx	6:45 AM	6:49 AM	3:42	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero interviews Vivian Vazquez Irizarry, Director and Producer of "Decade of Fire." The documentary details the devastation and revival of the South Bronx after its collapse in the 1970's, as told from the perspective of residents at that time.

13-October-19	Diversity	Positively Black: Heal Haus & The Wellness Industry's Impact	6:50 AM	6:54 AM	4:26	Local Origination	Tracie Strahan interviews Founders Elisa Shankle and Darian Hall of Heal Haus, a yoga and meditation studio in Bed-Stuy, NY. Shankle and Hall discuss the origin of their mission to make mental health/wellness an everyday priority as well as ensure products and services are easily accessible and inclusive for both men and women of color.
14-October-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Road Test Certificate	4:55 PM	4:58 PM	3:03	Local Origination	On Staten Island, NY, Shay Hernandez paid AAAA Driving School for lessons on how to drive and paid for a 5-hour course. After completion, students are supposed to receive a certificate that is needed to schedule a road test. But they never received the certificate because AAAA Driving School ran out of certificates and was shutting down. Lynda Baquero reports.
14-October-19	Accidents and Disasters	10-Year-Old Girl Falls From Ride and Dies	5:46 PM	5:48 PM	1:58	Local Origination	In Williamstown, NJ, a 10-year-old girl was thrown from a spinning amusement park ride. She was airlifted to Cooper Hospital where she was pronounced dead. The amusement park is cooperating with police and a preliminary investigation has cleared them to operate the other rides. Cydney Long reports.
14-October-19	Transportation	Dragon Air	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	1:58	Local Origination	In Jersey City, NJ, Pilot and President of DragonAir Aviation Mariah Cain demonstrated her one person flying machine called the Airboard, at the Liberty Science Center. Experts say this flying machine could help us avoid traffic and help us get to people in need of emergency response quickly. Natalie Pasquarella reports.
15-October-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Cancelled Concert Refund	4:46 PM	4:48 PM	2:31	Local Origination	In Wantagh, NY, in August 2014, a Kings of Leon concert at Northwell Health at Jones Beach Theater was cancelled at the last minute. Cindy Lines had bought three tickets for $20 each, but even after contacting the concert promoter, Live Nation, she never received a refund. Lynda Baquero reports.

15-October-19	Government and Politics	Former Governor: 'Hitler Has Nothing on Trump'	5:00 PM	5:02 PM	2:03	Local Origination	In Somerset County, NJ, Brian Thompson interviews former Governor of New Jersey Christie Whitman regarding her recent tweet comparing President Trump to Adolph Hitler. Whitman discusses her view on Trumps administration.
15-October-19	Court and Legal Decisions	Actor Cuba Gooding Jr. Pleads Not Guilty to New Charges of Sexual Misconduct	5:29 PM	5:32 PM	3:14	Local Origination	In Lower Manhattan, NY, Cuba Gooding Jr. appeared in court today after numerous accusations of sexual misconduct from 12 different women. Gooding Jr. was criminally charged for two of those cases, and pled not guilty. Ida Siegal reports.
15-October-19	Housing	I-Team: Question Authority	5:44 PM	5:49 PM	4:28	Local Origination	In the Bronx, NY, NYCHA resident Tiesha Jones's 4-year-old daughter developed lead poisoning as result of New York City's neglect for public housing. This is just one of many preventable issues that tenants desperately need addressed and corrected by NYCHA. Chris Glorioso reports.
16-October-19	Education	Weather Kids	4:47 PM	4:48 PM	0:39	Local Origination	In Brooklyn, NY, Meteorologist Matt Brickman visited PS372 The Children's School to speak to second graders about the weather. He taught them about weather maps, clouds, storms and gave them a tour of the NBC4 Storm Chaser truck. Dave Price reports.
16-October-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Property Tax Rate	4:48 PM	4:51 PM	3:16	Local Origination	On Long Island, NY, Michael Margolis was paying $13,000 in property taxes for his home. After reconstruction, his taxes went up. Every year he files a grievance of his property's assessment and every year it's been granted. However, he missed the deadline this year and now his taxes are expected to go up from $20,000 to $40,000. Lynda Baquero reports.
16-October-19	Court and Legal Decisions	Vape Shops Crackdown	5:10 PM	5:12 PM	1:55	Local Origination	On Long Island, NY, several vape shops have been shut down after violating Babylon Town codes like not having proper certificates of occupancy or being too close to schools. This is part of the town official's ongoing effort to keep vape products away from kids. Greg Cergol reports.

16-October-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Veteran Cop Charged with Sex Abuse	5:49 PM	5:52 PM	2:07	Local Origination	In Elizabeth, NJ, Edward Giles, a foster father, Police Athletic League football coach and veteran Sergeant of East Orange Police Department was arrested and charged with sexually abusing two boys ages 11 to 13, one of whom he coached between 1998 and 2003. Union County Prosecutor Lyndsay Ruotolo is asking the public to come forward with any information or additional accusations. Brian Thompson reports.
16-October-19	Government and Politics	Reasons to Close Rikers Island	5:46 PM	5:58 PM	2:19	Local Origination	New York City Council members met to discuss their votes on a plan to close Rikers Island jails and instead, replace the complex with smaller jails in the boroughs. Former inmates discussed the lack of rehabilitation resources and isolation they experienced at Rikers Island. City officials and community members have mixed opinions on the matter. Melissa Russo reports.
17-October-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Medical Bill Battle	4:50 PM	4:52 PM	2:01	Local Origination	In Clark, NJ, last year, Layla Santa Cruz had cosmetic surgery. She first paid a $500 deposit, then paid the remaining balance of $3500 on the day of the procedure. About a year later, Santa-Cruz was billed an additional $8,463. Lynda Baquero reports.
17-October-19	Environment	Connecticut Cleans Up from Storm	5:01 PM	5:03 PM	2:34	Local Origination	In Greenwich, CT, a strong storm swept through the town overnight, leaving power outages, debris and as many as 50 roads closed. Some schools operated on a two-hour delay and others closed entirely. However, there were no injuries and no damage resulting from the storm. Ida Siegal reports.
17-October-19	Safety	Battling A Crisis	5:46 PM	5:49 PM	2:50	Local Origination	In Manhattan, NY, after four homeless men were beaten to death, the NYPD police commissioner says they will now be extra vigilant in taking people off the street who are a danger to themselves and to others. They also plan to put them in programs where they could seek help. Myles Miller reports.

17-October-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: New DNA Discovery In Armored Car Heist	6:17 PM	6:21 PM	3:48	Local Origination	In Queens, NY, three men were convicted for shooting two security guards and robbing their armored truck. Robert Majors was one of the men arrested in 1997. However, since his arrest, he's insisted that he was never at the crime scene and is innocent. After sitting in prison for two decades, new DNA was discovered in the robbery getaway van that doesn't match Majors. Chris Glorioso reports.
18-October-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Language Learning Apps	4:44 PM	4:46 PM	2:07	Local Origination	Many mobile applications including Duolingo, Rosetta Stone and Babble make it easy to learn new languages for free, right from your phone. These include Duolingo, Rosetta Stone, Babble, which all offer free services and upgrades for purchase. Lynda Baquero reports.
18-October-19	Funerals and Memorials	Art Exhibit Reveals Toll of Sandy	5:17 PM	5:19 PM	2:21	Local Origination	In West Long Branch, NJ, Just Beachy After Sandy, a new art exhibition by Monmouth University Art and Design Professor Karen Bright, aims to provide healing for those impacted by Superstorm Sandy. The free exhibition is open to the public through December 9, 2019. Jamie Roth reports.
18-October-19	Government and Politics	I-Team: Questions of Corruption	5:44 PM	5:48 PM	4:06	Local Origination	The New Jersey State Attorney General is being urged to act against a growing list of concerns indicating corruption in Northern New Jersey. The allegations investigated by the I-Team over the last 18 months include voter fraud, overcompensation, priority housing for political supporters, retaliation and nepotism in North Bergen, NJ, as well as stealing from taxpayers in Linden, NJ. Jonathan Dienst reports.
18-October-19	Consumer	Seeing the Secrets of the City	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	1:53	Local Origination	In New York City, for one weekend every October, Open House New York's Doors Open Weekend provides access to more than 300 exclusive site experiences. The event serves to showcase the inner workings of the city that take place behind closed doors. Jen Maxfield reports.

19-October-19	Diversity	Visiones: Cuban-Born Singer Hoping for Latin Grammy Win	6:45 AM	6:49 AM	4:05	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero interviews singer and actress Aymee Nuviola. She is nominated for a Latin Grammy for Best Traditional Tropical Album for her "A Journey Through Cuban Music" album. She talks about her unique album, inspiration and her role playing Celia Cruz on Telemundo's "Celia."
20-October-19	Diversity	Positively Black: Cyntoia Brown-Long	6:50 AM	6:55 AM	5:40	Local Origination	Tracie Stahan interviews Cyntoia Brown-Long. Brown-Long was convicted of murder and sentenced to life in prison at age 16. She's now out of jail and talking about her life behind bars, journey to freedom and what she plans to do now that she's free.
21-October-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Refund for Flight Not Taken	4:45 PM	4:48 PM	3:00	Local Origination	In Fort Lee, NJ, Sylvia Lorenzo booked a flight to the Philippines for over $2,450. Shortly before her trip, she fell and hurt her knee. She contacted the travel agency where she booked her tickets and sent them a doctor's note. They told her they'd refund her $1,218 and that another $843.89 would be refunded from Cathay Pacific Airlines. However, she never received the refund from the airline. Lynda Baquero reports.
21-October-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Woman Hides in Home During Break-In	5:03 PM	5:06 PM	2:17	Local Origination	In Queens, NY, police say a man followed a woman home then broke into her home. Surveillance footage captures the moment the man walked up to her door just before breaking in. Authorities say the woman locked herself in a room when the man entered and say the intruder left without taking anything. Greg Cergol reports.
21-October-19	Transportation	MTA Responds to 'Trash Train' Contest	5:30 PM	5:32 PM	2:27	Local Origination	In Manhattan, NY, the Transit Workers Union created a contest offering $500 for a photo of NYC's dirtiest subway car. All this to shed light on the filthy subway cars. The union is accusing the MTA of trying to save money by cutting cleaner positions. Erica Byfield reports.

22-October-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Event Insurance Claim	4:44 PM	4:47 PM	3:25	Local Origination	In Nutley, NJ, Robert Decilla paid $817 for concert tickets to see Aerosmith in Las Vegas and paid about $50 for ticket protector coverage from Allianz. However, he was unable to fly to Vegas due to a medical condition. When he canceled his concert tickets they did not refund him. Lynda Baquero reports.
22-October-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Good Samaritans Save Worker	5:01 PM	5:03 PM	2:28	Local Origination	On Long Island, NY, a masked man with a knife entered a Dunkin Donuts where an employee named Austin Minott was working. The robber wanted money but Minott refused to give him any. Minott's brother coincidentally happened to show up at the time of the incident and saw his brother wrestling the robber. That's when he stepped in, saving his brother's life. Greg Cergol reports.
22-October-19	Safety	Training for an Attack	5:46 PM	5:48 PM	1:56	Local Origination	In Brooklyn, NY, the National Guard and other law enforcement officials are training for an attack that uses weapons of mass destruction. The threat isn't real, but they are prepared to protect the country from terrorism and are able to identify hazards or suspicious items. Marc Santia reports.
22-October-19	Children & Youth	I-Team: Preventing Tragedies	6:16 PM	6:20 PM	4:07	Local Origination	In New City, NY, Juan Rodriguez left his twins in a hot car after he thought he had dropped them off at daycare. He later discovered them both dead in the car. New York City officials are now finding ways to prevent this from happening. A new bill proposes that all licensed childcares in NY state must alert parents, within an hour, if a child does not show up without warning. Melissa Russo reports.

23-October-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Cryptocurrency Warning	4:43 PM	4:47 PM	3:31	Local Origination	In the Bronx, NY, a man initially invested $1,545 in crypto trading signals-- information about buying or selling a cryptocurrency coin at a certain time and price. He was then repeatedly asked for additional investments for the signals to generate. In total, the man has spent about $48,000 and has no gains thus far. He warns others to do their research before investing in new cryptocurrencies. Lynda Baquero reports.
23-October-19	Safety	Traffic Changes to Keep Cyclists Safe	5:17 PM	5:19 PM	2:27	Local Origination	In Manhattan, NY, 25 cyclists have died this year and it's led to a greater demand for protected bike lanes. The city is now pushing to synchronize the traffic lights to help cyclists, who are going 10 to 15 miles per hour, keep getting green lights. They call it a "green wave." Andrew Siff reports.
23-October-19	Accidents and Disasters	Homes Damaged by Water Main Break	5:30 PM	5:32 PM	1:58	Local Origination	On High Ridge Road in Stamford, CT, a water main ruptured overnight, flooding streets, damaging five homes and halting water service for more than 24 customers. Servicemen are working to repair the break and clean up the mess it has left behind. Ken Buffa reports.
24-October-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Solar Panel Damage	4:45 PM	4:48 PM	2:56	Local Origination	In Jackson, NJ, Ed Brenner and his wife had solar panels installed on their home by SunRun, Inc. about eight years ago. They frequently need to replace damaged panels because they live on a golf course. The company has a 20-year free repair warrantee, except, they recently told the Brennens they won't guarantee replacements will be available years down the road. Lynda Baquero reports.
24-October-19	Transportation	New Proposals to Improve Traffic	5:05 PM	5:08 PM	2:40	Local Origination	In Manhattan, NY, New York City officials are proposing to ban cars on 49 th and 50 th street year-round. According to Mayor of New York City Bill de Blasio, the proposal comes from the good response from the similar ban of cars on 14 th street. Andrew Siff reports.

24-October-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Man Stabbed to Death in Bronx Bodega	5:30 PM	5:31 PM	1:44	Local Origination	In the Bronx, NY, a 37-year-old man walked into a bodega to grab a sandwich and ended up getting into an argument with another man. The 37-year-old was then stabbed to death. The suspect is now on the run and police are investigating. Marc Santia reports.
24-October-19	Housing	Rend Paid for Deceased Tenants	6:16 PM	6:20 PM	3:27	Local Origination	In Manhattan, NY, the federal government has been issuing millions of dollars in rent checks and housing benefits to people who are deceased. This happens because the Department of Housing and Urban Development fails to give local housing officials access to the Do Not Pay system, which is a federal database that records when tenants die. Chris Glorioso reports.
25-October-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Investing in Gold	4:45 PM	4:47 PM	2:07	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero discussed the current high price and what you need to know if your considering owning or selling gold. American Greed on CNBC, tells the story of three Miami gold dealers who funneled gold into the US last time prices were this high.
25-October-19	Consumer	Push to Change Landscape in Seaside Heights	5:15 PM	5:17 PM	1:48	Local Origination	In Seaside Heights, NJ, for the last decade a giant metal structure in the center of the commercial district has hindered the appearance and growth of the area. The borough is now actively seeking developers to share their vision and take the site off their hands. Ted Greenberg reports.
25-October-19	Accidents and Disasters	I-Team: Sandy Victims Victimized	5:46 PM	5:49 PM	2:17	Local Origination	In Massapequa, NY, a family hired a contractor from Turn Key Solutions to raise their home after Superstorm Sandy. The contractor took the money and did the job, but didn't raise the house to the appropriate level and then moved out-of-state. The current law says that if contractors did perform work, even if insufficient, they cannot be prosecuted criminally. A new contractor fraud bill is being proposed. Pei-Sze Cheng reports.

25-October-19	Court and Legal Decisions	Liquor License Dispute	5:58 PM	5:59 PM	1:05	Local Origination	In Coltsneck, NJ, the state's Alcohol Beverage Control division is seeking revocation of Trump National Golf Club's liquor license as result of the 2015 death of a man who was overserved at the club. The club has 30 days to respond with a plea. Jamie Roth reports.
26-October-19	Diversity	Visiones: Art of the Guitar	6:46 AM	6:49 AM	3:10	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero interviews Berta Rojas, a Grammy award winning classical guitarist. She talks about her upcoming show at the 92 nd Street Y and tells us about her inspirations, music and current job teaching students at the Berklee College of Music.
27-October-19	Diversity	Positively Black: "Prison to College Pipeline" Changing Lives	6:50 AM	6:55 AM	5:04	Local Origination	Tracie Strahan interviews the founders and a graduate of "Prison to College Pipeline." It's a program that gives incarcerated men the opportunity to transform themselves into productive members of society when they leave prison. They discuss how the program has evolved and different success stories.
28-October-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Rust Stained Laundry	4:44 PM	4:47 PM	2:53	Local Origination	In Norwood, NJ, a woman's Whirlpool washing machine had a rusty screw that repeatedly stained her clothes. Per the woman's initial complaint, the company changed the screw, but a year later the problem returned. Lynda Baquero reports.
28-October-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: DNA Battle	5:30 PM	5:32 PM	2:42	Local Origination	In Kew Gardens, NY, 26 years ago Michael Robinson was convicted of murder without examining any physical evidence. While serving his sentence, Robinson learned DNA evidence was recovered. The District Attorney's office first fought the testing of the evidence, then claimed it was destroyed. The DNA evidence was ultimately located and tested, and didn't belong to Robinson, but the DA claims that is irrelevant. A hearing to overturn the conviction will resume next month. Sarah Wallace reports.

28-October-19	Accidents and Disasters	Sandy: Seven Years Later	5:47 PM	5:50 PM	2:12	Local Origination	In Ocean City, NJ, Doug Quinn's house was destroyed by hurricane Sandy. Seven years later he is finally moving back into his renovated home. Despite having full flood insurance coverage, it took a long legal fight to get the claim money and other funds needed. Lawmakers are now pushing to reshape the national flood insurance program. Ted Greenberg reports.
29-October-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Broken Refrigerator	4:45 PM	4:47 PM	2:40	Local Origination	In Yonkers, NY, Diana Walker's refrigerator wasn't cooling properly. She called Sears and they told her that her warranty had expired, but they offered to extend it if she payed about $100. When they came to fix the broken refrigerator, they said they needed to order a few parts and would come back. Walker then purchased food, thinking her refrigerator would be fixed shortly. However, the repair took more than a month to complete and her food went bad. Lynda Baquero reports.
29-October-19	Health	Man Meets Off-Duty Officers Who Saved His Life	5:15 PM	5:17 PM	1:50	Local Origination	On Staten Island, NY, a man suffered a heart attack at a bowling alley. Three off-duty officers, who happened to be bowling a few lanes away, grabbed a divulgator and started compressions. They saved his life. Adam Kuperstein reports.
29-October-19	Safety	Building Against Superstorms	5:45 PM	5:48 PM	3:06	Local Origination	On the Upper East Side, NY, Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center is adding the David H. Koch Center for Cancer onto its facilities. Despite its location at extreme risk of flooding, the new medical center allocated $14 million into storm resilience measures which includes flood gates at every entrance, mega-generators and heating systems stored on the 23 rd floor and a 25,000-gallon fuel storage tank. Andrew Siff reports.

29-October-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Whistleblower Cop's Battle	6:17 PM	6:21 PM	3:50	Local Origination	In Spring Valley, NY, retired SWAT Team Police Officer Francis Brooke's legal guns and pistol permits were seized by local authorities. Brooke believes it's because of the 2016 federal whistleblower complaint he filed against several Rockland County law enforcement entities, accusing them of retaliating against Brooke's reports of improper conduct in the police academy at which he taught. Sarah Wallace reports.
30-October-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: High Electric Bill	4:44 PM	4:47 PM	2:56	Local Origination	On Staten Island, NY, Dean Kropp received a Con Ed bill of almost $1,200. The charges go back to June of 2018, shortly after the company installed a smart meter on their property. When Kropp called Con Ed about his bill, they said it was because they weren't getting a proper reading on the meter. Lynda Baquero reports.
30-October-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Teen Punched in Video Files Lawsuit	4:58 PM	5:01 PM	2:34	Local Origination	In Brooklyn, NY, 15-year-old Benjamin Marshall was punched by a NYPD officer in a subway brawl and has now filed a $5 million lawsuit against the city and the police department. His parents claim Marshall was not involved in the altercation and was simply looking for his backpack when the officer attacked him. Erica Byfield reports.
30-October-19	Transportation	Workers Rally in Lower Manhattan	5:01 PM	5:02 PM	1:34	Local Origination	In Lower Manhattan, NY, hundreds of demonstrators from the Transportation Workers Union rallied, planning to march from New York City Hall, down Broadway to the MTA Headquarters. Workers are protesting for fair contracts, fair pay and security. Ray Villeda Reports.
30-October-19	Health	Long Island Opioid Bust	5:29 PM	5:31 PM	2:18	Local Origination	On Mineola, Long Island, Dr. George Blatti is being charged with selling opioid prescriptions for cash at his makeshift office and out of his car in the parking lots of nearby stores. Over a five year span the man has sold nearly two million pills, and multiple cases are linked to fatal overdoses. Greg Cergol reports.

31-October-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Natural Gas Moratorium	4:34 PM	4:47 PM	3:32	Local Origination	In Middle Village, Queens, Dolores Rosen called her commercial property's natural gas provider National Grid, to reconnect the gas for her new tenant. However, National Grid refused because of the company's moratorium on new accounts. Rosen and her tenant worried the moratorium could last through the anticipated two-year supply shortage which will affect the opening of the business. Lynda Baquero reports.
31-October-19	Children and Youth	19 Accused Child Predators Arrested	5:03 PM	5:05 PM	1:43	Local Origination	In Somerville, NJ, New Jersey Attorney General Gurbir Grewal warns parents to familiarize themselves with social media and gaming apps. This comes after a multi-agency undercover operation that caught 19 alleged child predators planning to meet and have sex with children who they met online and thought were 12 to 14 years old. Pat Battle reports.
31-October-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Teen Pleads Not Guilty in Fatal Stabbing	5:32 PM	5:34 PM	2:21	Local Origination	On Long Island, NY, Tyler Flach pleaded not guilty on murder and gang assault charges. Flach allegedly stabbed Khaseen Morris to death during a brawl. The victim's family says they will be there every step of the way as the case progresses. Greg Cergol reports.
1-November-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Transportation Reimbursement	4:54 PM	4:57 PM	3:17	Local Origination	In Manhattan, NY, Beth Mollins relies on the Access-A-Ride program, which provides transportation options for people with disabilities. It allows you to call a taxi or an Uber and get reimbursed for the expense. In order to receive reimbursements, you must send receipts and forms to the MTA. Mollins has been doing this for two years, but says she's encountered a problem getting her money reimbursed for the past two months. Lynda Baquero reports.

1-November-19	Accidents and Disasters	Tree Fall on Trick-Or-Treater	4:58 PM	5:00 PM	2:19	Local Origination	In New Rochelle, NY, a nine-year-old girl is recovering in the hospital after a tree came down on her while she was trick-or-treating. Neighbors say they've been trying to get the tree removed for years and blame the city and Con Ed for failing to remove it. Ken Buffa reports.
1-November-19	Government and Politics	Trump's Leaving Town	5:47 PM	5:49 PM	2:32	Local Origination	In Manhattan, NY, President Donald Trump is saying goodbye to Trump Tower and hello to Mar-a-Lago. He says he's been treated very badly in New York and has been paying millions of dollars in taxes. His permanent residency will now be in Florida. Andrew Siff reports.
1-November-19	Court and Legal Decisions	I-Team: Waiting Game for a Second Chance	6:15 PM	6:19 PM	4:13	Local Origination	In Manhattan, NY, in 2017 Governor Cuomo said he would show mercy to prisoners serving long sentences. Soon after, hundreds of lawyers stepped up to heed his request. But after putting in thousands of hours of work, those lawyers say the governor has yet to act on any of their cases. Melissa Russo reports.
2-November-19	Diversity	Visiones: "Do You Dream in Spanish?"	6:45 AM	6:48 AM	3:02	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero interviews actor Roberto Araujo who stars in the show "Do You Dream in Spanish?" He talks about how George Gershwin inspired him to pursue a career in the arts and why he moved from Mexico City to New York City.
3-November-19	Diversity	Positively Black: New President Of New York Theological Seminary	6:41 AM	6:56 AM	5:00	Local Origination	Tracie Strahan interviews Rev. Dr. Lakeesha Walrond. She was just installed as the President of New York's Theological Seminary, making her the first female and African American to hold this position. She talks about her past and what she plans to do now that she's president.
4-November-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Medical Billing Mix-Up	4:45 PM	4:47 PM	1:53	Local Origination	In Hillsborough, NJ, Rebecca Razzano underwent five ultrasounds during her pregnancy. Although she has two insurance plans, she was told her insurance was out of network and was billed nearly $1,000. Lynda Baquero reports.

4-November-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Anti-Police Protest in Downtown Brooklyn	5:01 PM	5:03 PM	2:07	Local Origination	On Gold Street in Downtown Brooklyn, NY, a crowd gathered to protest the MTA's crackdown on fare evasion which will bring 500 additional officers to patrol the transit stations. Another group marched in support of Benjamin Noel, the 15-year-old who was punched in the face by an NYPD officer as he was walking past a fight. Andrew Siff reports.
4-November-19	Funerals and Memorials	Funeral for 14 Year Old Killed in Shooting	5:14 PM	5:16 PM	2:24	Local Origination	In Jamaica, Queens, hundreds gathered to remember and honor 14-year-old Amir Griffin, who was mistakenly shot and killed while playing basketball in what police believe was a gang-related incident. Among attendees at the funeral was Ravie Armoogan, the father of another teenager who was struck by a stray bullet the same week. Jamie Roth reports.
4-November-19	Housing	Airbnb Ballot Battle	5:45 PM	5:47 PM	1:58	Local Origination	In Jersey City, NJ, residents are urged to vote in question of regulation on Airbnb practices within the city. An influx of Airbnb listings has risen concern over safety and misuse of the rentals as illegal hotels. The proposed regulations would create logistical restrictions on who can list their homes, will require approved hosts to get permits and will limit the length of short-term stays. Adam Kuperstein reports.
5-November-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Problematic Product	4:44 PM	4:47 PM	2:54	Local Origination	In Brownsville, Brooklyn, Mary Bull waited almost a year for her replacement air conditioner from Rent-A-Center. The company picked up the unit and agreed to fix it, but when she got it back two months later, it was not fixed. She waited for her replacement or her refund but never received either. Lynda Baquero reports.

5-November-19	Children & Youth	Connecticut Dad's Creation Going Nationwide	5:19 PM	5:21 PM	1:56	Local Origination	In Wallingford, CT, Chris Cirri created a device, inspired by his kids, that magically delivers letters to Santa called, "Santa's Enchanted Mailbox." Cirri and his family created a prototype and signed a deal with toy company, Mr. Christmas. Last year they sold about $10,000 worth of mailboxes online. This year, you can find the mailbox's in over 2,000 Walmart's across the country. Kate Rayner reports.
5-November-19	Animal Welfare & Adoption	Big Blue and The Black Cat	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	2:00	Local Origination	In East Rutherford, NJ, a black cat ran across the field during a NY Giants game at MetLife Stadium. The Humane Society at Bergen County say the area surrounding the stadium is known to have hundreds of stray cats. MetLife Stadium sent out a tweet saying once they locate the cat, they'll take it to a vet. Adam Kuperstein reports
5-November-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Murder at a Caribbean resort	5:59 PM	6:03 PM	4:26	Local Origination	In Turks and Caicos, one year ago, three Suffolk County women vacationed at the ClubMed resort but Marie Kuhnla went missing from her room and was found dead a day later. Kuhnla's friends revealed they were concerned by a male, a fellow guest at the resort regarding his interest in the women and specifically Kunla. The victim's family and friends feel the island has not investigated thoroughly enough, and are worried they are covering something up. Sarah Wallace reports.
6-November-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Extra Hospital Bill	4:45 PM	4:47 PM	2:47	Local Origination	In Hazlet, NJ, Sue Ricca paid for her cosmetic surgery, in full, before the operation. However, two months after the surgery she received a bill from Hackensack Meridian Health for $850 because of additional "OR and Anesthesia time." Her doctor and anesthesiologist say that is incorrect. Lynda Baquero reports.

6-November-19	Accidents and Disasters	2 Killed in New Jersey House Fire	4:59 PM	5:02 PM	2:15	Local Origination	In Jamesburg, NJ, two people are dead after a house caught fire. One of the victims has been identified as Clifford Kitchen, the other has yet to be identified. The county arson investigation squad is still investigating the devastating fire. Myles Miller reports.
6-November-19	Safety	NJ Firefighters Training for Disasters	5:17 PM	5:18 PM	1:36	Local Origination	In Ocean County, NJ, members of the New Jersey Forest Fire Service torched wooded brush that could feed future forest fires. They say this could help protect nearby homes during the heightened fire season in the spring. Ted Greenberg reports.
6-November-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I Team: Investigating Deadly Crashes	6:16 PM	6:20 PM	3:44	Local Origination	In Queens, NY, the Collision Investigation Squad handles every fatal and serious injury crash in the city. In NYC there are 50-60 hit and runs a year. The CIS strives to find the individuals who have caused devastation to the victims of hit and runs and their families. Marc Santia reports.
7-November-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Paying for Medical Application	4:43 PM	4:46 PM	3:23	Local Origination	In Brooklyn, NY, Michelle Forgenie paid $3,500 to New York Medicaid Consulting to help her file a Medicaid application for her parents. They told Forgenie the application was submitted and accepted but later found there was no application on file and New York Medicaid Consulting would not refund her. Lynda Baquero reports.
7-November-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	3 Found Dead in Harlem Apartment	5:01 PM	5:03 PM	2:47	Local Origination	In Harlem, NY, a man killed his wife, five-year-old daughter and then himself in their apartment. Officials say the couple was going through a divorce and were due in court the day after the double murder suicide took place. Neighbors say the family seemed happy and are shocked. Marc Santia reports.

7-November-19	Safety	Bull Fight: Should the Statue Be Relocated?	5:31 PM	5:33 PM	2:03	Local Origination	In Manhattan, NY, Mayor Bill de Blasio is planning to relocate the iconic Charging Bull statue from the tip of Bowling Green and Broadway to a pedestrian plaza by the New York Stock Exchange for "safety reasons." However, many local leaders, including the artist who built the sculpture, are angry with the move. Ida Siegal reports.
7-November-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Care Workers Snap Lewd Pics	6:00 PM	6:05 PM	4:10	Local Origination	In Oneonta, NY, Maggie Shaw's son is autistic and nonverbal. The 19-year-old attends a school for severely autistic children called Springbrook. In 2017 his aid took a photo of him naked in the bathroom, posted it on Snapchat and was arrested. The director of Springbrook said no policy changes were made after the arrest. A year and a half later two more women, also working as aids, did the same thing. After those incidents Springbrook installed lock boxes in all residences where employees must put their phones. Shaw is now suing Springbrook and her son's former aid. Pei-Sze Cheng reports.
8-November-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Family Info Online	4:44 PM	4:47 PM	2:48	Local Origination	In Greenwich Village, NY, Theo Perry searched his name on familytreenow.com and found his address, phone number, age, names of relatives and their contact information. Sites like this compile information from government records, social media, and other public sites. Although Perry has made several attempts to utilize the website's opt-out option, his personal information is still displayed. Lynda Baquero reports.
8-November-19	Safety	Protecting EMT's	5:46 PM	5:48 PM	2:14	Local Origination	In East Harlem, NY, in response to the increase of attacks on EMTs and paramedics, the FDNY released a PSA to raise awareness and remind the public of the consequences. Erica Byfield reports.

8-November-19	Health	Art Against Opioids	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	2:10	Local Origination	In Chelsea, NY, Artist Dominick Esposito installed a guerilla art installation at the Mountainside Chelsea Treatment Center, as part of The Opioid Spoon Project. The signature burnt spoon sculptures are usually dropped in front of major pharmaceutical companies connected to the opioid crisis. The art serves to honor the memory of those lost to the epidemic and demand change. Jamie Roth reports.
9-November-19	Diversity	Visiones: Ballet Hispanico at the Apollo	6:46 AM	6:49 AM	3:23	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero interviews the choreographer of Ballet Hispanico, Michelle Manzanales. She discusses what people can expect from the show and talks about how her upbringing has inspired her choreography. All the dances and productions in the show were created by Latina women.
10-November-19	Diversity	Positively Black: Museum of Food and Drink	6:50 AM	6:55 AM	5:13	Local Origination	Tracie Strahan interviews Executive Director of the "Museum of Food and Drink," Pat Kim, and Advisory Board of "African/American: Making the Nation's Table," Alexander Smalls. They talk about the exhibit and how it will highlight the influence of enslaved Africans and African Americans have had on agriculture farming.
11-November-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Caller Identification	4:43 PM	4:46 PM	2:47	Local Origination	In Pelham, NY, Comedian Shaun Eli Breidbart changed his wireless service provider to GoogleFi. His friends brought to his attention that the name displayed by his Caller ID changed to someone else's name. He asked Google to change the Caller ID back to his name to prevent confusion, but they denied his requests. Lynda Baquero reports.
11-November-19	Memorials and Funerals	100 th Annual Veterans Day Parade in NYC	5:05 PM	5:07 PM	2:04	Local Origination	In Midtown Manhattan, NY, visitors, residents and government officials gathered at the Veteran's Day Parade to honor those who have served and continue to serve our country. President Donald Trump was in attendance which marks the first ever U.S. President to attend the parade. Melissa Russo reports.

11-November-19	Elderly-Seniors-Retirement	Rep. Peter King Announces Retirement	5:09 PM	5:10 PM	1:41	Local Origination	On Massapequa, Long Island, after almost 28 years, Congressman Peter King announced his retirement from Congress. King is proud of his record and plans to spend his time with family. Greg Cergol reports.
11-November-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: One-On-One with NYPD's New Top Cop	6:15 PM	6:18 PM	2:48	Local Origination	Chief Dermot Shea laid out his priorities and initiatives for the NYPD, including pushing crime rates down even further and cut arrests in half while improving community relations throughout the city. Jonathan Dienst reports.
12-November-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Search for a Dog Breeder	4:45 PM	4:48 PM	3:27	Local Origination	In River Vale, NJ, Ivette Vazquez found a dog breeder in hopes of getting another puppy. They agreed on the cost of the puppy and cost of shipping, but when she was hit with a $890 insurance certificate, she became skeptical. She discovered the breeder and the shipping company were a scam, and lost the 50% deposit she paid. Lynda Baquero reports.
12-November-19	Transportation	OMNY Expansion Could Be Complete in 12 Months	5:14 PM	5:16 PM	2:06	Local Origination	In Lower Manhattan, NY over the last few months, over 3 million commuters at 16 subway stations have used the MTA's mobile payment system called OMNY. Within a year from now, the system is expected to be implemented in every subway station and bus route. Adam Kuperstein reports.
12-November-19	Children and Youth	Stopping for School Buses	5:47 PM	5:49 PM	2:08	Local Origination	In Toms River, NJ, a driver crossed over the double yellow line to pass a stopped school bus while a child was crossing the street. The car luckily missed the child, but this trend is prompting New Jersey to crack down on legislation and possibly implement school bus monitoring systems to catch violators. Ted Greenberg reports.
13-November-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Refund for Return	4:45 PM	4:47 PM	2:19	Local Origination	On the Upper East Side of Manhattan, NY, Orna Altman ordered a treadmill from Proform. She provided measurements when she placed the order, but the treadmill delivered didn't fit, causing her to immediately return the item. Altman hasn't received a timetable for her refund. Lynda Baquero reports.

13-November-19	Animal Welfare and Adoption	Dogs Rescued from Frigid Temperatures	5:06 PM	5:08 PM	2:48	Local Origination	On Brookhaven, Long Island, Strong Island Animal Rescue responded to a call that saved six dogs and several rabbits from the freezing temperatures. The animals were chained and caged outside in the record breaking weather. The owner of the animals could possibly face charges. Greg Cergol reports.
13-November-19	Court and Legal Decisions	I-Team: Fighting Back	5:29 PM	5:33 PM	4:13	Local Origination	In Manhattan, NY, Northern Leasing Systems, a corporation that leases credit card processing equipment, files thousands of cases a year against small business owners. They claim these businesses have violated a lease contract that ensures payment no matter what happens to the equipment. The state Attorney General's office says the corporation is "hijacking" courts to scam small businesses. Sarah Wallace reports.
13-November-19	Transportation	Penn Station Stores to Shutdown	5:47 PM	5:49 PM	2:18	Local Origination	In Manhattan, NY, Penn Station is renovating the entrance to the Long Island Railroad and the concourse. Shops and restaurants will now have to close due to construction. When all the retail is gone the MTA says they'll be closed for two years. Gus Rosendale reports.
14-November-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Stolen Cell Phone	4:43 PM	4:46 PM	3:04	Local Origination	Kelly McIntyre paid $299 for AppleCare+ with Theft and Loss Coverage through Assurant. Her phone was stolen, but Assurant did not reimburse her for the new phone she purchased, plus she is still required to must make payments for the old one. Lynda Baquero reports.

14-November-19	Housing	New Homeless Outreach Initiative	5:04 PM	5:07 PM	2:47	Local Origination	In New York, NY, Mayor Bill de Blasio unveiled a new initiative that will involve training 18,000 city employees to identify and submit service requests to help the homeless population. This comes in response to last month's murder of three homeless persons in Chinatown. Gilma Avalos reports.
14-November-19	Children and Youth	School Photo Scandal	5:13 PM	5:16 PM	2:40	Local Origination	In Scotch Plains, NJ, a high school student posted a photo of himself on social media wearing black face and posing in front of a confederate flag. The photo has caused controversy in the town and worried parents into questioning whether to send their kids to school. Ida Siegal reports.
14-November-19	Children and Youth	I-Team: Spreading Hate Messages	6:16 PM	6:20 PM	3:29	Local Origination	Joanna Schroeder is credited for a viral tweet that addressed hate messaging, white supremacy and extremism disseminated to teens through social media. Shroeder warns parents that posts and memes containing this type of messaging is desensitizing youth from the severity of the issue, and parents should monitor their children's social media. Stefan Holt reports.
15-November-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Broken TV Issue	4:44 PM	4:47 PM	2:45	Local Origination	On Melville, Long Island, Nicholas Julian purchased a Sony TV at Best Buy for about $1,200. He said the TV worked fine for three months and then one day he turned it on and noticed lines across the screen. Julian reached out to Sony and asked for a repair, but they claim the television had physical damage, which is not covered by the warranty. Lynda Baquero reports.
15-November-19	Funerals and Memorials	Final Farewell for Trailblazing Firefighter	5:16 PM	5:18 PM	2:09	Local Origination	In Manhattan, NY, Firefighter Cecilia Cox was laid to rest and remembered by the FDNY. Cox was one of the first women to serve the FDNY and paved the way for many other women. Her career with the FDNY spanned two and a half decades. Pat Battle reports.

15-November-19	Education	Teachers & Students Rally For Football Coach	5:29 PM	5:32 PM	2:26	Local Origination	In New Rochelle, NY, New Rochelle High School students and teachers are protesting in support of the head football coach who was reassigned days before the weekend's playoff game. The superintendent has not said why the coach was reassigned and says he is not allowed on campus. Ken Buffa reports.
15-November-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: What Happened to Jennifer Dulos?	6:16 PM	6:19 PM	2:49	Local Origination	In New Canaan, CT, Jennifer Dulos vanished in May and her husband, Fotis Dulos, remains a person of interest. Police say they found Jennifer's blood inside their garage but have yet to locate the body. Police contain surveillance video of Fotis and his girlfriend dumping garbage bags containing Jennifer's bloody clothes. The two are charged with tampering with evidence. Fotis denies any involvement in his wife's disappearance. Sarah Wallace reports.
16-November-19	Diversity	Visiones: "Guaracha"	6:46 AM	6:50 AM	3:21	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero interviews Director of "Guaracha" Rosalba Rolon. It's an off Broadway bilingual show based off the novel, "La Guaracha Del Macho Camacho." She gives us a glimpse into the show and it's unique characters.
17-November-19	Diversity	Positively Black: The Color of Power	6:50 AM	6:55 AM	5:22	Local Origination	Tracie Strahan interviews Exhibition Curator, Eduardo Miranda Rodriguez and Executive Director, Melody Capote of the Caribbean Cultural Center African Diaspora Institute. The exhibit, The Color of Power, explores comic books that celebrate narratives surrounding the African diaspora.
18-November-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Disappointed by Meet and Greet	4:45 PM	4:48 PM	3:18	Local Origination	In Staten Island, NY, Michael Altini is a huge fan of the group KISS. He and his wife bought concert tickets along with two $1500 VIP Experience Packages at Madison Square Garden through Live Nation. The package promised a meet and greet, personal photo, open bar, dessert bar, and hot and cold hors d'oeuvres, but the experience did not live up to expectations. Lynda Baquero reports.

18-November-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	6 Charged in High School Football Shooting	5:14 PM	5:16 PM	1:58	Local Origination	In Pleasantville, NJ, unexpected gunfire broke out at a Camden High School versus Pleasantville High School football game. 26-year-old Alvin Wyatt fired at his intended target in the stands, striking him and two bystanders, all of whom are now in critical condition. Wyatt and five others are charged in connection to the incident. Ted Greenberg reports.
18-November-19	Environment	Cleaning Up Toxic Algae in NJ	5:29 PM	5:31 PM	2:17	Local Origination	In Morris County, NJ, in late June, Lake Hopatcong banned swimming because of a harmful, toxic algae bloom. The ban also impacted local businesses and economy. New Jersey's Governor Phil Murphy just announced a multi-million-dollar investment to combat increasingly warming temperature and the threat it poses to lakes and surrounding communities. Brian Thompson reports.
18-November-19	Transportation	Mayors First Ride on 14 th Street Busway	5:47 PM	5:50 PM	2:40	Local Origination	New York City Mayor, Bill de Blasio took his first ride along the 14 th Street bus route in Chelsea, NY. Mayor de Blasio said by next year he will decide whether to add another bus only route. Andrew Stiff reports.
19-November-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	School Bus with Kids On Board, MTA Bus Hit By Bullets	5:46 PM	5:48 PM	2:06	Local Origination	In Brooklyn, NY, a school bus and an MTA bus were stuck by gunfire. One of the bullets killed a man who was standing across the street. Police are searching for the suspect. Marc Santia reports.
19-November-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Brooklyn Man's Murder Conviction Tossed Out	5:48 PM	5:50 PM	2:44	Local Origination	In Brooklyn, NY, Eliseo Deleon was convicted of murder and put in prison at the age of 18. At 42-years-old, he was finally freed of his wrongful conviction by a now retired NYPD detective and his partner. However, the victim's family remains convinced of Deleon's guilt and the detective believes he did nothing wrong. Both sides are expected to be back in court. Sarah Wallace reports.

19-November-19	Environment	4 th State of Emergency in Hampton Bays	6:06 PM	6:08 PM	2:01	Local Origination	On Long Island, NY, ten-foot waves flooded Dune Road. The road sits on a strip of land separating the Atlantic and Great South Bay. County and town crews are now piling sand along the edge of the beach to create a wall. The Southampton Town police chief says the sand wall is no match for the ocean. Engineers are working to find a long-term solution to protect Dune Road and the surrounding businesses. Greg Cergol reports.
20-November-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Recovering Lost E-Books	4:44 PM	4:46 PM	2:48	Local Origination	In Oakland, NJ, over the years Patty McNerny purchased about 200 e-books on her Amazon Kindle. When her account got hacked, Amazon guided her through transferring her purchases to the new account. However, a month later her account was closed and her entire library of books was gone. Lynda Baquero reports.
20-November-19	Children and Youth	Deadline Passes to Outfit School Buses With GPS	5:09 PM	5:12 PM	2:29	Local Origination	In New York, NY, last February, a bill was passed to outfit GPS systems on school buses for parents to monitor via app. The Department of Education did not implement the plan prior to the deadline, making New York City Council members and parents outraged by the unexplained delay. Erica Byfield reports.
20-November-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Punishment or Torture?	6:16 PM	6:19 PM	3:46	Local Origination	Christopher Johnson was a former inmate at the Elmira Correctional Facility who was convicted of murder and later acquitted. He is speaking up against the New York State Prison Corrections and Community Supervision regarding unlawful conditions he endured in the facility, specifically the 61 days spent in a "contraband watch room" a cell without a toilet, running water. Chris Glorioso reports.

21-November-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Online Lottery Scam	4:44 PM	4:48 PM	3:56	Local Origination	In Morganville, NJ, Dana Younger discovered her 80-year-old mother, Myrna Weinstein was scammed out of approximately $40,000. The scammer posed as a relative over Facebook messenger and told Weinstein she had won the lottery but needed to mail cash for the "fee." Lynda Baquero reports.
21-November-19	Accidents and Disasters	NJ Teen Killed While Riding E-Scooter	5:29 PM	5:32 PM	2:46	Local Origination	In Elizabeth, NJ, 16-year-old Nelson Gomez was riding an e-scooter parallel to a tow-truck. Moments later, the truck took a right turn and ran over the teen, killing him. You must be 18 or older to use electric scooters, however it's very easy for minors to access them. Many people now want the scooters pulled off the streets. Gilma Avalos reports. Erica Byfield reports.
21-November-19	Accidents and Disasters	Manslaughter Charges In Construction Accident	5:45 PM	5:48 PM	2:38	Local Origination	In Brooklyn, NY, Luis Almonte Sanchez was killed in a wall collapse while working at a Sunset Park construction site. The Brooklyn district attorney says the death was preventable and say the contractors put the workers at risk for their own greed. Six people were charged in connection to the incident after they ignored complaints of the wall sinking. Erica Byfield reports.
21-November-19	Children and Youth	I-Team: Fighting a Vaping "Epidemic" at School	6:05 PM	6:09 PM	3:32	Local Origination	On Long Island, NY, a group of East Hampton High School students formed the Breath In Change Initiative to lead an anti-vaping movement amongst their peers and help put an end to the epidemic. The school principal says 50-75% of his 900 students have tried vaping. Pei-Sze Cheng reports.

22-November-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Cost of Energy	4:43 PM	4:45 PM	2:26	Local Origination	On Staten Island, NY, Joseph Mallozzi switched his electricity supplier to 'Family Energy' about six years ago to lower his monthly bills. However, Mallozzi realized Con Edison offers an even cheaper monthly rate. When he contacted 'Family Energy' to switch to Con Ed, they offered Mallozzi a lower rate. Months passed without any change in the bill. Lynda Baquero reports.
22-November-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Ex-Boyfriend of Missing Woman Found Dead	5:05 PM	5:08 PM	2:55	Local Origination	In Freehold, NJ, John Ozbilgen killed himself just days after Monmouth County prosecutors classified him as a person of interest in the disappearance of Stephanie Parze. Parze went missing after she dropped her parents off at their house following a family night out on the night before Halloween. Ozbilgen and Parze previously dated and during their relationship Parze accused Ozbilgen of abuse. Police are still searching for Parze. Gilma Avalos reports.
22-November-19	Health	Social Media Filters Inspiring Plastic Surgery	5:15 PM	5:17 PM	2:16	Local Origination	On the East Side of Manhattan, NY, Marla Frezza would edit her face and body in selfies using the the FaceTune editing app, which she says tempted her into getting numerous plastic surgery procedures. Doctors say this increasing trend is linked to social media and other apps. Ida Seigal reports.
23-November-19	Diversity	Visiones: Young Actors & the Changing Face of Broadway	6:46 AM	6:49 AM	3:46	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero interviews child actors Jesus Del Orden, Sophia Rodriguez and their agent Susan Rybin from Rybin Talent. The agency focuses on getting diverse actors on the stage, specifically Latinos. The actors discuss their past and current projects and how they are able to balance school with their busy schedules.
24-November-19	Diversity	Positively Black: R&B Singer Johnny Gill Out With 8 th Album	6:50 AM	6:55 AM	4:50	Local Origination	Tracie Strahan interviews multi-platinum recording artist Johnny Gills of the late 80's R&B group "New Edition." Gills just released his 8 th solo album, Game Changer II.

25-November-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Parking Payment	4:44 PM	4:47 PM	3:23	Local Origination	In Bronxville, NY, Ana Linares parked in the Kensington parking garage and paid $2.25 for 4 ½ hours of parking. She only stayed a half hour before driving home. Although she didn't receive a ticket that day, a few weeks later she was mailed a parking violation for supposedly failing to pay the parking meter. Lynda Baquero reports.
25-November-19	Consumer	National Grid Agrees to Lift Gas Moratorium	5:06 PM	5:08 PM	2:16	Local Origination	On Hicksville Long Island, National Grid agreed to end the on-going gas moratorium affecting businesses and real estate on Long Island, after New York Governor Andrew Cuomo threatened to revoke their license. Myles Miller reports.
25-November-19	Safety	Safer Railroad Crossings	5:46 PM	5:48 PM	2:14	Local Origination	On Long Island, NY, the MTA are increasing safety measures after fatal accidents at crossings for the Long Island Railroad. They've been transforming dangerous crossings into underpasses and have also partnered with the GPS app, 'Waze,' which will now notify drivers when a railroad crossing is coming up. Andrew Siff.
26-November-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Refund for Warranty	4:46 PM	4:48 PM	2:15	Local Origination	In Bergenfield, NJ, Tom Gorman purchased a car and opted to buy a used car warranty for over $4,000 through the dealership. Gorman paid but never got the warranty nor did he get his money back. Lynda Baquero reports.
26-November-19	Education	Culinary Cadets	5:18 PM	5:20 PM	2:43	Local Origination	In Englewood, NJ, Chef Aaron Morrisey spends his days teaching kids how to cook, while giving them a space to express themselves. It's called the Culinary Cadets Program located at the Bergen Family Center. After they finish cooking their dishes they serve it to the other teens at the center. Sarah Wallace reports.

26-November-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Inside the Church	5:44 PM	5:48 PM	3:25	Local Origination	According to an NBC survey, 60% of participants believe the Church should consider ordaining women as deacons. Survey respondents and former priests have mixed views on the matter. Reverend Eileen DiFranco, who is a Roman Catholic female priest believes that women should be recognized equally in the church. Chris Glorioso reports.
27-November-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Tech Troubles	4:43 PM	4:46 PM	3:00	Local Origination	In Newark, NJ, Terecita Sornoza has worn an apple watch for the past three years. One day she noticed her skin blistering beneath the watch on her wrist. She assumed it was a burn, and brought the watch to an Apple Store, who told her they'll send the product for testing and a replacement, but for nearly $200. Lynda Baquero reports.
27-November-19	Safety	NYPD Chief on Unprecedented Holiday Street Closures	5:07 PM	5:09 PM	2:38	Local Origination	In Midtown, NY, closures of 49 th and 50 th streets, as well as sections of 5 th and 6 th avenue will allow solely pedestrians. NYPD Chief Terence Monahan believes the changes are a work in progress but a step to ensuring safety in Rockefeller Center during the busy holiday season. Marc Santia reports.
27-November-19	Housing	No Gas for Thanksgiving	5:30 PM	5:33 PM	2:33	Local Origination	In the Graves End section of the Bronx, building 28 of the NYCHA Marlboro Houses has not had gas in a month due to a leak. Gas will still be shut off over the Thanksgiving holiday, so NYCHA delivered hot plates to compensate tenants. Ida Siegal reports.
27-November-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Inside the Church	5:46 Pm	5:49 PM	3:23	Local Origination	In Upstate New York, as a child, Martin Glenn was abused by clergy at his church. According to an NBC survey, the majority of the 2,700 respondents all of whom are church employees, still stand by their faith despite the fact, "1 out of 3 believe the sex abuse and misconduct is still a major problem." Glenn is forgiving and maintains his commitment to the church, but would like to see the church practice what they preach. Chris Glorioso reports.

27-November-19	Health	I-Team: Where do Street Food Carts Go?	6:16 PM	6:19 PM	3:00	Local Origination	New York City law requires food carts to be stored in commissaries with permits. Inspection records obtained for about 130 food cart commissaries detailed several concerning health and safety violations. Golden Wholesale, LLC. alone has received 85 violations over the past three years while M&J commissary had only six minor violations. Jonathan Dienst reports.
28-November-19	Safety	NYPD Using Drones, Cameras for Parade Security	5:08 PM	5:10 PM	2:42	Local Origination	Hundreds of NYPD Officers patrolled the streets of New York to ensure the safety of the Macy's Thanksgiving Day Parade goers. NYPD and the Counter-Terrorism Unit spent months planning the event's security including drones, heavy weapons teams, K-9s, and sand trucks. Marc Santia reports.
28-November-19	Children and Youth	Brooklyn Students Serving the Community	5:20 PM	5:22 PM	1:49	Local Origination	Students of Erasmus Hall High School in Flatbush, Brooklyn spent their Thanksgiving preparing, cooking and serving a full menu of Thanksgiving food for up to 400 people. The students served the community in the courtyards of Kings Theater in Flatbush. Erica Byfield reports.
28-November-19	Children and Youth	Turkey Bowl Tradition Ends	5:45 PM	5:47 PM	2:08	Local Origination	In North Jersey, a century-long football Thanksgiving tradition came to an end this year. For the last time, community members and alumni from Clifton and Passaic High Schools came together for the annual Turkey Bowl. This annual event will not continue due to the extended season of high school sports seasons. Anjali Hemphill reports.
29-November-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Tips to Save Money on Holiday Shopping	4:44 PM	4:46 PM	1:35	Local Origination	Mother of two, Katie Hernandez, uses her self-made method called the "perfect storm" to use coupons. By spending an average of one and a half hours a week gathering coupons, Hernandez can get the majority of her purchases for free. Lynda Baquero reports.

29-November-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Search for Road Rage Stabbing Suspect	5:03 PM	5:05 PM	1:50	Local Origination	In Long Island, NY, police are looking for a driver accused of stabbing another driver in a case of road rage. The victim had pulled over after believing his car was hit by the suspect. An altercation occurred leading to the stabbing. Detectives are gathering information from eyewitnesses and surveillance videos. Pei-Sze Cheng reports.
29-November-19	Children & Youth	Staples Players take on 'Mamma Mia'	5:54 PM	5:58 PM	3:50	Local Origination	In Westport, Connecticut, Staples High School students performed the hit Broadway musical, Mamma Mia . For a surprise, the high school choreographers posted a message online to former cast members to send well wishes before their show. Responses flooded in from the Mamma Mia 's Broadway stars. Jamie Roth reports.
30-November-19	Diversity	Visiones: New Book Helps Turn Holiday Stress into Positivity	6:45 AM	6:49 AM	3:43	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero interviews author, Yudy Veras Bueno about her new book, The Becoming of a Light Warrior . This book helps readers deal with their holiday stress and change their negative thoughts to empowering ones. Bueno provides an action plan to create a healthier mindset.
1-December-19	Diversity	Positively Black: Billy Dee Williams Says He's Gender Fluid	6:49 AM	6:49 AM	3:43	Local Origination	Tracie Strahan reports about Billy Dee Williams's recent interview with Esquire Magazine . He opened about his gender identity and considers himself to be gender fluid. He refers to himself as he/him and she/her.
2-December-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Water Damage Claim	4:55 PM	4:58 PM	3:27	Local Origination	In Warren, NJ, Mark Porselli recently purchased a lot in Ortleigh Beach as a pre-retirement gift. The original builder was unable to finish the roof, so he subcontracted someone else to finish. After a rainstorm, the house was completely damaged. Mark filed a claim with Zurich, but they could not cover his damage. Lynda Baquero reports.

2-December-19	Consumer	Cyber Monday: Inside Amazon's Operation	5:57 PM	5:58 PM	1:25	Local Origination	In Robbinsville, NJ, Amazon's warehouse is preparing for Cyber Monday, their biggest day of the year. They are ensuring customers that any order made will be delivered on time, even with the snow being predicted. Gus Rosendale reports.
3-December-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Utility Company Scam	4:45 PM	4:47 PM	2:44	Local Origination	In Manhattan, Peter Baum received a phone recording from Con Edison warning him that in three hours his service will be disconnected for not paying the last four months' worth of bills. He looked for Con Edison's number on the website and it didn't match the recording that called him, he realized it was a scam. Lynda Baquero reports.
3-December-19	Children & Youth	Alvin Ailey School Celebrates 50 Years	4:56 PM	4:57 PM	1:10	Local Origination	In Hell's Kitchen, the Alvin Ailey School is a dance program that welcomes everyone of all ages. The school is celebrating 50 years, and the students are extremely proud of all the schools' and their own accomplishments. Gus Rosendale reports.
3-December-19	Court and Legal Decisions	Dulos Civil Trial Begins	6:05 PM	6:08 PM	3:00	Local Origination	In Hartford, CT, Fotis Dulos is back in court and being sued by Gloria Farber, the mother of missing Jennifer Dulos. Gloria Farber claims that Fotis Dulos owes her $2.5 million dollars in unpaid loans. Ida Siegal reports.
3-December-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: A Dad's International Custody Battle	6:16 PM	6:20 PM	4:02	Local Origination	In Brooklyn, NY, Claude Dary and his wife separated, and Claude has not seen his son since February. His wife took their son with her to Kenya and has not answered any of Claude's calls. He is battling in court for his son, and even though his wife did not have his consent to take the child, it is not considered kidnapping. Sarah Wallace reports.

4-December-19	Court and Legal Decisions	4 Charges Could Be Dropped in Buy Scout Death Case	5:06 PM	5:09 PM	2:30	Local Origination	In Long Island, NY, Thomas Murphy was accused of hitting and killing a boy scout with his car. His trial has new developments. There was an issue with the alcohol tests. This can lead to the judge having to drop four of the charges. The remaining counts can have Murphy in prison for 25 years. Greg Cergol reports.
4-December-19	Court and Legal Decisions	Estranged Husband of Missing CT Mom Jennifer Dulos Testifies in Civil Case	5:31 PM	5:33 PM	2:02	Local Origination	In Hartford, CT, there are new developments in the Jennifer Dulos case. The missing mother's husband was back on the stand. He testified in a civil case against him. Ida Siegal reports.
4-December-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Upper East Side Burglar Using Fire Escapes to Get In	5:34 PM	5:36 PM	1:56	Local Origination	In the Upper East Side, the NYPD is telling residents to keep their doors and windows locked after at least five break-ins in the area. Police believe the burglar is getting in through fire escapes. Erica Byfield reports.
5-December-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Booze Cruise Tickets	4:43 PM	4:46 PM	2:51	Local Origination	In Haverstraw, NY, Marisol Rivera-Placido bought booze cruise tickets for over $500 but received nothing in return. On the day of the event, Rivera-Placido received an email from Eventzilla that the event organizer, Zuloo Events was suspended because of suspected fraud. Lynda Baquero reports.
5-December-19	Civil Rights	Man Accuses JetBlue of Discrimination	5:01 PM	5:04 PM	2:51	Local Origination	The Brooklyn Borough President is involved in a case of alleged racial discrimination on a JetBlue flight. Shaun Lynda believes that a JetBlue flight attendant made him feel like a dog. He was later kicked off the flight. Lynda's attorney already filed a report to the Department of Transportation and is considering filing a lawsuit. Ida Siegal reports.
5-December-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Email Threat Forces Brooklyn School to Evacuate	5:29 PM	5:31 PM	1:48	Local Origination	In Brooklyn, NY, more than 6,000 students from Brooklyn Tech High School had to evacuate after receiving an email threat. Heavily armed police and NYPD Bomb Squad all responded to the school. The email was a hoax and they eventually gave the all-clear. Andrew Siff reports.

5-December-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Convict With a Conscience	6:14 PM	6:18 PM	3:42	Local Origination	An unknown man spent 26 years in prison for a crime he did not commit. He was convicted in connection with an armed robbery case. A fellow prisoner, Luis Morales, made a promise to set him free. Chris Glorioso reports.
6-December-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Streaming Video Games	4:46 PM18	4:47 PM	1:35	Local Origination	Google's new system, Stadia, operates through the cloud and eliminates the need for a console. Players will then stream their video games through a monthly service fee. Many consumers are hesitant to make the purchase because others are having trouble accessing the service. As of right now, the competition, Microsoft, Sony, and PlayStation are all offering similar products this holiday season. Lynda Baquero reports.
6-December-19	Accidents and Disasters	1 Killed, 2 Hurt After Taxi & SUV Collide	5:05 PM	5:07 PM	1:59	Local Origination	In Jersey City, NJ, police are trying to investigate what happened in a violent crash. One person was killed, and two others were hurt. Community members are advocating for narrower roads, pedestrian medians, and different timed lights. The investigation is still ongoing. Jamie Roth reports.
6-December-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Quota Controversy	5:29 PM	5:32 PM	3:02	Local Origination	Allegations of racial discrimination with the NYPD come from sworn statements from officers that they were given directives from higher-ups to target certain minorities. Eight new affidavits are coming from police that worked within the subway system between 2011-2015. The NYPD maintains that quotas never existed. Sarah Wallace reports.

7-December-19	Diversity	Visiones: A Very Merry Barrio Holiday Comedy Show	6:46 AM	6:49 AM	2:52	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero interviews Suni Reyes, the host and director of "A Very Merry Barrio Holiday Comedy Show." The show started as a fundraiser three years ago for Hurricane Maria, and after all the positive feedback they continue to perform. The comedy show is about how the Spanish culture celebrates the holidays.
8-December-19	Diversity	Positively Black: Will Downing's "Romantique Part 1"	6:50 AM	6:55 AM	4:55	Local Origination	Tracie Strahan interviews vocalist and composer, Will Downing, about his journey as a singer. After struggling with an illness, he just released his new album Romantique that he is preparing to perform.
9-December-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Bill For Returned Equipment	4:44 PM	4:46 PM	2:12	Local Origination	In Brooklyn, NY, Ilene Ackerman and her husband have had DirectTV for years, and the company told them they are ready for an upgrade. The new system could not be installed because it wasn't compatible with their current television. Ilene and her husband were billed for the equipment that did not work. Lynda Baquero reports.
9-December-19	Accidents and Disasters	Women Rescued From Burning Car	5:14 PM	5:16 PM	2:12	Local Origination	In Egg Harbor Township, NY, two cars collided and one hit a utility pole, trapping two women in the car. The car went on fire and Juan Perez pulled over as he was driving by to help the women. He broke the window and was able to pull the two women out safely. Ted Greenberg reports.
9-December-19	Education	Community Clashes Over Charter School	6:06 PM	6:08 PM	1:40	Local Origination	In Brooklyn, NY, the East Midwood Jewish Center agreed to rent out space to the Urban Dove Team Charter School for minority students seeking to better their education. This created a backlash in the community, so the school and students plan to meet with stakeholders to assure that they will be good students. Jamie Roth reports.

10-December-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	One Police Officer, 3 Civilians, 2 Suspects Dead in Jersey City Shootout	Live	Live	Live	Local Origination	In Jersey City, NJ, a man and woman entered a Kosher market shooting and killing three civilians and one police officer. The shootout went on for hours, and the investigation is ongoing. Erica Byfield reports.
11-December-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Waiting For Clean Clothes	4:44 PM	4:46 PM	2:30	Local Origination	In Brooklyn, NY, Jon Elordi used "Fly Cleaners," an app to drop off and pick up laundry. Jon's laundry was never picked up and brought to him, after he reached out to the person delivering his laundry multiple times. Lynda Baquero reports.
11-December-19	Transportation	New Technology, New Problems	4:55 PM	4:57 PM	2:12	Local Origination	In Long Island City, NY, the snow and ice have delayed the 7 train tremendously. The signal on the tracks cannot alert trains when others have passed due to the small amount of snow covering it, delaying all commuters. The MTA is not happy and working to install a better system with better technology. Andrew Siff reports.
11-December-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	No Motive Released in Deadly Shooting	4:58 PM	5:02 PM	3:57	Local Origination	In Jersey City, six people were killed in the Kosher market shootout. An internal FBI advisory believes this was a hate crime that killed three civilians, Officer Joseph Seals, and the two shooters. The investigation is ongoing. Brian Thompson reports.
12-December-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Paying Off Water System	4:43 PM	4:46 PM	3:14	Local Origination	In Kips Bay, NY, Sarra Morton agreed to take out a loan to pay the $7,000 for the water machine after discovering an ad from Trusii. Trusii promised Morton she would be reimbursed over 36 months while she participates in the case study. For the first couple of months, she was getting paid by Trusii until October 2019. Trusii claimed that the case study was closed, that Morton failed to complete the required monthly responsibilities, and wanted all their money back. Lynda Baquero reports.

12-December-19	Accidents and Disasters	Child Struck, Killed by Subway Train	5:06 PM	5:08 PM	2:07	Local Origination	In Lower Manhattan, NY, a 2-year-old was struck by a subway train and died. The child was with his mother at the Fulton Street Station when he stepped between the platform and a northbound 2 train. The accident is under investigation. Anjali Hemphill reports.
12-December-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Fighting Hate	5:29 PM	5:31 PM	1:53	Local Origination	In Jersey City, NJ, a targeted shootout and standoff at a kosher market occurred. NYC Mayor DeBlasio joined local Jewish leaders to send a message that NYC is united against hate. Commissioner Shea says the Department's Intelligence Bureau is working to study hate speech online to prevent it from becoming physically violent actions. In addition, the NYPD announced a new unit to prevent hate crimes. Myles Miller reports.
13-December-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Wooden Flag Ordered	4:44 PM	4:46 PM	2:22	Local Origination	In Park Ridge, NJ, Joshua Lee is the son of an Army veteran who bought a wooden American flag for over $100. He bought it over 12 months ago and hasn't received it. When Lee tried to contact the seller, the email bounced back, and their website was gone. Lynda Baquero reports.
13-December-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	13 Year Old Arrested & Another Teen Questioned in Barnard Student Killing	4:58 PM	5:00 PM	1:56	Local Origination	In Morningside Park, NY, a Barnard College student was brutally murdered. A 14-year old is being questioned in connection to her death. NYPD is already questioning a 13-year old about the case. The investigation is ongoing. Ken Buffa reports.

13-December-19	Funerals and Memorials	Tribute to 10-Year Old Boy Shot at Game	5:30 PM	5:31 PM	1:47	Local Origination	In Atlantic City, NJ, a city comes together to remember Micah Tennant. The 10-year old was at Pleasantville High School's football game when he was caught in the crossfire of a shooting. A member of the school board proposed dedicating the football field to the child and a memorial stone bearing his name at the entrance. The school board will vote on this proposal in January. In addition, a local park and basketball court will be named in his honor. Ted Greenberg reports.
14-December-19	Diversity	Visiones: Healthy Holiday Eating	6:45 AM	6:48 AM	3:03	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero interviews Leticia Moreinos Schwartz, author of Latin Super Foods . She shares how healthy food doesn't mean it has to be flavorless. Moreinos Schwartz suggests swapping out the traditional ingredients and using Latin alternatives.
15-December-19	Diversity	Positively Black: "Supreme Glamour"	6:49 AM	6:54 AM	4:53	Local Origination	Tracie Strahan interviews Mary Wilson, the founding member of the Supremes. She is the author of a new book, Supreme Glamour . The book is about their iconic fashion and costumes the Supremes wore.
16-December-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Wrong Size Tires Causes Problems	4:44 PM	4:46 PM	2:33	Local Origination	A New Jersey car owner, Tony Figueroa, bought new tires for his car. It cost him over $400 to buy them. Figueroa went to Mavis Discount Tire to have them put on. Two weeks after the new tires were put on, his car started having problems. It was discovered that wrong sized tires were put on. Figueroa then had to pay close to $2,000 in repairs and for another set of tires. Lynda Baquero reports.
16-December-19	Court and Legal Decisions	Driver's Licenses for Some Undocumented Immigrants	5:12 PM	5:14 PM	1:59	Local Origination	New York's new 'Green Light' Law is now in effect. It allows undocumented immigrants to get a driver's license. They can now get car insurance. Ida Siegal reports.

16-December-19	Court and Legal Decisions	Proposed Child Vaccination Law	5:47 PM	5:49 PM	2:05	Local Origination	A bill to end religious exemptions for vaccines passed the New Jersey State Assembly today. This puts this bill one step closer to becoming a law. Protesters filled the Statehouse annex protesting this bill. Sydney Long reports.
17-December-19	Housing	Helping the Homeless	5:48 PM	5:50 PM	2:07	Local Origination	NYC officials estimate that there are more than 2,600 homeless people on the streets. Mayor De Blasio released the City's latest plan to combat the homeless crisis. His plan calls for 1,000 new safe-haven beds, 1,000 new low-barrier permanent apartments, "wrap-around" medical and mental health services, and turning privately-owned properties into permanent housing. John Chandler reports.
17-December-19	Accidents and Disasters	Tragic Crash Ahead of the Holidays	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	1:59	Local Origination	In Brick, NJ, a pickup truck crashed into a home. A 55-year-old woman confined to her bed was killed in the crash. The driver, an 84-year-old man lost control of the car. The police are investigating what happened. No charges have been filed. Ted Greenberg reports.
17-December-19	Health	I-Team: Who Manages Your Prescription Meds?	6:17 PM	6:20 PM	3:40	Local Origination	Upper East Side man, David Everard is battling lung cancer. The company managing his prescription coverage told him that he would need to change his cancer treatment medication. Everard is unclear why the change is happening. Governor Cuomo now has a bill on his desk to make prescription changes more transparent. Marc Santia reports.
18-December-19	Accidents and Disasters	Manhattan Women Killed By Falling Debris	5:46 PM	5:48 PM	2:48	Local Origination	In Manhattan, NY, a woman was tragically killed by falling debris. A construction shed was supposed to be put in place months ago to prevent any similar accidents, but it never was. The Department of Buildings is still investigating. Ida Siegal reports.

18-December-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Security Guard Shoot Would-Be Bank Robber	5:55 PM	5:58 PM	2:24	Local Origination	In Wayne, NJ, an attempted robbery occurred. The suspect tried to hold up an armoured truck that was parked on the side of the road. An altercation occurred and one shot from the security guard stopped the robber. The suspect was taken to the hospital and is in stable condition. He is under police custody. Pat Battle reports.
18-December-19	Court and Legal Decisions	Guilty Verdict in Boy Scout Death Trial	6:02 PM	6:05 PM	2:36	Local Origination	In Long Island, NY, Thomas Murphy was accused and found guilty of hitting and killing a boy scout with his car. Murphy is free on bail and is awaiting his sentencing. He is facing up to 25 years in prison. Greg Cergol reports.
19-December-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Gift Card Confusion	4:45 PM	4:47 PM	2:19	Local Origination	In Old Tappan, NJ, Linda Desimone received $250 worth of Apple and App Store gift cards from her family. She tried to buy a new iPad with the gift cards but was denied since the App Store card is only for apps. Lynda Baquero reports.
19-December-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Police: School Bus Driver Drove Drunk	5:15 PM	5:18 PM	2:32	Local Origination	In Somers, NY, a bus driver taking 5 th graders home from school was arrested for driving drunk. The driver was 61-year-old William Mendez. His blood alcohol limit was three times the legal limit. Mendez was charged with aggravated DWI under Leandra's Law. Ida Siegal reports
19-December-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	5 Arrested in Political Corruption Bust	5:48 PM	5:50 PM	2:15	Local Origination	A corruption bust swept through Jersey City, NJ. Five people who have served as public officials or have run for office have been arrested on corruption charges. They are accused of taking thousands of dollars' worth of bribes. The investigation continues. John Chandler reports.
19-December-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I Team: Police Raid Caught on Camera	6:01 PM	6:06 PM	4:12	Local Origination	NYPD cops are seen on surveillance video yanking off camera equipment during a drug raid in Queens, NY. The two brothers that were charged with cocaine possession after that raid are now cleared. They were falsely accused of having over 40 pounds of cocaine. This entire incident is under internal review. Sarah Wallace reports.

20-December-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: House Damaged by Tree	4:44 PM	4:46 PM	2:13	Local Origination		In Freehold, NJ, Jennifer Macaluso purchased a new house that she thought was the perfect home. During a storm, a tree fell onto the house estimating about $50,000 worth of damage. Jennifer filed a claim through her home owner's insurance, Swyfft, to cover the repairs but they only agreed to pay for half of the damage. Lynda Baquero reports.
20-December-19	Transportation	Pet Therapy Program at LaGuardia Airport	4:56 PM	4:58 PM	2:04	Local Origination		Ziggy, a 10-year-old Greyhound, is a part of the new pet therapy program at LaGuardia Airport. Before flying, many people may feel anxious, frustrated, or nervous, so Ziggy helps ease holiday traveling stress. People can pet him through security or as they are waiting to board their plane. Jen Maxfield reports.
20-December-19	Safety	New Protection for NYPD Officers	5:47 PM	5:48 PM	1:42	Local Origination		The NYPD is improving bullet proof vests after the death of Detective Brian Simonsen. These new light weight vests make it easier to wear under their suits, and detectives in Queens are testing them out as a part of a pilot program. If the new vests are successful, all NYPD detectives will wear them on duty. Ray Villeda reports.
20-December-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	I-Team: Vietnam Veterans' Cancer Battle	6:18 PM	6:19 PM	3:41	Local Origination		Vietnam veterans are battling with the Department of Veterans Affairs over a deadly health issue. Many veterans have a parasite in their body that can lead to liver fluke cancer. They have been battling with the Department to test all veterans that served in Vietnam, but this battle has gone on for two years with no results. Greg Cergol reports.

21-December-19	Diversity	Visiones: Latinas Star in New Film "Angel Fish"	6:46 AM	6:50 AM	3:27	Local Origination	Lynda Baquero interviews the stars in the new film, "Angel Fish," that takes place in the Bronx. The love story focuses on family and Latina culture. The actresses were able to use their own slang, dialogue, and improv based on their own backgrounds.
22-December-19	Diversity	Positively Black: Kwanzaa Crawl	6:49 AM	6:53 AM	4:05	Local Origination	Tracie Strahan interviews the two founders of the Kwanzaa crawl, Kerry Coddett and Krystal Stark. The Kwanzaa crawl is a way to bring the black community together during the holidays and support businesses in Brooklyn and Harlem. This is the fourth annual Kwanzaa crawl, and tickets are already sold out.
23-December-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Generic Drug Cost	4:45 PM	4:48 PM	2:58	Local Origination	In Queens, NY, Noved Ahmed's prescription price skyrocketed even though he had insurance. The manufacturer who was responsible for Ahmed's prescription no longer makes the drug. The price rose because the pharmacist had to find a similar prescription based on inventory to provide to Ahmed. Lynda Baquero reports.
23-December-19	Court and Legal Decisions	Are There More Victims?	5:02 PM	5:04 PM	2:15	Local Origination	In Newark, NJ, Khalil Wheeler-Weaver was convicted for the deaths of three women and the attempted killing of a fourth. Prosecutors are unsure if there are more victims. He is likely facing life in prison. Brian Thompson reports.
23-December-19	Transportation	168 th Station Reopens Ahead of Schedule	5:29 PM	5:32 PM	2:59	Local Origination	In Upper Manhattan, NY, the 168 th Street Station reopened ahead of schedule. All four elevators were fixed in the renovations. Andrew Siff reports.
24-December-19	Consumer	Last-Minute Holiday Shopping Rush	5:01 PM	5:03 PM	2:31	Local Origination	In Baychester, The Bronx, shoppers are filling the mall looking for last-minute gifts. The mall extended their hours to help people shop. The mall will close on Christmas Day but will reopen the next day. Lynda Baquero reports.

24-December-19	Transportation	Final Holiday Travel Push	5:31 PM	5:33 PM	2:21	Local Origination	Train stations across the area prepare for the influx of travelers for the holiday season. New Jersey Transit, Long Island Rail Road, Metro-North added service to help aid the holiday rush. Crowds at Penn Station were lower than usual. Andrew Siff reports.
24-December-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Pregnant Woman Beaten in Elevator	5:35 PM	5:37 PM	2:02	Local Origination	In Bedford Park, The Bronx, a pregnant woman named Thelma Asibey, was attacked and then robbed in an elevator by another woman. The police are still looking for the suspect. Anjali Hemphill reports.
25-December-19	Accidents and Disasters	4 Firefighters Injured in Apartment Fire	5:59 PM	6:01 PM	2:21	Local Origination	In the Upper East Side, a fire ripped through a walk-up apartment building on Christmas Day. Over 130 firefighters were on the scene. Only four were taken to the hospital for minor injuries. The fire remains under investigation. Gaby Acevedo reports
25-December-19	Crime and Law and Enforcement	4 Anti-Semitic Attacks in NYC Sine Monday	6:03 PM	6:06 PM	2:17	Local Origination	There have been four Anti-Semitic attacks in Murray Hill, Crown Heights, and Borough Park. None of the attack victims were seriously hurt. One person was arrested. Police are still looking for the other attackers. Anjali Hemphill reports.
25-December-19	Accidents and Disasters	Fire Destroys LI Firehouse	6:06 PM	6:08 PM	2:12	Local Origination	In North Massapequa, Long Island, a fire destroys a firehouse and charred fire trucks. One of the fire trucks started the fire. Firefighters from 13 different stations worked to put out the flames. Ray Villeda reports.
26-December-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Managing Holiday Credit Card Debt	4:44 PM	4:47 PM	3:16	Local Origination	45% of credit card holders said that they were willing to go into holiday-related debt this season. Chief Industry Analyst, Matt Schulz provides tips on how to pay it off quickly and wisely. Lynda Baquero reports.
26-December-19	Accidents and Disasters	Child Struck, Trapped Underneath School Bus	4:58 PM	5:00 PM	1:50	Local Origination	In Monsey, NY, a child was hit by a school bus. Police say that the child ran in front of the bus, hit the yellow safety bar, and then ended up beneath it. The bus driver rode away and was unaware of the hit. The child has minor injuries. The police are still investigating. Ken Buffa reports.

26-December-19	Animal Welfare and Adoption	Deer Drama Ends With Rescue	4:46 PM	4:48 PM	1:57	Local Origination		In New Jersey, a deer was stuck on the ice. A passing motorist noticed the deer and got help. Responders came to the scene. The deer received aid and then was released into the wild. Brian Thompson reports.
27-December-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Holiday Travel	4:43 PM	4:47 PM	3:07	Local Origination		Gabe Saglie is the Senior Editor at TravelZoo. He provides a better understanding of consumer rights when their airline travel plans change unexpectedly. Also, Saglie provides tips on how to deal with the changes. Lynda Baquero reports.
27-December-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	NYPD Investigating Hate Attacks	4:58 PM	5:01 PM	3:06	Local Origination		The NYPD is investigating several hate attacks against Jewish people. There have been at least eight attacks against Jewish people in NYC since December 13 th . NYPD is providing more patrols in areas with large Jewish communities. Chris Glorioso reports.
27-December-19	Accidents and Disasters	Crane Collapses on House in NJ	5:29 PM	5:31 PM	2:03	Local Origination		In Hamilton Township, NJ, a crane collapsed on a home, damaging that house and the one next door. People were inside the home when the crane hit, but no one was hurt. Ken Buffa reports.
28-December-19	Diversity	Visiones: "Promotores De Salud" Program	6:46 PM	6:49 PM	3:32	Local Origination		Lynda Baquero interviews Daisy Walker and Larissa Vasquez from Planned Parenthood. Planned Parenthood has created the "Promotores De Salud" program. This program provides information on access to all healthcare needs.
29-December-19	Diversity	Positively Black: The Dad Gang	6:50 PM	6:55 PM	4:55	Local Origination		Tracie Strahan interviews founders of The Dad Gang, Sean Williams, Kevin Riley, and Victor Fontain. The Dad Gang is an organization started on social media and is looking for active dads to help end the stigma that black fathers are not active in their children's lives.

30-December-19	Crime and Law Enforcement	Suspect Facing Federal Hate Crime Charges	4:58 PM	5:01 PM	3:26	Local Origination	Prosecutors filed federal hate crimes charges against 37-year-old, Grafton Thomas accused of storming into a Hanukah celebration and stabbing several people. His attorney is claiming he has a long history of mental illness. Thomas has pled not guilty for five counts of attempted murder and one count for burglary. Chris Glorioso reports.
30-December-19	Accidents and Disasters	Wind Turbine Collapses in the Bronx	5:06 PM	5:08 PM	2:13	Local Origination	In Co-Op City, The Bronx, a wind turbine came apart in the air and scattered debris on the streets. The turbine also took down a billboard and damaged several cars. No one was hurt. The assistant fire chief believes that the weather was the cause of this accident. Anjali Hemphill reports.
30-December-19	Safety	NYPD Stepping Up Security for New Year's Eve	5:13 PM	5:15 PM	2:36	Local Origination	NYPD is ensuring that Times Square is safe for the New Year's Eve celebration. To prepare for the festivities security checks were made in the surrounding area, two types of bomb sniffing dogs, and heavily armed police were brought in. Andrew Siff reports.
31-December-19	Consumer	Better Get Baquero: Blended Families & Finances	4:44 PM	4:47 PM	2:54	Local Origination	Ronnie and Lamar Tyler have a blended family. They both have children from previous relationships. When they got married, they had difficulties discussing and dealing with their finances as a blended family. They provided tips on how to deal with the topic. Lynda Baquero reports.
31-December-19	Court and Legal Decisions	Inmates Leave Jail Under Prison Reform Law	5:07 PM	5:10 PM	2:45	Local Origination	On Long Island, NY, about 30 inmates were released from the National County Jail. They were released because of New York's controversial Bail Reform Law. The county maintains that these releases are safe. The released inmates will need to return to court later to face their criminal charges. Greg Cergol reports.

31-December-19	Safety	Getting Home Safe on New Year's	5:56 PM	5:58 PM	1:55	Local Origination	In the Bronx, a towing business is offering a free ride home and car tow for anyone that drinks too much on New Year's Eve. Five J's Automotive will provide this free service for Bronx residents from midnight to 6 am. Gaby Acevedo reports.
----------------	--------	------------------------------------	------------	------------	------	----------------------	---
