

KOKL 1ST Quarterly Report (2012)

Date: Sunday January 1, 2012

Topic: What can we as a people do better to stop the high rate of violence of last year.

Guest: Open Lines

Show Description: We open the lines to the community to find out what we can do different to stop the killing in Baton Rouge.

Show Length: 1 hour

Date: Sunday January 8, 2012

Topic: What is your resolution for the New Year and how will affect the community that you live in.

Guest: Open Lines

Show Description: We open the lines again to urge the people of the community to make meaningful resolution that will not only help themselves but also the people in around us.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday January 15, 2012

Topic: We remember Martin Luther King and ask the question has America really turn it's back on racism.

Guest: Mada McDonald

Show Description: We chat a bit about racism and what the fight for justice is all about.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday January 22, 2012

Topic: Our local colleges are dying what do to fix it.

Guest: Will Cambell and Ed Pratt

Show Description: We get an inside look at Southern University to find out how to save our schools.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: January 29, 2012

Topic: Crime in the city of Baton Rouge is getting worse. We go indepth to explore how to defeat this.

Guest: Joe Arces and Jowell Ship

Show Description: Members of Noble discuss the ways to improve the violence in our community.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday Feburary 05, 2012

Topic: Two topics are discussed frist we talk to author Arran Johnson and then a State Representative about what changes are to come.

Guest: State Representative Pat Smith and Author Aaron Johnson.

Show Description: There are changes that need to be done to build the community and an local author Aaron Johnson disusses his new book.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday Feburary 12, 2012

Topic: The re-entry program and the 2012 Noble are they truly effective.

Guest: Faith Based Community and the Department of Correction.

Show Description: The community has a talk about how useful is the re-entry program and can we spend our money in better ways.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday February 26, 2012

Topic: Our local dancing dolls tell us about their superbowl experience.

Guest: Lawrence Jackson and the Southern University Dancing Dolls

Show Description: The Dancing Dolls and Band Director Larwence Jackson tell us how the were selected to paticipate in this years superbowl.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday Feburary 29, 2012

Topic: Safety in the community and what can be done to keep crime down during this holiday season.

Guest: Open Lines

Show Description: There are many solutions but we need come together as a community to fix the problem at hand.
Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday March 4, 2012
Topic: What changes can be made in the community from the eyes of the youth.
Guest: Students who attended the Noble CEO Symposium
Show Description: Students from Baton Rouge get a chance to voice there opinion about their experience at Nobles CEO symposium.
Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday March 11, 2012
Topic: Crime in the city of Baton Rouge and what can be done to fix it.
Guest: Veronica and Monica (Members of the community)
Show Description: Major focus on the eratication of crime and what needs to be done to help with the current situation.
Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday March 18, 2012
Topic: We talk to members of BRECC about the programs they off to keep kids off the streets.
Guest: Representatives from BRECC.
Show Description:Members from the Baton Rouge BRECC talk about how there programs help motivated kids to do positive things in the community.
Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday March 25, 2012
Topic: Religion and how it is the key to getting our kids to go in the right direction.
Guest: The Reverend Alivn Haring
Show Description: Reverend Haring talks about how religion plays a part in a child development and decision making.

Show Length: 1 Hour

KQXL 2nd Quarterly Report (2012)

Date: Sunday April 1, 2012

Topic: We talk about voting and why ever election is important.

Guest: Shelly Moore and Yosafar A. Banks

Show Description: Major goes in to detail about how the local elections effect the community on a nation level.

Show Length: 1 hour

Date: Sunday April 8, 2012

Topic: Health Care in the community of Baton Rouge.

Guest: Representatives from the community health care center.

Show Description: How the new community health care center can help improve the quality of life in Baton Rouge. resolution that will not only help themselves but also the people in around us.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday April 15, 2012

Topic: We talk about education and the oldest Catholic school in Baton Rouge.

Guest: Representatives from St. Francis Xavier Catholic School.

Show Description: St. Francis Xavier Catholic School is the oldest of it's type in the city. How has it done part in the city and what can we do to preserve it.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday April 22, 2012

Topic: Child is abuse and how it is affecting our kids.

Guest: Mrs. Lantoya Dunbar and Katrina Fulton

Show Description: Those who abuse our kids need to be dealt with and do the kids really have a voice. This show give kids a voice and tell parents what is the signs of abuse.
Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday April 29, 2012
Topic: This show digs into the purpose of the re-entry program.
Guest: Waylon Gibbs
Show Description: The Baton Rouge community chimes in on how the Re-Entry Program has been affective and is it worth our tax dollars.
Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday May 06, 2012
Topic: The summer programs that are really effective.
Guest: John Broomfield, Sunday Broomfield and Briston Marshall. (Local Students)
Show Description: We know a lot about our kids but do we really know all of their friends. How safe will they be during the summer and what are some good summer activities for our youth.
Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday May 13, 2012
Topic: We salute our Baton Rouge mothers.
Guest: Single Mother's in the community of Baton Rouge.
Show Description: Mother's in Baton Rouge tell the things they do to raise their kids to be productive.
Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday May 20, 2012
Topic: We talk to the local Black leaders in our community.
Guest: Brock Miller and Mike Russell

Show Description:The makers of the video hard times speak about the it and given their time to the kids.
Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday May 27, 2012

Topic: The things that the possibility project does to help the youth.

Guest: David Coley, Emily Townshend, Brittny, Dilee, and William Imgram

Show Description: Kids from the possiably project talk about why its so important to them and what others can do to get involed.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday June 3, 2012

Topic: The steps that need to be taking to own your own business.

Guest: Stacey Williams

Show Description: We talk about the local summit in the Baton Rouge area and what can be done to get your business running properly.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday June 10, 2012

Topic: How to handle your business in court.

Guest: Lisa Freedman and Lawn Noirs

Show Description: When you have issues in court how do you get it taking care of quickly.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday June 17, 2012

Topic: We take time to salute the local fathers in the city of Baton Rouge.

Guest: Willie Bethly, AJ Zin, and Jim Townsend (Fathers in Baton Rouge)

Show Description: This time we chat about the good things that father's do and how it not only impacts their kids but also the community.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday June 24, 2012

Topic: The opening of jails in Baton Rouge area.

Guest: Members of the Baton Rouge City Court and Constable office.

Show Description: If you are not paying tickets and have warrants out there why is so imparitive that that business gets handaled.

Show Length: 1 Hour

KQXL 3rd Quarterly Report (2012)

Date: Sunday July 1, 2012

Topic: We talk about our kids future and how to guide it.

Guest: Youth Cythnia Snail and Torian O'Conner

Show Description: Major Brown talks to the youth their future and the role we play to make them reality.

Show Length: 1 hour

Date: Sunday July 8, 2012

Topic: How the church is essential to the development of the community.

Guest: Reverend Harold Domain

Show Description: Reverend Domain speaks on the various projects that the church is involved in in the city of Baton Rouge.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday July 15, 2012

Topic: Is it the churches responsibility to keep the community safe.

Guest: Reverend Perry Wright

Show Description: Can the church really make the community safer and why is it the churches responsibility.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday July 22, 2012

Topic: The lack of education and its effects on society.

Guest: Senator Sharon Weston Broome

Show Description: We have a dialogue about our youth and how a lack of education has caused more young teens to go to jail.
Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday July 29, 2012
Topic: Former Baton Rouge gad tells us how he did it..
Guest: Mark Grant
Show Description: Television producer Mark Grant takes us through his journey from Baton Rouge to CBS Sports.
Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday August 5, 2012
Topic: We find out what the Noble Conference is and how it is benifical.
Guest: James Jefferson and Noble
Show Description:We talk this Sunday about the National Conference and the reactions the students had who were awarded and oppurtunity of going.
Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday August 12, 2012
Topic: The dare program and the things they are doing to impact the youth.
Guest: Members of the Dare Proigram
Show Description: What new strives does dare make to inform and educat the youth about drugs.
Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday August 19, 2012
Topic: Where do we go from here as a community.
Guest: Open Lines

Show Description: From the high crime rate to the bad economy is there a real solution.
Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday August 26, 2012

Topic: How do we parent out youth and keep them out of trouble.

Guest: Maida McDonald

Show Description: We explore the importance family and talk in detail on how to be a responsible parent.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday September 2, 2012

Topic: We learn about the education achievement zone.

Guest: Sharon Broome and Veronica

Show Description: The education improvement zone and how it helps failing schools improve.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday September 9, 2012

Topic: Voter registration and crime in the city of Baton Rouge.

Guest: Kyle Ardwin

Show Description: The first assistant to the Secretary of State Kyle Ardwin talks about voter registration.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday September 16, 2012

Topic: We talk about how to deal with the death of a family member.

Guest: Corey Williams and Tosha Clarke

Show Description: As we lose family how do we avoid disputes and who can you turn to.
Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday Septmeber 23, 2012

Topic: We talk to the Public Affairs Research Council of Louisiana

Guest: Robert Travis Scott and Jay Augustine

Show Description: Par talks about where we stand on education in Louisiana.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Septembr 30, 2012

Topic: The importance of voting and the myth of African American males and achievement success.

Guest: Katherine Flanagan for project vote and Ivory Tostan

Show Description: We ask does our vote really matter and find out if all African Americans are domed from the start.

Show Length: 1 Hour

KQXL 4th Quarterly Report (2012)

Date: Sunday October 7, 2012

Topic: How can we bridge the intergenerational gap.

Guest: Veronica Washington, Marcus Johnson and Justin Blancher

Show Description: How do we close the divide between the young and the older community.

Show Length: 1 hour

Date: Sunday October 14, 2012

Topic: Breast Cancer Awareness Month

Guest: Wanda Washington

Show Description: What ways can we help to stop death from being so high in the African American community.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday October 21, 2012

Topic: We have a diagloue about the upcoming changes in contitutional amendments.

Guest: Robert Travis Scott

Show Description: What are the myths and misunderstandings of the contitutional amendments.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday October 28, 2012

Topic: We talk about health care and how to educate the childern dealing with grief.

Guest: Sylvia Andrews

Show Description: Baton Rouge has a high HIV and AIDS rate. How do we educate ourselves and help grieving children.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday November 4, 2013

Topic: Sofia Nelson, Award Winning Author, speaks about her book.

Guest: Sofia Nelson

Show Description: Author, Sofia Nelson, talks about her book Black Women Redefined.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday November 11, 2012

Topic: The recent election and how does that effect you.

Guest: Open Lines

Show Description: Major tackles the recent election and why did some feel they didn't need to vote.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday November 18, 2012

Topic: What do Holiday Helpers do for the needy and what ways can we all help.

Guest: Holiday Helpers

Show Description: Thanksgiving is a time to give back. How do you give back during the holidays?

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday November 25, 2012

Topic: We explore the types of things that can be done to prepare for the upcoming Christmas Season.

Guest: Representatives from the Christmas Crusade for children.

Show Description: Every year the Christmas Crusade for Children works diligently to make sure every child gets to experience Christmas.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday December 02, 2012

Topic: Individuals talking about holiday safety and how we can protect ourselves.

Guest: Rodney Walker

Show Description: The holiday season brings out the good and the bad in people Captain Walker gives us some tips to secure your self and your property.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday December 9, 2012

Topic: The week show salutes the parents that work hard to provide for their children all year not just for the holidays.

Guest: Local mothers and fathers in the community.

Show Description: We honor some local parents to who help provide all year for the kids.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday Decmeber 16, 2012

Topic: Keeping the spirit of the holiday alive for the whole year.

Guest: Open Lines

Show Description: Since we always give on Christmas we work on ways to keep this going all year.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday December 23, 2012

Topic: This show explains the power of one.

Guest: Ria Davis, Gueno Gumo, Al Farnaduceo and AJ Winn

Show Description: The impact of one person can be powerful, we talk about what you can do alone to have a real influence on the society.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday December 30, 2012

Topic: The preservation of life and can it ever be sacrificed.

Guest: Pinky and Karen Lowrd

Show Description: We talk about the preservation of life and how can that be achieved.

Show Length: 1 Hour