

KQXL 1ST Quarterly Report (2013)

Date: Sunday January 6, 2013

Topic: We talk about the ways to improve life in Baton Rouge for 2013.

Guest: Open Lines

Show Description: This show tries to address what changes need to be made to have a better year and improve the way of life, stop the crime and better educate the kids for 2013.

Show Length: 1 hour

Date: Sunday January 13, 2013

Topic: One of the owners of Chicken Shak talk about given back to the community and the MLK Project

Guest: Douglous Smith, Joeseeph Delpit, Courtney Kurby, Maria Northan and Erica Green

Show Description: The subject is the MLK project and the vendors that give back to help improve Baton Rouge and why it is so important to the growth of the city.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday January 20, 2013

Topic: Individuals of the Counsel on Aging touch problems they face.

Guest: Tosha Clark Amare and Corey Williams

Show Description: The Counsel on Aging explain some of the issues the elderly face and the needs of the organization.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday January 27, 2013

Topic: We talk to Jump Start your heart about making sure are kids are fit for athletics.

Guest: Dr. Stephen Kelly with Jump Start your Heart.

Show Description: This show talks about the non profit organization called Jump Start Your Heart that ensures the kids get are physically able to compete in the strenuous school activities such as football, basketball, etc...
Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday February 3, 2013
Topic: We the people of Baton Rouge have to come together to make the community safer.
Guest: Open Lines (Baton Rouge Listeners)
Show Description: We talk to callers about the crime in the community and things that we can do a city to make sure that we have a safe city.
Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday February 10, 2013
Topic: This show focus on the people we should highlight in black history.
Guest: Corp. Rea Davis
Show Description: There are many people that we should remember in black history that have made and impact on Baton Rouge.
Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday February 17, 2013
Topic: We talk to representatives from Southern Univerity about there annual career day.
Guest: Tamra McGorney and Aaron Miller
Show Description: This time we talk about the career day and some of the ways it helps the city of Baton Rouge not only through jobs but also as a give back.
Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday February 24, 2013
Topic: We talk about operation safe streets to make our community better.
Guest: Open lines (Baton Rouge listeners)

Show Description: We let the callers speak on how effective that operation safe streets has been in Baton Rouge to reduce crimes. superbowl.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday March 3, 2013

Topic: The Possibility Project and some of the things that they do for the youth of Baton Rouge.

Guest: Stg Crump, Dr. David Cooly and Ebony and Tara Syvester

Show Description: We talk to members of Possibility Project a project that gives kids and oppourtinity to express themsevles through the arts.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday March 10, 2013

Topic: An individual from the Baton Rouge area who has been successful and gives back.

Guest: Clay Young

Show Description: Clay Young gives advice to the youth about how they too can achieve whatever goals they desire.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday March 17, 2013

Topic: We talk to dance instructor Pinky about oppurtunities in dance for the kids of Baton Rouge.

Guest: Pinky

Show Description: This show focuses on the the activies that can help the youth stay healthy and focus.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday March 24, 2013

Topic: Omgea Psi Phi talks about a upcoming service event.

Guest: Michael Adams and Edward Smith

Show Description: Omega Psi Phi talks about the community service events that they have to teach people how to be good father's, husband and leaders in the community.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday March 31, 2013

Topic: Talk about child abuse awarness month.

Guest: Sean Pullman and Gerron Dunn

Show Description: The Center of Empowerment for Families and Youth focuses of at risk youth to ensure that all children are properly taken care and and have a voice.

Show Length: 1 Hour

KQKL 2nd Quarterly Repot 2013

Date: Sunday April 7, 2013

Topic: Are conversation is about Earl K. Long what happen after it is gone.

Guest: Health Care Provider Dr. Williams

Show Description: Who will take over insurance or help if the people with no insurance after Earl K. Long.

Show Length: 1 hour

Date: Sunday April 14, 2013

Topic: Earl K. Long's Closing and how it is affecting the community.

Guest: Dr. Stephen Kelly Cardiologist

Show Description: Will services improve or stay the same due to the closing of Earl K. Long.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday April 21, 2013

Topic: We explore the closing of Earl K. Long and give the Baton Rouge Community a chance to respond.

Guest: State Representative Regina Barrow and State Senator Sharon Broome.

Show Description: This time we consider the things that the community can do about the closing of Earl K. Long.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday April 28, 2013

Topic: This talk is about transferring services to other hospitals.

Guest: Open Lines (The listeners)

Show Description: The conversation is about the tranfering of services and the transportation issues that the people of

Baton Rouge face when they need medical care.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday May 5, 2013

Topic: We talk about a new program that rewards high school students of Baton Rouge.

Guest: Judge Wilson Fields

Show Description: This show is about the Academic Honors Network, a programs that honors juniors and seniors for having a 3.0 or better in High School.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday May 12, 2013

Topic: We honor good mothers on Mother's Day.

Guest: Tashara Williams, Mrs. Fucker, Karen Hill, and Katherine Bradford Northland.

Show Description: This show not only honors the good mothers it also talks about what it takes to be a successful mother.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday May 19, 2013

Topic: This talk is about how the Salvation Army affects everyone.

Guest: Major Stephen Long Representative from the Salvation Army

Show Description: We explore why the Salvation army is so important to BR and why and how you should be apart.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday May 26, 2013

Topic: We talk about gun safely and what role programs like operation safe streets have to play in it.

Guest: Holly Streets, Collins Harper, Don Cazayoux

Show Description: This talk is about educating our children about gun safely and keeping them protected from guns.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday June 2, 2013

Topic: We talk to student Raheem Allen about the book he published.

Guest: Raheem Allen

Show Description: We try to look into what inspired young Raheem Allen to publish a book at age fourteen.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday June 9, 2013

Topic: The steps to take to prepare for this coming hurricane season.

Guest: Roger Keger Meteorologist

Show Description: This show educates the Baton Rouge community about when, where and how to prepare for this hurricane season.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday June 16, 2013

Topic: We honor the fathers of Baton Rouge.

Guest: Nolan Hill, Ronnie Winnefield, Mark Garner, and Joseph W. Jackson Sr.

Show Description: The talk is meaning of father's day and also are our fathers present in our childrens life.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday June 23, 2013

Topic: We have a conversation of with the members of V.I.P.S. and other out reach programs.

Guest: Alvin A. Dougious, Judy Bethely, and Kim Marcel.

Show Description: This talk is about V.I.P.S. a program that encourages kids to stay in school and volunteers to participate in the enrichment of the children.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday June 30, 2013

Topic: This time we talk about the Re-Entry program and what goes into it.

Guest: James Windon, Wayne Gibbs, Tammy Brown, Chico Yanzi and Rep. Patricia Haynes Smith

Show Description: What has to go into making sure that the re-entry in society is successful to help cut down on the chances of prisoners going back.

Show Length: 1 Hour

KQXL 3rd Quarterly Report 2013

Date: Sunday July 7, 2013

Topic: This show talks about how mental health affects our communities.

Guest: Chantel Emanuel and Mike Ingam the CEO of the Bayou Community Health Center

Show Description: Experts on mental health issues have a dialogue about how mental health is the cause of the violence in the community.

Show Length: 1 hour

Date: Sunday July 14, 2013

Topic: This Sunday we talk about back to school for the kids.

Guest: Thomas Bessit and Tosha Harris

Show Description: The North Iberia Community Back to School Effort and how they are helping our youth prepare.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday July 21, 2013

Topic: Education and Crime and how the two work together.

Guest: Open Lines

Show Description: This time we have a conversation with the listeners about how education plays a role in the crime and violence that we experience in Baton Rouge.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday July 28, 2013

Topic: This talk is about taking care of your court business.

Guest: Lisa Freedom Baton Rouge City Prosecutor
Show Description: We talk to the people of Baton Rouge about handling there Court issues so that the issues will not affect them later.
Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday August 4, 2013
Topic: This show is about back to school safety.
Guest: Operation Safe Streets
Show Description: Members from operation safe streets talk about how to keep your child safe this school year.
Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday August 11, 2013
Topic: We have a talk about how this disease affects the community.
Guest: Members of the Sickle Cell Anemia Foundation
Show Description: The Sickle Cell Anemia Foundation wants the African American Community to know that this disease affects blacks more then any other ethnic group.
Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday August 20, 2013
Topic: The time the show focuses on the future of our kids.
Guest: The Louisiana Leadership Institute
Show Description: The one is about our path our future and the road that they take to lead them to success.
Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday August 27, 2013
Topic: This is a conversation about alchol,drugs and violence.

Guest: I Care

Show Description: The talk is about the bullying of our kids, drugs, and violence and the ways to prevent them.
Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday September 8, 2013

Topic: We have a talk with the listners about their turing points in their lives.

Guest: Open Lines

Show Description: We try to find out the things that made our listeners change their lives and strive to do things to help their community grow.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday September 15, 2013

Topic: Southern Univeristy is a staple in the Baton Rouge Community.

Guest: Ed Pratt

Show Description: We have a talk with Ed Pratt about the ways that Southern University gives back and show concern for the community.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday September 22, 2013

Topic: The village Progect the ways that it helps.

Guest: The Reverend Mary Moss

Show Description: The talk is about the ways to make a diffence in the Eden Park Community.
Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday September 29, 2013

Topic: We talk about the ways the MAA is help the community grow.

Guest: The McKinley Alumni Association

Show Description : It is important to know where we are going but who laid the foundation for our future. in the enrichment of the children.

Show Length: 1 Hour

KQXL 4th Quarterly Repot 2013

Date: Sunday October 6, 2013

Topic: The role that the community plays in the development of Southern.

Guest: Cancellor Dr. James Lorence

Show Description: We talk about the state of affairs of Southern University and the role the the Baton Rouge Community plays in it and what it will take to get things better.

Show Length: 1 hour

Date: Sunday October 13, 2013

Topic: This time talk about the upcoming fundraiser for Mckinnely.

Guest: The members of the Mckinnely Alumni Association.

Show Description: This talk focuses on why it important to support local schools such as Mckinnely.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday October 20, 2013

Topic: Gala on the Buff and its importance in the city.

Guest: Dr. Donald Andrews

Show Description: We talk about the annunal Gala on the Buff and what it does to give back to the Baton Rouge Community we also talk about previous events and what makes this years event so special.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday October 27, 2013

Topic: This conversation is about the tax amesity program.

Guest: Representatives from the LA State Department of Revenue.

Show Description: We have a sit down with the State Department and Revenue to explain how the tax amnesty program works and how it can be a big help in creating revenue for the state.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday November 3, 2013

Topic: This talk is about the state of affairs of Baton Rouge.

Guest: Open Lines

Show Description: We open our telephone lines to the listeners and talk about the issues that concern the citizens of Baton Rouge. (Crime, Education and Funding)

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday November 10, 2013

Topic: The talk is about what it means to be a veteran and what is the life of a veteran.

Guest: Rosevelt Gibson

Show Description: This time we have a discussing with a veteran and we learn why our veterans are so important to us.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday November 17, 2013

Topic: Our topic of discussing is the Health Care Act that was recently passed.

Guest: Dr. Roime Witfield, Celena Cenagala, Chris Tyson and John Chatman

Show Description: We try to clear up some of the questions about the Health Care act that was passed.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday November 24, 2013

Topic: We talk about the annual Holiday Helpers Thanksgiving Dinner.

Guest: Holiday Helpers

Show Description: This is a talk about why we do the Thanksgiving dinner and what people can do to help.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday December 1, 2013

Topic: This show is about holiday safety and what was can you protect yourself.

Guest: Various public safety individuals.

Show Description: During the holidays what can you do to protect yourself better and what are some of the things that you can do to stay more aware to remain safe.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday December 8, 2013

Topic: The consable office talks to the public about was to be safe during the holiday.

Guest: Sgt. John Carr and Karen Loyd

Show Description: Members of the Baton City Consable Office talk about safety during the holiday and the spirit of the season.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday December 15, 2013

Topic: We talk about some new projects to help the community.

Guest: United States Senator Mary Landrieu

Show Description: We have a talk with the Senator about projects to better BR and what direction she sees us headed.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday December 22, 2013

Topic: We open the lines to find out what is important to the Baton Rouge Community.

Guest: Open lines

Show Description: We give the listeners a chance to voice their opinions about what needed in BR. In the enrichment of the children.

Show Length: 1 Hour

Date: Sunday December 29, 2013

Topic: We recap the year with the listeners.

Guest: Open Lines

Show Description: We are going into a new year and what are your success stories for 2013.

Show Length: 1 Hour