Monday, February 7 – Christian Liberty and Sexual Freedom
What is marriage? That question has been debated in classrooms . . . in the political arena . . . even in churches. Series: Restoring Marriage

Monday, February 14 – How to Win Your Unbelieving Spouse (#1)
Irreconcilable differences. A commonly used phrase used by people filing for divorce. Well, when you're talking about the marriage between someone who rejects Christ and one who cherishes the Savior, that really is an irreconcilable difference, apart from a work of God. Question is . . . is being married to a nonbeliever a valid reason for divorce? John MacArthur answers that question today on GRACE TO YOU as he continues his study titled . . . Restoring Marriage.

Tuesday, February 15 – How to Win Your Unbelieving Spouse (#2)

If you're a Christian and your spouse isn't, what's the most effective way to evangelize him or her? What do you need to say? More important, what do you need to do? John MacArthur answers those questions as he continues his current series on GRACE TO YOU titled . . . Restoring Marriage.

Wednesday, February 16 – The Key to Maintaining Family Unity (#1)

Series: Taming the Tongue

Monday, March 7 – The Speech of the New Man, Part 1

You use it for eating . . . breathing . . . or just whistling a tune. But the most important characteristics of the mouth—at least where your spiritual condition is concerned—are the words that come out of it. So today on GRACE TO YOU, John MacArthur starts a series on how you can honor the Lord with every word you speak. It's simply titled . . . Taming the Tongue.

Tuesday, March 8 – The Speech of the New Man, Part 2 (#1)

John MacArthur's going to start taking you through a biblical "To Do" list today on GRACE TO YOU as he continues to look at the speech that should characterize you as a Christian. He's titled this convicting study . . . Taming the Tongue.

Wednesday, March 9 – The Speech of the New Man, Part 2 (#2)

In July 2021 a series of devastating wildfires swept through Southern California. One of these blazes, known as the Dixie Fire, burned over 900,000 acres and destroyed hundreds of buildings. Massive destruction . . . sparked by a tiny flame. Well consider this: The Bible compares the tongue—the words you say—to a fire . . . as one match can set a wildfire. So what does it take to restrain your words before they burn out of control? Find out today on GRACE TO YOU.

Thursday, March 10 – Taming the Tongue, Part 1 (#1)

John's going to show you what Scripture says about the speech you use . . . the texts and emails you send . . . really, all the ways you use words. You'll walk away with more biblical strategies for . . . Taming the Tongue—that's the title of John's current series on GRACE TO YOU.

Friday, March 11 – Taming the Tongue, Part 1 (#2)

United States law gives citizens the right to say pretty much anything they want. At least, that's how many Americans tend to interpret the First Amendment of the Constitution. Of course, if you're a Christian—living in the U.S. or not—the question is . . . do you have a biblical right to free speech? That's John MacArthur's focus today on GRACE TO YOU.

Series: Taming the Tongue (Cont'd)

Monday, March 14 – Taming the Tongue, Part 2 (#1)

They seem harmless enough—people have even collected them. But a book of matches—even one single match—is enough to light a raging wildfire and set thousands of acres of land ablaze. And your tongue—even with a single word—can do that same kind of damage to your relationships . . . so you're wise to control the speech that rolls off it. Today, John MacArthur shows you how to do that on GRACE TO YOU.

Tuesday, March 15 – Taming the Tongue, Part 2 (#2)

Ever lost your temper, then apologized later by saying . . . "I didn't mean what I said?" Actually, what comes out of our mouths—even in anger—is a pretty clear indication of what's really going on in the heart. Today, John MacArthur considers the tongue's role in diagnosing your spiritual health . . . as he continues his practical study on GRACE TO YOU called . . . Taming the Tongue.

Series: Enjoying God

Wednesday, March 16 – Jesus' View of the Father (#1)

Sadly, there are many people who think of God as a distant, bitter, angry judge . . . someone who wants nothing more than to stop humanity from having fun. Now if someone has such a view of the Almighty, he or she could never enjoy God. Yet the Psalmist says believers are to delight in God. But practically, how do you do that? Find out on GRACE TO YOU as John MacArthur begins a study titled . . . Enjoying God.

Thursday, March 17 – Jesus' View of the Father (#2)

Today John's going to help you make sure you're . . . Enjoying God. Now, to truly enjoy God, you must understand His love. What is God's love like? And how do you know if He loves you? Is it the size of your bank account . . . the state of your health . . . or the square-footage of your house? John gives you a practical vision of what the love of God looks like, as he explains the Parable of the Prodigal Son.

Friday, March 18 – Experiencing the Presence of God

It may sound foreign to nearly everything you've been taught about God . . . but indeed, God wants you—in fact, expects you—to thoroughly, passionately, enjoy Him. But there's a problem. Before you can enjoy God, you need to know Him, intimately . . . and accurately. We'll help bring your thoughts about God into clear, accurate focus . . . as John MacArthur continues his compelling study here on GRACE TO YOU, simply titled . . . Enjoying God.
