KZAL-FM

On April 9, 2014, KZAL was granted a license by the Federal Communications Commission to serve the public interest as a public trustee until February 1, 2018.

Our license will expire on February 1, 2018. We must file an application for license renewal with the FCC on or before October 1, 2017. When filed, a copy of this application will be available for public inspection during our regular business hours. It contains information concerning this station's performance during the last 4 years. Individuals who wish to advise the FCC of facts relating to our renewal application and to whether this station has operated in the public interest should file comments and petitions with the Commission by January 2, 2018.

Further information concerning the Commission's broadcast license renewal process is available at 123 East Johnson Street, Chelan Washington, or may be obtained from the FCC, Washington, D.C. 20554.
