The Book Show

DATE	TIME	SHOW #	TOPIC
10/3/2023	30:00	1825	John Irving has written some of the most acclaimed books of our time, among them: "The World According to Garp," "A Widow for One Year," "A Prayer for Owen Meany" and "The Cider House Rules." He now returns with his first novel in seven years "The Last Chairlift."
10/10/2023	30:00	1826	The Times calls Booker Prize winning writer Anne Enright one of our greatest living novelists. Her latest, "The Wren, The Wren" is about a dead poet's daughter and granddaughter coming to terms with his troubling legacy. Enright's novel about language and connection explores the inheritance of trauma, wonder, and love across three generations of women.
10/17/2023	30:00	1827	George Saunders is an American great, a writer who continues to astound, evolve and get deeper. His new book, "Liberation Day," is his first collection of stories since his National Book Award finalist "Tenth of December" was published eight years ago.
10/24/2023	30:00	1828	Nathan Hill's new novel "Wellness" is a poignant and witty novel about marriage, the often-baffling pursuit of health and happiness, and the stories that bind us together. The book brings us from the gritty '90s Chicago art scene to a suburbia of detox diets and home-renovation hysteria.
10/31/2023	30:00	1829	Joe Nesbø is a internationally best-selling author best known for his mystery series featuring his protagonist, Harry Hole. His latest is a twisted, multi-layered, mind-bending spin on the classic horror novel, "The Night House." By page 8 – a phone has eaten a guy and things get stranger along the way.
11/7/2023	30:00	1830	Ayana Mathis's new novel, "The Unsettled," is set in the 1980s and follows three generations of a family divided by a painful past. Ava lives in racially and politically turbulent Philadelphia, struggling to care for her son, Toussaint. Her mother, Dutchess, remains in her historically Black hometown of Bonaparte, Alabama, fighting to save her land.
11/14/2023	30:00	1831	Jonathan Lethem is the bestselling author of twelve novels, including "The Fortress of Solitude" and "Motherless Brooklyn," and winner of the National Book Critics Circle Award. His newest is "Brooklyn Crime Novel," a sweeping story of community, crime, and gentrification, tracing more than fifty years of life in one Brooklyn neighborhood.
11/21/2023	30:00	1832	Jane Smiley is the author of numerous novels including "A Thousand Acres," which was awarded the Pulitzer Prize, and the "Last Hundred Years Trilogy." Her latest, "A Dangerous Business," tells the remarkable story of the California gold rush and a pair of sex-worker sleuths who track down the culprit behind a series of disappearances.
11/28/2023	30:00	1833	National Book Award-winning author Alice McDermott's latest, "Absolution," is the riveting account of women's lives on the margins of the Vietnam War. American women and wives have been mostly minor characters in the literature of the Vietnam War, but in "Absolution" they take center stage.
12/5/2023	30:00	1834	"Elegy plus comedy is the only way to express how we live in the world today," says a character in "The Vulnerables," the ninth novel by National Book Award winner Sigrid Nunez. "The Vulnerables" offers a meditation on our contemporary era, asking how present reality affects the way a person looks back on their past.
12/12/2023	30:00	1835	CNN anchor and chief Washington correspondent and New York Times best-selling author Jake Tapper's third thriller, "All the Demons Are Here," brings
