

QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT FOR
KITS AND KITS HD 1 AND KITS HD 2 AND KITS HD 3

1st Quarter, 2015

January 1, 2015-March 31, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John, a one hour public affairs show that addresses issues of concern to San Francisco Bay Area residents, airs Sunday mornings, 6:00 a.m.-7:00 a.m.

Prepared by Liz Saint John, Public Affairs Director

KITS, KITS HD1, KITS HD 2, KITS HD 3

Programs That Address

Community Issues

1st Quarter 2015

1. Live 105's Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

Sundays, 6:00 a.m.-7:00 a.m.

Produced and hosted by Public Affairs Director Liz Saint John, this show features interviews with leaders of local, state and national non-profit organizations, professors, authors, community organizers, and experts from various professions.

2. Public Service Announcements

Air several times throughout the day, seven days a week.

PSAs promote various events and ongoing programs for 501(c)3 organizations.

3. Promotions

Promotional events supported by on-air and on-line announcements to raise awareness and funds for non-profit organizations.

Issues of Concern to the San Francisco Bay Area
Addressed in Responsive Programming
In the 1st Quarter, 2015

Animal Welfare

Arts/Entertainment

Contemporary Social Issues

Disability Issues

Education

Employment/Economy

Environment

Government/World

Health/Mental Health

LGBTQ

Military

Minority

Poverty/Homelessness/Housing

Science/Technology

Seniors

Women

Youth/Family

Animal Welfare

PSAs

Humane Society Silicon Valley

Oakland Animal Services

Contra Costa Humane Society

Arts/Entertainment

January 4, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

6:20am-6:40am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Garth Stein, author of the international bestselling book, The Art of Racing in the Rain, talks about his new book about a timber dynasty in the Northwest, A Sudden Light, his research for the book that included climbing giant trees, and Seattle7Writers, a non-profit that brings literary events to under-served communities.

January 18, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

6:20am-6:40am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Washington Post journalist Neely Tucker has covered news from around the world, from war zones to Hollywood red carpets. After decades of non fiction reporting, he decided to try fiction. His new book is The Ways of the Dead.

January 25, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

6:20am-6:40am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Graeme Simsion, author of The Rosie Project and The Rosie Effect, explains how he went from being a “tech geek” to an international bestselling writer.

February 1, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

6:20am-6:40am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Peter Richardson teaches Humanities and American Studies at San Francisco State University. His new book is No Simple Highway: A Cultural History of the Grateful Dead. He talks about the history of The Grateful Dead, Jerry Garcia's teen years when he enrolled in a summer program at the California School of Fine Arts, the start of the Dead's relationship with Bill Graham, and the upcoming 50th anniversary shows planned for this July in Chicago with the four surviving original members.

February 1, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

6:40am-7:00am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Yuan Yuan Tan is the Richard C. Barker Principal Dancer with San Francisco Ballet. She talks about her early training in Shanghai, how she was recruited to come to San Francisco, and the ballets in the 2015 season.

February 8, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

6:20am-6:40am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program Marc Bell became the Ramones' drummer, and "Marky Ramone," in 1978. He spent years on the road with the punk rock band and is now sharing the behind-the-scenes stories and his personal journey in his new memoir Punk Rock Blitzkrieg: My Life as a Ramone. He talks about growing up in Brooklyn, his early days in bands, touring around the world, getting sober, and becoming an entrepreneur.

February 8, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

6:40am-7:00am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Patricia Bracewell writes historical fiction set in 11th century England. Shadow on the Crown is the first book in the Emma of Normandy trilogy. Bracewell talks about her research of Emma and her new book The Price of Blood.

February 15, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

6:40am-7:00am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Jan Ellison is a Bay Area writer. She's the recipient of a 2007 O. Henry Prize for her first published short story. She talks about her new book, a novel, A Small Indiscretion.

February 22, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

6:40am-7:00am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Stewart O'Nan's new novel West of Sunset is about the last three years of F. Scott Fitzgerald's life when he went to Hollywood to try to restart his career.

PSAs

American Conservatory Theatre

Oakland Jazz Choir

Ray of Light Theatre

Tabard Theatre

Berkeley Rep Theatre

Youth Musical Theatre

DIVAFest

Symphony Silicon Valley

Theatre Rhinoceros

Rhythmix Cultural Works

Contemporary Social Issues

January 11, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

6:20am-6:40am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Life Coach Linda Carroll says that all relationships go through different stages. Her new book is Love Cycles: The Five Essential Stages of Lasting Love.

March 15, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

6:00am-6:20am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Filmmaker Robert Kenner talks about his new documentary Merchants of Doubt, a look at those who make a career out of casting doubt on things like the harm caused by cigarettes or human-made climate change with distraction or by changing the story.

Disability Issues

PSAs

Creativity Explored

Special Olympics

Education

January 4, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

6:40am-7:00am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Stanford linguistics and computer science professor Dan Jurafsky talks about food words, their origins, their changing meanings, and how to decipher a menu. His new book is The Language of Food: A Linguist Reads the Menu.

February 22, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

6:20am-6:40am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Jessica Cogan is the San Francisco Regional Director of SEO Scholars, and organization that offers a free eight-year academic program to low-income San Francisco public high school students to get them to and through college.

March 1, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

6:00am-6:20am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Hack the Hood is an Oakland-based organization that introduces low-income youth of color to careers in tech by hiring and training them to build websites for small businesses in their own communities. Susan Mernit is CEO, Executive Director, and Co-founder of Oakland-based Hack the Hood.

March 22, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

6:20am-6:40am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Anova Education Co-founders Mary Beth Ludwig and Andrew Bailey explain what services their schools and programs provide to children and adults with autism, social and emotional challenges, learning differences, and other neuro-developmental impairments. They have campuses in Santa Rosa, San Rafael, and Concord and work in other communities as well.

PSAs

San Mateo County History Museum

Foothill Music Theatre

Westmont High School

Employment/Economy

January 11, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

6:00am-6:20am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

A Good Hire: Resources for Finding Undiscovered Talent is a public awareness campaign designed to help people with an arrest or conviction record find employment and to help guide employers to finding good employees. Meredith Desautels is a staff attorney with Lawyers' Committee for Civil Rights of the San Francisco Bay Area and Mike Hannigan is co-owner and president of Give Something Back Office Supplies.

January 25, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

6:00am-6:20am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Christine Carter of UC Berkley's Greater Good Science Center talks about the issue of balancing work and home life and her new book The Sweet Spot: How to Find Your Groove at Home and Work.

PSAs

Diversity Career Fair

Contra Costa's HIREvent

Business Development Center Contra Costa County

CBS EEO

Environment

January 4, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

6:00am-6:20am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

California Academy of Sciences Associate Researcher Wallace J. Nichols explains why being in or near the water is good for us. His latest book is Blue Mind: The Surprising Science That Shows How Being Near, In, On, Or Under Water Can Make You Happier, Healthier, More Connected, and Better at What You Do.

March 22, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

6:00am-6:20am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Alexis Trivisonno, Director of Communications for California State Parks Foundation, talks about the state of our 279 state parks, the budget challenges, volunteer opportunities, and the 17th Earth Day Cleanup and Restoration on April 18th.

PSAs

California State Parks Foundation

Government/World

PSAs

CTEC.org

IRS.gov

Health/Mental Health

January 11, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

6:40am-7:00am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Tony Denevi was among the the first group of boys given medication for ADHD in the 1980s. He was aslo subjected to a number of failed drug or other treatments as his parents and doctors tried to get his hyperactivity under control. he was finally helped by behavioral therapy and medication. He writes about his experience in his new book Hyper: My Personal Story of ADHD.

February 15, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

6:20am-6:40am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Johns Hopkins University School of Medicine neuroscientist David J. Linden explains the connection between our sense of touch and emotions, the neural pathways, how what we feel with our hands or skin affects how we feel emotionally. His new book is Touch: The Science of Hand, Heart, and Mind.

March 8, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

6:20am-6:40am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

JDRF is a global organization with a strategic research plan to end Type 1 Diabetes. Sara and Andy Kurtzig, parents of a child with Type 1 diabetes, were inspired to start an annual event to raise money for JDRF. The JDRF Royal Ball is May 2nd in San Francisco.

PSAs

Heart & Soles 5K Run

Food for Thought

Community Child Care Council CPR Classes

HPV and Me

Tyler Robinson Foundation

Great Strides for Cystic Fibrosis

University of the Pacific Dental School

LGBTQ

February 1, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

6:00am-6:20am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Armistead Maupin started writing about singles finding love at the Marina Safeway in a column for the Pacific Sun in 1974. The Chronicle picked up the series in 1976 and then the stories expanded out into books. The Tales of the City series concludes with The Days of Anna Madrigal, the ninth, and last book in the series. Maupin talks about his start as a journalist (and the campus conservative!) at University of North Carolina, Chapel Hill, his move to San Francisco, and his trips in recent years to Burning Man.

PSAs

San Francisco LGBT Center

Military

March 1, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

6:20am-6:40am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Historian Richard Rhodes is the author or editor of twenty-five books including the Pulitzer Prize-winning The Making of the Atomic Bomb, Dark Sun: The Making of the Hydrogen Bomb, Why They Kill; a personal memoir, A Hole in the World, and the biography, John James Audubon. His new book is Hell and Good Company: The Spanish Civil War and the World It Made.

PSAs

Wounded Warrior Project

Minority

January 25, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

6:40am-7:00am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Efi Lubliner, co-founder of the East Bay International Film Showcase, talks about the movies they feature every month, the challenges of bringing small, foreign films to the big screen, and how they plan to expand to more theatres over the next five years

February 15, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

6:00am-6:20am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Jill Leovy, a reporter for the Los Angeles Times, talks about homicide in LA County ,why black men make up a disproportionate number of the murder victims, being embedded with LAPD detectives on a case, and the difficulties with getting witnesses to come forward with information. Her new book is Ghettoside: A True Story of Murder in America.

March 8, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

6:40am-7:00am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

CAAM Fest 2015 celebrates Asian American storytelling in film, food, and music. The annual film festival is March 12th through 22nd at venues in San Francisco, Berkeley, and Oakland. Masashi Niwano is the festival director.

March 22, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

6:40am-7:00am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Author Lisa See talks about her latest novel China Dolls which is set in San Francisco's Chinatown and surrounding areas starting in the 1930's. This historical fiction includes many of the nightclubs, including the most famous, Forbidden City, as well as the world's fair on Treasure Island.

Poverty/Homelessness/Housing

January 18, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

6:40am-7:00am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Allan Shapiro, Manager of St. Anthony Foundation's Free Clothing Program, talks about how they offer clothing to all ages, including clothing for people preparing for job interviews. Carl Robillard, Communication Director for St. Anthony's, talks about the wide range of programs and services offered by the organization.

March 15, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

6:20am-6:40am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Diane Ettelson, Executive Director of Image for Success in San Rafael, explains how they provide interview clothing for people who are trying to get back into the job market. They also provide an additional two weeks of clothing for the person to wear to work. And they provide clothing to other family members

March 29, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

6:00am-6:20am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Homeward Bound of Marin is the primary provider of residential services for homeless people in Marin County. In addition to housing services, Homeward Bound has several social enterprises, including the fresh Starts Culinary Academy. Paul Fordham is the Deputy Director of Homeward Bound and Denna is a recent graduate of the culinary academy.

PSAs

Martha's Kitchen

United Way

Alameda County Community Food bank

A Home Away from Homelessness

Project Sentinel

Science/Technology

March 1, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

6:40am-7:00am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Steve LeVine is Washington Correspondent for Quartz, writing about the geopolitics of energy and technology. He's also a Future Tense Fellow at the New America Foundation and an adjunct professor at Georgetown University, where he teaches energy security in the graduate-level Security Studies Program. His new book The Powerhouse: Inside the Invention of a Battery to Save the World.

March 8, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

6:00am-6:20am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Marc Goodman investigates the intersection of science and security. He's the founder of the Future Crimes Institute and the Chair for Policy, Law, and Ethics at Silicon Valley's Singularity University. His new book is Future Crimes: Everything is Connected, Everyone is Vulnerable and What We Can Do About It.

Seniors

January 18, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

6:00am-6:20am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Nancy Masters, Director of the Marin Region of Jewish Family & Children's Services, talks about depression in seniors, the warning signs, the current treatments, and the services they offer to seniors as well as children, families, and adults.

March 29, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

6:20am-6:40am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Television producer and documentary filmmaker Cynthia Harrison is alarmed about the issues related to the huge number of baby boomers who are living longer but still being hit with a number of diseases that impact not only the person with the disease but their family and our medical care systems. Her new movie is Silver Tsunami.

Women

March 15, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

6:40am-7:00am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Dr. Jaleh Daie, a biologist and managing partner at Aurora Equity, talks about women in the fields of science and technology. She explains why she thinks women are still underrepresented at all levels at Silicon Valley tech companies and offers ideas on how to change the current situation.

PSAs

The Center for Domestic Peace

La Casa De Las Madres

Youth/Family

February 8, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

6:00am-6:20am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Jennifer Senior is a contributing editor to New York Magazine. She investigated the best, and hardest job in today's world: Parenting. She discusses the reasons parenting is so difficult, some ways to help parents, and how today's working moms manage to spend more time with their kids than stay-at-home moms did in the 1960's. Her new book is All Joy and No Fun: The Paradox of Modern Day Parenthood.

February 22, 2015

Weekend Magazine with Liz Saint John

6:00am-6:20am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

New York Times money columnist Ron Lieber talks about how to teach kids about money and help them make good decisions about saving, spending, and giving. His new book is The Opposite of Spoiled: Raising Kids Who Are Grounded, Generous, and Smart About Money.

PSAs

Huckleberry Youth Programs

Youth Live!