

QUARTERLY ISSUES AND PROGRAMS REPORT FOR
KITS AND KITS HD 1 AND KITS HD 2 AND KITS HD 3

3rd Quarter, 2013
July 1-September 30, 2013

Community Connection with Liz Saint John, a one hour public affairs show that addresses issues of concern to San Francisco Bay Area residents, airs Sunday mornings, 6:00 a.m.-7:00 a.m.

Prepared by Liz Saint John, Public Affairs Director

KITS, KITS HD1, KITS HD 2, KITS HD 3
Programs That Address
Community Issues
3rd Quarter 2013

1. Live 105's Community Connection with Liz Saint John

Sundays, 6:00 a.m.-7:00 a.m.

Produced and hosted by Public Affairs Director Liz Saint John, this show features interviews with leaders of local, state and national non-profit organizations, professors, authors, community organizers, and experts from various professions.

2. Public Service Announcements

Air several times throughout the day, seven days a week.

PSAs promote various events and ongoing programs for 501(c)3 organizations.

3. Promotions

Promotional events supported by on-air and on-line announcements to raise awareness and funds for non-profit organizations.

Issues of Concern to the San Francisco Bay Area
Addressed in Responsive Programming
In the 3rd Quarter, 2013

Environment

Employment/Economy

Education

Housing/Homelessness

Transportation

Youth/Family

Health/Mental Health

Government/World

Science/Technology

Animal Welfare

Arts & Entertainment

Women

Military

LGBTQ

Disability Issues

Minority

Seniors

Contemporary Social Issues

Environment

Promotion:

Surfrider Beach Cleanup in San Francisco
July 27, 2013

Live 105 supported this state-wide event with 12 :10 on air mentions, a listing on Live105.com, and on-site staff appearance for a media value of $10,000.

August 11, 2013
Community Connection with Liz Saint John
6:40am-7:00am
20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Mary Ellen Hannibal, journalist-author and co-producer of the Commonwealth Club of California's Environmental Series, talks about her book "The Spine of the Continent" and the presenters and topics at the upcoming series of lectures and events.

PSAs

Baywise
Pacifica's Environmental Family

Employment/Economy

PSAs

San Francisco HIREvent
Anew America
CBS EOE
Create TV

Education

July 14, 2013
Community Connection with Liz Saint John
6:00am-6:20am
20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Laura Maloney, Executive Director of Parents Education Network, explains how the organization started to help parents, teachers and school administrators address the need of students with learning differences.

August 18, 2013
Community Connection with Liz Saint John
6:00am-6:20am
20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Educator Rafe Esquith talks about his decades of teaching his 5th grade class in an over-crowded Los Angeles inner-city school and offers advice to veteran and new teachers on how to encourage and get the most from students. His methods have earned him Teacher of the Year and other awards. His new book is “Real Talk for Real Teachers.”

Promotion:

LinkedIn Playing for Change in Mountain View
September 21, 2013

Live 105 supported this event by LinkedIn to raise money for underprivileged children to receive music education. Live 105 provided 12 :10 on air mentions, on-site staff appearance at the event and a listing on Live105.com with a media value of $10,000.

September 22, 2013
Community Connection with Liz Saint John
6:00am-6:20am
20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Pam Withers, co-author of “Jump Starting Boys: Help Your Reluctant Learner Find Success in Schools and Life,” talks about some of the best way to encourage young boys to read.

PSAs

Blue Bear School of Music
Ohlone College
San Jose Evergreen Community College
Berkeley City College
Chabot Community College
West Valley College

Housing/Homelessness

PSAs

Goodwill
Alameda County Foodbank

Transportation

September 1, 2013

Community Connection with Liz Saint John

6:20am-6:40am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Dr. Susan Shaheen, PhD, a transportation expert at the Mineta Transportation Institute, talks about the importance and growing popularity of ride share, car share, and bike share programs. She explains the new San Francisco program Bay Area Bike Share.

Youth/Family

August 11, 2013

Community Connection with Liz Saint John

6:20am-6:40am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Sherilyn Adams, Executive Director of Larkin Street Youth Services, talks about the clients they serve, the programs and services offered to young people, the importance of their work, and how people can volunteer. She also offers several success stories about young people who have been assisted by Larkin Street and gone on to lead productive, successful lives as adults.

PSAs

Larkin Street Youth Services

Health/Mental Health

July 7, 2013

Community Connection with Liz Saint John

6:00am-6:20am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

UC Riverside social psychology professor Sonja Lyubomirski talks about her latest research and book "The Myths of Happiness: What Should Make You Happy, But Doesn't, What Shouldn't make You Happy, but Does."

July 28, 2013

Community Connection with Liz Saint John

6:20am-6:40am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Michael Moss is an investigative reporter for the New York Times. He discusses how the giant processed food companies have used science to formulate food that will hook consumers on fat, sugar and salt. His new book is “Salt, Sugar, Fat: How the Food Giants Hooked Us.”

August 4, 2013

Community Connection with Liz Saint John

6:00am-6:20am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Mary Roach, author of Stiff, Bonk and Packing for Mars, is a Bay Area writer who has always been fascinated with the underbelly of her subject matter. In her latest book “Gulp,” Roach investigates the alimentary canal.

September 8, 2013

Community Connection with Liz Saint John

6:00am-6:20am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Psychiatrist Dr. Mark Epstein uses the biography of the Buddha to help explain the concept of suffering and offers ways to help lesson that suffering. His new book is “The Trauma of Everyday Life.”

September 22, 2013

Community Connection with Liz Saint John

6:20am-6:40am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Laura Pliska, a woman living with Multiple Sclerosis, talks about her symptoms, diagnosis and treatment. She rides in the annual Waves to Wine Bike MS event to help raise money and awareness about MS.

PSAs

San Francisco general Hospital Foundation

City of Hope

CDC Quit Smoking campaign

Richmond/Ermet AIDS Foundation

Alzheimer’s Association

Leukemia & Lymphoma Society

We Connect Health Enrollment and Wellness Event

Liver Life Walk

KARA’s Grief Walk

Kaiser Oakland

Government/World

July 14, 2013

Community Connection with Liz Saint John

6:40am-7:00am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Colum McCann, author of the best-selling “Let the Great World Spin,” talks about his new book “TransAtlantic,” a fictional novel that uses three historical events as anchors for his story.

August 4, 2013

Community Connection with Liz Saint John

6:20am-6:40am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Adam Johnson is an associate professor of English at Stanford. He was awarded the 2013 Pulitzer Prize for fiction for The Orphan Master's Son, his novel set in North Korea. He shares his thoughts on the latest North Korean regime.

September 8, 2013

Community Connection with Liz Saint John

6:40am-7:00am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Mark Leibovich, a reporter for the New York Times Magazine, explains why he decided to write an insider's look at the mingling of politics and media in Washington DC, the reaction he's received and the role of the media in politics going forward. His new book is “This Town.”

PSAs

Mike's Bikes Africa Project

Science/Technology

September 15, 2013

Community Connection with Liz Saint John

6:20am-6:40am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Sports Illustrated writer David Epstein researched the question about the existence of a sports gene, something that makes elite athletes better than the rest. His research is told through the stories of elite athletes.

PSAs

Exploratorium

Animal Welfare

August 18, 2013

Community Connection with Liz Saint John

6:20am-6:40am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Dog trainer Susannah Charleson talks about her search and rescue career and canine partners and why she decided to change her emphasis to training dogs to assist people with psychological challenges like PTSD.

PSAs

San Francisco SPCA

Animal Rescue Foundation

Muttville Senior Dog Rescue

Oakland Zoo

Arts & Entertainment

July 7, 2013

Community Connection with Liz Saint John

6:40am-7:00am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Fiction writer Ransom Riggs explains how he began collecting old photographs at flea markets and how that led to his award-winning book "Miss Peregrine's Home for Peculiar Children." Tim Burton is making a movie from his book.

July 21, 2013

Community Connection with Liz Saint John

6:00am-6:20am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Lurlene McDaniel, author of dozens of YA books, talks about her latest, "The Year of Luminous Love." She explains how her writing style has developed over the years and why not only teen girls are reading romance novels.

July 28, 2013

Community Connection with Liz Saint John

6:40am-7:00am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Veteran television writer Maria Semple talks about her new book “Where’d You Go Bernadette.” Semple has written for Arrested Development, Suddenly Susan, Mad About You, Ellen, Beverly Hills 90210 and Saturday Night Live.

August 4, 2013

Community Connection with Liz Saint John

6:40am-7:00am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Tom Reiss was awarded the 2013 Pulitzer Prize for “The Black Count,” his biography of General Alex Dumas, the father of the novelist and grandfather of the playwright.

August 11, 2013

Community Connection with Liz Saint John

6:00am-6:20am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

After being a successful lawyer for many years, Meg Waite Clayton decided to do what she loved and started writing. Her new book is “The Wednesday Daughters.”

August 25, 2013

Community Connection with Liz Saint John

6:20am-6:40am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Craig Watson, Director of the California Arts Council, explains how they are funded and what projects and programs they support throughout the state. He also explains the importance of continued support of artists and companies that employ artists. California employs more artists than any other state.

August 25, 2013

Community Connection with Liz Saint John

6:40am-7:00am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Michael Paterniti followed the story of a specific brand of cheese to Spain and uncovered the history of the cheese maker and his prized product. Paterniti writes about his journey in “The Telling Room: A Tale of Love, Betrayal, Revenge, and the World’s Greatest Piece of Cheese.

September 22, 2013

Community Connection with Liz Saint John

6:40am-7:00am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Novelist, screen writer and comic book writer Gregg Hurwitz talks about the inspiration and research for his latest thriller “Tell No Lies.,” a story set in the San Francisco Bay Area.

September 29, 2013

Community Connection with Liz Saint John

6:40am-7:00am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Mark Fishkin, Founder of the Mill Valley Film Festival and Executive Director of the California Film Institute, talks about the upcoming Mill Valley Film Festival, the movies, the special events and big parties.

PSAs

Connoisseurs Marketplace

Bacchus Players

Stanford Summer Theatre

Kollaboration

Yerba Buena Gardens

Art & Soul

Rhythmix Cultural Works

Palo Alto Art Center

Kings Mountain Art Festival

Sharon Art Studio

Women

September 15, 2013

Community Connection with Liz Saint John

6:00am-6:20am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Writer Natasha Solomons talks about her research for her new book “Gallery of Vanished Husbands,” a story about orthodox Jewish women who were left by their husbands and how they did or did not rebuild their lives.

September 29, 2013

Community Connection with Liz Saint John

6:00am-6:20am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Journalist Amana Fontanella-Khan explains the history of the Pink Sari Gang, a group of women in India who fight for the victims of violence and unjust legal action. Her book chronicling the rise of the movement is “Pink Sari Revolution.”

PSAs

Girls Inc of Alameda County

Military

July 28, 2013

Community Connection with Liz Saint John

6:00am-6:20am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Mark Mazzatti, a Pulitzer-prize New York Times reporter, talks about his new investigative book “The Way of the Knife: The CIA, the Secret Army, and a War at the Ends of the Earth.”

LGBTQ

July 14, 2013

Community Connection with Liz Saint John

6:20am-6:40am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Evan Wolfson, Founder and President of Freedom to Marry, an organization that continues to work towards marriage equality for all, talks about the recent Supreme Court rulings striking down DOMA and Prop 8. He says his organization will continue to work until everyone has the right to marriage in the United States.

August 25, 2013

Community Connection with Liz Saint John

6:00am-6:20am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Writer Caleb Crain talks about his new book “Necessary Errors” about a young man figuring out his sexuality and finding his place in the world.

PSAs

San Francisco LGBT Center

Disability Issues

July 21, 2013

Community Connection with Liz Saint John

6:40am-7:00am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Creativity Explored advances the value and diversity of artistic expression. They provide artists with developmental disabilities the means to create, exhibit, and sell their art in our studios and gallery, and around the world. Ann Kappas is the marketing director for the organization, and writer Beth Lisick did a project in collaboration with some of the artists at Creativity Explored.

September 1, 2013

Community Connection with Liz Saint John

6:00am-6:20am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Mike Penketh was a commercial airline pilot for many years. In his free time he pushed the envelope in cars and one day crashed while trying to attain a land speed record. He lost both hands. His book "Within My Grasp" tells the story of the accident, his recovery and the reinstatement of his pilot's license.

PSAs

San Francisco Blind Café

Minority

September 1, 2013

Community Connection with Liz Saint John

6:40am-7:00am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

David de la Torre, Director of the Mexican Museum in San Francisco, talks about Hispanic Heritage Month, Dialogos Graficos (printmaking) and other exhibitions currently at the museum. He also talks about the upcoming move to a brand new museum facility in 2015.

September 29, 2013

Community Connection with Liz Saint John

6:20am-6:40am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Nancy Iverson, Founder and Director of PATHSTAR, an organization with the goal of improving the health and lives of native Americans living on and off the reservations. Her annual week of healthy living and swim training for Native Americans culminates with a swim from Alcatraz to San Francisco.

PSAs

San Francisco Jewish Film Festival
San Francisco Latino Film Festival

Seniors

September 8, 2013
Community Connection with Liz Saint John
6:20am-6:40am
20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Kevin Winge, Executive Director of Project Open Hand, an organization that cooks and delivers meals to homebound seniors and people with life-threatening disease, and Kim Hough from Ghirardelli Chocolate Company talk about the annual Chocolate festival that benefits Project Open Hand. Winge explains the organization's mission and services and Hough talks about the history of the company and the chocolate tasting at the event.

PSAs

Meals on Wheels of Alameda County
Meals on Wheels Senior Outreach services

Contemporary Social Issues

July 7, 2013
Community Connection with Liz Saint John
6:20am-6:40am
20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Writer Daniel James Brown talks about the USA's 1936 gold medal-winning rowing team. He chronicles the story, using diaries from the nine man crew team and interviews with their families, in his book "Boys in the Boat: Nine American and their Epic Quest for Gold at the 1936 Olympics."

July 21, 2013
Community Connection with Liz Saint John
6:20am-6:40am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Emily Bazelon, a senior editor at Slate and the Truman Capote Fellow for Creative Writing and Law at Yale Law School, talks about her new book that she hopes will help lessen bullying and help kids help those who are being bullied. The book is "Sticks and Stones: Defeating the Culture of Bullying and Rediscovering the Power of Character and Empathy."

August 18, 2013

Community Connection with Liz Saint John

6:40am-7:00am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Max Young, a man who always dreamed of sailing around the world, tells his story of coming face to face with a huge whale in the final miles of his round the world journey. He chronicles the years of adventure in "Reckoning at Sea: Eye to Eye with a Grey Whale."

September 15, 2013

Community Connection with Liz Saint John

6:40am-7:00am

20 minutes of a 60 minute program

Attorney Joshua Safran became interested in the issue of domestic violence when he was involved in the documentary "Crime after Crime," the story of a woman victim of domestic violence who was unjustly sentenced and spent decades in prison. Safran realized that he too was a victim of domestic violence, along with his mom. His new memoir is "Free Spirit: Growing up on the Road and Off the Grid."

PSAs

SAVE