

KNHC (FM) Seattle, WA
Issues and Programs List

3rd Quarter 2022: July 1st, 2022 through September 30th, 2022

Prepared by Andrew Higgins

Every three months, KNHC publishes a list of programs that have provided the station's most significant treatment of community issues during the preceding three-month period.

This list includes a narrative describing what issues were given significant treatment and the programming that provided this treatment.

1. Science & Technology
2. Race, LGBTQ, & Indigenous People Issues
3. Health & Wellness
4. Women's Rights & Empowerment
5. Environment & Sustainable Living
6. Traffic Safety
7. Mental Health

Section I
LOCAL PROGRAMMING

Section I lists special programs that represent the station's issue-responsive programming providing the most significant treatment of the issues listed above for the calendar quarter.

| | |
|-------------------------|---|
| Title: | The Laura Flanders Show: Yellowstone at 150 |
| Community Issue: | Environment & Sustainable Living |
| Time: | 4:00 |
| Duration: | 28:00 |
| Date: | 10 JUL 2022 |
| Summary: | 150 years after Congress established Yellowstone National Park, it remains the jewel of a system that comprises some 400 national parks. But for Indigenous Americans, the history is bitter. Thousands were forced to leave, families were massacred, and the Army was brought in to exclude Native Americans. Today, as droughts, floods and fires threaten the parks, many are calling for Indigenous control. Indigenizing the National Parks wouldn't just be morally and legally right, but it just might be what saves the parks for future generations. |

| | |
|---------------|----------|
| Title: | Spectrum |
|---------------|----------|

| | |
|-------------------------|---|
| Community Issue: | Science & Technology |
| Time: | 4:30 |
| Duration: | 30:00 |
| Date: | 10 JUL 2022 |
| Summary: | This week on the show: Big assumptions about monkeypox are changing — and you really need to listen to what a chatbot in California is saying |

| | |
|-------------------------|---|
| Title: | With Good Reason - Voices of Vietnam: Women of War |
| Community Issue: | Women's Rights & Empowerment |
| Time: | 05:00 |
| Duration: | 52:00 |
| Date: | 10 JUL 2022 |
| Summary: | Alongside the army of men on the front lines of conflict was an army of women in support roles. From the Red Cross volunteers who boosted morale to the nurses who treated injuries, women were a major part of soldiers' experience of the war. We hear the stories of some of these women, and connect with scholars on how women's roles in Vietnam reflected the gender norms of the era. |

| | |
|-------------------------|---|
| Title: | Planetary Radio |
| Community Issue: | Science & Technology |
| Time: | 4:00 |
| Duration: | 59:00 |
| Date: | 17 JUL 2022 |
| Summary: | NASA and its partners have revealed the first stunning images from the new space telescope. We'll talk about them with Bill Nye and members of the JWST team. |

| | |
|-------------------------|---|
| Title: | OutCasting 0098 |
| Community Issue: | Race, LGBTQ, & Indigenous People Issues |
| Time: | 4:30 |
| Duration: | 29:00 |

| | |
|-----------------|--|
| Date: | 17 JUL 2022 |
| Summary: | Right-wing myths and the dismantling of the separation between church and state. |

| | |
|-------------------------|--|
| Title: | Living On Earth |
| Community Issue: | Race, LGBTQ, & Indigenous People Issues |
| Time: | 05:00 |
| Duration: | 59:00 |
| Date: | 17 JUL 2022 |
| Summary: | Free to non-carrying stations: Living on Earth presents a one-hour, eco-justice special honoring Juneteenth, the annual holiday commemorating the ending of slavery in the United States. The special features stories of African foodways, redlining and environmental justice, and black farmers practicing liberation on the land |

| | |
|-------------------------|---|
| Title: | Planetary Radio - A Hero of the New Space Age: Lori Garver and Escaping Gravity |
| Community Issue: | Science & Technology |
| Time: | 4:00 |
| Duration: | 28:50 |
| Date: | 24 JUL 2022 |
| Summary: | No one deserves more credit for enabling the new era of commercial space development than former NASA deputy administrator Lori Garver. That includes the commercial crew program that brings astronauts to and from the International Space Station. Mat welcomes Lori back for a conversation about her excellent new memoir that tells the inside story of this achievement. |

| | |
|-------------------------|---|
| Title: | The Laura Flanders Show: The Forgotten Coup, January 6th & the Small Town Americans on the Frontlines of Democracy |
| Community Issue: | Race, LGBTQ, & Indigenous People Issues |
| Time: | 4:30 |
| Duration: | 28:00 |
| Date: | 24 JUL 2022 |
| Summary: | Could a successful coup happen in the US? The ongoing Congressional hearings into the events of January 6 show that just a handful of election officials in several key |

| | |
|--|--|
| | states stood between Donald Trump and the overturning of the 2020 elections. While the insurrection unfolded, many Americans watched in shock, believing nothing like this had ever happened in United States history. But it has happened before — more than a century ago in Wilmington, North Carolina when an armed mob removed a democratically-elected government by force, and turned a majority-Black town into a citadel of white supremacy. In this episode, we look at the parallels between that coup and the events in DC and visit the rural county of Columbus in the south west of North Carolina where a self-described former Oath Keeper acquired a massive arsenal of decommissioned military hardware in 2018 soon after taking office after a contested election. Laura also meets the residents and leaders from across the state who are clear that the future of multi-racial democracy in America is being decided in out-of-the way towns like theirs. |
|--|--|

| | |
|-------------------------|---|
| Title: | With Good Reason: Beyond the Book |
| Community Issue: | Science & Technology |
| Time: | 05:00 |
| Duration: | 52:00 |
| Date: | 24 JUL 2022 |
| Summary: | Outer space probably isn't in your travel plans this summer. But it could be soon. Last year, Hayley Arceneaux was a SpaceX crew member in the first all-civilian mission to orbit earth. Her upcoming book, Wild Ride: A Memoir of IV Drips and Rocket Ships , chronicles her unlikely journey from childhood cancer to space explorer. With Good Reason producer, Matt Darroch, has the story. And: Mara Scanlon took her class of self-proclaimed "Whitmaniacs" to the Walt Whitman house in Camden, New Jersey. She says her students were awestruck by being in the intimate spaces where Whitman lived and breathed... including his bathroom. |

| | |
|-------------------------|--|
| Title: | Making Contact: Hunger Strike! How Immigrant Taxi Drivers Took on City Hall |
| Community Issue: | Race, LGBTQ, & Indigenous People Issues |
| Time: | 4:00 |
| Duration: | 29:00 |
| Date: | 31 JUL 2022 |
| Summary: | New York City taxi drivers were drowning in debt because they had to buy their licenses from the city. We join our friends at the podcast Self-Evident to take a look at the hunger strike they used to renegotiate the terms of their debt |

| | |
|---------------|--|
| Title: | The Laura Flanders Show: Reforming Prosecutor Power - Especially After Roe |
|---------------|--|

| | |
|-------------------------|--|
| Community Issue: | Women's Rights & Empowerment |
| Time: | 4:30 |
| Duration: | 28:00 |
| Date: | 31 JUL 2022 |
| Summary: | Prosecutors are immensely powerful, especially now, after the overthrow of Roe. They decide which cases to bring, what charges to make and what sentences to ask for. Until this year, only internal committees could investigate misconduct, even after hundreds of exonerations and allegations of abuse. After years of grassroots effort, New York now has an independent commission, but the process was hard, and there's still no power to punish. In this episode, reporter Kizzy Cox reports on how New York's new Independent Commission on Prosecutorial Misconduct came to be, and Laura talks with Andrea James, executive director for the National Council for Incarcerated and Formerly Incarcerated Women and Girls, and Sakira Cook, Co-Interim Vice President at Color of Change, about what prosecutors can do, or not do, especially when it comes to implementing new abortion bans. |

| | |
|-------------------------|--|
| Title: | With Good Reason: UFOs and Space Aliens |
| Community Issue: | Science & Technology |
| Time: | 05:00 |
| Duration: | 52:00 |
| Date: | 31 JUL 2022 |
| Summary: | What caused the Big Bang? Are black holes key to interstellar travel? And how close are we to discovering extraterrestrial life? These are some of the big questions that Kelsey Johnson (University of Virginia) covers in her fascinating class, "The Unsolved Mysteries of the Universe." And: Robin Hanson (George Mason University) has come up with a mathematical model that predicts when us earthlings will encounter an advanced alien civilization. Hint: It won't happen anytime soon. |

| | |
|-------------------------|--|
| Title: | Planetary Radio: Comets Stink! The Chemical Zoo Found at Comet Chury |
| Community Issue: | Science & Technology |
| Time: | 4:00 |
| Duration: | 28:50 |
| Date: | 14 AUG 2022 |
| Summary: | Scientists have used data collected by an exquisitely sensitive instrument on the European Space Agency's Rosetta probe to find a stunning collection of complex organic molecules at the comet known as Chury. The findings are an important step |

| | |
|--|---|
| | toward understanding the origin of our solar system and life on Earth |
|--|---|

| | |
|-------------------------|--|
| Title: | Making Contact: |
| Community Issue: | Environment & Sustainable Living |
| Time: | 4:30 |
| Duration: | 28:56 |
| Date: | 14 AUG 2022 |
| Summary: | More and more coastal communities want to build sea walls to prevent catastrophic flooding because of rising sea levels. But do they work? We talk about the risks of the planned seagates in New York and we visit Sapelo Island Georgia to learn about how to Gullah Geechee community plans to defend their ancestral lands by using a natural shoreline, built of oysters. |

| | |
|-------------------------|---|
| Title: | With Good Reason: HBCU Renaissance |
| Community Issue: | Race, LGBTQ, & Indigenous People Issues |
| Time: | 05:00 |
| Duration: | 52:00 |
| Date: | 14 AUG 2022 |
| Summary: | HBCUs rose from the ashes of slavery and have been educating Black students for generations. Cheryl Mango says HBCUs are currently experiencing a renaissance, sparked from Black Lives Matter movement and the fight for racial justice. Plus: HBCU bands like the Trojan Explosion at Virginia State University play with power and energy. It's an audio and visual display, with high-step marching and decked-out drum majors at the center of the performance. Taylor Whitehead says that HBCU sound and style is the pinnacle of Black musical excellence. |

| | |
|-------------------------|--|
| Title: | Making Contact - The Response: Heatwaves and Energy Poverty in the Mediterranean |
| Community Issue: | Environment & Sustainable Living |
| Time: | 4:00 |
| Duration: | 29:00 |
| Date: | 21 AUG 2022 |
| Summary: | In today's episode, were going to focus on energy poverty. When temperatures rise to |

| | |
|--|---|
| | the point where they become dangerous, what happens to people who cant escape the heat? As temperatures continue to soar and extreme heatwaves become the norm, a lack of resources to stay cool " so, having access to things like air conditioning, for example, " is a huge issue across the world. To find out how people are fighting energy poverty, we visit southern Europe, a region that experienced a series of record-breaking, climate-fueled heatwaves this past summer. Today's episode comes to us from our friends at The Response podcast. |
|--|---|

| | |
|-------------------------|---|
| Title: | OutCasting 0099 |
| Community Issue: | Race, LGBTQ, & Indigenous People Issues |
| Time: | 4:30 |
| Duration: | 29:00 |
| Date: | 21 AUG 2022 |
| Summary: | How is the ongoing fight for LGBTQ equality affected when the courts impose religious beliefs on the public? In the wake of the Supreme Court reversal of Roe v. Wade, are settled rights like marriage equality really safe? Where does freedom of religious belief cross the line into harming other people? And how can young people make a difference in the fight for equality? In this final part of this extensive series, which features OutCaster Isha's interview with civil rights lawyer Jennifer C. Pizer, we consider one of the most foundational questions we've raised: Should the constitutional right of LGBTQ people to be equal under the law be denied in order to avoid offending some people's religious beliefs? |

| | |
|-------------------------|--|
| Title: | Coping 101: Art as Recovery w/ Shānda De Anda |
| Community Issue: | Mental Health |
| Time: | 05:00 |
| Duration: | 44:00 |
| Date: | 21 AUG 2022 |
| Summary: | This episode of C89.5's Artist Mental Health Stories podcast explores the story of Air Force Veteran, Artist and devoted Mother, Shānda De Anda - as she openly discusses her diagnosis with PTSD after a 24-year career in the military and how therapy reintroduced her to a long-lost art practice - including writing, drawing and singing - which has illuminated her path to recovery, healthier relationships and mental wellness. |

| | |
|---------------|--|
| Title: | The Laura Flanders Show - quitable Business Model: Open Collective |
|---------------|--|

| | |
|-------------------------|---|
| Community Issue: | Science & Technology |
| Time: | 4:00 |
| Duration: | 28:00 |
| Date: | 04 SEP 2022 |
| Summary: | Many of the world's most successful businesses began as someone's good idea. But the path from startup to conventional financial success typically involves going public, prioritizing shareholders' interests, and ultimately selling to a giant conglomerate whose intentions are far from the original mission of the business's founders. In this episode, Laura interviews guests who say this conventional path of success is desperately in need of an overhaul. |

| | |
|-------------------------|---|
| Title: | Making Contact - The Response: Heatwaves and Energy Poverty in the Mediterranean |
| Community Issue: | Health & Wellness |
| Time: | 4:30 |
| Duration: | 29:00 |
| Date: | 04 SEP 2022 |
| Summary: | In today's episode, we're going to focus on energy poverty. When temperatures rise to the point where they become dangerous, what happens to people who can't escape the heat? As temperatures continue to soar and extreme heatwaves become the norm, a lack of resources to stay cool "so, having access to things like air conditioning, for example," is a huge issue across the world. To find out how people are fighting energy poverty, we visit southern Europe, a region that experienced a series of record-breaking, climate-fueled heatwaves this past summer. Today's episode comes to us from our friends at The Response podcast. |

| | |
|-------------------------|--|
| Title: | With Good Reason: How Hot is Your Honey? |
| Community Issue: | Environment & Sustainable Living |
| Time: | 05:00 |
| Duration: | 52:00 |
| Date: | 04 SEP 2022 |
| Summary: | Chef Ralph Brown's (RBC Institute) parents fed the neighborhood for years. Now, he's keeping that tradition going. Plus: Fifty years after the last atmospheric nuclear tests on American soil, radioactive elements remain in our food supply. Jim Kaste says the honey is especially hot. And: There are many threats to our food supply. Mike Evans is working with farmers to grow vertically indoors. |

| | |
|-------------------------|--|
| Title: | Making Contact - 70 Million – Forget Reform, They Want Abolition |
| Community Issue: | Health & Wellness |
| Time: | 4:00 |
| Duration: | 29:00 |
| Date: | 11 SEP 2022 |
| Summary: | This week on Making Contact we're taking you to St. Louis, Missouri with the Podcast 70 Million to learn about the city's ongoing efforts to re-imagine public safety beyond incarceration. Organizers in St. Louis have given up on trying to simply reform the criminal legal system. Now, they're working to abolish it. And they're starting with the closure of the "Medium Security Institution" known as the "Workhouse." For more than a century, this St. Louis jail has been known for incarcerating people unable to pay their bail, and has come to represent the criminalization of the poor. |

| | |
|-------------------------|---|
| Title: | The Laura Flanders Show - Crip Camp and The Disability Justice Movement |
| Community Issue: | Race, LGBTQ, & Indigenous People Issues |
| Time: | 4:30 |
| Duration: | 28:00 |
| Date: | 11 SEP 2022 |
| Summary: | Crip Camp is a Peabody Award-winning documentary from Netflix and Higher Ground Productions that tells the story of Camp Jened, a summer camp in the 1960s where disabled youth could be themselves. The film follows several former campers who went on to be leaders of the Disability Rights Movement. Laura speaks with the directors and producers of Crip Camp about how they are using the film to advance the next step in the revolution: Disability Justice, a movement that centers the leadership of disabled queer, trans, Black, Indigenous, and people of color. |

| | |
|-------------------------|---|
| Title: | With Good Reason - Seeding Innovation |
| Community Issue: | Environment & Sustainable Living |
| Time: | 05:00 |
| Duration: | 52:00 |
| Date: | 11 SEP 2022 |
| Summary: | The creators of a new multi-million dollar Innovation Hub in a farming region say it's already supporting rural entrepreneurs. They have high hopes it will also help reverse |

| | |
|--|---|
| | economic hardship and population decline. Plus: Some days at work we're in the zone and super productive. While other days it can be hard to get those creative juices flowing. Here are the 5 kinds of workdays we all experience and how they affect our creative performance. Also: We all negotiate daily, from deciding where to eat with friends to asking for a raise at work. Here's how to be a better negotiator. |
|--|---|

| | |
|-------------------------|--|
| Title: | Planetary Radio - The Voyager Mission: A 45th Anniversary Celebration |
| Community Issue: | Science & Technology |
| Time: | 4:00 |
| Duration: | 28:50 |
| Date: | 25 SEP 2022 |
| Summary: | Join us at the Jet Propulsion Lab for the celebration of the two Voyager spacecrafts' 45 year journey across the solar system and beyond. Then you'll hear an excerpt from our latest conversation with Ann Druyan, creative director for the Golden Record carried by the probes. |

| | |
|-------------------------|---|
| Title: | Making Contact: Revolutionary Mothering and Reproductive Justice |
| Community Issue: | Women's Rights & Empowerment |
| Time: | 4:30 |
| Duration: | 29:00 |
| Date: | 25 SEP 2022 |
| Summary: | In today's episode, Dr. Alexis Pauline Gumbs tells the birth story of the book she co-edited with China Martens and Mai'a Williams, Revolutionary Mothering: Love on the Front Lines and gives context to the book with stories of the Reproductive Justice Movement. |

| | |
|-------------------------|---|
| Title: | With Good Reason - Translations |
| Community Issue: | |
| Time: | 05:00 |
| Duration: | 52:00 |
| Date: | 25 SEP 2022 |
| Summary: | Bonaventure Balla's favorite word in any language is "cornucopia." And that's saying something, because he's a translator from Cameroon who speaks seven languages, |

| | |
|--|--|
| | although his favorite is his home dialect called Fang. |
|--|--|

Section II

Station Campaigns

Section II lists station produced campaigns and their segments that the station broadcasted during the preceding calendar quarter that addresses community issues.

“The Wise Drive”

During the 3rd quarter of 2022 “C89.5 “Mornings with Drew Bailey ” featured Doug Dahl of the Washington Traffic Safety commission. Every Tuesday morning Doug shared information about how to drive safely and dug deep into Washington State traffic laws to help listeners interpret the laws on Washington roads. Subjects covered during this quarter include multiple lane changes, left turns, follow distance, hazard lights, and more.

Each Tuesday morning Doug and Drew talked traffic safety for about five minutes.