

KIZN-FM Issues/Programs

Q1: January 1 – March 31, 2024

Boise, Idaho

CUMULUS

-Chris Matthews-

Program Director

CUMULUS

In our ongoing effort to serve the public interest, KIZN broadcasts programming responsive to issues of concern to Boise, Idaho and the surrounding service area.

Following is a list of those issues, and of the station's most significant programming treatment of them.

CLOSER LOOK WEEKEND

QUARTERLY ISSUES REPORT

1st Quarter January 1st – March 31st, 2024

CALL LETTERS: KIZN-FM

Date aired: January 7, 2024

Time Aired: 0600-0630

Boise Police Department Financial Crimes Unit Brad Thorne urges families to come up with a "Family Scam Plan". Identity theft, credit cards, investments, car titles, home title theft are still being carried out by email and phishing links.

Debbie Craft, Canyon County Anti-Trafficking Task Force, promoting a free workshop for parents to keep their kids safe on-line.

Date aired: January 14, 2024

Time Aired: 0600-0630

Corporal Kyle Willis, Boise Police Department. Discusses why certain traffic laws exist. Signaling, speeding, snow traffic laws, construction traffic laws, agricultural traffic laws.

State Representative Jaron Crane discusses legislation HB 834, which would make libraries move “adult” content books in public libraries out of the reach or sight of children.

State Senator Brian Lenney discusses an effort to allow parents to use a portion of the taxes they pay for their children’s education to be used for private school tuition.

Date aired: January 21, 2024

Time Aired: 0600-0630

Boise Police Department’s Ed Fritz discusses keeping safe while working out at the gym. Car safety, locker room safety and what to do in case you’re a witness to gym theft.

Idaho Senate Minority leader Melissa Wintrow discusses expanding contraception availability, and how homeless shelters deal with mental illness.

Idaho State Senator Treg Bernt discusses expanding vehicular manslaughter penalties for those with a DUI on their record, library book safety.

House Minority Leader Ilana Rubel discusses deep fake / artificial intelligence technology concerns from the state level. Fentanyl detection strips,

State Representative Matt Bundy discusses the Idaho Joint Finance Appropriation Committee process. Maintenance budgets, appropriations, and more.

Date aired: January 28, 2024

Time Aired: 0600-0630

Democrat Idaho State Senator Rick Just discussed his bill to restrict “payday loan” APR to %33.

Republican Idaho State Senator Lori DenHartog discusses tax credits for private schools/

Cynthia Adrian, specialist with Idaho Tax Commission, discusses new rules, processes, common questions and ways to contact the commission in case of questions.

Date aired: February 4, 2024

Time Aired: 0600-0630

Idaho State Senators James Ruchte and Todd Lakey discuss schools allowing all employees to carry handguns on campus with an enhanced concealed carry permit and fentanyl mandatory minimum sentencing.

Boise Police Detective Jim Cromwell talks about the January vehicle burglaries. Areas targeted, automobiles targeted, businesses targeted. Only one car had a broken window. Detective Cromwell reminds all to lock their cars and arm the security system if any.

Date aired: February 11, 2024

Time Aired: 0600-0630

Idaho State Senators Rick Just and Abby Lee discuss state budgeting, and a proposal that could limit lawsuits against pesticide companies.

Idaho State Representatives Illana Rubel and Jason Monks discuss House GOP leadership changes, constitutional convention proposals (Article V, or "con-con"), a proposal allowing more enhanced concealed carry in schools,

Date aired: February 18, 2024

Time Aired: 0600-0630

Idaho Governor Brad Little discussed his latest trip to the US/Mexico border and what Idaho State troopers can learn from what the challenges are faced there. Operation Esto Perpetua is an initiative to crack down on drugs and human trafficking in Idaho.

Boise Police Department's Ed Fritz discusses why people are facing mail theft. Identification theft, credit cards, financial information, and more, are all put at risk.

Date aired: February 25, 2024

Time Aired: 0600-0630

Dale Dixon, Idaho Better Business Bureau, discusses debt relief and credit assistance companies. What to look out for. Scams. How to protect yourself and who to report them to.

Idaho Senator James Ruchte and Treg Bernt discuss why OBGYNs are leaving Idaho and what its effects are, 3 different constitutional convention bills, an immigration memorial by the Idaho Senate that relay concerns to the federal government on how they're handling border protection.

Date aired: March 3, 2024

Time Aired: 0600-0630

Idaho State Senators Melissa Wintrow and Chris Trakel discuss what options the state has at its availability to put an inmate to death, legislation to allow therapists to deny therapy based on the therapist's beliefs and a failed effort to remove questionable books from libraries.

Matthew Conde, AAA-Idaho talks about "Vehicle Safety Recall" week. There are thousands of safety recalls effecting millions of cars each year.

Date aired: March 10, 2024

Time Aired: 0600-0630

Idaho State Senators Todd Lakey & Rick Just discuss the fentanyl mandatory sentencing bill and its progress, the Idaho Harm Reduction being dismantled due to drug paraphernalia in the facilities.

Brad Thorne, Boise Police Department Consumer protection division, discusses the latest and most prevalent fraud scams. Phishing e-mails, gift cards, look-a-like receipt or delivery emails. Brad discusses tips on how to spot these e-mails.

Date aired: March 17, 2024

Time Aired: 0600-0630

Idaho State Senators Ron Taylor and Lori DenHartog discuss the latest library bill to address questionable material in libraries.

Idaho State Representatives Todd Achillies and Jaron Crane discuss bills having to do with ballot harvesting, absentee ballots, and a ballot initiative review period.

Date aired: March 24, 2024

Time Aired: 0600-0630

Idaho State Senators Melissa Wintrow and Ben Adams discuss extended access to contraception, state efforts to address patients with acute neurological illnesses, the state legislature's passing mandatory minimum sentencing for fentanyl crimes.

Boise Fire Department's Roy Beam discusses the "Fire Safehouse", a traveling classroom for kids and families on how to prevent fires and create an escape plan for their homes.

Date aired: March 31, 2024

Time Aired: 0600-0630

Idaho State Senators Chuck Winder and Rick Just discuss the Idaho Department of Transportation's budget, the University of Idaho's attempted purchase of The University of Phoenix.

Ed Fritz, Boise Police Department, discusses bicycle safety, preventing theft, traffic tips, safety gear on roads and the Boise Greenbelt.

Debi McAllister – Cumulus Boise News Anchor & Reporter

Ron O'Brian - Cumulus Boise News Anchor & Reporter

Mike Kasper – Contributor

Chris Walton – Contributor

Derik Suppe – Producer

Sophie Harman - Producer

Nate Shelman – Co-Producer, Contributor

Portions used with permission from USDA, ABC NEWS & WestwoodOne

Possible Issue topics:

Online Security	Crime	Consumer Matters
Career	Parenting	Personal Finance
Retirement Planning	Senior Citizens	Mental Health
Physical Fitness	Personal Growth	Addictions
Personal Health	Consumer Matters	Government Regulations
Health Issues	Caregiving	Nutrition

Environment

Minority Concerns

Government Policies

Education

Transportation Safety

Women's Issues

Technology

Employment

Energy

Aging

Workplace Matters

City Planning

Coronavirus/COVID-19
