Does the testimony of Bill Taylor – a lifetime diplomat – provide the smoking gun for the critics of the President who say he should be impeached. Do the Republicans risk setting the party back a generation if they don't vote for impeachment in the Senate? Should the hearings be closed? 55% approve of the inquiry. Does it mean Americans believe Trump should be removed from office? Is Hillary going to run? She's been doing a lot of publicity.

The name of the whistleblower in the Ukraine Scandal has now been released by the President's son. Is the whistleblower law protecting the identity of whistleblowers unfair? What will we see in the early impeachment hearings? Do last night's election results show us a repudiation of the GOP and even President Trump? What about in the swing states? The President is still polling well in many of those states. What did we learn from Democrat Elizabeth Warren's new release of details in her Medicare For All proposal?

Show Date: Recorded on Nov. 20th for air on 23rd and subsequent.

Ken Starr says it was a bombshell day of testimony in the impeachment inquiry. Did Sondland's testimony sink any hopes that it wasn't a quid pro quo that was offered by the President? Hunter Biden got thousands a month for his work in Ukraine. Is that definitely NOT corruption? Reports suggest Secretary Pompeo was "in the loop" but what do you think? Will the president eventually offer "written testimony" as he has suggested? Do you ultimately believe after 2 weeks of testimony that the House has enough to impeach the President?

Show Date: Recorded on Dec. 11th for air on 14th and subsequent.

Guests: Todd Hickman, Sherrene Danks-Cook, Eliot C Hall, Michael Lindsay, Jeff Lewis, Fernando Ramirez, WL Pate, Kent Batman, Joe Evans.

Topics for the four segments: roughly 6.5 minutes for each segment. Volcker says Trump is undermining US faith in government. Is he right? 4 people told Politico that Biden is unlikely to run for re-election if elected. Says it's because of age. Does that hurt Biden's chances? Is Trump glossing over the impeachment allegations of abuse of power and obstruction of Congress? Trivializing the whole matter. What are your observations about whether anything has changed in the argument for impeaching the President? Have Americans been convinced of the Democrats arguments?
