Air Dates: Fridays          January – March 2008

Air Times: 5:30 – 6:00 PM

Run Time: 30:00

Summary: As Attached

Video Game Addictions – Air Date: January 4, 2008

Video games can be entertaining and provide a welcome distraction from the stresses of everyday life. But for some, the games can become alternate realities into which they retreat, withdrawing from their real lives, real friends and family. Video and internet-based games can even become addictive. What are some ways to avoid video game addiction and how can your faith help you break the cycle if you're already hooked?

Overcoming Eating Disorders – Air Date: January 11, 2008

Eating disorders have the highest death rates of any psychiatric disorder. Teens are vulnerable to pressure to conform to media images, low self esteem and needs to control. It is difficult for family and friends to help. How can God and prayer help?

The Ten Commandments in the 21st Century – Air Date: January 18, 2008

Teens talk about how they decide what is right and wrong. How is their personal code of conduct determined? What other guidelines like the laws and parents play? How relevant are the 10 Commandments to teen's lives today?

Appreciating Diversity – Air Date: January 25, 2008

It can be a challenge to see every person as an individual rather than stereotyping them as part of an ethnic, racial, or religious group. What does it mean to go beyond tolerance and genuinely appreciate that everyone is not the same? Our Catholic faith teaches us to value every person, and to recognize that diversity among people is a gift, not a problem..... this week on Real Faith TV.

The Internet: Privacy and Predators – Air Date: February 1, 2008

While the Internet brings a world of information to our door and allows us to connect with friends and relatives, it can also have its dangers. Users need to take precautions to avoid having their identity stolen and misused, and protect themselves from on-line predators. How can our faith and the Bible guide us in these situations? The Internet: Privacy and Predators.....this week on Real Faith TV.

Preserving Your Relationship with Both Parents After a Divorce-

Air Date: February 8, 2008

After parents divorce, it is necessary to be able to talk with a counselor, trusted adult or peers with experience of a parental divorce. It takes a lot of effort and communication to maintain a good relationship with both parents and deal with the stress of divorce.

Perilous Parties – Air Date: February 15, 2008

A Party usually means having a good time with friends, but sometimes the simple fun we expected becomes a nightmare. Illegal or dangerous activities, like underage drinking, experimenting with drugs, and sexual assault can turn a good party into a “perilous” party. How can our faith help us to make the right choices when it comes to attending parties, and strengthen our decision to leave if things seem to be out of hand?

Living Your Faith in The Public Arena – Air Date: February 22, 2008

Would your public actions demonstrate to others that you are a disciple of Jesus? Does your faith influence your opinion and your willingness to take a stand on important issues? His Catholic faith has inspired our Spotlight guest, three time Emmy-Award winning actor Martin Sheen to become an activist for a number of humanitarian and political causes. He shares how he isn’t afraid to live his faith in public—in fact, it’s come naturally for him.

Standing Strong Against Gangs – Air Date: February 29, 2008

Gangs recruit new members by offering a powerful sense of belonging during a time in life when teenagers are defining their identity. Once initiated into a gang, they find themselves in a world of crime, violence, and feuds before they realize what is happening; and walking away is not an easy option. How can we resist the lure of gangs? Can our relationship with God and our faith community give us the strength and courage to choose another way?

Poverty in America: Is There an Answer? - Air Date: 3/7/08

Tens of millions of people in America lack housing, food, clean water--some of the basic necessities of life. How can it be, in a country where so many people have so much, that so many others live without? Our generation has an obligation to respond to this question. How will we answer the Gospel's call to "feed the poor," "shelter the homeless," and "care for the sick?" Poverty in America: Is There an Answer?...this week on Realfaith TV.

Moral Decision Making – 3/14/08

When facing tough decisions, we often turn to our conscience, an internal spiritual compass that leads us in the right direction. All the while, we live in a culture that is full of distractions and thinking that influences us--often leading us down the opposite path. Award winning singer/songwriter and youth minister, Steve Angrisano, shares his simple guide to making the right choices.... Moral Decision Making...this week on Realfaith TV.

Violence in Schools – Air Date: 3/21/08

If studying, dating, and extra-curricular activities weren't enough to think about, many teenagers worry about being hurt or attacked while at school. Reports of violence in our schools appear on the evening news with alarming frequency. Schools have taken steps to prevent violence; police presence, metal detectors, and zero-tolerance policies have become commonplace. Do measures like this really allay our fears? How can our faith help us to overcome the threat of violence in our schools? How can prayer calm our fears and help us to take action? Violence in Schools...this week on Realfaith TV.

Living for Today or Living for Forever – Air Date: 3/28/08

It is easy to get caught up in a pattern of instant gratification, making choices that satisfy our wants and desires right now. All choices have consequences. What about our hopes for a lifetime and for eternal life? Do we make choices that are consistent with what we believe God has planned for us? Are we Living For Today or Living for Forever?....this week on Realfaith TV.
