Run Time: 30 min.

Summary: As Attached

RFTV 3Q 2009

Teens and ADHD – Air Date: 7/3/09

As many as three to five percent of the school-age population in America struggle with Attention Deficit Hyperactivity Disorder, or ADHD. It affects boys three times more often than girls. What are some of the common misconceptions about ADHD? Our guests talk about how difficult it is for teenagers to deal with ADHD and how having a relationship with God can help those who struggle with ADHD symptoms to get through the rough times. Teens and ADHD ...this week on Realfaith TV.

Teens Going Green – Responsible Eco-Activism – Air Date: 7/10/09

Do you respect the earth and practice the three R's; reduce, recycle, and reuse? Each of us has a responsibility to do our part to take care of the earth. As Catholic Christians, we show our respect for God by the way we protect the environment and preserve our natural resources, practicing good "stewardship" of all that God has created. Find out what you can do to "go green!" Teens Going Green – Responsible Eco-Activism ...this week on Realfaith TV.

Faith Without Borders: Welcoming the Stranger – Air Date: 7/17/09 .....The Scripture tells us that we are responsible for one another. Jesus calls us, as members of his Body, to love and serve the strangers among us--no matter where they come from or what language they speak. How do we respond to the "foreigner" who lives in our neighborhood or who attends our school? Do we reach out and welcome them to the community as we would a sister or brother? Faith Without Borders: Welcoming the Stranger ....this week on Realfaith TV.

The Blessings of the Beatitudes – Air Date: 7/24/09

From the Gospel passages, we know that practicing the beatitudes is the way to true happiness. They challenge us to live as disciples of Jesus Christ. Contemporary Christian singer and Catholic High School theology teacher Greg Walton explains how the Beatitudes are a radical call to holiness and a challenge to the prevailing attitudes of our society. The Blessings of the Beatitudes ...this week on Realfaith TV.

Being Healthy, Living Right – Air Date: 7/31/09.....Eating healthy is one aspect of living a good and healthy life. Along with your body you have to take care of your mind and your soul. It all about making healthy choices that show respect for your entire “self” and keeping God first in your life.

Being Healthy, Living Right ....this week on Realfaith TV.

Forgiveness: The Path to Peace – Air Date: 8/7/09

The Rwandan government estimates that more than one million people were killed in roughly 100 days during the 1994 genocide. Immaculée Ilibagiza, genocide survivor and author of Left To Tell: Discovering God in the Midst of the Rwandan Genocide, speaks about the importance of forgiveness. She shares how she found a sense of peace in finally being able to forgive those who murdered her loved ones. Forgiveness: The Path to Peace ...this week on Realfaith TV.

Restoring Justice, Restoring Hope – Air Date: 8/14/09

Restorative Justice is a practice which focuses on repairing or restoring the damage done to a community by criminal behavior. Matthew Conner was incarcerated for vehicular manslaughter as a result of the accident he caused while driving while under the influence of alcohol. His best friend A.J. was killed in the accident. Matthew shares his regrets and how he is trying to make amends for the damage and pain he caused. Restoring Justice, Restoring Hope ...this week on Realfaith TV.

Are You a Gossip Monger? - Air Date: 8/21/09

Nothing good ever comes from gossip. It destroys friendships, damages reputations, harms self-esteem and breaks the basic trust between people. Yet, even some of the most popular entertainment is based on reporting rumors about the personal lives of others. Do you thrive on the latest gossip? How can our Christian faith help us to “kick the gossip-habit?”

Are You a Gossip Monger?...this week on Realfaith TV.

Do We Really Need to Sleep? – Air Date: 8/28/09

Getting the proper amount of sleep is vital. It affects our coordination, our concentration, and even our moods and emotions. Many teens get far less sleep than they require and the resulting “sleep deficit” has serious consequences. Are you getting the sleep you need to be your best self? If we are truly grateful to God for giving us life and health, how is getting the right amount of sleep part of the obligation we have to keep our bodies healthy? Do We Really Need to Sleep?...this week on Realfaith TV.

Pursuing Your Goals – Air Date: 9/4/09

Goals vary from person to person; they also change over time. But for Christians, the ultimate goal--God's plan for us and our deepest hope--is to be united with God in heaven. How can keeping this in mind guide us as we pursue our goals today? Pursuing Your Goals ...this week on Realfaith TV.

Finding the Meaning of Life – Air Date: 9/11/09

Eventually, every person gets around to asking the questions: "Why am I here?" "What is my purpose?" "What is the meaning of it all?" We know that the meaning of our lives is more than just "doing things" and "having things." Only through faith and prayer, can we grow closer to Christ and come to understand our purpose and the meaning of our lives. Finding the Meaning of Life ...this week on Realfaith TV.

Believing in Yourself – Air Date: 9/18/09.....Some people may think that believing in yourself is being conceited or arrogant, but it is an important part of living as a Christian. It means thinking of yourself as valuable, lovable, made in God's image, and able to contribute something special to the world. This is not arrogance, but being happy with who and how God made you, and living his plan for you. Believing in Yourself...this week on Realfaith TV.

Confirming Your Faith in Christ – Air Date: 9/25/09

Are you fully committed to being a disciple of Christ? Have you been "sealed with the Holy Spirit" in Confirmation? What exactly does it mean to "be confirmed" in Christ? Learn about the Sacrament of Confirmation which calls and strengthens us to live as missionaries and to be more active members of the Catholic Church. Confirming Your Faith in Christ ...this week on Realfaith TV.
