I'm Bode Miller and this is my wife Morgan. Emmy drowned in a pool at the neighbor's house. She slipped out the back door and in the space of minutes she was gone. Drowning is the single leading cause of death in children ages 1 to 4. We believe it should be the number one thing that parents think about when it comes to safety. Drowning is preventable. This is urgent. Please talk to your pediatrician on how to keep your child safe. healthychildren.org – Powered by pediatricians. Trusted by parents. From the American Academy of Pediatrics.
