

Ball State University
Annual EEO Public File Report

April 1, 2022 – March 31,2023

This report covers the following Indiana Stations: WIPB-TV and WBST-FM in Muncie, Indiana; WBSB-FM, Anderson, Indiana; WBSH-FM Hagerstown, Indiana; and WBSW- FMMarion, Indiana. The report includes:

1. A list of all full-time vacancies filled by the stations during the past year (Appendix 1, first column);
2. The recruitment sources used to fill each vacancy including, if applicable, organizations that have requested and are therefore entitled to notification. We have broadcast announcements and posted a notice on our websites soliciting interest by community organizations in receiving notification of job openings. (Appendix 1, column 2);
3. The recruitment source that referred the person hired for each full-time vacancy (Appendix 1, Column 3);
4. Data reflecting the total number of persons interviewed for full-time vacancies and the number of interviewees referred by each recruitment source used in connection with vacancies (Appendix 2);
5. A list and brief description of recruitment / outreach initiatives (Appendix 3).

Note that the numbers listed in Appendix 2 under the column “Positions for Which the Source Was Utilized,” refer to the number of job positions listed in Appendix 1.

For purposes of the report, a vacancy was deemed “filled” not when the offer was extended but when the person reported to work. A person was deemed “interviewed” whether in person or over the telephone.

February 15, 2023- WIPB-TV and Indiana Public Radio participated in the College of Communication information and Media Spring Career Fair. Over 180 students attended and several students stopped by the WIPB and IPR table to discuss student position openings and possible careers in public media.

2. Participation in job banks, internet programs and other programs designed to promote outreach generally:

We conduct tours for community groups, university students and local schools districts. Due to COVID we also created a virtual tour that is on both our TV and Radio websites. Over 590 people watch the virtual tour on the radio website and over 55 people watched the virtual tour on the television website.

3. Participation in an internship program for students and establishment to internship programs for members of the community interested in broadcasting:

Ongoing - News Director--TCOM 422 class is all about training for careers in broadcasting. Areas of importance are news reporting and writing. The class assists as interns for Indiana Public Radio in news coverage during elections and special assignments.

Ongoing- Ball State Public Media Accelerator Program – Fellowships available for Video, Audio, Community Engagement, News, and Marketing to Ball State Students. This includes a weekly learning session with a professional in their field. This also includes mentoring and hands on experience in the students chosen field.

4. Provision for EEP/nondiscrimination training to management level personnel:

All Station employees are required to complete the CPB annual harassment prevention training.

Many * employees also attend local seminars and training opportunities to develop and enhance their skills and job performance, including skills to perform other jobs of interest.

5. Listing of all upper-level job opening with a media trade group with a broad-based membership:

All jobs are posted in trade groups such as CPB, NETA, IPBS, Current, Think Public Media, and Greater Public to encourage candidates already in the Public Media field to apply.

6. Listing on websites, Facebook, Twitter and Other Social media.
