FAMILY LIFE TODAY

Factor Tuesday, April 12 — The Effects of Fear; Fear is one of the core things that gets families "stuck." Ron Deal tells couples how to break out of the fear cycle, and rest in the sovereignty and power of God.

Wednesday, April 13 — Humility Overcomes Fear; When there is a root of pride present in one or both spouses, peace cannot flourish. Ron Deal explains what happens when we face our own fear and pride.

Thursday, April 14 — Who Was Chuck Colson? Like a stone cast into still water, each person has a ripple effect on the lives of those around him. Owen Strachan, an associate professor of Christian theology, joins Dennis Rainey in remembering the life of Prison Fellowship founder Chuck Colson, who died in April 2012.

Tuesday, May 10 — Eliminating Competition; Mothers, where do you feel your value comes from? Dr. Meg Meeker, author of the book, "The 10 Habits of Happy Mothers," explains that mothers, driven by egos and fear, often push their kids to become high achievers because they're afraid their children will miss out on opportunities and happiness if they don't.

Wednesday, May 11 — Enjoying the Simple Life; Feeling a little under the pile lately, Mom? Pediatrician Dr. Meg Meeker, a mother of four, encourages moms to enjoy their little ones while they have them underfoot. Meg instructs mothers to find a way to live simply and to remember that a mother's goal isn't to make her kids happy or to get them in the right schools, but to teach them to be good, solid people.

Thursday, May 12 — What Is Discipleship? What does it look like to make disciples ... of your kids? Jason Houser, founder of Seeds Family Worship, talks to parents about the importance of training their children in the ways of God. Jason reminds moms and dads that discipleship is a lifestyle, and can be done easily through everyday opportunities.

Wednesday, June 1 — The Truth Shall Set You Free; Where does a victim of abuse go for help? Biblical counselor Dan Allender, an expert in sexual abuse, tells victims of abuse to find hope in God, and reminds them that they are not alone.

Thursday, June 2 — Keeping Our Kids Safe from Predators; Did you know that 93 percent of abuse victims knew their perpetrators? Pastor Justin Holcomb, exploited at the age of 10 by a distant relative, provides parents ways on how to teach their children to protect their bodies from those who would do them harm.

Friday, June 3 — Protecting Your Child from Sexual Abuse; Parents are natural protectors, but they can't be with their kids 100 percent of the time. Pastor Justin Holcomb, author of the book, "God Made All of Me," talks about some of the ways parents can protect their children from child abuse, beginning with teaching their children how "beautifully and wonderfully" made their bodies really are.

FOCUS ON THE FAMILY

Thursday, April 21: Rescuing Your Teen Daughter from Secret Sins – I; Any desire or behavior that replaces God is sin. A young Christian woman describes how she lived with a “secret sin” — and how she discovered God’s healing and forgiveness. We’ll offer the same hope and help to your teen daughters.

Friday, April 22: Rescuing Your Teen Daughter from Secret Sins – II; Teen girls often keep secrets — but some secrets can destroy their lives. We’ll examine dangerous and hidden behaviors, and why parents need to create an open and safe dialogue about these issues with teen daughters. Learn how to connect with your teen.

Tuesday, April 26: Practical Advice for Grandparents – I; Grandparents, whether you live across the country or down the street, you play an important role in the lives of your grandchildren...family historian, mentor and nurturer! But building a relationship with kids isn’t always easy! Learn to get close and stay close to your grandchildren.

Wednesday, April 27: Practical Advice for Grandparents – II; Whether they live near or far away, you can have a strong and vibrant relationship with your grandchildren! Practical ideas on how you can connect with your grandkids whether they’re a toddler or a teen. Also, learn how to be involved, without interfering.

Wednesday, May 4: Managing Your Family’s Summer Schedule; The last thing you want to hear from your kids this summer is — “I’m bored!” But do you have a family plan for the upcoming summer months? We’ll explore creative ways to find that right balance between adventure and relaxation, and learn how to bond together as a family!

Thursday, May 5: Standing in the Gap for Our Nation; America needs your prayers, and one single prayer of faith can make a difference. Anne Graham Lotz encourages us to pray for our country by using Daniel's prayers for the nation of Israel as our example. It's an exciting look at what prayer can do for America.

Thursday, May 26: Sharing Your Faith in Everyday Life; As a twenty-something, with sweat dripping from his face, Rico Tice tried to share his faith with a friend. Pastor Tice will help you to boldly, yet naturally share your Christian faith with others. He'll help you to overcome your fear of rejection and tell others about the Gospel, with honesty and humility.

May 27: Guiding Your Family's Media Choices; With summer blockbusters hitting the theaters, it's more important than ever to make wise entertainment choices. One of our Plugged In media experts offers practical insight on how to carefully weigh what you and your child take in. He'll help you to determine how to find God's fingerprints in media.

Monday-Tuesday, June 6-7: Five Things I Know about People-- I & II; John Maxwell reveals the wisdom he's learned from observing five characteristics that are common to most people. Pastor Maxwell shares the principles to illustrate what happens when we demonstrate genuine love and affirmation toward others.

June 8: Discovering Rest in a Busy World; Most parents are overwhelmed with the never-ending "to do" list, and find themselves too busy to stop and smell the roses with their children. Vicki Courtney points out why we need to avoid making comparisons with others, and spend more time with God to fill our hearts and souls with the rest we so desperately crave.

ISSUE TWO

Problems and needs of families, youth and children.

The preceding issues were determined through phone calls from listeners, letters from listeners, and a "verbal" sampling of community leaders, and monitoring of other media sources (i.e. television, newspapers, etc.) as well as issues that have come to the attention of the American Family Association .

FAMILY LIFE TODAY

Tuesday, April 12 — The Effects of Fear; Fear is one of the core things that gets families "stuck." Ron Deal tells couples how to break out of the fear cycle, and rest in the sovereignty and power of God.

Wednesday, April 13 — Humility Overcomes Fear; When there is a root of pride present in one or both spouses, peace cannot flourish. Ron Deal explains what happens when we face our own fear and pride.

Thursday, April 14 — Who Was Chuck Colson? Like a stone cast into still water, each person has a ripple effect on the lives of those around him. Owen Strachan, an associate professor of Christian theology, joins Dennis Rainey in remembering the life of Prison Fellowship founder Chuck Colson, who died in April 2012.

Tuesday, May 17 — Desire and Identity Is homosexual desire right or wrong? Professors Heath Lambert and Denny Burk talk about the complexities of homosexual desire. Considering Jesus' words in Matthew 5:28, "that whoever even looks at his neighbor's wife to lust after her has committed adultery with her in his heart," Burk and Lambert remind us that God wants all of our desires to conform to His will, including homosexual desires.

Wednesday, May 18 — Is Temptation a Sin? Is being tempted to sin, a sin? Authors Denny Burk and Heath Lambert explain that while some sin is external and come from the outside, other sins are internal and stem from our own desires. Jesus never desired something that was forbidden Him, but we do. If you desire sin, then the desire itself is a sin.

Thursday, May 19 — Titus Two Triangle; For a man to lead his family spiritually, he needs to continue to point them to the gospel. Pastor Voddie Baucham says that we first need to understand that the gospel is important because of sin; because without the proclamation of sinful man, there is no proclamation of a gracious God.

Tuesday, June 28 — Having a Faith of Their Own; Can parents be proactive in developing lasting faith in their kids? Certainly! Professor and youth minister Kara Powell shares some proven ideas for churches and parents that will help kids develop their own faith. Powell elaborates on the power of warmth, modeling faith to our kids, and building a team of adults to mentor your teen.

Wednesday, June 29 — American Heritage Girls; Are you ready to see your daughter's dreams take flight? Patti Garibay, National Executive Director of the faith-based organization, American Heritage Girls, talks about how the organization began and how today it is helping girls experience new challenges, serve others, make new friends, and have loads of fun in the process.

Thursday, June 30— Trail Life USA; Is your son ready for adventure? Then look no further. Mark Hancock, Chief Executive Officer of Trail Life USA, a Christian outdoor adventure program for boys, tells how he helped launch Trail Life USA, which is now 700 troops strong in 49 states.

FOCUS ON THE FAMILY

Wednesday, April 6: Cultivating a Life of Character – II; New York Times columnist David Brooks offers unique insights on how Christians can build ramps to positively influence secular culture. He'll discuss with Jim Daly some of the common perceptions of Christianity and the impact of joyful, transparent living.

Thursday-Friday, April 7-8: Loving Others without Sacrificing Conviction – I & II; No one is beyond the reach of God's love. An amazing testimony of a man who grew up with gay parents, the hatred his family experienced from Christians, and how through a series of events he became a Christian—and eventually a pastor.

Thursday, May 5: Standing in the Gap for Our Nation; America needs your prayers, and one single prayer of faith can make a difference. Anne Graham Lotz encourages us to pray for our country by using Daniel's prayers for the nation of Israel as our example. It's an exciting look at what prayer can do for America.

Tuesday, May 17: Learning from History's Greatest Men and Women – I; Heroes are important, because they inspire us to accept the call of God in our lives and change the world. Eric Metaxas will share what we can learn and apply in our own lives from George Washington, Jackie Robinson, and Chuck Colson.

Wednesday, May 18: Learning from History's Greatest Men and Women – II; God can do amazing things in your life when you accept his call! Eric Metaxas will share what we can learn and apply in our own lives from Susanna Wesley, Hannah More, and Mother Teresa. A reminder that it does matter how we approach hardships and adversity.

Wednesday, June 8: Discovering Rest in a Busy World; Most parents are overwhelmed with the never-ending "to do" list, and find themselves too busy to stop and smell the roses with their children. Vicki Courtney points out why we need to avoid making comparisons with others, and spend more time with God to fill our hearts and souls with the rest we so desperately crave.

Wednesday, June 15: Longing for Happiness Is God happy? Does He want you to be happy? Randy Alcorn will explore God's happiness and will help us understand our deep longing for contentment. He'll talk about maintaining joy in the midst of suffering and finding everlasting happiness through a relationship with Christ.

FOCUS ON THE FAMILY

Monday, April 4: Preparing Your Son for Biblical Manhood; As a mom, you have a unique and powerful influence over your son. Author Vicki Courtney shares personal stories and wisdom that will help you understand the depth of the mother-son bond. She'll also equip you with some practical insights as you raise your son to be a godly man.

Monday, April 18: Turning My Life Around Can God forgive anyone? We'll hear the incredible testimony of a former member of the Manson Family who went to prison after trying to break Charlie Manson out of jail – a man who discovered God in a San Quentin prison cell. You won't want to miss this colorful story from the late Dennis Rice.

Thursday, April 21: Rescuing Your Teen Daughter from Secret Sins – I; Any desire or behavior that replaces God is sin. A young Christian woman describes how she lived with a “secret sin” — and how she discovered God's healing and forgiveness. We'll offer the same hope and help to your teen daughters.

Friday, April 22: Rescuing Your Teen Daughter from Secret Sins – II; Teen girls often keep secrets — but some secrets can destroy their lives. We'll examine dangerous and hidden behaviors, and why parents need to create an open and safe dialogue about these issues with teen daughters.

Tuesday, May 10: Rethinking Your Parenting Strategies – I; Maybe you know this parental frustration — multiple times this week your child has misbehaved, and nothing you do seems to work! We'll examine some effective strategies for parents — where you talk less, enforce consequences, and let your kids learn from their mistakes!

Wednesday, May 11: Rethinking Your Parenting Strategies – II; Some of the best lessons your kids can learn will come from life itself! We'll explore why parents should step back and see how kids will solve their own problems — rather than rushing in to help every time.

Monday-Tuesday, June 6-7: Five Things I Know about People-- I & II; John Maxwell reveals the wisdom he's learned from observing five characteristics that are common to most people. Pastor Maxwell shares the principles to illustrate what happens when we demonstrate genuine love and affirmation toward others.

Wednesday, June 8: Discovering Rest in a Busy World; Most parents are overwhelmed with the never-ending “to do” list, and find themselves too busy to stop and smell the roses with their children. Vicki Courtney points out why we need to avoid making comparisons with others, and spend more time with God to fill our hearts and souls with the rest we so desperately crave.

Thursday, June 30: Parenting Your Teen When Times are Tough; You are the exact parent your teenager needs! Dr. Greg Smalley will give you hope that regardless of the choices your teenager is making, or the parenting challenges you're facing, you can trust in God's plan for their future.

ISSUE FOUR

Unemployment, poverty, and financial difficulties.

The preceding issues were determined through phone calls from listeners, letters from listeners, and a "verbal" sampling of community leaders, and monitoring of other media sources (i.e. television, newspapers, etc.) As well as issues that have come to the attention of the American Family Association.

FOCUS ON THE FAMILY

Wednesday, April 13: The Power of Moms in Community; Moms need friendships — especially with other moms! We'll examine how a community of moms can help each other, offer mutual encouragement and support, and improve each other's health! Learn more about finding mom friends.

Monday, April 18: Turning My Life Around; Can God forgive anyone? We'll hear the incredible testimony of a former member of the Manson Family who went to prison after trying to break Charlie Manson out of jail – a man who discovered God in a San Quentin prison cell. You won't want to miss this colorful story from the late Dennis Rice.

Tuesday, April 26: Practical Advice for Grandparents – I" ... Grandparents, whether you live across the country or down the street, you play an important role in the lives of your grandchildren...family historian, mentor and nurturer! But building a relationship with kids isn't always easy! Learn to get close and stay close to your grandchildren.

Wednesday, April 27: Practical Advice for Grandparents – II; Whether they live near or far away, you can have a strong and vibrant relationship with your grandchildren! Practical ideas on how you can connect with your grandkids whether they're a toddler or a teen. Also, learn how to be involved, without interfering.

Thursday, May 5: Standing in the Gap for Our Nation; America needs your prayers, and one single prayer of faith can make a difference. Anne Graham Lotz encourages us to pray for our country by using Daniel's prayers for the nation of Israel as our example. It's an exciting look at what prayer can do for America.

Monday, May 23: Finding Financial Freedom in the Midst of Motherhood – I; With creativity and determination, you can use your God-given talents to help others, and make money in the process. "Money Saving Mom," Crystal Paine, shares various ways that you can financially ditch the 8-to-5 routine so you can have more time with your family.

Monday-Tuesday, June 6-7: Five Things I Know about People-- I & II; John Maxwell reveals the wisdom he's learned from observing five characteristics that are common to most people. FOCUS ON THE FAMILY

Tuesday, April 5: Cultivating a Life of Character – I; Integrity. Honesty. Humility. These are all character traits that we admire in others, but do we value them enough to put them into practice? New York Times columnist David Brooks shares observations from his studies on character, citing numerous examples.

Wednesday, April 6: Cultivating a Life of Character – II; New York Times columnist David Brooks offers unique insights on how Christians can build ramps to positively influence secular culture. He'll discuss with Jim Daly some of the common perceptions of Christianity and the impact of joyful, transparent living.

Monday, April 25: When Mom Friendships are Hard; Moms need other moms — but sometimes those relationships can be difficult. Jill Savage describes how moms can avoid comparisons, offer and accept each other's help, and deal with conflict in mature ways.

Thursday, May 26: Sharing Your Faith in Everyday Life; As a twenty-something, with sweat dripping from his face, Rico Tice tried to share his faith with a friend. Pastor Tice will help you to boldly, yet naturally share your Christian faith with others. He'll help you to overcome your fear of rejection and tell others about the Gospel, with honesty and humility.

Friday, May 27: Guiding Your Family's Media Choices; With summer blockbusters hitting the theaters, it's more important than ever to make wise entertainment choices. One of our Plugged In media experts offers practical insight on how to carefully weigh what you and your child take in. He'll help you to determine how to find God's fingerprints in media.

Monday, May 30: Honoring the Sacrifice for Freedom; Very few people understand what it means to sacrifice — better than America's soldiers. Vietnam veteran Dave Roever shares memories of war heroes he's encountered through his life. You'll also hear tributes from Focus listeners, remembering family and friends who gave their life - for your freedoms.

Monday-Tuesday, June 20-21: Healing the Father Wound – I & II; ...For forty years, former NFL player Ed Tandy McGlasson tried to earn the approval of others. He never knew his father, and had a strained relationship with his stepdad, as he set out to be the best football player he could be. But then God called him to preach, and to find healing in relationships with his wife and children.

Wednesday, June 22: God's Blueprint for a Healthy Marriage – I; It only takes a second to say I DO, but a lifetime to live it out. Find out what causes couples to put their marriage vows on the back burner, and how you can avoid becoming discontent in your own marriage.

Thursday, June 23: God's Blueprint for a Healthy Marriage – II; Tim and Kathy Keller are popular authors and ministry leaders, but they're not immune to the challenges of marriage. They talk candidly about their struggles, temper tantrums and need for patience. They'll offer wisdom to help you break through challenging roadblocks in YOUR marriage.
