Cox Radio 4th Quarter 2016 Issues & Programs

Issue- Health

Plugged Into Long Island 10/9/16 at 6-6:30AM (26 minutes)

Summary: Al Levine meets with guests from the Association for Mental Health and Wellness. They discuss the state of mental healthcare nationally and locally and treatments that are available and programs that help people under mental distress. They also discuss mental health related to Veterans, especially those with PTSD and/or traumatic brain injury.

Radio Health Journal 10/23/16 at 5:13AM (7 minutes)

During the Halloween season, many people seek out frightening experiences. This controlled fear has a psychological and developmental purpose, as an expert explains.

Radio Health Journal 10/30/16 at 5:00AM (12 minutes)

Lupus results when the immune system turns on the body, producing inflammatory attacks on virtually any organ. A minority of patients have lupus only on the skin, and while this is not life threatening, it can still be psychologically devastating. Experts discuss.

Radio Health Journal 11/20/16 at 5:13AM (8 minutes)

A variety of liver diseases may cause test results that mimic alcohol-related cirrhosis. One, known as PBC, is the second largest reason for liver transplants in women. A patient and an expert discuss.

Radio Health Journal 11/27/16 at 5:00AM (12 minutes)

Doctors have long known that people feel depressed when they're ill with a cold or the flu. But it may be more than simply feeling bad. Inflammation, which is part of many illnesses and infections, has been found in brain cells and is being implicated as a cause of depression., one of the world's most debilitating disorders. This creates the possibility of treatment with anti-inflammatory medications. Experts on the frontlines of this research discuss.

Radio Health Journal 11/27/16 at 5:13AM (7 minutes)

Patients who have bariatric surgery stand to lose not only lots of weight but often an identity and way of life as an obese person, which changes many of their relationships. Experts discuss these changes and means of coping with them.

Plugged Into Long Island 12/11/16 at 6-6:30AM (28 minutes)

Summary: Ted Lindner and Dr. Lisa Sciafani, from Memorial Sloan Kettering Cancer Center, discuss the importance of breast cancer screening and early detection to find breast cancers at an earlier more treatable stage. They also discuss those that are most at risk, why a mammography is considered the "gold standard" for breast cancer screening, and what it means if a woman is told she has dense breasts.

Radio Health Journal 12/4/15 at 5:13AM (8 minutes)

Children with serious chronic diseases often have a tough time transitioning from pediatric care, which has much support built in, to adult care, which has to be managed by the patient. Experts discuss how parents can make it easier with a gradual transition.

Radio Health Journal 12/25/16 at 5:13AM (8 minutes)

Some people simply have no rhythm. A small percentage may be "beat deaf," the rhythmic equivalent of tone deafness, and have a biological deficit in their body's timing mechanism. Experts discuss the problem and other body timekeeping clocks that may be affected.

Issue – Public Safety

Radio Health Journal 10/2/16 at 5:00AM (12 minutes)

Police confrontations with mentally ill subjects can quickly turn tragic, as neither side may understand the other. Specially trained crisis intervention teams have spread around the country to prevent deaths, injuries, and unnecessary incarceration. Experts discuss how CIT works.

Radio Health Journal 10/2/16 at 5:13AM (7 minutes)

Thanks in part to its Biblical past, the disfiguring disease leprosy carries more stigma than most diseases. We hear little about it today, but it still exists, and because it's now treatable, often the stigma is worse than the disease. An expert discusses.

Radio Health Journal 10/16/16 at 5:00AM (12 minutes)

Genetic testing is now available to consumers to satisfy a variety of desires—tracing heritage, gauging risk of inherited diseases in children, and screening for disease. However, risks come with what doctors say is incomplete knowledge. Experts discuss uses, risks, and future of consumer genetic testing.

Radio Health Journal 10/16/16 at 5:13AM (7 minutes)

Research is showing that a remarkably high proportion of homeless men have suffered a traumatic brain injury in the past, raising the possibility that TBIs may cause behaviors directly leading to homelessness. Experts discuss their research.

Radio Health Journal 10/23/16 at 5:00AM (12 minutes)

A new survey shows more pediatricians are experiencing vaccination refusal among patients, and while the reasons are evolving, they still often result from misinformation. An increasing proportion of doctors are kicking these families out of their practices if they can't change minds and behavior, but is that ethical? Whose rights are paramount—the unvaccinated child or the rest of the practice? Experts discuss.

Radio Health Journal 10/30/16 at 5:13AM (7 minutes)

Concussions have prompted many parents to question whether their sons should play high school football. A well known sportswriter and parent who was given nearly unlimited access to a high school team for a year shares the red flags he saw as well as the benefits of playing.

Radio Health Journal 11/6/16 at 5:00AM (12 minutes)

Skyrocketing drug overdose deaths are adding to the supply of transplantable organs. Contrary to the beliefs of many—and their designation as “high risk” donors--these are often high quality organs from youthful people. Even organs carrying disease that never would have been acceptable before are now able to be used if recipients accept them. Experts explain.

Plugged Into Long Island 11/6/16 6-6:30AM (27 minutes)

Summary: Sandy Brewster meets with Mike Ruiz and Kate Granger, from National Grid. They discuss the importance of gas safety and how to report gas emergencies. They also talk about gas options for low income customers.

Radio Health Journal 11/13/16 at 5:00AM (13 minutes)

Self-driving cars are being developed more rapidly than most experts thought possible. But even if they're technically possible, can we be assured of their safety? Trust is a major hurdle to adoption of what could be a major step forward in transportation, as experts discuss.

Plugged Into Long Island 11/27/16 at 6-6:30AM (27 minutes)

Summary: Ted Lindner and guest talk about the Suffolk County Police Department Lock It or Lose It campaign. Items are stolen from an average of 312 cars each month in Suffolk County. Many of these thefts are from unlocked vehicles. They urge listeners to always lock their vehicles, take their keys, close the windows, keep valuables out of sight and report suspicious activity.

Radio Health Journal 12/11/16 at 5:00AM (12 minutes)

Drug and alcohol addiction and abuse is rising. Researchers have found that “fear mongering” educational efforts to combat it in adolescents doesn't work. New science has discovered that certain personality types are predictably predisposed to addiction risk, and that educational efforts can be targeted to them effectively. Experts discuss.

Issue- Education

Radio Health Journal 10/9/16 at 5:00AM (11 minutes)

People who are adopted have more psychological problems than others, yet they also tend to have other psychological strengths. Experts, both themselves also adoptees, discuss the roots and outcomes of these issues as adopted children grow up.

Radio Health Journal 10/9/16 at 5:13AM (7 minutes)

Tickling is a unique application of the sense of touch that surprisingly has developmental and cultural importance. Experts discuss the science and sociology of tickling.

The Legislative Gazette 10/23/16 at 5:30-6am (25 minutes)

Pipeline companies are not having a lot of success in New York so far in 2016, Our political Observer Alan Chartock shares his thoughts on the continuing war of words between the Governor and State Comptroller, and the State Education Commissioner and SUNY chancellor visit the north country.

Radio Health Journal 11/6/16 at 5:13AM (7 minutes)

Virtually all animals with a backbone yawn, but scientists don't know what purpose it serves or why yawns are so contagious. Experts discuss what's known and what's behind a yawn.

Radio Health Journal 11/13/16 at 5:13AM (7 minutes)

A woman who suffered severe abuse as a child describes the mental health benefits of owning a dog, and an expert on the Americans with Disabilities Act discusses requirements for emotional support animals.

Radio Health Journal 11/20/16 at 5:00AM (12 minutes)

Doctors have often been advised to avoid emotions regarding patients in order to keep their decisions objective. However, this has led many patients to believe doctors don't care about them. A new movement in medicine seeks to reverse the trend and put compassion back in medicine, led by a "Healer's Art" class in many medical schools. Experts who teach the class explain.

Radio Health Journal 12/11/16 at 5:13AM (8 minutes)

Advancements in genetic science are often clouded in ethical controversy. Experts discuss a new platform where scientists and public can debate it, and from which education can be disseminated.

Radio Health Journal 12/25/16 at 5:00AM (12 minutes)

Many people feel that gifted children don't need any help because they're so talented. But many gifted kids are so bored in school they become disruptive and do poorly, so they're not identified and their need for a challenge isn't met. Other gifted children have disabilities, such as learning disabilities, that are not identified because they are masked by their gifts. Experts discuss how to meet the needs of these children educationally and emotionally.

Issue- Economy/Economic Development

The Legislative Gazette 10/2/16 at 5:30-6am (25 minutes)

Radio Health Journal 12/4/16 at 5:00AM (12 minutes)

Average life expectancy in the US is increasing, but among lower income people it is not, and the lifespan gap between rich and poor is increasing. Even middle class people have shorter lifespans than the rich. Experts discuss how a large income buys extra years of life, and why a lower income produces barriers to a longer life.

The Legislative Gazette 12/16/15 at 5:30-6am (25 minutes)

President-elect Donald Trump's promise to repeal the Affordable Health Care Act could leave New York billions of dollars in the hole, our political observer Alan Chartock shares his thoughts on Trump's impact on NY and immigration, and Governor Andrew Cuomo tells the state inspector general to launch an investigation into racial bias in the state prison system after a NY Times investigation.

Radio Health Journal 12/18/16 at 5:00AM (14 minutes)

The incoming Trump Administration and Congressional Republicans have made "repeal and replacement" of the Affordable Care Act one of their primary goals. But there are many options in how it might be replaced, and some popular aspects of Obamacare will likely remain. Experts discuss likely scenarios and how they would affect Medicaid, Medicare, insurance exchanges and the overall market.

Radio Health Journal 12/18/16 at 5:13AM (6 minutes)

Rich people receive deference that the rest of us don't, but how much can they get away with? Some young criminals have escaped jail by claiming "affluenza:" their wealthy parents instilled no moral compass, so they believed they could do anything without consequence.

The Legislative Gazette 12/25/15 at 5:30-6am (25 minutes)

To Have A Special Session or Not Have a Special Session, that is the question, our political observer Alan Chartock will share his erudite thoughts on that, and we'll look at the worldwide fight for 15 movement.

Issue- Environment

The Legislative Gazette 10/9/16 at 5:30-6am (25 minutes)

Governor Cuomo says SUNY Polytechnic Institute bears most of the responsibility for an alleged corruption scandal involving Cuomo's former top aides, our political observers shares his thoughts on the Governor's claim, and Congressman Maloney announces legislation to prevent the establishment of new anchorage sites in the Hudson River Valley.

The Legislative Gazette 10/16/16 at 5:30-6am (25 minutes)
