MORE INFORMATION

VoteVets.org (<http://votevets.org/>) continues to focus on matters including, but not limited to, foreign policy, energy security, veterans' unemployment, and opening military service to life-long Americans born to undocumented immigrants, as well as continued investment in care for veterans. More often than not, Veterans have a stake in the top issues of the day, and VoteVets.org (<http://votevets.org/>) is committed to getting their voices heard on these issues. For that reason, VoteVets.org (<http://votevets.org/>) has, and will continue to, work with all progressive allies representing labor, immigration, gay and lesbian rights, and environmentalists, when their issues coincide with the needs of troops and veterans.

Statistics

In the field, VoteVets Action Fund has:

- Over 400,000 supporters in all 50 states, including troops, veterans, military families, and their supporters
- State Captains organizing in all 50 states.
- Over 5 million voter contacts since 2006, spending over $2 million in direct mail, phone calls, and voter canvasses
- Over $30 million raised and spent since inception

On the air, VoteVets Action Fund has:

- Run over 51 TV commercials and radio spots in 32 states advocating the support of our friends.

- Aired over $22 million in television and radio ads, advocating re-election for allies and urging defeat of those who do not support troops and veterans.

In the media, VoteVets Action Fund has:

- Done over 560 interviews, news stories, and on air media appearances
- Dropped over 300 Letters to the Editors and Opinion Editorials throughout the 50 states from local veterans

Vice Chairmen & Senior Advisors

Senior Advisors are VoteVets.org's front-line leaders. They are integral to the organization in the fact that they are not only active volunteers, but they've also been trained by VoteVets.org in the art American politics. Whether it's political strategy, media strategy, or lobbying, these Iraq and Afghanistan veterans have successfully transitioned from military leadership to political leadership.
