

WRSE-FM, Elmhurst, IL

Quarterly Report on Representative Programming Addressing Community Issues

Fourth Quarter 2019 (October 1 – December 31, 2019)

Placed in the public file on January 31, 2020

ISSUE: Close Relationships

Title of Program or Program Segment: A Chance Encounter, and NASA Rock

Dates: 10/06/2019

Time: 6:30 pm

Duration: 1.5 hours

Brief Description: Romantic NASA rock? Check. A chance love story with heavy hitting music? Double check. First we chat with Tiny Kingdoms about their series and then venture into balancing careers and friends.

ISSUE: Finding Success

Title of Program or Program Segment: Live from the House of Blues: The JAB

Dates: 10/13/2019

Time: 6:30 pm

Duration: 1.5 hours

Brief Description: Join Adela for a special episode where she had the opportunity to interview former guests The JAB about their rise to success and the tools that got them there. Plus, what you can do to break into the industry.

ISSUE: Mental Health/Self-Care

Title of Program or Program Segment: Writing Breaks and First Takes

Dates: 11/10/2019

Time: 6:30 pm

Duration: 1.5 hours

Brief Description: Take a dive into the musical journeys of Scottie Long and Poor Calvin. Join them as they discuss what it's like writing after a long break (and why to take one) and what it was like recording with Poor Calvin.

ISSUE: Community Development

Title of Program or Program Segment: New Directions and Nasty Beats

Dates: 11/17/2019

Time: 6:30 pm

Duration: 1.5 hours

Brief Description: Join Adela and Dan as they begin the show chatting about modern rock. Plus, thoughts on recent venue closures and what we should do about it.

ISSUE: Radio Industry Success for Students

Title of Program or Program Segment: 2019 Recap and Jammin' with Rap

Dates: 12/01/2019

Time: 6:30 pm

Duration: 1.5 hours

Brief Description: The year is almost up, which means it's time for a recap! Join Adela and Dan as they talk with industry professionals on what got them started, how they got where they are, and give advice for students and others wanting to explore the industry.