

WCIU-TV QUARTERLY ISSUES REPORT
January 1 - March 31, 2015

ECONOMICS

Saturday

26 N. Halsted

6:30a-7a

George Blaise host this 30 minute issue responsive talk show that explores a variety of current topics which reflect the current issues and concerns of the Chicagoland area.

It is during times of economic strife and recession that we historically witness an upsurge in the entrepreneurial spirit. How do you go about the process of starting your own business and what does it take to truly become your own boss? Our guest: Darlene Tate – Author and Motivational Speaker.

DePaul University Economics Professor Antonio Morales Pita reflects on his memoirs as a Cuban ex-patriot in light of the US State Departments moves to normalize relations between Washington and Havana. Our guest: Antonio Morales-pita – Economics Professor, DePaul.

Elderly homeowners on Chicago's south side have been the targets of a predatory lending mortgage scheme that is undermining the economic stability of many families. Several organizations are working to bring the perpetrators of this fraud to justice. Our guest: Rev. Robin Hood – Founder, Illinois Anti-Foreclosure Coalition.

WCIU-TV QUARTERLY ISSUES REPORT January 1 - March 31, 2015

EDUCATION

Saturday

26 N. Halsted

6:30a-7a

George Blaise host this 30 minute issue responsive talk show that explores a variety of current topics which reflect the current issues and concerns of the Chicagoland area.

The U.S. court of appeals for the seventh circuit recently struck down the Illinois law prohibiting the carrying of concealed firearms as unconstitutional under the second amendment. The Illinois firearm Concealed Carry Act became effective on July 9, 2013. Since then, a number of training facilities have begun to operate in the Chicagoland area. Our guest: Marc Jens – Retired Cook County Sherriff/ Weapons trainer.

DePaul University Economics Professor Antonio Morales Pita reflects on his memoires as a Cuban ex-patriot in light of the US State Departments moves to normalize relations between Washington and Havana. Our guest: Antonio Morales-pita – Economics Professor, DePaul.

Elderly homeowners on Chicago's south side have been the targets of a predatory lending mortgage scheme that is undermining the economic stability of many families. Several organizations are working to bring the perpetrators of this fraud to justice. Our guest: Rev. Robin Hood – Founder, Illinois Anti-Foreclosure Coalition.

As Chicago Public Schools system continues to founder, new strategies to improve public education are vital. Public involvement and parental engagement are keys to the success of Chicago students and families. Our guest: Phillip Jackson – Founder, The Black Star project.

Black History Month inspires a conversation of current events locally and nationally including police brutality, African American representation in Hollywood as well as current exhibitions and lectures at the DuSable Museum of African American History. Our guest: Pemon Rami – Education and outreach Director, DuSable Museum.

WCIU-TV QUARTERLY ISSUES REPORT
January 1 - March 31, 2015

ENTERTAINMENT & LEISURE

Chicago Football Now

1/03/2015 Sat Chicago Football Now 10:30:00 AM 11:00:00 AM
1/10/2015 Sat Chicago Football Now 10:30:00 AM 11:00:00 AM
1/17/2015 Sat Chicago Football Now 10:30:00 AM 11:00:00 AM
1/24/2015 Sat Chicago Football Now 10:30:00 AM 11:00:00 AM
1/31/2015 Sat Chicago Football Now 10:30:00 AM 11:00:00 AM
2/07/2015 Sat Chicago Football Now 10:30:00 AM 11:00:00 AM

Chicago Wolves Hockey

3/15/2015 Sun Chicago Wolves Hockey Chicago Wolves vs, Rockford Icehogs 03:00:00 PM 06:00:00 PM

Specials

2/08/2015 Sun We Have a Dream <We Have A Dream 2015> 02:00:00 PM 04:00:00 PM

Saturday

26 N. Halsted 6:30a-7a

George Blaise host this 30 minute issue responsive talk show that explores a variety of current topics which reflect the current issues and concerns of the Chicagoland area.

Since the 1950s, Eddie The Chief Clearwater has been one of the pioneers in modern Blues and Rock n Roll. In this episode we reflect on the life and times of a legend in Chicago music. Our guest – Eddie The Chief Clearwater.

A legendary Chicago media personality stops by to discuss current events in Chicago news and culture. Our guest: Cliff Kelley – Radio Host, WVON 1690AM.

As the last days of winter fade away, it is time to begin planning how to improve our outdoor spaces including lawn, garden and landscaping. Our guest: Mike Nowak - Master Gardener.

WCIU-TV QUARTERLY ISSUES REPORT
January 1 - March 31, 2015

HEALTH

Saturday

26 N. Halsted

6:30a-7a

George Blaise host this 30 minute issue responsive talk show that explores a variety of current topics which reflect the current issues and concerns of the Chicagoland area.

As the last days of winter fade away, it is time to begin planning how to improve our outdoor spaces including lawn, garden and landscaping. Our guest: Mike Nowak - Master Gardener.

Black History Month inspires a conversation of current events locally and nationally including police brutality, African American representation in Hollywood as well as current exhibitions and lectures at the DuSable Museum of African American History. Our guest: Pemon Rami – Education and outreach Director, DuSable Museum.

WCIU-TV QUARTERLY ISSUES REPORT
January 1 - March 31, 2015

LABOR & EMPLOYMENT

Saturday

26 N. Halsted

6:30a-7a

George Blaise host this 30 minute issue responsive talk show that explores a variety of current topics which reflect the current issues and concerns of the Chicagoland area.

It is during times of economic strife and recession that we historically witness an upsurge in the entrepreneurial spirit. How do you go about the process of starting your own business and what does it take to truly become your own boss? Our guest: Darlene Tate – Author and Motivational Speaker.

A legendary Chicago media personality stops by to discuss current events in Chicago news and culture. Our guest: Cliff Kelley – Radio Host, WVON 1690AM.

WCIU-TV QUARTERLY ISSUES REPORT

January 1 - March 31, 2015

LOCAL SERVICES

REGULAR PROGRAMS

Monday - Friday

You & Me This Morning 6am-9am

Jeanne Sparrow & Melissa Forman co-host a morning mix of news, weather, traffic and lifestyle reports

Saturdays 6:30a-7a

26 N. Halsted

George Blaise host this 30 minute issue responsive talk show that explores a variety of current topics which reflect the current issues and concerns of the Chicagoland area.

The U.S. court of appeals for the seventh circuit recently struck down the Illinois law prohibiting the carrying of concealed firearms as unconstitutional under the second amendment. The Illinois firearm Concealed Carry Act became effective on July 9, 2013. Since then, a number of training facilities have begun to operate in the Chicagoland area. Our guest: Marc Jens – Retired Cook County Sherriff/ Weapons trainer.

Black History Month inspires a conversation of current events locally and nationally including police brutality, African American representation in Hollywood as well as current exhibitions and lectures at the DuSable Museum of African American History. Our guest: Pemon Rami – Education and Outreach Director, DuSable Museum.

Elderly homeowners on Chicago's south side have been the targets of a predatory lending mortgage scheme that is undermining the economic stability of many families. Several organizations are working to bring the perpetrators of this fraud to justice. Our guest: Rev. Robin Hood – Founder, Illinois Anti-Foreclosure Coalition.

WCIU-TV QUARTERLY ISSUES REPORT

January 1 - March 31, 2015

RELIGION, RACE & CULTURAL ISSUES

Sunday-Religious programming

Apostolic Church	8a-9a
Joel Osteen	9a-9:30a
Key of David	9:30a-10a
In Touch with Dr. Charles Stanley	10a-10:30a
Bill Winston Ministries	10:30a-11a

Saturdays 6:30a-7a

26 N. Halsted

George Blaise host this 30 minute issue responsive talk show that explores a variety of current topics which reflect the current issues and concerns of the Chicagoland area.

Since the 1950s, Eddie The Chief Clearwater has been one of the pioneers in modern Blues and Rock n Roll. In this episode we reflect on the life and times of a legend in Chicago music. Our guest – Eddie The Chief Clearwater.

DePaul University Economics Professor Antonio Morales Pita reflects on his memoirs as a Cuban ex-patriot in light of the US State Departments moves to normalize relations between Washington and Havana. Our guest: Antonio Morales-pita – Economics Professor, DePaul.

Black History Month inspires a conversation of current events locally and nationally including police brutality, African American representation in Hollywood as well as current exhibitions and lectures at the DuSable Museum of African American History. Our guest: Pemon Rami – Education and Outreach Director, DuSable Museum.

A legendary Chicago media personality stops by to discuss current events in Chicago news and culture. Our guest: Cliff Kelley – Radio Host, WVON 1690AM.

As Chicago Public Schools system continues to founder, new strategies to improve public education are vital. Public involvement and parental engagement are keys to the success of Chicago students and families. Our guest: Phillip Jackson – Founder, The Black Star project.

WCIU-TV QUARTERLY ISSUES REPORT
January 1 - March 31, 2015

YOUTH

Saturdays

6:30a-7a

26 N. Halsted

George Blaise host this 30 minute issue responsive talk show that explores a variety of current topics which reflect the current issues and concerns of the Chicagoland area.

Black History Month inspires a conversation of current events locally and nationally including police brutality, African American representation in Hollywood as well as current exhibitions and lectures at the DuSable Museum of African American History. Our guest: Pemon Rami – Education and outreach Director, DuSable Museum.

As Chicago Public Schools system continues to founder, new strategies to improve public education are vital. Public involvement and parental engagement are keys to the success of Chicago students and families. Our guest: Phillip Jackson – Founder, The Black Star project.

]

WCIU-TV QUARTERLY ISSUES REPORT
January 1 - March 31, 2015

ELDERLY

Saturday

26 N. Halsted

6:30a-7a

George Blaise host this 30 minute issue responsive talk show that explores a variety of current topics which reflect the current issues and concerns of the Chicagoland area.

Elderly homeowners on Chicago's south side have been the targets of a predatory lending mortgage scheme that is undermining the economic stability of many families. Several organizations are working to bring the perpetrators of this fraud to justice. Our guest: Rev. Robin Hood – Founder, Illinois Anti-Foreclosure Coalition.

WCIU-TV QUARTERLY ISSUES REPORT
January 1 - March 31, 2015

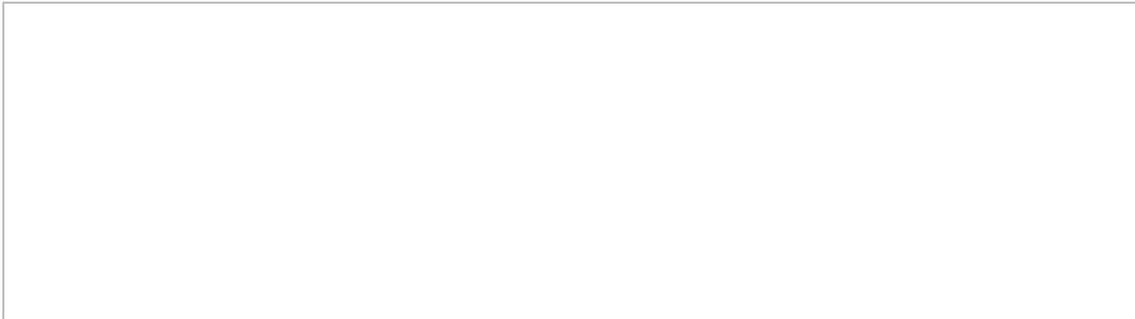

DRUGS & ADDICTIONS

Saturdays

6:30a-7a

26 N. Halsted

George Blaise host this 30 minute issue responsive talk show that explores a variety of current topics which reflect the current issues and concerns of the Chicagoland area.

WCIU-TV QUARTERLY ISSUES REPORT January 1 - March 31, 2015

COMMUNITY/FAMILY ISSUES

Saturday

26 N. Halsted

6:30a-7a

George Blaise host this 30 minute issue responsive talk show that explores a variety of current topics which reflect the current issues and concerns of the Chicagoland area.

The U.S. court of appeals for the seventh circuit recently struck down the Illinois law prohibiting the carrying of concealed firearms as unconstitutional under the second amendment. The Illinois firearm Concealed Carry Act became effective on July 9, 2013. Since then, a number of training facilities have begun to operate in the Chicagoland area. Our guest: Marc Jens – Retired Cook County Sherriff/ Weapons trainer.

DePaul University Economics Professor Antonio Morales Pita reflects on his memoires as a Cuban ex-patriot in light of the US State Departments moves to normalize relations between Washington and Havana. Our guest: Antonio Morales-pita – Economics Professor, DePaul.

Elderly homeowners on Chicago's south side have been the targets of a predatory lending mortgage scheme that is undermining the economic stability of many families. Several organizations are working to bring the perpetrators of this fraud to justice. Our guest: Rev. Robin Hood – Founder, Illinois Anti-Foreclosure Coalition.

As the last days of winter fade away, it is time to begin planning how to improve our outdoor spaces including lawn, garden and landscaping. Our guest: Mike Nowak - Master Gardener.

Black History Month inspires a conversation of current events locally and nationally including police brutality, African American representation in Hollywood as well as current exhibitions and lectures at the DuSable Museum of African American History. Our guest: Pemon Rami – Education and outreach Director, DuSable Museum.