WMJJ
 Quarterly Issues/Programs List

WMJJ provides its listeners with programming and public service announcements that address issues of concern to our local community. Among the issues determined to be of most concern to the community during the preceding calendar quarter were:

- Arts and Culture: Salvation Army's Red Kettle Commissioner Kenith Potter talks about the need state wide for assistance in the homeless community then Kathy Stokes with the AARP talks about the scams to watch out for as we get into tax season in the NewYear.
- Crime and Justice: Sarah DeArmond from Voiceless Behind Bars talks about her efforts to provide lawyers and pay legal fees for the wrongfully convicted in Alabama.
- Health and Wellness: Robert Ginyard is a prostate cancer survivor, patent advocate, Chair of the Zero Prostate Cancer board of directors and host of the Internationally overheard podcast.

Section I
