

WEVO, WEVS, WEVC, WEVQ, WEVF, WEVJ, WEVN, WEVH

Issues and Program Report

3rd Quarter 2022

The following is a listing of some of the significant issues responded to by NHPR along with the most significant programming treatment of those issues for the period listed above. The listing is by no means exhaustive.

Topic: Crime
Date:	Time:	Duration (mm:ss):	Program Title	Description
9/27/22	4:04 pm	:45	All Things Considered	A former police chief who worked in both Hancock and Richmond is facing two felony counts for allegedly submitting falsified time cards. NHPR's Todd Bookman reports.
9/15/22	7:04 am	:36	Morning Edition	The U.S. Department of Labor says it identified child labor violations at several New Hampshire food establishments. More than 100 teenagers employed at nine McDonalds locations in Vermont and New Hampshire logged excessive work hours... and two were burnt while doing restricted work, federal regulators said. Several Tuscan Brands locations in Salem, Portsmouth and Newburyport, Massachusetts, also allowed some teenage employees to work too many hours, according to the department of labor. Federal officials encouraged employers to make sure they understand what the law allows when it comes to their youngest employees.
9/15/22	9:32 am	1:07	Morning Edition	Advocates in the state's Brazilian community say many domestic violence cases go unreported. NHPR's Gaby Lozada reports on a workshop hosted Wednesday [yesterday] to inform community members about their rights.

Topic: Education
Date:	Time:	Duration (mm:ss):	Program Title	Description
9/21/22	5:04 pm	:33	All Things Considered	The New Hampshire Department of Education is advertising a new partnership that offers free online tutoring to all students grades 6 through 12. Students in public, private, and homeschool can get 1 on 1 tutoring 24/7 through the site tutor DOT come [tutor.com]. Districts can sign up for the program...or students can register individually.

				The partnership is being paid for with federal COVID relief funds... and is aimed at addressing learning loss. The contract with tutor.com is close to 5 million dollars...for the next three years.
9/19/22	8:04 am	:36	Morning Edition	Dartmouth College is re-establishing the position of ombudsman [om-buds-min]...announcing the hire of a former Cornell official to fill the role. NHPR's Todd Bookman reports
9/19/22	8:32 am	:28	Morning Edition	N-H-T-I and the state department of environmental services will partner to study how vegetables may be impacted by a class of contaminants found in soil. P-FAS [pee-fas] chemicals have been widely used in household products since the 1940s...there are ongoing studies into how the chemical affects human health, including multiple types of cancer. The new study will look at how common crops found in backyard vegetable gardens, including tomatoes, basil and radishes, may leech the chemicals from the soil.

Topic: Politics
Date:	Time:	Duration (mm:ss):	Program Title	Description
9/21/22	6:04 am	:58	Morning Edition	Former Secretary of State Mike Pompeo was back in New Hampshire today [TUESDAY] as he weighs a 2024 presidential run. As NHPR's Josh Rogers reports, Pompeo criticized President Joe Biden for policies he says undercut the nation's core principles.
9/15/22	5:04 pm	:58	All Things Considered	GOP Senate candidate Don Bolduc now says President Joe Biden won the 2020 presidential race legitimately. Bolduc HAD earlier repeated false claims that Donald Trump was the rightful winner in 2020. But during an appearance on Fox News today [Thursday], Bolduc said he's changed his mind on the issue.
9/15/22`	6:04 am	1:01	Morning Edition	After a string of victories Tuesday night by Republican candidates aligned with President Trump, New Hampshire Democrats running for re-election launched their campaigns today [Wednesday]. As NHPR's Todd Bookman reports, they're highlighting what they call the extreme positions of their GOP opponents.

--	--	--	--	---

Topic: Health
Date:	Time:	Duration (mm:ss):	Program Title	Description
9/23/22	5:04 pm	:51	All Things Considered	COVID-19 continues to circulate in New Hampshire's correctional facilities. This week's update from the state health department lists three jails with active or recently closed outbreaks. That includes the Valley Street Jail in Manchester, which has nine active cases. An outbreak at the Merrimack County jail ended several days ago, according to the superintendent. The Rockingham County jail had about a dozen cases as of Friday.
9/19/22	4:32 pm	:48	All Things Considered	More people are now eligible to get the monkeypox vaccine in New Hampshire. NHPR's Paul Cuno-Booth [COO-no booth] has more.
9/20/22	8:04 am	:29	Morning Edition	Health care organizations in the North Country plan to launch a van-based mobile clinic to bring routine medical care closer to residents of the sparsely populated region. The goal is to increase access for people who face transportation or other barriers. The North Country Health Consortium and other partners are still gathering input on which services to offer. That'll likely include preventive care like screenings and immunizations. The van will also be set up for telehealth appointments. Organizers say it should be up and running later this year.

Topic: Environment/energy
Date:	Time:	Duration (mm:ss):	Program Title	Description
9/28/22	5:04 pm	:59	All Things Considered	State officials and energy leaders got a first look at a long-awaited study on the value of small scale renewable energy resources today [Wednesday]. As NHPR's Mara Hoplamazian reports, the study could help determine new rules for net metering.
9/27/22	7:04 am	:49	Morning Edition	The electric utility company Until is asking state regulators to approve a big rate hike for its customers this winter. As NHPR's Mara Hoplamazian reports...the company is the last of New Hampshire's four major utilities to raise prices.

9/20/22	5:04 pm	:56	All Things Considered	State regulators have denied a request from environmental advocacy groups to come up with specific rules for so-called advanced recycling facilities. NHPR's Mara Hoplamazian has more.