

Radio Community Issues/Programming Quarterly

Radio Community Issues/Programming Quarterly

October 1, 2019 - December 31, 2019

Joe Valenzano (Part II)

WGVU Mon December 30, 2019

Joseph Valenzano returns to Common Threads to continue our conversation on how divine realities are explored in current pop culture and media. Joe...

Body of missing 5-year-old Michigan boy found in pond

WGVU Fri December 27, 2019

Police say the body of a 5-year-old western Michigan boy has been found in a rural pond, a day after he was reported missing while playing outdoors on

Flint families' file lawsuit against the state and the city's school distr WGVU Fri December 27, 2019

There's new movement in a lawsuit filed by several Flint families against the state and the city's school district. The families are arguing their...

Attorney General Nessel walks back on comments about Nassar inv WGVU Fri December 27, 2019

Michigan's attorney general is backing away from comments earlier this week that she had suspended an investigation into Michigan State's handling of

The Leviathan

WGVU Fri December 27, 2019

The Leviathan is the greatest untold Espionage Story of the Civil War, the chief protagonist the iron steamship, The Great Eastern. Author Paul Stack...

Mother Knows Best

WGVU Fri December 27, 2019

Mother Knows Best, author Kira Peikoff presenting this novel described as a domestic thriller.

Eugenia Zukerman

WGVU Fri December 27, 2019

Acclaimed flutist Eugenia Zukerman presents a lyrical memoir of Coping with Forgetfulness, Confusion, and a Dreaded Diagnosis.

When We Exercise

WGVU Fri December 27, 2019

Professional Athlete Megan Roche joins TMS to give an annual Year End report of how, why, where, and when we exercise, according to Strava.

Labyrinth of Ice

WGVU Fri December 27, 2019

Labyrinth of Ice: The Triumphant and Tragic Greely Polar Expedition takes us back to a unique period in time. We talk to Buddy Levy about his...

Consumers Energy and BBB Serving Western Michigan warning cust WGVU Thu December 26, 2019

The Better Business Bureau Serving Western Michigan is warning businesses and the public of a utilities scam. The scam begins with a phone call to a

Ottawa County's ground water crisis

WGVU Thu December 26, 2019

Lake Michigan, it's one of the planet's largest freshwater bodies. And yet, the people who live within view of it - or farm Ottawa County's fertile...

Indiana Dunes National Park eyes erosion-fighting sand traps

WGVU Thu December 26, 2019

The National Park Service and a northwestern Indiana town will install sand traps along the Lake Michigan shoreline to combat beach erosion at the...

Michigan synagogue member sues anti-Israel protesters, city

WGVU Thu December 26, 2019

A member of a Michigan synagogue is suing anti-Israel protesters and Ann Arbor city leaders over 16 years of protests outside the Beth Israel...

Endangered Black Rhino born at Lansing area zoo

WGVU Thu December 26, 2019

A Michigan zoo has received a very special holiday present. It's not exactly a babe lying in a manger. But it's close. Officials at the Potter Park...

Mr. Waffles Loves Design

WGVU Thu December 26, 2019

The book, Mr. Waffles Loves Design, traces the inspiration behind many iconic designs, reminding us that design is for everyone, including our furry

Fry Bread

WGVU Thu December 26, 2019

Fry Bread by Kevin Nobel Maillard is a Native American family story told in lively and powerful verse. We talk to Kevin.

The Clutter Remedy

WGVU Thu December 26, 2019

The Clutter Remedy by Marla Stone is a guide to getting organized for those who love their stuff. We take notes with Marla.

Such a Pretty Girl

WGVU Thu December 26, 2019

Such a Pretty Girl, A Story of Struggle and Empowerment with author Nadina LaSpina.

AG: Drug law affects opioid case, clergy probe to go longer

WGVU Tue December 24, 2019

State Attorney General Dana Nessel said Monday that lawmakers should revisit Michigan's unique law that shields drugmakers from product liability...

State: Crews to begin dredging Lake Superior harbor

WGVU Tue December 24, 2019

Crews were expected to start removing more copper mining waste rock known as stamp sands that have built up in an Upper Peninsula waterway and...

Celebrating 35 years of America's Tallest Singing Christmas Tree

WGVU Tue December 24, 2019

It's Christmas Eve. We ring in the holiday with the Mona Shores High School Choir and Orchestra's celebration of the 35th season of America's Tallest

Virtue Cider

WGVU Tue December 24, 2019

Virtue Cider in Fennville celebrates all year long. TMS roving microphone on site this past summer.

Fitness Testing

WGVU Tue December 24, 2019

This would make a cool gift: the gift of getting your fitness tested. Shelley goes through the fitness testing experience, just in time for the new...

Michigan State Police will be looking for drunk drivers this Christmas

WGVU Tue December 24, 2019

The Michigan State Police say they will be out in full force during their annual drive safe campaign. During the Christmas holiday last year, there...

Body found on Michigan property confirmed as missing woman

WGVU Tue December 24, 2019

Authorities have confirmed that a body found in northwestern Michigan is of a 47-year-old Detroit-area woman who was reported missing in October. The

Lansing to begin taking recreational marijuana applications

WGVU Tue December 24, 2019

The city of Lansing opens a 30-day application period today for businesses hoping to operate adult-use recreational marijuana operations. City Clerk...

Judge rules Michigan election law too restrictive for independents

WGVU Tue December 24, 2019

A federal district judge has struck down a Michigan election law as too restrictive for independents running for state office. A lawsuit was filed by

Community Choice Foundation

WGVU Tue December 24, 2019

Here's an opportunity to get a scholarship. Community Choice Foundation expands its scholarship program, with Community Engagement Manager Jeremy...

Bridge Street Ministries

WGVU Tue December 24, 2019

The Roving Microphone reminds us of the good work Bridge Street Ministries is doing on Bridge Street, this past summer breaking ground for the future.

Mike Bond

WGVU Tue December 24, 2019

Author/Poet Mike Bond writes the book The Drum that Beats within Us, poems to inspire.

Tourist Talk

WGVU Tue December 24, 2019

Tourist Talk, where to go, what to do come the next 30 days in West Michigan. We talk to Promote Michigan's Dianna Stampfler.

Grocer's Daughter

WGVU Tue December 24, 2019

Grocers' Daughter is known for its Chocolate brand, just in time for the holidays. We catch up with Jody Hayden from Empire, MI.

Right to Life submits signatures to outlaw abortion procedure WGVU Mon December 23, 2019

An anti-abortion group has turned in petition signatures seeking to outlaw the dilation-and-evacuation procedure. It's expected the Legislature will

MI lawmakers propose protections for whistleblowers WGVU Mon December 23, 2019

Michigan lawmakers across the aisle want to pass more protections for whistleblowers who risk losing their jobs for reporting wrongdoing. Their...

Governor: Update on Flint Water Crisis Probe to Come in 2020 WGVU Mon December 23, 2019

An update is expected at the start of 2020 regarding a criminal investigation into the Flint water crisis that was one of the worst man-made...

Michigan panel backs $25M for land buys, recreation upgrades WGVU Mon December 23, 2019

A Michigan panel is recommending $25.6 million worth of grants for outdoor recreation development projects and land purchases. The funding would come...

Michigan Company to Test Food-Delivery Robots in Ann Arbor WGVU Mon December 30, 2019

A Michigan company that makes self-driving food delivery vehicles will begin testing them out in Ann Arbor in January with patrons from four...

Legal marijuana sales may spark Midwest interstate tension WGVU Mon December 30, 2019

Retailers legally selling marijuana for the past month in Michigan say they have drawn customers from surrounding Midwestern states where the drug...

Body of Michigan Man Who Went Missing Christmas Eve Is Found WGVU Mon December 30, 2019

A suburban Flint man who went missing on Christmas Eve has been found dead, according to police. The body of 25-year-old Kevin Bacon of Swartz Creek...

Michigan OKs 3 businesses for home deliveries of marijuana WGVU Mon December 30, 2019

Three Michigan businesses that sell recreational marijuana have won the right to begin making home deliveries of pot. The Michigan Department of...

Drivers: Rest the Phone or Go Hands-Free in Battle Creek WGVU Mon December 30, 2019

Police in Battle Creek are enforcing a local ban on the handheld use of a phone while driving. The prohibition has been on the books for months, but...

Report says passing drivers licenses for all would generate $100 mill WGVU Mon December 23, 2019

Passing the Drive SAFE bills granting driver's licenses for all residents regardless of immigration status could lead to $12 million dollars in annual

Joe Valenzano WGVU Sun December 22, 2019

We're joined by University of Dayton professor Joseph Valenzano. Dr. Valenzano joins us to talk about how divine realities are explored in current pop

Newcomers kill Isle Royale National Park's oldest gray wolf

WGVU Fri December 20, 2019

Officials say the oldest gray wolf at Isle Royale National Park has died. The 12-year-old male apparently was killed by other wolves on the Lake...

Whitmer signs budget deal, internet gambling bills

WGVU Fri December 20, 2019

Governor Gretchen Whitmer has signed the final bills that make up a re-negotiated budget deal reached with Republicans in the Legislature. State

TrueNorth Holiday Spirit: Helping Those In Need

WGVU Fri December 20, 2019

More than 19-hundred children in Newaygo County are going to have a brighter Christmas. That's thanks to support from True North Community Services....

Star Wars The Rise Of Skywalker in western Michigan theaters

WGVU Fri December 20, 2019

Star Wars: The Rise Of Skywalker is in theaters. Ron Van Timmeran from Studio C has seen it, and talks to WGVU's Scott Vander Werf about that film,...

US man jailed in Russia on spying charges loses job

WGVU Fri December 20, 2019

AUBURN HILLS, Mich. (AP) — A Michigan man who has been imprisoned in Russia on spying charges for nearly a year has lost his job with an automotive...

Whitmer vetoes bill that would have ended deer baiting ban

WGVU Fri December 20, 2019

LANSING, Mich. (AP) — As promised, Gov. Gretchen Whitmer vetoed legislation that would have ended Michigan's ban on using bait to hunt deer or elk,...

GR Protesters demand Amazon end contract with ICE

WGVU Fri December 20, 2019

"No contracts with ICE when immigrants pay the price....no contract with ICE when immigrants pay the price." On Thursday afternoon, members of the Grand

VAI's Purple Community

WGVU Fri December 20, 2019

We discuss how to get involved with the VAI's Purple Community. Senior Event Coordinator Ashley Owen talks about joining the Marathon Training Team...

Kids and Cops

WGVU Fri December 20, 2019

Kids and Cops is a strong partnership between GRPD and the Boys and Girls Club of Grand Rapids. We share a feature that takes you to the bonding in...

The Unexpected Journey of Caring

WGVU Fri December 20, 2019

Author/Caregiver Zachary White co-writes the book The Unexpected Journey of Caring: The Transformation from the Loved One to Caregiver, sharing his...

Real time Updates on Santa's Location

WGVU Fri December 20, 2019

Chevrolet and Onstar offer real time updates on Santa's Location. Beginning Christmas Eve, in car technology will provide real time updates during St...

Men's Sheds

WGVU Fri December 20, 2019

We catch up with the local organizer of Men's Sheds, Christopher Wilson with the details on this men only bonding vision for 2020.

Senior Concerns

WGVU Fri December 20, 2019

Senior Concerns, guests from the Area Agency on Aging of Western Michigan today discuss the Information and Assistance Services available. We talk to

Steve Talaga

WGVU Fri December 20, 2019

Music in the House, Musician Steve Talaga and daughter Lauren talk about this weekend's performance, including the arrangement I Put A Spell on You by

Roanoke Ranch for Kids

WGVU Fri December 20, 2019

We take you to the ranch. This past summer, many gathered on the grounds of Roanoke Ranch for Kids to celebrate the success and raise the friends.

Sanford House Addiction Treatment Center

WGVU Fri December 20, 2019

Addiction is real in West Michigan. Guests from the Sanford House Addiction Treatment Center discuss how to handle the holiday season with Founder Rae

Deloitte From the Corner Office

WGVU Fri December 20, 2019

Community Connections with a West Michigan Leader from the Corner Office. TMS roving microphone talking to a leader from Deloitte.

Nutrition Goals

WGVU Fri December 20, 2019

We keep you focused on your Nutrition goals through the Holiday season, Jessi Holden, Registered Dietician Nutritionist, Mary Free Bed Rehabilitation

Nutrition Goals

WGVU Fri December 20, 2019

We keep you focused on your Nutrition goals through the Holiday season, Jessi Holden, Registered Dietician Nutritionist, Mary Free Bed Rehabilitation

The Countess Choir Woman

WGVU Fri December 20, 2019

Author Eleanor Cripps writes the book The Countess Choir Woman, taking us back to a unique piece of history. We talk to Ms. Cripps.

Trusts

WGVU Fri December 20, 2019

Get your finances in shape for 2020. Legacy Trust's Kelly DeRidder shares information starting and updating your trusts, plus having the family

Meals on Wheels

WGVU Fri December 20, 2019

Meals on Wheels of Western Michigan provide a holiday meal today, on the senior complexes' of Delaware Manor and Mt. Mercy. We talk to CEO of Meals,

Twas a Magical Night Around Grand Rapids

WGVU Fri December 20, 2019

We get quite the Santa experience. Guests in studio to talk about today's presentation at Schuler Books, and the latest when it comes to the work,...

Travel Talk

WGVU Fri December 20, 2019

Travel Talk, today's talking points include traveling without hassle this holiday season, unwrapping the presents, and more with Travel by Gagnon's...

US man jailed in Russia on spying charges loses job

WGVU Thu December 19, 2019

A Michigan man who has been imprisoned in Russia on spying charges for nearly a year has lost his job with an automotive parts supplier in a corporate

Whitmer vetoes bills, including road proposal for small counties

WGVU Thu December 19, 2019

Governor Gretchen Whitmer has vetoed two bills sent to her by the Legislature. One bill would have reversed the Michigan Natural Resources Commission...

Gerald R. Ford International Airport celebrates completion of $30

WGVU Thu December 19, 2019

The Gerald R. Ford International Airport has completed its $30 million terminal apron reconstruction project. After two years of construction, airport

City Beat

WGVU Thu December 19, 2019

City Beat, where to go, what to do come the weekend in West Michigan, the list from GR Magazine's Charlsie Dewey.

James: Impeachment about 'revenge'; Peters to look at facts

WGVU Thu December 19, 2019

Republican Senate candidate John James of Michigan says he opposes the impeachment of President Donald Trump. James is challenging Democratic Sen....

Michigan Supreme Court declines opinion on wage, sick laws

WGVU Thu December 19, 2019

A divided Michigan Supreme Court has declined to rule early on the constitutionality of Republicans' lame-duck maneuver to weaken voter-proposed...

Lansing man faces child abuse charge after boy shot in head

WGVU Thu December 19, 2019

A Lansing man has been charged with child abuse in connection with a shooting that left a 3-year-old boy in critical condition with a gunshot wound...

East Hills

WGVU Thu December 19, 2019

Businesses look for your support this last weekend before Christmas. We discuss with Local owners in the house, from Hopscotch, Rock Paper Scissors,...

Sustainable Community Voices

WGVU Thu December 19, 2019

Sustainable Community Voices, CEO of Dwelling Place Denny Sturtevant sharing news about recent, current and future projects.

All About Women

WGVU Thu December 19, 2019

All About Women, today's focus on the new vital norm among female baby boomers, Dr. Robyn Hubbard with the conversation.

National organization takes notice of Kent County as a swing county

WGVU Thu December 19, 2019

The Human Rights Campaign is a national organization advocating for LGBTQ people, and they're focusing on Kent County as an important place for...

Student Advancement Foundation

WGVU Thu December 19, 2019

The Student Advancement Foundation offers a $20,000 Matching Gift Challenge, Five Stories, Five Weeks, One Match. Rick Gillett and Sally Andreatta...

House Impeaches President Trump on Two Charges, Forcing Senate

WGVU Thu December 19, 2019

President Donald Trump was impeached by the U.S. House of Representatives Wednesday night, becoming only the third American chief executive to be...

White House: Trump 'just riffing' in swipe at late lawmaker

WGVU Thu December 19, 2019

The White House said that President Donald Trump was "just riffing" when he took a swipe at the late Rep. John Dingell during a raucous impeachment...

Library Lines

WGVU Thu December 19, 2019

Library Lines, guests from the Grand Rapids Public Library sharing monthly news, including applying for the Poet Laureate of GR and New stuff at the

Keeping an Eye on Your Home While Away

WGVU Thu December 19, 2019

Comcast's Michelle Gilbert joins TMS to discuss surviving the holiday season with helpful tech tips, including keeping an eye on your home while away.

Mary Free Bed Rehabilitation

WGVU Thu December 19, 2019

Mary Free Bed Rehabilitation is well known for it's Adaptive Sports Program. We share a 2019 Jr. Wheelchair Sports Camp that provides great...

Whitmer works on new roads plan, warns of budget pressures

WGVU Wed December 18, 2019

Gov. Gretchen Whitmer is working on an alternative road-funding plan to promote in her upcoming second year in office after the Legislature rejected a

Nobody is Above the Law: Impeach and Remove Rally held in Grand

WGVU Wed December 18, 2019

Leading up to today's U.S. House vote on articles of impeachment, rallies were held across the country and the state of Michigan Tuesday evening. "...

GVSU Professor: Social Justice Book Club Created For Youth

WGVU Wed December 18, 2019

A Grand Valley Social Work professor opens the door for our youngest students to address issues of social justice. A book club entitled, "Social...

Grand Rapids makes history by swearing in first Latina City Commis WGUV Wed December 18, 2019
In standing room only at Grand Rapids city hall, Milinda Ysasi officially became Grand Rapids' newest city commissioner representing the second ward...

Michigan files lawsuit saying opioid distributors acted like drug deal WGUV Tue December 17, 2019
Michigan has filed a lawsuit seeking damages from drug companies that distribute opioid painkillers. The lawsuit claims the companies did not take

Gifts for the Greater Good: Philanthropy in West Michigan WGUV Tue December 17, 2019
Employees and members of Fit Body Boot Camps raised money for its annual event, The Big Give. They gathered inside the Knapp Corner Meijer in Grand...

Ford to add 3,000 jobs in the Detroit area, invest $1.45B WGUV Tue December 17, 2019
Ford Motor Co. is adding 3,000 jobs at two factories in the Detroit area and investing $1.45 billion to build new pickup trucks, SUVs, and electric...

Michigan sues opioid distributors, likens to drug dealers WGUV Tue December 17, 2019
Michigan on Tuesday sued four companies over the deadly painkiller epidemic, becoming what state Attorney General Dana Nessel said is the first state...

Long prison sentence upheld for doctor who hurt patients WGUV Tue December 17, 2019
A federal appeals court has affirmed a nearly 20-year prison sentence for a doctor who performed unnecessary spinal surgeries in California and...

The Suicide Bridge WGUV Tue December 17, 2019
Best selling author Chip Jacobs, his book The Suicide Bridge.

Beside Herself WGUV Tue December 17, 2019
Author Elizabeth LaBan writes the book Beside Herself. We talk about the themes.

Governor Whitmer celebrates ham donation for those struggling wi WGUV Tue December 17, 2019
On Monday, Meijer and Hormel Foods announced at a Feeding America West Michigan warehouse that they will be donating 2250 hams. "We have to be...

All About The Farm WGUV Tue December 17, 2019
All About the Farm, Matthew Daley, AP of History, GVSU, discussing the and the Ottawa Conservation District.

Emmanuel Hospice WGUV Tue December 17, 2019
Each month, Emmanuel Hospice brings you stories from the community about the challenges and joys of life. This month, we're joined by Al and Marge...

Wellness At Work

WGVU Tue December 17, 2019

Wellness at Work, today's topic, focus on balancing your fitness and nutritional habits this holiday season. We talk to The McCahill Group's Wendy

The Right Place

WGVU Tue December 17, 2019

Guests from The Right Place join in, today Tim Mroz overviews the end of the 3 year strategic plan, upcoming challenges and opportunities, plus a...

By Leaps & Bounds: The Critical Investment of Business & Policy in

WGVU Tue December 17, 2019

Investments in child care accessibility and affordability are investments in both in the current Michigan workforce, and the future workforce. High...

Winterfest

WGVU Tue December 17, 2019

We put the spotlight on the parks, the upcoming Winterfest, plus your chance to volunteer in a City Park. Stephanie Adams and Claire Fisher with the

Styling it your Way

WGVU Tue December 17, 2019

Styling it your Way, talking today with Michelle Krick, Fashion Expert, about those fun last minute gift giving ideas.

Trail hazards remain in Michigan weeks after snowstorm

WGVU Mon December 16, 2019

The snowstorm that swept across parts of the Midwest and dumped as much as 2 feet of snow in Michigan last month formed ideal conditions for skiing...

Michigan to file lawsuit against opioid lawsuit

WGVU Mon December 16, 2019

Michigan will file a lawsuit tomorrow against drug manufacturers for damages related to the epidemic of opioid abuse. The lawsuit will be filed in...

Michigan's Leland Blue to perform at next WGVU Pop Up Concert

WGVU Mon December 16, 2019

Grand Rapids based Leland Blue started in Midland, Michigan by brothers Benjamin and Connor Robertson. Ben plays guitar and sings, Connor plays drums...

Do school districts have a responsibility to ensure classroom enviro

WGVU Mon December 16, 2019

Several students have called the environment at Paw Paw Public Schools racially hostile, but we asked Grand Valley State University Professor, Amy...

Architect Of Empire

WGVU Mon December 16, 2019

We learn about Walter Raleigh, Architect of Empire. Author Alan Galley offering a new origin story for the English Empire, one of the most famous...

Michigan doubles bonus to $10K for state-employed dentists

WGVU Mon December 16, 2019

Michigan officials have agreed to double hiring bonuses for dentists who choose to work in state hospitals and prisons in an effort to lure them into...

1 killed, 3 hurt in St. Joseph rollover car crash

WGVU Mon December 16, 2019

Authorities say one person was killed and three more were injured early Sunday during a car crash in southwestern Michigan. According to a statement...

Narrow server farm vote shows legislative rift on tax breaks

WGVU Mon December 16, 2019

A razor-thin legislative vote on tax breaks for a Grand Rapids-area data center could portend problems for other companies or industries hoping to...

Shop Locally

WGVU Mon December 16, 2019

DGRI, INC asks you to shop locally. We talk to guests on behalf of Mel Styles and Mosby's Popcorn. We talk to Brian Mosby and Archie Sudue.

Hidden Places of WWII

WGVU Mon December 16, 2019

Author, Navy Veteran Jerome O'Connor writes the book The Hidden Places of WWII, a timely release as we approach the 75th anniversary to the end of...

Men Who Write Author Showcase

WGVU Mon December 16, 2019

Randy Otterbridge and guests talk about the Men Who Write Author Showcase and Writing-tainment event this Saturday

Hope Network

WGVU Mon December 16, 2019

Guests from Hope Network discuss the Center for Recovery, the services provided and more. We talk to HN Director of Outpatient Services Jenna...

Renucci Hospital House

WGVU Mon December 16, 2019

We remind you of the Renucci Hospital House. TMS Roving Microphone on site.

Shopping For Others

WGVU Mon December 16, 2019

The Roving Microphone goes shopping. We find kids and mentors at Meijer, shopping for others. A local service organization lends a hand.

Ty Silzer (Part II)

WGVU Mon December 16, 2019

Ty Silzer joins us to continue our conversation on Purity Culture. Ty Silzer is a former pastor in the Presbyterian Church in America. He writes for...

'Shop early': US Christmas trees supplies tight, prices up

WGVU Fri December 13, 2019

With Christmas less than two weeks away, finding the perfect tree might take some searching. The availability of real Christmas trees is tight across...

Whitmer tells Trump refugees welcome in Michigan

WGVU Fri December 13, 2019

Governor Gretchen Whitmer has notified the State Department and the Trump administration that Michigan will continue to welcome refugees for...

State Attorney General Investigating Kent Co. Online Drop Shippers WGVU Fri December 13, 2019

Two Grand Rapids Businesses are under investigation by the State Attorney General. Investigative subpoenas were recently served to the business...

Bills would require clear info from Department of Corrections WGVU Fri December 13, 2019

New legislation would “standardize” prison closures, according to lawmakers. New legislation in the state Senate would create a long list of required...

Widespread corruption uncovered in Detroit Police Narcotics Unit WGVU Fri December 13, 2019

Detroit police officials say they’ve uncovered widespread criminal misconduct in the department’s narcotics unit, as the allegations of corruption...

U.S. Department of Education investigates Paw Paw Public Schools WGVU Fri December 13, 2019

It was in 2017 that the Paw Paw Board of Education voted to keep the Redskins name and an image of a Native American as the schools mascot following

Flu Season. WGVU Fri December 13, 2019

Tis the season for the flu. Dr. Rachel Lynem, physician consultant with BCBSM talks all things about the current Michigan flu cases and prevention.

Local First WGVU Fri December 13, 2019

Monthly, guests from Local First talk about community happenings, today Katherine Jandernoa, Matt Cook and Mieke Stoub discuss the importance of...

Hour of Code Party WGVU Fri December 13, 2019

A special event happens now. Elementary students from Kentwood Public Schools gather at Discovery Elementary School to learn how to code at the first

Soup and the Broken Teeth WGVU Fri December 13, 2019

Musicians in the house, representing Stone Soup and the Broken Teeth. We talk to Michael Coburn and Nathan Walton about an upcoming album release...

One Day at Disney WGVU Fri December 13, 2019

Ever wonder what it's like to work as Disney? Journalist, Disney fan and author, originally from GR Bruce Steele writes the book One Day at Disney,...

Winter Trails Coalition WGVU Fri December 13, 2019

We head up north to cross country ski. Those on behalf of the Winter Trails Coalition discuss, including special events at Crystal Mountain and Iron...

Ivan Carter WGVU Fri December 13, 2019

Ivan Carter has become well known in African Wildlife circles for his dedication to all manner of conservation and conservation initiatives. Carter...

Heart of West Michigan United Way

WGVU Fri December 13, 2019

Guests from the Heart of West Michigan United Way, today partners in studio talking about how dollars are distributed. Mandy DeWilde, Tony Calcagno...

Nutcracker

WGVU Fri December 13, 2019

The Grand Rapids Ballet is ready for the Nutcracker. Artistic Director James Sofranko and Dancer Gretchen Steimle review the Nutcracker themes and

Michigan State wins appeal on its handling of assault cases

WGVU Thu December 12, 2019

Students who said they suffered because of how Michigan State University handled complaints of sexual assault have lost a key court decision. A...

Right to Life takes next step toward vote on new abortion restrictio

WGVU Thu December 12, 2019

The anti-abortion group Right to Life of Michigan says it's stopped gathering signatures, and will soon be ready to submit petitions to enact a law...

Woman's body found in snowy rural area in Leelanau County

WGVU Thu December 12, 2019

A woman's body was dragged over a snowy hill and left in a rural area in northern Michigan, police said. Leelanau County Sheriff Mike Borkovich said

World Affairs Council of Western Michigan

WGVU Thu December 12, 2019

The World Affairs Council of Western Michigan begins awarding an annual Vandenberg Prize to a leader who has been influential in developing global

School Talk

WGVU Thu December 12, 2019

School Talk, guests on studio today from Godwin Heights Schools, sharing the topics of Godwin Pride Values, Culture and Climate and more.

All Things Advent

WGVU Thu December 12, 2019

Communities are celebrating the Advent/Christmas season, Father Stephen Durkee, Director of Priestly Vocations, talking about all things Advent and

Good Food Choices

WGVU Thu December 12, 2019

Make good choices this holiday season when it comes to staying active and healthy in the winter months. BCBS's Grace Derocha with the details.

City Beat

WGVU Thu December 12, 2019

City Beat, where to go, what to do come the weekend in West Michigan. GR Magazine's Charlise Dewey with the conversation.

For a Better Us

WGVU Thu December 12, 2019

For a Better Us, Brianna Gohlke-Clausen, Executive Director at our SpartanNash YMCA and Eva Alexander, Mission Advancement Manager will join in to...

Travel Light

WGVU Thu December 12, 2019

Local author Laura Holmes returns to TMS with her latest work, Travel Light: Regular People Go on Adventures Too. We discuss this and a Charitable

Women in Power

WGVU Thu December 12, 2019

Virginia's longest serving female legislator Senator Janet Howell, along with Daughter in Law Theresa Howell write the book Women in Power. We...

Land Conservancy of West Michigan and Blandford Nature Center

WGVU Thu December 12, 2019

The Land Conservancy of West Michigan and Blandford Nature Center team up for a stewardship event with the common goal of transforming 25 acres of the

Inman hopes to get staff and office back following hung jury and no

WGVU Wed December 11, 2019

Republican state Representative Larry Inman was found not guilty of one federal charge yesterday and the jury couldn't decide on the other two...

Recreational marijuana should be available in Muskegon by Christm

WGVU Wed December 11, 2019

Recreational marijuana will soon be available in the city of Muskegon, as one dispensary is preparing to open its doors later this month. Muskegon's...

LC Walker Arena changing name to Mercy Health Arena after city c

WGVU Wed December 11, 2019

The "LC Walker Arena" will be changing its name to the "Mercy Health Arena" soon, after Muskegon City Commissioners approved the re-naming of the...

Forget a recession, 2020 economy will remain strong, says forecast

WGVU Wed December 11, 2019

Despite economists predicting that a recession should have hit West Michigan by now, the economy is strong and will remain strong in 2020. That's...

School News Network: Sparta Interior Design

WGVU Wed December 11, 2019

Students in Sparta are designing and creating 3D printed items, thanks to a donation from a local foundation and innovative teaching. Seventh grader

MiBiz with Mark Sanchez

WGVU Wed December 11, 2019

Michigan lawmakers exploring toll roads as a solution to road and bridge funding. Also, a local study takes a closer look at wage growth in West...

Motel hit with major fire on day it closed due to nuisances

WGVU Wed December 11, 2019

Fire caused severe damage at a Battle Creek motel on the same day that the property was closing for 90 days due to allegations of drug dealing and...

Man who struck, killed sheriff's deputy in road sentenced

WGVU Wed December 11, 2019

A 24 year-old man accused of running over and killing a sheriff's deputy in southeastern Michigan will spend the rest of his life in prison without...

Michigan Legislature OKs restoring over half of vetoed funds WGVU Wed December 11, 2019

The Republican-led Michigan Legislature has voted to restore more than half of the state funding that was vetoed during a budget impasse. The move...

Axios HR WGVU Wed December 11, 2019

Andy Obrien, Axios HR, talk about all things small businesses, the backbone of our community, and how Human Resources make life easier for business...

Clean Comedy WGVU Wed December 11, 2019

We talk Clean Comedy with Comedian Aaron Sorrels, tonight a gathering at Dr. Grins.

Michigan House supports 10% raise for Supreme Court justices WGVU Wed December 11, 2019

Michigan Supreme Court justices would get a 10% raise under a measure that has won initial legislative approval. The state House backed the increase...

Jury: Lawmaker didn't lie to FBI, hung on 2 other charge WGVU Wed December 11, 2019

A federal jury in western Michigan has cleared a Republican state lawmaker of lying to federal authorities but was hung on two other charges against...

Toys for Tots WGVU Wed December 11, 2019

Toys for Tots needs toys Retired Marine Corps Lieutenant General Pete Osman returning to discuss how to get involved locally.

Perspectives in Philanthropy WGVU Wed December 11, 2019

Perspectives in Philanthropy, GRCF's Diana Sieger with conversation including 10 Ways to Give and Impact Community, this season and beyond.

Naturally Speaking WGVU Wed December 11, 2019

Naturally Speaking, guests on behalf of the DNR, today Michael Michalek discusses the role played in managing public acreage.

GRPS and Turkey Trot WGVU Wed December 11, 2019

The Turkey Trot to benefit GRPS was a success. ED K-12 Sports with GRPS Kurt Johnson returns with the numbers.

Women: The National Geographic Image Collection WGVU Wed December 11, 2019

The Latest work by Nat Geo, Women: The National Geographic Image Collection. We talk with the Editor, this incorporation of 450 Powerful photos.

Grand Rapids Choir of Men and Boys WGVU Wed December 11, 2019

The Grand Rapids Choir of Men and Boys presents a 30th Celebration concert this weekend, Christmas Lessons and Carols, Dr. Scott Bosscher and...

All About the Eye

WGVU Wed December 11, 2019

All About the Eye, today's conversation with Dr. Gary Anderson, December is Vision Awareness Month for safe Toys, plus Celebrating New Eye stuff.

Legislature sends budget deal to governor

WGVU Tue December 10, 2019

State lawmakers and Governor Gretchen Whitmer say they have a deal to restore funding for multiple programs vetoed by the governor. A part of the deal

November's Institute for Supply Management Research survey sho

WGVU Tue December 10, 2019

The November Institute for Supply Management Research survey has been released. While confidence in the local economy flipped from negative to...

Michigan sales top $1.6M in first week of recreational pot

WGVU Tue December 10, 2019

Recreational marijuana sales totaled about $1.6 million in the inaugural week of business at the first retail shops in Michigan. The Detroit Free...

iGym levels playing field for disabled, able-bodied children

WGVU Tue December 10, 2019

A University of Michigan research team has created an augmented reality system that allows people with different levels of mobility to play and...

Muskegon City Manager

WGVU Tue December 10, 2019

Muskegon City Manager Frank Peterson joins us to share the latest when it comes to the growth of Muskegon and more.

Muskegon Winter Sports Complex

WGVU Tue December 10, 2019

We catch up with Jim Rudicil of the Muskegon Winter Sports Complex ready for the snow and Winter Activities.

Muskegon Museum of Art

WGVU Tue December 10, 2019

Ann Healey and Shawnee Larabee from the Muskegon Museum of Art join us to talk about Holiday and New Year Traditions and Celebrations at the Museum.

Winter Sports in Muskegon

WGVU Tue December 10, 2019

Winter Sports so alive and well in Muskegon. Andrea Sponaas with the Muskegon Lumberjacks and Lisa Kraus of Muskegon Figure Skating Club join us to...

City of Norton Shores

WGVU Tue December 10, 2019

Mayor Nelund shares news from the City of Norton Shores, great Winter programming on tap.

Lakeshore Chamber of Commerce

WGVU Tue December 10, 2019

Cindy Larsen, President/CEO of the Lakeshore Chamber of Commerce talks all things Chamber/winter/planning and more.

West Michigan Symphony

WGVU Tue December 10, 2019

Andy Buelow joins us to talk about the West Michigan Symphony and The Block.

Frauenthal Center

WGVU Tue December 10, 2019

We're joined by Eric Messing Executive Director of the Frauenthal Center who joins us to discuss this great venue and plans for 2020.

Lawmakers gear up for last week in Lansing for the year

WGVU Mon December 9, 2019

State lawmakers plan to finish up their work in Lansing this week. The state House is expected to vote on bills to restore funding for some of the...

Federal agencies defend creation of fake school to fight visa fraud

WGVU Mon December 9, 2019

Federal agencies are pushing back against criticism that they entrapped hundreds of foreigners who enrolled in a fake school the agencies opened in an

WalletHub: Mi Ranks 4th Best For Elder Abuse Protections

WGVU Mon December 9, 2019

A new report looks at elder abuse as a real and growing issue. WalletHub compared the 50 states and the District of Columbia based on indicators of...

Michigan farmers, lawmakers seek tariff on Turkish cherries

WGVU Mon December 9, 2019

Michigan farmers and lawmakers want the federal government to impose a hefty tariff on dried tart cherries imported from Turkey, arguing that a...

Michigan victims who were wrongly accused of fraud win again in c

WGVU Mon December 9, 2019

Residents who were falsely accused of defrauding Michigan's unemployment benefits system have won another legal victory. The state appeals court ruled

Michigan nears deal to legalize sports, online gambling

WGVU Mon December 9, 2019

The Legislature and Gov. Gretchen Whitmer are closing in on an agreement to legalize sports betting and internet gambling in Michigan, with final...

Ty Silzer on Purity Culture

WGVU Mon December 9, 2019

Ty Silzer joins us to talk about Purity Culture. Ty Silzer is a former pastor in the Presbyterian Church in America. He writes for Ethics and...

Whitmer says MI taxpayers to bus kids to private schools

WGVU Fri December 6, 2019

Governor Gretchen Whitmer has officially weighed in on a lawsuit that challenges state payments to private and parochial schools. She says any state

Local resident launches project to provide books written by or repr

WGVU Fri December 6, 2019

Aari Wade wants her kids to have access to books with characters that look like them, but as a Black mom raising Black children she was finding it...

Inclusion and Equity: Shaping Narratives

WGVU Fri December 6, 2019

Weekly we focus on the work of area individuals and organizations advancing inclusion and equity in our community. This morning we welcome Good for

Eco Insider

WGVU Fri December 6, 2019

Eco Insider, talking today to ED Bill Wood about the Pigeon River Country Association.

The West Michigan Partnership for Children

WGVU Fri December 6, 2019

The West Michigan Partnership for Children provides oversight to the 5 major adoption agencies in West Michigan, making a significant impact on...

Downtown Christmas Tree Lighting

WGVU Fri December 6, 2019

Tonight, Downtown GR's lighting of the Christmas tree in front of the GRAM happens. We discuss the annual event with the City's Evette Pittman.

Comprehensive Health Initiative

WGVU Fri December 6, 2019

Guests from GVSU's Kirkhof College of Nursing join in, today DNP Mark Contreras and HQ's Li Kaplan discuss the Comprehensive Health Initiative.

Ironfish Distillery

WGVU Fri December 6, 2019

Ironfish, Michigan's Only Farm Distillery, presents its first release of its Whiskey, bottled to benefit the Comeback of Michigan's Lost Treasure, the

Warm Hands Warm Hearts Drive

WGVU Fri December 6, 2019

The YWCA West Central Michigan and Fogle Orthodontics team up for the annual Warm Hands Warm Hearts drive, collecting new and gently used items for...

Gaylord

WGVU Fri December 6, 2019

Get out and ski, snowboard, and more this winter, Gaylord kicking off early as this weekend. We talk to guests from Treetops and the Gaylord Area

Personal Habitat

WGVU Fri December 6, 2019

This cap will keep you safe. We talk to the proprietors of Personal Habitat, Dale and Sonja Robertson, recently creating a whole knit wool reflective

Mona Shores H.S. choir celebrates America's Tallest Singing Christm

WGVU Fri December 6, 2019

America's Tallest Singing Christmas Tree is celebrating its 35th season performing to sellout crowds at Muskegon's Frauenthal Theater this weekend. "...

KitchenAid SR PGA Championship

WGVU Fri December 6, 2019

The 2020 KitchenAid SR PGA Championship presents its 12 days of Giveaways this Holiday Season, Director Ryan Ogle to discuss.

Mackinac Island Holidays

WGVU Fri December 6, 2019

Holiday time means fudge time and more. Bobby Benser from Murdick's Fudge and more talks all things Mackinac Island Holidays and more.

Michigan's unemployment benefits system lawsuit to proceed

WGVU Thu December 5, 2019

Residents who were falsely accused of defrauding Michigan's unemployment benefits system have won another legal victory. The state appeals court ruled

Man charged in 2 deaths; told Home Depot to call cops

WGVU Thu December 5, 2019

A western Michigan man who told workers at a Home Depot store to call police has been charged with killing two friends in separate incidents,...

Lawmakers introduce anti "water theft" bills

WGVU Thu December 5, 2019

New bills in the state House would put Michigan's water – including groundwater – in a public trust. That means that the waters would have to be...

Budget truce between Whitmer, GOP appears close

WGVU Thu December 5, 2019

The state Senate today (Thu.) took steps toward restoring money to programs vetoed by Governor Gretchen Whitmer earlier this year. The budget bills...

State budget impasse may end next week

WGVU Thu December 5, 2019

The Republican-led Legislature has passed legislation that would restore more than half of the proposed spending that was vetoed by Democratic Gov.

Breaking Mews and Pupdates

WGVU Thu December 5, 2019

Breaking Mews and Pupdates, guests in studio monthly from the Humane Society of West Michigan. Amy Stockero and Cranberry talk about Giving Tuesday...

Ethics expert appointed to MSU board amid Nassar fallout

WGVU Thu December 5, 2019

Gov. Gretchen Whitmer has named an ethics expert to Michigan State University's governing board as it continues to confront the fallout from Larry...

Court: Communities can't raise tobacco sales age to 21

WGVU Thu December 5, 2019

The Michigan appeals court has struck down a Genesee County ban on tobacco sales and related products to people under 21. The county can't adopt a

KDL

WGVU Thu December 5, 2019

The spotlight is placed monthly on KDL!. We discuss winter programs with Jacob Ryan, Programming Specialist, programs for kids and adults over the...

City of GR approves new weapon ordinance

WGVU Thu December 5, 2019

Before the vote took place on Tuesday night several residents asked the city commissioners to change the new firearm ordinance to include more...

Powerfully Pink luncheon

WGVU Thu December 5, 2019

We talk about the Powerfully Pink luncheon come December 12th, an event focusing upon different educational topics that have made an impact on the...

West Michigan Cuddle Connection

WGVU Thu December 5, 2019

Guests from Rapid Growth Media today discuss the West Michigan Cuddle Connection, Publisher Tommy Allen and Sherri Ann Rogers with the details.

City Beat

WGVU Thu December 5, 2019

City Beat, where to go, what to do come the weekend in West Michigan with GR Magazine's Charlise Dewey sharing the rundown.

Mary Free Bed Invitational Wheelchair Basketball Tournament

WGVU Thu December 5, 2019

Over 110 athletes will play in the Mary Free Bed Invitational Wheelchair Basketball Tournament this weekend, talking today with Christy VanHaver,...

Hill and Helmet Safety Class

WGVU Thu December 5, 2019

This weekend, learn the best way to avoid a ski injury. U.S. Ski and Snowboard Team Physician Carl Wierks and Physical Therapist Chris Wise talk...

Franciscan Life Process Center

WGVU Thu December 5, 2019

We conclude a 3 part series with the focus on the Franciscan Life Process Center, today's focus on Counseling with Sister Colleen Ann Nagle and...

Vice President Pence campaigns in Holland, calls impeachment hear

WGVU Wed December 4, 2019

United States Vice President Mike Pence visited West Michigan Wednesday evening, as supporters of the Trump Administration gathered for a "Keep...

Court: Communities can't raise tobacco sales age to 21

WGVU Wed December 4, 2019

The Michigan appeals court has struck down a Genesee County ban on tobacco sales and related products to people under 21. The county can't adopt a

House and Senate Dems introduce universal background check bills

WGVU Wed December 4, 2019

State Democrats continue to push for changes to Michigan's gun laws. Bills waiting to be introduced in the state House and Senate would require...

Michigan trooper gets jail for assaulting female colleague

WGVU Wed December 4, 2019

A Michigan State Police trooper has been sentenced to one year in jail for assaulting a female colleague while on duty. Michigan Attorney General Dana

Trial starts for Michigan lawmaker accused in vote scheme

WGVU Wed December 4, 2019

A lobbyist says she was shocked and angry to receive a text message from a Michigan lawmaker who is charged with trying to get campaign cash for...

Legislature sends Whitmer bill to lift ban on deer baiting

WGVU Wed December 4, 2019

Michigan's Republican-led Legislature has given final approval to a bill that would lift a state ban on using bait to hunt deer, but it faces a veto...

Court rejects Nestle plan for bottled water pump building

WGVU Wed December 4, 2019

The Michigan Court of Appeals sided against a Nestle water bottling company Tuesday in a dispute over a pumping facility needed for a significant...

MI Lawsuit against Trump Administration fights to prevent Medicaid

WGVU Wed December 4, 2019

When Katina Petropolous found out she could be at risk for losing her health insurance she joined a group of local Michigan residents in filing a...

Santa Signing Event

WGVU Wed December 4, 2019

Santa is here for All. Deb Atwood, ED for Deaf and Hard of Hearing Services, talks about Saturday's annual Santa Signing event, held to give kids who...

Red Kettle Game

WGVU Wed December 4, 2019

The Salvation Army of Kent County partners with the GR Griffins for the 5th annual Red Kettle Game this Friday night, speaking with Auxiliary Captain...

Trial starting for Michigan lawmaker accused in vote scheme

WGVU Tue December 3, 2019

A Michigan lawmaker accused of trying to trade his vote on legislation for campaign cash is facing trial in federal court. The trial of state Rep....

Lansing man dies 6 weeks after being hit by school bus

WGVU Tue December 3, 2019

Lansing police say a 60-year-old man has died six weeks after he was struck by a school bus while crossing a city street. Police said Dennis Palomo...

By Leaps & Bounds: The Critical Role of Early Childhood Educators

WGVU Tue December 3, 2019

High quality early childhood education experiences have a direct impact on outcomes for young children. Our communities in Michigan are filled with

City of GR will pilot side snow removal service

WGVU Tue December 3, 2019

Starting in mid-December the city of Grand Rapids will be clearing snow off of sidewalks across the city. The $100,000 contract was awarded to local

The Funny Bone Foundation

WGVU Tue December 3, 2019

We get funny with Nancy Greiner, ED and Founder of The Funny Bone Foundation. We talk about how laughter really is the best medicine.

Fountain Hill Center

WGVU Tue December 3, 2019

Great things happening at Fountain Hill Center, including a Holiday Open House, this Center for Counseling and Consultation. Terri Demeter with the...

The Toy Guy

WGVU Tue December 3, 2019

We talk annually with The Toy Guy, sharing tips on the best toys for Santa to bring, plus, is there a best time to buy online?

From Where I Sit

WGVU Tue December 3, 2019

From Where I Sit, guests in studio from the Furniture world, Analyst Mike Dunlap crunching this month's numbers.

Whitmer: No progress on budget; Shirkey's comments no help

WGVU Mon December 2, 2019

Gov. Gretchen Whitmer says no progress was made on resolving a budget impasse over the Legislature's multi-week break, and critical comments directed...

Cannabis sales off to strong start with more than $200,000 in sales

WGVU Mon December 2, 2019

Licensed shops in Michigan were able to sell recreational marijuana for the first time yesterday. Hundreds of people waited in line on the first day...

Warning to shoppers on Cyber Monday: beware of online criminal a

WGVU Mon December 2, 2019

Retailers predict about three quarters of the US public will shop online today, however, the billions of dollars spent on this so-called "Cyber"...

Playhouse at White Lake

WGVU Mon December 2, 2019

We get the latest from Whitehall's Playhouse at White Lake, Managing Director Beth Beaman discussing upcoming shows including Irish Christmas in...

More to the Story

WGVU Mon December 2, 2019

More to the Story, guests in on behalf of those serving the Homeless. Today, Bob Kreter and Adrenne Goodstal discuss Degage Ministries seeking...

Impeachment may complicate 2020 for lonely Michigan moderate

WGVU Mon December 2, 2019

For more than 30 years and under five presidents, Republican Rep. Fred Upton easily won reelection to his southwest Michigan House seat by promoting

3 officers wounded, homeowner dead after Michigan shooting

WGVU Mon December 2, 2019

Authorities say an intruder shot and wounded three law enforcement officers at a home in southwestern Michigan and the body of a homeowner who had...

Camel Crazy

WGVU Mon December 2, 2019

We talk to the author of , Christina Adams with a unique twist.

Powerful storm pushes into Midwest with heavy snow and winds

WGVU Mon December 2, 2019

Wintry weather bedeviled Thanksgiving weekend travelers across the United States Saturday as a powerful and dangerous storm moved eastward, dumping...

Crowds line up for first day of legal marijuana sales

WGVU Mon December 2, 2019

Crowds are lining up for the first day of legal recreational marijuana sales in Michigan. A handful of shops, mostly in Ann Arbor, are approved to...

Senior Concerns

WGVU Mon December 2, 2019

Senior Concerns, guests from the Area Agency of Aging of Western Michigan, today Bob Callery talking about MMAP, Michigan Medicare/Medicaid Assistance

Giving Tuesday

WGVU Mon December 2, 2019

Tomorrow is Giving Tuesday. WGVU's Brooke Hotchkiss discusses the invitation plans for WGVU.

The Girl and the Tiger

WGVU Mon December 2, 2019

The author of The Girl and the Tiger joins in, Paul Rosolie, spending the last decades in the rainforests, and with the tigers. He writes about his

Ada Chili and Beer Festival

WGVU Mon December 2, 2019

The Ronald McDonald House of Western Michigan partners with Ada for the upcoming Ada Chili and Beer Festival. We talk to Andrew Grashuis, Event Chair...

Van Andel Institute

WGVU Mon December 2, 2019

Guests from the VAI join in, today we speak with Dr. Kevin Maupin, discussing Pancreatic Cancer and more.

School Talk

WGVU Mon December 2, 2019

School Talk, today's spotlight on Sparta Area Schools with Superintendent Pete Bush.

Beyond26

WGVU Mon December 2, 2019

We discuss Beyond26 with Director of Development Will Ellermets and Executive Director Dirk Bakhuyzen, the mission, the path to Work and hire B26...

Days of Destiny: A Memoir of Kashmir (Part II)

WGVU Mon December 2, 2019

Sidarth Ambardar joins us to continue our conversation about the Partition of India and Pakistan, its history from the tribal invasion of Kashmir to...

Oops: Missing word spoils recall petitions against lawmaker

WGVU Fri November 29, 2019

An effort to recall an indicted state lawmaker suddenly has crashed after election officials say a word was missing on the petition. Elections...

MDOC: Fear of tethers "going dark" put off for another year; still ne

WGVU Fri November 29, 2019

The Michigan Department of Corrections says it will be able to keep its tether program up and running through 2020. The program tracks an estimated...

BBB: Consumer Alert For Holiday Shopping Season

WGVU Fri November 29, 2019

The Better Business Bureau serving Western Michigan has joined forces with the state Attorney General. They're warning consumers during the holiday...

Michigan, Illinois set to usher in recreational pot sales

WGVU Fri November 29, 2019

Legal marijuana sales to adults are set to open in two Midwestern states. But regulators and industry leaders alike warn that consumers will likely...

Vice President Mike Pence plans 3 stops in Michigan

WGVU Fri November 29, 2019

Vice President Mike Pence has scheduled three stops next week in western and southwestern Michigan. Pence plans to visit Grand Rapids, Portage and...

Gerald R. Ford International Airport receiving federal grants for imp

WGVU Thu November 28, 2019

The Thanksgiving holiday week is one of the busiest travel periods of the year. As Michiganders were making their getaway plans, it was announced the

Final session days could see hearing on "Red Flag" bills

WGVU Wed November 27, 2019

Democrats in Lansing say they're hoping to get a hearing on bills to regulate firearms before the end of the year. The bills were introduced back in

Michigan reports 2nd vaping-related death

WGVU Wed November 27, 2019

Michigan health officials are reporting the state's second death associated with an outbreak of vaping-related lung injuries. The state Department of

Kent County Judge Sara Smolenski is denied communion because sh

WGVU Wed November 27, 2019

Judge Sara Smolenski of the Kent County District Court has been a member of St. Stephens Catholic Church for her entire life, and has never had an...

250 enrolled at phony school arrested in immigration scam

WGVU Wed November 27, 2019

The federal government says it has arrested about 250 foreigners who knowingly enrolled at a phony school in suburban Detroit so they could remain in...

Fiat Chrysler recall: Ram van fans can overheat, cause fires

WGVU Wed November 27, 2019

Fiat Chrysler is recalling over 110,000 vans in North America because cooling fan motors can overheat and cause fires. The recall covers certain Ram

MiBiz with Mark Sanchez

WGVU Wed November 27, 2019

The financial impacts of Lake Michigan erosion. A national study investigates physician burnout and how one health insurer is addressing the opioid...

Allegan County offering free enhanced 9-1-1 service

WGVU Wed November 27, 2019

Enhanced 9-1-1 service is now available to Allegan County residents. When an emergency is reported to a 9-1-1 call center using a cellphone, it doesn't...

WalletHub: Thanksgiving & Holiday Shopping Report

WGVU Wed November 27, 2019

The often hectic holiday season is now upon us. And with it comes the season for spending. Black Friday sales abound and shoppers often shift into

From Michigan with Love

WGVU Wed November 27, 2019

No doubt holiday shopping is on your list for the weekend, today Founder of From Michigan with Love Franklin Dohanyos stops by with Christmas goodies...

77 IdeaLab

WGVU Wed November 27, 2019

We talk with GVSU's Seidman College of Business experts, today Professor Matthew Gira discussing the 77 IdeaLab.

Give Big 2019

WGVU Wed November 27, 2019

Dentists in the studio, talking about the Give Big 2019 event to help the dental community gather together to donate food for the hungry in our area...

Leadership in Action

WGVU Wed November 27, 2019

Leadership in Action, the roving microphone on site, finding leaders with a message. Today we talk all things Cycle Safe with Sales Manager Steve...

Man using magnet fishes WWI-era grenade from Michigan river

WGVU Wed November 27, 2019

A magnet-wielding angler has fished a World War I-era grenade from a western Michigan river. The angler found the explosive Tuesday after dangling the

Pope appoints Michigan priest to be next bishop of Gary

WGVU Wed November 27, 2019

Pope Francis has appointed a Michigan priest to be the next bishop for the Diocese of Gary. The appointment of Monsignor Robert J. McClory was...

Spectrum Health Irish Jig

WGVU Wed November 27, 2019

Now is the time for 2020 preparation when it comes to events that promote fitness. We talk to Kelsey Haynes and why the Spectrum Health Irish Jig is...

Chief: Sergeant failed to rush to scene of police shooting

WGVU Wed November 27, 2019

A Detroit police officer has been suspended with pay after not rushing to secure the scene of a home invasion and shooting that left one officer dead...

Fall Arts Celebratio

WGVU Wed November 27, 2019

GVSU's Fall Arts Celebration concludes this coming Monday evening, Dr. Danny Phipps with the details, 7:30 pm at Fountain Street Church, Beloved...

Social Security 101

WGVU Wed November 27, 2019

Social Security 101, Public Admin Vonda Vantil sharing all things Social Security and more.

Brooks College of Interdisciplinary Studies

WGVU Wed November 27, 2019

Brooks College of Interdisciplinary Studies' students join in, talking to a group of First Generation college students who participated in a Study...

Food Forum

WGVU Wed November 27, 2019

Food Forum, talking to guests in the Food and Wine field, today, last minute advice for your turkey, or veggie turkey.

GOP might appeal redistricting court decision

WGVU Tue November 26, 2019

Michigan Republicans are deciding what to do next after a federal judge rejected a lawsuit to challenge the state's new redistricting law. The judge...

Michigan homes with tainted wells to get municipal water

WGVU Tue November 26, 2019

A state grant will help connect 14 rural homes in northern Michigan to a municipal water system after their wells were found to be contaminated with Celebrating Thanksgiving!

WGVU Tue November 26, 2019

If you went to an American public school its most likely you learned that Thanksgiving is a celebration of the first meal the pilgrims of Plymouth...

Lengthy budget impasse taking toll on services in Michigan

WGVU Tue November 26, 2019

A budget impasse in Michigan is starting to take a toll on government programs and services. Sheriff's offices, jails, charter schools, private...

Operation Handshake: Ford Airport's Patriotic Welcome For W. MI

WGVU Tue November 26, 2019

As the Thanksgiving holiday approaches, the Gerald R. Ford International Airport is preparing for a "thankful" and patriotic welcome for West Michigan

Grand Valley State Sports Report

WGVU Tue November 26, 2019

The Grand Valley State Sports Report features the NACDA Directors Cup, an award presented annually to the best overall athletic department in NCAA...

Grand River Waterway advisory board says project "stalled by the D

WGVU Tue November 26, 2019

The Grand River Waterway Project designed to restore navigability from Grand Rapids to Grand Haven has been put on hold. In 2017, the state of...

Be Your Own Hero

WGVU Tue November 26, 2019

We talk to Schwartzen Precil, recently in town talking about his life in the book Be Your Own Hero: Turning Obstacles into Opportunities. We talk to...

Sustainable Community Voices

WGVU Tue November 26, 2019

Sustainable Community Voices, today's topic Groundwater Issues in Ottawa County with Director of Planning Paul Sachs.

GRPS WGUV Tue November 26, 2019

We put the spotlight on all things GRPS, today Kurt Johnson, John Helmholtz and Kristian Grant discuss the Turkey Trot, Theme School District...

Michigan state trooper injured during I-94 traffic stop WGUV Tue November 26, 2019

Michigan State Police say a trooper was injured when a suspect's car struck the officer as the driver sped away from a traffic stop. Police say...

Benson names Jonathan Brater director of elections WGUV Tue November 26, 2019

Secretary of State Jocelyn Benson has named Jonathan Brater to be the next director of the Michigan Bureau of Elections following the retirement of...

Giving Tuesday WGUV Tue November 26, 2019

WGUV participates in Giving Tuesday. Brooke Hotchkiss with the the conversation.

Snowstorm could make Upper Midwest holiday travel a mess WGUV Tue November 26, 2019

Forecasters say a snowstorm could make Thanksgiving travel a mess in parts of the Upper Midwest. At least 6 inches (15 centimeters) of snow is...

Last of the Red Hot Lovers WGUV Tue November 26, 2019

Jewish Theatre presents Last of the Red Hot Lovers, opening December 4. We talk to cast and crew.

Judge won't block Michigan's new redistricting commission WGUV Tue November 26, 2019

A federal judge has refused to block the creation of a Michigan commission to draw seats in Congress and the state Legislature after the 2020 census.

Grand Gals WGUV Tue November 26, 2019

Grand Gals, sharing stories from those who are shaping, inspiring and empowering our community. Marybeth Sims and Sarah Rehin from 70x7 Life Recovery...

Tourist Talk WGUV Tue November 26, 2019

Tourist Talk, where to go, what to do come the weekend in the great State of Michigan, thanks to the list from Promote Michigan's Dianna Stampfer.

Styling It Your Way WGUV Tue November 26, 2019

Styling It Your Way, thanks to Fashion Expert Michelle Krick for today's conversation is Holiday Trends.

By Leaps & Bounds: Why High Quality Child Care is Critical in Our Co WGUV Tue November 26, 2019

In Michigan, 83% of parents with children younger than age 6 report having difficulty finding high quality, affordable child care and more than 4 of...

AG Nessel: Prosecutor spoiled cases with misconduct

WGVU Mon November 25, 2019

Attorney General Dana Nessel says a former Central Michigan University student should be allowed to withdraw his no-contest plea after an...

Brater named new MI elections chief

WGVU Mon November 25, 2019

Michigan has a new state elections chief. Elections bureau director Jonathan Brater says his top job is ensuring the integrity of and public...

City Of G.R. Grant Addresses PFAS In Wastewater

WGVU Mon November 25, 2019

The City of Grand Rapids has received a 50-thousand dollar grant from the state to continue its work in addressing PFAS in wastewater. "To look at

School News Network: Comstock Park Percussion

WGVU Mon November 25, 2019

Comstock Park third graders had the chance to hear how 40 percussion instruments can come together in harmony. The musical zoo was courtesy of the...

Lawsuit challenges Medicaid work requirements in Michigan

WGVU Mon November 25, 2019

Four enrollees in Michigan's Medicaid expansion program filed a lawsuit Friday challenging work requirements that are set to take effect in January,

No toast: Major liquor distributor hit over delivery delays

WGVU Mon November 25, 2019

A major Michigan liquor distributor is taking heat for delays in getting booze to customers. Republic National Distributing acknowledges the problems...

Michigan woman sentenced for starving 3 horses to death

WGVU Mon November 25, 2019

A western Michigan woman who pleaded no contest to charges that she starved three horses to death has been sentenced to two months in jail. A Muskegon

Western Michigan to hold 20th interfaith Thanksgiving event

WGVU Mon November 25, 2019

A western Michigan institute is planning its 20th annual Interfaith Thanksgiving Celebration. Global music and readings are planned as part of Monday...

Flint leaders mull school closures amid $5.7M budget deficit

WGVU Mon November 25, 2019

Officials with Flint Community Schools are considering whether to close four of the district's 12 school buildings amid a $5.7 million budget deficit

The Right Place

WGVU Mon November 25, 2019

Birgit Klohs from the Right Place joins TMS, talking about recent RPI awards, a recent investor Breakfast plus Rethink West Michigan.

Woman struck, hurt by bullet that tore through wall of home

WGVU Mon November 25, 2019

Authorities say a 66-year-old southwestern Michigan woman was shot when a bullet tore into her home. Benton Harbor public safety officers say the...

Franciscan Life Process Center WGUV Mon November 25, 2019

Part 3 of our series about the Franciscan Life Process Center, today talking all things art with Sister Colleen Ann Nagle and Director of the Art...

Fustini's WGUV Mon November 25, 2019

Holiday time means shopping time, guests in studio from Fustini's out of Holland. We taste test the trending oils and vinegars

Getting Green WGUV Mon November 25, 2019

Getting Green, speaking today with Bali Kumar, CEO Lean and Green Michigan, about PACE, Property Assessed CLean Energy.

Laughfest WGUV Mon November 25, 2019

Laughfest has announced its first round of talent and shows for the March 5-15, 2020 festival. Hannah Dayton with the lineup, and locations.

Travel Talk WGUV Mon November 25, 2019

Travel Talk, talking all things traveling with guests in the industry, including Joanne Verboom, topics including the Thanksgiving travel rush, plus...

GR Ballet WGUV Mon November 25, 2019

The GR Ballet is full speed ahead with Nutcracker Prep. We talk to Music Director James Sofranko and Principal Nathan Young.

Days of Destiny: A Memoir of Kashmir WGUV Mon November 25, 2019

Our guest is Sidarth Ambardar. Sidarth joins us to talk about the Partition of India and Pakistan its history from the tribal invasion of Kashmir to...

Healthy Headlines WGUV Mon November 25, 2019

Healthy Headlines, guests in studio from the Kent County Health Department. Today, April Hight, Public Health Program Supervisor, talks about World...

Lawsuit challenges Medicaid work requirements in Michigan WGUV Fri November 22, 2019

Recipients of Michigan's Medicaid expansion program have filed a lawsuit challenging new work requirements that take effect in January. The suit was...

Groups files signatures to oust state Representative facing federal c WGUV Fri November 22, 2019

The Recall Inman Committee has filed almost 14-thousand signatures to kick state Representative Larry Inman out of office. Representative Inman is...

Michigan drug overdose deaths fall for 1st time in 6 years WGUV Fri November 22, 2019

State health officials say Michigan's drug overdose deaths declined last year for the first time in several years. The Michigan Department of Health...

State orders marijuana vape inventories tested for Vitamin E acetat WGVU Fri November 22, 2019

The state's marijuana watchdog agency has ordered tests on vaping inventories. They want distributors to make they don't include an ingredient linked...

Michigan man arrested in 1980 death of Virginia woman WGVU Fri November 22, 2019

An Allegan County man has been arrested in the 1980 homicide of a young Virginia woman whose husband was deployed as a U.S. Navy pilot at the time of...

Frozen 2 and A Beautiful Day In The Neighborhood open in theaters WGVU Fri November 22, 2019

Frozen 2 is expected to dominate the movie box office this weekend, with film makers hoping to match the original with songs and family fun. Crime...

Van Andel Institute: New Study On Pregnancy, Depression & Inflam WGVU Fri November 22, 2019

A number of women experience depression or "baby blues" after pregnancy. But severe pregnancy related depression could now be linked to inflammation...

Mutually Inclusive: Metro Health – University of Michigan Health WGVU Fri November 22, 2019

Weekly we focus on the work of area organizations advancing inclusion and equity in our community. This morning we welcome Dr. Rhae-Ann Booker, Vice

Michigan Mandolin Orchestra WGVU Fri November 22, 2019

Music this weekend from the Mandolin. Music Director Brian Oberlin of the Michigan Mandolin Orchestra discusses Saturday's debut concert.

Brown Bag Lunch and Learn WGVU Fri November 22, 2019

Guests from the Johnson Center today talk about the Brown Bag Lunch and Learn: Research Meets Practice, with guests Dr. Rich Jelier, Beverly Harkema...

Lawsuit targets 'filth' at Michigan's only women's prison WGVU Fri November 22, 2019

The Michigan Department of Corrections has been hit with a class-action lawsuit on behalf of inmates who say they've been overwhelmed by chronic mold...

Gilchrist signs bill making Michigan 5th cage-free egg state WGVU Fri November 22, 2019

Egg-laying hens in Michigan will have to be housed in cage-free systems before 2025 under a new law. Lt. Gov. Garlin Gilchrist signed the legislation

Michigan GOP leader uses expletive to call governor 'crazy' WGVU Fri November 22, 2019

A Republican legislative leader in Michigan apologized Thursday for using an expletive to describe Democratic Gov. Gretchen Whitmer as crazy, saying...

Grand Rapids boosts score on national human rights report card WGVU Fri November 22, 2019

The City of Grand Rapids has received a score of 92 out of 100 on the 2019 Human Rights Commission Municipal Equality Index score. This score card is...

Entrepreneur Insider WGUV Fri November 22, 2019
 Entrepreneur Insider, GROW's Danielle Guinsler, Coordinator of Fund Development and Business Woman Ashleigh Evan from InBooze talk all things...

Holland Tasting Tours WGUV Fri November 22, 2019
 Let's talk about the tours in Holland. Linda Kaiser with Holland Tasting Tours in the house to guide us.

Religion 101 WGUV Fri November 22, 2019
 Religion 101, guests in studio on behalf of the Kaufman Interfaith Institute, today speaking with Kyle Kooyers, Rishi Makkar and Fred Stella, topics

The Santa Claus Parade WGUV Fri November 22, 2019
 The Santa Claus Parade is tomorrow, making history those from the LGBTQ community, marching for the first time. We talk to Larry Deshane Jr, Cherub...

Your Biz, Your Town WGUV Fri November 22, 2019
 Your Biz, Your Town, guests in studio to talk about their organizations and how they are giving back to the community. We talk to those from SJA...

Michigan GOP leader uses expletive to call governor 'crazy' WGUV Thu November 21, 2019
 A Republican legislative leader is drawing criticism after a college newspaper quoted him using an expletive to describe Gov. Gretchen Whitmer and

Lieutenant Governor Gilchrist signs first bill as acting governor WGUV Thu November 21, 2019
 Lieutenant Governor Garlin Gilchrist signed his first bill today. Gilchrist is the first African American lieutenant governor to sign a bill into law.

Lower quits race to unseat U.S. Rep. Amash in Michigan's 3rd Distri WGUV Thu November 21, 2019
 Republican state Rep. Jim Lower has ended his campaign for a Grand Rapids-area congressional seat, citing fundraising challenges and family concerns...

G.R. Launches Online GR News Hub WGUV Thu November 21, 2019
 The City of Grand Rapids is making it easier for residents to keep track of city happenings. The Office of Communications has launched an online hub...

Officials: Multistate hepatitis A cases traced to berries WGUV Thu November 21, 2019
 Nebraska and federal health officials say a hepatitis A outbreak that includes Nebraska, Indiana and Wisconsin has been traced to blackberries sold in

ACLU Sues ICE About Detaining U.S. Marine Corps Veteran WGUV Thu November 21, 2019
 Last Thanksgiving Jilmar Ramos-Gomez suffered a PTSD-related mental health episode and the Grand Rapids Police Department arrested him on the roof of...

ACLU-Michigan files lawsuit against ICE WGVU Wed November 20, 2019

A Michigan man who was detained by U-S Immigration and Customs Enforcement is suing the federal agency. ICE says Jilmar Ramos-Gomez repeatedly told...

Grand Valley revives pledge for student government meetings WGVU Wed November 20, 2019

After a backlash, student government at Grand Valley State University is reinstating the Pledge of Allegiance at meetings. Student Senate President...

Disaster help available to Michigan farms, small businesses WGVU Wed November 20, 2019

Farms and small businesses in much of Michigan are eligible for low-interest federal loans because of heavy rain and snow and unseasonably low...

MPSC warns of a new phone scam WGVU Wed November 20, 2019

Officials are warning the public about a new phone scam targeting utility customers. The Michigan Public Service Commission is urging people to be on...

Secretary of State will allow people to change gender markers for a WGVU Wed November 20, 2019

Last month, Finn Marcks finally received in the mail a brand new passport card with updated gender markers, but he says it wasn't easy or cheap for...

Ex-lawmakers sue to block Michigan's legislative term limits WGVU Wed November 20, 2019

Eight former Michigan lawmakers are suing to challenge the state's legislative term limits, alleging they are unconstitutional and ensure that the

House explosion, fire injures 2 people WGVU Wed November 20, 2019

Two people have been injured in a house explosion in western Michigan. The blast occurred Tuesday afternoon in Egleston Township, northwest of Grand...

House Democrats call for "Housing Justice Bills" WGVU Tue November 19, 2019

Some state lawmakers have introduced bills they say would prevent housing discrimination based on income. Democratic Representative Yousef Rabhi is a...

Michigan to mail redistricting panel applications to 250,000 WGVU Tue November 19, 2019

The state of Michigan will mail 250,000 applications encouraging voters to apply to serve on a new commission responsible for drawing congressional...

Governor Whitmer signs startup memo in Israel WGVU Tue November 19, 2019

Gov. Gretchen Whitmer, who is in Israel for her first international trade trip, has signed a memorandum of understanding to identify Israeli-based

Invitations to join redistricting commission ready to go WGVU Tue November 19, 2019

Invitations will soon be in the mail asking voters to apply to be part of Michigan's new redistricting commission. The commission will draw new

Ann Arbor votes to kill up to 150 deer due to overpopulation WGVU Tue November 19, 2019

Ann Arbor is aiming at 150 more deer. The city council approved a plan to kill deer that are living in parks and natural areas and on some private...

American Lung Association: FDA needs to crack down on vaping co WGVU Tue November 19, 2019

In the wake of a lung disease epidemic related to vaping products that has taken over 40 lives nationwide, the American Lung Association (ALA) is...

Mel Trotter: Collecting Turkeys & Coats At 16th Turkey Drop WGVU Tue November 19, 2019

Now in its 16 th year, it's time once again for Mel Trotter Ministries annual "Turkey Drop". The goal is to collect turkeys and coats for those in...

Attorney: Ex-Marine held by Iran seeks victim's fund payment WGVU Tue November 19, 2019

A former Marine who was imprisoned by Iran on suspicion of spying is seeking payment from a fund intended for victims of state-sponsored terrorism.

6th fatality linked to Eastern Equine Encephalitis reported WGVU Tue November 19, 2019

Michigan health authorities are reporting a 6th fatality linked to Eastern Equine Encephalitis. Berrien County Health Department officials said...

Grand Rapids will honor translives lost in Transday of Remembranc WGVU Tue November 19, 2019

According to the largest U.S. advocacy group for lesbian, gay, bisexual and transgender people, 22 transgender or gender non-conforming people have...

Benson simplifies accurate transgender IDs WGVU Mon November 18, 2019

A new state policy makes it faster and easier for people to get a Michigan ID or driver's license that matches their gender identity. The rule is...

GRPS' Buchanan Elementary School to receive 350 new winter coat WGVU Mon November 18, 2019

With the cold winter months upon us, students at a local elementary school are getting free winter coats on Tuesday. Molina Healthcare of Michigan is

Auto union opens talks with Fiat Chrysler with a strike possible WGVU Mon November 18, 2019

The United Auto Workers union has begun to focus bargaining on Fiat Chrysler, raising the possibility of another strike against a Detroit automaker....

Whitmer heads to Israel on first international trip as governor WGVU Mon November 18, 2019

Governor Gretchen Whitmer is in Israel this week. This is Whitmer's first international trip as governor. Governor Whitmer's week-long trip will...

New initiatives aim to make GVSU a 21st Century education leader WGVU Mon November 18, 2019

Grand Valley State's new President hopes to make the school a "breakout university" and a "21 st century education leader" in the state of Michigan...

Meijer Gardens: Christmas & Holiday Traditions Exhibition

WGVU Mon November 18, 2019

The holidays are almost upon us. One opportunity that will likely get you into the holiday spirit starts next week. It's the annual Metro Health...

School News Network: Godwin Poetry Slam

WGVU Mon November 18, 2019

Godwin Middle School eighth graders tapped into their own stories to write poetry, inspired by authors and the poetry of rapper Tupac Shakur. When

Ford Versus Ferrari tops the weekend box office

WGVU Mon November 18, 2019

Ford v.s. Ferrari topped the box office receipts at 31 million dollars. Charlie's Angels bombed over the weekend with a weak 8 million dollars,...

US group says 803 unbelted rear-seat passengers died in 2018

WGVU Mon November 18, 2019

A highway safety group says over 800 rear-seat passengers who weren't wearing seat belts died last year in U.S. traffic crashes, showing that states...

Study links Asian carp with Mississippi River fish drop

WGVU Mon November 18, 2019

A new study says sport fish have declined significantly in portions of the Upper Mississippi River infested with Asian carp. The study's lead author...

Grand Valley State students drop pledge at campus meeting

WGVU Mon November 18, 2019

Members of the student government at Grand Valley State University scratched the Pledge of Allegiance from the agenda at a recent meeting. Student...

Michigan easing permit process to fight lakeshore erosion

WGVU Mon November 18, 2019

State regulators say they want to make it easier for lakeshore property owners to get permits to temporarily fix the effects of high waves and strong...

United Auto Workers approve new 4-year contract with Ford

WGVU Mon November 18, 2019

Members of the United Auto Workers union at Ford Motor Co. have voted to approve a new contract with the company. The union says in a statement Friday

Liberal PAC files 3rd challenge to Michigan election laws

WGVU Mon November 18, 2019

A liberal group has filed a third challenge to portions of Michigan's election laws, contesting rules governing how people can register to vote in...

Jake Allen

WGVU Mon November 18, 2019

WGVU's Pop Up Concerts continues this Wednesday night, on stage at the Listening Room, the talents of Michigan based singer songwriter Jake Allen, a

Naturally Speaking

WGVU Mon November 18, 2019

We talk with Tom Jones, founder and president of Michigan Operation Freedom Outdoors on behalf of the DNR, this important nonprofit that offers...

YNPN WGUV Mon November 18, 2019

Guests from YNPN share their news of Leadership success, plus plans for 2020 in the making. We talk to Membership Co Chairs Hallie Billingham and...

Grand Rapids International Wine, Beer & Food Festival WGUV Mon November 18, 2019

This Thursday kicks off the annual Grand Rapids International Wine, Beer & Food Festival, we speak with Festival Manager Dawn Baker.

All Belong Center WGUV Mon November 18, 2019

We talk about the All Belong Center for Inclusive Education. providing services for inclusive education to ensure that persons of all abilities...

2020 USA Masters Games WGUV Mon November 18, 2019

Registration opens for the 2020 USA Masters Games in GR. The games happen June 19-28, Eric Engelbarts, ED of the Meijer State Games of Michigan to...

Pine Rest Urgent Care WGUV Mon November 18, 2019

Pine Rest's Psychiatric Urgent Care Center has served nearly 3000 patients in its first month of operation, today TMS talking to Dr. Mark Eastburg,

All About Holland WGUV Mon November 18, 2019

All About Holland, today Holland Area Arts Council's Lori Gramer and Thomas Reverman discuss SinterKlaas eve, woodworking at the council and more

College Behind Bars WGUV Mon November 18, 2019

Coming up on WGUV TV, the docu-series College Behind Bars premieres November 25, with a local screening happening this Thursday night at Calvin...

Retrouvaille (Part II) WGUV Mon November 18, 2019

Julie and Tony Gessner return to continue our conversation about the marriage help program Retrouvaille. Retrouvaille's primary goal is to provide...

Rep. Huizenga faces ethics inquiry into Disney trips WGUV Fri November 15, 2019

West Michigan Congressman Bill Huizenga faces an ethics investigation. A bipartisan committee has voted to go ahead with an inquiry into Disney World...

Nessel vows to crackdown on robocalls WGUV Fri November 15, 2019

Illegal robocalls are not welcome in Michigan. State Attorney General Dana Nessel announced a new initiative today to crack down on the annoying...

Investiture ceremony of Grand Valley State University's fifth President WGUV Fri November 15, 2019

The Grand Valley State University Fieldhouse served as the backdrop for the investiture ceremony. More than 200 faculty and staff members joined...

Engineering firms win key ruling in Flint water lawsuit

WGVU Fri November 15, 2019

A judge has dismissed much of a civil lawsuit filed against engineering companies that were hired by Flint during its disastrous water switch in 2014...

Cold ends mosquito season, rare virus threat in SW Michigan

WGVU Fri November 15, 2019

Health officials in a southwestern Michigan county say cold weather has ended this year's mosquito season and with it the threat of a deadly mosquito...

Hunters prepare to hit the woods for firearms deer season

WGVU Fri November 15, 2019

Thousands of hunters will trek into Michigan woods and fields Friday as firearms deer season opens. The season runs through Nov. 30. The Department of

Ford recalls F-150s; loose cable can cause stalling or fires

WGVU Fri November 15, 2019

Ford is recalling over 168,000 F-150 pickup trucks in North America to fix an electrical problem that could cause engine stalling or fires. The recall

Jake Allen performs the next WGVU Pop Up Concert

WGVU Thu November 14, 2019

Michigan based singer songwriter Jake Allen is the next performer at WGVU's Pop Up Concert series. It's Wednesday, Nov 20th at 7:00 at The Listening...

Whitmer says MI can cut opioid addiction in half

WGVU Thu November 14, 2019

Governor Gretchen Whitmer has set a goal of cutting in half the number of opioid-overdose deaths in Michigan. Governor Whitmer visited a clinic that

Wyoming's HOM Flats at 28 West providing workforce housing

WGVU Thu November 14, 2019

The site of the former Studio 28 in Wyoming will soon be transformed into more than 200 apartments. The Studio 28 movie theater located on Wyoming's...

Multimedia content for and by communities of color will debut on

WGVU Thu November 14, 2019

Regularly, people of color are overrepresented in the media as criminals and changing this narrative is exactly what WGVU Public Media Producer...

Salvation Army Red Kettle Campaign Embraces Technology

WGVU Thu November 14, 2019

The Salvation Army's Red Kettle Campaign has gone high tech. The campaign is in its second week and officials say this year they're embracing...

Study: meditation linked to fewer mistakes

WGVU Thu November 14, 2019

A recent study from Michigan State University has shown that people who meditate may be less likely to make mistakes. Researchers from MSU ran a...

Union enacts ethics reforms in wake of federal investigation

WGVU Thu November 14, 2019

The United Auto Workers union will tighten financial controls, ban contributions from employers and vendors to charities run by its officers, and...

Job opening: Michigan SOS Office encouraging residents to apply f WGUV Thu November 14, 2019
 After Michigan voters last year approved the creation of a citizen lead commission to redraw Michigan's legislative district lines, the Secretary of...

Michigan opens door to recreational pot sales in December WGUV Thu November 14, 2019
 The state of Michigan is opening the door to the sale of marijuana for recreational use starting in December, which is earlier than expected. The...

Suit seeks to block Michigan restrictions on helping voters WGUV Thu November 14, 2019
 A Democratic group is challenging Michigan's restrictions on transporting voters to the polls and helping people apply for absentee ballots, asking a

Talk On Wine WGUV Thu November 14, 2019
 Talk on wine. Winemaker Mike Laing in studio to talk all things Mawby Bubbly with Holiday fun, discussing wine/food pairing and traveling in Leelanau.

Talk On Wine WGUV Thu November 14, 2019
 Talk on wine. Winemaker Mike Laing in studio to talk all things Mawby Bubbly with Holiday fun, discussing wine/food pairing and traveling in Leelanau.

Michigan car insurance fee falling to $100 a vehicle in July WGUV Thu November 14, 2019
 Michigan drivers who want unlimited medical coverage for crash injuries will pay $100 per vehicle starting in July, which will be 55% less than the...

WestSide Stride Community Run WGUV Thu November 14, 2019
 The WestSide Stride Community Run on Bridge Street hosts a donation drive to collect items for students of need. Samantha Bennett and Jessica Slaydon...

City Commission approves plan to overhaul Grand Rapids' South Di WGUV Thu November 14, 2019
 The southside of Grand Rapids may look dramatically different 10 years from now, as city officials on Tuesday approved the South Division Corridor...

Veteran who handed over to Immigration authorities by police settl WGUV Thu November 14, 2019
 Last thanksgiving, Jilmar Ramos-Gomez was threatened with deportation when a Grand Rapids Police Department Captain Curt Vanderkooi contacted...

Men's Shed WGUV Thu November 14, 2019
 We talk Mens' Shed with creator Christopher Wilson.

Cocktail Week GR WGUV Thu November 14, 2019
 Grand Rapids' Stephanie Bradley joins in to discuss all things Cocktail Week GR, kicking off this week. This 12 day celebration features Michigan made

Franciscan Life Process Center

WGVU Thu November 14, 2019

We continue our series putting the spotlight on the Franciscan Life Process Center, today discussing the Land with Sister Colleen Ann Nagle and Site

National Pickle Day

WGVU Thu November 14, 2019

It's National Pickle Day, Louise Howe from McClure's Pickles, discusses the health benefits and why they may be the perfect food.

City Beat

WGVU Thu November 14, 2019

City Beat, where to go, what to do come the weekend, the list from GR Magazine's Charlsie Dewey.

For a Better Us

WGVU Thu November 14, 2019

For a Better Us, guests in on behalf of the YMCA, today all things Hour of Impact next week, talking today the the Y's Paul Petr and Maranda from...

What Do I DO?

WGVU Thu November 14, 2019

Author and Grief Expert Kim Calabrese discusses her personal mission to help those deal with grief, herself losing a 6 month old to suffocation. Her...

JoAnn Falletta

WGVU Thu November 14, 2019

Grammy Award winning conductor JoAnn Falletta returns to the GR Symphony stage, in addition to world class violinist Tai Murray. We talk to JoAnn...

Judge allows lawsuit seeking action on Lake Erie algae

WGVU Wed November 13, 2019

A federal judge in Ohio says an environmental group pushing for mandatory regulations to prevent toxic algae blooms on Lake Erie can move forward...

Supplemental budget likely shelved until after holiday

WGVU Wed November 13, 2019

Any plans to reinstate funding for programs that were the victim of controversial vetoes will likely have to wait a few weeks. Today was the last...

MCCA fee will drop 55 percent due to new auto insurance law

WGVU Wed November 13, 2019

An insurance industry group says a fee charged to many Michigan drivers will drop by more than half. That's due to a change in the state's auto...

22 presidential candidates listed for Michigan primary

WGVU Wed November 13, 2019

Eighteen Democrats and four Republicans, including President Donald Trump, are currently listed as candidates in Michigan's March primary. Tuesday...

Top Democrat assails Trump's $16B trade bailout for farmers

WGVU Wed November 13, 2019

A top Michigan Democrat says President Donald Trump's $16 billion bailout for farmers hurt by the trade war with China unfairly picks winners and...

Michigan budget standoff unlikely to end until December WGVU Wed November 13, 2019

A budget standoff between the Republican-led Legislature and Democratic Gov. Gretchen Whitmer is unlikely to be resolved until December at the...

New Coffee shop in town says they will provide meaningful work fo WGVU Wed November 13, 2019

For over a year Meghan Beggs was actively looking for an entry level position where she could earn some real work experience, but it was not until she

Life sentence affirmed in drug-related death in SW Michigan WGVU Wed November 13, 2019

An appeals court has upheld a life sentence for a man who was blamed for the drug-related death of another man in the Kalamazoo area. The federal...

Suit seeks to block Michigan restrictions on helping voters WGVU Wed November 13, 2019

A Democratic group is challenging Michigan's restrictions on transporting voters to the polls and helping people apply for absentee ballots, asking a

Versiti WGVU Wed November 13, 2019

Versiti's Liz Collver spends time talking all things Giving Blood

3:11 Youth Housing WGVU Wed November 13, 2019

3:11 Youth Housing Mary DeYoung receives her thank yous for a job well done and discuss her mission.

American Red Cross WGVU Wed November 13, 2019

The American Red Cross' Tiffany Page receives her thank yous for a job well done and discuss her organization.

Helping The Homeless WGVU Wed November 13, 2019

We give thanks to the services of Guiding Light we are joined by Starla McDermott.

Degage Ministries WGVU Wed November 13, 2019

Degage Ministries Brooke Jevicks talks about the ministry to those living downtown and Cherry Health Client Robert Tolbert shares a thanking...

Grand Rapids Community Foundation WGVU Wed November 13, 2019

Grand Rapids Community Foundation's Marilyn Zack discuss community giving plus guests from Major Glen Caddy from the Salvation Army talks all things...

Mel Trotter Ministries WGVU Wed November 13, 2019

Mel Trotter Ministries' Dennis Van Kampen and Family Promises' Kate Okeefe talk about their missions and how the community can help.

Studio Park

WGVU Wed November 13, 2019

Studio Park's Emily Loeks kicks off the morn to discuss all things Studio Park and its plan to contribute to downtown GR. Joining in, we thank...

Michigan budget standoff unlikely to end until December

WGVU Tue November 12, 2019

A budget standoff between the Republican-led Legislature and Democratic Gov. Gretchen Whitmer is unlikely to be resolved until December at the...

Shirkey compares abortion to slavery; Democrats speak out

WGVU Tue November 12, 2019

The state Senate Majority Leader is under fire for comments he made about abortion on a radio show. Senator Mike Shirkey was asked about a package of...

WGVU presents FRONTLINE: Kids Caught in the Crackdown

WGVU Tue November 12, 2019

On Tuesday, November 12th, WGVU Public Television presents FRONTLINE's Kids Caught in the Crackdown : exposing the traumatic stories of migrant...

Report shows mixed results on Great Lakes lamprey control

WGVU Tue November 12, 2019

Officials say populations of fish-killing sea lamprey remain at near-historic lows in Lakes Michigan and Ontario but are above target levels in Lakes...

W. Michigan First Responders Partner To Promote "Move-Over" La

WGVU Tue November 12, 2019

A number of West Michigan first responders are partnering to promote safety and the "move over" emergency vehicle caution law. It's part of National

Michigan sees a decline in hunting licenses across the state

WGVU Tue November 12, 2019

Hunting wildlife has long been ingrained in Michigan's culture, but it is currently on a decline across the state. The decline is partly due to more...

America's Test Kitchen

WGVU Tue November 12, 2019

America's Test Kitchen as seen on WGVU TV turns 20. We talk to Executive Editorial Director/Co host Julia Collin

Local First

WGVU Tue November 12, 2019

Local First means People First, Communities thrive when the economy puts people first. We talk to Mieke Stoub and Alice Jasper about sustainability...

Vintage Parlor Orchestra

WGVU Tue November 12, 2019

Music Director for the Vintage Parlor Orchestra talks about the upcoming concerts at Creston Brewery. Local classical musicians bring orchestral...

The Listening Room

WGVU Tue November 12, 2019

Studio Park's The Listening Room welcomes musician Cameron Blake on the 16th, releasing a 3rd album. We talk about the role music plays in West...

Telling Your Story WGUV Tue November 12, 2019

Telling Your Story, each month Emmanuel Hospice brings you stories from the community about the challenges and joys of life. This month, Jackie...

What We're Up Against WGUV Tue November 12, 2019

GVSU Theatre presents What We're Up Against, Directed by Karen Libman, exploring the ways women are quietly and loudly undermined. We talk to Karen...

Wellness At Work WGUV Tue November 12, 2019

Wellness at Work, guests in to discuss the best ways to stay well from 9-5. We talk to Dietician's Wendy Brookhouse and Janique Berard, about the

Turkey Trot WGUV Tue November 12, 2019

Soon, it's Turkey Trot time. GRPS and Blue Care Network partner to present the 6th annual Turkey Trot, in downtown Grand Rapids. We talk to Kurt...

The Holland Area Arts Council WGUV Tue November 12, 2019

The Holland Area Arts Council presents rarified objects via a collaboration by Lorma Freestone and Thea Grigsby, honoring works of unsung women of our

Justice opines "discount standing" in lawsuit against Michigan Kohl' WGUV Mon November 11, 2019

An Arizona man can continue his lawsuit against a Michigan Kohl's department store. The lawsuit claims two Detroit-area Kohls locations did not have

98-year-old WW2 soldier gives keynote at Veterans Day celebration WGUV Mon November 11, 2019

The City of Muskegon hosted its annual Veterans Day ceremony at the Causeway Veterans Memorial Park Monday, to honor those from West Michigan who...

Vaping-related lung transplant performed at Detroit hospital WGUV Mon November 11, 2019

Doctors at a Detroit hospital have performed a double lung transplant on a man whose lungs were damaged from vaping. No other details of the...

Mel Trotter: Code Blue In Effect To Help Homeless WGUV Mon November 11, 2019

In preparation for plummeting temps, Mel Trotter Ministries is shifting into "Code Blue" status. Mel Trotter uses Code Blue to describe the most...

Independent Citizens Redistricting Commission WGUV Mon November 11, 2019

Secretary of State Joselyn Benson joins TMS to discuss in invitation to free application workshops in GR and Kzoo for Independent Citizens...

Veterans History Project WGUV Mon November 11, 2019

We talk about the Veterans History Project with Col Karen Lloyd, US Army, Ret.

Michigan teachers honor veterans who are former students WGVU Mon November 11, 2019

Two history teachers at a Michigan high school have created a Veterans Wall of Honor to pay tribute to former students who have served their country...

Your Home By Design WGVU Mon November 11, 2019

Your Home By Design, talking today with Deidre Remtema, Principle Interior Designer, who partners with GR Magazine, presenting the feature story for a

Gas prices in Michigan are increasing. The average price for gasolin WGVU Mon November 11, 2019

Michigan drivers are now paying an average price of $2.52 per gallon for regular unleaded. Monday's state average is eleven cents more than a week...

Brother of Michigan State star dies after being hit by train WGVU Mon November 11, 2019

The brother of Michigan State basketball star Cassius Winston has died after being struck by an Amtrak train Saturday night. Scott Kipp, Albion's...

Michigan group to hold talk on vaping and risk to children WGVU Mon November 11, 2019

CARE of Southeastern Michigan is presenting a discussion in Macomb County about vaping and its risk to children. Tuesday night's free event will be...

Hunt. Fish. Feed. WGVU Mon November 11, 2019

Hunt. Fish. Feed. A teaming of Sportsman Channel and Comcast to provide dinner tonight for those who have served our country at Exodus Place in GR....

Mercy Health will be closing a downtown Grand Rapids clinic WGVU Mon November 11, 2019

Mercy Health Heartside Health Center is located along South Division, and has been operating since 1988 but at the end of this year the clinic will be

Retrouvaille WGVU Mon November 11, 2019

We speak with Julie and Tony Gessner about the marriage help program Retrouvaille. Retrouvaille's primary goal is to provide help for couples who...

Veteran's Whole Health WGVU Mon November 11, 2019

Today is Veterans Day, talking to Dr. Benjamin Kligler, Acting ED of the VHA Office of Patient Centered Care and Cultural Transformation, this day a...

Perspectives in Philanthropy WGVU Mon November 11, 2019

Perspectives in Philanthropy. today's theme with GRCF's Jonse Young and Jenine Torres. GRCF's awarding of dollars to expand locally driven...

West Michigan's Potters Guild WGVU Mon November 11, 2019

The West Michigan Potters Guild's Fall Show and Sale is this weekend, Jeff Ham to discuss this opportunity to support the 50 guild potters...

New Holland Museum Exhibit WGVU Mon November 11, 2019

Holland Museum's ED Ricki Levine joins TMS to discuss the upcoming exhibition THEM: Images of Separation, which opens this weekend, plus don't miss...

BCBS of Michigan WGVU Mon November 11, 2019

BCBS of Michigan's Andy Hetzel joins TMS to talk about the opportunity for kids to ride in the Thanksgiving Day, followed by a special Lions game day.

Quality Hospice and Palliative Care WGVU Mon November 11, 2019

This is National Awareness Month for Quality Hospice and Palliative Care, involved is Harbor Hospice and Harbor Palliative Care. We talk to Cheri...

Giving Tuesday WGVU Mon November 11, 2019

As we move closer to Thanksgiving and Giving Tuesday, we give thanks to those who serve. Today, Lt. William Smith with the reminder of the good work...

Dow agrees to $77M environmental restoration settlement WGVU Fri November 8, 2019

Dow Chemical Co. has agreed to spend $77 million on environmental restoration projects to compensate for pollution by its plant in Midland, Michigan.

School News Network: Rockford Crestwood Elementary mural proj WGVU Fri November 8, 2019

Students and teachers at Rockford's Crestwood Elementary School wanted to express the idea of kindness and community in their school. They did so by

Movie Talk WGVU Fri November 8, 2019

Eric Kuiper from Studio C stops in previewing Doctor Sleep , Midway , Last Christmas , Playing with Fire and Jojo Rabbit . Also, the documentary...

Whitmer: Budget deal was close before Senate walked away WGVU Fri November 8, 2019

Governor Gretchen Whitmer says a deal was close to restore many millions of dollars in budget cuts when state Senate Republicans walked away from the

Special Olympics Michigan To Create A Statewide Hub WGVU Fri November 8, 2019

The former South Christian High School campus will soon be transformed. Special Olympics Michigan announced it's purchased the campus and will...

WalletHub: Michigan Ranks Among Fattest States WGVU Fri November 8, 2019

With November being National Diabetes Awareness Month and Americans collectively spending nearly 200-billion dollars annually on obesity-related...

October Institute for Supply Management Research survey identifie WGVU Fri November 8, 2019

The October Institute for Supply Management Research survey has been released indicating the local economy will continue a marginal growth pattern...

All About Women

WGVU Fri November 8, 2019

All About Women, Dr. Robyn Hubbard discussing Low Sex Drive in Women of all ages and decades, what is wrong?

Ottawa County Water Quality Forum

WGVU Fri November 8, 2019

Eco Insider, guests in on behalf of WMEAC, today Director of Water Programs Elaine Sterrett Isely and Ottawa County Admin Alan Vanderberg, discussing...

Momentum Center for Social Engagement

WGVU Fri November 8, 2019

In two years since it's opening, the Momentum Center for Social Engagement in Grand Haven has become a second home for many, making a difference in...

1000 Place to Visit Before You Die

WGVU Fri November 8, 2019

Get your bucket list done, with Author Patricia Schultz back with her latest guide, 1000 Place to Visit Before You Die: The World As You've Never...

Annis Water Resources Institute

WGVU Fri November 8, 2019

Annis Water Resources Institute's Dr. Alan Steinman discusses a recent visit to Beijing, a Great Lakes coaster wetland special airing on WGVU TV,...

Kendall College of Art and Design

WGVU Fri November 8, 2019

Guests from Kendall College of Art and Design of Ferris State University talk about an open house tomorrow, sharing their spaces to creative...

Heather Antos

WGVU Fri November 8, 2019

Award winning Comic Book Editor Heather Antos known for her work on Marvel's Star Wars and Deadpool lines, joins TMS to talk about this weekend's GR...

Michigan Supreme Court takes case of foreclosure windfalls

WGVU Fri November 8, 2019

A lawyer on Thursday warned the Michigan Supreme Court that local governments could face a financial calamity if forced to repay surplus cash from...

Budget impasse remains due to dispute over shifting funds

WGVU Fri November 8, 2019

Gov. Gretchen Whitmer and Republican lawmakers said Thursday that they were very close to agreeing to restore some funding she vetoed during a budget

Officer convicted of extortion in vehicle referral scheme

WGVU Fri November 8, 2019

A Detroit police officer has been found guilty in connection with a scheme where bribes were given by collision shop owners in exchange for referrals...

Report on Uber crash questions testing of self-driving cars

WGVU Fri November 8, 2019

Documents released this week by a federal agency raise questions about whether a self-driving Uber SUV that ran down a pedestrian last year should...

West Michigan United Way

WGVU Fri November 8, 2019

We continue to talk about affordable housing with guests on behalf of the Heart of West Michigan United Way, Jenn Schaub, Latrisha Sosebee and more to

West Michigan United Way

WGVU Fri November 8, 2019

We continue to talk about affordable housing with guests on behalf of the Heart of West Michigan United Way, Jenn Schaub, Latrisha Sosebee and more to

Forum on Homelessness

WGVU Fri November 8, 2019

A forum on Homelessness is slated for Sunday, in Kentwood. This community conversation will include WMU's Marshall Kilgore, with Judge William Kelly...

Two Michigan police officers cleared in man's fatal shooting

WGVU Thu November 7, 2019

The fatal shooting of a 27-year-old man by two police officers in northern Michigan has been ruled justified. Charlevoix County Prosecutor Allen...

Shirkey: No trust with governor, no deal without law limiting her po

WGVU Thu November 7, 2019

The state Senate Majority Leader has said no to a potential deal to restore some budget items Governor Gretchen Whitmer had vetoed. Whitmer and...

Muskegon Heights has new mayor after clerical gaffe keeps incumb

WGVU Thu November 7, 2019

The city of Muskegon Heights has a new mayor after Tuesday's election, however a clerical error may have cost the incumbent her job. Challenger and

WMU faculty uncovers racial bias in jury selection

WGVU Thu November 7, 2019

Researchers Whitney DeCamp and Elise DeCamp were first inspired to study racial bias among jury selection processes after listening to the second...

GOP leaders, Whitmer eye potential end to budget impasse

WGVU Thu November 7, 2019

Gov. Gretchen Whitmer and the Republican-led Legislature may be close to resolving a budget impasse that led her to veto nearly $1 billion in proposed

Voters cast ballots for disgraced city council member even after rac

WGVU Thu November 7, 2019

A city council candidate in Michigan who dropped out after saying she wanted to keep her community white "as much as possible" still received 4% of...

New detox center as Muskegon continues to have some of the wor

WGVU Thu November 7, 2019

Construction on a new drug and alcohol detox center is set to begin in Muskegon, as the city and surrounding area continue to struggle with addiction

Breaking Mews and Pupdates

WGVU Thu November 7, 2019

Breaking Mews and Pupdates, guests in studio from the Humane Society of West Michigan, today Parker Smart talks all things throw for good at Target, a

KDL Lab Extravaganza

WGVU Thu November 7, 2019

Kent District Library's Holly Goulet and Craig Buno discuss the KDL Lab Extravaganza, what cool things are happening at this event and why is STEAM

Laughfest

WGVU Thu November 7, 2019

Gilda's Laughfest opens its registration for those interested in performing during the 2020 festival, talking today with President of Gilda's Wendy...

Rapid Growth Media

WGVU Thu November 7, 2019

Guests from Rapid Growth Media talk all things Headline news, Publisher Tommy Allen and a "sister" discuss a great example of a "sister-start-up"...

West Michigan Symphony

WGVU Thu November 7, 2019

The West Michigan Symphony offers its Beethoven and Blue Jeans concert this weekend, Music Director Scott Speck and Pianist Charlie Albright with the

Franciscan Life Process Center

WGVU Thu November 7, 2019

We begin a 4 part series talking about the "Center". Guests from the Franciscan Life Process Center discuss their 4 pillars, today Sandy Koteskey and

Veterans 5 Celebration

WGVU Thu November 7, 2019

Monday we salute the Veterans but Saturday many gather for pancakes and fitness at the Grand Rapids Veterans Home. Event Director Kristin Aidif in...

Swedish American Heritage Society

WGVU Thu November 7, 2019

Sweden's Richard Tellstrom lectures this weekend about Swedish food culture and the Christmas Julbord. Elise Roe, President of the Swedish American

Michigan affirms offer to share Asian carp project costs

WGVU Wed November 6, 2019

Michigan says it remains willing to contribute $8 million toward initial stages of a project to prevent Asian carp from reaching the Great Lakes.

G.R. Voters Approve Permanent Parks Millage

WGVU Wed November 6, 2019

The votes are in and Grand Rapids voters approved the parks, pools and playgrounds proposal. "This is a big win for the community and something we're

Michigan affirms offer to share Asian carp project cost

WGVU Wed November 6, 2019

Michigan says it remains willing to contribute $8 million toward initial stages of a project to prevent Asian carp from reaching the Great Lakes.

Michigan House votes to lift ban on baiting, feeding deer

WGVU Wed November 6, 2019

Legislation advancing in Michigan would lift the state's ban on baiting and feeding deer in the Lower Peninsula and parts of the Upper Peninsula. The...

Lions Club International WGUV Wed November 6, 2019

Celebrating 100 years, a local service club gives back to the community. We talk to the 2nd VP Lions Club International Brian Sheehan and Lion Lori.

Inspire Your Home WGUV Wed November 6, 2019

Author Farah Merhi writes the book Inspire Your Home, sharing her creative and elegant interior design secrets. Merhi founded Inspire Me. Home Decor...

Grand Rapids Board of Education backs legislation that would give WGUV Wed November 6, 2019

Kristian Grant is the chair of the Grand Rapids Board of Education and she was the one responsible for asking the board to approve backing...

Red Kettle Kick Off WGUV Wed November 6, 2019

Guests from the Salvation Army join in, discussing this Friday's Red Kettle Kick Off in partnership with SpartanNash at Knapps Crossing D & W...

Michigan Women Forward WGUV Wed November 6, 2019

Michigan Women Forward presents the WomanUP and Pitch Business Plan and Pitch Competition Thursday, Judy Welch and Consumers Energy Roger Morgenstern

Cask and Kettle WGUV Wed November 6, 2019

Cask and Kettle's Pete Boroza talks about the latest release in brewed cocktails, including Mexican Coffee The brewer in the house.

16 Over 60 Gala WGUV Wed November 6, 2019

Senior Neighbors hosts its second annual 16 over 60 awards gala November 13th, honoring community leaders, volunteers and more. Carl Ver Beek and Bob

Xavier Riddle and the Secret Museum WGUV Wed November 6, 2019

Xavier Riddle and the Secret Museum premieres on PBS Kids November 11, based on the book by Brad Meltzer. We talk to Brad.

Hospice of Michigan WGUV Wed November 6, 2019

Hospice of Michigan hosts an exclusive screening of Jumanji: The Next Level in GR to benefit pediatric patients in Michigan. We talk to Barbara...

Library of Michigan WGUV Wed November 6, 2019

Tuned into the Library of Michigan, guests from the State Library discussing important topics, today Family History Research at the Library with Adam...

Bliss re-elected as mayor of Grand Rapids, Ysasi "emotional" after WGUV Wed November 6, 2019

Voters Tuesday re-elected Rosalynn Bliss as the mayor of Grand Rapids, defeating challenger and local pastor Daniel Schutt in a "landslide." Bliss,...

Man who slept in dumpster is rescued from trash truck

WGVU Tue November 5, 2019

Police have rescued a man from a trash truck in Kalamazoo after he fell asleep in a dumpster. The man screamed for help after the dumpster was...

Election Day: What's at stake in Muskegon and Grand Rapids

WGVU Tue November 5, 2019

Voters across West Michigan today will head to the polls to elect city officials and vote on a number of proposals. In the city of Grand Rapids,...

Pine Rest reveals Psychiatric Urgent Care Center activity since openi

WGVU Tue November 5, 2019

Pine Rest Christian Mental Health Services opened its Psychiatric Urgent Care Center six months ago. How is this new service addressing mental health...

Schools, museums, cultural centers receive humanities grants

WGVU Tue November 5, 2019

More than a dozen universities, museums and art and cultural centers across Michigan have been awarded grants for projects and programs. Michigan

Forecast calls for continued high water in Great Lakes

WGVU Tue November 5, 2019

A new forecast says Great Lakes levels are likely to remain unusually high and may set additional records. The U.S. Army Corps of Engineers office in

City of GR opens funding opportunity for residents

WGVU Tue November 5, 2019

The Neighborhood Match Fund is an opportunity for any Grand Rapids resident to receive up to $2,500 dollars for projects that benefit the public,...

Elf the Musical

WGVU Tue November 5, 2019

GR Civic Theatre presents Elf the Musical, this holiday show opening November 22. We talk to TJ Clark, playing Buddy, and Bruce Tinker, Director.

Michigan Heroes Museum

WGVU Tue November 5, 2019

The Director of the Michigan Heroes Museum in the house, John Ryder, discussing the many exhibits, including an exhibit featuring Ralph Hauenstein,...

Kindness and Wonder

WGVU Tue November 5, 2019

Author Gavin Edwards writes the book Kindness and Wonder: Why Mr. Rogers Matters Now More than Ever. We talk about this capture of the spirit of Fred

Design Thinking

WGVU Tue November 5, 2019

Let's discuss a Design Thinking Series, GVSU DT Speaker Series continuing this fall on the evening of November 13th, workshops and presentations,...

Commercial Real Estate Insider

WGVU Tue November 5, 2019

Commercial Real Estate Insiders, guests in studio on behalf of the CAR, today's topic, the Multi Family Market with Michael Cagen, Anne Ficeli and...

By Leaps & Bounds: Ready by Five Early Childhood Millage Update WGVU Tue November 5, 2019

The purpose of the Ready by Five Early Childhood Millage is to provide dedicated and sustainable funding for programs that improve the health, school

Delight in Designs WGVU Tue November 5, 2019

Delight in Designs hosts an event this month, 11 local shops working together to offer customers discounts with an opportunity to give back,...

West Michigan Nice is Not an Inclusion Strategy WGVU Tue November 5, 2019

We talk to guests in studio about the upcoming event "West Michigan Nice is Not an Inclusion Strategy", Paul Doyle and Adrienne Wallace talk about...

From Where I Sit WGVU Tue November 5, 2019

From Where I Sit, monthly crunching the numbers with Furniture Analyst Mike Dunlap.

WGVU New Music Showcase: The Hal Galpert Trio WGVU Mon November 4, 2019

The Hal Galpert Trio has released a new concert album, The Zone: Live at the Yardbird Suite . WGVU's Music Director Scott Vander Werf previews this

GVSU President outlines Reach Higher Together imperatives WGVU Mon November 4, 2019

Grand Valley State University President Philomena Mantella outlined her strategy for the school's future during the November Board of Trustees...

New bill would ban 3-D printed firearms WGVU Mon November 4, 2019

A state lawmaker says he wants to get ahead of technological improvements in 3-D printing. A new bill would ban 3-D printed firearms. The bill was

Michigan regulatory board halts state's drinking water rules WGVU Mon November 4, 2019

A Michigan regulatory oversight board has temporarily paused state drinking water standards that would limit allowable levels of certain toxic...

Funeral services are scheduled in Detroit for longtime Democratic R WGVU Mon November 4, 2019

Funeral services are scheduled in Detroit for longtime Democratic U.S. Rep. John Conyers. A family hour will be held at 10 a.m. Monday at Greater...

The state of Michigan is lowering or eliminating fees assessed on pe WGVU Mon November 4, 2019

The state of Michigan is lowering or eliminating fees assessed on people who register to use marijuana for medical reasons. The Marijuana Regulatory...

Peanut Butter Porter WGVU Mon November 4, 2019

A return of the Peanut Butter Porter is up for discussion, the BOB releasing it's most popular seasonal beer this Friday. We talk to Brewer John...

More to the Story

WGVU Mon November 4, 2019

More to the Story, monthly sharing good news from those who work with the homeless, today the spotlight on November as Youth Homelessness Awareness,...

Never Forget to Lie

WGVU Mon November 4, 2019

Award winning filmmaker Marian Marzynski visits GVSU today for a screening and conversation about his Frontline documentary, Never Forget to Lie. We...

CCPS Community Connections

WGVU Mon November 4, 2019

Guests from the College of Community and Public Service, our CCPS Community Connections, join in, today's topic, Engaging Students with their...

Chamber Chat

WGVU Mon November 4, 2019

Chamber Chat, guests in studio from the GR Area Chamber of Commerce today share a testimonial of business relationships. The Chamber's Laura Traxler...

If I Squeeze Your Head, I'm Sorry

WGVU Mon November 4, 2019

The Vogelzangs are in the house, talking about their work, If I Squeeze Your Head, I'm Sorry, understanding life through the eyes of a 12 year old...

Farmland Preservation

WGVU Mon November 4, 2019

We expand our conversation when it come to the topic of the Farm, Farmland Preservation. An event this Saturday will address the question, What can...

SNN: Lowell therapy dog

WGVU Tue October 29, 2019

Lowell Area Schools students are getting to know the canine in their classrooms this school year. The dog is a furry friend there when students need...

Groundswell

WGVU Tue October 29, 2019

TMS roving microphone reminds us of the many young environmentalists. We take you to Celebration Cinema and the presentations from these young minds...

Mosaic Film Experience

WGVU Tue October 29, 2019

The Mosaic Film Experience, in collaboration with The Midwest Tech Project, is bringing award-winning filmmaker Kevin Willmott to Studio Park. On...

Mediator of the Year

WGVU Tue October 29, 2019

Recently named Mediator of the Year by the Dispute Resolution Center, Kathey Batey joins TMS to discuss the topic of mediation, plus her latest book...

Decision 2019: 2 candidates running for city commission in Muskegon

WGVU Tue October 29, 2019

WGVU's 2019 Election Coverage continues, as we profile all the candidates seeking public office in the cities of Muskegon and Grand Rapids. In the...

Guelaguetza Designs

WGVU Tue October 29, 2019

It's a business that's expanding. Guelaguetza Designs opens its store in GR, providing Mexican Americans from West Michigan a connection to their home

Odd and Even Parking

WGVU Tue October 29, 2019

The changing season is upon us and that means odd and even parking. Acting Managing Director of Public Safety for GR James Hurt with the conversation.

Rep. Tlaib endorses Bernie Sanders for President

WGVU Tue October 29, 2019

Another member of the so-called "squad" of first-term Congresswomen is endorsing presidential candidate Bernie Sanders. nRepresentative Rashida...

Mind, Music and Magic

WGVU Tue October 29, 2019

Music is good for the senior mind. We talk about the presentation Mind, Music and Magic, A Patriotic Tribute, a local partnership between AARP and...

Powerarchy

WGVU Tue October 29, 2019

Author Melanie Joy joins TMS to discuss her latest, Powerarchy: Understanding the Psychology of Oppression for Social Transformation.

Meghan's Army Addiction Recovery Movement 4 Youth

WGVU Tue October 29, 2019

Tonight, head to the Deltaplex to raise funds for Meghan's Army Addiction Recovery Movement 4 Youth. We talk to Molly Reid about her personal story...

The Girls Choral Academy

WGVU Tue October 29, 2019

The Girls Choral Academy lets their voice be heard. It's the annual benefit to honor a local community leader, this organization with programming...

Ex-MSU President's criminal case can go to trial

WGVU Mon October 28, 2019

A judge says there is enough evidence against ex-president of Michigan State University, Lou Anna Simon, to send her case to trial. Lou Anna Simon is

Whitmer says budget deal could still avert worst effects of cuts

WGVU Mon October 28, 2019

Governor Gretchen Whitmer says she's hopeful talks with the Legislature's GOP leaders could soon lead to a new budget deal. An agreement could...

Before We Said Hello

WGVU Mon October 28, 2019

Becky Nordquist has an inspiring story, 5 miscarriages and a stillborn loss. She joins TMS to talk about her losses and gains, and the recent launched

Girls on the Run

WGVU Mon October 28, 2019

Girls on the Run of Kent and Muskegon Counties welcomes a New Executive Director, Lisa Hegenbart, leading the efforts to inspire girls to be joyful,

All About Holland

WGVU Mon October 28, 2019

All About Holland, what's happening in the City of Holland over the next 30 days. We talk to Lori Gramer, Holland Area Arts Council and artists Cara...

Getting Green

WGVU Mon October 28, 2019

Getting Green, guests in studio talking all things Climate Change Action with Gillian Giem with the USGBC West Michigan Chapter. Students join in too.

Social media outrage forces man to remove Halloween decoration

WGVU Mon October 28, 2019

A mid-Michigan auto shop has replaced a Halloween display depicting a scowling President Donald Trump holding the severed head of former President...

Fulton Street Market

WGVU Mon October 28, 2019

Fulton Street Market Kicks off it's Second Season with it's Soup Event beginning Saturday. We talk to the market's Rori Weston and Dana Eardley.

Recreational marijuana dispensaries coming soon to Kent County

WGVU Mon October 28, 2019

Recreational marijuana dispensaries in Kent County are another step closer to reality, as this week, the city of Lowell approved two ordinances that

Regulations on emotional support animals debated in Legislature

WGVU Mon October 28, 2019

State lawmakers are considering making it a misdemeanor to lie to landlords about needing an emotional support animal. Jim Schaafsma is with the...

Former Rep. John Conyers dies at age 90

WGVU Mon October 28, 2019

The longest-serving African American in the history of Congress has died. 90-year-old John Conyers was a civil rights icon who left Congress under a...

GVSU's Fall Arts Celebration

WGVU Mon October 28, 2019

GVSU's Fall Arts Celebration continues with dance, tonight, 7:30, Water: A Vision in Dance. We talk to GVSU's Carrie Brueck Morris about the talents.

The Karner Blue Butterfly

WGVU Mon October 28, 2019

Let's talk butterflies. The Karner Blue Butterfly is labeled endangered by the federal government. Local residents are pushing for this butterfly to...

Healthy Headlines

WGVU Mon October 28, 2019

Healthy Headlines, today more talk about the Kent County Animal Shelter, Namiko Ota Noveskey discussing lost-pet-reuniting plus a successful Empty the

Dr. Shadi Hamid

WGVU Mon October 28, 2019

This interview originally aired on Feb. 4, 2019 Our guest is Dr. Shadi Hamid, who joins us to talk about his essay, "The Difficulty with Diversity:..."

Whitmer asks MI Supreme Court to reinstate flavored vaping ban WGVU Fri October 25, 2019

Governor Gretchen Whitmer is asking the Michigan Supreme Court to reinstate her emergency ban on the sale of flavored vaping products in Michigan. A...

Founders Brewing Company is facing criticism after manager made WGVU Fri October 25, 2019

Tracy Evans filed the lawsuit last October against Founders Brewing Company. In the lawsuit he alleges that he was fired from Founders after making a

G.R. and Kent Co. Team Up On New Lead Awareness Campaign WGVU Fri October 25, 2019

The City of Grand Rapids and Kent County Health Department recently launched a joint awareness and educational campaign that's focused on the hazards...

The Current War leads this week's movie releases WGVU Fri October 25, 2019

Seven movies are opening in Grand Rapids this week, including Western Stars, a Bruce Springsteen documentary, the independent film The Great Alaskan...

ABCs of Diabetes WGVU Fri October 25, 2019

We talk about diabetes with Dr. Griffin Rodgers, preparing for November as Diabetes Awareness Month. The ABC's of Diabetes are discussed.

Sixman WGVU Fri October 25, 2019

Hip Hop is alive and well. Jimaine Wilson aka Sixman Michigan discusses his upcoming event in West Michigan.

Vine and Vinyl WGVU Fri October 25, 2019

St Mary's Foundation hosts Vine and Vinyl, a unique storytelling experience to benefit the Parkinson's program at Mercy Health Hauenstein...

TOPS Program WGVU Fri October 25, 2019

A success story in the house. Glenn Domke of Hesperia lost 84.8 pounds through the nonprofit TOPS program. We get inspired with Glenn today.

Grand Rapids Symphony WGVU Fri October 25, 2019

The presents a powerful program this weekend, featuring works by Wagner and voices from the Symphony Chorus. We talk to Patrick Kuras from the Chorus...

Resolution to not make Muskegon a 'Sanctuary County' is removed WGVU Fri October 25, 2019

The resolution to not make Muskegon County a Sanctuary County was first introduced by Commissioner Zach Lahring two months after the Muskegon County...

Crafting Vision WGVU Fri October 25, 2019

The spotlight is on ABVI, serving those with low vision for 106 years. The Crafting Vision event is right around the corner, we discuss this and more...

Armed Services Marathon

WGVU Fri October 25, 2019

It's now branded as the Armed Services Marathon. We talk to those in the Armed Services and Race Director Ron Knoll, a September race changing it's...

Seeds of Growth

WGVU Fri October 25, 2019

We bring you a special feature about the Entrepreneur, TMS roving microphone on site at GROW's recent Seeds of Growth. We talk to Leadership Stars.

Whitmer asks for rule to boost overtime pay for MI workers

WGVU Thu October 24, 2019

Governor Gretchen Whitmer wants Michigan to have more generous standards to guarantee overtime pay for salaried workers. Governor Whitmer used a small

Whitmer says "no" to proposed limits on her budget authority

WGVU Thu October 24, 2019

Republican leaders say they want some assurances from Governor Gretchen Whitmer before they will send her any more spending bills Republicans say...

Michigan State Police warn teens on dangers of distracted driving

WGVU Thu October 24, 2019

Put down that phone, do your makeup when you get there, and keep your eyes on the road in front of you. Those are some of the major themes the...

Man sentenced to at least 31 years in Flint teen's killing

WGVU Thu October 24, 2019

A judge has sentenced a man to at least 31 years in prison for the fatal shooting of a 16-year-old Flint boy. Twenty-four-year-old Emilio Cortes-...

The Transformation: Discovering Wholeness and Healing After Trau

WGVU Thu October 24, 2019

Author/Doctor James Gordon joins TMS to discuss his latest, The Transformation: Discovering Wholeness and Healing After Trauma.

EPA announces update in lead detection systems

WGVU Thu October 24, 2019

U-S Environmental Protection Agency officials say they are updating their rules to better detect lead contamination in drinking water, as the agency...

Workers at large GM plant in Michigan approve contract

WGVU Thu October 24, 2019

Workers at one of the largest General Motors factories have voted to ratify a new contract with the company, an indication that a five-week strike...

North Holland Elementary School

WGVU Thu October 24, 2019

West Ottawa's North Holland Elementary School brings outdoor education to the forefront, a pilot as the first outdoor ed opportunity, helping...

AHfest

WGVU Thu October 24, 2019

We continue our series focusing upon the Lakeshore's AHfest, Cindy Beth Davis Dykema discussing the last 2 weeks of the event.

Mango Rash

WGVU Thu October 24, 2019

Local Author Nan Sanders Pokerwinski writes the book Mango Rash, Coming of Age in the Land of Frangipani and Fanta. She discusses her memoir.

Bipartisan bills tackle school bus safety

WGVU Wed October 23, 2019

Harsher penalties could be on the way for people who improperly pass a stopped school bus...along with a new tool for catching violators. Katrina...

Senate leader hopes to enlist ballot drive leaders to extend term li

WGVU Wed October 23, 2019

The state Senate Republican leader is in discussions with the ballot campaign that succeeded in passing an amendment that changed how legislative and

Muskegon's LC Walker Arena renamed Mercy Health Arena

WGVU Wed October 23, 2019

Officials announced Wednesday that the LC Walker Arena downtown Muskegon will be changing its name to the Mercy Health Arena. The announcement comes...

Decision 2019: Grand Rapids voters to consider permanent tax in ex

WGVU Wed October 23, 2019

This November, voters in Grand Rapids will decide whether or not to adopt a permanent millage to improve and maintain the city's parks, pools and

What an 80 acre lettuce farm can grow, Caledonia-based Revolutio

WGVU Wed October 23, 2019

"We use 90 percent less water, 90 percent less land and about 95 percent less miles travelled if you think about the trucks that have to ship lettuce...

Term limits plan would be tied to 'good government' changes

WGVU Wed October 23, 2019

A potential plan to ask Michigan voters to ease legislative term limits would likely be paired with "good government" changes aimed at addressing the...

Kids' Food Basket Hosts Brown Bag Decorating Day

WGVU Wed October 23, 2019

Kids' Food Basket has a community challenge to reach a goal of 100-thousand decorated brown bags by Brown Bag Decorating Day which is Friday. This...

Whitmer: Nearly all K-12 districts meeting broadband goal

WGVU Wed October 23, 2019

Gov. Gretchen Whitmer says nearly all Michigan school districts are meeting a minimum bandwidth target of internet access, and she wants to focus...

Michigan judge denies request to halt LGBT adoption ruling

WGVU Wed October 23, 2019

A federal judge has denied Michigan's request to halt his preliminary injunction that preserved a Catholic adoption agency's ability to refuse to...

GR Improv Festival

WGVU Wed October 23, 2019

Let's talk improv, the annual GR Improv Festival happens this weekend, kicking off Thursday. Kristin Hirsch with the funnies.

Seidman College of Business

WGVU Wed October 23, 2019

Guests from Seidman College share their talents, today Affiliate Professor of Management Paul Hillman talks about the B Corp and how students learn...

National Cyber Security Month

WGVU Wed October 23, 2019

October is National Cybersecurity month, Mike Schipper with InsITe Business Solutions in to discuss ransomware and more.

Leadership In Action

WGVU Wed October 23, 2019

Leadership in Action, today TMS roving microphone heads to Crosby and Henry Insurance, talking Leadership strategies with the CEO Jamie Crosby.

51 for 51

WGVU Wed October 23, 2019

To raise awareness of the global reality of millions who walk for water, Ed Zwyghuizen invites 51 community leaders to walk. We talk about the...

Social Security 101

WGVU Wed October 23, 2019

Social Security 101, with Public Affairs Specialist Vonda VanTil.

National Bully Prevetion Month

WGVU Wed October 23, 2019

October is National Bullying Prevention month, we talk to Comcast's Michelle Gilbert about her personal and professional recommendations.

Food Forum

WGVU Wed October 23, 2019

Food Forum, talking today all things Food, Wine and All That Jazz with Roz Mayberry and WGVU's George Davis.

WGVU presents FRONTLINE: Zero Tolerance

WGVU Tue October 22, 2019

Zero Tolerance is the first of three FRONTLINE films this season examining central elements of the immigration crisis. Drawing on nearly 40 lengthy,...

Revolution Farms aquaponics growing fresh produce sustainably to

WGVU Tue October 22, 2019

The farming community is continuously seeking new ideas and methods for increasing yields as climate change and population growth stress food...

Study finds ruffed grouse can survive West Nile virus

WGVU Tue October 22, 2019

Test results from the first year of a study indicate that ruffed grouse in Minnesota, Wisconsin and Michigan can survive the West Nile virus. The...

Search comes up empty for missing woman who made desperate 9

WGVU Tue October 22, 2019

Police turned to a drone and dogs to try to solve the disappearance of a Detroit-area woman in northern Michigan, but the latest search didn't result...

Driver could spend 60 years in prison for hit-and-run that killed cou WGVU Tue October 22, 2019

A man accused of killing two people in a hit-and-run could spend the rest of his life in prison, as details of his charges emerged Tuesday. 44-year-...

Bill to prevent another vaping ban gets committee hearing WGVU Tue October 22, 2019

State lawmakers are debating a plan to get rid of Governor Gretchen Whitmer's ability to issue emergency rules related to vaping. The governor's

Wind knocks out power while waves scour Lake Michigan coast WGVU Tue October 22, 2019

Utilities are trying to restore power in West Michigan as winds buffet the region and waves pound the Lake Michigan coast. The National Weather...

Michigan Senate OKs address confidentiality for victims WGVU Tue October 22, 2019

Bills advancing in Michigan's Legislature would create an address confidentiality program to protect victims of domestic violence and stalking. The

The Iceman Cometh WGVU Tue October 22, 2019

The Iceman Cometh for the 30th time the first weekend in November. The Bell's Beer Iceman this year includes a new race starting area. We talk to

GRPS Happenings WGVU Tue October 22, 2019

Guests from GRPS join us to share their happenings including two new special schools in the making. Javier Cervantes is our guest.

Forged in Fire WGVU Tue October 22, 2019

Shawn Moulenbelt joins us to discuss his appearance Wednesday night on the History Channel's Forged in Fire. Moulenbelt is a local craftsman and...

Alternatives in Motion WGVU Tue October 22, 2019

Alternatives in Motion is celebrating their successes and making friends with their event at end of the month that involves Fowling. We talk about the

Grand Rapids Lions Club WGVU Tue October 22, 2019

The Grand Rapids Lions Club is celebrating 100 years of serving in early November and teaming up with the band Mid Life Crisis at 20 Monroe Live....

The Mayor's Millennial Advisory Board WGVU Tue October 22, 2019

The Mayor's Millennial Advisory Board's recruitment process is open. Latrisha Sosebee joins us to talk about this important role for the city, the...

Tourist Talk WGVU Tue October 22, 2019

Tourist Talk with Promote Michigan's Dianna Stampfler.

Blue Zone

WGVU Wed December 4, 2019

Dan Buettner, Founder of the Blue Zones, initiatives that have improved the lives of more than 5 million Americans, joins TMS to discuss his latest,...

Purse Project

WGVU Wed December 4, 2019

We talk about the power of the purse, the Purse Project 2019 gives back to those less fortunate. We talk to Organizer Denise Kolesar about the...

Tuned into the Library of Michigan

WGVU Wed December 4, 2019

Tuned into the Library of Michigan, guests in studio on behalf of the State Library of Michigan. We stay local with GRPL's Kelly Karr and Bridget...

Deer baiting bills head to governor's desk

WGVU Tue December 3, 2019

A controversial bill to allow deer and elk baiting in the state is headed to Governor Gretchen Whitmer's desk. Whitmer has promised to veto it. The...

Whitmer asks Legislature to delay Healthy MI work requirements

WGVU Tue December 3, 2019

Governor Gretchen Whitmer has asked the Legislature to hit the "pause" button on the requirement that adults on Medicaid must be working, looking for...

Court rejects Nestle plan for bottled water pump building

WGVU Tue December 3, 2019

The Michigan Court of Appeals has ruled against Nestle Waters North America's proposal for a building needed to ratchet up a water bottling operation...

Hepatitis A outbreak tied to berries spreads to 1 more state

WGVU Tue December 3, 2019

A hepatitis A outbreak tied to blackberries sold in Fresh Thyme grocery stores now includes 16 confirmed cases in six states. The Centers for Disease

Whitmer: Delaying Medicaid work rules avoids wasting money

WGVU Tue December 3, 2019

Gov. Gretchen Whitmer says delaying implementation of work requirements for enrollees in Michigan's Medicaid expansion program would prevent the...

Alternatives in Motion

WGVU Tue December 3, 2019

Alternatives in Motion enhances independence through access to mobility equipment. We talk to ED Coleen Davis and Program Coordinator Kelsey Kerby...

Whitmer: Legislature should help pause Medicaid work rules

WGVU Tue December 3, 2019

Gov. Gretchen Whitmer said Monday she wants to pause the implementation of work requirements for adults in Michigan's Medicaid expansion program...

Whitmer: No progress on budget; Shirkey's comments no help

WGVU Tue December 3, 2019

No progress was made toward resolving a monthslong budget impasse over the Legislature's multi-week break, Gov. Gretchen Whitmer said Monday, adding...

Crossing the Hall

WGVU Mon November 4, 2019

Michigan Author Lori Wojtowicz writes the book Crossing the Hall: Exposing an American Divide, discussing a very current topic. Lori presents her...

Dr. Shadi Hamid (Part II)

WGVU Mon November 4, 2019

This episode originally aired on February 11, 2019. Dr. Shadi Hamid returns to Common Threads to continue our conversation about his essay, "The...

Whitmer orders closer ties with Michigan native tribes

WGVU Fri November 1, 2019

Gov. Gretchen Whitmer is ordering Michigan agencies to step up collaboration with Native American tribes in the state. Whitmer signed an executive

State begins accepting marijuana business applications

WGVU Fri November 1, 2019

The state began accepting applications today from people who want to become licensed growers, distributors, and retailers of recreational marijuana....

Michigan brewery settles ex-worker's discrimination lawsuit

WGVU Fri November 1, 2019

A black man who says he was fired by a Michigan brewery for complaining of a racist corporate culture has settled a lawsuit against the company. Tracy

Two candidates vie for city commission seat in Muskegon's 3rd Ward

WGVU Fri November 1, 2019

WGVU's 2019 Election Coverage continues, as we profile all the candidates seeking public office in the cities of Muskegon and Grand Rapids. In the...

Internationally acclaimed Parasite opens in west Michigan

WGVU Fri November 1, 2019

Parasite is the latest film from South Korean director Bong Joon Ho. It's garnering the best reviews of the year, generating Oscar buzz. Parasite is

Mutually Inclusive: Ottawa County

WGVU Fri November 1, 2019

Weekly we focus on the work of area organizations advancing inclusion and equity in our community. This morning we welcome the Director of Diversity,

Grand Gals

WGVU Fri November 1, 2019

Grand Gals, sharing stories from those who are shaping, inspiring and empowering our community. Today, Producer Megan talks to those from New City

Sense and Sensibility

WGVU Fri November 1, 2019

Sense and Sensibility plays at East Grand Rapids opening Thursday, examining our reactions to societal pressures. Director Jason Marlett and cast...

College of Health Professions

WGVU Fri November 1, 2019

GVSU's Julia K. VanderMolen, Ph.D Associate Professor of Public Health, College of Health Professions joins TMS to discuss Public Health and the many...

Moving with Parkinson's

WGVU Fri November 1, 2019

The Grand Rapids Ballet School's Moving with Parkinson's has undergone a substantial expansion. We talk about this unique opportunity with Attila...

Mary Free Bed Sports Rehabilitation

WGVU Fri November 1, 2019

Mary Free Bed Sports Rehabilitation opens a High tech performance Lab, offering state of the art technology and services providing a baseline and...

Medicaid Changes

WGVU Fri November 1, 2019

Effective January 1, more than 270,000 Medicaid recipients in Michigan will be required to meet new work requirements to maintain their health...

Watch Muskegon

WGVU Fri November 1, 2019

Watch Muskegon, the spotlight on all things happening out and about, today Dave Alexander, with Downtown Muskegon, discusses Holidays in Muskegon and...

Woman named in arrest warrant for overdue library books

WGVU Thu October 31, 2019

A mid-Michigan woman was seeking a promotion, but learned she was named in a warrant for failing to return books to her local library. The Lansing...

When it comes to rules for impeachment West Michigan U.S. Reps.

WGVU Thu October 31, 2019

A sharply divided House of Representatives has approved the rules for its impeachment inquiry of President Donald Trump. How did local U.S....

Whitmer signs bills to "Raise the Age"

WGVU Thu October 31, 2019

Michigan has now joined a vast majority of states to make 18 the age of adulthood in the criminal justice system. Governor Gretchen Whitmer signed

AAA Reminder: Don't Veer For Deer

WGVU Thu October 31, 2019

A reminder to motorists today—not to veer for deer. It comes from AAA Michigan. They're adding an extra note of caution as firearm deer hunting season

PBS KIDS Announces Educators Selected for 2019 Early Learning Ch

WGVU Thu October 31, 2019

Program Recognizes 10 Early Childhood Teachers and Care Providers Arlington, VA, October 30, 2019 – Today, PBS KIDS named 10 educators as the 2019...

House Votes On Next Steps In Impeachment InquiryHouse Votes On

WGVU Thu October 31, 2019

House Votes On Next Steps In Impeachment InquiryHouse Votes On Next Steps In Impeachment Inquiry The U.S. House of Representatives is voting to...

MI Legislators introduce bill to give drivers' licenses to immigrants

WGVU Thu October 31, 2019

The bill known as Drivers' Licenses for Our Neighbors aims to provide undocumented immigrants and all other individuals who can't prove legal...

Benson testifies on new election laws in front of Senate committee WGVU Wed October 30, 2019

Democratic Secretary of State Jocelyn Benson was grilled by a Senate Elections committee today. Republican lawmakers expressed concerns over new...

Senate OKs letting military vote electronically overseas WGVU Wed October 30, 2019

Members of the military serving overseas could cast an electronic ballot in Michigan elections under bipartisan bills advancing in the Legislature....

Senate bill would require Legislature to wrap up budget bills by July WGVU Wed October 30, 2019

Republicans in Lansing are proposing more changes to the state's budget process. New bills would require the Legislature to deliver budget bills to...

Michigan inches up in reading on nation's report card WGVU Wed October 30, 2019

Michigan students rank roughly middle of the pack in reading on the nation's report card, inching up slightly in the latest two-year testing cycle....

Michigan dad charged following autistic son's pool drowning WGVU Wed October 30, 2019

A college professor in western Michigan has been charged with involuntary manslaughter in the death of his 16-year-old autistic son who drowned in an...

MiBiz with Mark Sanchez WGVU Wed October 30, 2019

MiBiz is taking a closer look at the impacts of Michigan's opioid crisis. More employers are demanding health plan cost shopping tools. Also, local...

Hope Network WGVU Wed October 16, 2019

Hope Network presents a benefit concert next week, featuring artists with an uplifting style of music that meets the Network's mission. We talk with...

Judge halts ban on flavored vaping products WGVU Wed October 16, 2019

A Michigan Court of Claims judge says the state ban on flavored vaping products must be lifted. That's while underlying litigation opposing the ban...

Brooks College of Interdisciplinary Studies WGVU Wed October 16, 2019

Guests from Brooks College of Interdisciplinary Studies join in, today Dr. Elizabeth Arnold, GVSU Anthropology department, talking about a November

iUnderstand WGVU Wed October 16, 2019

iUnderstand's Vonnie Woodrick talks about a Fall Focus, the Michigan State Medical Society Alliance bringing awareness to health concerns in our...

Community Connections From The Corner Office WGVU Wed October 16, 2019

Community Connections from a West Michigan Leader from the Corner Office. We meet President/CEO of Clark Retirement Community, Brian Prangle.

GOP looks for policy deals with Whitmer before revisiting budget WGVU Tue October 15, 2019

Governor Gretchen Whitmer met again today with the Legislature's Republican leaders. The GOP leaders say they want some promises from the governor...

Study: Michigan has the safest drivers in the country. But there's a c WGVU Tue October 15, 2019

A new study says Michigan drivers are the best in the nation, with Detroit drivers coming in at number one overall. The study, from insurance...

By Leaps and Bounds: The Power of COUNTing During the Early Yea WGVU Tue October 15, 2019

All parents want to give their children a strong start in life. Becoming good at math begins long before a child enters school. Each one of us is...

The Conductive Learning Center WGVU Tue October 15, 2019

The Conductive Learning Center celebrates a grand opening and ribbon cutting. Dr. Andrea Benyovshki and Andrea Swiger discuss the necessary expansion...

The Right Place WGVU Tue October 15, 2019

Andria Romkema from The Right Place joins in to talk about two pretty cool projects, Acrisure plus Michigan Software Labs, plus the spotlight on the...

Sheeran: A Biography WGVU Tue October 15, 2019

Fans of English Singer Songwriter Ed Sheeran will learn of his childhood and rise to success thanks to the work Sheeran: A Biography, written by Sean...

State, unions reach tentative deals to boost worker pay WGVU Tue October 15, 2019

Gov. Gretchen Whitmer's administration and seven unions have tentatively agreed to two-year deals that will boost state employees' pay by 6%. State

All About The Farm WGVU Tue October 15, 2019

All About the Farm, guests in studio on behalf of the Michigan Farm Bureau, today Critter Barn's Mary Rottshafer talks about their new location and...

Recovery group launched for Muskegon teens struggling with addic WGVU Tue October 15, 2019

In an effort to lower the number of teens that are addicted to drugs and alcohol in Muskegon, health officials announced the launching of a new, teen

Run Thru the Rapids WGVU Tue October 15, 2019

This weekend, raise dollars for scholarships. The annual Run Thru the Rapids is Saturday, dollars collected for deserving underserved kids who attend...

Woman's Guide to Running for Office WGVU Tue October 15, 2019

Women, Run for office, says Author Kate Black, who writes about the strategies in her latest, Represent: The Woman's Guide to Running for Office and

Community responds to Anti-Semitic vandalism found at GR Synag WGVU Tue October 15, 2019

Police were called Sunday morning to Temple Emanuel after antisemitic materials were found on one of its outside doors. Here is John Wittkowski from...

Chamber Chat WGVU Tue October 15, 2019

Chamber Chat, speaking with those from the GR Area Chamber of Commerce, today Dante Villarreal, VP Talent and Business Development, discusses the...

Imove WGVU Tue October 15, 2019

Musculoskeletal Disorders rank second worldwide in curbing productivity, with 80% of the workforce not seeking relief until it becomes intolerable.

Bills would swap Columbus Day for Indigenous Peoples Day; make E WGVU Mon October 14, 2019

Today is Columbus Day. But some state lawmakers want to transform the state holiday into Indigenous Peoples Day. Multiple cities in Michigan already

Mel Trotter: Female Homelessness Creates Need For More Beds WGVU Mon October 14, 2019

Mel Trotter Ministries say an increase in female homelessness has created the need for more beds. They're seeking to raise 25-thousand dollars. "...

Line forms over a week early in Muskegon for chance at marijuana l WGVU Mon October 14, 2019

After Muskegon City Commissioners Tuesday approved a marijuana ordinance that will allow business owners to grow and sell recreational marijuana, a...

Anti-Semitic vandalism reported at Grand Rapids synagogue WGVU Mon October 14, 2019

The Grand Rapids Police Department is investigating what could be a hate crime after a local synagogue reported it had been vandalized with anti-...

SNN: Kenowa Hills Connect Class WGVU Mon October 14, 2019

Kenowa Hills Middle School has created a new, daily class called Connect this fall to enrich learning and bond students and teachers. Connect Class,...

Consumers Energy to buy Hillsdale County wind farm WGVU Mon October 14, 2019

Michigan regulators have approved Consumers Energy's plan to buy a wind energy farm in Hillsdale County. The Public Service Commission says the deal...

Facial recognition technology focus of Detroit forum WGVU Mon October 14, 2019

A Detroit city council member is hosting a community forum on the use of facial-recognition technology by police. The event by Roy McCalister Jr. is

Raise the Age bills head to MI Senate WGVU Mon October 14, 2019

It has been two and half years since the Raise the Age bills were introduced to the Michigan legislature, and finally compromise was reached last...

A Conversation with Nicholas Wolterstorff (Part I)

WGVU Mon October 14, 2019

On the occasion of the publication of Nicholas Wolterstorff's autobiography, 'In This World of Wonders,' the Kaufman Interfaith Institute hosted a

WGVU's Pop UP Series

WGVU Mon October 14, 2019

WGVU's Pop UP Series begins its second season this Wednesday night at the Listening Room at Studio Park. Today the Room's Quinn Mathews and a WGVU's...

Your Home By Design

WGVU Mon October 14, 2019

Your Home By Design with Deidre Remtema, Principal Interior Designer. Deidre joins us to discuss a special project she just finished up.

Corgis in the Park

WGVU Mon October 14, 2019

Corgis in the Park is the largest gathering of Corgis and Corgi lovers. This 5 th annual event raises funds for Paws with a Cause. J Joseph Brey and...

Perspectives in Philanthropy

WGVU Mon October 14, 2019

Perspectives in Philanthropy with Diana Sieger from the Grand Rapids Community Foundation. Today we discuss the impact of community foundations, and...

Big Read/Little Read Lakeshore

WGVU Mon October 14, 2019

We discuss the Big Read/Little Read Lakeshore program; the books chosen for 2019, stats, and future programming with Director Deborah Vriend Van...

Sweet Adelines

WGVU Mon October 14, 2019

The Grand Rapids Chapter of Sweet Adelines placed 5th in the world for midsize choruses. Our guests from the Sweet Adelines this morning are Diane...

Prescription Drug Take Back

WGVU Mon October 14, 2019

Twice a year, hospitals, pharmacies and more participate in the National Prescription Drug Take Back Day. We talk about it with Dr. Cara Poland, board

Grand Rapids Marathon

WGVU Mon October 14, 2019

The Grand Rapids Marathon is this weekend and runners from Guiding Light are participating in the relay. We talk to Guiding Light's Starla McDermott...

University of Michigan to host 2020 presidential debate

WGVU Fri October 11, 2019

The University of Michigan will host one of three presidential debates next year. The schedule was announced by the non-partisan Commission on...

AG seeks to halt adoption ruling, denies anti-Catholic bias

WGVU Fri October 11, 2019

Michigan Attorney General Dana Nessel is asking a federal judge to halt an injunction that lets religious-based adoption and foster care agencies...

Concerns raised for recreational passport opt out bill

WGVU Fri October 11, 2019

New legislation would require people to opt out of paying for an annual pass to state parks. Democratic Representative Tenisha Yancey has concerns....

Mutually Inclusive: Grand Rapids Chamber

WGVU Fri October 11, 2019

Weekly we focus on the work of area individuals and organizations advancing inclusion and equity in our community. This morning we welcome Kenneth...

Grand Rapids: Week of Warmth Kickoff

WGVU Fri October 11, 2019

With the temperatures starting to drop an event in Grand Rapids tomorrow hopes to head off heating bill troubles among other energy issues for those...

Gemini Man features more than one Will Smith

WGVU Fri October 11, 2019

There's more than one Will Smith in the new movie Gemini Man. Ron Van Timmeran from Studio C has seen the movie and talks with WGVU's Scott Vander...

Building a Better Runner

WGVU Fri October 11, 2019

A Top Trainer/Athlete comes back quick after a traumatic injury, now writes the book based on Science, Building a Better Runner. We talk to Terry,...

Generation Friends

WGVU Fri October 11, 2019

The show Friends celebrates 25 years. We talk to Author Saul Austerlitz, his book is out, Generation Friends.

UAW letter to GM indicates that strike won't end quickly

WGVU Fri October 11, 2019

General Motors Chief Executive Mary Barra has stepped into contract talks with striking auto workers, asking the union to wrap up outstanding issues...

Project 1

WGVU Fri October 11, 2019

Project 1 continues throughout the month of October, Education Days a part of the festivities. PNC's Sean Welch and Becca Guyette from ArtPrize

The Art of Wordless Storytelling opens at GRAM

WGVU Fri October 11, 2019

The works of an award-winning illustrator and author go on display to the public beginning tomorrow at the Grand Rapids Art Museum. WGVU previews the

The Love(d) Letters

WGVU Fri October 11, 2019

Ames Hawkins presents These are Love(d) Letters, providing a complex pictorial and textual exploration of the work of a love letter. We talk to Ames.

Steve Siler

WGVU Fri October 11, 2019

Musician Steve Siler joins TMS to discuss writing music as a form of healing from Sexual abuse, presenting a whole Healing Music Guide on why music...

The Burning Shadow

WGVU Fri October 11, 2019

Bestselling Author Jennifer Armentrout joins TMS after her Book signing at Schulers, today talking about her latest in a series, The Burning Shadow.

Ronald McDonald House

WGVU Fri October 11, 2019

The Ronald McDonald House of Western Michigan recently hosted Herman Miller volunteers for a unique project, installing a garden and meditation area...

Heart of West Michigan United Way

WGVU Fri October 11, 2019

Heart of West Michigan United Way brings together millions of dollars in resources from donors and company partners annually. Today, UW's Ellen...

Watch Muskegon

WGVU Fri October 11, 2019

Watch Muskegon, a segment devoted to what's happening on the Lakeshore, thanks to the Muskegon Chamber of Commerce. Today, Project Director Judith...

Following compromise over funding, Raise the Age bills head to Sen

WGVU Thu October 10, 2019

After years of work, it looks like bills to raise the age of the juvenile court's jurisdiction from 17 to 18 years old have a straight path to the...

GRPD investigating after construction worker hit and killed by car

WGVU Thu October 10, 2019

Authorities are investigating after a construction worker was struck and killed by a vehicle in Grand Rapids. According to the Grand Rapids Police

Grand Rapids man will die in prison for murder and dismembermen

WGVU Thu October 10, 2019

Calling it "without question the worst case that I have ever been involved in," Judge Mark Trussock Thursday afternoon sentenced convicted killer...

Line for pot licenses forms way early in 1 Michigan township

WGVU Thu October 10, 2019

A line has formed outside a western Michigan government building more than a week before local officials start accepting applications for recreational

Judge rejects challenge to tougher Michigan lead rule

WGVU Thu October 10, 2019

A judge has rejected the last challenge to a rule that could cause the billion-dollar replacement of 500,000 lead water pipes in Michigan. Local

Budget discussions resume at Capitol

WGVU Thu October 10, 2019

Another day, another talk between Governor Gretchen Whitmer and the Legislature's GOP leaders. They are still looking for a way to walk back the...

September Supply Management survey indicates local economy ex

WGVU Thu October 10, 2019

The latest Institute for Supply Management survey indicates the local economy grew at a marginal rate in September. Throughout the summer months the...

Fred Hersch and Julian Lage bring their artistry to St. Cecilia Music C WGUV Thu October 10, 2019

Pianist Fred Hersch and guitarist Julian Lage are one of the current great partnerships in jazz. The duo will perform at St. Cecilia Music Center in

Beauty Beyond Drag WGUV Thu October 10, 2019

Beauty Beyond Drag Productions offers October programming, including Halloween themed shows and fundraisers for local charities. Ginger Ambrosia,...

Jolly Pumpkin WGUV Thu October 10, 2019

Pizza in the house, Jolly Pumpkin Grand Rapids launching a new fall menu, perfect for cooler temps and bigger appetites. Manager Martina Morales in...

State, contractor to pay $1.25M to settle prisoner lawsuit WGUV Thu October 10, 2019

A judge has approved a $1.25 million settlement in a lawsuit over the care of a mentally ill Michigan prison inmate. Lawyers for Darlene Martin's...

Counselors cheer passage of bill protecting their work WGUV Thu October 10, 2019

Michigan's 10,000 counselors could continue to diagnose mental disorders and practice psychotherapy under a bill they say is needed to stop...

AhFest WGUV Thu October 10, 2019

We continue a weekly series, Exploring Hope in AhFest, this month long celebration of the Arts and Humanities on the Lakeshore. Cindy Beth Davis...

Michigan probes Detroit-area hospital's 7 Legionnaires cases WGUV Thu October 10, 2019

State health officials are investigating after seven people treated at a suburban Detroit hospital were diagnosed with Legionnaires' disease. The...

GM workers worry about paying bills as strike continues WGUV Thu October 10, 2019

Nearly four weeks into the United Auto Workers' strike against General Motors, employees are starting to feel the pinch of going without their regular

City Beat WGUV Thu October 10, 2019

City Beat, where to go, what to do come the weekend in West Michigan. GR Mag's Charlsie Dewey with the specifics.

GR approves licensing ordinance for recreational marijuana facilitie WGUV Thu October 10, 2019

On Tuesday the Grand Rapids City Commission approved a licensing ordinance for recreational marijuana facilities. Here is Grand Rapids Acting Planning

For a Better US WGUV Thu October 10, 2019

For a Better Us, guests in studio on behalf of the Y talking all things wellness and programming. Today, Kim Ritz and Eva Alexander discuss the...

Empty the Shelters

WGVU Thu October 10, 2019

Bissell Pet Foundation is back to Empty the Shelters this weekend, a nationwide effort to encourage families to adopt a pet and save a life. We talk...

Run for Camp 5k

WGVU Thu October 10, 2019

Local Camps offer beautiful settings for group experiences, retreats, conferences, and reunions for groups small and large, and outdoor recreation....

Korean War soldier's remains coming back home to Michigan

WGVU Wed October 9, 2019

The remains of a Michigan soldier who went missing during the Korean War's fierce Battle of Chosin Reservoir are being returned home. U.S. Army Sgt....

Nessel offers suggestions to House committee on expungement bill

WGVU Wed October 9, 2019

Attorney General Dana Nessel says there's room for improvement on a package of bills aimed at expanding the state's expungement laws. Nessel went...

Korean War soldier's remains coming back home to Michigan

WGVU Wed October 9, 2019

The remains of a Michigan soldier who went missing during the Korean War's fierce Battle of Chosin Reservoir are being returned home. U.S. Army Sgt....

Sen. Gary Peters: President made a 'huge mistake' pulling forces out

WGVU Wed October 9, 2019

As Turkish forces launched a military attack Wednesday against war-torn northern Syria, President Donald Trump's decision to withdraw American troops...

Tel Aviv On Fire and Sama lead the Indie films at Studio C this month

WGVU Wed October 9, 2019

There are new films that are screening at the Indie Series at Studio C's Woodland Theater. WGVU talks to Eric Kuiper about the comedy GIVE ME LIBERTY...

Thacker Sleight

WGVU Wed October 9, 2019

Thacker Sleight's Attorney Mary Hilger joins TMS to discuss Estate Planning for all generations.

State land bank will take over after Innova Lab shut down

WGVU Wed October 9, 2019

In an effort to combat the affordable housing crisis in Grand Rapids, the City Commission announced on Tuesday they have struck a deal with the State...

Bald eagle euthanized after being shot in northern Michigan

WGVU Wed October 9, 2019

Michigan officials say a bald eagle was euthanized after being shot by hunters in Manistee County who said they mistook it for a goose. The...

Grand Castle

WGVU Wed October 9, 2019

We talk all things Grandville's Grand Castle, creator Roger Lucas and Pamela Keim discuss the upcoming Castle debut.

Russian Five for the One

WGVU Wed October 9, 2019

Author Keith Gave joins TMS, Friends of the Montague Library choosing his book The Russian Five for the One Book One Community celebration this fall...

Gloria

WGVU Wed October 9, 2019

Actors Theatre presents Gloria, opening this Thursday. Director Tom Kaechele and Yesenia Cotto with the conversation.

Analysts say 23-day UAW strike cost GM 165,000 vehicles

WGVU Tue October 8, 2019

Industry analysts say the 23-day strike by General Motors workers has cost the company production of 165,000 cars and trucks and has passed the point...

House bill would let mental health counselors practice

WGVU Tue October 8, 2019

The state House has adopted a bill to settle a controversy on what licensed mental health counselors are allowed to do and what they are not allowed...

Changes coming for LSAT tests and blind examinees

WGVU Tue October 8, 2019

There are big changes ahead for the Law School Admission Test, thanks to a lawsuit filed by a Michigan man. The Law School Admission Council has...

WalletHub: GR Makes 2019 Foodies List

WGVU Tue October 8, 2019

World food day is right around the corner. So, the personal-finance website WalletHub decided to find the Best Foodies Cities in America. And while...

Economic Club of Grand Rapids asks how business community can i

WGVU Tue October 8, 2019

The Economic Club of Grand Rapids hosted a criminal justice reform forum at the J.W. Marriott. The focus on the business community's role in improving

Group criticizes GRPS, says district is doing the bidding of Education

WGVU Tue October 8, 2019

Grand Rapids Public Schools is facing public scrutiny from a newly formed activist group that claims, that not only is the district a school system...

Community Connections From The Corner Office

WGVU Tue October 8, 2019

TMS roving microphone brings you another edition of Community Connections with a West Michigan leader from the Corner Office, talking today with...

Local First

WGVU Tue October 8, 2019

Local First means People first, communities thriving when the economy puts people first. We talk about Fork Fest with Jeff Koeze from Koeze and Mieke...

Diamonds and Scoundrels

WGVU Tue October 8, 2019

It's all things Diamonds and Scoundrels, the latest work by Adrienne Rubin, discussing her life in the Jewelry business. We talk to Ms. Rubin about...

More to the story of Homelessness

WGVU Tue October 8, 2019

More to the story of Homelessness, guests in on behalf of Mel Trotter ministries, today Phil Nellis and Tim Swiney discuss all things Next Step West

Fiddler On The Roof

WGVU Tue October 8, 2019

Fiddler on the Roof opens the season for Broadway Grand Rapids, today talking to Actors playing Motel and Tzeitel.

Cybersecurity Awareness Month

WGVU Tue October 8, 2019

Let's talk Cybersecurity, as it's Cybersecurity Awareness Month and a local conference on tap. Rehmann's Mark Spaak with the details.

Dr. Charlotte Vanoyen-Witvliet

WGVU Tue October 8, 2019

Hope College's Dr. Charlotte Vanoyen-Witvliet joins in, Professor of Psychology, discussing her latest research and the topic of forgiveness.

Mindset Meals

WGVU Tue October 8, 2019

Eric Freeman and Mallory Malloy stop by to discuss an up and coming local company called Mindset Meals, including the winning of Start Garden's 5 x 5

Telling Your Story

WGVU Tue October 8, 2019

Telling Your Story, guests in studio on behalf of Emmanuel Hospice and their partners, stories from the community about the challenges and joys of...

Mich. Governor concerned about strike impact

WGVU Tue October 8, 2019

The Latest on the strike by General Motors workers (all times local): 2 p.m. Michigan Gov. Gretchen Whitmer says she's concerned about the growing...

Couple pleads guilty in dehydration death of son

WGVU Tue October 8, 2019

The parents of an 18-month-old boy who died of dehydration have pleaded guilty to second-degree murder in Wyoming, Michigan. The deal reached Monday...

WGVU presents FRONTLINE: On the President's Orders

WGVU Tue October 8, 2019

Tuesday, October 8, WGVU Public Television presents FRONTLINE's On the President's Orders : a searing, on-the-ground look at President Rodrigo...

Wellness at Work

WGVU Tue October 8, 2019

Wellness at Work, today discussing lifestyle choices for the good with Wendy Brookhouse, Kristin Sadler and Alden Roberson on behalf of the McCahill...

Thriller! Chiller! Film Festival

WGVU Tue October 8, 2019

The Thriller! Chiller! Film Festival kicks off this week, Co Founder Shirley Griffin with the conversation.

GVSU's College of Community and Public Service

WGVU Tue October 8, 2019

Guests in studio on behalf of GVSU's College of Community and Public Service, with today's focus on Studying Abroad in Costa Rica. We talk to...

Michigan becomes 5th state to join age-friendly network

WGVU Mon October 7, 2019

Michigan is the fifth state to partner with the AARP and the World Health Organization to be age-friendly, so people can age in place in their homes...

House Democrats propose plan to lower cost of prescription drugs

WGVU Mon October 7, 2019

If you think you're paying too much for your prescription drugs – Democratic lawmakers in Lansing agree. Some House Democrats have introduced bills...

Whitmer says it's not too late to restore vetoes

WGVU Mon October 7, 2019

Governor Gretchen Whitmer continues to defend line item vetoes in budgets she otherwise approved last week. Whitmer also says it's not too late to...

G.R. Encourages Pedestrian Safety

WGVU Mon October 7, 2019

As daylight hours grow shorter and weather conditions worsen, pedestrians can be difficult to see. Statistics show there is an increase in pedestrians

Trane Of Thought celebrates John Coltrane

WGVU Mon October 7, 2019

The music of John Coltrane reverberates with saxophone players over 50 years after his death. Two tenor players have released a live album...

Gov. Whitmer pushing for new spending deal

WGVU Mon October 7, 2019

Governor Gretchen Whitmer would like to get leaders in the state Legislature back to the table to come up with a new spending bill. One that uses the U of M launches firearm injury prevention initiative

WGVU Mon October 7, 2019

The University of Michigan hopes to lead the way in reducing the number of fatalities from firearms, as President Mark Schlissel announced a new...

Three people shot in Grand Rapids, four suspects on the run

WGVU Mon October 7, 2019

A weekend shooting in Grand Rapids left three people wounded, two suspects on the run and police looking for answers. According to the Grand Rapids...

Grand Rapids among top senior-friendly cities

WGVU Mon October 7, 2019

Grand Rapids has been named one of the best cities for senior to live Caring.com has released its list of Best and Worst Cities for Seniors list and...

CASA of Kent County

WGVU Mon October 7, 2019

CASA of Kent County is looking for Volunteers with a giving heart for kids. We talk to ED Cathy Weirick about the needs and an upcoming event not to...

Kent County approves plan to begin addressing mental health crises WGVU Mon October 7, 2019

In Kent County, mental health concerns is one of the leading cause of hospitalizations, and Adam London head of the Kent County Health Department...

The Girls Choral Academy WGVU Mon October 7, 2019

The Girls Choral Academy expands Grandville Avenue girls choir into new school, Plus a benefit right around the corner for friends and fundraising....

Noodles and Company WGVU Mon October 7, 2019

A local business expands with Cauliflower as a main ingredient. Noodles and Company becomes the first fast casual Restaurant to introduce Cauliflower

Grand Showcase WGVU Mon October 7, 2019

Get ready for a Grand Showcase thanks to the work of the Diatribe. We talk to ED Marcel Price and young poet Siena Ramirez about this largest West...

Mark Schwartz (Part II) WGVU Mon October 7, 2019

GVSU anthropology professor Mark Schwartz returns to Common Threads to continue our conversation. Mark received his PhD in Anthropology from...

Department reports Michigan's first vaping-related death WGVU Fri October 4, 2019

There has been a death in Michigan associated with a vaping-related lung injury. The state Department of Health and Human Services announced the...

State asked to delay proposed change in counselor rules WGVU Fri October 4, 2019

Nearly three hundred mental health counselors filled a hearing room in Lansing today. Hundreds more rallied outside to oppose a proposed change in the

Mutually Inclusive: Latino Student Union at Grand Valley State Univ WGVU Fri October 4, 2019

Weekly we focus on the work of area individuals and organizations advancing inclusion and equity in our community. This morning we welcome from the...

SNN: Comstock Park Flex Academy WGVU Fri October 4, 2019

Comstock Park Public Schools is offering new program called Flex Academy for high school students to catch up on credits, preparing them for what...

GRFD: Fire Prevention Week Open House WGVU Fri October 4, 2019

Next week Grand Rapids residents will have an opportunity to check out ten of the city's fire stations. It's part of Fire Prevention Week. And, it's...

The Joker opens to rave reviews on Joaquin Phoenix WGVU Fri October 4, 2019

The Joker opens this week, to critical acclaim for both the film and the performance by lead actor Joaquin Phoenix. Ron Van Timmeran from Studio C...

Suit challenges changes to Michigan auto insurance law

WGVU Fri October 4, 2019

A lawsuit contends that some changes made to Michigan's auto insurance law are unconstitutional. The complaint filed Thursday in Ingham County Circuit

Eco Insider

WGVU Fri October 4, 2019

Eco Insider, talking monthly with guests from WMEAC and how they impact the community and GVSU! Thea Van Goor, Director of Environmental Education at...

Barbara Kindschi Greenhouse

WGVU Fri October 4, 2019

Come experience the wonders of the Barbara Kindschi Greenhouse on campus as part of Family Weekend. We talk to Manager Christina Hipshier about this

GVSU Health

WGVU Fri October 4, 2019

Monthly we put the spotlight on GVSU Health, today Grand Valley's Kirkhof College of Nursing received a $2.8 million federal grant to work...

Barking dog helps save life of woman trapped in fire

WGVU Fri October 4, 2019

Police say an unconscious woman was rescued from her burning home in northern Michigan, thanks to a barking dog and the courage of a state trooper...

Coach Jeff Hosler

WGVU Fri October 4, 2019

Coach Jeff Hosler updates us on Women's Soccer and the talent respected locally and nationally.

GVSU President "Philly" Mantella

WGVU Fri October 4, 2019

GVSU President "Philly" Mantella joins the airwaves with an update on her involvement with the special weekend and why family matters to GVSU.

Health and Wellness

WGVU Fri October 4, 2019

Health and Wellness is alive and well on campus and demonstrated to the public this weekend. We highlight the Wellness Fair and Walk as well as...

Campus Activities Board

WGVU Fri October 4, 2019

Live on remote, we start strong with conversation about CAB, the Campus Activities Board, sponsoring Family Weekend activities, including Dueling...

Coach Matt Mitchell

WGVU Fri October 4, 2019

Football Coach Matt Mitchell joins in, talking all things Laker Strategy on the field and more, including what's up for this special weekend! We get...

Democrat removes "no guns allowed" sign for office after letter fro WGVU Thu October 3, 2019

The state Speaker of the House doesn't want lawmakers to make their offices "gun free zones." Democratic State Representative Kara Hope says she...

Roads did not come up in new talks between Whitmer, leaders WGVU Thu October 3, 2019

Governor Gretchen Whitmer met today with legislative leaders to discuss what they might do now that the state budget is done. This their first get-...

A casualty of Gov. Whitmer's line-item vetoes, D.A. Blodgett-St. Joh WGVU Thu October 3, 2019

A local children services organization is asking Governor Gretchen Whitmer to reconsider her decision of cutting funding to the non-profit as part of...

Suit challenges changes to Michigan auto insurance law WGVU Thu October 3, 2019

A lawsuit contends that some changes made to Michigan's auto insurance law are unconstitutional. The complaint filed Thursday in Ingham County Circuit

Fruitport officials ponder what to do with two, half-built hotels WGVU Thu October 3, 2019

After a Muskegon County judge shut down construction of two new hotels halfway through the build, Fruitport Township officials trying to decide what...

Same Day Delivery by Leslie Pintchik Trio Live WGVU Thu October 3, 2019

Pianist Leslie Pintchik has been a mainstay on the New York and east coast Jazz scenes since 2004. She's released a variety of studio albums. Her new...

Breaking Mews and Pupdates WGVU Thu October 3, 2019

Breaking Mews and Pupdates, those from the HSWM talk about this weekend's Bark in the Dark, plus we meet the new ED Holly Guild and special guest...

Write Michigan WGVU Thu October 3, 2019

KDL wants your stories. Katie Zuidema stops by to discuss the annual Write Michigan Story Contest, the 8th annual for writers of all ages.

Rapid Growth Media WGVU Thu October 3, 2019

Guests from Rapid Growth Media join in, Tommy Allen with the latest in Community Headlines.

AH-Fest WGVU Thu October 3, 2019

We continue our series putting the spotlight on AH-Fest, Exploring Hope. Cindy Beth Davis-Dykema with more information about this Lakeshore spotlight...

City Beat WGVU Thu October 3, 2019

City Beat, where to go, what to do come the weekend in West Michigan with GR Magazine's Charlsie Dewey.

Arte Poesia Musica WGVU Thu October 3, 2019

Opera Grand Rapids presents the first ever Arte Poesia Musica event, as part of the Opera Unlimited Series. ED Emilee Syrewicze with the details.

UAW rejects GM offer over pay, temporary workers

WGVU Thu October 3, 2019

General Motors offered striking union members wage increases or lump-sum payments in all four years of a proposed contract, as bargainers seek a deal...

Blessing Of The Animals

WGVU Thu October 3, 2019

Mic and Susan Carlson return to TMS to discuss this weekend's annual Blessing of the Animals.

Michigan Republican sees 'legitimate questions' about Trump

WGVU Thu October 3, 2019

A Republican congressman from Michigan said he doesn't support an impeachment inquiry against President Donald Trump, but "there are legitimate...

Virtue Cider

WGVU Thu October 3, 2019

TMS Roving Microphone takes you to Virtue Cider, sharing highlights from the Fennville Farm.

Virtue Cider

WGVU Thu October 3, 2019

TMS Roving Microphone takes you to Virtue Cider, sharing highlights from the Fennville Farm.

Michigan ban on flavored vaping products starts

WGVU Thu October 3, 2019

Stores throughout Michigan have stopped selling flavored electronic cigarettes to comply with a ban that started Wednesday. Court of Claims Judge...

Whitmer to seek supplemental bill after big budget vetoes

WGVU Thu October 3, 2019

Gov. Gretchen Whitmer said Wednesday she will seek funding for a variety of budget priorities from the Republican-led Legislature after she slashed...

Fourth person dies in Michigan from mosquito-borne virus

WGVU Wed October 2, 2019

A fourth Michigan resident has died from rare mosquito-borne virus that has been recorded across the southern half of the state. WWMT-TV reports that...

Audit: Spike a gravel study influenced by trade group

WGVU Wed October 2, 2019

A study on Michigan's gravel supplies has been declared unreliable after it turned out that the report was heavily influenced by a trade group. That'...

MiBiz with Mark Sanchez

WGVU Wed October 2, 2019

MiBiz Senior Writer Mark Sanchez discusses Michigan's e-cigarette flavor ban and its effects on vape manufacturers. Also, Michigan recognizing...

Whitmer wants to negotiate. Shirkey: "The budget is over"

WGVU Wed October 2, 2019

Governor Gretchen Whitmer says budget negotiations should not be over. That's despite her many line item vetoes and unilaterally moving money around...

State officials ask public's feedback on Viant Medical's air contamin WGUV Wed October 2, 2019

The cancer causing agent is ethylene oxide and it has been used at Viant Medical to sterilize medical instruments, and while the company tested the...

BBB New Study: Who Falls For Scams? WGUV Wed October 2, 2019

Why do some people fall for scams and others don't? A new report by the Better Business Bureau gives us some answers. The report is titled, "Exposed..."

Woodland Mall WGUV Wed October 2, 2019

Woodland Mall's Redevelopment continues, several grand openings are slated for October with more new stores to follow. We talk to Cecily McCable,...

YNPN WGUV Wed October 2, 2019

Guests from YNPN talk about the upcoming Leadership Awards, Liz Warner and Arianne Hall with conversation about the important November 6th recognition

Whitmer uses veto, executive power in effort to re-set budget nego WGUV Wed October 2, 2019

Governor Gretchen Whitmer turned to a governor's rarely used executive authority to finish up the new state budget. She then called for talks to...

Roadside drug testing launches statewide in Michigan WGUV Wed October 2, 2019

In an effort to combat the rising number of fatalities from what Michigan State Police call "drugged" driving, on Tuesday, the department expanded...

Efforts underway to save small West Michigan airport WGUV Wed October 2, 2019

As a small airport in West Michigan is facing extinction, efforts are underway to save the runways that once trained pilots during World War 2. But...

Veterinary Society of surgical Oncology WGUV Wed October 2, 2019

Dr. Jolle Kirpensteijn, President of the Veterinary Society of Surgical Oncology, talks about caring for our pets in times of Natural Disasters or

Mod Pizza WGUV Wed October 2, 2019

Pizza in the house, Mod Pizza welcoming an expansion. The Second location will open with a unique opening opportunity for West Michigan. We talk...

Asian Pacific Festival WGUV Wed October 2, 2019

A Traditional Filipino feast benefits a GR based Asian Pacific Festival, Sunday October 13th, We talk to Ace Marasigan, Founder/CEO of the Festival.

Ban on sale of flavored vapes starts today WGUV Wed October 2, 2019

Starting Wednesday, Michigan vape shops will have to stop selling flavored nicotine products. The final rules of the ban were announced two weeks ago...

Freshman Democrat who called for impeachment faces challenge WGVU Wed October 2, 2019

A rookie Democratic congresswoman from Michigan whose call for President Donald Trump's impeachment helped push House leadership toward launching...

Grand Gals WGVU Wed October 2, 2019

Grand Gals, sharing stories from those who are shaping, inspiring and empowering our community. Producer Megan talks to Shandra Steininger, co-...

UAW strike could cost GM about $1 billion - and counting WGVU Wed October 2, 2019

With the United Auto Workers' strike against General Motors in its third week, pressure is mounting on both sides to reach a deal, with the company...

US Rep. Lawrence to discuss impeachment inquiry at town hall WGVU Wed October 2, 2019

U.S. Rep. Brenda Lawrence is expected to update her constituents during a town hall meeting in Detroit on the House impeachment inquiry into President

Former Rep. John Conyers funeral arrangements announced WGVU Wed October 30, 2019

The funeral for John Conyers, who served more than 50 years in Congress, will be held Monday at a Detroit church. The public will get a chance to show

Sing a Rhythm, Dance a Blues WGVU Wed October 30, 2019

Author Monique Morris writes the book, Sing a Rhythm, Dance a Blues, bringing together research and real life in a chorus of interviews. We talk to...

Well Care Urgent Care WGVU Wed October 30, 2019

Urgent Care is spreading in West Michigan, patients able to reserve their spot online on the web or use the check in app. We talk to Dr. George...

Raising The Bottom WGVU Wed October 30, 2019

In Raising the Bottom, mothers, daughters, health professionals, and young women share their stories of why they drank, how they stopped, and the...

Halloween Safety WGVU Wed October 30, 2019

Trick or Treat tomorrow night, safely. EGR's Officer Collin Wallace joins TMS to discuss all things Halloween safety for the kids.

BBB warns expecting mothers to watch out for gift cards from "Jen" WGVU Wed October 30, 2019

The Better Business Bureau of West Michigan is warning people of a new scam that is targeting expecting mothers, and women who have just had a baby.

John Ball Zoo WGVU Wed October 30, 2019

John Ball Zoo cuts a ribbon today, celebrating a new universally designed playground, only the second such park in the City of GR. We talk to Mike...

Cornerstone Enactus

WGVU Wed October 30, 2019

Cornerstone University students lead an initiative for an Artisan market. We talk about Cornerstone Enactus, this team hosting a craft fair to change...

Exit Left Theater Company

WGVU Wed October 30, 2019

Exit Left Theatre Company's Co Artistic Director Rich Perez joins TMS to discuss the first play of the 4th season at the Brew Merchant in Holland,...

Brody's Be Cafe

WGVU Wed October 30, 2019

We celebrate Brody's Be Cafe, a non-profit coffee shop that employs teens and adults with intellectual and developmental disabilities. Jenny Cole and

Whitmer to GOP: Negotiate budget without limiting powers

WGVU Tue October 29, 2019

Democratic Gov. Gretchen Whitmer is urging Republican legislative leaders to negotiate a budget without trying to restrict her powers. It's been four...

House Democrats push for Michigan Reproductive Health Act

WGVU Tue October 29, 2019

Some Democrats in the state Legislature want to pass a Reproductive Health Act. The lawmakers face an uphill battle with their Republican...

Whitmer signs bill to let counselors still treat patients

WGVU Tue October 29, 2019

Licensed professional counselors will continue to be able to diagnose and treat patients after Michigan Gov. Gretchen Whitmer signed legislation...

Whitmer, Democrats propose undoing abortion restrictions

WGVU Tue October 29, 2019

Gov. Gretchen Whitmer is joining Democratic lawmakers to support a repeal of Michigan's abortion restrictions and regulations. The legislation...

Michigan Independent Citizens Redistricting Commission applicatio

WGVU Tue October 29, 2019

Michigan's citizen-led redistricting process is underway. Michigan Secretary of State Jocelyn Benson was in Grand Rapids Tuesday announcing how...

Doug Meijer and the Meijer Foundation investing millions into Med

WGVU Tue October 29, 2019

Groundbreaking on the Grand Rapids Innovation Park is less than a month away. A multi-million dollar gift will fund cancer-fighting technologies. Doug

WGVU presents FRONTLINE: Fire in Paradise

WGVU Tue October 29, 2019

Tuesday, October 29th at 10pm, WGVU Public Television presents FRONTLINE's Fire in Paradise . This new documentary offers the inside story of the...

Fountain Hill Center

WGVU Tue October 22, 2019

Fountain Hill Center's Social Action team is showing the documentary 'The True Cost' this Saturday night with proceeds going to the Cathedral Clothing

Styling It Your Way

WGVU Tue October 22, 2019

Styling It Your Way with Michelle Krick and Kara Hoholik joining us to talk about sustainability.

Sheriff: Michigan crop heists are a 'major league operation'

WGVU Mon October 21, 2019

Authorities say a "well-organized machine" of thieves appears to be behind the theft of tons of apples and pumpkins from orchards and farms in...

SCOTUS dismisses appeal of redistricting decision

WGVU Mon October 21, 2019

Michigan voters will cast ballots in their current legislative and congressional districts next year. That's due to a decision today by the US Supreme

Campaign launched along with record-setting grants to improve Mi

WGVU Mon October 21, 2019

In an effort to double Michigan's recycling rate by the year 2025, The Michigan Department of Environment Great Lakes and Energy have announced record

Decision 2019: Wendy Falb running for city commission in Grand Ra

WGVU Mon October 21, 2019

Wendy Falb is the former President of the Grand Rapids Board of Education where she served for 10 years, and is currently the executive director of...

Decision 2019: Milinda Ysasi running for city commission in Grand R

WGVU Mon October 21, 2019

Milinda Ysasi is a lifelong Grand Rapidian, who currently is the executive director of The Source, a non-profit employee support organization in Grand

GRPD makes arrest in hit-and-run that killed two people

WGVU Mon October 21, 2019

Police have made an arrest after a hit-and-run in Grand Rapids over the weekend left two people dead. According to the Grand Rapids Police Department...

Eastern Equine Encephalitis

WGVU Mon October 21, 2019

Mary Free Bed Rehabilitation's Dr. Douglas Henry, Pediatric Rehab Physician, joins us to discuss Eastern Equine Encephalitis, presenting a case study

Sport and Christianity: Tim Tebow

WGVU Mon October 21, 2019

Calvin University is bringing professional athlete Tim Tebow to town as part of the Second Global Congress on Sport and Christianity. We talk to...

A Conversation with Nicholas Wolterstorff (Part II)

WGVU Mon October 21, 2019

The Kaufman Interfaith Institute hosted a conversation between Nicholas Wolterstorff and Kelly James Clark on June 3, 2019. Today Common Threads...

Inspired Life Grand Rapids

WGVU Mon October 21, 2019

This weekend, Inspired Life Grand Rapids welcomes local healthcare practitioners to learn about how to care for themselves. Laurie Angell and Kelly

Pigeon Creek Shakespeare Company

WGVU Mon October 21, 2019

Pigeon Creek Shakespeare Company presents Twelfth Night, at both Dog Story Theatre and Jenison Center for the Arts. We talk all things Shakespeare...

Susan Mailer

WGVU Mon October 21, 2019

Susan Mailer, the daughter of one of the most celebrated and controversial writers Norman Mailer, joins us to discuss her book, 'In Another Place,'...

Adventure Point

WGVU Mon October 21, 2019

Check out Adventure Point, a Boy Scouts facility opening its doors to year round special activities tailored to the changing Seasons of Michigan. An...

Grand Rapids Sport and Social Club

WGVU Mon October 21, 2019

Founder of the Grand Rapids Sport and Social Club, Chris Wessely, is here to discuss upcoming activities including kickball and the program Sweat and

Travel Talk

WGVU Mon October 21, 2019

Travel Talk with Travel by Gagnon's Joanne Verboom. Today we discuss saving money on your Thanksgiving travel and about how early one should get to...

Dead loons wash up at Sleeping Bear beach

WGVU Fri October 18, 2019

More than two dozen common loons have been found dead at a beach in northern Michigan. Good Harbor Bay beach is at Sleeping Bear Dunes National...

Auditor General: MDOT allowed stakeholders too much say in stud

WGVU Fri October 18, 2019

The Michigan Department of Transportation let industry stakeholders have too much influence in a gravel study. Those are the findings of a new state...

EXGR: Beer Tourism Economic Impact Triples

WGVU Fri October 18, 2019

A new study about the economic impact of Beer Tourism in West Michigan reveals some good news. The Economic Impact of Beer Tourism in Kent County is...

Audit: State gave gravel industry influence in faulty study

WGVU Fri October 18, 2019

Auditors say the Michigan Department of Transportation gave the gravel industry considerable influence in the commissioning and scoping of a state...

Decision 2019: Pastor Dan Schutte running for mayor of Grand Rapi

WGVU Fri October 18, 2019

WGVU's 2019 Election Coverage continues, as we profile all the candidates that are running for public office in Grand Rapids and Muskegon this...

Decision 2019: Grand Rapids Mayor Rosalynn Bliss seeks re-election

WGVU Fri October 18, 2019

WGVU's 2019 Election Coverage continues, as we profile all the candidates that are running for public office in Grand Rapids and Muskegon this...

Whitmer: Budget vetoes may be reversed if GOP resumes talks WGVU Wed October 2, 2019
Democratic Gov. Gretchen Whitmer called Tuesday for Republicans who control the Legislature to return to budget talks, hinting that her historic...

Michigan ban on flavored vaping products starts WGVU Wed October 2, 2019
Michigan's ban on flavored electronic cigarettes started Wednesday after a judge said she's not ready to decide whether to stop it. Court of Claims...

Deaf and Hard of Hearing Services WGVU Wed October 2, 2019
Deaf and Hard of Hearing Services' ED Deb Atwood joins in with a history of the organization, plus who benefits and how the community can help.

Rock the Runway WGVU Wed October 2, 2019
Veverly Cookie Austin talks about the October 12 Rock the Runway, Fashion with a Cause. It's life beyond the pink. Veverly stops by to talk about this

Library of Michigan WGVU Wed October 2, 2019
Tuned into the Library of Michigan, guests from the State Library of Michigan share topics including today, Libraries and the 2020 Census, Evette...

PBS FRONTLINE presents: The Crown Prince of Saudi Arabia WGVU Tue October 1, 2019
PBS FRONTLINE kicks off its 38th season Tuesday, October 1st @ 10 o'clock on WGVU Public Television with the premier of The Crown Prince of Saudi...

Frozen Jr. WGVU Tue October 1, 2019
GRCT presents Frozen Jr, opening October 18th, Allyson Paris, Director, in studio to talk about the show, with all performers younger than 18.

County Park System WGVU Tue October 1, 2019
The Kent County Parks Department and the Seidman Research Office at GVSU release an economic impact report quantifying the benefits of the Country...

Grand Rapids Art Museum WGVU Tue October 1, 2019
The Grand Rapids Art Museum's latest focus is on the docent. 16 docent artists that volunteer are currently featured at Frames Unlimited. We talk to

Whitmer signs budgets – with liberal use of line item veto WGVU Tue October 1, 2019
Governor Gretchen Whitmer has signed all of the state's budgets for the new spending year – and used up a lot of red ink in the process. Governor...

Private prison for immigrants opens in Michigan WGVU Tue October 1, 2019
A federal prison housing non U-S citizens is opening Tuesday in northern Michigan. The town of Baldwin is anticipating the arrival of up to several...

Iron Chef

WGVU Tue October 1, 2019

The 2019 edition of Iron Chef returns October 14th, Justin Swan and Chef Jenn Fillenworth with conversation about this fundraiser for Cascade...

Michigan hires first ever election security specialist as Decision 202

WGVU Tue October 1, 2019

Michigan is taking steps to secure the state's voting systems from potential cyberattacks during the 2020 elections. Federal officials warn that...

ACLU of Michigan files FOIAs over state police photo database for f

WGVU Tue October 1, 2019

A State Police database of photos from Michigan driver's licenses, social media, and mugshots is receiving scrutiny. The American Civil Liberties...

Whitmer convenes board to make budget moves after her vetoes

WGVU Tue October 1, 2019

A state board controlled by Gov. Gretchen Whitmer is poised to meet to make budget moves after she vetoed nearly $1 billion in spending proposed by...

Commercial Real Estate Insider

WGVU Tue October 1, 2019

Commercial Real Estate Insider, guests in from the Real Estate industry sharing local news. Today's topic, The West Michigan Industrial Market with...

Coppelia

WGVU Tue October 1, 2019

Care Ballet presents Coppelia mid October, Board President Kate Cragwall discussing the event and the Community Outreach programming.

Bluegrass festival and Pumpkinfest

WGVU Tue October 1, 2019

The Book Nook and Java Shop in Montague hosts a Bluegrass festival and Pumpkinfest, Bryan Uecker has the particulars.

From Where I Sit

WGVU Tue October 1, 2019

From Where I Sit, monthly crunching the numbers with Furniture analyst Mike Dunlap.

Latina Network of West Michigan

WGVU Tue October 1, 2019

Stacie Stout, GR City Manager Assistant, stops by to talk about the 5th annual Latina Network of West Michigan, tomorrow night at the Goei Center.

Greater Grand Rapids NAACP celebrating centennial

WGVU Fri October 18, 2019

The Greater Grand Rapids chapter of the NAACP is celebrating its 100th Anniversary. Of the 2,200 branches of the National Association for the...

Mutually Inclusive: Talent 2025

WGVU Fri October 18, 2019

Weekly we focus on the work of area organizations advancing inclusion and equity in our community. This morning we highlight the work of Talent 2025...

Zombieland 2: Double Tap and Maleficent: Mistress of Evil lead the WGVU Fri October 18, 2019

This week in movies is all about the sequels. Zombie Land 2: Double Tap, starring Woody Harrelson, Emma Stone and Jesse Eisenberg, opens ten years...

Nonprofit Navigation WGVU Fri October 18, 2019

NonProfit Navigation, guests in studio on behalf of the Johnson Center for Philanthropy, today's topic, the Big Data Mini Symposium with Adriana Paz...

A Mirror and a Prayer WGVU Fri October 18, 2019

Author of A Mirror and a Prayer, A biography, by Gina Lee Rivera, reviews the themes of choosing to face every new challenge with a can do attitude...

WMCAT WGVU Fri October 18, 2019

WMCAT's Step Year is a unique mix of college and career exploration, self discovery and interships, open to young adults 18-24. We talk to Program...

Religion 101 WGVU Fri October 18, 2019

Religion 101, today Doug Kindschi, Kyle Kooyer and Michael Hampton discuss the topic, including reflections on the recent Jewish Community events,...

Grand Rapids Ballet WGVU Fri October 18, 2019

The Grand Rapids Ballet presents Firebird this weekend, Choreographer Adam Hougland and Artistic Director James Sofranko discuss the performance and...

Hungerford Nichols WGVU Fri October 18, 2019

Hungerford Nichols CPAs Advisors work hard during the day and in the off hours, some pushing their bodies to the limits. We talk about balance with...

Whitmer announces policy changes aimed at increasing who can ge WGVU Thu October 17, 2019

People should not have to be completely destitute to get help from the state. That's the message behind a new policy change at the Department of...

Native American tribe begins work on $100M casino expansion WGVU Thu October 17, 2019

A Native American tribe is planning a $100 million expansion of its western Michigan casino that will include adding new dining, entertainment and...

Counselors could continue to practice under bill sent to Whitmer WGVU Thu October 17, 2019

Licensed mental health counselors in the state will be allowed to continue diagnosing and treating patients under a bill adopted today by the state...

EPA supporting cleanups of 2 Michigan toxic hotspots WGVU Thu October 17, 2019

The federal government is pledging funds to help advance cleanups of two toxic waste hotspots in Michigan. The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency...

Pianist Laszlo Gardony celebrates the joy of creation on La Marseillaise WGUV Thu October 17, 2019

Hungarian born pianist Laszlo Gardony has a new solo live album La Marseillaise, on the Sunnyside label. It's a collection of standards and...

Design Zone WGUV Thu October 17, 2019

The Grand Rapids Public Museum opens Design Zone, a brand new, highly interactive STEAM based exhibit this Saturday, guests learning the processes and

GM and union reach tentative deal that could end strike WGUV Thu October 17, 2019

The United Auto Workers and General Motors have reached a tentative contract agreement that could end a monthlong strike that brought the automaker's...

Thinking Ahead WGUV Thu October 17, 2019

Let's talk about Living and Dying, guests in studio to discuss the class Thinking Ahead: Healthcare Choices with Memory Loss and a Green burial, What...

Why We Believe WGUV Thu October 17, 2019

Author Dr. Agustin Fuentes joins TMS, his latest is out, Why We Believe, why do humans relate to the rest of the world? We talk to Dr. Fuentes.

Judge grants parole for Catherine Wood in nursing home murders WGUV Thu October 17, 2019

A judge says the Michigan parole board can release a woman who has spent 30 years in prison for the deaths of nursing home residents in the Grand...

Arbor Circle WGUV Thu October 17, 2019

Much talk of late on the topic of vaping, and Arbor Circle's Vicki Kavanaugh discusses a new app thanks to Talksooner, showing a new twist on Vaping...

AH-Fest WGUV Thu October 17, 2019

We continue an October series with the spotlight on AH-Fest, the Lakeshore Festival of Arts and Humanities. Today, Cindy Beth Davis Dykema discusses...

City Beat WGUV Thu October 17, 2019

City Beat, where to go, what to do come the weekend in West Michigan, GR Mag's Charlise Dewey with the conversation.

Library Lines WGUV Thu October 17, 2019

Library Lines, monthly speaking with guests from the Grand Rapids Public Library. Today, Bill Hill and Kristen Krueger-Corrado discuss the Friends of...

Andy's Mom WGUV Thu October 17, 2019

We hear the story of Andy. Dr. Marcy Larson discusses his death and her motivation to keep his memory alive through podcasting and supporting others...

Grand Rapids Marathon

WGVU Thu October 17, 2019

The annual Grand Rapids Marathon/Half Marathon and Kids Marathon is this weekend. Marathon Don and Metro Health University of Michigan's Dr. K. talk...

WalletHub: GR 8th Best For People With Disabilities

WGVU Wed October 16, 2019

October is National Disability Employment Awareness Month. And the personal-finance website WalletHub recently released a report on 2019's Best...

Study: Opioids are bad, but alcohol is the real national crisis

WGVU Wed October 16, 2019

A new study from the University of Michigan suggests...that while the opioid crisis receives widespread coverage from news agencies across the...

Michigan farmers face significant declines in crop production

WGVU Wed October 16, 2019

Michigan farmers are expected to see significant declines in crop production after a wet spring left thousands of acres unplanted. According to a...

Raise the Age bills on their way to governor's desk

WGVU Wed October 16, 2019

So-called Raise the Age bills are tee'd up for the governor's desk. The House and Senate passed their versions of the bills today. Now lawmakers will...

Lawmakers examine relaxing concealed gun law

WGVU Wed October 16, 2019

The legislation would make Michigan's concealed gun laws a lot more like the open-carry firearm rules. Open carry in Michigan does not require a...

EPA supporting cleanups of 2 Michigan toxic hotspots

WGVU Wed October 16, 2019

The federal government is pledging funds to help advance cleanups of two toxic waste hotspots in Michigan. The U.S. Environmental Protection Agency...

MiBiz with Mark Sanchez

WGVU Wed October 16, 2019

University of Michigan economists make growth forecasts for the remainder of the year and into 2020. We also look at recent manufacturing data and...

Deviced

WGVU Wed October 16, 2019

Author Doreen Dodgen-Magee writes the book Deviced: How Digital Devices Disrupt Development and How We can Respond. We discuss her research with

Trino Magic

WGVU Wed October 16, 2019

Magic in the house. Trino Magic joins in, his show at Wealthy Theatre, Amaze and Amuse: A Modern Day Magic Show discussed.

Huge waves, strong winds predicted on lakeshore Wednesday

WGVU Wed October 16, 2019

The National Weather Service is warning boaters and would be swimmers: stay out of Lake Michigan on Wednesday. Forecasters are predicting 15-foot-...

The Van Andel Institute

WGVU Wed October 16, 2019

The Van Andel Institute is all about Research and Education. Dawn McCotter, Teacher Program Manager, talks about VAI for Education and the topic of...
