

Radio Community Issues/Programming Quarterly

July 1, 2020 - September 30, 2020

Speaking with the Dead in Early America

WGUV Mon September 28, 2020

Our guest is Erik R. Seeman. Erik joins us to talk about his book 'Speaking with the Dead in Early America.' Erik R. Seeman is Professor of History...

28th Annual Turkey Trot To Benefit GRPS Goes Virtual

WGUV Wed September 16, 2020

West Michigan's biggest Thanksgiving morning tradition is going virtual. Blue Care Network which sponsors the event says registration for the 28 th...

Sesame Street

WGUV Wed September 16, 2020

Sesame Street's Rosita joins TMS, along with Dr. Jeanette Betancourt, talking about tips to help military families during relocation, especially...

Senior Concerns

WGUV Wed September 16, 2020

Senior Concerns, guests from the Area Agency on Aging to discuss their current topics, today Barb Nelson, Healthy Aging, talks all things Falls...

Mary Free Bed

WGUV Wed September 16, 2020

Mary Free Bed's Thrive Party is an opportunity to support the Wheelchair and Adaptive Sports program, talking today with Annual Fund Director Joselyn

Van Andel Institute

WGUV Wed September 16, 2020

Van Andel Institute's Dr. Michael Henderson talks about his investigation into the causes of neurodegenerative diseases and factors that control the

Failure to Disrupt

WGUV Wed September 16, 2020

Author Justin Reich writes the book Failure to Disrupt, Why Technology Alone Can't Transform Education, explaining why learning technologies work in...

William Averette Anderson Fund for Hazard Mitigation Education a

WGUV Wed September 16, 2020

We talk all things prepping for Natural Disasters in the time of pandemic. Monica Sanders, Director of the William Averette Anderson Fund for Hazard

Vintage Parlor Orchestra

WGUV Wed September 16, 2020

Another concert held in a secret, socially distanced location up for you attendance tonight, Vintage Parlor Orchestra's Thomas Pike shares the plan in

Gilda's Club

WGUV Wed September 16, 2020

Gilda's Club Grand Rapids hosts it West Side Walk Fundraiser with three starting times to fit Covid Precautions. We talk to President Wendy Wigger...

Sustainable Community Voices WGUV Wed September 16, 2020

Sustainable Community Voices, today Perfect Circle Recycling's Todd Wilson joins in, helping grocers, schools, restaurants and more reach their goal...

Michigan Senate OKs more time to process absentee ballots WGUV Wed September 16, 2020

Larger Michigan municipalities could begin processing an expected surge of absentee ballots sooner in the battleground state's November presidential

Trump and Biden both focusing tv ads on battleground states WGUV Wed September 16, 2020

President Trump won the White House by flipping Michigan, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin from blue to red. Now, the presidential campaigns and groups

Charges filed against 2 police officers after state reviews WGUV Wed September 16, 2020

Two Michigan police officers were charged with misconduct in separate incidents involving allegations of excessive force and an illegal search,...

Gov. Whitmer: no timetable on when her executive orders will end WGUV Wed September 16, 2020

Governor Gretchen Whitmer told a business group Wednesday that she can't predict exactly how long her emergency measures will be required to address...

Michigan Catholic priest compared BLM to 9/11 attackers WGUV Tue September 15, 2020

The pastor of a Roman Catholic church in suburban Detroit is apologizing after a fellow priest likened Black Lives Matter to the people responsible...

WGUV presents FRONTLINE: Policing the Police 2020 WGUV Tue September 15, 2020

Tuesday, September 15th @ 9:00pm on WGUV Public Television - PBS FRONTLINE presents Policing the Police 2020 examining the realities of race and...

Jill Biden campaigns for husband Joe in Grand Rapids WGUV Tue September 15, 2020

Less than a week after Democratic Presidential Candidate Joe Biden visited Michigan, former Second-Lady Jill Biden campaigned Tuesday in Grand Rapids

U-Michigan sues over strike by graduate students who teach WGUV Tue September 15, 2020

The University of Michigan is suing to stop a strike by graduate-student instructors after they voted to extend their walkout. "Going to the court..."

MSU frats, sororities ordered to quarantine for 2 weeks WGUV Tue September 15, 2020

A county A county on Monday ordered a two-week quarantine for 23 fraternities and sororities and seven large rental houses near Michigan State...

GVSU's College of Health Professions WGUV Tue September 15, 2020

GVSU's College of Health Professions Dr. Ranelle Brew, CHES Department Chair, talking today about Recruitment for MPH program 2021 (upcoming virtual...

The Right Place

WGVU Tue September 15, 2020

The Right Place's Andria Romkema catches us up to the recent happenings, including PPE needs, an update on the Unemployment rate and who's hiring.

All About the Farm

WGVU Tue September 15, 2020

All About the Farm, today US Marine Major Maggie Seymour talks about a run across the state of Michigan in support of the Michigan Chapter of the...

Grand Rapids Ballet

WGVU Tue September 15, 2020

The Fall 2020 Grand Rapids Ballet school year has begun, talking today to Attila M. about the young dancer program, the adaptive dance program and...

Migraines

WGVU Tue September 15, 2020

We talk all things migraines, perhaps increased with the pandemic, Headache Specialist Dr. Jaclyn Duvall and Becca with treatment and stories.

Rapid Growth Media

WGVU Tue September 15, 2020

Guests from Rapid Growth Media join in, today Publisher Tommy Allen and Bob Hammond, owner of the Common Bond Mobile Bike Shop talk about small...

Priority Health

WGVU Tue September 15, 2020

Priority Health donates $5000 to mental Health nonprofits in collaboration with September as National Suicide Prevention month. We talk to Dr. James

The Rain May Pass

WGVU Tue September 15, 2020

Former Broadway Star and creator of shows like Alice, Alan Shayne writes the book The Rain May Pass, a tender and intimate memoir with a twist. We...

Dodge the Rapids

WGVU Tue September 15, 2020

Let's talk Dodge the Rapids, a family fun outdoor night at Sandy Point Beach House, proceeds going to Boy Scouts of America, talking today with...

Ford Airport

WGVU Tue September 15, 2020

The Ford Airport unveils a new mural, a second in a series of Public Art Installations supported by the Frey Foundation. We talk to artist Reb...

Board delays final decision on gun ban at Michigan Capitol

WGVU Mon September 14, 2020

A board that oversees Michigan's Capitol building has put off making a final decision about whether to ban guns there. The Michigan State Capitol

'Spread Hope, Not Covid' campaign calls on those still not wearing a

WGVU Mon September 14, 2020

Michigan on Monday launched a $5 million advertising campaign to urge people to wear a mask to fight the coronavirus, with a focus on appealing to...

Grand Rapids Police Department proposing gun buyback program WGVU Mon September 14, 2020

There have been 23 homicides committed in the City of Grand Rapids in 2020. With an increase in shootings and violent crimes, the Grand Rapids Police

The Best Part of Us WGVU Mon September 14, 2020

Michigan Author Sally Cole-Misch shares her debut novel, The Best Part of Us, showing sensitivity regarding cultural differences, honoring the natural

Failed State WGVU Mon September 14, 2020

Christopher Brown writes the book Failed State, a second dystopian legal thriller from the author of the acclaimed Rule of Capture and Tropic of...

CCPS Community Connections WGVU Mon September 14, 2020

CCPS Community Connections, today we continue the spotlight on Where are the Alum, Robert Howard, GRAD from the Master's in Criminal Justice Program,

How to Be a Person WGVU Mon September 14, 2020

Author of How to Be a Person, 65 Hugely Useful, Super Important Skills to Learn before You're Grown Up Catherine Newman sharing her advice.

Perspectives in Philanthropy WGVU Mon September 14, 2020

Perspectives in Philanthropy, talking today to Gene Sueing, Program Director, GRCF, discussing the grantmaking process plus listening sessions.

014: Shannon Cohen WGVU Mon September 14, 2020

Shannon Cohen, author of Tough Skin, Soft Heart, she empowers community members to embrace who they are. She connects difference makers in a powerful,

Sugarproof WGVU Mon September 14, 2020

How much sugar will you eat today? We talk to Author Dr. Michael Goran, his book, Sugarproof: The Hidden Dangers of Sugar that Are Putting Your Child...

Saugatuck Center for the Arts WGVU Mon September 14, 2020

Saugatuck Center for the Arts' Kristin Armstrong catches us up to the happenings, today's topics include Stargaze Cinema, outdoor concerts, plus an...

West Michigan Works WGVU Mon September 14, 2020

West Michigan Works presents its next Virtual Job Fair, Business Solutions Manager Kiosha Jeltema talks about the virtual booths and more.

Rivkah Slonim (Part I) WGVU Mon September 14, 2020

We discuss two current Netflix series on Hasidic Judaism 'Unorthodox' and 'Shtisel' with Mrs. Rivkah Slonim. Rivkah Slonim is the education director...

Salvation Army WGUV Mon September 14, 2020

The Salvation Army starts the Iconic Red Kettle Campaign earlier than ever before to ensure it can be a beacon of help. We talk to Major Glen Caddy,

National Association of Theatre Owners WGUV Mon September 14, 2020

What new safety protocols are in place by movie chains nationwide? We talk to CEO NATO, John Fithian, National Association of Theatre Owners.

Michigan deer herd in good shape for fall hunting season WGUV Mon September 14, 2020

A mild winter and plentiful food have put Michigan's deer herd in good shape, making for what wildlife officials expect will be a promising fall...

Briefs due soon in challenge to Whitmer emergency power WGUV Mon September 14, 2020

Briefs are due Wednesday after the Michigan Supreme Court asked for more arguments on whether Governor Gretchen Whitmer exceeded her emergency...

Whitmer OKs theaters, bigger crowds; requires masks in K-5 WGUV Mon September 28, 2020

Michigan Gov. Gretchen Whitmer said Friday that movie theaters and other venues can reopen in two weeks after nearly seven months of closure during...

Grace period ending for expired Michigan driver's licenses WGUV Mon September 28, 2020

Time is running out for Michigan residents who have waited to renew their driver's license or vehicle registration during the coronavirus pandemic....

DNR can't check as many deer for chronic wasting disease WGUV Mon September 28, 2020

Michigan wildlife officials won't be able to check as many deer for chronic wasting disease during the upcoming hunting season. The state Department...

Nessel says attorneys "gaming out" election challenges WGUV Mon September 28, 2020

State Attorney General Dana Nessel says she expects more lawsuits regardless of the outcome of the November elections. In an interview on Michigan...

Presidential Debate set for Tuesday, while Jill Biden will be campaign WGUV Mon September 28, 2020

The first presidential debate of the year is set for this week, and Democratic presidential nominee Joe Biden campaign is sending one of his top...

Whitmer aides detail carbon reduction plans WGUV Fri September 25, 2020

Members of Governor Gretchen Whitmer's cabinet offered more details today on the goal she set of making Michigan a "carbon neutral" state by 2050. The

Detroit Thanksgiving parade still on but no spectators WGUV Fri September 25, 2020

The 94th Detroit Thanksgiving parade will march on, but any spectators probably will be in their pajamas. People will not be allowed to line the...

-
- Michigan Legislature approves automatic expungement bills WGVU Fri September 25, 2020
Michigan would automatically expunge criminal records and ease the application process for those convicted of marijuana offenses under sweeping "clean
-
- Michigan Legislature poised to ease processing of ballots WGVU Fri September 25, 2020
Michigan lawmakers are poised to ease clerks' ability to process a surge of absentee ballots in the battleground state's presidential election,...
-
- Kent County providing grants for eligible businesses impacted since WGVU Fri September 25, 2020
The Kent County Board of Commissioners is allocating $5 million dollars to businesses impacted by the pandemic closed by Executive Order since August...
-
- GVSU student organization victims of racist 'zoom bomb,' authoritie WGVU Fri September 25, 2020
Authorities are investigating a potential hate crime at Grand Valley State University, after a minority student group's meeting was interrupted with...
-
- Grand Rapids Adds Drop Boxes Across the City for Absentee Ballots WGVU Fri September 25, 2020
To make it easier for residents to exercise their right to vote, the City of Grand Rapids is adding drop boxes for absentee ballots across the city....
-
- Aerial spraying against mosquito-borne disease is finished WGVU Fri September 25, 2020
More than 462,000 acres have been sprayed from the sky to prevent the spread of Eastern equine encephalitis, the Michigan health department said...
-
- State lawmakers move forward with "clean slate" legislation for lo WGVU Fri September 25, 2020
Michigan lawmakers are moving forward with so-called "clean slate legislation." The bills would make it easier to expunge criminal records for low-...
-
- Absentee voting begins in Michigan WGVU Fri September 25, 2020
Absentee voting began today in Michigan. Absentee ballots were put in the mail to people who requested them. Registered voters can also stop by...
-
- MI House Dems Propose Stripping Qualified Immunity For 'Bad Act WGVU Fri September 25, 2020
Proposed legislation in the Michigan House would deny legal immunity to police who act with unreasonable force. Law enforcement officers are...
-
- Breaking the Chain WGVU Fri September 25, 2020
PETA Senior Vice President Daphna Nachminovitch joins us to discuss a new documentary, Breaking the Chain, that follows the heroes who help backyard...
-
- Wheels of Courage WGVU Fri September 25, 2020
David Davis joins us to talk about his book 'Wheels of Courage.' David shares how paralyzed veterans from WW II invented Wheel Chair sports.
-

The Real Book Spy

WGUV Fri September 25, 2020

Michigander Ryan Steck joins us to talk about how therealbookspy.com breaks news about new books and favorite authors.

Under the Arctic

WGUV Fri September 25, 2020

Grand Rapids Public Museum opens their newest exhibit this Saturday, "Under the Arctic: Digging into Permafrost." We discuss this and other...

The Entrepreneur Insider

WGUV Fri September 25, 2020

The Entrepreneur Insider with guests from GROW. Today GROW's Rosie Orchanian joins us to discuss the latest GROW programming and business woman...

Chasing North Star

WGUV Fri September 25, 2020

Kalamazoo author Heidi McCrary presents her book 'Chasing North Star,' set in Alamo, MI. We discuss the tough yet humorous themes.

Log Cabin Learning

WGUV Fri September 25, 2020

Two students give back through their own nonprofit. We talk to the Brennan family out of Hopkins about their nonprofit, Log Cabin Learning, working...

Dr. Ken RedCross

WGUV Fri September 25, 2020

Dr. Ken RedCross, author of 'Bond: The 4 Cornerstones of a Lasting and Caring Relationship with your Doctor,' joins us to talk about the book and what

Night with the Opera Gala: Tokyo

WGUV Fri September 25, 2020

As part of Bridge GR, Opera Grand Rapids presents a gala on the Blue Bridge this evening. We talk to guests from the Opera about "Night with the..."

Gazelle Sports

WGUV Fri September 25, 2020

Gazelle Sports challenges you to stay active and safe during the changing seasons. Gazelle's Alyssa Davison joins us to discuss the importance of...

Kent County Welcome Plan a call to action creating sense of belongi

WGUV Thu September 24, 2020

The Welcome Plan for Kent County has been rolled out. Grand Rapids is engaged in a national initiative focusing on the development of multi-sector...

Mail delivery lags behind targets as election nears

WGUV Thu September 24, 2020

The slice of Michigan that covers Detroit, its suburbs and towns dependent on the auto industry is coveted political terrain in one of this year's...

Lt. Governor Garlin Gilchrist: vote early

WGUV Thu September 24, 2020

Michigan residents can begin casting absentee ballots for the November election starting on Thursday. Residents who wish to vote early can visit a...

Michigan legislature adopts new budget, sends to Gov. Whitmer for WGUV Thu September 24, 2020

State lawmakers tapped into federal COVID-19 relief money and the state's "rainy day" savings fund to adopt a finalized budget plan Wednesday and...

Gerber expansion will bring 50 new jobs to Fremont, Michigan WGUV Thu September 24, 2020

Baby food maker Gerber announced a major expansion Wednesday, as company officials say, the investment will create dozens of new jobs in Fremont,...

The West Michigan Symphony WGUV Thu September 24, 2020

The West Michigan Symphony concerts go online this fall, directly to your living rooms. We talk to Music Director Scott Speck about the lineup of...

The Constitution Decoded WGUV Thu September 24, 2020

We talk about the Constitution with Katie Kennedy, author of 'The Constitution Decoded.'

School Talk WGUV Thu September 24, 2020

Our monthly School Talk segment focusing today on Kenowa Hills with John Gilchrist joining us to talk about adjusting to Covid-19, meal service, and...

Baby Safety Month WGUV Thu September 24, 2020

Priority Health's Shannon Wilson joins us to talk about Baby Safety Month and the importance of postpartum care.

Artist Hannah Berry WGUV Thu September 24, 2020

Artist Hannah Berry from Lions and Rabbits joins us to talk about the latest murals popping up in Downtown Grand Rapids, part of a city wide...

Alternatives in Motion WGUV Thu September 24, 2020

Alternatives in Motion announces their latest virtual event "Leading the Change." Colleen Davis is our guest.

How Baseball Happened WGUV Thu September 24, 2020

How did Baseball Happen? We talk to author Thomas Gilbert about his book 'How Baseball Happened: Outrageous Lies Exposed! The True Story Revealed!'

Dr. Chris Standburg WGUV Thu September 24, 2020

We talk to Dr. Chris Standburg, season 11 contestant on the Bachelorette and renowned dentist. Chris joins us to talk about maintaining Oral Health...

Cosmos: Possible Worlds WGUV Thu September 24, 2020

'Cosmos: Possible Worlds' is the sequel to the late Carl Sagan's work by wife Ann Druyan. Ann presents the most enduring mysteries of our origins and...

Shannon Bishop Arvin WGUV Thu September 24, 2020

The First Woman President and CEO of Keeneland Race Course, Shannon Bishop Arvin, joins us to discuss the rising number of women entering the...

Michigan House votes to shield employers from virus lawsuits WGUV Wed September 23, 2020

A divided Michigan House has voted to shield health providers and businesses from coronavirus-related lawsuits filed by patients, employees or...

Freshman high school golfer gets hole-in-one on her very first swing WGUV Wed September 23, 2020

First high school match, first shot — hole in one. Stephanie Scott, a freshman at Otsego High School, aced hole No. 8 Monday at Lake Doster Golf Club.

Michigan lawmakers unveil, start passing $62B state budget WGUV Wed September 23, 2020

Michigan lawmakers moved Wednesday to pass a $62 billion budget that would keep spending flat thanks to a federal rescue and avoid major cuts that...

Seidman College of Business WGUV Wed September 23, 2020

Guests from the Seidman College of Business, today Daniel Giedeman gives an economic update, including unemployment, a second econ package, plus...

Better Breakfast Month WGUV Wed September 23, 2020

Did you eat a good breakfast? September is better breakfast month, talking today to Mary Free Bed's Jessi Holden, Registered Dietitian Nutritionist...

Leadership In Action WGUV Wed September 23, 2020

Leadership in Action, today Rhoda Kreuzer discusses Getting in the Game, what's it mean to leaders and what role does a leader play in helping get...

Broadway at the Ball Park WGUV Wed September 23, 2020

Don't miss Broadway at the Ball Park, Fifth Third Ball Park, come the first weekend of October, a partnership between the Park and Grand Rapids Civic

Lansing rolls out absentee ballot drop boxes WGUV Wed September 23, 2020

The city of Lansing continues to roll out ballot drop-off locations for the November election. City Clerk Chris Swope held a ribbon-cutting ceremony...

Social Security 101 WGUV Wed September 23, 2020

Social Security 101, Public Admin Vonda Van Til with the update.

All About Up North WGUV Wed September 23, 2020

Part 3 of a conversation All About Up North, today Pure Michigan's Dave Lorenz with the conversation.

Kamala Harris visits Michigan Tuesday, says state is key to Biden vic WGUV Wed September 23, 2020

Democratic Vice-Presidential nominee Kamala Harris stopped in Michigan for the first time after she was added to the ticket. To soundtrack of Motown...

Black voters in Detroit key for Biden, but are they engaged? WGUV Wed September 23, 2020

Wendy Caldwell-Liddell is tired of waiting for change in Detroit. The nation's largest Black-majority city has been devastated by the coronavirus...

Food Forum WGUV Wed September 23, 2020

Food Forum, Foodie Roz Mayberry talks all things celebrating the Autumn Equinox with a Michigan's Bounty Pear Tatin recipe plus paired wine. We also...

Group plans demonstration in Lansing over mask requirement for st WGUV Wed September 23, 2020

A demonstration is planned at the State Capitol in Lansing Wednesday, as protestors will be demanding that student athletes not be required to wear...

NIA Centre WGUV Wed September 23, 2020

NIA Centre's Robert Upton talks about tomorrow's Virtual Concert, with Special Guest and World-Renowned Violinist Damien Escobar.

'Justice Joan' Larsen emerges as finalist for Supreme Court WGUV Tue September 22, 2020

One of the women on Donald Trump's short list to succeed Ruth Bader Ginsburg on the U.S. Supreme Court got her first taste of politics as a college...

Michigan ban on ticket scalping is up for repeal vote WGUV Tue September 22, 2020

The Michigan House on Tuesday was expected to vote to lift the state's rarely enforced ban on ticket scalping, bringing the long-proposed bill closer...

GOP makes last-ditch effort to reverse ballot ruling WGUV Tue September 22, 2020

The Legislature's GOP leaders are making a last-ditch effort to block a court ruling that would allow absentee ballots to be counted even if they...

Your Home By Design WGUV Tue September 22, 2020

Your Home By Design, putting the spotlight on all things design for your home. We talk to Interior Designer Deidre Remtema, sharing secrets to...

Grand Rapids Public Schools WGUV Tue September 22, 2020

Spotlight on Grand Rapids Public Schools, today John Helmholtz discusses the distance listening session, a meal sight reminder, plus the turkey trot...

GR Area Chamber of Commerce WGUV Tue September 22, 2020

It's Athena week, the GR Area Chamber of Commerce going virtual this year to honor the 2020 Recipient. We talk to Mel Trombley about the celebration.

Tropical Realness WGUV Tue September 22, 2020
 We discuss an outdoor Art Installation as part of the Bridge GR event, Artist Jeffrey Augustine Songco with this conversation about Tropical Realness.

Craft Pass GR WGUV Tue September 22, 2020
 Celebrate craft beverage makers this fall with Craft Pass GR, a new digital pass program. We talk to Experience GR's Kate Lieto.

Traverse City Tourism WGUV Tue September 22, 2020
 Part 2 of a conversation Up North, Director of Traverse City Tourism Trevor Tkach talks about general fall travel, open space to explore, and visiting

Styling it Your Way WGUV Tue September 22, 2020
 Styling It Your Way, Fashion Expert Michelle Krick speaking today about shopping and styling local.

015: Jeanne Englehart WGUV Tue September 22, 2020
 Jeanne Englehart is recognized as an accomplished, dynamic individual with a proven track record of successful business leadership and lots of firsts...

A World Together WGUV Tue September 22, 2020
 Sesame Street's Sonia Manzano, who played Maria, joins TMS to talk about her latest work, A World Together, promoting Unity by celebrating cultural...

Third parties could play a lesser role in 2020 campaign WGUV Tue September 22, 2020
 In close elections, it doesn't take much for third-party candidates to play an outsize role — as Democrats learned the hard way in 2016. President...

Expanded bottle, can returns will begin in 2 weeks WGUV Tue September 22, 2020
 People will have more places to return cans and bottles as more restrictions on retailers are lifted in a couple weeks, as the policy was announced...

Kent County Health Department reports drop in COVID-19 testing-- WGUV Tue September 22, 2020
 The Kent County Health Department announced Monday its experiencing a decline in the number of residents seeking COVID-19 tests, and according to

Owners of 1st recreational marijuana dispensary in Ottawa County: WGUV Mon September 21, 2020
 The first, recreational marijuana dispensary in Ottawa County history opened its doors to the public on Monday, while the owners of "Exit 9..."

Detroit auto show changes dates, moves to September of 2021 WGUV Mon September 21, 2020
 Detroit's big auto show is changing dates once again. The show now is scheduled to take place from Sept. 28 through Oct. 9 next year. Organizers had...

EMU to test campus wastewater for COVID-19 WGUV Mon September 21, 2020

Eastern Michigan University will test campus wastewater for the COVID-19 virus and other signs of infectious diseases. The testing is part of the...

U.S. Sen. Peters: Election should decide Supreme Court vacancy WGUV Mon September 21, 2020

Democratic Sen. Gary Peters and Republican challenger John James have staked out differing stances on the fight over President Donald Trump's pending

State officials want feedback from people on opioid crisis WGUV Mon September 21, 2020

The state health department wants to hear how opioid problems have affected Michigan residents. Two online meetings are planned this week. One for the

SN_Ep15 - Mariano Avila with George Walker III WGUV Mon September 21, 2020

In this special episode, we wish farewell to George Walker III, host of WGUV's Cultural Ingredients who is moving across the country to Napa Valley,

Local First WGUV Mon September 21, 2020

Local First's Mieke Stoub discusses a new, interactive business directory, with a Virtual Walkthrough on Thursday. We talk about the new features and...

Trust for America's Health WGUV Mon September 21, 2020

A new study reports on US Obesity rates, adult obesity rate topping 42% nationally, highest ever. Where does Michigan rate? We talk to Reha Farberman,

Flexible Savings Accounts and Health Savings Accounts WGUV Mon September 21, 2020

We discuss a new measure passed by Congress that could help keep more money in your pocket. Guests discuss Flexible Savings Accounts and Health...

Cherry Festival Foundation WGUV Mon September 21, 2020

The Cherry Festival Foundation continues to benefit from those participating in the ongoing Harvest Cherry Runs, catching up with Director Kat Paye.

Travel Talk WGUV Mon September 21, 2020

Travel Talk, Agent Joanne Verboom discusses great news for airline passengers, where can you go on vacation plus are you tired of working from home?

The Choice 2020 WGUV Mon September 21, 2020

Tomorrow night on WGUV TV, Frontline presents The Choice 2020: Trump vs Biden, the newest installment of Frontline's Acclaimed Election Year...

Grand Rapids Rowing Club WGUV Mon September 21, 2020

Grand Rapids Rowing Club launches a shoe collection drive to raise money for wellness and rowing programs. We talk to Gideon Sanders about the...

Grand Rapids Bride WGUV Mon September 21, 2020
 Time to talk Bridal Show, Virtual. The first and only bridal show coming to West Michigan happens October 1. We talk to founder of Grand Rapids Bride...

Rivkah Slonim (Part II) WGUV Mon September 21, 2020
 We continue to discuss two current Netflix series on Hasidic Judaism 'Unorthodox' and 'Shtisel' with Mrs. Rivkah Slonim. Rivkah Slonim is the...

Official: Toilet display mocking mail-in voting is a crime WGUV Mon September 21, 2020
 A Michigan resident's apparent joke showing disdain for voting by mail is no laughing matter for one election official. The resident put a toilet on...

Holland cops are on the way--in a Tesla WGUV Mon September 21, 2020
 The Holland Department of Public Safety announced that detectives will soon be driving a $49,000 Tesla Model3. HDPS officials say the new wheels are

Nessel says she will use AG powers to protect against voter intimidation WGUV Sun September 20, 2020
 Michigan Attorney General Dana Nessel says her office is ready to prosecute any efforts to illegally use intimidate or misinform voters for the...

Michigan GOP lawmakers challenge Gov. Whitmer's executive order WGUV Sun September 20, 2020
 A showdown between Democrat and Michigan Governor Gretchen Whitmer and the Republican controlled state legislature is unfolding, as GOP lawmakers in

Voters have until Election Day eve to send ballots WGUV Fri September 18, 2020
 Absentee ballots dropped in the mail by November 2 nd will be counted. That's the decision handed down today by a state Court of Claims judge. This...

Judge: Michigan must count absentee ballots that arrive late WGUV Fri September 18, 2020
 A judge on Friday cleared the way for more absentee ballots to be counted in Michigan, saying envelopes postmarked by the eve of the Nov. 3 election...

Fall weather, aerial treatment could fight mosquito disease WGUV Fri September 18, 2020
 Michigan authorities say cooler temperatures expected this weekend should help control the spread of a mosquito-borne virus that has infected one...

Judge blocks Michigan's ban on transporting voters to polls WGUV Fri September 18, 2020
 A federal judge has blocked Michigan's longstanding ban on transporting voters to the polls, ruling it conflicts with U.S. election law. District...

11 more houses near Michigan State quarantined due to virus WGUV Fri September 18, 2020
 Ingham County health officials have identified 11 more large houses near Michigan State University's campus where there are known exposures to the...

U-Michigan governing board backs President Mark Schlissel WGUV Fri September 18, 2020

The governing board at the University of Michigan is expressing support for President Mark Schlissel, two days after he said trust in his leadership...

Are you ready for some football? High schools kickoff tonight after WGUV Fri September 18, 2020

For a number of athletic programs across West Michigan, High School football returns this evening after the season had originally been shut down due...

Mutually Inclusive: Affinity Mentoring WGUV Fri September 18, 2020

Weekly we focus on the work of area individuals and organizations advancing inclusion and equity in our community. This morning we welcome from...

Annis Water Resources Institute WGUV Fri September 18, 2020

Talking today to Dr. Alan Steinman, Annis Water Resources Institute, about COVID wastewater testing, changing water levels and a State of the Great...

Aquinas College Theatre Department WGUV Fri September 18, 2020

Aquinas College Theatre Department cancelled their April production of Antigone, now giving the project a new life as a Radio Play Adaptation. We...

Trump: Michigan election official a 'hater' in ballot snafu WGUV Fri September 18, 2020

President Donald Trump called Michigan's top election official a "Trump Hater" Thursday after the state mistakenly created overseas absentee ballots...

Learning to Be WGUV Fri September 18, 2020

Author Juanita Rasmus joins TMS to discuss her latest work, Learning to Be: Finding Your Center After the Bottom Falls Out. We talk to Ms. Rasmus.

Gun Rights advocates march in Lansing after ban fails WGUV Fri September 18, 2020

Gun rights supporters rallied at the state Capitol in Lansing Thursday in support of the Second Amendment days after a Capitol gun ban failed. The...

New legislation would raise the statute of limitations on lawsuits ov WGUV Fri September 18, 2020

New legislation in the Michigan Senate would increase the timeframe during which legal action could be taken against polluters in Michigan. Under...

Whitmer asks small businesses to be patient with COVID-19 orders WGUV Fri September 18, 2020

Governor Gretchen Whitmer asked business owners Thursday to be patient with executive orders and other actions taken to prevent the spread of COVID-...

Religion 101 WGUV Fri September 18, 2020

Religion 101, guests from the Kaufman Interfaith Institute today discuss a new focus on healing spaces, an Interfaith Focus on Racial Equity and the

Massachusetts General	WGVU	Fri September 18, 2020
Guests join in to discuss new treatments when it comes to ALS, a progressive and fatal neurological disorder. Those from Massachusetts General with...
Michigan Women Forward	WGVU	Fri September 18, 2020
Michigan Women Forward continues it's state wide honoring of deserved women, today talking to Judy Welch about the celebration in Kalamazoo.
Speedbump	WGVU	Fri September 18, 2020
Speedbump artist/West Michigan native Dave Coverly releases his Speedbump 25th Anniversary Edition, a collection of 300 of the best comics released!...
With Big Ten reversal, Trump aims to score in battlegrounds	WGVU	Thu September 17, 2020
President Donald Trump was quick to spike the ball in celebration when the Big Ten announced the return of fall football at colleges clustered in...
Appeals court: Mass mailing of absent ballot applications OK	WGVU	Thu September 17, 2020
Secretary of State Jocelyn Benson's mass mailing of unsolicited absentee ballot applications to millions of 2020 voters was deemed legal by Michigan's
Students who teach end strike at University of Michigan	WGVU	Thu September 17, 2020
Graduate students who teach at the University of Michigan have returned to classes after voting to end a strike. The Graduate Employees' Organization
Homerathon	WGVU	Thu September 17, 2020
We continue a conversation with those from GVSU's College of Liberal Arts and Sciences, Dr. Charles Ham discussing the Homerathon, taking place next...
Emotion and Risk Perception	WGVU	Thu September 17, 2020
We talk about the topic of Emotion and risk perception how do they motivate health behaviors? GVSU's Amanda Dillard from Psychology will talk about...
St. Cecilia Music Center	WGVU	Thu September 17, 2020
St. Cecilia Music Center overs free Virtual Concerts, now through the month of November, ED of the Center Cathy Holbrook with the details.
All About Women	WGVU	Thu September 17, 2020
All About Women, OBGyn Dr. Robyn Hubbard discussing talking to kids about puberty.
Barr under fire for comments he made in visit to Michigan	WGVU	Thu September 17, 2020
Attorney General William Barr drew sharp condemnation Thursday for comparing lockdown orders during the coronavirus pandemic to slavery. In remarks

Nearly 100 MSU Students Isolating Or Quarantining On Campus WGVU Thu September 17, 2020

Some MSU students living on campus are isolating because they have tested positive for COVID-19, while others are quarantining because they have been...

Superman's Not Coming WGVU Thu September 17, 2020

Erin Brockovich joins TMS, activist, Known for the Movie Erin Brockovich, now authoring the book Superman's Not Coming. We talk to Erin.

Murder in Meijer as 29-year old stabs 85-year-old to death WGVU Thu September 17, 2020

An 85-year-old man was stabbed to death inside a southern Michigan supermarket, but his attacker was unable to flee because a woman who witnessed the

Michigan Chief Medical Executive: college students fuel rising COVI WGVU Thu September 17, 2020

Michigan is seeing an overall increase in Covid-19 infections, fueled by outbreaks on college campuses. Hundreds of new cases have been tied to...

Library Lines WGVU Thu September 17, 2020

Library lines, guests from the Grand Rapids Public Library sharing their happenings, including the resuming of review service, get out and vote, plus

Tours Around Michigan WGVU Thu September 17, 2020

Tours Around Michigan, Tour enthusiast Candice Smith Fleszar discussing the latest when it comes to getting to know your own backyard, including the

Childhood Cancer Awareness Month WGVU Thu September 17, 2020

September is Childhood Cancer Awareness Month, today Spectrum Health's Dr. James Fahner discusses the topic and how 2020 has made an impact.

Whitmer: No enforcement of virus rules at Trump rallies WGVU Wed September 16, 2020

Gov. Gretchen Whitmer says it doesn't make sense for Michigan to enforce coronavirus restrictions at President Donald Trump's reelection campaign...

Ottawa County issues "Staying in Place" order for Allendale Twp. im WGVU Wed September 16, 2020

Since late August, the Ottawa County Department of Public Health has recorded more than 600 COVID-19 cases among Grand Valley State University's...

President Trump and Kid Rock to campaign in Michigan Monday, Bi WGVU Mon September 14, 2020

The major party presidential contenders send two of their highest-profile surrogates to campaign in Michigan this week. President Trump and Democratic

Violent weekend in Grand Rapids as officials report 11 shootings ov WGVU Mon September 14, 2020

Despite the Grand Rapids Police Department's recent call on the community to put an end to gun violence, the city reported 11 more shootings over the

Group tops 400K signatures to repeal Whitmer's virus powers WGUV Mon September 14, 2020
Michigan Gov. Gretchen Whitmer, faced with lawsuits challenging her use of emergency powers to fight the coronavirus, could continue to prevail in...

Groups servicing immigrants, refugees to share grant funding WGUV Mon September 14, 2020
Organizations in southeastern Michigan that service immigrants and refugees will share more than $200,000 in grants. The grants range from $5,000 to...

Michigan university drops building name linked to KKK member WGUV Fri September 11, 2020
Michigan State University trustees have changed the name of a campus building after determining that a man with a long record of public service was a

West Michigan economy continued showing improvement in August WGUV Fri September 11, 2020
The West Michigan economy continued improving from July into August. WGUV takes a closer look at the August Institute for Supply Management Research...

Degage' Ministries' Fundraising Campaign Aims To Expand Services WGUV Fri September 11, 2020
Faith-based homeless support agency, Degage' Ministries recently held a capital campaign launch. It was on the grounds of their expanded property at

Grand Rapids African American Community Task Force WGUV Fri September 11, 2020
The Grand Rapids African American Community Task Force hosts the third annual Southeast GR Community Economic Development Conference, talking today...

High Octane Brain WGUV Fri September 11, 2020
Dr. Michelle Braun discusses her latest work on Alzheimers, High Octane Brain, 5 Science Steps to Sharpen Your Memory and Reduce Your Risk of...

Eco Insider WGUV Fri September 11, 2020
Eco Insider, today Mayor of Grand Rapids' Rosalyn Bliss talks about the 17th annual Mayors' Grand River Cleanup.

Birth Control WGUV Fri September 11, 2020
We talk with OBGYN Dr. Charis Chambers, keeping us informed on the biggest concerns women have when it comes to birth control.

Wreaths Across America WGUV Fri September 11, 2020
Wreaths Across America makes a national call to stand out and wave flags to remember 9/11, talking on this 9/11 with Wreaths' Sean Sullivan.

Humane Society of West Michigan WGUV Fri September 11, 2020
Humane Society of West Michigan would like you to meet Amelia, plus we talk about about Bark in the Dark, plus adopting a small animal. Megan...

Zero to Breakthrough WGUV Fri September 11, 2020

She was the first African American female combat pilot, a former police officer and author of the book Zero to Breakthrough. We have a conversation...

Brooks College of Interdisciplinary Studies WGUV Fri September 11, 2020

Brooks College of Interdisciplinary Studies' Toni Perrine discusses the 10th anniversary season of the Grand Rapids Latin American Film Festival.

Mic Carlson WGUV Fri September 11, 2020

Artist Mic Carlson talks about an upcoming fundraiser for the Saint Francis Sculpture Garden, a garden so needed in these times. Mic with the details.

Appeal still alive for Grand Rapids man sentenced to death WGUV Fri September 11, 2020

A Michigan man sentenced to death nearly 20 years ago won a key decision Thursday to extend his efforts to overturn the punishment. Marvin Gabrion can

Ex-UM official says he didn't do more to get doc off campus WGUV Fri September 11, 2020

A retired University of Michigan administrator told lawyers that he was furious to learn in the late 1970s that a doctor was sexually abusing...

State prisons are understaffed, and employees are striking across st WGUV Fri September 11, 2020

The Michigan Department of Corrections is doing what it can to address chronic understaffing in state prisons. The department is responding to...

Trump holds rally in Michigan, addresses Woodward's book WGUV Fri September 11, 2020

President Trump told a crowd of thousands at a rally near Saginaw he did the right thing by avoiding discussing publicly how dangerous COVID-19 could...

Heart of West Michigan United Way WGUV Fri September 11, 2020

Guests from the Heart of West Michigan United Way share their updates, today Mandy DeWilde, Sr Program Data Administrator of Community Impact, talks...

Gateway Pediatric Therapy WGUV Fri September 11, 2020

How are kids with autism being treated in the pandemic? We talk to Lisa Bingham, GR Regional Clinical Director with Gateway Pediatric Therapy,...

Whitmer blasts Trump just before Michigan visit WGUV Thu September 10, 2020

Governor Gretchen Whitmer leveled sharp words today against President Donald Trump over his handling of the COVID-19 crisis. Whitmer has already been

Game on: GRPS decides to proceed with fall sports WGUV Thu September 10, 2020

After much debate according to district officials, Grand Rapids Public Schools announced Thursday that fall sports are back on and will be played—...

GRPS Providing Mental and Social-Emotional Help For Students Duri WGUV Thu September 10, 2020

The Grand Rapids Public School District is offering help to students who may be experiencing trauma during the COVID 19 pandemic. "We're doing..."

Gerald R. Ford Presidential Foundation WGUV Thu September 10, 2020

Tomorrow is 9-11, talking today about the annual Scout Salute on the grounds of the Ford Museum, held virtually for public participation. We talk to

Kent ISD WGUV Thu September 10, 2020

Kent ISD Readiness Consultant Krista Harmon joins TMS to discuss the new virtual option for Healthcare Career Exploration plus the scope of...

The Y WGUV Thu September 10, 2020

The Y reopens, safely. District Executive Kevin Myers discusses the safety protocols, plus what does phased reopening look like?

Treetops Resort WGUV Mon August 31, 2020

Treetops Resort presents a Patriot Day Golf Shootout Labor Day weekend, raising funds for the Folds of Honor Foundation. We talk to Assistant GM Kevin

Michigan virus cases top 100,000 since outbreak in March WGUV Mon August 31, 2020

Michigan on Friday crossed the threshold of 100,000 cases of the coronavirus confirmed since March. Deaths related to COVID-19 reached 6,446 after...

Shake your Teal Feathers WGUV Mon August 31, 2020

Shake your Teal Feathers on Wheels happens September 27, Millennium Park, a drive in program and fun teal car parade to show support and awareness for

A Wonderful Life WGUV Mon August 31, 2020

Dr. Frank Martela presents the book A Wonderful Life: Insights on Finding a Meaningful Existence, presenting some very welcome perspective, tackling...

Grand Rapids Public Museum WGUV Mon August 31, 2020

The GR Public Museum Scientists team up with local partners on research projects studying the Grand River. We talk about telling the river restoration

Grand Rapids from Above WGUV Mon August 31, 2020

Local Photographer Brian Kelly joins TMS to discuss his upcoming release, Aerial: Grand Rapids from Above, this first coffee table book of GR from...

Access to food aid eased for students in technical programs WGUV Mon August 31, 2020

Food assistance has been extended to students pursuing technical education. The state of Michigan said federal money will help pay for the program....

Michigan GOP, Dems finalize November tickets

WGVU Sun August 30, 2020

Michigan's Republicans and Democrats finalized their November tickets this past weekend with party conventions. There was no roar of the crowds as the

GVSU places trust in students to be responsible, as fall semester be

WGVU Sun August 30, 2020

With the country still in the midst of the COVID-19 pandemic, Grand Valley State University began its fall semester Monday with students returning to...

Benson testifies before Congress on election security

WGVU Fri August 28, 2020

Secretary of State Jocelyn Benson testified remotely today before a congressional committee. The topic was ensuring the November elections are handled

Kent Co. Board of Commissioners approves $2 million for schools C

WGVU Fri August 28, 2020

The Kent County Board of Commissioners is releasing federal CARES Act dollars to Kent County schools for the purchase of safety supplies related to...

Ram pickup recall: Floor mats can interfere with gas pedal

WGVU Fri August 28, 2020

Fiat Chrysler is recalling over 186,000 Ram pickups and is telling owners to take them to dealers because floor mats can interfere with the gas...

Licenses suspended for 2 medics in 'dead' woman alive case

WGVU Fri August 28, 2020

The state of Michigan has suspended the licenses of two Detroit-area paramedics after a woman who was declared dead was discovered alive at a funeral...

Detroit schools make deal with teachers to reopen classrooms

WGVU Fri August 28, 2020

The Detroit school district reached a deal to open buildings on Sept. 8. In-person instruction will be capped at 20 students per classroom. Teachers...

Mutually Inclusive: Shaping Narratives

WGVU Fri August 28, 2020

Weekly we focus on the work of area individuals and organizations advancing inclusion and equity in our community. This morning we speak with WGVU...

Set My Heart to Five

WGVU Fri August 28, 2020

Author/Screenwriter Simon Stephenson talks about his latest release, Set My Heart to Five, the star of the book, a robot dentist based in Ypsilanti....

Google Expert

WGVU Fri August 28, 2020

Google Expert Molly Vandenberg discusses resources and tips to keep kids connected and engaged wherever they are. We talk to Molly.

Judge grants an injunction, but Michigan education funds likely rem

WGVU Fri August 28, 2020

A federal judge in California on Wednesday granted Attorney General Dana Nessel a preliminary injunction against the US Department of Education....

Corrections union asks Whitmer to fire prisons director WGUV Fri August 28, 2020

The state corrections officers union is calling for Michigan Corrections Department Director Heidi Washington to lose her job. The 6-thousand member...

Entrepreneur Insider WGUV Fri August 28, 2020

Entrepreneur Insider, GROW's Karen Benson, Community Foundation for Muskegon County's Janelle Mair and Client Ozetta Aaron each discuss their roles...

Vulnerable Population Gets Help From Collaboration Of Agencies WGUV Fri August 28, 2020

It's been one month since six local organizations came together to provide free medical services for those experiencing homelessness. The...

Mom pleads guilty to neglect in son's drowning at beach WGUV Fri August 28, 2020

The mother of a 6-year-old boy who drowned in Lake Michigan pleaded guilty Thursday to child neglect. Iain Rowe drowned at Holland State Park on June...

'Racist' robocall discourages voting by mail; Attorney General launc WGUV Fri August 28, 2020

Michigan's Attorney General and the Secretary of State said Thursday they are investigating a "racist" robocall targeting African-American...

Sitter.com WGUV Fri August 28, 2020

We talk to Sitter.com's CEO Elizabeth Harz about finding childcare as school reopens.

The Royal Governess WGUV Fri August 28, 2020

Author Wendy Holden writes the book The Royal Governess: A Novel of Queen Elizabeth II's Childhood, this tale of the Queen's upbringing BY a unique

DTE Energy Foundation WGUV Fri August 28, 2020

The DTE Energy Foundation has awarded $150,000 in food assistance grants to organizations locally, talking today to the Foundation's President Lynette

Pence rallies supporters during rain-soaked Michigan stop WGUV Fri August 28, 2020

Vice President Mike Pence, flanked by construction equipment and "Make America Great Again" banners, touted President Donald Trump's policy...

The STEM Greenhouse WGUV Fri August 28, 2020

The STEM Greenhouse is dedicated to preparing our community's most vulnerable kids for careers in Science, Tech, Engineering and Math. We talk to...

Grand Rapids African American Art and Music Festival WGUV Thu September 10, 2020

The Grand Rapids African American Art and Music Festival happens September 26, on the piazza of Studio Park, immersing the community in art, music,...

Fallasburg Virtual Arts Festival

WGVU Thu September 10, 2020

We discuss the unique Fallasburg Virtual Arts Festival 2020, presented by LowellArts, ED Lorain Smalligan sharing the info about this major...

Judge OKs oil flow through second Great Lakes pipeline

WGVU Thu September 10, 2020

Enbridge said Wednesday it will fully resume operation of a Michigan Great Lakes oil pipeline after a partial shutdown this summer because of damage...

Biden rips Trump for downplaying COVID-19 threat

WGVU Thu September 10, 2020

Democratic presidential nominee Joe Biden says President Trump is not fit for office after new revelations that Trump knew COVID-19 posed a deadly...

Whitmer clarifies order: Masks not required for all sports

WGVU Thu September 10, 2020

Gov. Gretchen Whitmer late Wednesday clarified her order requiring masks in organized sports, saying they must be worn in training and competition...

Ovarian Cancer and Breast Cancer Awareness Month

WGVU Thu September 10, 2020

As we move into the months of Ovarian Cancer and Breast Cancer awareness month, Dr. Diana Bitner updates us on options during and after cancer, plus...

No excuses now: gyms reopen after 6 months

WGVU Wed September 9, 2020

Michigan's gyms are open for workouts after nearly six months. Gov. Gretchen Whitmer's order took effect Wednesday, allowing fitness centers to...

Michigan Republicans argue to Supreme Court that Gov. Whitmer h

WGVU Wed September 9, 2020

Republicans leaders in the Legislature today asked the Michigan Supreme Court to rule that Governor Gretchen Whitmer's has abused her emergency...

Gov. Whitmer: Big-10 made the right decision to cancel football thi

WGVU Wed September 9, 2020

One day after Michigan Republican leaders called on the Big-10 to reconsider its decision to shut down the football season, Governor and Democrat...

Senate leader: Absentee ballot processing bill still alive

WGVU Wed September 9, 2020

A bill that would allow Michigan clerks to start processing absentee ballots before Election Day is not dead, and the August primary legitimized...

Funding OK'd for jobless benefit, flood costs, carp project

WGVU Wed September 9, 2020

Gov. Gretchen Whitmer on Tuesday signed a budget bill that will fund a federal $300-a-week unemployment benefit, flood cleanup costs in the Midland...

Grand Haven Hispanic Festival

WGVU Wed September 9, 2020

We talk about the Grand Haven Hispanic Festival Covid Style, part of the Tri Cities Puentes Initiative, Reyna Masko with the details for this event...

The Playhouse at White Lake WGUV Wed September 9, 2020

The Playhouse at White Lake slowly reopens, we talk all things future plans with Manager Beth Beaman, followed by Film Producer Roger Rapoport and the

Michigan Inventors Coalition WGUV Wed September 9, 2020

Now is your time to invent. We talk to Joe Finkler and Aimee Carroll about the upcoming annual expo online on behalf of the Michigan Inventors...

Living with Blood Cancer WGUV Wed September 9, 2020

New hope for those with blood disorders, this year more than 175,000 in the US to be diagnosed. We talk to Dr. Caron Jacobson about living with blood

Schuler Books and Music WGUV Wed September 9, 2020

Schuler Books and Music stays focused on keeping customers and staff safe during Covid 19, bringing experiences to your home via Zoom. We talk to...

Michigan Craft Spirits Month WGUV Wed September 9, 2020

Celebrate Michigan Craft Spirits Month this month, today speaking with Long Road Distillers President Jon O Connor, sharing the role of the Michigan...

Experience Grand Rapids WGUV Wed September 9, 2020

Experience Grand Rapids launches a new campaign to help locals connect with out of town friends and family and to boost tourism. We talk to Kelly...

The West Michigan Trail Challenge WGUV Wed September 9, 2020

Walk a trail. The West Michigan Trail Challenge kicks off, discussing the particulars with West Michigan Trails and Greenways Coalition's Jennifer...

Over 100 test positive for COVID-19 at MSU WGUV Wed September 9, 2020

Michigan State University reported Tuesday that 124 students have tested positive for COVID-19. Nearly all the students who have tested positive live...

Protest breaks out at U of M over COVID-19 plans WGUV Wed September 9, 2020

The union representing graduate student employees at the University of Michigan began its strike Tuesday over the university's COVID-19 reopening...

Rheumatic Disease Month WGUV Wed September 9, 2020

September is Rheumatic Disease Month, speaking today with Dr. Kanika Monga, Rheumatologist at the University of Texas, sharing the results of a new...

All About the Eye WGUV Wed September 9, 2020

All About the Eye, today's focus, How is our New Covid 19 Virtual World affecting my eyes? The answer from Optometrist Dr. Gary Anderson.

In 3 big states, Biden looks to rebuild Democrats' Blue Wall WGVU Wed September 9, 2020

In 2016, Donald Trump tore down Democrats' "blue wall," winning the White House with surprise victories in Michigan, Pennsylvania and Wisconsin. This...

Whitmer blasts Trump over ACA denial WGVU Tue September 8, 2020

Governor Gretchen Whitmer is blasting the Trump administration's refusal to allow an additional Affordable Care Act enrollment period. It would be for

Michigan Republican leaders call on Big-10 to reconsider playing fo WGVU Tue September 8, 2020

In a letter from Michigan House Speaker Lee Chatfield and signed by Senate Majority Leader Mike Shirkey, the Republican leaders urged the Big 10...

Silent Observer offering cash rewards for information leading to arr WGVU Tue September 8, 2020

There have been more than 20 homicides committed in the City of Grand Rapids and surrounding communities. Hoping to curb the number of violent crimes,

Blue Cross Blue Shield WGVU Tue September 8, 2020

Blue Cross Blue Shield's Medical Director of Behavioral Health Dr. Kristyn Gregory joins TMS to discuss the understanding of the link between...

Thrive From Home WGVU Tue September 8, 2020

Build Up Michigan and PBS Kids in August launched a new statewide initiative called Thrive From Home, to discuss welcome Christy Callahan, Director of

Consumers Energy WGVU Tue September 8, 2020

Consumers Energy has been recognized by Forbes Magazine as Best Employer for Women in the Utility Sector. We talk about the local angle with VP...

Walk to Defeat ALS WGVU Tue September 8, 2020

This weekend Walk to Defeat ALS, virtually. We discuss this fundraiser/friendraiser with Mallory Timyan.

Telling Your Story WGVU Tue September 8, 2020

Telling Your Story, Emmanuel Hospice sharing stories from the community about the challenges and joys of life. Today, Trey Kubizna, Regional Director...

Naturally Speaking WGVU Tue September 8, 2020

Naturally Speaking, today Michigan's DNR's Michelle Coss, Fund and Resource Development, talks all things Trails Week.

Wellness At Work WGVU Tue September 8, 2020

Wellness at Work, today RD Wendy Brookhouse, The McCahill Group, talks all things staying on track with making good nutritional choices. Tricks of the

Grant program available for humanities-based nonprofits

WGVU Tue September 8, 2020

A grant program has been created to assist humanities-based nonprofit organizations in Michigan that are working to address social, economic and...

Developmentally disabled struggle to find and keep jobs during CO

WGVU Tue September 8, 2020

People with developmental disabilities in Michigan have been struggling to get and keep jobs after losing them during the coronavirus pandemic,...

Draymond Green giving away hundreds of shoes in Saginaw

WGVU Tue September 8, 2020

NBA star Draymond Green is putting shoes on the feet of hundreds of kids in his Michigan hometown. Green is offering 550 pairs of Converse shoes to...

Tufts

WGVU Tue September 8, 2020

Let's talk all things superbugs. The Covid 19 Pandemic Sparks concerns about health risks of antimicrobial resistant superbugs, talking today to...

Election results could take days, says Whitmer and Benson

WGVU Tue September 8, 2020

Governor Gretchen Whitmer and Michigan Secretary of State Jocelyn Benson say people should expect election results to take a few days to be tallied...

Commercial Real Estate Insiders

WGVU Tue September 8, 2020

Commercial Real Estate Insiders, today's guest, CARWM Board Member Mark Ansara, Retail Specialist, Colliers International, today overviewing the West

Sam Westrop (Part II)

WGVU Tue September 8, 2020

Sam Westrop returns to Common Threads this week to continue our conversation from last week. Sam is the director of Islamist Watch . He's here to...

All the Devils are Here

WGVU Tue September 8, 2020

We speak with actor Robert Bathurst, who played Sir Anthony on Downton Abbey, now narrating audiobooks, his latest voicing is out, Louise Penny's All...

All-Pro punter Greg Montgomery has died at age 55

WGVU Tue September 8, 2020

Greg Montgomery, the All-Pro punter who spent nine years in the NFL with Houston, Detroit and Baltimore, has died. He was 55. Montgomery died Aug. 23,

Whitmer concerned about Labor Day gatherings

WGVU Fri September 4, 2020

Governor Gretchen Whitmer said today that she's concerned Labor Day weekend gatherings could lead to a spike in COVID-19 cases in the state. The...

Autonomous Vehicles Back On The Road In G.R.

WGVU Fri September 4, 2020

Earlier this week, the City of Grand Rapids and May Mobility relaunched their autonomous vehicle shuttle service. Service stopped in March due to the...

013: Mira Jourdan

WGVU Fri September 4, 2020

Clinical Psychologist Dr. Mira Jourdan's talents focus on supporting autistic individuals with traumatic brain injury. Outside of the clinic, she

High School Football season back on this fall after Whitmer's order WGVU Fri September 4, 2020

With Michigan Governor Gretchen Whitmer's executive order easing restrictions on athletics, high school football will be played this fall after all....

COVID-Labor Day Survey: 1 in 3 Americans Worried About Job Safet WGVU Fri September 4, 2020

Labor Day is fast approaching. It's of course a holiday that pays tribute to the contributions and achievements of American workers. But this year,...

Do You Know What To Throw?

WGVU Fri September 4, 2020

Do you know what to throw? That's the question being asked as the City of Grand Rapids launches a community campaign to improve curbside recycling....

New legislation in the state Senate would ban the use of PFAs in foo WGVU Fri September 4, 2020

New legislation in the state Senate would ban the use of PFAs in food packaging. PFAs, or perfluoroalkyl substances, are a family of chemicals found...

Man arrested for poaching cow elk in the UP

WGVU Fri September 4, 2020

A man has been arrested in connection with the poaching of a cow elk in a northern Michigan state forest. Jakob Gagnon, 21, was arraigned Aug. 28 in

Murder in Old Bombay

WGVU Fri September 4, 2020

Murder in Old Bombay, debut author Nev March shares her terrific mystery based on an actual unsolved crime from the years when England controlled...

The Turkish Arms Embargo

WGVU Fri September 4, 2020

Dr. Jim Goode formally served as a GVSU Professor, now living on the West Coast and writing books, his latest is out, The Turkish Arms Embargo: Drugs,

Polycystic Disease

WGVU Fri September 4, 2020

Polycystic Disease: Is it Hiding in Your Genes? We talk to Dr. Meyeon Park, University of California, about the role our kidneys play, what is ADPKD...

Fault Lines in the Constitution

WGVU Fri September 4, 2020

Husband and Wife team Cynthia and Sanford Levinson return to TMS to discuss their latest, Fault Lines in the Constitution: The Graphic Novel, a...

U.S. Senator Gary Peters' Motorcycle Tour makes stop in Grand Rap WGVU Fri September 4, 2020

U.S. Senator Gary Peters continued his Motorcycle Tour of the state of the state with a Thursday stop in Grand Rapids. He spoke about additional

Kent County Health Department recommending all students returni WGUV Tue August 25, 2020

The number of COVID-19 cases and positivity rate in Kent County are declining at the moment. Although that's good news, the county health director...

The coronavirus pandemic's impacts on Michigan's nonprofits WGUV Tue August 25, 2020

When much of the Michigan economy came to a halt in March as a measure for slowing the spread of coronavirus, it effected nonprofits. How have...

Movies from the Mound WGUV Tue August 25, 2020

The Whitecaps present Movies from the Mound, presented by Milk Means More, returning to Fifth Third Ballpark. We talk to Steve VanWagoner about how...

Boy Scouts Pinewood Derby WGUV Tue August 25, 2020

Participate in the Boy Scouts Pinewood Derby. We talk about the process and scouting with Gina Circelli.

School Talk WGUV Tue August 25, 2020

We welcome GRPS's Superintendent Dr. Leadriane Roby to TMS, talking all things start of school, parent supports and more, along with Director of

Disc Golf Club WGUV Tue August 25, 2020

Disc Golf Club has started up, due to Covid 19! We talk about the Club, how it relates to the Ultimate Frisbee Club and how youth can get involved...

National Black Breastfeeding Month WGUV Tue August 25, 2020

August is National Black Breastfeeding Month, talking to Shannon Wilson, Priority Health's Director of Medicaid Outreach and Quality about benefits of

SN_Ep14 - Alice Lyn with Amanda E. Machdo WGUV Tue August 25, 2020

Alice Lyn talks to writer Amanda E. Machdo about seeing oneself as part of nature rather than apart from it, and how that can change our attitude...

U.S. Census Bureau WGUV Tue August 25, 2020

Lets' talk about the Census, this month US Census Bureau workers will be going door to door in GR to assist people in responding. We talk to Jeannine

Dr. Jack Lipton WGUV Tue August 25, 2020

Jack Lipton, PhD, chair of MSU's Department of Translational Neuroscience, recently joined MSNBC to talk about deploying university scientists as a

Michigan's budget outlook is not as bad as expected WGUV Tue August 25, 2020

Michigan's budget outlook is not as bad as was thought — thanks to federal pandemic relief aid, higher consumer spending and tax payments than...

Michigan man who tries to climb Mount Rushmore falls 25 feet--sur WGUV Tue August 25, 2020

A Michigan climber who was spotted earlier this month on Mount Rushmore and later slipped down a cliff has been fined $1,500. Court documents show...

Autonomous Shuttle Service WGUV Tue August 25, 2020

Autonomous Shuttle service returns to GR, Hank Kelly, Transportation Planning and Programs Supervisor, discussing the relaunch and the cleaning...

Breathe the Sky WGUV Tue August 25, 2020

The book Breathe the Sky is up for discussion, author Michelle Hazen talking about this unique romance novel, plus how she's written most of her...

Prosecutors Want New Trial For Inman Before He Leaves Office WGUV Tue August 25, 2020

In documents filed in federal court Friday, U.S. prosecutors say they want to take State Rep. Larry Inman (R-Williamsburg) to court before he leaves...

Pipeline tunnel supporters, foes clash before Michigan panel WGUV Tue August 25, 2020

Keeping a 64-year-old oil pipeline in operation by running one portion through a proposed Great Lakes tunnel would safeguard the economy and energy

Styling it Your Way WGUV Tue August 25, 2020

Styling it Your Way, today's topic, Fall Trends with Fashion Expert Michelle Krick and Lisa Miller, LA Miller Boutique. Talking all things Casual...

Once a literal junk yard, initiative hopes to return Muskegon Lake b WGUV Tue August 25, 2020

After decades of environmental abuse, efforts are underway to return Muskegon Lake back to its original condition. As part of a $3.1 million...

Virus concerns delay students' return to Eastern Michigan dorms WGUV Mon August 24, 2020

Students cannot move into their dorms on the Eastern Michigan University campus for at least three weeks, and classes will remain online during that...

Michigan apple harvest looks good, comparable to 2019 WGUV Mon August 24, 2020

Michigan apple growers are predicting a good harvest that will look similar to 2019's haul. The Michigan Apple Committee said this year's harvest...

Judge won't stop virus tests for migrant farm, food workers WGUV Mon August 24, 2020

A federal judge on Friday refused to block a requirement that Michigan's migrant farm workers get tested for the coronavirus, rejecting claims that it

Michigan businesses fined for lax worker virus protections WGUV Mon August 24, 2020

The state on Friday fined six Michigan businesses thousands of dollars for allegedly not protecting workers from the coronavirus, in what was...

Michigan teachers train outdoors to stay safe amid outbreak WGVU Mon August 24, 2020
 A school in western Michigan is taking learning outdoors as a way to help keep students and teachers safe from the coronavirus. Holland Christian

Crystal Bowersox WGVU Mon August 24, 2020
 Known for her album Farmer's Daughter, Singer Crystal Bowersox and Dr. Gregory Dodell join TMS to talk about living with diabetes and the importance...

This is Your Brain on Food WGVU Mon August 24, 2020
 We talk about the work by Dr. Uma Naidoo, This is Your Brain on Food the topic.

Unplugged Play WGVU Mon August 24, 2020
 Former Host and creator of the award winning public radio series The Parents Journal, Bobbi Conner returns to TMS with her latest work, Unplugged...

Jane Griffioen: London Street (Part II) WGVU Mon August 24, 2020
 Jane Griffioen returns to Common Threads to continue to talk about her book, 'London Street: A Memoir.' The book is the true story of growing up...

iSeeCars WGVU Mon August 24, 2020
 According to the latest study by iSeeCars, the average car on a dealer lot in GR remains for 104.4 days. We talk about this number and more with Julie

011: Christina Arnold WGVU Mon August 24, 2020
 Throughout her life, Christina Arnold has been one who has a servant's heart. She learned from her grandparents and mother how to make an impact, a

Getting Green WGVU Mon August 24, 2020
 Getting Green, guests discussing their greening platforms, today Andrea Terrien, Director of Operations, Catalyst Partners, talks about using well...

COVID-19 spreads to nearly half of the male prisoners at Muskegon WGVU Sun August 23, 2020
 Almost half of the men incarcerated at a Muskegon-based-prison have now tested positive for the coronavirus after an outbreak occurred earlier this...

Michigan appeals court upholds governor's emergency powers WGVU Fri August 21, 2020
 Michigan Democratic Gov. Gretchen Whitmer's emergency declarations and orders to curb the coronavirus clearly fall within the scope of her powers, the

GVSU announces fall plan-- which includes 90% online or hybrid cla WGVU Fri August 21, 2020
 As colleges across Michigan grapple with balancing students returning to school and containing the coronavirus on campus, Grand Valley State...

GVSU & The Rapid To Celebrate Laker Line Opening

WGVU Fri August 21, 2020

As Grand Valley State University prepares to welcome students both virtually and in person, the new Laker Line is set to debut on Monday. The new...

Mutually Inclusive: Jack and Jill of America

WGVU Fri August 21, 2020

Weekly we focus on the work of area individuals and organizations advancing inclusion and equity in our community. This morning we welcome Tracey...

Shortlisted: Women in the Shadows of the Supreme Court

WGVU Fri August 21, 2020

Shortlisted: Women in the Shadows of the Supreme Court, written by scholars Renee Knake Jefferson and Hannah Brenner Johnson, tells the largely...

Community Health Workers

WGVU Fri August 21, 2020

We talk about Community Health Workers with Spectrum Health's CH Educator Susie Williamson and CH Worker Shelly Armock, talking about their roles and...

Whitmer: $600M Flint water deal a step toward making amends

WGVU Fri August 21, 2020

A $600 million deal between the state of Michigan and Flint residents who were harmed by lead-tainted water is a step toward making amends for a...

Johnson Center

WGVU Fri August 21, 2020

The Johnson Center's Tamela Spicer and Mandy Sharp Eizinger talk about the upcoming Leadership Labs, on the virtual platform.

Whitmer order will allow gyms, pools and high school sports to resu

WGVU Thu September 3, 2020

Gyms and pools in Michigan can re-open soon, but with new rules to help prevent the spread of COVID-19. That's under executive orders signed today by

Healing with a Loving Heart

WGVU Thu September 3, 2020

Healing with a Loving Heart: Discover the Power of Energy Healing is written by Dr. Susan Stoica, filled with true stories of healing when all hope...

American Lung Association

WGVU Thu September 3, 2020

The American Lung Association and the Ad Council Launch a new Youth Vaping prevention campaign aimed at Parents. We talk to Pulmonologist and...

Shadow Crosser

WGVU Thu September 3, 2020

JC Cervantes joins TMS to talk about the third book and epic finale to the Storm Runner trilogy, a tale of mystery, magic and mayhem, the book, Shadow

Study: Electronics could stop 40% of big truck rear crashes

WGVU Thu September 3, 2020

A new study says that safety features such as automatic emergency braking and forward collision warnings could prevent more than 40% of crashes in...

Autotrader WGUV Thu September 3, 2020
 Is 2020 the Year of the Road Trip? We talk to Executive Editor of Autotrader Brian Moody about keeping the car in shape for your end of summer...

Ex-Michigan Gov. Snyder is latest Republican to back Biden WGUV Thu September 3, 2020
 Former Michigan Gov. Rick Snyder backed Joe Biden for president on Thursday, becoming the latest high-profile Republican to support the Democratic...

Write Michigan Short Story Contest WGUV Thu September 3, 2020
 KDL guests join in monthly, today Jim Davis, Community Liaison, discusses the Write Michigan Short Story Contest.

State to help with elections in Detroit after primary woes WGUV Thu September 3, 2020
 State officials in Michigan say they will help oversee voting in Detroit during the upcoming presidential election. The move comes after numerous...

Court of appeals rules farm owners must test workers for COVID-19 WGUV Thu September 3, 2020
 The Sixth Circuit Court of Appeals has ruled against a challenge to Michigan's public health order requiring farm owners to test workers for COVID-19...

GRPD investigating shooting Thursday morning that leaves teen fight WGUV Thu September 3, 2020
 Grand Rapids Police are investigating after a shooting on the city's southeast side left a teenager fighting for his life Thursday morning. The...

Whitmer says decision on schools sports, gyms "coming soon" WGUV Wed September 2, 2020
 Governor Gretchen Whitmer said today that she will announce a decision "soon" on allowing gyms to re-open and for more school sports to resume. The

State, city collaborate to deter poll problems in Detroit WGUV Wed September 2, 2020
 The state will work with Detroit election officials to ensure that problems encountered during the recent primary are not repeated in the November...

Ford cutting 1,400 US salaried jobs with retirement offers WGUV Wed September 2, 2020
 Ford Motor Co. will offer early retirement incentives with hopes of cutting its U.S. white-collar workforce by 1,400 more positions. President for the

Michigan House OKs spending on jobless benefits, flood costs WGUV Wed September 2, 2020
 Michigan lawmakers have begun voting to authorize the federal government's supplemental $300-a-week unemployment benefit and provide $6 million in...

Forbes ranks GVSU #1 Michigan employer WGUV Wed September 2, 2020
 Grand Valley State University is being recognized as a national leader in diversity and inclusion while also earning the top spot on a national...

Henry Ford Hospital

WGUV Wed September 2, 2020

We talk about the serious impact of COVID 19 on Lung Cancer, Dr. Shirish Gadgeel, Division Head for Hematology/Oncology, Henry Ford Hospital with the Franciscan Life Process Center

WGUV Wed September 2, 2020

The Franciscan Life Process Center presents the virtual edition of Run with the Nuns, proceeds going to the Music Therapy Program. We talk to...

Live Notes with Larissa

WGUV Wed September 2, 2020

Hear Symphony stories from Podcaster Larissa Fall, Violinist discussing her Live Notes with Larissa, Season 1 on Spotify conversations with a unique

Eastern Kille

WGUV Wed September 2, 2020

A local distillery wins a prize. We talk to those from Eastern Kille, named Michigan Whiskey Distillery of the Year. We speak with cofounder Brandon

Charter Education

WGUV Wed September 2, 2020

Focus on Charter education, today discussing Innovative Education in West Michigan with GVSU's Amirah Vosburgh, Manager of School and Community

Bills would equip school buses with cameras

WGUV Wed September 2, 2020

There's legislation in Lansing that aims to help catch motorists who drive past stopped school buses. The bills would allow buses to be equipped with

Task force makes 28 nursing home recommendations to Whitmer

WGUV Wed September 2, 2020

Michigan should modify a system in which nursing home residents infected with the coronavirus can be treated and isolated in those facilities and take

Michigan State's Nassar review mostly clears staff

WGUV Wed September 2, 2020

Michigan State University mostly found no violations of campus policy in a review of roughly 20 former or current staff members who were said to have

Brilliance Awards

WGUV Wed September 2, 2020

The Brilliance Awards happen virtually this next week, West Michigan Women's annual event putting the spotlight on all things brilliant in recognizing

Pink Heart Day

WGUV Wed September 2, 2020

September is National Suicide Prevention and Awareness Month, Vonnie Woodrick, founder of i understand, talks about Pink Heart Day and more.

State will order bankrupt Sanford dam owner to make fixes

WGUV Wed September 2, 2020

Michigan will order the owner to fix and improve two dams that overflowed into the Tittabawassee River last May. That may be easier said than done....

Tuned Into the Library of Michigan WGUV Wed September 2, 2020

Tuned Into the Library of Michigan, guests from the State Library talk about their happenings. Today's topic, LMDigital, collecting and connecting...

Texas and Michigan announce athletic staff and salary cuts WGUV Wed September 2, 2020

The economic blow of the coronavirus pandemic is hitting the biggest, richest schools of college sports, whether they are planning to play football...

Won't Lose this Dream WGUV Wed September 2, 2020

We hear how an upstart urban University rewrote the rules of a Broken System, the book Won't Lose This Dream written by Andrew Gumbel. We talk to...

Sickle Cell Disease WGUV Tue September 1, 2020

We discuss Sickle Cell Disease with Dr. Wanda Whitten Shurney, hematologist/oncologist, Children's Hospital of Michigan, CEO Sickle Cell Disease

Meijer Gardens WGUV Tue September 1, 2020

Meijer Gardens celebrates autumn with an exhibition that explores the untamed side of the season, a Chrysanthemum Exhibition. We talk to John...

Modern Cast Iron WGUV Tue September 1, 2020

Cook with a Modern Cast Iron. The author of Modern Cast Iron, The Complete Guide to Selecting, Seasoning, Cooking and More Ashley L. Jones introduces...

Danger in Plain Sight WGUV Tue September 1, 2020

Hollywood Producer turned Author Burt Weissbourd presents his 5th book, Danger in Plain Sight, discussing the cliffnotes and his approach focusing...

Motorist killed after driving head-on into semi-trailer WGUV Tue September 1, 2020

Authorities are investigating whether a despondent motorist intentionally crashed into a semi-trailer on a southern Michigan highway. The sedan...

Pressure mounting on Gov. Whitmer to change executive order WGUV Tue September 1, 2020

The Michigan High School Athletic Association is asking Governor Gretchen Whitmer to reconsider an executive order that prohibits high school...

City of Grand Rapids WGUV Tue September 1, 2020

The City of Grand Rapids launches a community campaign to improve curbside recycling. We talk to Jill Martin, Director of Community Programs, The...

Momentum Center for Social Engagement WGUV Tue September 1, 2020

West Michigan residents have a chance to get involved in conversations related to race and racism, Grand Haven's Momentum Center for Social Engagement

 Degage Ministries

WGUV Tue September 1, 2020

Degage Ministries launches a 1.3 million dollar public fundraising effort to expand its services, Executive Director Marge Palmerlee with the details.

Gerald R Ford Museum

WGUV Tue September 1, 2020

The Gerald R Ford Museum kicks off their very important 2 day event focusing upon the Greatest Generation, Curator Joel Westphal with comment about...

From Where I Sit

WGUV Tue September 1, 2020

From Where I Sit, Furniture Analyst Mike Dunlap with comment today about continuing to work from home, and decorating a safe office.

1st committee hearing Tuesday on COVID lawsuit immunity

WGUV Mon August 31, 2020

A state House committee will hold its first hearing tomorrow on bills to offer businesses more protections from COVID-19-related legal actions....

Three high school sports await Whitmer's final ruling

WGUV Mon August 31, 2020

The leader of the Michigan High School Athletic Association says the decision rests with Gov. Gretchen Whitmer on whether there are soccer games,

Detroit turns island park into COVID-19 memorial garden

WGUV Mon August 31, 2020

An island park in Michigan has been turned into a COVID-19 memorial garden. It's a stark reminder of the toll the coronavirus has taken, as officials

'Smart Brick' creator describes award winning invention

WGUV Mon August 31, 2020

The City of Holland is known for many things, including North America's largest sidewalk snowmelt system. It was constructed in 1988 measuring nearly...

Police seek help in finding homicide victim from Aug. 20

WGUV Mon August 31, 2020

Police in the Grand Rapids area are asking the public for help in locating the body of a homicide victim. The body of a Black man in his 60s likely...

012: Nkechye Ezech

WGUV Mon August 31, 2020

She hails from Nigeria, but she has become a powerful woman in West Michigan in her own right. Let's talk to Nkechye Ezech, an internationally...

Sam Westrop

WGUV Mon August 31, 2020

Our guest is Sam Westrop director of Islamist Watch . Sam joins us to help us understand the threat of Islamism to non-Muslims and Muslims alike. Sam

National Geographic Kids

WGUV Mon August 31, 2020

National Geographic Kids presents Fetch. How to Speak Dog Training Guide and Pounce. A How to Speak Cat Training Guide. Dr. Gary Weitzman discusses...

ECA Educational Services WGUV Mon August 31, 2020

ECA Educational Services has expanded its services during the COVID 19 pandemic to offer additional subject area educational kits. We talk to co-...

Time Benders WGUV Mon August 31, 2020

Novelist J.B. Yanni presents a new series that explores, Would you Change Events from the Past If You Could Time Travel? We discuss the answer with J...

Community Health Awareness Month WGUV Mon August 31, 2020

Community Health Awareness Month ends today, this final opportunity to thank CH workers especially who work to fight Covid 19. We talk to Priority...

Mainlining Philly WGUV Fri August 28, 2020

The author of Mainlining Philly: Survival, Hope and Resisting Drug Addiction Dr. Geri Lynn Utter talks about her disturbing but inspirational story of

Michigan Supreme Court delays virus-related case WGUV Fri August 28, 2020

The Michigan Supreme Court has postponed arguments over Gov. Gretchen Whitmer's use of emergency powers until Sept. 9. The one-week delay is necessary

Guards: Michigan prisons director needs to go WGUV Thu August 27, 2020

The union that represents Michigan prison guards is calling for the ouster of the director of the Corrections Department. The head of the Michigan

Judge blocks rule that moves relief funds to private schools WGUV Thu August 27, 2020

A federal judge in California blocked a federal rule that Michigan and seven other states said would unlawfully allow too much pandemic relief aid to...

AAA Urges Drivers To Be Safe As School Resumes WGUV Thu August 27, 2020

As students head back to school, whether virtually or in person, drivers are being encouraged to be careful on the roads. The pandemic has brought...

GR Symphony WGUV Thu August 27, 2020

News from the GR Symphony from Music Director Marcelo Lehninger, the announcement of Pathwaves, a series of concerts, delivered via livestream, from...

School Talk WGUV Thu August 27, 2020

School Talk, today talking to Kent ISD's Paul Dymowski, discussing Special Education Center Based Programs.

Excy XCS WGUV Thu August 27, 2020

We talk about the new Excy XCS Bed Bike and more exercise options with Founder Michele Hehl.

 The Bridge GR

WGUV Thu August 27, 2020

The Bridge GR launches an art, cultural, music and community event series, this month long celebration that creates a platform for the advancement of...

Diabetic Nerve Pain

WGUV Thu August 27, 2020

Diabetic Nerve Pain is real, speaking today to Dr. David Simpson, Mt. Sinai in NYC about diabetes, it's symptoms and treatment.

Dr. Caitlin DeWilde

WGUV Thu August 27, 2020

Check your four legged best friends for the critters. Dr. Caitlin DeWilde discusses fleas, ticks and mosquitoes and how best to prevent them.

Mary Free Bed

WGUV Thu August 27, 2020

Mary Free Bed's Dr. Evan Parks writes the book Chronic Pain Rehabilitation, to get people back to the life they love. We talk to Dr. Parks.

Thick as Thieves

WGUV Thu August 27, 2020

NY Times Best Selling author Sandra Brown returns to TMS, her book Thick as Thieves appealing to a diverse audience.

GVSU Veterans

WGUV Thu August 27, 2020

GVSU Veterans Military and Vet Resource Manager Jill Wolfe joins TMS to discuss the support of Veterans, military connected students/families and

The Presidents VS the Press

WGUV Thu August 27, 2020

Historian Harold Holzer is out with his latest work in print, The Presidents VS the Press: The Endless Battle between the White House and the Media...

DOJ seeks data on care home deaths in 4 Democrat-led states

WGUV Thu August 27, 2020

The Justice Department on Wednesday sent letters to the governors of New York and three other Democratic-led states, seeking data on whether they...

Judge: Feds can be sued for failures in Flint water crisis

WGUV Thu August 27, 2020

The federal government can be sued for negligence in the Flint water crisis, a judge said Wednesday, citing the failure of regulators to timely act...

Judge says Benson allowed to send absentee ballot mailings

WGUV Wed August 26, 2020

A Michigan Court of Claims judge has ruled Secretary of State Jocelyn Benson is allowed to send every voter in the state an application to vote...

Birgit Klohs discusses her successes as leader of The Right Place

WGUV Wed August 26, 2020

Since 1987, Birgit Klohs has guided regional nonprofit economic development organization, The Right Place. After more than three decades on the job,...

Judge boots challenge to mass mailing of ballot applications

WGVU Wed August 26, 2020

A Michigan judge has dismissed a lawsuit challenging the secretary of state's mailing of absentee ballot applications to millions of voters who did...

EM Services

WGVU Wed August 26, 2020

A 20 million dollar company moves to West Michigan to help lead the conversation in minority diversity. We talk to Laura Hopson, President/CEO of EM

Seidman College of Business

WGVU Wed August 26, 2020

Guests from the Seidman College of Business share their news, today Jaideep Motwani and Koleta Moore talk about Transformative Certificates.

Leadership In Action

WGVU Wed August 26, 2020

Leadership in Action, today's topic Leading Your Team Through Stress, Partners in Action Rhoda Kreuzer with the comments.

Body found in mid-Michigan ID'd as woman, 36, ruled homicide

WGVU Wed August 26, 2020

A burned body found last week behind a building in mid-Michigan has been identified as that of a 36-year-old woman whose death has been ruled a...

Spectrum Health

WGVU Wed August 26, 2020

Spectrum Health hands out free fresh fruit and veggies in Muskegon this Thursday, Drew Dostal, Regional Market Leader, Spectrum Health NW Region with...

US Sen. Stabenow urges USDA to extend food program waivers

WGVU Wed August 26, 2020

The U.S. Department of Agriculture will not continue to provide food program waivers that have ensured students are fed while schools are closed...

Comcast

WGVU Wed August 26, 2020

Comcast's Michelle Gilbert returns to TMS, talking about launch of a new internet essentials partnership program for cities, schools and students.

Social Security 101

WGVU Wed August 26, 2020

Social Security 101, Admin Vonda Van Til with the catch up this late summer. Topics include Economic Impact Payments and Scam Calls.

Whitmer says flu cases could hurt COVID-19 response

WGVU Wed August 26, 2020

Governor Gretchen Whitmer has set a goal of getting an additional million people in Michigan to get a flu shot compared to last year. Whitmer said...

Early data show Muskegon evictions may have fallen - for now

WGVU Wed August 26, 2020

In August of 2019, Muskegon's district court saw 506 landlord-tenant eviction cases filed. This August only 58 cases have been filed. Of those cases...

 Parenting Expert Ericka Souter

WGUV Wed August 26, 2020

We continue to talk about navigating back to school during a pandemic, Parenting Expert Ericka Souter with her recommendations.

Sen. Peters launches investigation into Post Office delays, tours Gra WGVU Wed August 26, 2020

After launching an investigation earlier this month into the United States Postal Service recent operational changes and slowdowns, Senator and...

The Bridge Run WGVU Wed August 26, 2020

The Bridge Run goes virtual. Race Director Kyle Cutler with the conversation about the planning and the history of this 10 mile race through the GR...

Food Forum WGVU Wed August 26, 2020

Food Forum, Foodie Roz Mayberry with her discussion of Labor Day Treats from the Farmers Market.

Whitmer: Get flu vaccine to ease hospitals' load in pandemic WGVU Tue August 25, 2020

Gov. Gretchen Whitmer on Tuesday urged Michigan residents to get the flu vaccine to ease the load on the health system if there is a surge of...

WMCAT launching Community Catalyst program WGVU Tue August 25, 2020

The West Michigan Center for Arts + Technology reminds us that in recent years the city has received national attention as one of the best places to...

Boy Scouts of America Pinewood Derby WGVU Fri August 21, 2020

Participate in the Boy Scouts of America Pinewood Derby. We talk about the event and Boy Scouting. Gina Circelli with the conversation.

Religion 101 WGVU Fri August 21, 2020

Religion 101, guests from the Kaufman Interfaith Institute joining in, today Kyle Kooyers and Louis Padnos discuss a fall full of unknowns, plus the

2 men ordered to trial in Michigan for meningitis outbreak WGVU Fri August 21, 2020

Two men charged with murder for 11 deaths linked to a meningitis outbreak have been ordered to trial by a Michigan judge. Barry Cadden was co-founder...

Judge won't stop pro-Palestinian protests at synagogue WGVU Fri August 21, 2020

A judge has dismissed a lawsuit that sought to stop pro-Palestinian protests outside a synagogue in one of Michigan's most liberal cities. The...

Blandford Nature Center WGVU Fri August 21, 2020

Blandford Nature Center has lost its founder, Dr. Mary Jane Dockeray this week, talking today to the Center's Jason Meyer about her legacy and spirit...

 Heart of West Michigan United Way

WGUV Fri August 21, 2020

The Heart of West Michigan United Way's Michelle Van Dyke talks about the new data points that reveal disproportionate financial hardship in Black

Hope Network Foundation

WGUV Fri August 21, 2020

Hope Network Foundation Executive Director Jason Madden talks about the upcoming Run for Mental Health 2020 one in five virtual 5k to raise funds and

Schools in northern Michigan OK for soccer, volleyball, swim

WGUV Thu August 20, 2020

High schools in the Upper Peninsula and much of the northern Lower Peninsula can compete in fall soccer, volleyball and swimming. But officials say...

Take Your Cat to the Vet Day

WGUV Thu August 20, 2020

This Saturday is Take Your Cat to the Vet day, talking about why cat care is important, even during a human pandemic. Veterinarian Dr. Natalie Marks...

Baxter Community Center

WGUV Thu August 20, 2020

Baxter Community Center launches a program to address birth disparities in Kent County. We talk about the Community Based Birth Equity Pilot with...

Amway River Bank Run

WGUV Thu August 20, 2020

The Amway River Bank Run goes Virtual. Race Director Russ Hines with the comments of the plan for a drive thru celebration for all of the races.

Cascade Community Foundation Hosts "Race In The Suburbs" Foru

WGUV Thu August 20, 2020

The Cascade Community Foundation that serves Cascade, Ada and Forest Hills is kicking off its first part of an ongoing series, entitled, "Community Q..."

Michigan joining lawsuit to challenge post office changes

WGUV Tue August 18, 2020

The state of Michigan is joining other states in suing the U.S. Postal Service over service changes. Attorney General Dana Nessel says a lawsuit was...

VAI researchers discover "master regulator" that may lead to Parkin

WGUV Tue August 18, 2020

Parkinson's Disease impacts the brains of more than 10 million people. It's a nerve degenerative illness causing motor and non-motor symptoms. At...

Researcher explains responding to a pandemic is the same as a nat

WGUV Tue August 18, 2020

The coronavirus pandemic is considered a public health crisis. To better understand the impacts, we talk with Davia Downey who's a researcher of...

Degage Ministries

WGUV Tue August 18, 2020

Degage Ministries needs your decorated pillowcases, seeking help from the community with The Pillowcase Project. Brooke Jevicks with the details.

NIA Centre

WGVU Tue August 18, 2020

NIA Centre presents a Live Virtual Concert regarding COVID 19 and its impact upon the African American Community. We talk to Robert Upton, Chair.

All About The Farm

WGVU Tue August 18, 2020

All About the Farm, today Annie Link, Swiss Lane Farms, talks about a new education program.

Chair Yoga

WGVU Tue August 18, 2020

We talk Chair Yoga with Lynn Lehmkuhl, step by step exercises for strength, balance and more. Lynn joins in with the details.

SN_Ep11 - Alice Lyn with CJ Goulding

WGVU Tue August 18, 2020

Alice Lyn talks to CJ Goulding about inequities in outdoor recreation, and feeling safe as a person of color in the outdoors. Alice Lyn, host of WGVU...

Tech Defenders

WGVU Tue August 18, 2020

A local tech company makes the INC 5000 fastest growing companies list, Tech Defenders earning the rank of 657 on the list. CEO Garry VonMyhr has the...

Travel Talk

WGVU Tue August 18, 2020

Travel Talk, today talking all things local travel tidbits, are you wondering where to go on vacay, plus how travel advisors can help. Agent Joanne...

Ottawa County launches free drive up COVID-19 testing

WGVU Tue August 18, 2020

With the number of new positive Covid-19 cases remaining steady, Ottawa County Health officials are urging area residents to take advantage of drive-...

Circle Theater

WGVU Tue August 18, 2020

Circle Theatre continues its summer programming, as summer concerts are here to stay. Lynn Tepper, with the pop up schedule and more.

Medisurge

WGVU Tue August 18, 2020

A Michigan Medical Manufacturer offers Covid 19 Antibody Test Kits amidst return to work. We talk to Medisurge's Director of Operations Erin Sachau.

West Michigan Works

WGVU Tue August 18, 2020

We discuss a virtual second chance job fair to connect returning citizens with employers, Business Solutions Rep, West Michigan Works. Olivia...

Whitmer touts Biden for auto rescue, rips Trump on virus

WGVU Tue August 18, 2020

Gov. Gretchen Whitmer — “that woman from Michigan” — touted Joe Biden’s work to rescue the auto industry and said he would rally the country to fight...

Michigan Legislature gives schools flexibility in pandemic

WGVU Tue August 18, 2020

Michigan legislators gave final approval Monday to bills that would provide flexibility for K-12 schools as they prepare to open amid the coronavirus

Whitmer on veepstakes: Being governor is 'my dream job'

WGVU Tue August 18, 2020

Gov. Gretchen Whitmer said she was "thrilled" when Joe Biden chose Kamala Harris as his running mate, and her decision to be vetted for the job...

Michigan selects commissioners to redraw voting lines

WGVU Tue August 18, 2020

The 13 citizens who will be tasked with redrawing Michigan's congressional and legislative district boundaries for the next decade were unveiled...

Swimming advisories extended for parts of Lake Michigan

WGVU Tue August 18, 2020

The National Weather Service has extended swimming advisories for parts of Lake Michigan as forecasters predict high waves and strong currents over...

Swimming advisories extended for parts of Lake Michigan

WGVU Mon August 17, 2020

The National Weather Service has extended swimming advisories for parts of Lake Michigan as forecasters predict high waves and strong currents. The

Michigan Legislature gives schools flexibility in pandemic

WGVU Mon August 17, 2020

Michigan legislators have given final approval to bills that would provide flexibility for K-12 schools as they prepare to open amid the coronavirus

Man pleads guilty in slayings of housemate, another man

WGVU Mon August 17, 2020

A western Michigan man has pleaded guilty in the fatal stabbings of his housemate and another man in separate incidents. WOOD-TV reports that...

Klohs decides its time for retirement stepping down as head of The

WGVU Mon August 17, 2020

Since 1987, Birgit Klohs has guided regional nonprofit economic development organization, The Right Place. "In addition to being really an economic

Viewer makes weather data available to Michigan farmers

WGVU Mon August 17, 2020

Michigan's Department of Agriculture and Rural Development is making data on programs related to weather conditions available to farmers. The...

Plan for old Detroit fairgrounds includes Amazon warehouse

WGVU Mon August 17, 2020

A real estate developer with eyes on buying part of the former Michigan State Fairgrounds in Detroit is in negotiations that would bring an Amazon

Whitmer order requires COVID-19 testing in prison, jails

WGVU Mon August 17, 2020

Gov. Gretchen Whitmer signed an executive order Saturday requiring jails and prisons to test inmates for COVID-19 when they enter, transfer from or...

National Wellness Month

WGVU Mon August 17, 2020

RDN Bonnie Taub-Dix shares breakfast ideas that stick as we prepare to go back to school, on line or in class.

Association of American Colleges

WGVU Mon August 17, 2020

The Association of American Colleges releases their COVID 19 Mask Wearing Guide and Reset Road map. We talk to the Executive Director about the...

Jane Griffioen: London Street

WGVU Mon August 17, 2020

Jane Griffioen joins Fred Stella on Common Threads to discuss her book, 'London Street: A Memoir.' The book is the true story of growing up Christian

When You Can't Go Home

WGVU Mon August 17, 2020

Studio Artist Karisa Keasey joins TMS, her latest work, When You Can't Go Home, shines a light on the beauty and contributions of immigrants in the...

010: Tasha Blackmon

WGVU Mon August 17, 2020

Tasha Blackmon, President/CEO of Cherry Health, is a dynamic leader bringing her experience to ensure patients in her own community receive the...

Legislature, Whitmer reach deal on return-to-school bills

WGVU Mon August 17, 2020

Michigan schools that deem it safe to provide in-person classes during the coronavirus pandemic would have to prioritize the option for K-5 students...

Scavenging bald eagles face threat from vehicles in Michigan

WGVU Mon August 17, 2020

Bald eagles that soar majestically through Michigan skies are finding danger on the ground even after recovering from the brink of extinction. The...

Olive The Lionheart

WGVU Mon August 17, 2020

We talk about an unforgotten Scottish Olive the Lionheart, Author Brad Ricca sharing the story of Olive MacLeod, her astonishing journey to West...

Whitmer: State will distribute 4 million masks

WGVU Fri August 14, 2020

Governor Gretchen Whitmer announced today that a new partnership will help get about 4 (m) million protective face masks to people who might...

LifeCircles PACE

WGVU Thu August 20, 2020

Throughout the pandemic, LifeCircles PACE has worked hard to support seniors in avoiding nursing homes and live safely in their homes. We talk to...

Trustee criticized for Nassar case remarks won't run again

WGVU Thu August 20, 2020

A Michigan State University trustee who suggested that attorneys representing sexual assault victims of former sports doctor Larry Nassar were "...

Whitmer assessing if businesses can open after long closures WGUV Thu August 20, 2020

Gov. Gretchen Whitmer says she's reassessing the risk of opening Michigan businesses that have been closed for months under her orders to curb the

All About Women WGUV Thu August 20, 2020

All About Women, Grand Rapids Women's Health's Dr Robyn Hubbard discussing Breast feeding during Covid and the New Fed is Best approach.

Michigan reaches $600M deal in Flint water crisis WGUV Thu August 20, 2020

The state of Michigan has agreed to pay $600 million to compensate Flint residents whose health was damaged by lead-tainted drinking water. That's

Solid Rock WGUV Thu August 20, 2020

We talk about Solid Rock, renovating existing structures to keep occupants in their homes. Erik Alm discusses this former Muskegon Habitat, now...

Zumba WGUV Thu August 20, 2020

A local event puts a Positive and entertaining impact on health and wellness for women in West Michigan. We talk about doing Zumba to stress less and...

Hello West Michigan WGUV Thu August 20, 2020

Hello West Michigan's Jessica Kuster talks about the Intern Connect program, a Virtual Connection event series for college students and interns to...

Women Who Improvise WGUV Thu August 20, 2020

Tonight check out the Women who Improvise event, the continued monthly series offered by the organization WOMEN WHO! We talk to those involved,...

Vaccinations 101 WGUV Thu August 20, 2020

Senior Medical Directors BCBS's Dr. Caison Sorey returns to TMS, discussing Vaccinations 101: Everything You Need to Know

SN_Ep13 - Alice Lyn with Sergio Cira Reyes WGUV Thu August 20, 2020

Alice Lyn talks to Sergio Cira Reyes, Director of Community Engagement at Urban Core Collective about bringing the Latino community into the outdoors...

MiBiz with Mark Sanchez WGUV Wed August 19, 2020

Patrick Center: "Wednesday afternoon time for our bimonthly conversation with MiBiz senior writer Mark Sanchez. Schools are preparing to reopen some

More than half-ton of marijuana found in truck from Canada WGUV Wed August 19, 2020

More than a half-ton of marijuana has been found in a commercial truck attempting to cross into Michigan from Canada via the Blue Water Bridge. U.S.

Kent County Small Business Recovery Program grants released	WGVU	Wed August 19, 2020
The first round of federal CARES Act dollars is being released to qualifying Kent County small businesses. Kent County was awarded more than $114...
Wyoming's Ideal Park reopens	WGVU	Wed August 19, 2020
Wyoming's Ideal Park was hard hit by a tornado tracking through the area in 2014. The park lost 90 percent of its mature trees. It's playground and a
The Right Place	WGVU	Wed August 19, 2020
The Right Place's Birgit Klohs shares her thoughts on announcing her retirement after 33 years. We ask about her legacy and her next act.
Senior Concerns	WGVU	Wed August 19, 2020
Senior Concerns, guests from AAAWM join in, today Contract Admin Kendrick Heinlein discusses technology
How To Care For Your Child's Glorious Hair	WGVU	Wed August 19, 2020
Have curly hair? Lorraine Massey, author of Curly Kids, comes to the rescue, writing the handbook, How To Care For Your Child's Glorious Hair. We...
SN_Ep12 - Christine Mwangi with Doreen Mangrum	WGVU	Wed August 19, 2020
Christine Mwangi talks to Doreen Mangrum, CEO at Mangrum ConSOULTation, LLC about using mindfulness meditation to stave off the negative effects of...
VAI	WGVU	Wed August 19, 2020
Guests from the VAI join in, Dr. Patrik Brundin, Director of VAI's Center for Neurodegenerative Science, founder of the Grand Challenges symposium in...
Cascade Community Foundation	WGVU	Wed August 19, 2020
Cascade Community Foundation hosts a virtual live panel discussion Thursday called Race in the Suburbs, questions and answers about race in the...
Sustainable Agriculture Project	WGVU	Wed August 19, 2020
Brooks College of Interdisciplinary Studies sends their guests during the school year, today's topic the SAP, Sustainable Agriculture Project at GVSU.
Greater Grand Rapids History Council	WGVU	Wed August 19, 2020
Tomorrow, Suffragists visit Relax on Rosa, ie meet members of the Greater Grand Rapids History Council who are celebrating the 100th anniversary of...
Cyber Hub	WGVU	Wed August 19, 2020
A local cyber hub hosts 2 free virtual cybersecurity events open to the public, with topics ranging from technical demos to inequities in the sector...

Sustainable Community Voices

WGVU Wed August 19, 2020

Sustainable Community Voices, talking today with Margaux Sellnau, GVSU Student, Educator, and Interim Farm Manager for GVSU's Sustainable Agriculture

Colleges grapple with coronavirus as students return

WGVU Wed August 19, 2020

Notre Dame and Michigan State universities became the latest colleges to move classes online because of the coronavirus on Tuesday as colleges...

Autism Wellness Center of SW Michigan

WGVU Wed August 19, 2020

A WMU grad with Autism Spectrum Disorder is opening a one on one personal training studio for kids, teens and seniors with ASD. We talk to Erin Beal...

Muskegon Heights police officer receives medal of honor after bein

WGVU Tue August 18, 2020

A Muskegon Heights police officer Tuesday received the medal of honor after being shot in the line of duty last year, as fellow law enforcement...

Lansing fire chief resigns after racial discrimination suit

WGVU Tue August 18, 2020

Lansing's fire chief has resigned after 16 months in the position and just days after a racial discrimination lawsuit was filed by multiple current...

Blue Cross Blue Shield

WGVU Wed August 12, 2020

BCBS's DR Gina Lynem-Walker joins TMS to talk about a Rise in Screen Time, and how to manage both physical and mental health, including Tech Free...

What Girls Need

WGVU Wed August 12, 2020

What Girls Need: How to Raise Bold, Courageous and Resilient Girls, written by Marisa Porges, up for discussion, Practical, persuasive advice for...

Hackers breach customer data at Michigan State online store

WGVU Wed August 12, 2020

Hackers have breached Michigan State University's online store, gaining access to customer credit card numbers and other personal information, the

Bear Bones

WGVU Wed August 12, 2020

Bear Bones, the third in the series, is set at Sleeping Bear Dunes. We talk to Attorney/Author Charles Cutter, tag line Murder at Sleeping Bear Dunes.

Kamala Harris' selection as VP resonates with Black women

WGVU Wed August 12, 2020

China Cochran met Kamala Harris at a campaign event in Detroit last year and was swept away by her ambition, charisma and leadership. She hoped the

Whitmer didn't want the job of Vice-President to begin with

WGVU Wed August 12, 2020

Gretchen Whitmer wanted out. The Michigan governor had caught the interest of Joe Biden and his vice presidential vetting committee, who were drawn...

Woodland Mall

WGVU Wed August 12, 2020

Woodland Mall Marketing Director Cecily McCabe has created a Better Learning Guide full of versatile items accommodating the evolving classroom that...

All About The Eye

WGVU Wed August 12, 2020

All About the Eye, Dr Gary Anderson talking about the Positive and Negative Effects of Covid 19 on Eyecare.

Study: 2011 Muskegon Lake environmental restoration project imp WGVU Wed August 12, 2020

A decade ago, a restoration project along the southern shoreline of Muskegon Lake was launched. A recently released Grand Valley State University...

Big Ten, Pac-12 pull plug on fall football amid pandemic

WGVU Tue August 11, 2020

The Big Ten and Pac-12 conferences won't play football this fall because of concerns about COVID-19. The decisions take two of college football's five

MI education says state should plan now for post-COVID schools WGVU Tue August 11, 2020

State superintendent Michael Rice delivered a report today to the Michigan State Board of Education. He offered some recommendations on handling in-...

What makes Muskegon a great (or not so great) place to live? Livab WGVU Tue August 11, 2020

In an effort to learn about the benefits and challenges of living in the county, officials on Tuesday launched another round of the Muskegon...

TrackMIBallot: New System Helps Keep Track Of Votes By Mail WGVU Tue August 11, 2020

A Grand Rapids company is getting good reviews after it launched the state's first beginning-to-end mail ballot tracking system. Kent Communications...

Whitmer to speak at Democratic National Convention WGVU Tue August 11, 2020

Michigan Gov. Gretchen Whitmer is scheduled to be featured on the opening night of next week's Democratic National Convention. Whitmer will speak...

West Michigan Partnership for Children WGVU Tue August 11, 2020

How is the back to school season affecting Foster Families? We talk to Kristyn Peck, CEO of West Michigan Partnership for Children, about the...

Local First WGVU Tue August 11, 2020

Local First's Alice Jasper and Emmanuel Ibarra discuss new programming, further expansion across the state and local partnerships.

Hire for Hope WGVU Tue August 11, 2020

We catch up with CEO/Talent Advisor Ashley Ward, Hire for Hope, discussing why the launch, how the company supports women through it's funding of Safe

Michigan moves high school football to spring due to virus WGUV Fri August 14, 2020

The Michigan High School Athletic Association is moving the football season to next spring but says other fall sports will proceed as scheduled...

Michigan will distribute 4M free masks to fight coronavirus WGUV Fri August 14, 2020

Gov. Gretchen Whitmer says 4 million masks will be distributed to residents - free of charge - to help combat the coronavirus pandemic. The face...

Mutually Inclusive: South East Market WGUV Fri August 14, 2020

Weekly we focus on the work of area individuals and organizations advancing inclusion and equity in our community. This morning we speak with Alita...

Prisoners of Empire WGUV Fri August 14, 2020

The Author of Prisoners of Empire: Inside Japanese POW Camps, Sarah Konver, talks about this first complete portrait of detention in the Pacific...

Thrive From Home WGUV Fri August 14, 2020

Michigan early childhood educators and PBS KIDS this week launched a new statewide program called Thrive From Home, helping parents ensure their

Henna Crowns of Courage WGUV Fri August 14, 2020

We catch up with the founder of Henna Crowns of Courage, Amanda Joy Gilbert discussing her passion and how crowning works.

Teaching Anxiety Dreams WGUV Fri August 14, 2020

GVSU Padnos/Sarosik Endowed Chair of Civil Discourse Jeff Kelly Lowenstein returns to read his latest essay, in these times, Teaching Anxiety Dreams.

Transformational Mindset and Success Coach WGUV Fri August 14, 2020

As a survivor of breast cancer, single mom of three and entrepreneur, Leisse Wilcox turns her lemons into limes, becoming a Transformational Mindset...

Shark Week WGUV Fri August 14, 2020

Sharks are alive and well at Sea Life, recently reopening in SE Michigan, Curator Sarah Sprague to discuss a shark week, plus how to take advantage...

Michigan has most new virus cases since May, record tests WGUV Fri August 14, 2020

Michigan on Thursday reported more than 1,100 new confirmed cases of COVID-19, the highest number recorded in one day in nearly three months. The...

Great Start Collaborative of Kent County WGUV Fri August 14, 2020

Great Start Collaborative of Kent County's Director Paula Brown talks about recent highlights and works, plus a focus on outreach and the upcoming...

Michigan to mail cards telling 4.4M they can vote from home WGUV Fri August 14, 2020

Michigan will mail postcards telling 4.4 million registered voters that they can vote from home in November's presidential election, and it will...

Michigan hospital reinstates visitor limits after cases rise WGUV Fri August 14, 2020

A Detroit-area hospital said Wednesday it will reinstate visitor restrictions out of an abundance of caution following a rise in coronavirus cases...

Rotary of Grand Rapids WGUV Fri August 14, 2020

Rotary of Grand Rapids welcomes their newest President. We talk to Jon Hankins about the State of the Service Club and his mission/goals and vision.

Michigan plans dedicated road lanes for autonomous vehicles WGUV Thu August 13, 2020

The state of Michigan and private partners are taking steps toward building or assigning dedicated lanes for automated vehicles on a 40-mile stretch...

DHHS director on tracing contract: "We made a mistake" WGUV Thu August 13, 2020

The director of the state Department of Health and Human Services testified today before a committee examining Michigan's COVID-19 response. Director

Gerald R. Ford International Airport deploying virus destroying U.V. WGUV Thu August 13, 2020

The Gerald R. Ford International Airport is the first in the nation launching ultraviolet technology that can disinfect surfaces. Tim Haizlip is...

Losing college football stings across America WGUV Thu August 13, 2020

Michigan's Big House will be sitting empty when the leaves start to change this fall. Southern Cal's famed white horse won't be galloping triumphantly

Michigan hospital reinstates visitor limits after cases rise WGUV Thu August 13, 2020

A Detroit-area hospital says it will reinstate visitor restrictions out of an abundance of caution following a rise in coronavirus cases among staff,

New Data: Seniors Lose The Most $$ In Lottery, Sweepstakes Scams WGUV Thu August 13, 2020

Sweepstakes, lotteries and prizes. New data show these are the scams that the Better Business Bureau says lures and targets seniors over the age of...

Paper City Development WGUV Thu August 13, 2020

Researchers surveying Portage Creek as part of an environmental study at the $80 Mill at Vicksburg project in Kalamazoo County discovered a type of...

Michigan Connections Academy WGUV Thu August 13, 2020

With several districts starting school online, parents should know how to keep their kids safe on the internet. We talk to Bryan Klochach,...

Whitmer's meteoric rise leaves Democrats excited for future WGUV Thu August 13, 2020

Michigan Gov. Gretchen Whitmer's quick ascension to the national stage — and onto Joe Biden's list of potential running mates — has left Democrats...

Black victims of U-Michigan doc seek equity in settlements WGUV Thu August 13, 2020

Dwight Hicks left New Jersey as a teenager, seeking to take a step toward his NFL dreams by playing football at the University of Michigan. Hicks was

Grand Rapids Asian-Pacific Festival WGUV Thu August 13, 2020

Grand Rapids Asian-Pacific Festival organizers host the Second Annual street food drive thru event this Saturday, at Riverside Park. We talk to Debra...

Ford Airport WGUV Thu August 13, 2020

The Ford Airport is the first in the country to test a UV Autonomous Robot that disinfects using ultraviolet technology. Director of Maintenance Tim

Muskegon Museum of Art WGUV Thu August 13, 2020

Muskegon Museum of Art's extensive glass collection is on view, works by pioneering to modern masters that shaped the glass movement. We talk to...

City Serve Day WGUV Thu August 13, 2020

We talk about a City Serve Day in Muskegon's McLaughlin Neighborhood Park this Saturday, Project 1M, an organization focused on igniting and uniting...

The Y WGUV Thu August 13, 2020

Guests from the Y join in, today ED of Membership and Program Adam Shilling talks about all things programming in the pandemic, including outdoor...

Community Choice WGUV Thu August 13, 2020

Community Choice pays off outstanding meal bills for over 4000 students, discussing this with what's happening statewide and in Muskegon. Jeremy...

The Right Place WGUV Thu August 13, 2020

Local College and University Career Services, plus The Right Place, host an upcoming speaker panel Lessons Learned: The Transition to Remote...

Michigan hospital reinstates visitor limits after cases rise WGUV Wed August 12, 2020

A Detroit-area hospital says it will reinstate visitor restrictions out of an abundance of caution following a rise in coronavirus cases among staff,

Rites of fall: Losing college football stings across America WGUV Wed August 12, 2020

Michigan's Big House will be sitting empty when the leaves start to change this fall. Southern Cal's famed white horse won't be galloping triumphantly

Grand Valley Metro Council survey for 2045 transportation plan WGUV Wed August 12, 2020

The Grand Valley Metro Council's 2045 transportation plan has cleared the federal review process. The plan focuses on Kent and eastern Ottawa County

WalletHub: Michigan Ranked 9th For Most Improved Health During WGUV Wed August 12, 2020

As the pandemic continues states are grappling with what to do about schools reopening, mask restrictions and more... some states are also facing...

MDVIP WGUV Wed August 12, 2020

We talk about a study on behalf of MDVIP, CEO Dr. Andrea Klemes discussing the results of how Americans are being affected by the Coronavirus,...

Bar-Bar-A WGUV Wed August 12, 2020

Livestock need their water. David Anderson is president and CEO of Bar-Bar-A, a company that produces automatic livestock drinkers, talking today...

The Lions of Fifth Avenue WGUV Wed August 12, 2020

The Lions of Fifth Avenue is written by Bestselling author Fiona Davis, Davis delving into the history of the New York Public Library in this novel of

Michigan Women Forward WGUV Wed August 12, 2020

Michigan Women Forward's Meaghan Bergman joins in to update us on the UGOGIRLS Virtual Visionaries program, plus updates us on the Michigan Women's...

The Apocalypse Factory WGUV Wed August 12, 2020

Science Writer Steve Olson discusses his latest The Apocalypse Factory: Plutonium and the Making of the Atomic Age. Olson chronicles the discovery and

Telling Your Story WGUV Tue August 11, 2020

Telling Your Story, guests from Emmanuel Hospice bringing you stories from the community about the challenges and joys of life, today talking to...

Grand Rapids Police Department releases draft plan aimed at transf WGUV Tue August 11, 2020

After some community members and Grand Rapids City Commissioners asked for the partial defunding of the Grand Rapids Police Department, a new plan for

Naturally Speaking WGUV Tue August 11, 2020

Naturally Speaking, guests from the DNR discussing their latest, today Scott Whitcomb, Sr Advisor for Wildlife and Public Lands, talks all things...

Covid-19 has reduced state tracking of mosquito-borne illness WGUV Tue August 11, 2020

Michigan health officials say the COVID-19 pandemic has reduced the state's ability to track mosquito-borne illnesses. Just last year Michigan saw ten

Dog rescued from Lake Michigan four miles from shore WGUV Tue August 11, 2020

A dog treading water nearly four miles offshore in Lake Michigan has been rescued by a family out on a boating trip. The family was boating from Grand

Rishi Singh Talks To Dr. Ali Metwalli about the resources At-Tawhe WGUV Tue August 11, 2020

You're listening to shaping narratives, a collection of voices from West Michigan's communities of color brought to you by WGUV, NPR and PBS in West

President Trump trails Democratic challenger Biden by double-digit WGUV Tue August 11, 2020

Lansing-based EPIC-MRA has conducted a third poll leading up to the November presidential election. In June, Michigan registered voters surveyed...

Wellness At Work WGUV Tue August 11, 2020

Wellness at Work, today Lacie Lind, Certified Personal Trainer, discusses safe practices when exercising outside, including the topic of hydration.

Michigan chosen for pilot program that funds health services WGUV Tue August 11, 2020

Michigan will be part of a federal project that funds mental health and addiction services at community health clinics. The Certified Community...

American Heart Association WGUV Tue August 11, 2020

The American Heart Association hosts another West Michigan Wellness Symposium, ED Jeanne LaSargeBono talks about this third year topics, going...

Disability Network Lakeshore WGUV Tue August 11, 2020

Disability Network Lakeshore looks for nominations for the 10th annual Ability Award that goes Virtual. The award is given to an individual in...

Get Your Rear in Gear WGUV Tue August 11, 2020

ColoRectal Cancer affects 1 in 24 people, and the Get Your Rear in Gear 2nd annual GR event goes local to raise funds and awareness. Dr. Chelsea Boet,

Michigan to assess remaining portion of failed dam WGUV Mon August 10, 2020

State investigators and contractors will this week start assessing the remaining portion of a failed Michigan dam. The failure of the Edenville dam...

City Commission to consider changing election cycle from odd to ev WGUV Mon August 10, 2020

The Grand Rapids City Commission Tuesday morning will consider changing its election cycle from odd years to even...this after a group has been calling...

Christine Mwangi talks to local YMCA executive about food security WGUV Mon August 10, 2020

You're listening to shaping narratives, a collection of voices from West Michigan's communities of color brought to you by WGUV, NPR and PBS in West

Paris Never Leaves You

WGVU Mon August 10, 2020

The author of Paris Never Leaves You joins TMS, Ellen Feldman sharing her work that alternates between wartime Paris and the 1950s New York publishing

By Leaps & Bounds: Mental Health Support for Families with Young

WGVU Mon August 10, 2020

When parents develop a secure attachment relationship with their child, it strengthens children's self-esteem, concept and worth. Arbor Circle's Early

By Leaps & Bounds: Early Interventions – Working with a Parent Ed

WGVU Mon August 10, 2020

The social, academic and behavioral skills that children develop in their early years creates a foundation for their future. Parent Educators partner...

Your Home By Design

WGVU Mon August 10, 2020

Your Home by Design, today's topic, tile selection. We talk to Designer Deidre Remtema and Virginia Tile Showroom Manager Michelle Eldridge.

The Hero Foundation

WGVU Mon August 10, 2020

The Hero Foundation is a nonprofit Michigan Cancer Charity, solely focused ON helping Michigan families struggling with cancer, today talking about an

Sway

WGVU Mon August 10, 2020

Matt Bocchi was 9 when he lost his father in the World Trade Tower, his life full of heartbreak and despair, now sober and the author of the first...

Perspectives in Philanthropy

WGVU Mon August 10, 2020

Perspectives in Philanthropy, today, GRFC's Diana Sieger discusses Black Philanthropy Month, initiatives including scholarships.

Ayurveda

WGVU Mon August 10, 2020

Wellness Expert/RD Niti Patel talks about the role of Ayurveda, treating pandemic induced stress and promoting wellness.

Michigan Political Leadership Program

WGVU Mon August 10, 2020

The Michigan Political Leadership Program sets another first, virtually, come October 1. The annual fundraiser will be hosted virtually, talking...

The Mighty Mac

WGVU Mon August 10, 2020

The Mighty Mac Swim Course may be empty this summer, yet, many continue virtually and donate their entry fees to raise over $6000 for pandemic relief

Census workers to go door-to-door in Michigan communities

WGVU Mon August 10, 2020

The U.S. Census Bureau is kicking off its door-to-door effort, following up with Michigan residents who have yet to respond to the census. Workers...

Western Michigan city OKs device to turn waste into a fuel WGUV Mon August 10, 2020

A western Michigan city is moving ahead with a nearly $34 million project to equip its wastewater treatment plant with a egg-shaped device that will...

Whitmer extends coronavirus emergency through Sept. 4 WGUV Mon August 10, 2020

Gov. Gretchen Whitmer on Friday extended Michigan's coronavirus emergency through Sept. 4, enabling her to keep in place restrictions designed to...

AP sources: Whitmer met with Biden as he nears VP decision WGUV Mon August 10, 2020

Gov. Gretchen Whitmer traveled to Delaware last weekend to meet with Joe Biden, the presumptive Democratic presidential nominee's first known in-...

Andrew Whitehead (Part II) WGUV Mon August 10, 2020

Clemson Sociology professor Andrew Whitehead continue the discussion on, How Christian nationalism drives American politics. Andrew has co-authored...

July Supply Management Research Survey indicates signs West Mic WGUV Fri August 7, 2020

There are signs the West Michigan economy is improving in this pandemic-induced recession. Is it sustainable is the question? WGUV takes a closer...

009: Stacie Behler WGUV Fri August 7, 2020

Hear the story of Stacie Behler, Meijer Group Vice President of Public Affairs and Communication and the Executive Director of the Meijer Foundation...

George Walker III talks to Myra Maimoh about food, music, and sto WGUV Fri August 7, 2020

You're listening to shaping narratives, a collection of voices from West Michigan's communities of color, brought to you by WGUV, NPR and PBS in West

Over 200 prisoners and staff test positive for COVID-19 at Muskego WGUV Fri August 7, 2020

The Michigan Department of Corrections Friday said that 217 prisoners and staff now have tested positive for coronavirus at the Muskegon Correctional

KCHD: Community Health Needs Assessment Survey Now Open WGUV Fri August 7, 2020

What are the most pressing health issues impacting residents in Kent County? That's what the 2020 Community Health Needs Assessment survey intends to...

Grand Rapids Public Schools details virtual learning plans for the fall WGUV Fri August 7, 2020

Starting this fall, all students at Grand Rapids Public Schools will be going to school virtually. What this means is that Tuesday through Thursday...

Mutually Inclusive: Hispanic Center of Western Michigan WGUV Fri August 7, 2020

Weekly we focus on the work of area individuals and organizations advancing inclusion and equity in our community. This morning we speak with...

Eco Insider

WGVU Fri August 7, 2020

Eco Insider puts the spotlight on the happenings of WMEAC, today New City Neighbors Board President Jeni Wammack joins in to talk about this urban...

Kirkhof College of Nursing

WGVU Fri August 7, 2020

Monthly, guests from the Kirkhof College of Nursing join in, today Dr. Tamara Van Kampen discusses a 1.5$ Grant awarded to the Nursing's GVSU Family...

Annis Water Resources Institute

WGVU Fri August 7, 2020

We touch base with Dr. Alan Steinman, Annis Water Resources Institute, today talking about a national award received, plus involvement with a UN...

Mary Free Bed

WGVU Fri August 7, 2020

Mary Free Bed launches a new program, Breathing Therapy for COVID 19 Recovery. We talk to Rehab Physician Dr. Christopher Rizik and PT Garret Biese...

Michigan mask requirement extended to day cares and camps

WGVU Fri August 7, 2020

Gov. Gretchen Whitmer on Thursday extended her mask requirement to include many children who attend day care and camps, saying the step is necessary...

Michigan Lawyers Weekly

WGVU Fri August 7, 2020

Michigan Lawyers Weekly names WMU Cooley Law School Associate Dean Tracy Brame as Lawyer of the Year. We talk to Tracy.

AAA: Researchers Look At Driving Assistance Programs-Are They W

WGVU Thu August 6, 2020

A new study by AAA finds driving assistance systems in cars may do less to assist drivers and more to interfere. Are driving assistance systems in...

Record 2.5M voted in primary; Benson pushes for legislation

WGVU Thu August 6, 2020

A record 2.5 million votes were cast in Michigan's primary, as people took advantage of no-excuse absentee voting amid the coronavirus pandemic,...

Progressives say primary wins latest sign of momentum shift

WGVU Thu August 6, 2020

Progressive Democrats celebrated two primary victories Wednesday, claiming the protests over George Floyd's death and a renewed focus on racial and

Feds arrest paroled child rapist who fled Michigan in 1999

WGVU Thu August 6, 2020

A man convicted of raping two Michigan children has been arrested in California, more than two decades after he fled Michigan following his parole....

Kent District Library

WGVU Thu August 6, 2020

Branches of the Kent District Library open today, with limited hours. We talk to Regional Manager Morgan Hanks about the details.

The Flying Tigers

WGVU Thu August 6, 2020

Author/Grandson of a B 25 Navigator in WWII Samuel Kleiner did his research on the Flying Tigers, a volunteer unit that flew in China in the early...

Grand Rapids Police Department will not be hiring any new police o

WGVU Thu August 6, 2020

This is the time of the year when the Grand Rapids Police Department begins receiving applications from new recruits. But not this year. Raul Alvarez,

Rapid Growth Media

WGVU Thu August 6, 2020

Rapid Growth Media's Publisher Tommy Allen and special guest Erin Skidmore of Access of West Michigan join in to talk about the local work being done...

The Silent Wife

WGVU Thu August 6, 2020

Best selling author Karin Slaughter returns to TMS, her latest work is out, The Silent Wife. We talk about her intense research.

Ditch the Act

WGVU Thu August 6, 2020

Ditch the Act, says author Ryan Foland, his latest is out, Ditch the Act: Reveal the Surprising Power of the Real You for Greater Success. We talk to...

Moore Theatres

WGVU Thu August 6, 2020

With guidance from public health officials and experts from the CDC, the movie theatre industry's reopening plan was devised to keep moviegoers safe

Henry Ford Sports Medicine

WGVU Thu August 6, 2020

Henry Ford Sports Medicine Doctor Okoroha joins TMS to talk about a recent study and it's results when it comes to Concussions, a very timely...

WMCAT

WGVU Thu August 6, 2020

We talk about the anti-racism work in our community, despite the closing of the local 501C3 Partners for a Racism-Free Community. All intellectual...

WGVU Kids Day at the Zoo

WGVU Thu August 6, 2020

Today is the day, WGVU Kids Day at the Zoo. We check in with George Davis, on site, with his early play by play.

Kent County Health Department Director responds to COVID-19 sur

WGVU Thu August 6, 2020

Kent County's Health director is asking residents to resist from stigmatizes individuals and groups who have recovered from COVID-19. In Kent County...

State Supreme Court is urged to remove Lapeer County judge

WGVU Wed August 5, 2020

A watchdog agency is recommending the removal of a Lapeer County judge who deposited $1,000 from bad check cases in personal bank accounts when he was

Whitmer declares racism a state “public health crisis”

WGVU Wed August 5, 2020

Governor Gretchen Whitmer signed an executive directive that declares racism a public health crisis in Michigan. The directive says systemic racism...

Whitmer takes steps to combat racism, reports case plateau

WGVU Wed August 5, 2020

Gov. Gretchen Whitmer has announced additional steps to combat racism, declaring it a public health crisis and ordering state employees to complete

Big win for Cedar Springs Public Schools, as bond proposal barely pa

WGVU Wed August 5, 2020

Cedar Spring Public School officials are breathing a sigh of relief Wednesday, as a bond proposal passed in Tuesday’s primary by a razor thin margin...

State police to assist Benton Harbor cops to restore ‘order’

WGVU Wed August 5, 2020

Michigan State Police will send six troopers to Benton Harbor to crack down on large gatherings, loud music and reckless drivers, behavior that has...

Primary recap: Many Michiganders still braved the polls Tuesday

WGVU Wed August 5, 2020

Roughly 1.6 million Michigan voters cast absentee ballots, but there were still those who braved the coronavirus threat Tuesday and voted in person...

National Women's Law Center

WGVU Wed August 5, 2020

We discuss the latest data when it comes to data from the National Women's Law Center, Senior Manager for Strategy and Policy, Jenalyn Sotto and...

Keller Williams GR North

WGVU Wed August 5, 2020

Peter Albertini, Associate Broker, Keller Williams GR North catches us up to the COVID 19 impact upon the real estate market.

Confidence Beyond Hair Loss

WGVU Wed August 5, 2020

We talk about Confidence Beyond Hair Loss, Promotions Project Manager, GVSU Student Erin Martin talks about the programs and how she is using her...

Charter School Focus

WGVU Wed August 5, 2020

We begin a new segment, Charter School Focus, guests from the community talking all things charter on behalf of the GVSU Charter Schools. Today School

Tuned into the Library of Michigan

WGVU Wed August 5, 2020

Tuned into the Library of Michigan, guests from the State Library sharing their happenings. Today, Liz Breed, Michigan eLibrary Coordinator, talks all

Lakeshore Innovator of the Year Award

WGVU Wed August 5, 2020

The inventor of a smart brick temp sensor that works in the City of Holland wins the second annual Lakeshore Innovator of the Year Award on behalf of...

TechTown

WGVU Wed August 5, 2020

We talk about TechTown, empowering Detroit Based Startups and local businesses to start, stabilize and scale by providing resources, workspace and

Fruitport Township Supervisor race goes to challenger Todd Dunha

WGVU Tue August 4, 2020

Fruitport Township voters Tuesday cast their ballots in favor of new leadership. Even though Tuesday technically was a primary, current Fruitport...

Republican Posthumus wins close Michigan House primary race in 7

WGVU Tue August 4, 2020

Three Republicans battled in Michigan's 73rd House district primary. A tight race between Robert Regan, John Inhulsen and winner Bryan Posthumus He's...

Democrat Lily Cheng-Schulting wins primary in 72nd District

WGVU Tue August 4, 2020

In Michigan's 72nd District, two Democrats faced off in Tuesday's primary for a chance to be on the November ballot, and voters gave the nod to Lily...

90th District backs incumbent Bradley Slagh for another term

WGVU Tue August 4, 2020

Two Republicans battled for a spot on the November ballot to represent Ottawa County's 90th District in the Michigan House of Representatives. Current

Meijer runaway choice in Michigan's 3rd Congressional District Rep

WGVU Tue August 4, 2020

In what many considered the most anticipated West Michigan primary race, Republican Peter Meijer ran away with the victory in the five-candidate...

Mark Huizenga cruises to victory in 74th District

WGVU Tue August 4, 2020

In Michigan's 74 th District, incumbent and State Representative Mark Huizenga defeated challenger Brock Story, a 22-year-old warehouse worker, for...

A Leelanau County Road Commissioner blames Black people for vir

WGVU Fri August 7, 2020

A northern Michigan county official was heard using a racial slur prior to a public meeting to describe African Americans in Detroit whom he blamed for

Mobile Adoption Trailer

WGVU Fri August 7, 2020

We discuss adopting Piper plus the launch of a Mobile Adoption Trailer and become a Foster for Animals in Need. Megan Ellinger with the conversation.

Little Space Studio

WGVU Fri August 7, 2020

Little Space Studio is reopening, Founder/CEO Alysha Lach White discusses a reconfigured space, plus dedication to the community.

Northwestern Medicine

WGVU Fri August 7, 2020

The Coronavirus is a multiorgan disease, many doctors seeing neurological symptoms. We talk to Dr. Babak Jahromi, Neurosurgeon at Northwestern...

Operation Warp Speed selects Grand Rapids company to manufact WGUV Fri August 7, 2020

A Grand Rapids company has received a contract from the federal government to manufacture an approved COVID-19 vaccine. The U.S. Department of Health...

Advocates: Shield poor students from pandemic budget cut WGUV Wed July 29, 2020

An education advocacy group says Michigan should shield low-income students from the brunt of a potential K-12 funding cut in the coming school year

Whitmer opposes making schools offer in-person classes WGUV Wed July 29, 2020

Gov. Gretchen Whitmer is unreceptive to Republican-passed legislation that would require public schools to offer in-person instruction to students in

MI Secretary of State: Take ballot to clerk or drop box so it's counte WGUV Wed July 29, 2020

Michigan's top election official is urging people with an absentee ballot to return it to their local clerk's office or drop box instead of using the...

Whitmer calls on Congress for more COVID aid WGUV Tue July 28, 2020

Governor Gretchen Whitmer says she's aware parents, students, and teachers are anxious for details on back-to-school plans. She says there's still...

State Supreme Court throws out jury tampering conviction WGUV Tue July 28, 2020

Who is a juror? The Michigan Supreme Court says it's not someone who is simply told to report for jury duty. The court on Tuesday overturned the jury

Advocates: Shield poor students from pandemic budget cut WGUV Tue July 28, 2020

An education advocacy group says Michigan should shield low-income students from the brunt of a potential K-12 funding cut in the coming school year

Authorities to exhume body, collect DNA in cold case slaying WGUV Tue July 28, 2020

Authorities in western Michigan plan to exhume the remains of a woman slain more than 50 years ago to collect DNA in an effort to identify her and...

GRPD officer will keep his job, despite ammunition 'mistake' WGUV Tue July 28, 2020

A Grand Rapids Police officer will keep his job after firing a flash bang at a protester following the death of George Floyd. The incident came...

Michigan residents can participate in COVID-19 vaccine study WGUV Tue July 28, 2020

A hospital system in southeastern Michigan is looking for up to 5,000 volunteers for a COVID-19 vaccine study. Henry Ford Health System is working...

Drivers hold onto cars in pandemic; average age hits record WGUV Tue July 28, 2020

The coronavirus pandemic is causing drivers to keep their cars and trucks longer. The average age of a vehicle on U.S. roads edged up by a month this...

Comet NEOWISE Lights Up Michigan's Sky

WGVU Wed July 15, 2020

There's a new comet in the sky. The spectacle can be seen after sunset under the "Big Dipper." Richard Bell is the president of the Kalamazoo...

Man killed by police after mask dispute at Michigan store

WGVU Wed July 15, 2020

One man is dead and another is hospitalized after an argument over wearing a face mask at a mid-Michigan convenience store. Tuesday morning, a man...

President Gerald R. Ford's birthday is commemorated via virtual cer

WGVU Wed July 15, 2020

Tuesday morning, the family of the late President Gerald R. Ford gathered for the annual wreath laying ceremony at the Gerald R. Ford and Betty B....

Whitmer extends coronavirus emergency through Aug. 11

WGVU Tue July 14, 2020

Gov. Gretchen Whitmer on Tuesday extended Michigan's coronavirus emergency declaration through Aug. 11, citing an uptick in new cases over the past...

Panel: State workers must reauthorize union dues deduction

WGVU Tue July 14, 2020

Michigan's 33,800 unionized state employees will have to reauthorize the deduction of dues from their paycheck every year or the contributions will...

Detroit billionaire Manuel 'Matty' Moroun dies at 93

WGVU Tue July 14, 2020

Manuel "Matty" Moroun, a billionaire businessman who owned a critical bridge that connects Michigan to Canada, has died in his suburban Detroit home...

Ford Airport Announces New Campaign: Fly Safe. Fly Ford.

WGVU Tue July 14, 2020

As the Michigan economy continues to navigate through COVID-19, the Gerald R. Ford International Airport is introducing its new "Fly Safe. Fly Ford"

Abandoned But Not Forgotten

WGVU Tue July 14, 2020

We discuss Human Trafficking with Author Dana Priyanka Hammond, just releasing her book Abandoned But Not Forgotten: One Woman's True Story of Being

25 Myths about Bullying and Cyberbullying

WGVU Tue July 14, 2020

What are the latest Myths about Bullying? We talk to Elizabeth Englander about the topic and her latest, 25 Myths about Bullying and Cyberbullying.

Are We Here to ReCreate Ourselves

WGVU Tue July 14, 2020

Dr. Geoffrey Simmons presents his research on the future humanoid, the book Are We Here to ReCreate Ourselves, up for discussion.

Martha Graham's Cold War

WGVU Tue July 14, 2020

Author Victoria Phillips writes the book Martha Graham's Cold War, The Dance of American Diplomacy. We discuss this dance modernism.

Naturally Speaking

WGVU Tue July 14, 2020

Naturally Speaking, today discussion of the DNR Accessibility team and accessible recreation opportunities with Kristin Wildman and Ryan Soulard.

Wellness At Work

WGVU Tue July 14, 2020

Wellness at Work, today Certified Personal Trainer, McCahill Group, Lacie Lind discusses the importance of summer hydration needs.

Arbor Circle

WGVU Tue July 14, 2020

Arbor Circle celebrates graduates of the Re-Link Program amid the epidemic. We talk to Peer Navigator Shawn Rosser about this program, aimed to...

Attorney for family of 16 year old who died after being restrained c

WGVU Tue July 14, 2020

The attorney for the family of Cornelius Fredericks released video Tuesday showing the restraint that led to his death. Three people are facing...

Local First

WGVU Tue July 14, 2020

Local First's Alice Jasper returns to TMS to discuss the next upcoming webinar, Empowering Your Team in a People First Economy.

Lansing City Council hears more than two hours of public comment

WGVU Tue July 14, 2020

Councilmember Brandon Betz is joined by councilmember Kathie Dunbar in calling for diverting money cut from the police budget to social programs. They

Paw Paw school district officials formally decided on a new nicknam

WGVU Tue July 14, 2020

Pressure has been growing on schools to stop using the name "Redskins" because it's considered a racial slur. Three years ago the board voted to keep...

United Way of the Lakeshore

WGVU Tue July 14, 2020

United Way of the Lakeshore receives a large grant from the DTE Foundation to support Youth Employment and Training Opportunities in Muskegon and West

GR Urban farm to be evicted by 4th Reformed Church

WGVU Tue July 14, 2020

Fourth Reformed Church in Grand Rapids partnered with New City Neighbors back in 2007. Together building meaningful community and urban renewal...

Virtue Cider

WGVU Tue July 14, 2020

Virtue Cider in Fennville gives back with a new cider, benefiting World Central Kitchen. We talk about the details with founder Greg Hall.

Hot summer warming up Lake Michigan, experts say

WGVU Mon July 13, 2020

Lake Michigan is having a warm summer. The average surface water temperature was 75.3 degrees on July 9, setting a record for the month based on 26...

Voting changes, COVID-19 change Michigan election for clerks WGUV Mon July 13, 2020

Michigan county and municipal clerks are finding it challenging to meet the needs of voters amid the coronavirus pandemic and following changes in...

Alice Lyn talks to Mary Ann Thomas about safe, outdoor recreation WGUV Mon July 13, 2020

Alice Lyn, host of WGUV's Color Out Here, a TV show that reframes outdoor narratives for people of color. On this podcast she talks to outdoor...

Christine Mwangi gets home health tips from Dave Jimenez from Ti WGUV Mon July 13, 2020

Christine Mwangi, host of WGUV's The Black Honest Truth, a podcast exploring the distinct experiences that African immigrants and African Americans...

George Walker III talks to Chef Vince from Irie Kitchen about a simp WGUV Mon July 13, 2020

George Walker, host of WGUV's Cultural Ingredients, a TV show that explores stories of migration, culture and agricultural history one person, one...

Rishi Singh Talks To Fred Stella about resources the West Michigan WGUV Mon July 13, 2020

Rishi Singh, hosts WGUV's Meeting God , a TV show that uses immersive experiences of faith to explore belief and commonality in the human experience...

1 death, 390 new coronavirus cases reported in Michigan WGUV Mon July 13, 2020

Michigan reported hundreds of new coronavirus cases Sunday, but the number was down from a day earlier. The state health department also reported one...

Many Michigan residents still vote in-person for primary WGUV Tue August 4, 2020

More than a million Michigan voters have cast absentee ballots in the state's primary election. But there were still those who chose to vote in-...

Judge sentences ex-MSU coach to jail in Nassar-related case WGUV Tue August 4, 2020

A former Michigan State University head gymnastics coach has been sentenced to 90 days in jail for lying to police during an investigation into ex-...

Ford CEO Hackett to retire, COO Jim Farley to lead automaker WGUV Tue August 4, 2020

Ford Chief Operating Officer Jim Farley will lead the storied automaker into the future starting Oct. 1 when current CEO Jim Hackett retires. The...

New BBB Study: Shows Dangers of Government Impostors WGUV Tue August 4, 2020

One of the most common scams in the United States and Canada involved callers pretending to be government officials. A new investigative study by the

Better Made WGUV Tue August 4, 2020

Better Made turns 90, blossoming into one of Michigan's best known iconic brand names, today speaking with Mark Costello, VP Sales and Marketing,...

The Life of the Party

WGVU Tue August 4, 2020

The author of The Life of the Party, Tea Hacic-Vlahovic writes her memoir, a bit of levity in reading for these times.

Kent County Clerk expecting surge in absentee voting potentially de

WGVU Tue August 4, 2020

Absentee voting has been growing in popularity. Factor in Michigan voters enacting No-Reason Absentee Voting in November of 2018 and a pandemic in...

Lunafest

WGVU Tue August 4, 2020

Girls on the Run of Kent and Muskegon County offers the annual Lunafest virtually, come the 20th of August, watching specially curated films tackling

Michigan orders tests on ag, migrant workers after outbreaks

WGVU Tue August 4, 2020

Michigan on Monday ordered coronavirus testing of agricultural and migrant workers, citing nearly a dozen outbreaks at farms and food-processing...

Election Day: Here are the races to keep an eye on in Michigan

WGVU Tue August 4, 2020

Even though it's a primary, a number of races Tuesday could have a huge impact on the November general election. Top races to watch: Democratic Rep.

Michigan adapts to absentee ballot influx before primary

WGVU Tue August 4, 2020

Michigan is navigating uncharted waters as more absentee ballots have been cast before Tuesday's primary than in any other election in state history...

Commercial Real Estate Insider

WGVU Tue August 4, 2020

Commercial Real Estate Insider, today's guest Stu Kingma, Industrial Specialist with NAI Wisinski of West Michigan, working closely with many...

State application period for COVID workplace safety grants ends thi

WGVU Tue August 4, 2020

Michigan officials are reminding businesses that the period to apply for eight and a half million dollars in workplace safety grants ends this week....

Vallery Lomas

WGVU Tue August 4, 2020

Ready to eat fish? Winner of the Great American Baking Show Vallery Lomas shares simple recipes and tips for easy weekday meals, focusing upon...

Disentangled

WGVU Tue August 4, 2020

The author of Disentangled: When You've Lost Your Self in Someone, Else Nancy Johnson talks about this guide to healing from entanglement, offering a...

Resturant Week

WGVU Tue August 4, 2020

kicks off this Wednesday, Experience Grand Rapids kicking off this 11th annual week, with over 50 restaurants participating. We talk to Kate Lieto,

COVID POV

WGVU Tue August 4, 2020

The film to be released is COVID POV, a documentary sharing real stories of pandemic changes from home life to the front lines. We talk to Film Maker...

Living with Hemophilia

WGVU Tue August 4, 2020

We share a family story from Kalamazoo. Marci joining in to talk about her son Judah's living with Hemophilia, experiencing incredible progress,...

Legislature cancels session after lawmaker tests COVID positive

WGVU Mon August 3, 2020

The Legislature will not return to the state Capitol in Lansing this week because one member has tested positive for COVID-19. Republican state...

Cedar Springs Public Schools seeking $68 million, as bond vote set f

WGVU Mon August 3, 2020

Voters Tuesday in Cedar Springs will decide on a bond proposal that, if passed, will generate millions of dollars and help renovate the public school

Kent County COVID Relief subcommittee approves $2 million in PPE

WGVU Mon August 3, 2020

The Kent County Board of Commissioners is taking steps to provide COVID-19 funding to county schools for the purchase of Personal Protective...

Michigan Legislature cancels session after senator's test

WGVU Mon August 3, 2020

The Michigan Legislature on Monday canceled this week's session and hearings after a Lansing-area state senator tested positive for the coronavirus...

008: Laretta Murphy

WGVU Mon August 3, 2020

Today's powerful woman is Laretta Murphy. An attorney for Miller Johnson, Laretta advocates for the elderly. She is an expert in the field of Elder...

Grand Rapids Symphony

WGVU Mon August 3, 2020

The Grand Rapids Symphony returns to live, outdoor performances this month, Aaron Doty talks today about these exclusive 30 minute concerts of...

Real Teams of Triathlon

WGVU Mon August 3, 2020

The Agars are at it again, yesterday participating in Endurance Zone TV's The Real Teams of Triathlon. We talk to Local Triathletes Jeff and Johnny...

Traverse City Tourism

WGVU Mon August 3, 2020

Road Trip to TC. Traverse City Tourism's Jillian Manning talks about a TC formal visit plus what's nearby, including Benzie County. Covid Safety...

CCPS Connections

WGVU Mon August 3, 2020

CCPS Connections, talking today to alumni and their discussions of how GVSU's CCPS education helps them impact their communities. Today, Anne London...

Catholics in Upper Peninsula required to wear masks at Mass WGUV Mon August 3, 2020

Face masks are mandatory for people who attend indoor Mass in the Upper Peninsula, starting Saturday, the region's Roman Catholic bishop said. "...

Webinar scheduled on permit process for oil pipeline tunnel WGUV Mon August 3, 2020

A webinar is scheduled to help keep the public informed about the application permitting process for Enbridge Energy's Line 5 tunnel project. The...

Whitmer signs bills to resolve $2.2 billion budget shortfall WGUV Mon August 3, 2020

Gov. Gretchen Whitmer on Friday signed spending bills as part of an agreement to resolve a $2.2 billion deficit in the current budget by using federal

Little Vegan Dessert Cookbook WGUV Mon August 3, 2020

Ready to eat Vegan? Culinary Writer Laura Crotty writes The Little Vegan Dessert Cookbook with multiple choices for Dessert eating! We talk to Laura.

10 people sickened by carbon monoxide on Lake Michigan boat WGUV Mon August 3, 2020

Ten people aboard a boat on Lake Michigan were sickened after exposure to carbon monoxide, authorities in Michigan said Saturday. Authorities...

Critics say Tlaib is too focused on Trump as she seeks another term WGUV Mon August 3, 2020

One of the so-called "Squad" of four...first-term women of color in Congress faces a crucial primary election Tuesday. Challengers accuse Michigan...

Last Mission to Tokyo WGUV Mon August 3, 2020

The author of the Last Mission to Tokyo, Author Michel Paradis, talks about his latest release timed with the 75th Anniversary of VJ Day. We talk...

Could be a long election night Tuesday as absentee ballots need to WGUV Mon August 3, 2020

Elections officials are warning people should not expect early results from tomorrow's primary elections, where voters will choose nominees for...

The latest numbers: Michigan reports no new COVID-19 deaths, ho WGUV Mon August 3, 2020

The number of confirmed cases of the coronavirus in Michigan has risen to nearly 83 thousand as of Sunday, including over 6000 deaths, state officials

Andrew Whitehead WGUV Mon August 3, 2020

Our guest is Clemson Sociology professor Andrew Whitehead. Andrew was interviewed by Paul Rosenberg for Salon.com, a piece titled, How Christian

Kids Day at the Zoo Part 1 WGUV Mon August 3, 2020

Don't miss WGUV Kids Day at the Zoo. This Thursday is all about the community relationship that invites the public to explore the zoo and more. WGUV's

Kids Day at the Zoo Part 2

WGVU Mon August 3, 2020

We follow up with more Zoo talk, John Ball Zoo's Mike Lomonaco gives an update on what the public will experience on Kids Day and how we will stay...

Gov vetoes nursing home bill; says based on 'false premise'

WGVU Fri July 31, 2020

Gov. Gretchen Whitmer has vetoed Republican-sponsored legislation that would have let nursing homes house coronavirus-infected residents - but only...

Father drowns trying to save 2 children in Lake Michigan

WGVU Fri July 31, 2020

A 44-year-old Indiana man has drowned in Lake Michigan while trying to save his two children, authorities said. Four people were seen struggling in...

Cannabis grow facility to bring 100 new jobs to Grand Rapids

WGVU Fri July 31, 2020

Grand Rapids Mayor Rosalyn Bliss and other city officials cut the ribbon this week on a new marijuana growing facility in downtown Grand Rapids that

Former player: Schembechler knew of abuse at U of Michigan

WGVU Fri July 31, 2020

Dozens of more victims who said they were molested by a University of Michigan doctor have filed a lawsuit against the school. They include a former

Mutually Inclusive: Culture Creative

WGVU Fri July 31, 2020

Weekly we focus on the work of area individuals and organizations advancing inclusion and equity in our community. This morning we speak with Julian...

Detroit police shoot and kill third person this month

WGVU Fri July 31, 2020

There was another officer involved shooting on Detroit's west side last night Police Chief James Craig says officers were out on a different call...

Muskegon Public Schools to begin fall semester online

WGVU Fri July 31, 2020

Muskegon Public Schools is yet another school district that has opted to start the new school year in the fall online. One day after Grand Rapids...

GP Reeves

WGVU Fri July 31, 2020

Holland based company GP Reeves launches a line of hand sanitizer dispensers in collaboration with other Michigan businesses to ensure schools and

Making God Part of Your Family

WGVU Fri July 31, 2020

We talk to Religion Expert/Author Michael Grady on the latest in his series, Making God Part of Your Family.

Despite virus threat, Black voters wary of voting by mail

WGVU Fri July 31, 2020

Despite fears that the coronavirus pandemic will worsen, Victor Gibson said he's not planning to take advantage of Michigan's expanded vote-by-mail...

The Well Gardened Mind

WGVU Fri July 31, 2020

Spend time in your Garden. We talk to the author of The Well Gardened Mind, The Restorative Power of Nature.

Personal Trainer Sarah Pelc Graca

WGVU Fri July 31, 2020

Online Coach and Personal Trainer Sarah Pelc Graca wants everyone to still eat chocolate and drink wine this summer, yet do prioritize your health and

Girls Rock Camp

WGVU Fri July 31, 2020

It's the first digital Girls Rock Camp offered by Grandville Avenue Arts and Humanities, speaking today with Sue Garza about this opportunity for...

Early Learning Neighborhood Collaborative

WGVU Fri July 31, 2020

The Early Learning Neighborhood Collaborative presents a virtual evening, the 3rd annual Icons Fundraiser. We talk details for this August 3-12...

Kent Co. school officials share plans for the fall amid the pandemic

WGVU Fri July 31, 2020

Currently the state of Michigan is in phase four of Governor Gretchen Whitmer's economic reopening plan and as long as the West Michigan region...

Unacceptable

WGVU Fri July 31, 2020

Wall Street Reporter Jennifer Levitz led much of the reporting of the saga of Operation Varsity Blues, the College Admission scandal, her latest book

The Barre Code

WGVU Fri July 31, 2020

The Barre Code Grand Rapids hosts an outdoor socially distanced donation fitness class on The Blue Bridge August 10, featuring quite a unique format...

Kids' Food Basket

WGVU Fri July 31, 2020

Kids' Food Basket stays committed to providing healthy meals to the community no matter what school looks like this fall. We do a catch up with ED...

Michigan's chief justice apologizes for lawyer exam hiccups

WGVU Thu July 30, 2020

Michigan's chief justice suggested a state exam might not be the best way to license lawyers in the state. Bridget McCormack apologized for snafus...

Former player: Schembechler knew of abuse at U of Michigan

WGVU Thu July 30, 2020

Dozens of more victims who claim they were molested by a University of Michigan doctor filed a lawsuit against the school Thursday, including a former

George Walker III talks to local chefs about Vietnamese cooking

WGVU Thu July 30, 2020

In this segment, George Walker III talks to Ben Wiley and Quynh (Quin) Lai, of Stock & Candor about Vietnamese cooking and a recipe for Korean...

Christine Mwangi talks with physical therapist about staying active WGUV Thu July 30, 2020

Christine Mwangi, host of WGUV's The Black Honest Truth, a podcast exploring the distinct experiences that African immigrants and African Americans...

Rishi Singh Talks To Rabbi Michael Schadick from Temple Emmanue WGUV Thu July 30, 2020

Rishi Singh, hosts WGUV's Meeting God, a TV show that uses immersive experiences of faith to explore belief and commonality in the human experience....

Trillium Institute WGUV Thu July 30, 2020

Grand Rapids based Trillium Institute is one of the nation's first organizations dedicated to helping medical professionals and families of people...

GRAM WGUV Thu July 30, 2020

The GRAM has a plan. We talk about the safe reopening this weekend with Lizzie Payne.

The Kids Are Gonna Ask WGUV Thu July 30, 2020

Author Gretchen Anthony shares her research in the book The Kids Are Gonna Ask, a novel about a viral podcast and the hunt for a missing father.

Community Mental Health Association WGUV Thu July 30, 2020

Community Mental Health Association CEO Robert Sheehan talks about the mobile crisis response teams across Michigan, how they often work with police

The National Cherry Festival WGUV Thu July 30, 2020

The National Cherry Festival goes on in many virtual ways. We discuss the first leg of the Harvest Run, a Cherry Festival Foundation fundraiser to...

From Williard Straight to Wall Street WGUV Thu July 30, 2020

From Williard Straight to Wall Street: A Memoir, written by Thomas W. Jones, sharing his very important life journey.

Michigan League for Public Policy calls on Congress for a more com WGUV Thu July 30, 2020

Not only are 22% of Michigan residents behind on rent, but from April to June, Michigan had the third highest average unemployment rate in the...

State health officials remove Grand Rapids region from COVID-19 h WGUV Thu July 30, 2020

This week, the state moved the Grand Rapids region from a COVID-19 Medium-High risk to Medium risk after the past two weeks indicated new cases...

Army Reserve WGUV Thu July 30, 2020

The Army Reserve continues to send soldiers to work on the front lines of the ongoing battle against the pandemic, we talk to Major General Michael...

DeVos Place

WGVU Thu July 30, 2020

DeVos Place is giving away a wedding reception and a mini-moon to one lucky couple, those affected by COVID 19 the target audience. We discuss with...

Governor tightens virus rules up north; Detroit casinos to reopen

WGVU Thu July 30, 2020

Gov. Gretchen Whitmer on Wednesday tightened pandemic restrictions in northern Michigan while letting Detroit's three casinos reopen at limited...

MHSAA waits to clear football, soccer, volleyball games

WGVU Thu July 30, 2020

The Michigan High School Athletic Association said Wednesday that competition can begin Aug. 19 and 21 for lower-risk sports like golf, tennis and...

For the Love of Europe

WGVU Thu July 30, 2020

As seen and Heard on WGVU TV and FM, travel expert Rick Steves returns to TMS, talking about travel during these tough times and discussing his...

Excellence Has No Borders

WGVU Thu July 30, 2020

He's called a Doctorpreneur, writing the book Excellence Has No Borders: How a Doctorpreneur Created A World Class Hospital Chain.

Prosecutor: Agents in Detroit to fight crime not protesters

WGVU Wed July 29, 2020

The government says dozens of federal agents and deputy marshals have been specially assigned to combat gun violence and catch fugitives in Detroit.

Court: Flint class-action can proceed over lead in water

WGVU Wed July 29, 2020

Flint residents whose health and homes were harmed by lead-contaminated water have scored a legal milestone. The Michigan Supreme Court said...

Officials: 5 virus cases tied to Michigan wedding reception

WGVU Wed July 29, 2020

Officials say an indoor wedding reception in southeastern Michigan that had more than 100 people in attendance has been linked to five confirmed...

Large numbers of mail-in ballots could slow vote counting

WGVU Wed July 29, 2020

Michigan's secretary of state says a sharp increase in the number of people voting by mail because of the pandemic could slow vote counting in the...

Plant closings send GM to 2Q loss, but signs of improvement

WGVU Wed July 29, 2020

Even though General Motors was able to reopen its U.S. factories for the last half of the second quarter, the company still lost $806 million from...

Boy, 15, charged in fatal shooting of 10-year-old relative

WGVU Wed July 29, 2020

A 15-year-old Detroit boy has been charged as an adult with second-degree murder in the fatal shooting of a 10-year-old relative in an apartment that

Senator Winnie Brinks introduces bill to expand Medicaid coverage WGUV Tue July 28, 2020

Typically pregnancy related Medicaid in Michigan only last for two months after birth, but Senator Winnie Brinks wants to ensure after those two...

House of Night Series WGUV Tue July 28, 2020

The authors of Found join in, this Mother/Daughter team discussing the last in the House of Night Series, topic Vampires. We talk to PC and Kristin...

Drive Up Job Fair WGUV Tue July 28, 2020

Don't miss a Drive Up Job Fair in August, a partnership between Family Network of Wyoming and Express Employment Professional of Grand Rapids. We...

Live from Home series WGUV Tue July 28, 2020

Musician Anisa Kausal-Hayes returns to TMS to talk about her online Live from Home series, Anisa Hayes Live from Home #3 tomorrow night.

Darryl DeVries WGUV Tue July 28, 2020

Kentwood Firefighter and EMT Darryl DeVries joins TMS talks about a program he's part of with the city that encourages city employees to become...

GRPS Fall Plans WGUV Tue July 28, 2020

GRPS has announced its school plan. Director of Communication John Helmholdt discusses yesterday's announcement, including the Return to Learn Plan...

Project Yellow Light WGUV Tue July 28, 2020

Note to the youth, When you travel, travel without distraction. We talk to the Founder of Project Yellow Light Julie Garner, offering a scholarship...

Grant Me Hope WGUV Tue July 28, 2020

We discuss the organization Grant Me Hope with President Helen Zeerip and how GMH continues to respond to the pandemic and meet their mission.

Matt Moersch Hospitality Group WGUV Tue July 28, 2020

Hike and drink Wine. Sister Wineries Round Barn and Tabor Hill in SW Michigan offer the active opportunity. We talk to Matt Moersch Hospitality Group.

Purpose, Passion and Pajamas WGUV Tue July 28, 2020

Genevieve Piturro, founder of the nonprofit Pajama Program and author of the new book Purpose, Passion and Pajamas joins TMS to talk about how to...

Hands Up, Don't Shoot WGUV Tue July 28, 2020

Hands Up, Don't Shoot, written by Dr. Jennifer Cobbina, discusses why the protests in Ferguson and Baltimore Matter, and how they changed America. We...

Purpose Training Studio

WGVU Tue July 28, 2020

Get fit with Patrick Purpose. This Saturday, the Purpose Training Studio offers a free Bootcamp at Ah Nab Awen Park. We talk to about this safe, 60...

TCF Bank

WGVU Tue July 28, 2020

TCF Bank announces a $1 billion loan program focused upon minority communities and minority and women owned businesses, following social equity...

Gray Matters

WGVU Tue July 28, 2020

The author of Gray Matters joins TMS, Dr. Ellyn Lem sharing her stories of Finding Meaning in the Stories of Later Life.

Grand Rapids African American Health Institute

WGVU Tue July 28, 2020

We catch up with those involved with the Grand Rapids African American Health Institute, a search for a new ED to lead this national organization to...

Ottawa County Behavioral Risk Factor Survey

WGVU Tue July 28, 2020

The Ottawa County Behavioral Risk Factor Survey is happening now. Deputy Health Officer Marcia Mansaray has been leading the initiative and talks...

Pure Michigan

WGVU Tue July 28, 2020

Go ahead and travel Michigan, says Pure Michigan's Dave Lorenz, joining TMS to talk about day trips in the Wolverine State, encouraging safe travel....

Styling it Your Way

WGVU Tue July 28, 2020

Styling it Your Way, today's topic, Showing Up for Yourself with Fashion Expert Michelle Krick.

Michigan drivers refunded $95M in premiums due to virus

WGVU Tue July 28, 2020

Michigan motorists are being refunded nearly $95 million in car insurance premiums due to a drop in driving and crash claims during the coronavirus

Court: Schuette, aides violated FOIA by using private e-mails

WGVU Mon July 27, 2020

The Michigan Supreme Court says a progressive group is allowed to seek e-mails sent from private accounts of aides to then-Attorney General Bill...

Oakland County will pay for postage on absentee ballots

WGVU Mon July 27, 2020

Oakland County, Michigan's second-largest county and a political bellwether, says it will use up to $575,000 in federal coronavirus relief aid to...

GRPS recommends first 9 weeks of school be virtual learning

WGVU Mon July 27, 2020

Grand Rapids Public Schools superintendent Leadriane Roby Monday announced she is recommending that students continue distance learning once the new...

Michigan wolf population at nearly 700 but leveling off

WGVU Mon July 27, 2020

Wildlife officials say Michigan's gray wolf population appears to have stabilized, three decades after beginning a remarkable comeback in the Upper

OrVance

WGVU Mon July 27, 2020

Grand Rapids Based oral care product developer OrVance has developed a first product specifically designed to allow dental patients to fill the space...

Michigan inmates, advocates raise concerns over high temps

WGVU Mon July 27, 2020

Inmates at Michigan's state prisons and those who advocate for their rights are raising concerns regarding the heat behind bars because most of the...

West Michigan Sustainable Business Forum

WGVU Mon July 27, 2020

We talk to those involved in celebrating a winner, The West Michigan Sustainable Business Forum selecting a 2020 President's Award Winner. We talk to

Leading By Design

WGVU Mon July 27, 2020

Engineer, author and leadership sage Rodger Price opened a new office in GR in response to the Pandemic, today on TMS sharing his accomplishments and

26 deaths in 3 US convents, as nuns confront the pandemic

WGVU Mon July 27, 2020

At a convent near Detroit, 13 nuns have died of COVID-19. The toll is seven at a center for Maryknoll sisters in New York, and six at a Wisconsin...

New Rules of Divorce

WGVU Mon July 27, 2020

NYC Divorce Attorney Jacqueline Newman joins TMS to discuss the New Rules of Divorce, sharing her 12 Secrets to Protecting your Wealth, Health and

Some Michigan schools get federal cash for propane buses

WGVU Mon July 27, 2020

School districts in western Michigan will be replacing old diesel buses with cleaner vehicles. Three districts and a private school have been awarded...

On the Loving End of Crazy

WGVU Mon July 27, 2020

The author of On the Loving End of Crazy: Finding Hope and Help to Face Your Loved One's Crippling Anxiety and Depression is written by Faith...

Murdick's Fudge

WGVU Mon July 27, 2020

A Michigan treasure turns 133. Mackinac Island's Original Murdick's Fudge offers a sweet deal, and the secret to success, according to Bobby Benser,

Bluebird Cancer Retreats

WGVU Mon July 27, 2020

A GVSU Student group is working with Bluebird Cancer Retreats to promote their Stronger Together Virtual Retreat. Morgan Lemmen talks about the...

Laser Technology for Kidney Stones WGUV Mon July 27, 2020

MetroHealth-University of Michigan is the First West Michigan System with Laser Technology for Kidney Stones. We talk to Dr. Thompson about the...

David Gibson (Part II) WGUV Mon July 27, 2020

David Gibson joins Common Threads to continue his conversation with Fred Stella on his essay in Religion & Politics titled, The Coming "Religion

Dog park with drinks for owners in works near Grand Rapids WGUV Mon July 27, 2020

A cold one while Max chases his buddies? An indoor dog park is in the works near Grand Rapids. While pets get exercise, their owners might be able to...

Medical clinic to serve homeless people in Grand Rapids area WGUV Mon July 27, 2020

Six organizations in the Grand Rapids area are teaming up to provide free medical services for homeless people. They'll operate a clinic at the...

4 people injured in eastern Michigan restaurant shooting WGUV Mon July 27, 2020

Police say four people have been injured in an early morning shooting at a Flint Township restaurant. Police officers responded around 4 a.m. Sunday...

Police: 2 brothers electrocuted when sailboat hit power line WGUV Mon July 27, 2020

Police in southwestern Michigan say two brothers were electrocuted when the mast of the sailboat they were moving hit a power line. Cass County...

Michigan reports no new COVID-19 deaths but adds 1,041 cases WGUV Mon July 27, 2020

Michigan reported no new deaths from COVID-19 on Sunday, but added 1,041 new confirmed cases, health officials said. The Michigan Department of...

MSU football suspends workouts due to virus infections WGUV Fri July 24, 2020

The Michigan State University football team suspended workouts Friday, and its players will quarantine for 14 days after a second staff member and a...

in 3 US convents, as nuns confront the pandemic WGUV Fri July 24, 2020

At a convent near Detroit, 13 nuns have died of COVID-19. The toll is seven at a center for Maryknoll sisters in New York, and six at a Wisconsin...

007: Floriza Genautis WGUV Fri July 24, 2020

Floriza Genautis is a scuba diver, she's scaled the Great Wall of China, and admits to a fear of needles. Floriza is the Principal and Founder of

Mutually Inclusive: Shaping Narratives WGUV Fri July 24, 2020

Weekly we focus on the work of area individuals and organizations advancing inclusion and equity in our community. This morning we speak with WGUV...

The Mountain and the Goat

WGVU Fri July 24, 2020

Author Siamak Taghaddos writes the book The Mountain and the Goat for kids, a fable to plant the seed of resourcefulness and take action mentality in...

The Mountain and the Goat

WGVU Fri July 24, 2020

Author Siamak Taghaddos writes the book The Mountain and the Goat for kids, a fable to plant the seed of resourcefulness and take action mentality in...

Opioid Use Disorder

WGVU Fri July 24, 2020

We talk about the escalation of opioid use during Covid 19, Dr. Adam Rubinstein and Ashlynn, a Mom in recovery, discuss Opioid Use Disorder (OUD) and...

Entrepreneur Insider

WGVU Fri July 24, 2020

Entrepreneur Insider, guests from GROW joining in, today, Business Development Officer Marvin Martin and United Freedom Painting's Sana Matias discuss

Hyundai Hope on Wheels

WGVU Fri July 24, 2020

Pediatric Cancer National Youth Ambassador Jordyn Hernandez and Hyundai Hope on Wheels's Zafar Brooks discuss a campaign to raise funds and awareness...

Holland Bowl Mill

WGVU Fri July 24, 2020

The Holland Bowl Mill is available for tours, upon appointment. We talk to Kory Gier about business, bowls getting cut from logs, with no waste.

Rethinking Success

WGVU Fri July 24, 2020

Author of Rethinking Success: Eight Essential Practices for Finding Meaning in Work and Life J. Douglas Holladay discusses his research.

Grand Rapids Marathon

WGVU Fri July 24, 2020

Another race has gone virtual. We talk to Marathon Don Kern, Race Director for the Grand Rapids Marathon, talking all things change for virtual for...

New legislation would limit gifts from drug companies to healthcare

WGVU Fri July 24, 2020

Michigan lawmakers are trying to stem the flow of expensive gifts that might incentivize a doctor's prescribing patterns. A 2016 ProPublica study...

New PFAS standards to go into effect in August

WGVU Fri July 24, 2020

New standards from how much toxic chemicals will be allowed in Michigan's drinking water will soon go into effect after a regulation committee this...

Dominican Sisters Grand Rapids

WGVU Fri July 24, 2020

The Dominican Sisters Grand Rapids transition its ownership of its Motherhouse to developers to renovate into affordable housing for seniors. We talk...

National Guard experiences testing delays for COVID-19 test results WGUV Fri July 24, 2020

The Michigan National Guard has collected more than 72-thousand COVID-19 test samples at nursing homes, jails, and drive-through sites. But some local

Enbridge contractor vessels may have bumped pipeline support WGUV Fri July 24, 2020

Enbridge says damage that prompted the temporary shutdown of its underwater oil pipelines in a Great Lakes channel may have been done by vessels...

TCF Bank unveils $1 billion loan commitment for small business ow WGUV Fri July 24, 2020

Less than two months after pledging to take action for racial equality and social justice in the communities TCF Bank serves, the company announced on

Detroit would welcome federal help to combat gun crimes WGUV Thu July 23, 2020

Detroit officials say the federal government wants to help the city fight violent crime, not patrol streets in search of protesters. Mayor Mike...

Wrongly convicted lose key case in bid for more money WGUV Thu July 23, 2020

People who are compensated by the state for being wrongly convicted aren't entitled to collect cash for time spent in jail before trial. That's the

Executive Recruitment City Tours WGUV Thu July 23, 2020

A new business has opened locally, Executive Recruitment City Tours, a niche for Executive Search Firms, Realtors, HR departments and more. We talk...

School Talk WGUV Thu July 23, 2020

School Talk, today talking with Kelli Brockway, the topic, the current Summer Brain Gain program and School Preparedness and Response Plans.

Don't Let Technology Crack Your Nest Egg WGUV Thu July 23, 2020

Don't let tech crack your egg. That tease for today's conversation with Technology guru Ken Kamen, his book is out, Don't Let Technology Crack Your...

Do the Right Thing WGUV Thu July 23, 2020

Do the Right Thing says Dr. Tom Cooper in his latest work, sharing lives of a dozen leaders who, faced with challenging ethical decisions, made the...

CLEAN: The New Science of Skin WGUV Thu July 23, 2020

The author of CLEAN: The New Science of Skin joins in, James Hamblin talking about the history of hygiene and the era of skin care.

Productivity Expert Laura Vanderkam WGUV Thu July 23, 2020

Are you now working from the Corner Office? Author/Productivity Expert Laura Vanderkam talks about how the most successful people work from home.

Gazelle Sports

WGVU Thu July 23, 2020

Gazelle Sports names it's first ever CEO, Jennifer Brummit joining TMS, sharing her story of rising to the ranks, beginning as a part time shipping...

The Voting Booth

WGVU Thu July 23, 2020

Author Brandy Colbert writes the book The Voting Booth, a perfect introduction to the significance and voting and voter suppression, one of the...

Four Days with Kenny Tedford

WGVU Thu July 23, 2020

Meet Kenny Tedford, one of only two deaf people in the world with a Masters, earned at 55. Author Paul Smith shares his story in the book, Four Days...

Grand Rapids Public Museum

WGVU Thu July 23, 2020

The Grand Rapids Public Museum will host a Smithsonian Outbreak Exhibition August 1, where visitors will learn how pathogens can spread, why some...

Whitmer: Enbridge dodging responsibility for potential spill

WGVU Thu July 23, 2020

Michigan Gov. Gretchen Whitmer says Enbridge is falling short of a clear pledge to pay for any spill from its oil pipeline in a Great Lakes channel.

'Squad' member Tlaib may be vulnerable in tough primary

WGVU Thu July 23, 2020

Democratic congresswoman Rashida Tlaib's approach to governing as an unapologetic fighter has made her a target of the GOP and her own party. Tlaib...

State lawmaker wants to bring Space Force headquarters to Michig

WGVU Thu July 23, 2020

The resolution follows on the heels of the city of Sterling Heights submitting a bid for consideration to be the site of Space Force's command center.

Jail task force pushes bills related to non-violent offenders

WGVU Thu July 23, 2020

Members of a bipartisan jail reform task force are pushing bills to keep many non-violent offenders out of jail. Legislators on the task force says...

Grand Rapids pilots program to use mental health providers alongsi

WGVU Thu July 23, 2020

Over the last few weeks, tensions over the Grand Rapids Police Department budget have escalated between some community organizers and a number of city

Kent ISD Superintendent announces retirement

WGVU Wed July 22, 2020

Kent Intermediate School District Superintendent, Ron Caniff, has announced he's retiring at the end of the year. Caniff was appointed Kent...

Lawmaker panel OKs budget cuts, 'rainy day' cash for $2B gap

WGVU Wed July 22, 2020

A panel of Michigan lawmakers approved proposals Wednesday to dip into state cash reserves and make budget cuts, part of a wider plan to address a $2...

MSU will set aside a dorm for students who have virus

WGVU Wed July 22, 2020

Michigan State University said it will take a residence hall out of regular service and use it for students who test positive for the coronavirus....

Learning to Give

WGVU Wed July 22, 2020

Learning to Give has the vision that all youth learn about their own passion and ways to contribute time, talent and treasure for the common good. We...

Seidman College of Business

WGVU Wed July 22, 2020

Guests from the Seidman College of Business join in, today Sonja Johnson with the Van Andel Trade Center talks all things global business across...

Ottagan Addictions Recovery

WGVU Wed July 22, 2020

We talk all things Ottagan Addictions Recovery, OAR present in Ottawa County for almost 50 years, providing support for those who have the need for

US signs contract with Pfizer for COVID-19 vaccine doses

WGVU Wed July 22, 2020

The Trump administration will pay Pfizer nearly $2 billion for a December delivery of 100 million doses of a COVID-19 vaccine the pharmaceutical...

Right to Life petition is dropped

WGVU Wed July 22, 2020

Right to Life of Michigan said it won't contest the conclusion when the Board of State Canvassers meets Friday. The group's president Barbara Listing...

Leadership In Action

WGVU Wed July 22, 2020

Today's Leadership in Action segment features the topic Activity versus Results, what's the difference? We to Partners in Action, Rhoda Kreuzer.

Friends of Grand Rapids Parks

WGVU Wed July 22, 2020

Friends of GR Parks launches the Green Team youth employment program, talking today with Urban Forest Manager Lauren Davis.

Biden launches wide battleground push with ads, surrogates

WGVU Wed July 22, 2020

Joe Biden's presidential campaign is ramping up its advertising and deploying some of its high-profile surrogates as it tries to solidify a broad

Social Security 101

WGVU Wed July 22, 2020

Social Security 101, Public Admin Vonda VanTil with the conversation about what's new in the business of Social Security.

Teen's body found in Lake Michigan after weekend drowning

WGVU Wed July 22, 2020

Authorities on Tuesday recovered the body of a 14-year-old boy who drowned in Lake Michigan. Jovanny Arroyo of Grand Rapids was last seen Sunday near...

MHSAA rejects Gov. Whitmer's idea, fall sports are a go WGUV Wed July 22, 2020

Despite a request from Michigan Governor Gretchen Whitmer, the Michigan High School Athletic Association will not switch fall and spring sports'...

Raising the Bottom WGUV Wed July 22, 2020

We talk to the author of Raising the Bottom: Making Mindful Choices in a Drinking Culture, author Lisa Boucher sharing her story and others.

Egg Nutrition Center WGUV Wed July 22, 2020

U.S. Dietary Guidelines Advisory Committee Recommends eggs as a first food for Babies and Toddlers. We talk to Dr. Mickey Rubin, ED of the Egg...

A heavy lift: Gyms closed for months hold protest workout WGUV Wed July 22, 2020

Dozens of people broke a sweat on the lawn of the Michigan Capitol. It was a workout intended to highlight the plight of gyms that have been closed...

Sustainable Community Voices WGUV Wed July 22, 2020

Sustainable Community Voices, today's topic, the State of Recycling with Roger Cargil, Sustainable Projects Manager at Schupan Recycling.

Poland 1939 WGUV Tue July 21, 2020

Author Roger Moorhouse talks about Poland, introducing the September campaign as the triggering event of World War II. We discuss his book Poland...

The Right Place WGUV Tue July 21, 2020

The Right Place's Birgit Klohs joins in to talk about new grant funding: the Small Business Restart Program plus a General Truck Parts Expansion.

All About The Farm WGUV Tue July 21, 2020

All About the Farm, speaking today with Jeff Andresen, MSU Professor and State Climatologist for Michigan, talking about the 2020 year of weather and...

By Leaps & Bounds: Parents, You Got This! WGUV Tue July 21, 2020

The first few years of life – between birth and kindergarten – are when a child's brain will grow the fastest. Due to COVID-19 restrictions, parents...

Amplify G.R. Opens New Round Of "Amp The Good" Grants WGUV Tue July 21, 2020

Amplify GR, a local non-profit committed to working with community partners to aid residents in the 49507 zip code, recently announced it will...

Telling Your Story WGUV Tue July 21, 2020

Telling Your Story, Emmanuel Hospice bringing stories from the community about the challenges and joys of life, today talking to Gary Grahs, Director...

 Mercy Health Saint Mary's

WGUV Tue July 21, 2020

Mercy Health Saint Mary's is nationally recognized as a Best Maternity Care Hospital by Newsweek. We talk to RN Susan Bankhead about the award and...

Hospice of Michigan

WGUV Tue July 21, 2020

Hospice of Michigan and Arbor Hospice host a virtual camp session for kids in Michigan coping with grief. The nonprofits' annual Camp Good Grief...

Say it Louder

WGUV Tue July 21, 2020

On air political analyst, Resident Fellow and author Tiffany Cross joins TMS to discuss her latest work, Say It Louder!: Black Voters, White...

Michigan surveys recovered COVID-19 patients to determine how t WGUV Tue July 21, 2020

Michigan researchers and the state health department are working together to survey residents recovering from COVID-19. Researchers and state health

Clark Hill

WGUV Tue July 21, 2020

What are crucial items for schools, parents and students to be aware before school resumes? We talk to Attorney Kara Rozin, Clark Hill, with the info.

Detroit officer charged in rubber pellet shooting at protest

WGUV Tue July 21, 2020

A police corporal accused of shooting three photojournalists with rubber pellets while they covered protests in Detroit against police brutality has...

Poll: Pandemic hurting Americans' finances in disparate ways

WGUV Tue July 21, 2020

Crystal and Chris Martin put off some payments on their home in this blue-collar town near Flint and are pinching pennies to make ends meet until they

Linc Up calls for the re-allocation of $9.5 million from GRPD toward WGUV Tue July 21, 2020

Grand Rapids non-profit organization calls for the re-allocation of $9.5 million dollars from the Grand Rapids Police Department and towards community

Judge questions evidence against lawmaker facing 2nd trial

WGUV Mon July 20, 2020

A judge says he has "serious questions" about evidence against a Michigan lawmaker who faces a second trial on corruption charges. Federal Judge...

Federal aid helps Michigan fill $2.2B hole; more sought

WGUV Mon July 20, 2020

Michigan lawmakers will return to session to pass a multibillion-dollar plan to resolve the deficit caused by the coronavirus shutdown - with a mix of

Violent weekend in GR brings homicide count to 20, and it's still Jul WGUV Mon July 20, 2020

Another homicide in Grand Rapids over the weekend, and after Police Chief called for an end to the violence on Friday. The murder Sunday brings the...

Bezonomics

WGVU Mon July 20, 2020

The Author of Bezonomics: How Amazon is Changing Our Lives and What the World's Best Companies are Learning From It, Brian Dumaine discusses why the...

Foam-It

WGVU Mon July 20, 2020

A local company that produces cleaning equipment partners with a chemical company to donate free cleaning kits to healthcare organizations. We talk...

The Michigan Supreme Court has dealt a blow to county treasurers WGVU Mon July 20, 2020

Ruling says counties can't keep any profits they get from selling tax-foreclosed homes at auction. The ruling stems from a lawsuit that challenged...

Lansing Schools Will Resume Online August 31

WGVU Mon July 20, 2020

The first day of school for Lansing students will be Monday, August 31. All classes will be taught through live online instruction through early...

Celebrity Trainer Oscar Smith

WGVU Mon July 20, 2020

He's worked with the likes of Tom Brady and Val Kilmer, Celebrity Trainer Oscar Smith talks about getting rid of the Quarantine Weight and more.

State wants commitment that Enbridge will pay for any damages re WGVU Mon July 20, 2020

State officials are asking Enbridge Energy to enter into a written agreement saying the company will cover any potential losses and damage related to...

Biere De Mac Brew Works

WGVU Mon July 20, 2020

To celebrate the Mackinac State Historic Parks 125th anniversary Celebration, the establishment of an Up North Pub creates a special beer. We talk to

Michigan college holds in-person graduation despite order

WGVU Mon July 20, 2020

A politically-connected conservative college in southern Michigan has defied warnings from state and public health officials by holding an in-person

ALS Association Michigan

WGVU Mon July 20, 2020

Walk on behalf of Alzheimers. We talk to Mallory Timyan about this ALS Association Michigan Chapter Virtual Walk Kick off this Tuesday night.

Federal aid helps Michigan fill $2.2B hole; more sought

WGVU Mon July 20, 2020

Michigan lawmakers will return to session to pass a multibillion-dollar plan to resolve the deficit caused by the coronavirus shutdown with a mix of

GR Community says more police is not the answer

WGVU Mon July 20, 2020

Kyle Lim from the Urban Core Collective, an organization that has been advocating to partially defund the Grand Rapids Police Department, says more...

Travel Talk WGUV Mon July 20, 2020
 Travel Talk, Agent Joanne Verboom talking all things local travel tidbits, plus are you wondering where to go on vacation?

Camp Manitou-Lin WGUV Mon July 20, 2020
 YMCA's Camp Manitou-Lin still has room for day campers. ED Bill Hinton discusses now more than ever getting kids active outside safely.

David Gibson WGUV Mon July 20, 2020
 David Gibson joins Common Threads to discuss his essay in Religion & Politics titled, The Coming "Religion Recession." David Gibson was appointed...

Greatest Generation Day Event WGUV Mon July 20, 2020
 The Gerald R Ford Presidential Museum and local partners have a Call to Action to identify living WWII Veterans for the upcoming Greatest Generation...

Curbside Vaccination Program WGUV Mon July 20, 2020
 Spectrum Health pilots a curbside vaccination program, talking all things Vaccinations/Physicals and more with Dr. Lisa Lowery, Section Chief for

006: Connie Dang WGUV Mon July 20, 2020
 Connie Dang is Grand Valley State University's Director of the Office of Multicultural Affairs and Special Assistant for Inclusive Community Outreach...

Cannabis Related Policy Changes Aim To Elevate Equity WGUV Fri July 17, 2020
 New measures recently approved by the Grand Rapids City Commission could give more Grand Rapidians an opportunity to open and/or become employed by

Publisher of 8 Michigan newspapers closing printing plant WGUV Fri July 17, 2020
 A printing plant near Grand Rapids that produces eight MLive Media Group newspapers will close, shifting the work to Cleveland. The plant opened in...

US Rep. Amash officially won't seek reelection to Congress WGUV Fri July 17, 2020
 U.S. Rep. Justin Amash of Michigan, a former Republican who backed the impeachment of President Donald Trump, is officially not running for...

Teen locked up over school work; school disagrees with judge WGUV Fri July 17, 2020
 A suburban Detroit school district says no student should be punished for missed work during the coronavirus pandemic. The statement comes two days...

Michigan agency orders hearing for bar tied to outbreak WGUV Fri July 17, 2020
 Michigan liquor regulators on Thursday ordered an East Lansing bar to answer questions about a coronavirus outbreak that infected 186 people and was a

ACLU calls for an investigation into jury tampering incident involvin WGUV Fri July 17, 2020

On Thursday, the American Civil Liberties Union of Michigan sent a letter to the Grand Rapids Office of Oversight and Public Accountability and the

Mutually Inclusive: Lakeshore Ethnic Diversity Alliance WGUV Thu July 16, 2020

Weekly we focus on the work of area organizations advancing inclusion and equity in our community. This morning we speak with Gloria Lara, Executive

North Kent Connect WGUV Thu July 16, 2020

North Kent Connect expands its footprint. We talk to ED Claire Guisfredi, doubling their space and continuing to enhance their programs, connecting...

The Universe is Your Search Engine WGUV Thu July 16, 2020

The author of The Universe is Your Search Engine Anita Scott joins TMS, her book, a groundbreaking look at how to master the Law of Attraction.

Jetco Solutions WGUV Thu July 16, 2020

A local business consulting firm specializing in government sales recently expanded their services to help small businesses pivot during the economic

Heartside Downtown Neighborhood Association WGUV Thu July 16, 2020

Guests from Heartside Downtown Neighborhood Associatoin join in, sharing updates including downtown murals and other changes. We discuss with Mallory

Small Business Restart Program WGUV Thu July 16, 2020

A Michigan Small Business Restart Program provides $100 million in grants for Covid-19 recovery efforts. We talk to Amanda Cooper, Director of Talent

Nonprofit Navigation WGUV Thu July 16, 2020

Nonprofit Navigation features guests from The Johnson Center, today Tory Martin discusses tons of new courses available for nonprofits, grantmakers...

All About Women WGUV Thu July 16, 2020

All About Women, today's topic Pregnancy and Marijuana, Dr. Robyn Hubbard, GR Women's Health, with discussion.

Young people make up majority of new COVID-19 cases in MI WGUV Thu July 16, 2020

Young people now make up the majority of new COVID-19 cases in Michigan. Over the last month, people under 40 have accounted for 60-percent of all new

Sanitize Your Nose campaign WGUV Thu July 16, 2020

Keep your nose safe. We talk about the Sanitize Your Nose campaign, an established infection prevention practice used in hospitals to reduce...

Alt City Beverage Company

WGVU Thu July 16, 2020

Alt City Beverage Company opens at the Downtown Market, talking today to brothers/owners' Paul and Chad Clark.

Grand Rapids Police Chief: 'senseless killing must stop'

WGVU Thu July 16, 2020

Following the 19 th homicide this year already, Grand Rapids Police Chief Eric Payne is demanding that the violence come to an end. A frustrated Payne

West MI business owners are grappling with the effects of the mask WGVU Thu July 16, 2020

The mask mandate, an executive order signed by Governor Gretchen Whitmer, requires every Michigander to wear a mask in crowded outdoor areas and...

Religion 101

WGVU Thu July 16, 2020

Religion 101, speaking today with Kaufman Interfaith Institute's Dr Doug Kindschi and Zahabia Ahmed-Usmami, topics including Personal reflections on...

Warner Norcross and Judd

WGVU Thu July 16, 2020

Warner Norcross and Judd supports Michigan communities with donations and volunteers. We talk to Doug Dozeman, Managing Partner, to discuss the

Former coach's sentencing delayed in Nassar-related case

WGVU Thu July 16, 2020

A water main break forced the postponement Wednesday of sentencing for a former Michigan State University head gymnastics coach for lying to police...

Mosquito-borne virus turns up in Ottawa County resident

WGVU Thu July 16, 2020

An uncommon mosquito-borne virus has infected a person in western Michigan's Ottawa County. The case of Jamestown Canyon virus is only the fourth...

Advanced Nonsmall Cell Lung Cancer

WGVU Thu July 16, 2020

Lung Cancer is still a leading cause of cancer death, speaking today with Dr. Firas Badin and Advocate Katie Brown on the topic of advanced nonsmall...

Michigan has most virus cases in 2 months; Izzo backs masks

WGVU Thu July 16, 2020

Michigan on Wednesday reported its biggest increase in confirmed COVID-19 cases in nearly two months, leading Gov. Gretchen Whitmer to say she may be

Court: Ballots that arrive after 8 pm Election Day won't be counted WGVU Thu July 16, 2020

The Michigan League of Women Voters plans to challenge restrictions that will make it more difficult for people to vote absentee. That's after the...

Report: 8 Michigan billionaires collectively made nearly $3 billion d WGVU Thu July 16, 2020

As Michigan's economy saw a huge spike in joblessness and a collapse in taxes collected, a new report found that Michigan has 8 billionaires who

Annual Backpack Drive

WGVU Thu July 16, 2020

DA Blodgett St John's Annual Backpack Drive goes virtual, speaking with Allyssa Murphy on the collection process for over 400 youth by the end of the...

All Voting is Local

WGVU Thu July 16, 2020

A Michigan Advocacy Group calls on officials to ensure residents have safe access to vote. We talk to Aghogho Edevbie, Michigan State Director, All...

Grand Rapids Asian-Pacific Festival

WGVU Thu July 16, 2020

Grand Rapids Asian-Pacific Festival Organizers host their first ever Asian street food drive- thru event tomorrow at Riverside Park, talking with Ace

COVID-19 and Mental Health

WGVU Thu July 16, 2020

We discuss COVID-19 and Mental Health, BCBS's Dr. Gina Lynem-Walker, associate Medical Director about the realities of many needed extra assist in...

Playhouse at White Lake

WGVU Wed July 15, 2020

Summer theatre happens at the Playhouse at White Lake virtually. Starting tomorrow, 6 new performances in 2 weeks, including 2 live outdoor free...

Senior Concerns

WGVU Wed July 15, 2020

Senior Concerns, today Stephanie Hecksel, Access Manager, AAAMW, discusses the service Information and Assistance.

Van Andel Institute

WGVU Wed July 15, 2020

Van Andel Institute for Education's Teacher Programs Manager Dawn McCotter joins in to discuss planning for the upcoming school year, adapting...

Prison By Any Other Name

WGVU Wed July 15, 2020

Author Maya Schenwar talks about her latest work, Prison By Any Other Name, The Harmful Consequences of Popular Reforms.

The Divine Miss Marble

WGVU Wed July 15, 2020

NY Times Best Selling Author Robert Weintraub discusses the 1930's tennis icon, Alice Marble, his new book is out, The Divine Miss Marble: A Life of...

Writing Wild

WGVU Wed July 15, 2020

In Writing Wild, author Kathryn Aalto lyrically profiles 25 women, historical and current, whose influential nature has deepened our connection to the

On the Rebound

WGVU Wed July 15, 2020

What do you expect after surgery? We talk about recent findings that very few women are making medication choices that can help them rebound more...

Man killed by police after stabbing another man over wearing a ma WGUV Wed July 15, 2020

A Michigan sheriff's deputy on Tuesday fatally shot a man suspected of stabbing another man who had challenged him about not wearing a mask at a

Samaritas WGUV Wed July 15, 2020

Samaritas kicks off their Backpack Drive for Kids today, packs full of supplies to be distributed to kids who really need them. We talk about the...

Comprehensive Therapy Center WGUV Wed July 15, 2020

The Comprehensive Therapy Center offers the 2020 Driveway Concert Series, a Social Distancing Fundraiser, speaking today with ED Summer Wright on the Family will commemorate birthday of former President Ford WGUV Mon July 13, 2020

Wreaths will be placed at the Grand Rapids grave of former President Gerald Ford to mark the 107th anniversary of his birth. A wreath from President...

New rules for firefighting foam containing PFAS WGUV Mon July 13, 2020

Michigan firefighters have new rules for when they use firefighting foam containing industrial chemicals known as PFAS. Governor Gretchen Whitmer...

'Defund Police' graffiti has GRPD looking for who did it WGUV Mon July 13, 2020

According to a press release issued Sunday, the Grand Rapids Police Department is asking for the community's help in identifying those responsible for

Grand River Photo Stations WGUV Mon July 13, 2020

The Grand River changes are to be captured via photo stations. Partnerships including Grand Valley Metro Council, GRPM and GR Whitewater will install

Michigan woman says fear led her to pull gun on Black family WGUV Mon July 13, 2020

A white woman who was charged after she was captured on video pulling a handgun on an unarmed Black woman and her daughters outside of a Michigan

Your Home By Design WGUV Mon July 13, 2020

Your Home by Design, spotlighting the home monthly, today's topic Wood Flooring. We discuss with Deidre Remtema, Deidre Interiors and Michael...

West Michigan Works WGUV Mon July 13, 2020

West Michigan Works has expanded its Veterans Networking Job Club to include the 7 county region serviced by the workforce development agency. We...

Perspectives in Philanthropy WGUV Mon July 13, 2020

Perspectives in Philanthropy, today's topic an update on the idea Now, Near, Far in relation to the local philanthropic sector's COVID response. We...

Amplify GR

WGVU Mon July 13, 2020

Amplify GR recently opened up its Amp the Good grants for residents within the 49507 zip code, talking about the details today with Latesha Lipscomb.

Broadway Grand Rapids

WGVU Mon July 13, 2020

Broadway Grand Rapids announces new dates for Come From Away and Hairspray next season, plus the topic of raising funds for COVID 19 frontline...

Studio C

WGVU Mon July 13, 2020

Studio C announces 2 new programs, created for social distancing, set to take place outdoors on the piazza at Studio Parks. We talk Sunset Cinema and

Michigan Titanium

WGVU Mon July 13, 2020

To be safe, more local athletic events are going virtual or being postponed. We talk to Michigan Titanium's Co Race Director Jon Conkling, about the

Girl Scouts

WGVU Mon July 13, 2020

Girl Scouts of Michigan Shore to Shore and Girl Scouts of the USA launch a free Make New Friends virtual event series to ensure that all girls are...

Whitmer toughens mask rules

WGVU Fri July 10, 2020

Governor Gretchen Whitmer has issued an order that toughens rules requiring people to wear protective masks in public. This in response to an...

Mel Trotter Gets 25K For COVID 19 Emergency Funding

WGVU Fri July 10, 2020

Mel Trotter Ministries recently received a grant for COVID 19 emergency funding. And officials say it was greatly needed. "To receive a 25-thousand-...

Fountain Street Church makes a historic hire with Mariela Pérez-Si

WGVU Fri July 10, 2020

Fountain Street Church welcomes the Reverend Mariela Pérez-Simons as the new senior minister of the church. She is the first woman and person of...

Northwestern Medicine

WGVU Fri July 10, 2020

Let's talk sleep, as many are having trouble sleeping during the COVID-19 pandemic. We talk to Chief of Sleep Surgery, Northwestern Medicine, Dr....

JD Power Initial Quality Study

WGVU Fri July 10, 2020

Automotive Expert James Bell gives insight on the Auto Industry during this pandemic, talking about the JD Power Initial Quality Study. We talk to Mr...

Episode 005: Charisse Mitchell

WGVU Fri July 10, 2020

Charisse Mitchell serves as the CEO of the YWCA West Central Michigan, a resume that includes earning a strong reputation among private and public...

Vintage Parlor Orchestra

WGVU Fri July 10, 2020

We talk about the music from the Vintage Parlor Orchestra, Music Director Thomas Pike returning to TMS to discuss a secret invite-only concert at a...

Blue's Clues

WGVU Fri July 10, 2020

Blue's Clues originally premiered in 1996, creating an interactive way for young viewers to watch TV. We talk to host of Nickelodeon's Blue's Clues...

Bissell Foundation

WGVU Fri July 10, 2020

Bissell Foundation again helps to Empty the Shelters, beginning today. Bri Olson talks about the sponsoring of adoption fees for cats and dogs from...

Michigan AG to handle prosecutions from large lake party

WGVU Fri July 10, 2020

The state Attorney General's Office has agreed to handle the prosecution of any crimes stemming from a large party on a southwestern Michigan lake in...

Peters raises over $5 million, but still trails James in donations

WGVU Fri July 10, 2020

U.S. Sen. Gary Peters of Michigan raised $5.2 million over three months in his campaign for reelection — his largest quarterly haul — leaving him...

Trump declares disaster, releases money for flooded areas

WGVU Fri July 10, 2020

President Donald Trump said he approved a major disaster declaration for mid-Michigan counties swept by May floods and will provide more than $43...

Detroit immigrants will get a share of $750,000 from group

WGVU Thu July 9, 2020

Immigrants living in Detroit without legal permission will get a chance to apply for a share of $750,000 given by a New York-based philanthropy. City

Whitmer says anti-bias training will be required for health licenses

WGVU Thu July 9, 2020

Governor Gretchen Whitmer signed a directive today to include training in how to recognize and guard against implicit bias for health care...

Mutually Inclusive: Lakeshore Ethnic Diversity Alliance

WGVU Thu July 9, 2020

Weekly we focus on the work of area individuals and organizations advancing inclusion and equity in our community. This morning we speak with Jenny...

Growing Old

WGVU Thu July 9, 2020

How best to grow old? 80 something Elizabeth Marshall Thomas writes the book Growing Old: Notes on Aging with Something Like Grace. We talk to Ms....

Decision 2020: Challenger Todd Dunham's love of Fruitport fuels his

WGVU Thu July 9, 2020

Challenger Todd Dunham is a lifelong Fruitport Township resident, and served as a sergeant in the Muskegon County Sheriff's office for 30 years. A...

The Four stages of Psychological Safety

WGVU Thu July 9, 2020

We talk to Dr. Timothy R. Clark, his topic, the 4 stages of Psychological Safety. We talk all things stages and safety.

Decision 2020: Heidi Tice says she's 'earned' another four years as F

WGVU Thu July 9, 2020

Current Supervisor Heidi Tice was born and raised in Fruitport Township and is a graduate of Baker College where Tice earned her degree in Finance....

Eco Insider

WGVU Thu July 9, 2020

Eco Insider, guests from WMEAC join in, today's topic the 17th annual Mayor's Grand River Cleanup in September, a conversation with Education...

Our bi-weekly conversation with MI-Biz senior writer Mark Sanchez

WGVU Thu July 9, 2020

$115 million in grant relief has been made available for Michigan's small businesses, the manufacturing sector is rebounding with a catch, and two...

Great Lakes surface temperatures high

WGVU Thu July 9, 2020

The hot, still summer days have sent water temperatures in the Great Lakes soaring. Right now surface-water temperatures of Lake Michigan range...

For a Better Us

WGVU Thu July 9, 2020

For a Better Us, guests from the Y joining in, today Executive Director of Camp Manitou Lin Bil Hinton shares an update about Day Camp, Family Camp...

White Lake Chamber Music Festival

WGVU Thu July 9, 2020

White Lake Chamber Music Festival introduces the Master's Series, virtually. Bob Swan, Artistic Director of the Festival, discusses the details.

Supreme Court sides with Trump in birth control case

WGVU Thu July 9, 2020

The Supreme Court ruled today that the Trump administration acted properly when it allowed more employers - who cite a religious or moral objection...

Family Health Matters

WGVU Thu July 9, 2020

This weekend's WGVU Family Health Matters features the topic of Depression. Panelist Dr. Gregory Mallis with Pine Rest discusses the risk factors and

George Floyd Mural Vandalized; Fundraising Begins For Repairs

WGVU Thu July 9, 2020

A Lansing mural depicting George Floyd was defaced with white paint on Tuesday. The mural, entitled "Walk With Me," was painted by Flint-based artist...

Whitmer extends water shutoff moratorium

WGVU Wed July 8, 2020

Governor Gretchen Whitmer has extended a moratorium on water service shutoffs for non-payment through the end of the year. The new executive order

The Road to Delano

WGVU Wed July 8, 2020

Author John DeSimone presents his newest historical fiction novel, The Road to Delano, discussing the life of labor leader and civil rights activist...

Beyond the Mask

WGVU Wed July 8, 2020

Beyond the Mask: How My Tragedy Sparked an Incredible Life-Lessons I Might Never Have Learned, Author Brian P. Walsh discussing how his life...

Nissan Foundation

WGVU Wed July 8, 2020

The Nissan Foundation provides grants to Nonprofits in Michigan to help build better communities and break down social barriers. We talk to Foundation

Ronald McDonald House of Western Michigan

WGVU Wed July 8, 2020

The Ronald McDonald House of Western Michigan is accepting new families. We talk with ED Ellen Carpenter about the plan, including family safety and...

Ford Airport

WGVU Wed July 8, 2020

The Ford Airport introduces Fly Safe. Fly Ford, a campaign to educate and restore confidence in travel. We talk to CEO Tory Richardson.

National Summer Learning Week

WGVU Wed July 8, 2020

We talk about National Summer Learning Week with Sr. Director of Youth Development Programs Boys and Girls Clubs of America Chrissy Chen, how can...

GEMS Girls Club

WGVU Wed July 8, 2020

GEMS Girls Club is an international community for young girls to learn about God and how to apply the Bible to their everyday life. President Cindy...

24th Annual Virtual Wheel Run Together 5K

WGVU Wed July 8, 2020

This Virtual 5k raises funds for those who can't run. We discuss the 24th Annual Virtual Wheel Run Together 5K on July 11, 2020, organized by Grand...

All About the Eye

WGVU Wed July 8, 2020

All About the Eye, today Optometrist Dr. Gary Anderson talking about Ultraviolet Light and the ways to protect our eyes.

Motion to partially defund GRPD is stalled by City Attorney

WGVU Wed July 8, 2020

Tuesday night's Grand Rapids Commission Meeting lasted into the early hours of Wednesday morning after over one hundred people called in to express...

Nessel sues US Dept of Ed over CARES funding for schools

WGVU Tue July 7, 2020

Michigan and five other states are challenging how the U-S Department of Education is allocating COVID-19 relief money to public and private schools...

Max's South Seas Hideaway

WGVU Tue July 7, 2020

Cocktails to go. Max's South Seas Hideaway becomes one of the first bars in Michigan to legally sell cocktails to go. We talk to Mark Sellers about...

Mary Free Bed Rehabilitation

WGVU Tue July 7, 2020

She dove into shallow water, breaking her spine, and now lives life as a quadriplegic. We talk to Jennifer Crowell and Mary Free Bed Rehabilitation RN

Hush Puppies

WGVU Tue July 7, 2020

Over 500 pairs of shoes from a Michigan based company are donated to a local retirement community. Residents and staff from Clark received over 500...

Big O'Smokehouse

WGVU Tue July 7, 2020

Big O'Smokehouse in Holland has a generational story. We talk to Bruce Osterhaven about how the company maintains a legacy in the family and within...

Commercial Real Estate Insiders

WGVU Tue July 7, 2020

Commercial Real Estate Insiders, guests from the Commercial Real Estate field with their latest happenings, today CARWM Past President Jason Makowski...

Demagogue

WGVU Tue July 7, 2020

The author of Demagogue: The Life and Long Shadow of Senator Joe McCarthy, Larry Tye joins in, sharing his findings from research and recently...

Mixed Staffing and Recruiting

WGVU Tue July 7, 2020

Mixed Staffing and Recruiting continues their weekly Facebook Let's Listen Series, Friday morn, Conversations for Change. Sara Sherry Knoester with...

Beer Month

WGVU Tue July 7, 2020

It's Beer Month. ED of Michigan Brewers Guild Scott Graham talks about the contributions that Michigan craft brewers and breweries have made to the...

From Where I Sit

WGVU Tue July 7, 2020

From Where I Sit, monthly crunching the furniture industry numbers with Analyst Mike Dunlap.

Michiganders encouraged to take part in Blackout Day 2020

WGVU Tue July 7, 2020

Activists are encouraging African-Americans to shop today ONLY at Black-owned businesses. The intent is to show the economic strength of African-...

How Local businesses of color are being left out of funding

WGVU Tue July 7, 2020

Archie Sudue is the owner of The Mel Styles. A menswear store in Grand Rapids known for providing custom-fitted men 's suits. He says when the stay-...

Kent Co. health officials are warning the community of coronavirus WGUV Tue July 7, 2020

On Saturday, large numbers of people without a mask gathered at Diamond Lake in Cass County according to videos on social media from that day. Brian...

Challenge to redistricting commission dismissed WGUV Mon July 6, 2020

A federal judge has dismissed a legal challenge to Michigan's voter-approved independent redistricting commission. The commission will draw new

Group to start veto-proof drive to repeal Whitmer's powers WGUV Mon July 6, 2020

Organizers said Monday they will begin collecting voter signatures within days for a veto-proof measure that would repeal a law that has given Gov.

Don't Die of Doubt WGUV Mon July 6, 2020

The American Heart Association's new education awareness campaign Don't Die of Doubt is talked about with the President Elect Dr. Mitchell Elkind. The

Kenny's Kids Kamp WGUV Mon July 6, 2020

A summer camp for both Deaf and Hearing Kids will happen virtually, a week's worth of excitement and education. Community and Partnerships Manager...

Tax returns are due! WGUV Mon July 6, 2020

Individual state income tax returns are typically due by April 15, but the coronavirus pandemic changed that this year. Patti O'Dell is the tax...

Auto insurance in MI has changed. Reforms written into a 2019 stat WGUV Mon July 6, 2020

Darlene Waller owns a truck. It's parked right outside her home in Highland Park. The vehicle runs but she doesn't drive it because she can't afford...

Lakeshore Museum WGUV Mon July 6, 2020

Let's talk all things Lakeshore Museum, many acquisitions happening, plus partnerships with schools. The Musuem releases its reopening plans today,

Grand Rapids and Lansing are seeing an increase in COVID-19 cases WGUV Mon July 6, 2020

Under Governor Gretchen Whitmer's economic reopening plan there are six phases of reopening. The phase each region falls under is dependent on the...

GVSU's College of Community and Public Service WGUV Mon July 6, 2020

GVSU's College of Community and Public Service's Dr. Lorie Tuma joins TMS to discuss an upcoming GVSU CCPS Virtual Conference. Engage, Enrich,...

Pool Safety WGUV Mon July 6, 2020

Pool Safety is discussed, staying safe IN the backyard pool according to Michele Hlavsa, Chief of the CDC's Healthy Swimming Programming.

White Christian Privilege

WGVU Mon July 6, 2020

The Author of White Christian Privilege, Khyati Joshi, joins TMS to discuss her latest work, how Christian privilege and white racial norms affect the

Double O

WGVU Mon July 6, 2020

We discuss the renovation of a most recent fabrication facility in the most economically challenged GR Neighborhood, helping to revitalize the...

Holland Museum

WGVU Mon July 6, 2020

The Holland Museum reopens today. ED Ricki Levine talks about the new accommodations, plus the extension of the current exhibit, Heinz in Holland.

Camp Sparkle

WGVU Mon July 6, 2020

Gilda's Club Grand Rapids Camp Sparkle kicks off tomorrow, its 15th year taking place virtually. We talk to Lindsay Jousma about this free camp, open...

White Michigan couple arrested after gun pulled on Black family

WGVU Fri July 3, 2020

A white couple was arrested after at least one handgun was pulled on a Black woman and her daughters during a videotaped confrontation in a restaurant

Coast Guard rescues 5 people, dog from sinking boat

WGVU Fri July 3, 2020

Five people and a dog have been rescued from a sinking boat in Michigan's Saginaw Bay. The 50-foot vessel was halfway submerged and one person...

Michigan garage sale may have exposed attendees to virus

WGVU Fri July 3, 2020

Health officials in Michigan on Thursday said that people who went to a garage sale near the community of Charlotte last weekend may have been...

DHHS says sick people are avoiding emergency rooms

WGVU Thu July 2, 2020

The state Department of Health and Human Services is urging people with symptoms of heart attacks or other health emergencies to seek help. That's...

Episode 004: Diana Sieger

WGVU Thu July 2, 2020

Diana Sieger is a "Powerful Woman" who needs no introduction. Long time head of the Grand Rapids Community Foundation, Diana's charge and passion is...

Episode 003: Diane Griffin

WGVU Thu July 2, 2020

Diane Griffin makes her mark nationally and internationally, running Griffin Properties Residential Real Estate Team and Chairing the Board for Keller

Episode 002: Sandra Gaddy

WGVU Thu July 2, 2020

Sandra Gaddy is a phenomenal woman with a caring, giving heart who also loves a good laugh. She's the CEO of the Women's Resource Center in Grand...

Episode 001: Jacqueline Taylor, PhD WGUV Thu July 2, 2020

Dr. Jacqueline Taylor, retired Vice President for Development for Davenport University, has been in education for over 30 years. She is currently an

Mutually Inclusive: Grand Rapids Area Black Businesses WGUV Thu July 2, 2020

Weekly we focus on the work of area individuals and organizations advancing inclusion and equity in our community. This morning we welcome Jamiel...

Kent District Library WGUV Thu July 2, 2020

Kent District Library puts a hold on it's reopening. We discuss this and the continued summer programming. We talk to Joyanne Huston-Swanson, Outreach

QuantumERA WGUV Thu July 2, 2020

The Battle of Gettysburg was 157 years ago, a virtual travel opportunity to help history enthusiasts journey to Gettysburg amidst the pandemic. We...

Rapid Growth Media WGUV Thu July 2, 2020

Guests from Rapid Growth Media join in, Publisher Tommy Allen with the conversation of the week's top news and stories.

Humane Society of West Michigan WGUV Thu July 2, 2020

The Humane Society of West Michigan is holding camp and holding critters up for adoption. We discuss adopting Spot plus a Bissell Pet Foundation's...

GVSU College of Health Professions WGUV Thu July 2, 2020

Monthly we catch up with those from GVSU's College of Health Professions, today, Dr. Ranelle Brew today discusses the launch of an 8 dimensional of

Clean, Separate, Cook and Chill WGUV Thu July 2, 2020

Keep your food safe this holiday weekend. Meredith Carothers with the USDA talks about the 4 principles, Clean, Separate, Cook and Chill.

Powerful Women: Let's Talk WGUV Thu July 2, 2020

Coming July 6, WGUV Public Media's Powerful Women: Let's Talk Podcast premieres. We discuss with Producer Phil Lane, Jennifer Moss and Yours Truly.

Lansing Police Department Announces New Traffic Stop Policy WGUV Thu July 2, 2020

The new policy means Lansing police won't pull drivers over for so-called secondary violations. Those include things like cracked windshields, loud...

Judge extends temporary restraining order, allows West leg of Line WGUV Thu July 2, 2020

The order stops short of granting Attorney General Dana Nessel's request for an injunction against the company - instead extending and modifying the

Michigan is appropriating 50-million dollars towards rental assistance WGUV Thu July 2, 2020

Across the state, some 19 percent of residents report being housing insecure according to US Census data - meaning they either did not pay last month...

Michigan governor closes indoor bars, allows to-go cocktails WGUV Thu July 2, 2020

Michigan Gov. Gretchen Whitmer said Wednesday that she was closing indoor seating in bars in parts of the state, including a college town where one...

Michigan ease restrictions on long-term care facility visits WGUV Wed July 1, 2020

Orders have been issued by the Michigan Department of Health and Human Services that allow for expanded visitations at nursing and other residential

Kent County Health Department orders Grand Rapids tavern closed WGUV Wed July 1, 2020

A Grand Rapids area bar has been ordered closed by Kent County officials after it failed to adhere to social distance protocols. After a cellphone...

Allendale Township Board votes unanimously to keep controversial WGUV Wed July 1, 2020

On Tuesday evening, with a prayer, Adam Elenbaas, supervisor of the Allendale Township Board of Trustees began the board meeting to discuss whether...

Safe Science WGUV Wed July 1, 2020

Safe Science sanitizes for Covid 19. We talk to GM Jeremy Lehman, this GR based business providing education for employees and customers to feel safe...

Treetops Resort WGUV Wed July 1, 2020

Treetops Resort safely produces fireworks this weekend, GM Barry Owens with the info and the reminder to bring your clubs, named by Golfweek at one...

Inventing America WGUV Wed July 1, 2020

He's Thomas Jefferson on this weekend's airing of Inventing America on WGUV TV, Author/Historian Bill Barker returns to TMS to talk about this and a

Streams of Hope WGUV Wed July 1, 2020

Streams of Hope has reopened their physical food pantry, serving over 500 families with drive thru supplemental food assistance, striving to meet...

Michigan governor announces plan to reopen K-12 schools WGUV Wed July 1, 2020

Michigan's governor unveiled her plans Tuesday to return students to the classroom this fall for the first time since schools were closed in March in...

Michigan announces $50-million for rental assistance, experts say t WGUV Wed July 1, 2020

Governor Gretchen Whitmer announced last week that Michigan will put $50-million towards paying back rent and keeping residents in their homes during...

West Nile Virus is back in Kent County

WGVU Wed July 1, 2020

The Kent County Health Department is urging West Michiganders to be cautious, as officials have confirmed some mosquitos are carrying the West Nile...

And She Could be Next

WGVU Wed July 1, 2020

This week, POV and WGVU TV presented the 2 part documentary And She Could be Next, telling the story of a defiant movement of women of color,...

Boys and Girls Clubs of Grand Rapids

WGVU Wed July 1, 2020

Boys and Girls Clubs of Grand Rapids Youth Commonwealth launches the Be You Wellness Program, more than 200 kids and youth receiving services to...

Bank of America

WGVU Wed July 1, 2020

Bank of America's announces a $1 Billion/4 year commitment to support economic opportunity initiatives, Renee Tabben, GR Market President, with the...

Covenant House Michigan

WGVU Wed July 1, 2020

Covenant House Michigan, GR campus, opens a women's floor, this home for homeless and at risk youth age 18-24. We talk about this and more with Steven

Circle Theatre

WGVU Wed July 1, 2020

Circle Theatre partners with Paddock Place to kickoff the Circle Summer Fundraising Concert Series. We talk about this celebration on the lawn with...

Library of Michigan

WGVU Wed July 1, 2020

Tuned into the Library of Michigan, today Head of Special Collections Tim Gleisner discusses the virtual version of Michigan Notable Books.
