Housing Costs in Colorado Mountain Towns	documentary explores how Colorado has led the way in secure voting by mail, as RMCR's Maeve Conran reports. Regional Newscast - Mountain towns in Colorado have seen an influx of development in recent years. Much of it has been concentrated in luxury tourism or housing, which has driven up costs and pushed out many locals. One town near Telluride on Colorado's western slope has largely avoided that fate, and is proud of it. But, as KSJD and Rocky Mountain Community Radio's Lucas Brady Woods reports, a new land sale could change that.	8/2/22, 8:03 am	5:00
Colorado Wildfires	Regional Newscast - The Rocky Mountain region is experiencing more wildfires in the midst of drought and high temperatures. And more of those blazes are being caused by people as our population grows. The job of fire investigators has never been more important. They track down the spark that can lead to prosecutions and their work provides crucial data for studying fire causes.	8/9/22, 8:01 am	6:40 am
Protecting Water Quality	Regional Newscast – Under the Clean Water Act, states are responsible for deciding which waterways deserve protection.	9/20/22, 8:01 am	1:08
Developing Alternative Water Sources	Regional Newscast – As the Colorado River dries up, our region is searching for ways to prop up to the water supply. Some are looking to the ocean.	9/29/22, 8:01 am	4:40
