1. Our World with Black Enterprise	01/07/07	11:00AM/30 minutes	Public Affairs	*

* This week's roundtable featured Nolan Rollins, President of the National Urban League Youth Professions, and Chloe Hillard, News Editor of "The Source" magazine, in a discussion of whether the Urban League and the NAACP are still relevant to today's blacks.

2. Our World with Black Enterprise	01/14/07	11:00AM/30 minutes	Public Affairs	**
------------------------------------	----------	--------------------	----------------	----

 This week's roundtable featured Rev. Floyd Flake, Rev. Jamal Harrison Bryan and Republican strategist Joseph Watkins, each of whom has experience in both politics and faith, discussing what role faith should play in the voting booth.

3. Know Your Heritage: Black College Quiz Show	02/11/07	01:00PM/2-hours	Public Affairs	***

 This "Jeopardy"-style format emulated the historic "College Bowl" series. It encouraged the appreciation of African-American contributions in an entertaining quiz show format. Competing Historic Black College & University students from around the country showcased their knowledge and skill of African-American history, and scholarship monies were awarded to participating teams.

------------------------------------	----------	--------------------	----------------	------

* This week's headline interview was with Marc Morial, CEO and president of the National Urban League, who spoke about appealing to younger people and the state of Black leadership today. Our roundtable panel included Donna Richardson Joyner, a fitness expert, Dr. Ian Smith, author of "The Fat Smash Diet", and a guest who had struggled with her weight for several years. The discussion focused on Obesity as it relates to Black America.
