

JBG Wichita - At Issue Public Affairs Program - AM 1070 KLIO - 2013 1st Quarter Report

Issue	Program Summary	Run Date	Length	Quarter
Healthy Eating Habits	KFDI News Anchor Kyle McCaskey interviews KU School of Medicine-Wichita associate professor Maurice Duggins about making better eating choices in the new year.	6-Jan-13	0:28:10	1
Go Red for Women Initiative	KFDI News Anchor Kyle McCaskey interviews Marcy Moore, manager of Cardiac Rehabilitation at Wesley Medical Center, about heart health.	13-Jan-13	0:22:22	1
Aviation Industry in Kansas	KFDI News Anchor Kyle McCaskey interviews Jeremy Hill, Director of the Wichita State University Center for Economic Development and Business Research.	20-Jan-13	0:27:17	1
Crimes Against Children Through Technology	KFDI News Anchor Matthew Harding interviews Wichita Police Sgt. Chet Pinkston of the Internet Crimes Against Children Task Force.	27-Jan-13	0:23:40	1
School Safety	KFDI News Anchor Kyle McCaskey discusses school safety with Wichita Public Schools Director of Safety Services Debbie McKenna. McCaskey also interviews Andy Koenigs, Associate Superintendent for Personnel for Emporia Public Schools. Emporia recently approved a measure allowing guards to carry guns.	3-Feb-13	0:25:36	1
Goodbye Dan Dillon and the War in Afghanistan	KFDI Deputy News Director John Wright talks with News Director Dan Dillon, who leaves after 34 years. Also in the program, Dillon does one last interview, talking with Colonel Joseph Wawro, commander of the Fourth Infantry Brigade combat team in Afghanistan.	10-Feb-13	0:31:14	1
Changes in the Sedgwick County Sheriff's Office	KFDI News Anchor Kyle McCaskey discusses the present and future of the Sedgwick County Sheriff's Office, the county jail and the budget. McCaskey talks with newly-elected Sheriff Jeff Easter.	17-Feb-13	0:25:07	1
Cancer Research	KFDI News Anchor Kyle McCaskey interviews Wichita State University Assistant Chemistry Professor Moriah Beck, who is researching a protein called palladin and its role in cell migration. The project aims to understand how cancer cells spread and become fatal.	24-Feb-13	0:26:27	1

placed in Public File 4/7/13
Eric McCaskey

Local Water Needs and Concerns	KFDI News Anchor George Lawson discusses the lingering drought and its effect on the water supply in Wichita. Lawson provides comments from a city council workshop.	3-Mar-13	0:24:35	1
Severe Weather Preparedness	National Weather Service Meteorologist Chance Hayes sits down with KFDI News Anchor Kyle McCaskey to talk about Kansas weather. Hayes discusses recent winter storms, how to be prepared for severe weather and what the state might expect this year.	10-Mar-13	0:25:11	1
School Funding Lawsuit in Kansas	KFDI News Anchor Kyle McCaskey investigates the school funding lawsuit in Kansas. McCaskey talks with John Robb, who is part of the general council for Schools for Fair Funding. McCaskey also interviews Rep. Ward Cassidy, the chair of the Education Budget Committee.	17-Mar-13	0:28:49	1
Medical Marijuana	KFDI News Reporter Jacob Weston discusses the future of proposed medical marijuana legislation in Kansas. Weston talks with Esau Freeman, the president of Kansas for Change.	24-Mar-13	0:25:02	1
Range Burning	KFDI News Anchor Kyle McCaskey looks into the burning of the Flint Hills. McCaskey talks with Steve Swaffar, director of natural resources for the Kansas Farm Bureau, about why the burns happen. Later, McCaskey interviews Tom Gross, chief of air monitoring and planning with the Kansas Department of Health and Environment.	31-Mar-13	0:26:19	1