

QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

Station: KKCO
Location: Grand Junction

For quarter beginning:

 X July 1, 2008

ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

ISSUE: New police team helping keep city safe

HOW ISSUE WAS TREATED: Reporter produced story

TITLE: Impact Team

DATE: July 5, 2008

DURATION: 1:45

TYPE: Reporter PKG

DESCRIPTION:

The Grand Junction Police Department is harnessing pedal power as they introduce a new team called the IMPACT team. Officers ride on bicycles to patrol and meet citizens to keep the city safe. The team, which was recently formed and started is already making a big impact.

QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

Station: KKCO
Location: Grand Junction

For quarter beginning:

 X July 1, 2008

ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

ISSUE: Economy and County/City Funding

HOW ISSUE WAS TREATED: Reporter produced story

TITLE: Jail Food

DATE: July 17, 2008

DURATION: 1:35

TYPE: Reporter PKG

DESCRIPTION:

With the economic downturn almost all county and city programs are finding ways to do more with less. 11 News reporter Kieran Wilson examines how the jail is keeping quality food on hand for inmates, despite a reduction in the food budget.

QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

Station: KKCO

Location: Grand Junction

For quarter beginning:

 X July 1, 2008

ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

ISSUE: Children victims of sex assault

HOW ISSUE WAS TREATED: Reporter produced story

TITLE: Sex Assault2

DATE: July 26, 2008

DURATION: 2:15

TYPE: Reporter PKG

DESCRIPTION:

The Western Slope Center for Children, an advocacy group for kids in abusive or otherwise dangerous situations, releases new numbers on the alarming amount of reported sexual assaults. 11 News reporter Tim Ciesco looks at what can be done and how to report abuse if you suspect it.

QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

Station: KKCO
Location: Grand Junction

For quarter beginning:

 X July 1, 2008

ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

ISSUE: Crime

HOW ISSUE WAS TREATED: news story

TITLE: CrimeStoppers

DATE: July 20, 2008

DURATION: 30

TYPE: Anchor voice over

DESCRIPTION:

Grand Junction police are asking for the public's help to find the suspect, responsible for vandalizing cars at a local dealership.

QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

Station: KKCO
Location: Grand Junction

For quarter beginning:

 X July 1, 2008

ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

ISSUE: Wildfire / Public Safety

HOW ISSUE WAS TREATED: news story

TITLE: Mesa Fires

DATE: August 2, 2008

DURATION: 1:30

TYPE: reporter live voice over

DESCRIPTION:

A fire breaks out on top of the Grand Mesa, several local agencies respond. 11 News reporter Aaron Luna updates our community on the latest information about the fire including where it is located, who is being ordered to evacuate, the size of the fire and what's being done to contain it.

QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

Station: KKCO
Location: Grand Junction

For quarter beginning:

 X July 1, 2008

ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

ISSUE: Clothing Donation and Drive for those in need

HOW ISSUE WAS TREATED: news story

TITLE: Giveaway

DATE: August 6, 2008

DURATION: :30

TYPE: Anchor voice over

DESCRIPTION:

The City of Grand Junction collects and distributes clothing to those who are in need. This story gives the location, times and types of clothes available to those who need a little extra help in the economic climate.

QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

Station: KKCO
Location: Grand Junction

For quarter beginning:

 X July 1, 2008

ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

ISSUE: Wildlife

HOW ISSUE WAS TREATED: news story

TITLE: Moose2

DATE: August 13, 2008

DURATION: :55

TYPE: Anchor voice over

DESCRIPTION:

The Colorado Division of Wildlife is looking for input from the public on the moose population. 11 News shares with our audience the history of a previous relocation of the species to the area, reviving the population. The DOW has arranged public meetings where residents can share their thoughts.

QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

Station: KKCO
Location: Grand Junction

For quarter beginning:

 X July 1, 2008

ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

ISSUE: Democratic National Convention

HOW ISSUE WAS TREATED: news story

TITLE: DNC Prep

DATE: August 24, 2008

DURATION: 2:05

TYPE: Reporter PKG

DESCRIPTION:

Denver, Colorado takes center stage as the Democratic National Convention gets ready to get underway in the mile high city. 11 News reporter Aaron Luna travels to Denver to give the local audience perspective on the historic event for the city, and what it means for the future of the country.

QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

Station: KKCO
Location: Grand Junction

For quarter beginning:

 X July 1, 2008

ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

ISSUE: West Nile

HOW ISSUE WAS TREATED: news story

TITLE: West Nile

DATE: August 29, 2008

DURATION: 2:00

TYPE: Reporter PKG

DESCRIPTION:

Heading into a holiday weekend, the Mesa County Health Department sends out a warning about the West Nile virus, spread through mosquitos. 11 News reporter Chiara Lotierzo tells us about mosquitos that have already tested positive in the area and how residents can protect themselves.

QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

Station: KKCO
Location: Grand Junction

For quarter beginning:

 X July 1, 2008

ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

ISSUE: School Safety

HOW ISSUE WAS TREATED: news story

TITLE: Red Light

DATE: September 8, 2008

DURATION: 2:00

TYPE: Reporter PKG

DESCRIPTION:

Parents at local school, Rocky Mountain Elementary say a dangerous intersection is a danger to their kids. 11 News reporter Jessica Zartler looks at the ongoing issue and finally presents a solution to parents who have been waiting for more than 8 months for something to be done.

QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

Station: KKCO
Location: Grand Junction

For quarter beginning:

 X July 1, 2008

ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST

ISSUE: Oil and Gas Development

HOW ISSUE WAS TREATED: news story

TITLE: Oil & Gas

DATE: September 21, 2008

DURATION: :30

TYPE: Anchor voice over

DESCRIPTION:

The Colorado Oil and Gas Conservation Commission meets for one of the last times before adopting a new set of rules for the energy industry. Some say the increased regulation is necessary to protect the environment and natural habitats in areas. Others say the increased rules and regulations will hurt the economy, causing numerous jobs to leave our state for areas where there aren't stringent rules on oil companies.