

2nd Quarter 2016 Issues Programming

Public Affairs Issue Programming / The Adam Ritz Show

Each week, WNYN-FM, WWMP-FM and WSKI-AM air the Public Affair program “The Adam Ritz Show”.

“The Adam Ritz Show” is Social Awareness Radio covering topics from Bullying to Alcohol to Charities and Foundations. The half-hour program features Fellowship, News talk, Sports talk, and Public Affairs and is hosted by Adam Ritz. Adam travels the country interviewing amazing inspiring people, professional athletes, and social experts. More information is available at <http://adamritzshow.com/>

The show airs on WNYN and WWMP at 7am Sundays, and on WDOTam at 6am Sundays.

The following is a list of the participants and the subjects addressed for this quarter.

Weekend of March 24th

Today’s show begins in front of a live studio audience in Dallas TX at the Kappa Alpha Order convention. We talk with Arkansas student Connor Cook about his KA chapter’s Community Service projects that serve the MDA. Our feature interview is with Jay Duncan, the Director of Basketball Operations at SMU. Jay shares with us his ‘1 Thing’ he does to make this planet a little greener. Segments include a Health and Fitness report, and a Cornea Health Awareness report.

Weekend of April 1st

Rerun of previous week’s show

Weekend of April 8th

This show begins in Statesboro GA in front of a live studio audience at Georgia Southern University. We talk with Alpha Epsilon Pi member Richard Spector about their Dog Days charity to benefit bone marrow research and the Gift of Life Foundation. We also speak with Georgia Southern IFC President Adam Clay about how they implement Risk Management to keep everyone safe on campus. Other segments include a report on Fatherhood and Integrity and St.Jude’s Children’s Hospital.

Weekend of April 15th

This broadcast begins with a live studio audience at Guilford College in Greensboro NC. We talk with Guilford student athlete Gregory Mello about their work with Big Brothers Big Sisters. Our feature interview is with Katie Means and Nick Duvall from the Little Red Door Cancer Agency. Join Little Red Door for their Trivia Night benefit April 19 at District Tap. More info at www.LittleRedDoor.com. Segments include reports on a Bionic Hand, and Student Leadership.

Weekend of April 22nd

This show literally kicks off at the University of Florida in Gainesville with probable NFL 1st Round Draft pick Vernon Hargreaves III. Vernon shares with us the community service projects that he enjoyed serving on while playing for the Gators. Our feature interview is with Andrew McKenna, addiction expert, keynote speaker, and author of Sheer Madness, From Federal Prosecutor To Federal Prisoner. Andrew shares his amazing story of addiction and how his life behind bars has helped so many people deal with the growing epidemic of Heroin Addiction in America. Also included is a report from Bradley University on Big Brothers Big Sisters.

Weekend of May April 29th

We begin this broadcast at Southern Illinois University in front of a live studio audience at Greek Week. SIU Tau Kappa Epsilon member Chris Lewis joins us to talk about their work with St. Jude Children's Hospital. Our feature interview is with Brad Lambert, the head football coach at the University of North Carolina Charlotte. Coach Lambert talks about how character and integrity and even social media plays into recruiting a Division 1 student athlete. Other segments include a report on Cystic Fibrosis and a Women's Mentoring Program.

Weekend of May 6th

Rerun of previous week's show

Weekend of May 13th

We begin this show in from of a live studio audience in California at Fresno State University, as we feature a community service project with the Fresno State Athletic Department. Our feature interview is with Tom Britt. Tom is the director of the Geist Half Marathon, which raises money for health and fitness programs at Geist area elementary schools. 100% of the money raised goes to fund these health initiatives. More info, register, and donate at www.geisthalf.com. We also feature a report on the Special Olympics with proud parent Tom Watts, and a report from K-State University about leadership.

Weekend of May 20th

We begin this show with a live studio audience at Boston College as we feature a student athlete community service project at Camp Harbor View to help children. Our feature interview is with Claire Brosman with School on Wheels. Claire shares with us how School on Wheels provides tutoring for homeless children in Marion County. Learn more at www.indySchoolOnWheels.org. Other reports include Pledge Platform, a segment from Kalamazoo MI, and an update on how professional athletes are consulted on making good decisions.

Weekend of May 27th

Rerun of previous week's show

Weekend of June 3rd

Adam goes in depth with some of the country's top coaches and athletic personalities, including Bob Stoops, Larry Brown, Rod Woodson, Jim McElwain, Brandon McManus and more.

Weekend of June 10th

On this episode Adam welcomes Ray Hilbert from Bottom Line Faith and David Thornton from the Indianapolis Colts to talk about Faith and Leadership in the marketplace. David Thornton is the Director of Player Engagement for the Colts, and works with the players to inspire and instill leadership qualities. David's faith and perseverance have played major roles in his leadership in the NFL, and it's an inspiring story for this broadcast.

Weekend of June 17th

This show begins at the University at Buffalo in front of a live studio audience, with QB Tony Daniel as our guest. Tony explains how the football teams works with Buffalo area children to promote a healthy active life style. Our feature interview is with Lance Leipold, the head football coach at the University at Buffalo. Lance and Adam talk about the importance of Fatherhood and Academics. Lance also shares that he was a Cornea Transplant recipient and promotes Organ Donor Awareness every chance he gets. Other segments include a Life Skills report from K-State and an update on Mental Conditioning from Dr. Rob Bell.

Weekend of June 24th

We begin this show in front of a live studio audience at K-State as we speak to the student athletes about their community service projects. Our feature interview is with Jim Bridge, assistant football coach at Duke University. Jim shares with us his thoughts on fatherhood, family, integrity, character, social media, and more. We finish the show with a report from contributor Peter Bobrinskoy in Chicago as he chats with Josh Hale, the Executive Director of the Big Shoulders Fund, benefiting inner city kids achieve their dreams through access to quality, values-based education.