1. Job Market

5P	NAT/NEWS	10/8/11 1:30
New numbers out show employers added more than 100,000 jobs last month, which isn't enough to dent the nation's high jobless rate. A local college student is so unimpressed with the job situation he decided to travel from Flint, Michigan to join the Occupy Wall Street protest. He is one of an estimated 14 million Americans who are unemployed. Analysts say while the economy is not gaining much momentum, it's at least eased fears of a double-dip recession.

5P	LOC/NEWS	10/14/11 1:30
President Obama took South Korea's president on a tour of a General Motors Plant in Detroit. The visit is designed to promote the new trade deal between the two countries. The agreement gives U.S. automakers a better shot at selling their cars in South Korea.

6P	LOC/NEWS	10/28/11 1:44
Governor Snyder was at the Saginaw Metal Castings Operating in Saginaw to hear General Motors announce new investments and jobs in the area. Auto workers say it's great news for the plant, while the governor says it's proof that the auto industry is making a comeback.

5P	LOC/NEWS	11/2/11 1:43
A project designed to offer affordable homes to low income was in jeopardy over water and sewer hook-ups to the homes. It is now moving forward after Flint City Council voted to give the developer money for the sewer and water connections. The winners are future home owners looking forward to having a home of their own.

11P	LOC/NEWS	11/16/11 1:16
Protestors are out in force, marking the 2-month anniversary of "Occupy" with a "Mass Day of Action." Demonstrations are taking over city streets all across the country, including here in mid-Michigan. The movement does not seem to have a unified message from protestors, just involves people who feel the American Dream is slipping away.

530P	LOC/NEWS	11/22/11 1:36
The Eastside Soup Kitchen is dishing up free lunches today to some folks who have been without jobs for a while. The kitchen handed out more than 600 free turkey dinners, with help from many volunteers.

11P LOC/NEWS 11/26/11 1:30

Another shopping holiday is proving to be as successful as Black Friday. It's called Small Business Saturday, which is a movement aimed at getting people to buy and shop local during the holiday. Shopping at local small stores keeps your dollar in the community and features locally made and unique items and personalized service.

6P LOC/NEWS 11/29/11 1:10

Today civic and business leaders attended a meeting to discuss what to do about two buildings in Saginaw currently used to house low income residents. These residents were given eviction notices and the group's discussion focuses on the future use of the buildings, which are landmarks in the heart of the city of Saginaw.

11P LOC/NEWS 12/4/11 1:31

Christmas is only three weeks away, with shoppers giving a big boost to local vendors gathered in Frankenmuth. The small businesses in this quaint community appreciate all the out-of-town and in-town visitors. Even if visitors don't buy anything, they leave with a little Christmas Spirit provided by Christmas carols and chestnuts roasting over an open fire.

6P NAT/NEWS 12/8/11 1:40

Lawmakers say they've finally come up with a way to save a program to help poor people heat their homes this winter. They had to find a new way to pay for it, after the Court of Appeals struck down the old financing system. Hopefully a temporary solution will be reached before House and Senate members leave for Christmas break, with a permanent resolution determined upon their return in 2012.

6P LOC/NEWS 12/9/11 1:41

With the bankruptcy filing of M F Global, it appears over $1 billion in customer funds are missing with some local farmers and small business owners falling victim. The Federal Government is looking for the money, and hopes to have as much as 70 percent back to customers in the coming weeks.

6P LOC/NEWS 12/26/11 1:46

Hundreds of acres of abandoned auto plant property could soon see new life. The Trust in charge of the old "Buick City" complex in Flint is in talks with some potential buyers. One city council member says those jobs don't necessarily have to be auto-related. The property is currently being offered as two separate parcels.

3. CRIME

5P LOC/NEWS 10/3/11 1:31

Saginaw Police have a suspect in custody in the homicide of a Saginaw man. A 56-year-old man was found dead in a vacant home and police have the neighbor in custody. They are investigating whether or not the body was moved to the vacant home after the victim died.

6P LOC/NEWS 10/20/11 1:15
A judge decides today whether a Buena Vista police officer accused of strangling an 8-month pregnant woman, will head to trial. Fellow officers testified today they initially thought it was a suicide, but the officer was found at the scene and had been out of radio contact with Central Dispatch officers for at least seven minutes. The body was found near a police shooting range, with the incident occurring while the accused officer was on duty.

530P LOC/NEWS 10/20/11 1:30
Three people face charges, accused of stealing copper from power substations across mid-Michigan. Authorities believe the trio hit as many as 30 substations in the last month. The Genesee County Sheriff said a joint investigation was done with Consumers Energy, which led to the three suspects in court today.

5P LOC/NEWS 10/25/11 1:20
For the fifth straight day, police investigate a shooting in Saginaw County. The Buena Vista police are looking into ways to get more community involvement. That will mean training for citizens and educating the public on how they can best work with law enforcement.

6P LOC/NEWS 11/11/11 1:14
A nearby school is put on lock-down today, after two men fired bullets into a local home. With the shooters on the loose, nearby Stone Elementary School went into lockdown. While the home hit with bullets was occupied, no one was hurt. Police continue to search for suspects.

6P LOC/NEWS 11/16/11 1:30
A man's body was found burning in the back seat of a car, near the Bay County-Saginaw County line earlier this week. Three suspects were arrested today in connection with this crime, says the Saginaw County Sheriff. He says a very important tip was received via Crimestoppers that helped aid in a timely arrest.

11P LOC/NEWS 11/19/11 1:30
Victims of a robbery earlier this month believe the thief was returning to steal more. Police arrived at the scene so quickly, the robber was still on the premises. He is now behind bars, with police hoping this sends a message to suspects. This month crime is up in Saginaw compared to last November, but overall for the year, it has been lower than previous years.

6P LOC/NEWS 12/2/11 1:30
Two men are charged with first degree murder for shooting a man visiting his friend on Saginaw's west side one year ago today. Testimony continues today, with the victim's mother present, in court, hoping for justice for her only son.

11P NAT/NEWS 12/9/11 1:28
A campus police officer was shot and killed yesterday at Virginia Tech while performing a routine traffic stop. The gunman walked up to the officer's car and shot him. The school was in lockdown for four hours, which was lifted after a second body was found, which appeared to be that of the shooter. A candlelight vigil was held in honor of the fallen officer.

5P LOC/NEWS 12/13/11 1:54
Police seize almost 150 pounds of marijuana as part of an investigation that led police from Phoenix to Flint's Bishop International Airport. Saginaw Police displayed four large duffel bags, each filled with bricks of marijuana. All four suspects are in the Saginaw County Jail.

4. Politics

11P LOC/NEWS 10/4/11 1:12
Tonight, Genesee County Democratic Black Caucus hosted a mayoral forum, with incumbent Dwayne Walling and Darryl Buchanan each giving their take on how to turn the city around. Many tough decisions being made was a constant theme from the incumbent mayor. Mr. Buchanan insists the City of Flint should demand more of the mayor.

530P NAT/NEWS 10/17/11 1:40
President Obama began a three-day bus tour, which he said was to push for his jobs bill. Many believe he's getting a head start on his re-election campaign. The president wants Congress to pass his jobs package in parts and is traveling to North Carolina and Virginia. Republicans say they hope to sit down and come to an agreement in some areas, once he's off the campaign trail.

6P LOC/NEWS 10/24/11 1:30
A local state representative is attempting to keep his name off a recall ballot in February. So far the recall election has been an on and off battle, but the latest news indicates a judge has ordered the recall of Paul Scott back on the ballot.

6P LOC/NEWS 10/28/11 1:30
Governor Snyder's last stop today was at Rep Paul Scott's headquarters in Grand Blanc. This indicated a show of support for Scott, who is targeted by the largest teachers union in the state for recall. He visited with volunteers and made several phone calls to district voters.

11P LOC/NEWS 11/8/11 1:22
On election night, a few hours before the polls closed in Flint, news was released by the Governor's office that he has agreed with a financial review team the City of Flint's finances are in ruin, and the state will take action. The report outlines many missteps from current and past city administration, and says there is "no satisfactory plan in place to resolve the emergency."

6P LOC/NEWS 11/9/11 1:46
Rep Paul Scott, who heads the state's education committee, was recalled out of office yesterday, the first state lawmaker to be recalled in 28 years. Backers of the recall said Scott was ignoring the desires of the people by enacting cuts to education, taxing pension income and repealing the state's business tax. State representatives say they don't think a recall effort should be used to dismiss a lawmaker for policy decisions.

----	----------	----------	------

The failure of a super committee to reach a compromise on the budget has Congress trying to decide their next step. Lawmakers left town for the holiday, and when they return they will try to reach a budget deal to avoid more than a trillion dollars in automatic spending cuts. The president is vowing to veto any attempt to undo the automatic cuts that start in 2013. Reaching a compromise between Democrats and Republicans is proving difficult as due to differences regarding taxes.

----	----------	---------	------

On his second day as Flint's Emergency Manager, Mike Brown fired seven staffers and eliminated the mayor and city council's paychecks. The City of Flint has a budget deficit of more than $25 million. Brown says the mayor and city council will have a role in his eventual plan for the city.

5P	LOC/NEWS	12/27/11	1:30
----	----------	----------	------

Flint's Emergency Manager is being paid $170,000. Mayor Walling's paycheck has been reinstated to $55,000 and the City Council receives $7,000 annually. Concerns remain on how to reduce the city's budget deficit down to $7 million. A financial reduction plan must be submitted to the state before January 1.

5P	NAT/NEWS	12/30/11	1:30
----	----------	----------	------

There are only four days left before the Iowa Caucus, and that state is being invaded by Republican's vying for the president's job. This past year has been unusual in that political debates appeared to drive the poll numbers, rather than candidate handshakes.

5. Travel/Transportation

11P	NAT/NEWS	10/2/11	1:30
-----	----------	---------	------

The State Department is warning Americans traveling around the world to be on alert. U.S. officials say supporters of an American-born cleric, killed in U.S. military strike in Yemen, could try to avenge his death. The man was linked to the Fort Hood shootings and the failed underwear bombing on Christmas Day in 2009.

6P	LOC/NEWS	10/5/11	1:30
----	----------	---------	------

A frantic call from a pilot over Lake Huron indicated engine trouble and a request to make sure he landed safely. The pilot's plane did malfunction and he tread water 17 hours before he was rescued. The Huron County Sheriff expressed concern over a breakdown in communication between Air Traffic Control operators, which caused the delay in rescue. Warm weather is credited for the man's survival.

530P NAT/NEWS 10/11/11 :20
Consumers and businesses are cutting back on their travel plans, because of the struggling economy. Carriers are seeing ticket sales slump, with analysts saying prices will increase to offset the sluggish demand.

530P NAT/NEWS 10/20/11 :16
Consumers wishing to travel in the near future, may want to lock in their airfares. Delta Airlines is increasing its fares by $60 to $70, with many other major carriers following suit.

6P LOC/NEWS 11/3/11 2:43
A local airline sponsored a contest to announce their new flight additions out of MBS Airport. Two people won non-stop round trip tickets to Orlando Florida from MBS. It is part of an effort to market MBS as a convenient alternative to other airports.

6P LOC/NEWS 11/16/11 1:10
A small aircraft crash landed at Flint Bishop International Airport today, injuring all four on board. One engine quit on the Piaggio, a two-engine aircraft, and upon landing the plane flipped over. Those onboard, while injured, were able to walk away from the incident, but were taken to an area hospital to address their injuries.

530P NAT/NEWS 11/18/11 :21
Hundreds of passengers traveling from India to England were stranded for 6 hours in Vienna when their Com-Tel Airline flight stopped for fuel. The Charter service asked the passengers to kick in more than $31,000 for gas, even letting them off the plan so they could access an ATM.

6P LOC/NEWS 11/22/11 :29
Gas prices are way down before the holiday weekend--hovering near $3/gallon. People filling their tanks hope they continue at this price, and not let the holiday travel cause them to jump.

530P LOC/NEWS 12/5/11 1:32
Weather may have played a part in a plane crash in a wooded area 8 miles north of the Mackinac Bridge. A local pilot and one passenger were killed in the incident. The emergency beacon inside the plane did not trigger right away, delaying rescue efforts from locating the wreckage. Dense fog and rain may have factored into the plane going down.

6P NAT/NEWS 12/17/11 :18
More Americans plan to travel this holiday season AAA estimates close to 92 million people will travel 50 miles or more. That's the second highest rate in the past ten years, and a 1 percent jump from last year.

530P LOC/NEWS 12/22/11 :37
The Christmas weekend is one of the busiest weekends of the year for air travelers. Things have been moving smoothly all day, with all flights on time. Allow for extra time to check in if you're headed to Detroit Metro Airport, as it's one of the 10 busiest airports in the country.

6. Green/Energy Conservation

5P LOC/NEWS 10/17/11 :17
In Midland today, Dow Chemical is having an open house to show off its new solar shingle plant. The shingles will be on sale in 12 states by the end of the year. The new factory is expected to create more than 1,200 jobs by 2015.

6P LOC/NEWS 10/19/11 1:30
Today the Chevrolet Green Educator Award was handed out, along with keys to one of its "greenest" cars—the Chevy Volt. The car is a bonus to the Chevrolet Green Educator Award, focusing on environmental education. A Beecher Biology Teacher received the award and car.

6P LOC/NEWS 11/8/11 1:32
Plans are moving forward to create a solar technology park in Thomas Township, located in Saginaw County. Today a construction crew works on a new water storage tank so water and sewer lines along with new roads and lights, can be installed into the unfinished park. Developers hope to attract solar companies from around the world to the park.

6P LOC/NEWS 11/11/11 1:34
Ground is broken today on a new water storage tank, with roads and street lights to follow in the state's first solar technology park. The park has the capacity to house up to five solar companies and is located about a mile away from the Hemlock Semiconductor plant.

6P LOC/NEWS 11/23/11 1:09
M-DOT officials cut ribbons today on a brand new electric vehicle charging station located in Grand Blanc Township. If you have an electric car, you swipe your plastic charging card and use the device at no cost to the customer. To fully charge a vehicle takes an amount of electricity comparable to using a blow dryer. This is the third installation of its kind in the state.

11P LOC/NEWS 11/28/11 1:30
Tonight, local residents of Blumfield and Nextera Townships lodged complaints against a wind farm earmarked for their township. Opponents consider the multi-million dollar wind farm project to be a health risk, but others see a great deal of "green" coming from the deal. Township officials decided to consult with an independent third party regarding the project.

11P LOC/NEWS 12/12/11 1:30
Residents in Gilford Township voiced concerns over a proposed multi-million dollar wind farm project earmarked for their township. Some residents believe township officials will benefit financially from the location of this wind farm. Opponents of the project do not feel it is needed in their community while proponents consider it a very good source of renewable energy.

5P	LOC/NEWS	12/13/11	1:30
----	----------	----------	------

The State of Michigan issued tax credits to Suniva, a solar cell manufacturing, which relieved the Thomas Township manager. If all goes well, the company hopes to build in the new solar technology park currently under construction in Thomas Township. Tax credit approval is one more step towards that goal. The company hopes to break ground by 2013.

-----	----------	----------	------

The solar panel company, Global Watt, faces eviction from its headquarters. An investor of the company said he became suspicious when he didn't receive specific orders for solar panels, and stopped the processing of a check for $100,000 written to the company. The I-team has learned other investors have put hundreds of thousands of dollars into Global Watt, but it is unknown where that money is now.

6P	LOC/NEWS	12/28/11	1:30
----	----------	----------	------

In a note to shareholders, Global Watt states it will relocate manufacturing to Copemish, Michigan and expand a partnership in Hudsonville, Michigan. The CEO says Saginaw operations stalled due to the economy and overseas markets. A state spokesperson says Global Watt never received any tax credits because it didn't create the required number of jobs.

7. Weather

6P	LOC/NEWS	10/5/11	1:30
----	----------	---------	------

A frantic call from a pilot over Lake Huron indicated engine trouble and a request to make sure he landed safely. The pilot's plane did malfunction and he tread water 17 hours before he was rescued. The Huron County Sheriff expressed concern over a breakdown in communication between Air Traffic Control operators, which caused the delay in rescue. Warm weather is credited for the man's survival.

11P	LOC/NEWS	10/19/11	1:30
-----	----------	----------	------

Tonight, strong winds are to blame for a number of road closings and power outages. This evening those same strong winds are pushing Lake Huron waters closer to homes along the shoreline of the Killarney Beach area in Bay County. Some beach dwellers do not have flood insurance and can only hope the storm does not worsen.

6P	LOC/NEWS	10/20/11	1:34
----	----------	----------	------

High winds from yesterday's storm blew some of the new tiles off of the roof of the historic Bay City Hall. Most of the tiles fell next to the building. The City Clerk says repairs won't cost the city anything, as the tiles are still under warranty.

11P LOC/NEWS 10/20/11 1:30P
Saginaw City Hall experienced water damage from rain driven inside by yesterday’s strong wind storm. Access to one of the stairways has been closed off, due to rain leaking in from the ceiling, and the elevator is currently out of service.

530P LOC/NEWS 11/23/11 1:30
Black ice brought dozens of accidents to travelers on the busiest travel days of the year. The slippery road conditions caused scattered accidents all across the mid-Michigan area, including one that shut down a portion of Gratiot Road for more than two hours. Drivers say it is important to slow down when roads are slick.

11P LOC/NEWS 11/27/11 :21
The Michigan sugar beet harvest didn’t top last year’s crop, but growers are satisfied. All the rain caused some growers to be hit with additional cleaning fees. Michigan Sugar says it harvested nearly 4 million tons of beets this year.

530P LOC/NEWS 11/29/11 1:30
With snow weather in the forecast, area road commissions take no chances. Trucks are loaded with salt and prepared to clear snow. Due to budget cuts, there are fewer drivers to take care of the county roads. The Road Commission began using liquid brine last year to keep roads safe, and the new product has proved effective.

11P LOC/NEWS 11/29/11 1:10
Heavy wet snow has caused many area residents to be without power this evening. Consumers won’t have an estimated restoration time until after the storm passes.

530P LOC/NEWS 12/5/11 1:32
Weather may have played a part in a plane crash in a wooded area 8 miles north of the Mackinac Bridge. A local pilot and one passenger were killed in the incident. The emergency beacon inside the plane did not trigger right away, delaying rescue efforts from locating the wreckage. Dense fog and rain may have factored into the plane going down.

530P NAT/NEWS 12/20/11 1:30
A dangerous combination of powerful winds and white-out conditions have lead to fatal road accidents and paralyzed traffic in five southwestern states. Stranded cars piled up as quickly as the snow, which dumped nearly a foot, closing highways. Strong winds limited visibility.

5P NAT/NEWS 12/22/11 :18
Tonight thousands of people are stranded, waiting for their flights in Denver. That city is getting hit with nearly 9 inches of snow, with another 3 inches expected by tomorrow morning.

6P LOC/NEWS 12/27/11 2:03
The Midland Road Commission is trying a brine/salt combination for treating slippery roads. It is supposed to use less salt, and work quicker, limiting icy conditions. If too much snow builds up, the brine combination also makes for easier snow removal. Crews will be out early making the drive to work as safe as possible.

8. Veterans/Military

6P LOC/NEWS 10/3/11 1:42
A Marine from Davison was on his fifth deployment to Afghanistan, when was killed last week. His family says he was scheduled home in two weeks, and now that homecoming will have a different feel to it. The Marine leaves behind a wife and daughter, with a new baby expected in three weeks.

5P NAT/NEWS 10/8/11 1:30
The 10th anniversary of the war in Afghanistan brings changes. Nearly 1,800 Americans have died in that war with soldiers still fighting insurgents for control of the country. Some Afghan women say they're grateful to America for freeing them for Taliban rule. But the Taliban is leading an insurgency determined to derail U.S. plans to stabilize the country.

5P NAT/NEWS 10/18/11 1:30
An Israeli soldier is finally home after five years as a Palestinian prisoner. A convoy carried the man back through cheering crowds to his hometown in northern Israel. Israel is freeing a thousand Palestinian prisoners in exchange for the man's release.

5P NAT/NEWS 10/21/11 1:15
President Obama announces the impending end of the nearly nine year war in Iraq. Over the next two months, U.S. troops will pack up their gear, and board convoys for the journey home. The announcement comes more than eight years after then-President Bush stood under a "mission accomplished" banner. President Obama says the U.S. will continue to discuss how it might help Iraq train its forces.

5P LOC/NEWS 11/11/11 1:47

48 HOURS MYSTERY

12/03/11

48 HOURS MYSTERY: LIVE TO TELL: "Hunting Humans" (9:00-10:00p) - On July 29, 2007 Shea McDonough of Chelmsford, Massachusetts, returned home and left the back door open for her brother, not knowing he was spending the night at a friend's house. Hours later, her parents were startled by a sound coming from her room. They thought Shea was having a bad dream. When her father Kevin went to her room to check on her, he saw a large masked man standing over her with a knife at her throat. He jumped on top of him and they struggled and tumbled to the floor. His wife Jeannie came to the room and tried to grab the blade of the knife with her bare hand. Kevin told Shea to call 911. When the police arrived they were able to apprehend the intruder, Adam Leroy Lane, a trucker from North Carolina. A search of his truck revealed more weapons and a DVD about a serial killer, entitled "Hunting Humans". Police put out an APB to other police departments on the East Coast to see if there were similar incidents. Seventeen days before the attack on the McDonough family, a Pennsylvania woman, Darlene Ewalt, was murdered while talking on the phone on her front porch. Her husband Todd would become the prime suspect. One day before the attack on the McDonough family, Monica Massaro of Bloomsbury, New Jersey was murdered in her home, which was in the vicinity of a truck stop. Detective Sergeant Geoff Noble had seen the APB about Lane and contacted the police in Chelmsford. They told him they had found a receipt in Lane's truck from Bloomsbury, New Jersey. When Noble arrived in Chelmsford, he and his team inquired about the whereabouts of Lane's truck and were told that the rented truck had been returned to its owner, who threw Lane's possessions into a dumpster. They retrieved his personal property and sent it back to their forensic lab in New Jersey. Before they returned home, they questioned Lane, who realized they knew he had killed Monica Massaro so he eventually confessed to stabbing her. Several weeks after his knives were submitted to the forensic lab in New Jersey, the results showed that they contained DNA from Monica Massaro and Darlene Ewalt. This information exonerated Todd Ewalt. Lane reached a plea bargain in the McDonough case and was sentenced to 25-30 years in a Massachusetts state prison. For the murder of Monica Massaro, he was sentenced to serve 50 years in a New Jersey state prison. As part of another guilty plea deal, Lane was sentenced to life in prison for killing Darlene Ewalt. The McDonough family attended all of the sentencing hearings to support the other families. Jeannie McDonough wanted to know what would make someone like Lane start killing people and decided to write a book about it. Onscreen graphics: Adam Leroy Lane was convicted of assaulting another woman in Pennsylvania. He will spend the rest of his life in prison. Jeannie finished her book, "Caught in the Act". Narrated by: Shea, Jeannie and Kevin McDonough; Detective George Tyros of the Chelmsford Police Department; Todd Ewalt; Ed Marsico, Jr., District Attorney from Pennsylvania; Nicole Pogasic, Todd and Darlene Ewalt's daughter; Kerry Ahern, Assistant District Attorney from Massachusetts; Detective Sergeant Geoff Noble of the New Jersey State Police Department. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

12/03/11

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Secrets of a Marriage" (10:00-11:00p) - a report on questions surrounding the apparent suicide of Jocelyn Earnest, a successful businesswoman who was found dead in her Forest, Virginia home in December 2007, from a gunshot wound to her head -- with a revolver by her side and a suicide note on the floor. Investigators believe that the scene was set up: she was shot, her body was then moved and the scene arranged to suggest a sexual assault. Also, the note mentioned financial problems and a new love. To the investigators, it did not seem like a suicide note. They also found two fingerprints on the note they say matched those of her estranged husband Wesley Earnest, who was living and working in Chesapeake, Virginia -- more than three hours away. Jocelyn and Wesley Earnest met and married in 1995. With both making good salaries, they decided to build a multi-million dollar vacation getaway home on Smith Mountain Lake; but soon after, the couple's nine-year marriage was crumbling. Wesley was seeing another woman, Shameka Wright. When Jocelyn learned about Shameka Wright, she and Wesley separated and she filed for divorce. As the divorce proceedings started, it was the lake house they fought over: she wanted it sold. Investigators say he didn't want to let it go. In fact, Wesley, who was in charge of the couple's finances, was in a fix with loans, credit card debt and a more than $6000-a-month mortgage on the lake house. Investigators thought Wesley Earnest had killed Jocelyn for money. Fifteen months after the death, another bizarre twist occurred in this case: the multi-million dollar lake house burned to the ground while Wesley Earnest was out on bond awaiting trial. Investigators believed he was involved because the huge insurance payoff would resolve a lot of debt. At his April 2010 trial, the prosecution painted Earnest as a manipulative, desperate, greedy man who staged the murder scene and typed the suicide note himself. The jury found him guilty, but a mistrial was declared when it was revealed that jurors had read Jocelyn's journals, which had been ruled inadmissible, but were mistakenly provided to the jury. Seven months later, and more than two-and-a-half years after Jocelyn Earnest's death, another trial began. Once again, Wesley Earnest was found guilty of first-degree murder. The jury recommended a sentence of life in prison plus three years. The judge agreed. Onscreen text graphic: Wesley Earnest's first appeal was denied. Earnest and Shameka Wright have ended their relationship. Included interviews with: Wesley Earnest; his mother Patricia Wimmer; his girlfriend Shameka Wright; Jocelyn Earnest's sister Laura Rogers, mother Joyce Young and father Bill Branham; Marcy Shepherd, close friend of Jocelyn's; investigators Mike Mayhew and Gary Babb; Joey Sanzone, defense lawyer; prosecutors Wes Nance and Randy Krantz; Wesley Earnest's friends Tim McGovern, Sonya Stevens; Jocelyn Earnest's friend Jennifer Kerns. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: LIVE TO TELL: "Three Days Before Christmas" - the story of sisters Linae and Tricia Tiede who in December 1990, were held hostage by two men -- Von Lester Taylor and Edward Steven Deli. Taylor and Deli invaded the family cabin in Oakley, Utah and shot their mother, father and grandmother. The sisters owe their lives to their quick-thinking uncle, Randy Zorn, and their heroic father, Rolf, whose fierce determination gave him the super-human strength needed to ignore his own pain and save his daughters. The Tiede family had gone to spend Christmas at the family cabin. Sisters Linae and Tricia Tiede, only twenty and sixteen years old respectively, were forced to witness the murders of their mother and grandmother. They also planned to burn down the home and take the sisters hostage. The sisters drove the men on snowmobiles past their Uncle Randy, who realized something was dreadfully wrong. His brother, Rolf, though wounded, was somehow able to get on a snowmobile and alert Randy as to what had happened and Randy called 911. The police caught Taylor and Deli and rescued the girls. Taylor and Deli were charged with the murders, aggravated kidnapping, arson and the high-speed chase. Taylor eventually pled guilty to two counts of capital murder. He opted to go before a jury instead of a judge, and was sentenced to death for the two murders. Deli went to trial. The sisters testified at the trial, as did their father, whom Deli had not realized had survived. Deli was convicted of second degree murder, with no option for the death penalty because of a jury member holdout. Today, the family continues to return to the cabin, enjoying their life there. In November 2008, Rolf Tiede died from cancer. On screen text graphic: Von Lester Taylor, sentenced to death for two murders, has been fighting for his own life ever since. He remains on death row, appealing his case. Included interviews with sisters Linae Tiede and Tricia Tiede; their uncle, Randy Zorn; Joseph Offert, lead investigator; Brad Wilde, patrol deputy; their aunt, Claudia Tidwell Nelson; Thomas Brunner, assistant attorney general; Nathan Coats, Linae's husband. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

- 12/17/11 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Long Island Serial Killer" - a followup report on the disappearance of professional escort Shannan Gilbert, near Gilgo Beach, New York. The search for Shannan led to the discovery of a total of ten bodies in the scrub brush of Gilgo Beach, Long Island, New York, leading police to suspect the work of a serial killer. In this report, Suffolk County Police Commissioner Richard Dormer appears in his first one-on-one interview with Correspondent Erin Moriarty since remains identified as Shannan's were found this week. The other identified bodies included: Melissa Barthelemy, Amber Costello, Megan Waterman, and Maureen Brainard-Barnes, all who had been working as escorts, advertising their services on Craigslist. After police found and identified the previous four women, they discovered more bodies and body parts along the beach. Possible suspects include: Joseph Brewer, who hired Shannan; Michael Pak, Shannan's driver, who took her to Brewer's house; and Peter Hackett, a retired emergency services doctor who called Shannan's mother a few days after she went missing. Interviewed: Sherre and Sarra Gilbert, Shannan's sisters; Suffolk County Police Commissioner Richard Dormer (new and original footage); Attorney Robin Sax who was hired by the Gilbert family to help with the investigation of Shannan's disappearance; Gus Colletti, whose house Shannan ran to for help, resident of Oak Beach and neighbor of Joseph Brewer; Lynn Barthelemy, Melissa's mother; Steven Cohen, the Barthelemy family attorney; Vernon Geberth, retired New York City homicide commander; Dave Schaller, Amber Costello's roommate; Lorraine Ela, Megan Waterman's mother; and Melissa Cann, Maureen Brainard-Barnes' sister. (Andrew Strickler, a crime reporter with Long Island's Newsday, who had appeared in the original 07/12/11 broadcast, did not appear in the 12/17/11 rebroadcast.) Onscreen graphics: Suffolk County Crime Stoppers is offering a cash reward of up to $25,000 for information leading to an arrest in the Long Island Serial Killer case. - 12/24/11 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Drawn To Murder" (9:00-11:00p) - a report on the February 1987 murder of 37-year-old Peggy Hettrick in Fort Collins, Colorado. Her mutilated, half naked body was discovered in a field near the home of Tim Masters, a 15-year-old who lived near the crime scene. He said he had seen the body on his way to school but, thinking it was a mannequin, he did not report it to the police. He then became a suspect when police searched his home and found his collection of knives and his drawings of graphic images of murder and mutilation. Under interrogation, he adamantly denied any knowledge of the murder -- and since police had no actual evidence linking him to the crime, he was not arrested. Ten years later, prompted by the opinions of Dr. Reid Meloy, an expert on sexual homicide, the police did arrest Masters for the murder. He was put on trial, convicted and went to prison in 1999, sentenced to life without parole. After losing two appeals, he appealed again, claiming ineffective counsel. His defense team then uncovered important items of evidence never given to Masters' original lawyers, although they had been entitled to them. This included, among other things, questions surrounding Dr. Richard Hammond, a prominent eye surgeon who also lived near the crime scene and who had been arrested for voyeurism. And now, for the first time, DNA tests were done on Peggy Hettrick's clothing. These tests found no DNA of Tim Masters, but did find that of Hettrick's ex-boyfriend, Matt Zoellner, and that of two other males. Tim Masters' conviction and sentence were vacated, and he was released from prison after more than nine years. Updated concluding text graphic for this 12/24/11 rebroadcast: Tim Masters was exonerated in June by the Colorado Attorney General. He has received $10 million in settlements for wrongful imprisonment. Jim Broderick is under indictment for perjury in the case. (C: Susan Spencer - P: Joshua Yager, Marc B. CBS RELIGIOUS AND CULTURAL SPECIALS

- 12/04/11 “Finding Common Ground” - a report focusing on how the interfaith movement has evolved over the years and become more mainstream, especially since the 9/11 terrorist attacks. Examples include: (1) The work of the Chicago, Illinois based “Council for a Parliament of the World’s Religions”, which hosts the world’s largest interreligious gathering. Meeting every five years in a different part of the world, people of every faith are invited to share their religious identities and dialogue, as well as voice their hopes and concerns for the future. (2) The “Interfaith Youth Core” (IFYC), a nonprofit organization based in Chicago, focuses on the notion that the most powerful common ground between all faith traditions is the inspiration to serve others. IFYC works with college students as a means to thwart religious extremism and encourage interfaith understanding and leadership. In addition, IFYC advised and partnered with the White House on the “President’s Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge”. (3) The work of the student interfaith leaders of Albright College, a private liberal arts school in Reading, PA. Participating in President Obama’s challenge, students apply what is achieved on campus to the larger community. (4) The leaders of the religious community in Reading, which has the largest share of residents living in poverty per capita, have come together in order to help alleviate the symptoms of poverty in their community. This partnership has reinforced the belief in the need for interreligious dialogue and cooperation at the local level. Includes interviews with: Reverend Dirk Ficca, “The Council for a Parliament of the World’s Religions”; Dr. Eboo Patel, Founder and President, “Interfaith Youth Core” (IFYC); Sharon Parker, Executive Director, “Berks Coalition to End Homelessness”; Michael Kaucher, “Reading Berks Conference of Churches”; Ann Marie Wallace, “New Journey Methodist Church”; Barbara Rosenzweig, “Reform Congregation of Oheb Sholom”; Rabbi Brian Michelson, “Reform Congregation of Oheb Sholom”; and El Sayed Elmarzouky, “Islamic Center of Reading and Berks County”. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

- 10/08/11 48 HOURS MYSTERY: “Playing with Fire” (9:00-10:00p) - In the early morning hours of September 2, 2002, two young men were found executed in a burning Mercedes SUV in an upscale North Hollywood, California neighborhood. The victims were Michael Tardio, 35, a part-time model and doorman at The Garden of Eden – at the time Hollywood’s hottest nightclub – and his friend, 31-year-old Christopher Monson. What initially looked like a drug or gang-related murder, turned out to be something entirely different, but the crime scene left little forensic evidence to go on. Retired veteran Los Angeles Police Department Detective Bill Cox, who spent four years on the case learned that Tardio’s girlfriend was Sandy Bentley, who along with her twin sister, was a former live-in girlfriend of Hugh Hefner at the Playboy Mansion. She was also an ex-girlfriend of Mark Yagalla, a former Wall Street hedge fund manager who was convicted of running a multi-million dollar Ponzi scheme. During her relationship with Yagalla, he gave her more than $6 million worth of expensive gifts. When federal officials came after these gifts, Bentley secretly kept $1 million worth of jewels and furs she was legally required to forfeit. Police believe that Tardio and Monson were murdered when Tardio set up a deal to sell the jewelry to an unidentified buyer. When Bentley was questioned by police, she initially denied the fact that Tardio and Monson were selling the jewelry. When threatened with a possible jail sentence, she told them the truth. The strongest lead police had was a telephone number Tardio gave to Bentley for Michael Jacobs, a convicted felon who was seen with Tardio at the Garden of Eden. Police believe he was the middle man in the jewelry transaction and the only person who knows the identity of the intended buyer, known only as “Mister Big”. Jacobs has refused to give any information to the police or 48 HOURS. Authorities are hoping that viewers of this broadcast may provide a new lead that could help them in solving the case. Interviewed: Retired LAPD Detective Bill Cox; Andrew Blankstein of the Los Angeles Times; Izabella St. James, former girlfriend of Hugh Hefner; Mark Yagalla; Brian Bieber, Yagalla’s lawyer; Michelle Braun, Internet madam; Mike Degnan, FBI Special Agent; Attorney Eugene Licker; Linda Kim, jewelry collector and international weapons broker; Chris O’Connell, 48 HOURS investigative producer. Onscreen graphics: The Los Angeles City Council has renewed a $75,000 reward for information leading to a conviction in this case. - 10/08/11 48 HOURS MYSTERY: “Amanda Knox: The Untold Story” (10:00-11:00p) - a followup to “A Long Way From Home” (OAD: 04/12/08) and “American Girl: Italian Nightmare” (OAD: 04/11/09), the story of Amanda Knox, an American exchange student who was convicted, along with her Italian boyfriend, Raffaele Sollecito, of murdering Amanda’s British roommate, Meredith Kercher in 2007. On Monday (10/03), Knox and Sollecito had their convictions overturned and were acquitted. This report details the manipulation and sexual intimidation Amanda endured while behind bars, in her own words, from a letter she wrote. Also included, are exclusive video diaries, collected over the course of ten months, from Madison Paxton, Amanda’s best friend, who moved to Italy to support her friend. Interviewed: Madison Paxton (friend); Bob Graham (investigative journalist/CBS News Consultant); Curt Knox (Knox’s father); Edda Ellis (Knox’s mother); Nina Burleigh (author, investigating the case). (See also: “A Long Way From Home” (OAD: 04/12/08); “American Girl, Italian Nightmare” (OAD: 04/11/09), which was a followup to “A Long Way From Home”; and “American Girl, Italian Murder: The Verdict” (OAD: 12/05/09), a followup to both “American Girl, Italian Nightmare” and “A Long Way From Home”). 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

- 10/15/11 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Redemption Song" - a report on the 1985 death of Natalie Antonetti, a woman who was part of the Austin, Texas music community. She was found beaten at home by her son, Johnny Goodie, and remained in a coma for two weeks before she died. The police investigation at the time focused on Marty Odem, a restaurant manager and sometime male stripper, who had a track record of violence. Police just did not have enough to go on, and he was never charged. He was later convicted of an unrelated rape and sent to prison; police then considered the case closed. In 2007, Austin Police Detective Tom Walsh reopened the cold case when an anonymous call came in naming Dennis Davis, a well-known name in the Austin music scene as a suspect. Davis had dated Antonetti, and at the time had what seemed like a solid alibi. But now, his wife, Becki Davis, was the one who called the police. Detective Walsh has found several women who have become key players in the investigation: Davis' then-girlfriend Ampour Garcia-Crow is certain he was not with her on the night in question; Linda Bless, who has seen his anger; and an ex-girlfriend Gelinda, who says that Dennis Davis confessed the murder to her. In 2009, 24 years after the murder, Davis was arrested. In April 2011, the case went to trial. Though the prosecution's case was largely circumstantial, they had the phone call that started it all. Dennis Davis was found guilty of the murder. At the sentencing hearing there was another shock: Becki and Dennis Davis had reconciled. He was sentenced to 36 years behind bars. The defense team still insisted they had a solid rebuttal but were unable to present their case. On screen graphic: Dennis Davis will be eligible for parole in 2028. He will be 78. He is appealing the verdict. Included interviews with: Natalie Antonetti's son and musician Johnny Goodie; Mark Pryor, Austin Assistant District Attorney; Mark Hallman, Antonetti's friend; Austin Police Detective Tom Walsh; Dennis Davis, the suspect; Davis' former girlfriends, Amparo Garcia-Crow and Linda Bless; defense attorneys Wade Russell, Efrain De La Fuente. (C: Tracy Smith - P: Chuck Stevenson, Sarah Prior)
- 10/22/11 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Killing Fields" - a report about a desolate strip of land between Houston and Galveston where over 30 young women and girls have disappeared or have been murdered, and a followup to "Killer in Friendswood" (OAD: 05/01/97), which detailed the disappearance and death of 12-year-old Laura Smither. With this weekend's release of a film entitled "The Texas Killing Fields", attention has been rekindled about some of the cases, including the story of Krystal Baker. In 1996, Baker, whose great-aunt was movie star Marilyn Monroe, disappeared from Texas City and was found two weeks later near the Louisiana border, beaten to death and sexually assaulted. In 1997, Laura Smither went out to jog and disappeared and her body was found weeks later. When another young woman disappeared, the Smithers joined the search, as did Tim Miller, whose daughter, Laura Miller, was kidnaped and murdered when she was sixteen. Laura was one of four young women murdered and dumped along a remote area that earned the name "the killing fields". Journalist Skip Hollandsworth chronicled the case for Texas Monthly, in which a brilliant scientist, Robert Abel, became a suspect, but police could never find a connection. Police detectives Brian Goetschius and Michael Land are investigating, but as Hollandsworth says, it's clear that it has been various men who have done different things to these women, not one serial killer. As the movie is released, there is the reality that many of these cases remain unsolved. The actors hope that the film will help make a difference. Just after the film wrapped, a big break came up in the Krystal Baker case: DNA was submitted to a nationwide computer data bank, and a Louisiana man, Kevin Edison Smith, arrested on a drug charge, came back as a match. He has been charged with murder and will go on trial in December. The Smithers don't have DNA evidence, but they believe they know who killed their daughter: William Reece, the prime suspect in another case. Motivated by his loss, Tim Miller founded the rescue group Equusearch, which over the years, has helped look for missing people and located scores of bodies. For now, the killings seem to have stopped: no new cases of murder have arisen. Included interviews with: journalist Skip Hollandsworth; screenwriter Don Ferrarone, actor Sam Worthington; investigators Brian Goetschius and Michael Land; Jeanie Baker, mother of victim Krystal Baker; Bob and Gay Smither, parents of victim Laura Smither; Tim Miller, father of victim Laura Miller. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

10/29/11

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Murder In The OC" - A report on the 1994 murder of millionaire businessman Bill McLaughlin in his Newport Beach, California home. After his divorce, McLaughlin, a devoted father and family man became involved with the much-younger Nanette Johnston, who it was later discovered, made a habit of seeking out wealthy men to date. Following the murder, police initially considered a business associate, but then focused their investigation closer to home. His ex-wife and daughters had airtight alibis. Nanette Johnston's alibi did not exactly check out: she had been at her son's soccer game with another man, Eric Naposki. McLaughlin's family, when asked, knew nothing about him, but police referred to him as Nanette's boyfriend. In his first on-camera interview regarding the case, Naposki, once a professional football player for the NFL, says that Nanette Johnston was his girlfriend in 1994, and he had his own plans of marrying her. He says that Johnston told him that McLaughlin was once her boss but had become her business partner and that there was no romantic relationship -- she had led him to believe that McLaughlin's money was her own. Though he was a suspect, police never had enough to bring the case to trial. Nanette was charged with theft, pleaded guilty, served some time, and then married and divorced several very wealthy men. Naposki moved on with his life; moving to the East Coast and becoming a personal trainer. In 2009, police called the McLaughlin family and told them they had arrested Nanette Johnson Packard McNeill and Eric Naposki for the murder. According to Naposki, the only person to profit from McLaughlin's murder was Nanette. With no fingerprints or DNA, Orange County Deputy District Attorney Matt Murphy had no problem with Naposki's attorneys blaming Johnston, but still believes Naposki pulled the trigger. After four weeks of trial, the jury convicted Naposki of murder. On screen text graphic: Nanette Johnston sued the McLaughlin family soon after his murder for money she felt she was entitled to. They settled for $220,000. Eric Naposki's lawyers have filed to overturn his conviction. They argue favorable evidence was lost because prosecutors waited so long to file charges. Included interviews with: daughters Jenny McLaughlin and Kim McLaughlin; brother Patrick McLaughlin; Don Kalal, McLaughlin's best friend; lead detective Tom Voth; Eric Naposki; Angela Licata, Naposki's sister; Angelo McDonald, defense attorney. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

11/12/11

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Pvt. Needham's War" - a report on the case of Pvt. John Needham, a decorated soldier diagnosed with traumatic brain injury (TBI) and post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), and who investigators say beat his 19-year-old girlfriend Jacque Villagomez to death with his bare hands in September 2008. Needham took responsibility for the murder, but remembered little of the crime, recognizing only that something inside him had snapped. After serving in Iraq, Needham had returned home, shattered physically and emotionally. He also suffered from combat injuries and was prescribed drugs which he downed with alcohol. He had known Villagomez, who had also struggled on and off with drug addiction, for only a few months when she moved in with him; his drinking escalated after that. After his father, Mike Needham Sr., told Jacque that she had to move out and she had agreed, an old girlfriend, Renee Stoner, came to the house, which upset Villagomez. An argument between the two women broke out, resulting in Stoner's departure and a call to 911. When police arrived, they found Jacque Villagomez battered and near death, with John Needham naked, crying, and smeared in blood. There was no evidence that anything other than Needham's fists were used to beat Villagomez and he was never able to provide a clear explanation for the killing. Released on bail, his father sought to get his son the care he believed he needed and insisted that the crime was not murder. The father argued that if not for Needham's war injuries, Villagomez would be alive today. To make his case, Mike Needham Sr. allowed investigative reporter Michael de Yoanna and a team of filmmakers to document the unraveling of his son's life. Before his trial, John visited his mother in Tucson, AZ in 2010 for additional back surgery. His brother, Mike Needham Jr., came to visit from California. Shortly after his arrival, Mike found his brother unresponsive -- he was dead at the age twenty-six. His death was determined to be from an overdose of painkillers, but the question remains as to whether it was an accident or suicide. The prosecutors in the Villagomez case says that John Needham may have been a good soldier, but that he needed to be held accountable for what he did. On screen text graphic: 48 Hours Mystery reached out repeatedly to the Army for a response to John Needham's story. The Army declined to comment. Interviewed are: Villagomez's close friends Sarah and Spencer Savino; Mike Needham, Sr. (father) and Mike Needham, Jr. (brother); Joe Gaul, Orange County homicide detective; Michael de Yoanna, investigative journalist and CBS News consultant; Dr. Richard Friedman, Professor of Psychiatry, Weill Cornell Medical College; Michael Becker, public defender; Steve McGreevy, Orange County prosecutor. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

11/19/11

48 HOURS SPECIAL PRESENTATION: "Vanity Fair: Hollywood Scandal" - a trio of investigations presented by staff writers of Vanity Fair magazine. 1) "Natalie Wood's Fatal Voyage" - Sam Kashner reports on the just re-opened case of actress Natalie Wood's death by drowning. This past weekend, after thirty years of rumors, the Los Angeles police department has re-opened the investigation. On Thanksgiving weekend in 1981, Natalie Wood, her husband Robert Wagner and Christopher Walken, her co-star in her latest film, were boating off of the coast of Catalina Island, on Wagner's vessel, the Splendour. Hours later, Wood's body was found floating in the Pacific Ocean. An investigation found no suggestion of foul play and it was ruled an accidental drowning. Now, based on new information, the police have re-opened the case. Interviewed are: Dennis Davern, the captain of the boat, who now admits that he lied to police about that night; Marti Rulli, a longtime friend of Davern's who has spent thirty years investigating the death; Mart Crowley, a close personal friend of Natalie Wood and Robert Wagner; Marilyn Wayne, who was on a nearby boat that night; Detective Duane Rasure, the original investigator on the case. In a written statement, the Wagner family says that it supports the investigation and trust the new information will be judged on the credibility of the source. 2) "The Gangster and The Goddess" - Patricia Bosworth reports on the 1958 stabbing death of gangster Johnny Stompanato. Actress Lana Turner was a much-married, Academy Award-nominated actress who became involved with Stompanato, not knowing he was gangster Mickey Cohen's bodyguard. She tried to break off the relationship, and during an argument between the two at her Beverly Hills home, he was stabbed to death by her daughter Cheryl Crane. Crane was charged with murder, put on trial and the event was eventually ruled a justifiable homicide. Turner continued her career and died at age 75, though many still believe that Turner was the one who did the stabbing. Today, Cheryl Crane writes murder mysteries. Interviewed are: Cheryl Crane, Turner's daughter; Hollywood producer George Schlatter; John Ibrahim, the son of Johnny Stompanato, who doubts the official account of the crime; Eric Root, hairdresser to the stars, who says that Turner admitted to him that she did it. 3) "The Miranda Obsession" - Brian Burrough reports on Miranda Grosvenor, a woman who for the past forty years was known to have befriended, over the telephone, dozens of Hollywood actors, directors, rock stars and politicians. Self-described as a leggy, beautiful blonde, she was viewed as something of a muse to many of these powerful men. Writer Buck Henry was one of those who became a friend, and after a time he realized she was misrepresenting herself. Music producer Richard Perry became obsessed with her and demanded to meet her. When he did, in a darkened hotel room in New York City, it was clear she was not the person she was presented herself to be. He soon ended the relationship. Whoever she was, she was not a stalker -- she just called people on the phone and developed ongoing telephone relationships. For the first time since Burrough located her twelve years ago, she agreed to an interview, with the understanding that her real name not be revealed. Featured are interviews with Buck Henry; Richard Perry; and Miranda Grosvenor. Special correspondents for this 48 HOURS SPECIAL PRESENTATION: Sam Kashner, author, "Natalie Wood's Fatal Voyage", Vanity Fair; Patricia Bosworth, author, "The Gangster and The Goddess", Vanity Fair; and Bryan Burrough, author, "The Miranda Obsession", Vanity Fair. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

11/26/11

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Murder at the Manor" - a report about Harold "H" Landry, a self-made Cajun millionaire who left behind his life in Louisiana to pursue an international romance with a British woman he met online and how this seemingly perfect relationship ended when Lucy Landry was murdered at their home in February 2010. Landry confessed to stabbing his wife to death. Landry, or "H", as he is known to his friends, is a larger-than-life man who, after making a fortune in Louisiana, went looking for love online at the age of fifty-three. In 1989, he met Lucy Davies, a 28-year-old woman with a child who lived in the United Kingdom. His friends thought the romance seemed more like a business deal, and when Lucy became pregnant, Landry settled into a new life as a retiree and new father. Ten years later, Lucy asked for a divorce. According to his friends, he was in a terrible state and didn't know what to do. Then Lucy Landry was dead. He didn't deny that he killed her. The trial began for "the American Millionaire Murderer", as he was known in England, and the past came back to haunt him. In 1994, Landry had shot a man named Chris Pine, the angry husband of his girlfriend at the time. According to his attorney, who subsequently became a friend, his defense was that it was self-defense. He listened to his lawyer and was found guilty of the much lesser charge -- aggravated battery. He appealed, and eventually all he got was probation, a fine and some community service. Shortly afterwards, he began his new life with Lucy, who, he says, knew all about his previous crime. According to his friends, the marriage was collapsing because Landry believed Lucy was having an affair. He went to Mexico to cool off and when he returned, she had moved her boyfriend into the house. He was furious; divorce proceedings began -- and then Lucy Landry was dead. Shortly afterwards, the trial began, with Landry receiving an initial advantage: the Chris Pine shooting was ruled as inadmissible. His lawyers argued that the fight was the latest and last example of Lucy goading him with never-ending financial demands and threats. In a relatively brief trial, very different from American standards, that lasted eight days, Landry was convicted of murder. On screen text graphic: Landry is planning to appeal both murder conviction and sentence, a process which may take years. Interviewed: Harold "H" Landry; Lucy Landry's son James, from a previous marriage; Landry friends Wanda and Ernie Richardson; Pat Fanning (lawyer and friend); Helen Knifton; Police Officers Steve Elcocks, Ian Booth, Barney Tyrney; Kristin Harton (Landry family babysitter from 1994); Richard Vernalls, reporter, Worcester News; Andy Childs, one of Landry's attorneys.
