ISSUE/TITLE/SOURCE	PROGRAM/TYPE	DATE/DURATION
1. Job Market
5P Dow Chemical Company announced it is cutting 2,400 jobs, which is 5 percent of its global workforce. Twenty plants will be closed, but locally no specific word on how many local jobs are eliminated. Dow's latest earnings release indicated profits fell nearly 40 percent.	LOC/NEWS	10/24/12 1:23
11P More information surfaces after Dow Chemical Company announces that globally they are closing 20 plants, and eliminating 2,400 jobs. Locally, seventeen workers at a Midland facility will be moved to other plants rather than be laid off. But some non-union workers could be included in the initial 2,400 jobs lost estimate.	LOC/NEWS	10/24/12 :40
6P Dow Chemical Company's CEO speaks to a national audience on CNBC to discuss the lay-offs made by his company recently. He talked about various options to control costs in order to combat "slow world growth."	LOC/NEWS	10/31/12 :27
6P Local companies are recognized for their hard work and commitment to the community today at an awards luncheon. Businesses honored included a local hair salon and an electric cart company which patented the "Amigo."	LOC/NEWS	11/9/12 1:26
5P The makers of "Twinkies" close their doors after being unable to resolve differences with striking workers. This has caused a brisk business today at a local Hostess outlet store. The most famous snack is already hard to find in Saginaw County and the outlet store closes once their baked goods are gone.	LOC/NEWS	11/16/12 1:27
6P Today about 300 citizens flooded the Capitol Building in Lansing today to lobby against the "Right to Work" legislation. House Republicans did not introduce the measure, and Governor Snyder has called it "divisive."	LOC/NEWS	11/29/12 :39
6P The City of Saginaw faces a budget deficit which they propose to balance with a proposal to join forces with the County's sheriff department. How many officers would be needed to implement the plan is under negotiation. Another factor to be considered is that current police officers may not wish to take the pay cut which comes with the proposed merger.	LOC/NEWS	12/5/12 1:39

After a gunman shot 20 children in an elementary school in Connecticut last week, everyone searches for ways to prevent something like that from ever happening again. The NRA finally spoke out today, pointing to violent video games as the culprit, and recommending every school have its own security officer. Parents express nervousness and concern for their children's safety, while school officials initiate tighter security measures to ease their fears.

48 HOURS: "Friends for Life" - a report about Robyn Davis and Carol "Sissy" Saltzman, best friends for twenty years, who were charged with murder after Robyn's husband, Brian Davis, was found shot to death alongside his car on an isolated road in St. Charles, Louisiana. Brian had married Robyn, his third wife, in 2008, but continued to have an eye for women; Robyn was not happy with his cheating. On June 29, 2009, Brian Davis disappeared. According to Robyn and Sissy, he had left to go boat shopping and never came home. Police soon began to suspect Robyn. Then Sissy, too, came under scrutiny. An examination of their cell phone records convinced police the women were lying. Investigators discovered that Robyn had recently lost her job, had gambling debts, and was on the verge of losing her house. Police believed one or both of the women shot and killed Brian Davis. Three years after the murder, Robyn and Sissy went on trial together. Several jurors expressed in interviews the opinion that investigators hadn't done their jobs and they had trouble with contradictions in Robyn's story. Jurors also learned of a life insurance policy that Robyn tried to cash in just two weeks after Brian's death. The jury vote was eleven for guilty and one for acquittal. In Louisiana, only 10 jurors are needed for a murder conviction: Robyn Davis and Sissy Saltzman are both convicted. They are both serving their time in the same correctional facility and see each other in the jail's church. Onscreen text graphic: Robyn Davis and Sissy Saltzman plan to appeal the verdict. If the appeal is denied, Brian's life insurance, worth $645,000, goes to his family. Brian's former mistress, Fannie Dietz, is back together with her husband, Steve. Interviewed: Robyn Davis and Sissy Saltzman; Fannie Dietz, Brian Davis' mistress; Steve Dietz, her husband; Tony Mancuso, Calcasieu Parish Sheriff; Scott Davis, Brian's brother; Rick Bryant, special prosecutor; Marcy Wilson, a friend of both women; Shane Hinch, Saltzman's attorney; Glen Vamvoras, Robyn Davis' attorney; Jurors Felicia Ballard, Sherry Lusk, Shandrika Washington. 10/13/12

48 HOURS: "Collision Course" - Brittney Brashers, a 21-year-old Air Force member, died while driving home with her ex-boyfriend, Robbie Walters in November, 2009. On the surface, her death seemed like an accident; however, Robbie had walked away from the car crash unscathed, which posed questions to authorities. The Denver, Colorado Police and Detective Troy Bisgard were convinced they had a homicide on their hands and that Robbie was responsible-- but they had no way to prove it. All along, Robbie maintained he was a passenger in the car and told police he didn't know what happened since he was falling asleep because the two of them had been drinking. Medical Examiner John Carver noticed that Brittney's injuries did not seem to come from the car accident when he saw bruising around her temple and upper right cheek. Instead, Carver thought Brittney was hit on her right side and strangled... but he came up short with evidence to prove this was a homicide. A breakthrough in the case occurred when Robbie's wife Elena took a call from Det. Bisgard. Throughout his relationship with Brittney and after Brittney died, Robbie Walters had been married. After Brittney died, and knowing all about their affair, Elena took Robbie back. Elena told Det. Bisgard that she had recorded Robbie confessing to murdering Elena more than a dozen times. Three days after speaking with Elena, Det. Bisgard flew to California where the couple lived and arrested Robbie, charging him with first-degree murder. While awaiting trial, Robbie enlisted a fellow inmate to help him arrange to have Elena killed, but the inmate turned out to be a witness for the prosecution. Robbie was charged with soliciting Elena's murder. At the trial the jury took two days to deliberate and found Robbie guilty of murder. Jurors acquitted Robbie of conspiring to murder Elena. Robbie was sentenced to life without parole. Onscreen text graphic: Elena Walters now lives in an undisclosed location under a new name. Interviewed: Steve Sanchez, 911 caller; Barry Brashers, Brittney's dad; John Brashers, Brittney's brother; Robbie Walters, Brittney's ex-boyfriend; Detective Troy Bisgard; Ret. Master Sgt. Art Figueroa, Brittney's boss; Tiffany Peeples, Brittney's best friend; Brittany Austin-Goyne, Brittney's teammate; Dr. John Carver, Medical Examiner; Elena Walters, Robbie's wife; Phil Geigle and Helen Morgan, Prosecutors; Jonathyn Priest, State Expert. 48 HOURS: "The Preacher's Passion" - Felicia Tang was an actress and model in Hollywood, CA. Her boyfriend, Brian Randone, was an inspirational preacher and one-time reality show contestant. Two months after they met in Las Vegas, Tang was living in Randone's Los Angeles home. After a night of passion, Tang was dead. On the morning of September 11, 2009, Randone summoned police because Tang wasn't breathing. He maintained she overdosed on the drug GHB (Gamma hydroxybutyric), which they both took before going to bed. However, police didn't buy the story. Police believed he beat Tang to death because they counted some 320 bruises, lacerations and abrasions on her body. The medical examiner who did the autopsy on Tang believes the bruising on her face and bite mark on her tongue were a result of Tang's struggle to breathe. Randone was charged with her murder and after prosecutors saw her body, they added another charge: torture. On November 14, 2011, two years after Tang's death, the trial began in a Pasadena courtroom. Prosecutors tried to prove Randone caused Tang's death, but the defense painted Tang as a drug addict and said she died of an overdose. The defense called former San Diego Deputy Medical Examiner Dr. Harry Bonnell to the stand. Dr. Bonnell said homicide is impossible in this case because the PEA (pulseless electrical activity) found in Felicia's body proves it. He went on to tell the jury there is no PEA in smothering victims and the causes of PEA are drugs or blood volume loss. Prosecution was denied the opportunity to rebut Dr. Bonnell's testimony. The jury came up with the verdict of not guilty of torture and not guilty of murder. Jurors, who did not want their names to appear on the episode, claimed Dr. Bonnell's testimony was crucial in declaring Randone not guilty. Several medical examiners "48 HOURS" consulted made clear they would have testified that Dr. Bonnell was incorrect, and PEA is possible in smothering. Onscreen text graphic: Brian Randone is suing various Los Angeles County law enforcement agencies for $21 million for false arrest, wrongful imprisonment, and emotional distress. Interviewed: Brian Randone, Felicia Tang's boyfriend; Detective Richard Doney; Detective Brian Schoonmaker; Christina (no last name), Felicia's best friend; Mike Ferrara, DSport Magazine; Patty and Terry Randone, Brian's parents; Mark Overland, Brian's defense attorney; Trinka Porrata, Ret. LAPD narcotics officer; Dr. Harry Bonnell, Fmr. San Diego Deputy Medical Examiner; Juror 6 and Juror 10, appearing anonymously on camera. 10/27/12

48 HOURS: "Lina's Heart" - Lina Kaufman was a married mother of two when one morning her husband found her in the bathroom, slumped over a magazine rack. Adam Kaufman called 911 and unsuccessfully tried to revive her. Lina's death gripped Aventura, Florida because she was 33-years-old when she died in 2007, and the circumstances around her death were strange. For eighteen months, Adam says he badgered the Dade County, Florida medical examiner's office seeking a conclusive explanation for his wife's death. They thought she may have had an allergic reaction to a spray tan, but in April 2009, Adam was charged with killing his wife by "mechanical asphyxiation". The trial began in May 2012 and the prosecution led the jury to believe the couple had an unhappy marriage, and fought the morning of Lina's death. Adam's defense no longer blamed Lina's death on her spray tan because there wasn't enough evidence to support it, and instead they attacked what they believed to be a botched investigation by the police. There was bruising and abrasions found on Lina's arms and legs and the defense said this was from Lina being moved from room to room by firefighters, and not a struggle with Adam. Moreover the defense said Lina died of natural causes and undiagnosed heart failure, more specifically acute and chronic myocarditis. Adam himself, and Lina's mother, Frida Aizman, both testified about Lina's prior fainting spells. Frida Aizman shared her support and love for Adam while on the stand. After eight hours, the jury reached a verdict of not guilty. Onscreen text graphic: Adam Kaufman plans to write a book about his ordeal. Interviewed: Adam Kaufman, Lina's husband; Seth Kaufman, Adam's twin brother; Elaine Kaufman, Adam's mother; Frida Aizman, Lina's mother; Melissa Fedowitz and Jennifer Ben Sadon, Lina's friends; Kathleen Hoague, prosecutor; Michael Castro, first responder; Kimberly Burk, paramedic; Bill Matthewman, defense attorney; Al Milian, defense attorney; Anna Howell, crime scene technician; Joe Mansfield, prosecutor; Doctors that testified about Lina's heart: Dr. John Stollard, Dr. Bruce Hyma, Dr. Satish Chundru, Dr. John Marraccini, Dr. Michael Baden, Dr. Chester Gwin, and Dr. Erik Mont; Dr. Gregory Davis, medical examiner. 48 HOURS

11/03/12 PREEMPTION

- 11/10/12 48 HOURS: “Secrets of the River” - Mackenzie Cowell was a high school senior and aspiring model who was studying at a beauty school when she made a dinner date with her father, Reid, in February 2010. Mackenzie never made dinner, and Reid received a call from police saying his daughter’s car was found abandoned on a ranch, 40 miles from their home in Wenatchee, Washington. Four days later Mackenzie was found dead along the banks of the Columbia River. She had been strangled, stabbed and beaten. Investigators looked at a list of potential suspects, including her boyfriend, who failed part of a lie-detector test, though he had a solid alibi. They talked to her parents, who had gone through a bitter divorce. And police talked to her mother’s boyfriend, with whom she had tangled with in the past. Liz Reid, a police informant, came forward claiming to have seen the actual murder on videotape -- shot by the killers. However as the task force began to investigate this, a tip came in about Chris Wilson, a classmate of Mackenzie’s from the Academy of Hair Design. After police linked DNA at the crime scene to Wilson, he was charged with her murder. Wilson claimed he was innocent and his mother hired attorney John Henry Browne. Police dismissed Liz Reid’s story after she changed it several times and they did not find a video. When the task force searched the apartment that Wilson lived in during the time of the murder, they found a stain which tested positive for Mackenzie’s DNA. Prior to the trial, D.A. Gary Reisen made Wilson an offer -- plead guilty to manslaughter and serve only six-and-half years in prison -- but Wilson turned it down and the trial began. Fearing an unfair trial after the jury questionnaires came back believing Wilson was guilty, Chris Wilson accepted a new plea deal -- fourteen years in prison in exchange for agreeing to these words: “...I also did recklessly cause the death of Mackenzie Cowell by strangulation and by stabbing her with a knife”. Chris Wilson believes he was framed by law enforcement. On Screen Graphics: Christopher Wilson may be eligible for release from prison in 2023. He will be 42 years old. Former police informant Liz Reid recently received a scholarship to attend the University of Washington. Interviewed: Reid Cowell, Mackenzie’s father; Sandy Francis, Reid’s fiancée; Joaquin Villasano, Mackenzie’s boyfriend; Detective John Kruse, Wenatchee Police Dept.; Robbin Wagg, Douglas County Chief Deputy; Liz Reid, police informant; Wendy Cowell, Mackenzie’s mother; Christopher Wilson, Mackenzie’s classmate; Jefferson Robbins, investigative reporter, The Wenatchee World, CBS News consultant; Kathleen Zornes, Wilson’s mother; Amelia Savage, Wilson’s best friend; John Henry Browne, Wilson’s attorney; Emma Scanlon, Wilson’s attorney; Gary Reisen, prosecutor; Emmanuel “Buddah” Cerros, accused by Liz Reid of Mackenzie’s murder. 48 HOURS (continued)

- 11/17/12 48 HOURS: "Soccer Moms Confidential" (9:00-10:00p) - a report on the investigation of ex-cop turned private eye Chris Butler who staffed his San Francisco Bay area firm with local soccer moms to solve cases. Butler and his firm of private investigator moms became media sensations -- Lifetime Television started a reality show based on the P.I. Moms. Reporter Pete Crooks was invited to write about the real-life "Charlie's Angels", but the story took a strange turn when he learned from a confidential informant that most of the cases were staged, crooked cops were involved, and that Butler was dealing drugs with top California narcotics cop Norm Wielsch. Butler and Wielsch were also running a massage parlor which was allegedly a front for prostitution. On Screen Text Graphics: A trial date has not been set. If convicted, Chris Butler and Norm Wielsch could face up to life in prison on several of the charges. Updated on-screen text graphic for the 11/17/12 rebroadcast: Chris Butler was sentenced to eight years in prison. But he could be released a year early in April 2019. He would be fifty-eight years old. Norm Wielsch is scheduled to go on trial in January 2013. Includes interviews with: Norm Wielsch; Pete Crooks, Senior Editor of Diablo, a pop culture magazine and a CBS News Consultant; Carl Marino, Director of Operations for the agency; Ryan Romano, decoy at the agency; Dr. Phil McGraw, TV Host; Michael Cardoza, Wielsch's attorney; Ami Wiltz, P.I. Mom; Denise Antoon, P.I. Mom; Charmagne Peters, P.I. Mom. (C: Maureen Maher - P: Chuck Stevenson, Peter Shaw, Greg Fisher) (OAD: 02/18/12)
- 11/17/12 48 HOURS: "Highway of Tears" (10:00-11:00p) - A report on the more than twenty girls and women, who since 1969, have disappeared or been killed along the stretch of pavement in rural British Columbia, Canada, known as Highway 16. To locals, the road is now known simply as "The Highway of Tears". Maddy Scott may be one of the roadway's many victims. On May 28, 2012, the 21-year-old went to a party with 50 others at Hogsback Lake, not far from the highway, only to never be seen again. Just six months earlier, in the same town, 15-year-old Loren Leslie's body was found on a logging road not far from Highway 16. Leslie was brutally beaten and molested. There are signs all along Highway 16 warning women not to hitchhike because a killer might be on the loose, but the murders have not ceased. Police arrested 20-year-old Cody Legebokoff in Leslie's murder. A patrolman pulled him over, thinking he was poaching game. He had Leslie's ID in his truck. Her body was just down the road. Legebokoff has since been identified as the alleged killer of three others, though police have not revealed how they've connected him to the murders that occurred in 2009 and 2010. Still, because of his age, police know Legebokoff couldn't be responsible for all of the murders along Highway 16. Just two months ago, officials at the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) got a break in some cases because they linked DNA samples from one of the highway's victims, Colleen MacMillen, found murdered in 1974, to Bobby Jack Fowler. Police also believe Fowler, a Texas native who worked as a roofer in Prince George, may have killed as many as twenty people in the United States and Canada. Victims of Highway 16 mentioned in this broadcast: Alberta Williams, Delphine Nikal, Lana Derrick, Monica Ignas, Monica Jack, Ramona Wilson, Tamara Chipman, Gail Weys, Pamela Darlington. On Screen Graphics: Cody Legebokoff, accused of murdering Loren Leslie and three other women, is expected to stand trial in September 2013. Investigators believe Bobby Jack Fowler may have killed as many as 20 people across the United States and Canada. Interviewed: Dawn and Eldon Scott, Parents of Madison (Maddy) Scott; Bob Friel, investigative reporter, Outside magazine, CBS News consultant; Sgt. Ken Floyd and Constable Tom Wamsteeker, Royal Canadian Mounted Police; Amanda Fitzpatrick, Jasmine Klassen and Jordy Bolduc, Maddy's friends; Doug and Donna Leslie, parents of Loren Leslie; Charleine Laing, Loren's friend; Garrett Anatole, Cody's friend; Sgt. Wayne Clary, RCMP; Claudia Williams, Alberta's sister; Matilda Wilson, Ramona's mother; Tom Chipman, Tamara's father; Kevin and Shawn MacMillen, Colleen's brothers; Ron Benson, Investigator. 11/24/12

48 HOURS: "Presumed Guilty" - a report on the nearly thirty year effort of Frank O'Connell and his son Nick, to overturn his conviction for the 1984 murder of Jay French in Pasadena, California. French was the ex-husband of Jeanne, a woman O'Connell had dated for a short time months before. French and his ex-wife, Jeanne, had a bitter custody dispute over their son. Police maintained O'Connell shot French to help Jeanne. O'Connell said he was thirty miles away and had witnesses to prove it. On his attorney's advice, O'Connell waived his right to a jury trial putting his fate in the hands of a judge. He gambled wrong and was sentenced to 25 years-to-life in prison. He filed four separate appeals between 1986 and 1995, and all were denied. Then he reached out to Centurion Ministries, a non-profit organization dedicated to overturning wrongful convictions. Finally in 1998, Centurion Ministries sent Frank a letter accepting his case. Kate Germond, Director of Centurion Ministries, knew the eyewitness to the shooting, neighbor Dan Druecker, was the strongest part of the state's case against Frank. After Kate asked Dan to read the police files from the case, he decided to officially recant his testimony with a declaration in September 2008. This reversal convinced the judge to reopen the case against O'Connell, granting access to the entire file left behind by the detectives in 1985. Centurion discovered notes in the file revealing there was another witness who was not certain about their identification of O'Connell, much like Dan. By withholding these notes, detectives violated a 1963 Supreme Court ruling: authorities must reveal any evidence that could change the outcome of a trial. A judge recognized these actions and the ruling of Frank's conviction was overturned. The 1985 conviction would remain overturned, but the original murder charges against O'Connell were not dropped. Frank was out on bail for 30 days until the next hearing where the District Attorney's Office was unable to present enough evidence against O'Connell; the case was dismissed. Frank can still be arrested and retried if they do come up with new evidence. On Screen Graphics: Frank O'Connell is the 49th person freed by the work of Centurion Ministries. Interviewed: Lt. Dave Dolson and Detective Steve Lankford, LA County Sheriff's Department; Frank O'Connell, defendant; Nick O'Connell, Frank's son; Daniel Druecker, Jay French's neighbor; Gina French, Jay's widow; Rosemarie O'Connell, Frank's mother; Kate Germond, Director of Centurion Ministries; Dr. Robert Shomer, expert on eyewitness testimony; Juan Mejia, Assistant District Attorney; Jolene French, Jay's sister. 48 HOURS MYSTERY

48 HOURS MYSTERY: LIVE TO TELL: "Hunting Humans" (9:00-10:00p) - On July 29, 2007 Shea McDonough of Chelmsford, Massachusetts, returned home and left the back door open for her brother, not knowing he was spending the night at a friend's house. Hours later, her parents were startled by a sound coming from her room. They thought Shea was having a bad dream. When her father Kevin went to her room to check on her, he saw a large masked man standing over her with a knife at her throat. He jumped on top of him and they struggled and tumbled to the floor. His wife Jeannie came to the room and tried to grab the blade of the knife with her bare hand. Kevin told Shea to call 911. When the police arrived they were able to apprehend the intruder, Adam Leroy Lane, a trucker from North Carolina. A search of his truck revealed more weapons and a DVD about a serial killer, entitled "Hunting Humans". Police put out an APB to other police departments on the East Coast to see if there were similar incidents. Seventeen days before the attack on the McDonough family, a Pennsylvania woman, Darlene Ewalt, was murdered while talking on the phone on her front porch. Her husband Todd would become the prime suspect. One day before the attack on the McDonough family, Monica Massaro of Bloomsbury, New Jersey was murdered in her home, which was in the vicinity of a truck stop. Detective Sergeant Geoff Noble had seen the APB about Lane and contacted the police in Chelmsford. They told him they had found a receipt in Lane's truck from Bloomsbury, New Jersey. When Noble arrived in Chelmsford, he and his team inquired about the whereabouts of Lane's truck and were told that the rented truck had been returned to its owner, who threw Lane's possessions into a dumpster. They retrieved his personal property and sent it back to their forensic lab in New Jersey. Before they returned home, they questioned Lane, who realized they knew he had killed Monica Massaro so he eventually confessed to stabbing her. Several weeks after his knives were submitted to the forensic lab in New Jersey, the results showed that they contained DNA from Monica Massaro and Darlene Ewalt. This information exonerated Todd Ewalt. Lane reached a plea bargain in the McDonough case and was sentenced to 25-30 years in a Massachusetts state prison. For the murder of Monica Massaro, he was sentenced to serve 50 years in a New Jersey state prison. As part of another guilty plea deal, Lane was sentenced to life in prison for killing Darlene Ewalt. The McDonough family attended all of the sentencing hearings to support the other families. Jeannie McDonough wanted to know what would make someone like Lane start killing people and decided to write a book about it. Onscreen graphics: Adam Leroy Lane was convicted of assaulting another woman in Pennsylvania. He will spend the rest of his life in prison. Jeannie finished her book, "Caught in the Act". Narrated by: Shea, Jeannie and Kevin McDonough; Detective George Tyros of the Chelmsford Police Department; Todd Ewalt; Ed Marsico, Jr., District Attorney from Pennsylvania; Nicole Pogasic, Todd and Darlene Ewalt's daughter; Kerry Ahern, Assistant District Attorney from Massachusetts; Detective Sergeant Geoff Noble of the New Jersey State Police Department. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

12/03/11

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Secrets of a Marriage" (10:00-11:00p) - a report on questions surrounding the apparent suicide of Jocelyn Earnest, a successful businesswoman who was found dead in her Forest, Virginia home in December 2007, from a gunshot wound to her head -- with a revolver by her side and a suicide note on the floor. Investigators believe that the scene was set up: she was shot, her body was then moved and the scene arranged to suggest a sexual assault. Also, the note mentioned financial problems and a new love. To the investigators, it did not seem like a suicide note. They also found two fingerprints on the note they say matched those of her estranged husband Wesley Earnest, who was living and working in Chesapeake, Virginia -- more than three hours away. Jocelyn and Wesley Earnest met and married in 1995. With both making good salaries, they decided to build a multi-million dollar vacation getaway home on Smith Mountain Lake; but soon after, the couple's nine-year marriage was crumbling. Wesley was seeing another woman, Shameka Wright. When Jocelyn learned about Shameka Wright, she and Wesley separated and she filed for divorce. As the divorce proceedings started, it was the lake house they fought over: she wanted it sold. Investigators say he didn't want to let it go. In fact, Wesley, who was in charge of the couple's finances, was in a fix with loans, credit card debt and a more than $6000-a-month mortgage on the lake house. Investigators thought Wesley Earnest had killed Jocelyn for money. Fifteen months after the death, another bizarre twist occurred in this case: the multi-million dollar lake house burned to the ground while Wesley Earnest was out on bond awaiting trial. Investigators believed he was involved because the huge insurance payoff would resolve a lot of debt. At his April 2010 trial, the prosecution painted Earnest as a manipulative, desperate, greedy man who staged the murder scene and typed the suicide note himself. The jury found him guilty, but a mistrial was declared when it was revealed that jurors had read Jocelyn's journals, which had been ruled inadmissible, but were mistakenly provided to the jury. Seven months later, and more than two-and a half years after Jocelyn Earnest's death, another trial began. Once again, Wesley Earnest was found guilty of first-degree murder. The jury recommended a sentence of life in prison plus three years. The judge agreed. Onscreen text graphic: Wesley Earnest's first appeal was denied. Earnest and Shameka Wright have ended their relationship. Included interviews with: Wesley Earnest; his mother Patricia Wimmer; his girlfriend Shameka Wright; Jocelyn Earnest's sister Laura Rogers, mother Joyce Young and father Bill Branham; Marcy Shepherd, close friend of Jocelyn's; investigators Mike Mayhew and Gary Babb; Joey Sanzone, defense lawyer; prosecutors Wes Nance and Randy Krantz; Wesley Earnest's friends Tim McGovern, Sonya Stevens; Jocelyn Earnest's friend Jennifer Kerns. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: LIVE TO TELL: "Three Days Before Christmas" - the story of sisters Linae and Tricia Tiede who in December 1990, were held hostage by two men -- Von Lester Taylor and Edward Steven Deli. Taylor and Deli invaded the family cabin in Oakley, Utah and shot their mother, father and grandmother. The sisters owe their lives to their quick-thinking uncle, Randy Zorn, and their heroic father, Rolf, whose fierce determination gave him the super-human strength needed to ignore his own pain and save his daughters. The Tiede family had gone to spend Christmas at the family cabin. Sisters Linae and Tricia Tiede, only twenty and sixteen years old respectively, were forced to witness the murders of their mother and grandmother. They also planned to burn down the home and take the sisters hostage. The sisters drove the men on snowmobiles past their Uncle Randy, who realized something was dreadfully wrong. His brother, Rolf, though wounded, was somehow able to get on a snowmobile and alert Randy as to what had happened and Randy called 911. The police caught Taylor and Deli and rescued the girls. Taylor and Deli were charged with the murders, aggravated kidnapping, arson and the high-speed chase. Taylor eventually pled guilty to two counts of capital murder. He opted to go before a jury instead of a judge, and was sentenced to death for the two murders. Deli went to trial. The sisters testified at the trial, as did their father, whom Deli had not realized had survived. Deli was convicted of second degree murder, with no option for the death penalty because of a jury member holdout. Today, the family continues to return to the cabin, enjoying their life there. In November 2008, Rolf Tiede died from cancer. On screen text graphic: Von Lester Taylor, sentenced to death for two murders, has been fighting for his own life ever since. He remains on death row, appealing his case. Included interviews with sisters Linae Tiede and Tricia Tiede; their uncle, Randy Zorn; Joseph Offert, lead investigator; Brad Wilde, patrol deputy; their aunt, Claudia Tidwell Nelson; Thomas Bruncker, assistant attorney general; Nathan Coats, Linae's husband. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

- 12/17/11 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Long Island Serial Killer" - a followup report on the disappearance of professional escort Shannan Gilbert, near Gilgo Beach, New York. The search for Shannan led to the discovery of a total of ten bodies in the scrub brush of Gilgo Beach, Long Island, New York, leading police to suspect the work of a serial killer. In this report, Suffolk County Police Commissioner Richard Dormer appears in his first one-on-one interview with Correspondent Erin Moriarty since remains identified as Shannan's were found this week. The other identified bodies included: Melissa Barthelemy, Amber Costello, Megan Waterman, and Maureen Brainard-Barnes, all who had been working as escorts, advertising their services on Craigslist. After police found and identified the previous four women, they discovered more bodies and body parts along the beach. Possible suspects include: Joseph Brewer, who hired Shannan; Michael Pak, Shannan's driver, who took her to Brewer's house; and Peter Hackett, a retired emergency services doctor who called Shannan's mother a few days after she went missing. Interviewed: Sherre and Sarra Gilbert, Shannan's sisters; Suffolk County Police Commissioner Richard Dormer (new and original footage); Attorney Robin Sax who was hired by the Gilbert family to help with the investigation of Shannan's disappearance; Gus Colletti, whose house Shannan ran to for help, resident of Oak Beach and neighbor of Joseph Brewer; Lynn Barthelemy, Melissa's mother; Steven Cohen, the Barthelemy family attorney; Vernon Geberth, retired New York City homicide commander; Dave Schaller, Amber Costello's roommate; Lorraine Ela, Megan Waterman's mother; and Melissa Cann, Maureen Brainard-Barnes' sister. (Andrew Strickler, a crime reporter with Long Island's Newsday, who had appeared in the original 07/12/11 broadcast, did not appear in the 12/17/11 rebroadcast.) Onscreen graphics: Suffolk County Crime Stoppers is offering a cash reward of up to $25,000 for information leading to an arrest in the Long Island Serial Killer case. - 12/24/11 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Drawn To Murder" (9:00-11:00p) - a report on the February 1987 murder of 37-year-old Peggy Hettrick in Fort Collins, Colorado. Her mutilated, half naked body was discovered in a field near the home of Tim Masters, a 15-year-old who lived near the crime scene. He said he had seen the body on his way to school but, thinking it was a mannequin, he did not report it to the police. He then became a suspect when police searched his home and found his collection of knives and his drawings of graphic images of murder and mutilation. Under interrogation, he adamantly denied any knowledge of the murder -- and since police had no actual evidence linking him to the crime, he was not arrested. Ten years later, prompted by the opinions of Dr. Reid Meloy, an expert on sexual homicide, the police did arrest Masters for the murder. He was put on trial, convicted and went to prison in 1999, sentenced to life without parole. After losing two appeals, he appealed again, claiming ineffective counsel. His defense team then uncovered important items of evidence never given to Masters' original lawyers, although they had been entitled to them. This included, among other things, questions surrounding Dr. Richard Hammond, a prominent eye surgeon who also lived near the crime scene and who had been arrested for voyeurism. And now, for the first time, DNA tests were done on Peggy Hettrick's clothing. These tests found no DNA of Tim Masters, but did find that of Hettrick's ex-boyfriend, Matt Zoellner, and that of two other males. Tim Masters' conviction and sentence were vacated, and he was released from prison after more than nine years. Updated concluding text graphic for this 12/24/11 rebroadcast: Tim Masters was exonerated in June by the Colorado Attorney General. He has received $10 million in settlements for wrongful imprisonment. Jim Broderick is under indictment for perjury in the case. (C: Susan Spencer - P: Joshua Yager, Marc B. Goldbaum, Taigi Smith) (OAD: 11/29/08; 1st Rebroadcast: 07/25/09; 2nd Rebroadcast: 12/26/09)

CBS RELIGIOUS AND CULTURAL SPECIALS

12/04/11 “Finding Common Ground” - a report focusing on how the interfaith movement has evolved over the years and become more mainstream, especially since the 9/11 terrorist attacks. Examples include: (1) The work of the Chicago, Illinois based “Council for a Parliament of the World’s Religions”, which hosts the world’s largest interreligious gathering. Meeting every five years in a different part of the world, people of every faith are invited to share their religious identities and dialogue, as well as voice their hopes and concerns for the future. (2) The “Interfaith Youth Core” (IFYC), a nonprofit organization based in Chicago, focuses on the notion that the most powerful common ground between all faith traditions is the inspiration to serve others. IFYC works with college students as a means to thwart religious extremism and encourage interfaith understanding and leadership. In addition, IFYC advised and partnered with the White House on the “President’s Interfaith and Community Service Campus Challenge”. (3) The work of the student interfaith leaders of Albright College, a private liberal arts school in Reading, PA. Participating in President Obama’s challenge, students apply what is achieved on campus to the larger community. (4) The leaders of the religious community in Reading, which has the largest share of residents living in poverty per capita, have come together in order to help alleviate the symptoms of poverty in their community. This partnership has reinforced the belief in the need for interreligious dialogue and cooperation at the local level. Includes interviews with: Reverend Dirk Ficca, “The Council for a Parliament of the World’s Religions”; Dr. Eboo Patel, Founder and President, “Interfaith Youth Core” (IFYC); Sharon Parker, Executive Director, “Berks Coalition to End Homelessness”; Michael Kaucher, “Reading Berks Conference of Churches”; Ann Marie Wallace, “New Journey Methodist Church”; Barbara Rosenzweig, “Reform Congregation of Oheb Sholom”; Rabbi Brian Michelson, “Reform Congregation of Oheb Sholom”; and El Sayed Elmarzouky, “Islamic Center of Reading and Berks County”. (Narrator: Ted Holmes. Producer & Writer: Elizabeth Kineke. Associate Producer: Jonathan Hall. Executive Producer & Director: John P. Blessington. Produced in consultation with: National Council of Churches; The Islamic Society of North America; Union for Reform Judaism; New York Board of Rabbis; A Consortium of Catholic Organizations.)

12/24/11 CBS PRESENTS A CHRISTMAS SPECIAL: “Christmas in Chelsea Square” - a service of Lessons and Carols from the Chapel of the Good Shepherd at the General Theological Seminary of the Episcopal Church in New York City’s historic Chelsea district. Includes a homily by The Most Reverend Katharine Jefferts Schori, Presiding Bishop of the Episcopal Church. The broadcast is introduced by Bishop Catherine Roskam, Bishop Suffragan of the Episcopal Diocese of New York, and includes a description of the Seminary’s mission by the Dean of the Seminary, Bishop Peter James Lee. (Producer: Bruce Parker; Executive Producer for CBS: John P. Blessington)
