1. Job Market

5PM	LOC/NEWS	1/05/11 1:42
There's good news tonight about Michigan's unemployment...it dropped to 11.3 percent. With more people back at work there is more money being pumped back into the economy. The head of Economic Development at SVSU says the latest numbers don't directly reflect Michigan's workforce.

530PM	LOC/NEWS	1/18/11 1:26
A historic moment in Mid-Michigan, as the first woman is promoted to captain in a local fire department. Ahna Hoard is a 46-year-old firefighter who becomes the first female captain in the 152-year history of the Saginaw Fire Department. Ahna joined the department in 1996.

5PM	LOC/NEWS	1/24/11 2:05
Flint Truck Assembly adds a shift and calls back hundreds of workers. Tonight new life being breathed into the auto industry here in mid-Michigan. The Chevy Silverado which is made at the plant was named Motor Trend's Truck of the Year and today it was announced a third shift is being added to build that truck.

5PM	NAT/NEWS	2/10/11 1:35
Good news for the economy and for people looking for work. The number of unemployment applications are the lowest they have been in three years, which boosts hopes that companies will step up hiring.

6PM	LOC/NEWS	2/15/11 1:14
More than a thousand new jobs are up for grabs right here in mid-Michigan. This as the state hands out new tax incentives to fuel growth for local employers. Nine hundred of those jobs will come from Morley companies alone.

11PM	LOC/NEWS	2/15/11 1:21
General Motors announces plans are in the works to build a paint pre-treatment facility next door to the Flint Truck Assembly Plant. GM is beginning a study to examine how feasible such a facility would be. No timeline is given for the project at this time.

11PM	LOC/NEWS	2/26/11 1:55
The Legislative Liason Representative for UAW Local 6000, which represents 17,000 state workers has concerns about attempts to destroy unions. A rally, held in Lansing was the third within a week, to show unity among unions, and protest Wisconsin politics.

6PM LOC/NEWS 2/21/11 1:00
The latest snowstorm caused dozens of accidents, and local body shops can barely keep up. Motorists may not be having a good day, but collision centers are. Dropping by a local service garage, one can see the many vehicles needing repair.

5PM NAT/NEWS 3/8/11 1:24
Republicans and Democrats have each offered up spending plans, but neither has the votes to pass the Senate. The White House is involved in the budget talks, but so far both sides are still far apart.

530PM LOC/NEWS 3/21/11 1:30
No. 2 carrier, AT&T, is buying No. 4 carrier, T-Mobile. But there are big questions about how good this deal is for consumers. Subscribers won't have to worry about any changes for some time. Even if the government approves the buyout, it will take another year to get the deal done.

6PM LOC/NEWS 3/22/11 1:18
Census numbers for 2010 are in and there is no big surprise for most in Michigan. The state seems to be bleeding residents. Census change can also have an effect on shelters and other agencies that help the needy, and may now receive less money because of lower numbers.

6PM LOC/NEWS 3/30/11 1:57
It has been nearly a year since the smoking ban took effect in Michigan. A group of business owners want bar owners to stop paying state taxes until the issue is brought back up. Local lawmakers appear to have little interest in re-visiting the issue.

3. Crime

6PM LOC/NEWS 1/5/11 1:50
A rash of B & E's in the St. Charles has people in the area on high alert. Police say it's up to the community to watch out for one another and bring this spree to an end.

5PM LOC/NEWS 1/10/11 1:40
After the mass shooting in Arizona, Congresswoman Gabrielle Giffords continues to fight for her life and the man police say pulled the trigger, makes an appearance in court. President Obama led the nation in a moment of silence, Monday, in honor of the victims.

6PM LOC/NEWS 1/20/11 1:08
Somebody driving around mid-Michigan, randomly firing a pellet b-b gun hurt at least two people and police are still looking for suspects. The attacks happened in multiple Saginaw and Saginaw Township neighborhoods.

11PM LOC/NEWS 1/19/11 1:30
Governor Rick Snyder's first State of the State Address called his speech a "Road Map" to a brighter future in Michigan. He was focused on improving the business climate in this state. The Governor asked the Legislature to repeal the Michigan business tax.

11PM NAT/NEWS 1/25/11 1:30
There was a new sense of unity on Capitol Hill, as lawmakers welcomed President Obama for the State of the Union address. The president spoke to a divided Congress, but many Republicans and Democrats sat together in the wake of the shooting that wounded their colleague – Gabriel Giffords.

4PM NAT/NEWS 2/15/10 1:30
On Capitol Hill, the President is facing tough criticism from some Democrats who object to cuts that provide services to the poor. The President says he agrees with some of the recommendations put forward by his deficit reduction commission.

6PM LOC/NEWS 2/17/11 1:45
Governor Rick Snyder's proposed budget says lawmakers will have to vote to end senior tax breaks on pension income at the same time they roll back business taxes. It's part of his plan to get the entire $45.9 billion budget passed--not just the parts that are popular.

5PM LOC/NEWS 2/25/11 1:46
To reduce Flint's debt, the latest proposal recommends eliminating two city council members. Some residents feel more council members should be cut since Flint's population is shrinking. It's not a decision the council can make arbitrarily.

6PM LOC/NEWS 3/1/11 1:50
Governor Snyder is getting a lot of flak for his first budget plan, but his job is just beginning. Governor Snyder's budget plan is not popular among many Michigan voters. Governor Snyder says the budget's goal is to create as many jobs as possible, but the Governor says his plan is not a short term solution.

500PM LOC/NEWS 3/10/11 1:32
The cash-strapped city of Flint could get some help with its finances soon whether officials ask for it or not. If the state steps in and a controversial bill is signed into law, the city could be one of the first to receive an "Emergency Financial Manager."

11PM LOC/NEWS 3/17/11 1:28
The City of Flint is drowning in debt. New legislation, signed by the governor this week, means if things don't turn around an emergency manager could take over the financially struggling city. The emergency manager would have the power to do whatever he or she feels necessary to get the job done.

5. Airport Expansion, Road Conditions, Bridges

5PM LOC/NEWS 1/14/11 2:00

State Legislatures got a tour inside the Zilwaukee Bridge today. It comes after a construction snafu back in 2008 put the vital I-75 link out of commission for nearly a year. Outdated blueprints were blamed for crews drilling into supports. The mistake added hundreds of thousands of dollars to the cost of the job.

5PM LOC/NEWS 1/26/10 1:46

Another expansion and more options are coming to Flint's Bishop International Airport. The airport will break ground this year on a multi-million dollar project to add more gates and more space.

5PM LOC/NEWS 1/27/11 1:30

Snow plows have been busy but that's not the only thing keeping road crews busy. Potholes seem to be popping up everywhere. With last week's sub zero weather and this week's relative warm up, pot holes are springing up everywhere.

6PM LOC/NEWS 2/04/11 1:45

Problems continued today for drivers in the Thumb. Powerful winds blew snow and sent cars slipping and sliding, keeping local road crews on their toes. In Huron County, road officials have every piece of snow equipment on the road.

6PM LOC/NEWS 2/04/11 1:18

Last winter M-DOT spent $237,000 clearing the Zilwaukee Bridge with a special solution. It's the only bridge in our area that's treated with a chemical known as C-M-A. Officials say removing ice from this $120 million bridge has a hefty price tag of its own.

6PM LOC/NEWS 2/22/11 1:15

Slick conditions sent dozens of vehicles into ditches on highways and surface streets, but one of the worst areas seems to be a stretch of I-75 between Clio and Birch Run. An M-DOT spokesperson says salt wasn't working in the extremely cold temperatures. A liquid de-icer proved to be a better solution against icy roads.

530PM LOC/NEWS 2/24/11 1:31

The bridge replacement on M-13 is a state funded $3.8 million project which was estimated to wrap up this month. However, several large snowstorms have pushed that finish date back.

530PM LOC/NEWS 3/09/11 1:47
Ice, snow, and see sawing temperatures added up to major problems for drivers. After the snow melts, what is left behind are massive potholes and crumbling roads all over mid-Michigan.

530PM NAT/NEWS 3/21/11 1:19
The medical community is making new recommendations that could help keep kids even safer while riding in cars. The American Academy of Pediatrics is recommending the new car seat safety guidelines for children under the age of 13.

6PM LOC/NEWS 3/23/11 1:15
Snow and ice caused more than 40 crashes in Saginaw County alone. Mid-Michigan residents say this latest blast of snow and ice was their latest seasonal headache. However, many drivers stayed off the roads, because of the forecast.

6. Animals

6PM LOC/NEWS 1/19/11 1:42
Saginaw is working on new rules for dog owners. It singles out owners of breeds that fall on the C-D-C's list of the 10 most dangerous. While the proposed changes have many people upset, we spoke with a local man that nearly lost his life trying to save a neighbor from a pit bull attack.

11PM LOC/NEWS 1/20/11 1:30
It's a pet owner's nightmare--coming home to find your animal badly hurt. One family is coping after their dog was stabbed in the neck with a samauri sword. Saginaw police later arrested the 35-year-old man for the attack on the dog.

6PM LOC/NEWS 1/25/11 1:30
The debate is heating up, as one community tries to keep the owners of so-called dangerous dogs in check. A proposed "Dangerous Dog Ordinance" would force certain dog owners to pay a one-time fee if the city lists a specific dog breed as dangerous.

5PM LOC/NEWS 1/28/11 1:42
A family pet slips its leash and is shot by police, when it's caught eating chickens. While the family is asking why their dog had to die, animal control officers stand behind the move.

5PM LOC/NEWS 2/11/11 1:53
In January an 8-year-old Bay City boy had to get 100 stitches after a pit bull bit him. The community is looking to tighten its standards for dog owners and add more specific language and regulations for dog owners.

11PM LOC/NEWS 2/17/11 1:15
An 8-year-old boy relives the horror of being mauled by a pit bull. Today, that young boy took to the stand, giving dramatic testimony on what happened last month in Bay City. The attack happened as youth walked home from a friend's house.

530PM LOC/NEWS 3/7/11 1:15
A massive dog fighting ring is busted in Michigan. More than two dozen people were arrested, after police raided a home in rural Monroe County. Police say this ring could have nationwide implications, with suspects linked to several states including Georgia, Ohio and Indiana.

5PM LOC/NEWS 3/19/11 :52
Security is getting beefed up at two shopping malls in the Detroit area. The malls are now using trained security dogs. The company that owns both Eastland and Northland malls has decided trained German Shepherds are a boost to security and a joy to shoppers.

4PM NAT/NEWS 3/23/11 :38
One month ago, to the day, Terisa Aceveda thought she lost everything when her home went up in flames, including her dog Lola. Inspectors boarded up her house and she wasn't allowed back. Lola survived, trapped in the house for 26 days. Experts say she probably survived on toilet water and scraps

7. Weather

6PM LOC/NEWS 1/22/11 1:30
With the bitter cold temperatures across our region, one organization opens its door to those who have nowhere else to go. Since December, Catholic Charities have been averaging 40-50 people, at any given time, that need assistance.

11PM LOC/NEWS 1/23/11 1:17
Many are bracing for arctic conditions across the country, and here at home, temperatures in mid-Michigan haven't been this low since last year. Some aren't brave enough to venture outdoors; others say it's pure Michigan.

4PM NAT/NEWS 1/28/11 1:13
If you're venturing into the cold, it's important to take common sense safety precautions to reduce health risks. This is especially important for young children, older adults and those who suffer from chronic illnesses. Exposure to the cold can put people at risk for frostbite and hypothermia.

6PM LOC/NEWS 2/04/11 1:18
Last winter M-DOT spent $237,000 clearing the Zilwaukee Bridge with a special solution. It's the only bridge in our area that's treated with a chemical known as C-M-A. Officials say removing ice from this $120 million bridge has a hefty price tag of its own.

11PM LOC/NEWS 2/5/11 2:10
The cleanup after this week's blizzard continues. The task of removing roughly a foot of snow is especially challenging for facilities with big parking lots, like Saginaw Valley State University. The biggest and most expensive cleanup is roads and highways.

5PM LOC/NEWS 2/10/10 1:06
The sounds of winter were heard again today, which included snow blowers, tires spinning, and the scraping of snow shovels. Area families were out in full force cleaning away the latest winter storm; the children know once the work is done there's sledding to be had at the nearest hill.

630PM LOC/NEWS 2/20/10 1:12
Several inches of snow have fallen in Genesee County. Even though it may be perfect for snow angels it's not perfect driving conditions. There's no secret, the key is when it's snowing like this--simply slow down.

6PM LOC/NEWS 2/21/11 1:00
The scene all across Genesee County was cars stuck left and right. Motorists might not be having a great day, but collision centers are. It is a typical $2-3,000 dollar bill for many motorists that find themselves in weather-related accidents.

530PM NAT/NEWS 3/11/11 1:30
Boats crashed into each other off the coast of a Santa Cruz, California marina. Waves from a tsunami broke through wooden docks, and strong current broke other boats free from their moorings. People watched as one boat after another drifted, colliding with other boats and running up into the dock.

6PM LOC/NEWS 3/18/11 1:27
Five people stranded on an ice floe in Saginaw Bay were rescued last night. It took the fire department, a rescue boat and a lot of work to do this rescue. The ice is not safe right now and people need to know when to stay off of it.

5PM LOC/NEWS 3/23/11 1:28
Some people in Genesee County spent the day shoveling snow. Other residents had a bigger problem: trying to find a way to cope with the darkness. Statewide more than 10,000 people were without power today.

8. Wars in Middle East

6PM LOC/NEWS 1/17/11 :20
Army Specialist Daniel Miller is featured in the latest issue of Time Magazine for his work in Afghanistan. The “Time” article tells the story of Miller’s Medevac unit saving the lives of a marine and two Afghan children.

11PM NAT/NEWS 1/28/11 1:24
Earth-shaking events in Egypt continue overnight and an all night curfew is doing little to keep protestors from the streets. The military was brought in to keep protestors under control. The Government is also cutting services to the internet and cell phones, in an effort to keep citizens from organizing.

11PM NAT/NEWS 1/29/11 1:38
A police van pushed protestors back in Alexandria, Egypt but nothing has contained the anger spilling out all over the city. The President swore in a Vice President for the first time in 30 years, suggesting that the protests may have forced the leader to devise a Succession plan.

11PM NAT/NEWS 2/13/11 1:30
Egypt’s new military rulers say they’ll keep control of the country for six months, or until parliamentary and presidential elections are held. They say their top priority is the restoration of security.

11PM NAT/NEWS 2/20/11 1:30
Today was another day of protests in, at least, four Middle Eastern countries. The most troubling news was from Libya, where the only images coming out of the country are from protestors posting videos on the internet. There are reports that anti-government demonstrators may be gaining some control.

4PM NAT/NEWS 2/23/11 1:26
From the White House Wednesday, President Obama condemned the ongoing violent situation in Libya. The United States and other countries continue to evacuate their citizen’s from the region.

6P LOC/NEWS 3/01/11 1:59
Tonight Bay City residents are remembering Sergeant Kristopher Gould after the Bay County soldier was killed in the Middle East. Gould’s unit was attacked by insurgents in Afghanistan.

5PM NAT/NEWS 3/1/11 1:25
Oil prices are climbing again, due to demonstrations in Iran. There are concerns that the region could be in chaos for months. Oil prices surged 13 percent last week alone, as Libyan protesters expanded their control over the country.

5PM NAT/NEWS 3/18/11 1:30
Libya has declared an immediate “cease fire” in order to fend off an attack. This follows the United Nations’ authorization of a “no-fly zone” and all necessary measures to prevent the Qaddafi regime from attacking its own people.

11PM LOC/NEWS 3/23/10 1:02
Sergeant Boothroyd spent the last two weeks recovering in a naval hospital in Maryland, before traveling home to Midland, Michigan. He was shot in the head by a sniper, but doctors say the bullet didn’t do any severe damage. Boothroyd says he is almost completely recovered.

9. Sex Offenders/Predators

6PM LOC/NEWS 1/5/11 1:50
A sex offender is busted trying to hire a hit man to kill the teenager he raped, and one of her family members. Tonight he is facing a new set of charges for the murder-for-hire plot. The suspect is already serving a 5-15 year sentence for criminal sexual conduct.

6PM LOC/NEWS 1/21/11 1:30
A man accused of having sex with teenage boys, faces 14 charges for molestation. Investigators say the suspect had been abusing one of his victims for years.

6PM LOC/NEWS 1/27/11 1:17
A former Mid-Michigan softball coach is charged with having sex with a student. The man was a softball coach at Caro High School, when the alleged incidents occurred. The victim was on the team.

6PM LOC/NEWS 1/28/11 1:33
For the second time in as many days, a mid-Michigan teacher is accused of having sex with a student. This time it’s a special education student. Investigators say something happened between the teacher and a student, in a parking lot, earlier this month.

4PM LOC/NEWS 2/9/11 1:09
A substitute teacher is accused of having sex with three students. Prosecutors charged the teacher with six counts of third degree criminal sexual conduct--two counts for each victim.

6PM LOC/NEWS 2/18/11 1:30
A Midland Police Officer facing allegations of sexual assault. It's a case that's now in the hands of Michigan State Police who say they have forensic evidence that is being analyzed.

6PM LOC/NEWS 2/25/11 1:11
A Pinconning School board member faces sex crime charges. The man is out on bond tonight, after a family member said he forced her to have sex with him.

11PM LOC/NEWS 3/4/11 1:33
A week-long investigation by Michigan State Police puts a Midland police officer in jail. He is charged with four felony counts of sex crimes. The officer, while on duty, forced a woman, who is physically or mentally helpless, to perform a sex act on him inside her Sanford home.

11PM LOC/NEWS 3/23/11 1:15
Mid-Michigan police are teaming up to catch criminals that prey on children. It is a first of its kind partnership in Genesee County, meant to catch the criminals that deal in child pornography.

6PM LOC/NEWS 3/23/11 1:48
A former Midland Officer waived his right to an evidence hearing and will stand trial on sex crime allegations. Prosecutors say Jeffery Doyle sexually assaulted a woman while in uniform, and on duty.

10. School/Campus – Budgets/Security

5PM LOC/NEWS 1/6/11 :39
The Mass Transportation Authority in Genesee County is considering cuts in service that could mean the loss of routes that students take to school. The MTA will hold a series of meetings this week and next about the proposal. Changes would take effect at the end of the month.

5PM LOC/NEWS 1/6/11 1:27
Players hustle on the basketball court, while floor security hustle in the stands, to break up a brawl. Three Saginaw public school students are suspended, and two men, ages 17 and 21, were also arrested who were not students.

6PM LOC/NEWS 1/13/11 2:16
Michigan kids are falling behind students in other states. That's according to an education watchdog that says while most Michigan students meet state standards in math and reading, only 30 percent of those kids measure up on a national proficiency exam.

530PM NAT/NEWS 1/18/10 2:20
A Texas teenager is thrilled to be able to join his classmates, even though he relies on a robot to do it. The young man suffers from polycystic kidney disease and has virtually no immune system. But now new robotic technology is making it possible for him to do what he always wanted, and that is to be in class.

NOON LOC/NEWS 1/20/11 :34
A mid-Michigan middle school student prepares for the pro bowl today. A 12-year-old boy has been selected for a “scholarship invitational” competition in Hawaii next week. The Saginaw Arts and Science Academy student, along with several other students selected for the competition, will dance in the half time show.

5PM LOC/NEWS 2/15/11 1:31
Bridgeport high school students walked into school and through a metal detector this morning, after students were sent home early last week after some kind of disagreement or fight, along with racial comments. The superintendent metal detectors will be used randomly in the coming weeks.

5PM LOC/NEWS 2/17/10 1:33
Michigan school districts were notified of cuts per students, by more than $400. Districts say this will mean big changes in your child’s classroom. School Administrators are calling Governor Snyder’s budget “devastating”.

6PM LOC/NEWS 2/22/11 1:42
Icy roads prompted dozens of schools to cancel classes again, but Bay City Public schools stayed open and had a bus slide off the road and into a ditch. Tonight, angry parents are demanding answers.

6PM LOC/NEWS 3/24/11 1:35
Bay City Schools cancel class for tomorrow after snow days yesterday and today. It’s giving students a three-day head start to spring break, but many parents say the district is cancelling class because of tomorrow’s big basketball game--putting academics in the back seat.

6PM LOC/NEWS 3/25/10 1:50
The Governor’s proposed budget is calling for a $470 dollar per pupil cut statewide. This is a cut that is going to result in significant school budget cuts. This loss has many districts concerned, since many of them have already used up their “rainy day” fund.

11PM LOC/NEWS 3/28/10 1:15
Another round of funding cuts is in store for Michigan Schools that are already cash-strapped. Democrats in Lansing are pushing back trying to avoid cuts to the classrooms. It is felt school monies are being diverted to corporate tax giveaways.

60 MINUTES

“Bad Medicine” - an interview with Cheryl Eckard, a former quality control manager for GlaxoSmithKline, the pharmaceutical company. In 2002, she discovered numerous serious drug manufacturing flaws at a Glaxo plant in Cidra, Puerto Rico. She informed her superiors, but no corrections were implemented. Eight months later, she sent a detailed report of the ongoing problems to seven executives. Within weeks, she was dismissed, supposedly because of downsizing. She then turned the same information over to the FDA, and her lawyers filed suit under the federal whistle-blower law. Glaxo pleaded guilty to a felony, and eventually paid $750 million to settle the criminal conviction and Eckard’s suit. Also includes comments by: Ian McCubbin, a Glaxo senior vice president; Dr. Jerry Avorn, Harvard Medical School; Neil Getnick, a lawyer for Cheryl Eckard. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Denise Schrier Cetta)

“Wynton” - an interview / profile of Wynton Marsalis, classical and jazz trumpeter and leader of the Jazz at Lincoln Center Orchestra, as the group travels to London, England and Havana, Cuba. Also includes comments from Orchestra members Carlos Henriquez (bass player); Ali Jackson (drummer); Walter Blanding (saxophone); Ted Nash (saxophone); Victor Goines (saxophone). (C: Morley Safer - P: David Browning, Diane Beasley) DOUBLE LENGTH SEGMENT

Andy Rooney Topic: “How Andy Celebrates New Year’s Eve” - Andy doesn’t think it’s necessary to go out and have fun on New Year’s Eve

01/09/11

“The Big Gamble” - a report on the proliferation of gambling casinos to 38 states, and their main attraction, the slot machine -- the new versions of which can be, according to some experts and users, highly addictive. Includes comments by: Natasha Schull, professor of anthropology, MIT; Sandi Hall, gambling addict; Marilyn Lancelot, gambling addict; Howard Shaffer, director, Harvard Medical School Division on Addictions; Dr. Robert Breen and Dr. Henry Lesieur, gambling addiction specialists, Rhode Island Hospital; Governor Ed Rendell (D-PA); Les Bernal, head of Stop Predatory Gambling, a national organization; State Senator Sue Tucker (D-MA). (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Ira Rosen, Joel Bach)

“Silver or Lead” - a report on the power of drug cartels in Mexico, and the murder of Santiago Mayor Edelmiro Cavazos, who tried to confront corruption in the Santiago police department. Includes interviews with: Veronica Cavazos, widow of Edelmiro Cavazos; Ramon Garza, investigative journalist; Alejandro Garza y Garza, Attorney General for the Mexican state of Nuevo Leon; Jorge Domene, director of public security, Nuevo Leon. (C: Byron Pitts - P: David Schneider, Joyce Gesundheit)

“A Living For The Dead” - a report on the merchandising deals and other income deceased celebrities continue to generate for their estates, focusing on an interview with the agent Mark Roesler, whose client list includes some of the biggest names -- mostly deceased -- in acting, music, and sports of the 20th Century. A pioneer of the industry, Roesler founded CMG more than twenty five years ago, at a time when a celebrity’s right to control or profit from their good name was buried along with them. Includes comments from: Marcus Winslow, cousin of the late actor James Dean; billionaire entertainment entrepreneur Robert Sillerman, who owns a majority percentage of the Elvis Presley estate; and Martin Cribbs, former head of the agency Greenlight. (C: Steve Kroft - P: L. Franklin Devine, Jennifer MacDonald) (OAD: 09/27/09)

48 HOURS MYSTERY

- 01/01/11 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Toxic" (9:00-10:00pm) - a followup to "Tracking A Killer" (OAD: 12/11/02). On December 2, 2000, 30-year-old Eric Miller died in a Raleigh, North Carolina hospital. Blood tests had revealed that he had been poisoned with arsenic. Police investigation discovered that Eric's wife, Ann, a chemist, was having an affair with Derril Willard, a biochemist who worked at the same company as she. On the day after police initially questioned him about Eric's death, Derril Willard committed suicide. Prior to doing so, he had a confidential conversation with his lawyer, Rick Gammon. Years passed -- and in the spring of 2004, the North Carolina Supreme Court ruled that Gammon must reveal what Willard had told him about Ann's role in Eric's murder. Gammon then revealed how Ann admitted to Derril Willard that she had injected a substance into Eric's IV bag...and Willard had told Gammon that he himself had never tried to kill Eric. Ann Miller was charged with Eric's murder. Because the District Attorney and the Miller family had misgivings about the outcome of a trial, Ann was offered a plea bargain: twenty-five years in prison for Eric's murder. She accepted. Among those interviewed are: Lieutenant Chris Morgan, Raleigh, N.C. Police Department; Doris and Versus Miller, Eric's parents; Pam Baltzell and Leeann Magee, Eric's sisters; Renee Henson, Ann Miller's college roommate; Deborah Regentin, detective, Raleigh, N.C. Police Department; Yvette Willard, widow of Derril Willard; Michael Teague, forensic psychologist; Rick Gammon, attorney for the late Derril Willard. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

- 01/01/11 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Girl Who Knew Too Much" (10:00-11:00pm) - a report on the 1992 murder of 19-year-old Mischelle Lawless, whose bloodied body was found in an abandoned car on a desolate strip of highway in Benton, Missouri. As Deputy Sheriff Rick Walter was working on the crime scene, a local man, Mark Abbott, reported that he had seen the young woman in her car, and also told investigators that he saw a white car driving near the crime scene. Police questioned Lawless' boyfriend, Leon Lamb, but could find nothing to tie him to the crime, and he passed a polygraph. Four months into the investigation, investigators got a break: 17-year-old Joshua Kezer had been held briefly in the county jail on assault charges, where, according to several inmates, he confessed to killing Lawless. Then Mark Abbott identified Kezer from a photo lineup as the driver of the white car he had seen near the crime scene. Police then charged Kezer with first-degree murder. During the trial, a young woman, Chantelle Crider, identified Kezer as having been at a party where he had words with Mischelle. However, no DNA, fingerprints or murder weapon linked Kezer to the scene. Nevertheless, Kezer was convicted and sentenced to 60 years in prison. The case haunted Rick Walter and in 2005, now sheriff, he re-opened the case. Soon the foundation on which Kezer's conviction was built began to crumble, as witnesses admitted to lying and evidence was questioned. Judge Richard Callahan agreed to review the case and was so disturbed by what he saw that instead of ordering a new trial, he declared Josh Kezer an innocent man. But someone killed Mischelle and high on the list of suspects is that local man, Mark Abbott, who was once a star witness for the prosecution. In fact, there are two Abbotts, Mark and his identical twin Matt. To this day, Walters is not sure which Abbott brother came in to report finding Mischelle, and two people in the office say that it was his brother Matt. Leon Lamb also remains a suspect. With the help of forensics experts at a "crime farm" in the Netherlands, who have examined DNA evidence, Walters hopes further investigation will allow him to bring the case to a grand jury. On screen text graphic update: Josh Kezer is suing former Sheriff Bill Ferrell for wrongful arrest. Onscreen text graphic update for 01/01/11: Josh Kezer sued Scott County and former Sheriff Bill Ferrell for wrongful arrest. They settled the case for several million dollars. Interviewed: Sheriff Rick Walter; Joshua Kezer; Melissa Gaines, Mischelle's best friend; Mark Abbott; Jason Lawless, Mischelle's brother; Leon Lamb; Valerie Eubanks, Mischelle's sister; Esther Lawless, Mischelle's mother; Chantelle Crider; Brandon Caid, investigator; Dawn Pierce, host of the party; Jane Williams, church volunteer at the Missouri State Prison; Judge Richard Callahan; Ron Burton, friend of Mark Abbott; Richard and Selma Eikelenboom, Dutch forensics experts. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Peter Henderson, Mead Stone, Michael Rosenbaum, Joshua Yager) (OAD: 03/13/10)
- 01/08/11 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Fatal Choice" - On August 16, 2009, 56-year-old Sandra Franklin called police to report a violent confrontation with her husband at their Bainbridge, Ohio, horse ranch. Shortly after, authorities received a call from the victim himself, Dr. Peter Franklin, who had been stabbed in the chest. Within hours, Peter was dead and his wife was charged with murder. Shortly after their marriage in 2000, Sandra had fired Peter's longtime office manager and taken over the job herself. Peter then dropped his malpractice insurance, no longer accepted health insurance and moved his assets to Sandra in case he was sued. He also switched from family medicine to pain management and, according to law enforcement officials, dispensed an alarming amount of drugs and generated a lot of cash. His office was raided by State drug investigators in 2009, but no arrests were made. Sandra claims the stress of the investigation caused Peter to become violent. They were on the brink of divorce. Peter demanded his assets back and Sandra refused. During one of their many arguments, Sandra claimed that Peter threatened her life with a pen knife which he kept on his key chain. During the argument she grabbed a large knife from their kitchen and she stabbed Peter. She claimed it was self defense. She had scratches on her body, but the police believed they were self-inflicted. Sandra was charged with murder. Her trial began nine months after Peter's death. Her defense attorney said Sandra acted in self defense. After four days of deliberation, Sandra was found guilty of murder. At her sentencing three weeks later, Sandra still professed herself to be innocent of all charges. The judge gave her the mandatory sentence of fifteen years to life. Onscreen graphics: Sandra Franklin never collected on her husband Peter's life insurance policy. That policy and his estate, worth $1.5 million, went to his niece and nephew. Sandra Franklin will be eligible for parole in 2025. She will be 72. Interviewed: Sandra Franklin; Liz Franklin, Peter's first wife; Bobbi Arters, Peter's ex-girlfriend; Sandy McDermott, Peter's office manager, who was fired by Sandy; Investigator Karen Sweet; Geauga County prosecutors David Joyce and Carly Snaveley; Sergeant Andy Kelley who questioned Sandra on the night of Peter's death; Steve Bell, Sandra's defense attorney. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

01/15/11

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Body of Lies" - In the fall of 2006, after two failed relationships that resulted in the birth of her daughters Ashlyn and Tyler, 31-year-old Leisha Hurst seemed to be getting her life on track. While attending Barstow College, studying to become a teacher, she began dating fellow student, 34-year-old Jeami Chiapulis, who bragged about being a war hero and cancer survivor. Chiapulis seemed to be the man she could finally settle down with. The couple had plans to marry when Hurst vanished on January 22, 2009. The next day, Hurst's abandoned car was found 50 miles south of her Barstow, California home, in the town of Hesperia. After denying he and Leisha were in a relationship, Chiapulis admitted to investigators that he was married to Army Lieutenant Colonel Katherine Taylor. He was also involved in a relationship with another Barstow student, Joyce Fransson. When searching his home, police found receipts for items he had recently purchased that could be used in disposing of a body. Leisha's brother took a photograph of rubber gloves and a shower cap that he found near the location of his sister's disappearance. He gave the photograph to the police and the gloves and shower cap to Chiapulis. Chiapulis then gave the gloves and a shower cap to the police. They compared them to the photograph and realized that he had given them a different pair of gloves and a different colored cap. Chiapulis had checked himself into a mental ward; upon checking himself out, he was arrested by the police. Leisha's body had still not been found and the police realized they might be forced to make a deal with Chiapulis to recover her body. In exchange for a reduced sentence, Chiapulis would admit to killing Leisha and reveal where he had buried her body. Her body was recovered on October 8, 2009 and Chiapulis was sentenced to fifteen years to life in prison. He implicated his girlfriend Joyce Fransson, telling the police she was with him when he buried Leisha. Fransson admitted she was with him when he buried a trash can in the desert, but she denied knowing its contents. She was brought to trial on July 26, 2010. After one day of trial, the judge unexpectedly offered her a plea deal, which she accepted. Onscreen graphics: While in prison, Jeami Chiapulis allegedly tried to hire a hitman to kill Joyce Fransson, Detective Keith Libby and Leisha Hurst's two daughters. Chiapulis will face murder-for-hire charges next month. Police say his wife, Army hero Lieutenant Colonel Katherine Taylor, had no knowledge of his double life. She annulled the marriage in December 2009. Ashlyn and Tyler are being raised separately by their fathers. Interviewed: Lynn Hurst, Leisha's father; Debbie Welch, Leisha's mother; Ashlyn and Tyler, Leisha's daughters; Detective Keith Libby from the Barstow Police Department; Jaime Tatro, who once dated Jeami Chiapulis; Joyce Fransson, Jeami's girlfriend; District Attorney Sean Daugherty. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Temptation" - In June 2007, Dewayne Barrentine, a single father with an 8-year old son met Tausha Fields, a single mother with a 5-year-old daughter, Lexie, and soon after they began living together in Marianna, Florida. Tausha told him some unbelievable stories about herself - that she had a criminal justice degree and a promised inheritance from a Federal judge. He went online to verify her stories and found a marriage certificate which showed she had been married to Mitchell Wayne Kemp. His online searching also led him to one of Tausha's previous boyfriends, Keith Jones, who said Tausha told him she had lured one of her ex-husbands to a farm where he was murdered. Barrentine continued his online investigations and discovered that Mitchell Wayne Kemp had been missing since August 2004. He brought this information to the police and they believed they were dealing with a homicide. They brought Tausha in for questioning and at first she denied knowing about Kemp's whereabouts. Eventually she said that Kemp had been murdered by another of her ex-husbands, Greg Morton. She helped them search Morton's farm and they uncovered Kemp's body. An autopsy revealed that he had been shot six times in the chest. The police believed that Tausha was involved in his murder. Three weeks later police arrested Morton and charged him with first degree murder. They were hoping he would implicate Tausha. He remained silent. Fearing Tausha might run, they arrested her also and charged her with first degree murder. She claimed that Morton shot Kemp in a jealous rage, and Morton claimed that it was Tausha's idea and that she had planned the murder so she could have full custody of Lexie. In return for a reduced sentence to second-degree murder, Morton agreed to testify against Tausha at her July 2010 trial. The trial hinged on the word "lure" which was used in testimony by Tausha's ex-boyfriend Keith Jones. After eight hours of deliberation, the jury found Tausha guilty of first degree murder. She will spend the rest of her life in prison. Onscreen text graphic: Mitch's brother and his family are legal guardians of Lexie. Tausha Fields is appealing the verdict. Greg Morton will be eligible for parole in 2024. He will be fifty-six years old. Interviewed: Dewayne Barrentine and Keith Jones, Tausha's ex-boyfriends; Tausha Fields; Lou Roberts, police chief in Marianna, Florida; Carole, Tracy and Michelle Kemp, Mitch's mother, brother and sister; Dave Wilson, detective in the Boone County Sheriff's Department; Prosecutors Richard Hicks and Andrea Hayes; Public defender Paul Hood, Tausha's attorney; Jamie Bowden, a neighbor of Greg Morton and Tausha; four unidentified jurors. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

01/29/11

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Every Picture Tells a Story" - On February 15, 2009, Cathy McNaughton was stabbed to death in her home in Sharpsburg, Georgia. The day had started with her husband Alec serving her breakfast in bed. He said he then went to visit his mother in Sandy Springs, Georgia, about an hour away. When he returned home, he says he found his wife in a pool of blood. As the victim's husband, he was a suspect, but he had an alibi. Another suspect was Cathy's former husband, Gary Mendenhall, who had been in town that day. He also had an alibi. Alec claimed to be at his mother's house until the evening. He said that he had called Cathy at 2:30PM from his mother's house, but records showed the call originated from a cell phone tower only two miles from his house in Sharpsburg. He also claimed that he made a 911 call while kneeling down next to Cathy's body, but he had no blood on him. Alec's friends and family members started calling police to say they were afraid of him and that he was abusive. Alec's first wife, Linda, said he had beaten her and that is why they were divorced. Police discovered a secret file about Alec that Cathy kept in the closet. There were disposable cameras with pictures of a bruised and battered Cathy. Alec was arrested, but the prosecutor could not show these pictures to the jury until they found the photographer. Their investigation led them to Sandra Harmon, who had been a counselor at Delta Airlines where Cathy had worked. Cathy told her that Alec had attacked and beaten her the day before, and she asked Sandra to take pictures of her injuries. Prosecutors were now able to present these pictures as evidence. Another previous wife said that Alec had pulled a shotgun on their daughter and threatened to kill their daughter, her and himself. During the trial Alec took the stand and denied everything his accusers said about him. The jury found him guilty of murder and he was stunned by the verdict. Onscreen text graphic: Alec McNaughton was sentenced to life in prison. McNaughton is now represented by a public defender and is planning an appeal. Interviewed: Criminal investigator Jason Fetner; Michelle and Heather Mendenhall, Cathy's daughters; Alec McNaughton; Prosecutor Kevin McMurry; Linda McNaughton, Alec's ex-wife; Sandra Harmon, counselor who took the pictures of Cathy; Michael Kam, Alec's defense attorney. 02/13/11 "New Age Revolution" - an interview, conducted in Cairo, Egypt, with Wael Ghonim, Google's regional marketing manager for the Middle East. He created a Facebook page called "We Are All Khaled Said" (a reference to an Egyptian internet activist beaten to death by the police), where Egyptians could post information about their experiences of police brutality. Organizers began to interact online, posting the dates and locations of protests, and a movement was born. With the communication and coordination made possible by the internet and social media -- Facebook, Twitter, YouTube, Google -- the movement grew rapidly and exponentially, and finally forced the resignation of President Hosni Mubarak and his regime. (C: Harry Smith - P: Harry A. Radcliffe II, Tom Anderson, Andy Court)
"The 33" - interviews with three of the thirty-three Chilean miners who were rescued in October 2010 after being trapped underground for nearly ten weeks. Doctors say all but one of the men are experiencing serious psychological problems. Those interviewed include: Victor Zamora, Alex Vega, Mario Sepulveda, Also interviewed is Jonathan Franklin, author of the book "33 Men", and Chilean President Sebastian Pinera. (C: Bob Simon - P: Michael H. Gavshon, Drew Magratten)
"Lady Gaga" - an interview / profile of singer and performing artist Lady Gaga (real name: Stefani Germanotta), who discusses her career and her approach to performing. (C: Anderson Cooper - P: John Hamlin)
Andy Rooney Topic: "The King and I" - The movie "The King's Speech" reminds Andy of a 1943 encounter with King George VI, and reporter Homer Bigart, who, like the King, also had a stammering problem.

02/20/11 "Scott Brown: Against All Odds" - an interview / profile of Massachusetts Republican Senator Scott Brown, who discusses the hardships of his early years, including the physical and sexual abuse he suffered. Also includes comments by Democratic Congressman Barney Frank, and by Brown's wife, television reporter Gail Huff. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Karen M. Sughrue)
"The Spark" - a report on how an unlicensed Tunisian fruit vendor, Mohammed Bouaziz - who set himself on fire in protest after confiscation of his scale by a municipal official - is now regarded as the spark that started the recent revolution in Tunisia which ousted the dictator Ben Ali. Also includes interviews with: Zied Mhirsi, Tunisian doctor and radio show host, who comments on the galvanizing role of Facebook, the social media and video-sharing website, in the revolution; Sihem Ben Sedrine, political activist; Mustapha Kamel Nabli, new governor of Tunisia's Central Bank; and Slim Amamou, new interim government official. (C: Bob Simon - P: Draggan Mihailovich, Nathalie Sommer)
"The King's Speech" - a report on how the production of the film "The King's Speech" occasioned the discovery of historic letters between the Duke of York / King George VI and his speech therapist, Lionel Logue, who helped him overcome his stammer. Includes interviews with: actors Colin Firth and Geoffrey Rush; screenwriter David Seidler; Mark Logue, grandson of Lionel Logue. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Ruth Streeter)

48 HOURS MYSTERY

02/05/11 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Thou Shalt Not Kill" (9:00-10:00pm) - a report on the November 1994 murder of Farah Fratta, whose body was discovered in the garage of her Humble, Texas home. She had been shot twice in the head. At the time of her death, Farah was in the midst of a divorce. To the outside world, her husband Bob Fratta was an upstanding citizen, who worked in public safety as both a police officer and a fireman. But divorce documents were about to make his dark side public, revealing his strange sexual requests that not only embarrassed Farah, but also sickened her. Bob Fratta seemed the likeliest suspect in his wife's murder, but he had a seemingly airtight alibi: he was at church with their three children as his wife was being murdered. Investigators worked to build their case against Fratta, and four months later they got an unexpected break. Tracing his phone records from the night of his wife's murder led them to a mysterious woman, Mary Gipp, who claimed that she could have prevented Farah's murder. She knew that her boyfriend had been hired by Fratta to kill his wife. Informed by police that she would be charged with murder, she made a deal and was given immunity for her testimony. Her boyfriend, Joe Prystash, had been hired by Fratta to arrange the murder and Prystash had hired Howard Guidry to be the trigger man. Guidry and Prystash were arrested and confessed. Fratta was arrested and charged with murdering his wife. After the trial, it took less than one hour to convict him. He was sentenced to death, along with Prystash and Guidry. Thirteen years after the murder, a federal judge threw out Fratta's conviction and ordered a new trial because the judge said there was testimony linking Fratta to the murder that should never have been admitted. At the new trial, after two days of jury deliberation, Fratta was found guilty of capital murder. The jury decided to send Fratta back to death row. He now plans to appeal his conviction. Interviewed: Lex and Betty Baquer, Farah's parents; Kitty Waters Sneed, Farah's co-worker and closest friend; Detective Larry Davis; Bradley, Daniel and Amber Baquer, Farah and Bob Fratta's children; Mike Edens and Jimmy Podhorsky, who worked out at the gym with Fratta; Prosecutor Kelly Siegler; Mary Gipp, Prystash's girlfriend; social worker Judy Cox; Mike Charlton, Fratta's; Denise Bradley and Mia Magness, prosecutors for the second trial; Randy McDonald and Vivian King, Fratta's attorneys for the second trial. 02/05/11 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Dog Trainer, the Heiress and the Bodyguard" (10:00-11:00pm) - Part one of a two part report on the October 2009 death of Mark Stover, a professional dog trainer. Recently divorced from Linda Opdycke, Stover still operated their lucrative business, "Island Dog Adventures" on Kiket Island, Washington, which they had founded in the early 1990's. Linda, now living elsewhere in Washington state became involved with Michiel Oakes, a weapons expert she had originally hired to analyze her security situation, based upon the fact that Mark had been charged with stalking Linda ever since she initiated their separation. In 2009, Mark moved his dog training business to Anacortes, Washington. Linda and Michiel, now romantically involved, believed that Stover was obsessed with their relationship, as well as with the children from Michiel's previous marriage. On the morning of October 28, 2009, an employee of Mark's arrived at his business and discovered traces of blood in the driveway, Mark's white station wagon missing, and Mark's dog Dingo, shot three times in the face. Based upon a report of trespassing involving two vehicles, one a white station wagon, the other a black SUV, police apprehended the SUV, only to find the driver was Michiel Oakes. The following day, Michiel was arrested at Linda's home on suspicion of murder, after he attempted to dispose of a pistol. Interviewed: Andrea Franulovich, client and friend of Mark's; Vickie Simmons, Mark's sister; Linda Opdycke, Mark's ex-wife; Nancy Corbin, Linda's mother; Danny Jensen, man who claims that Mark threatened him with a gun; Sheriff Frank Rogers; Chief Deputy Dave Rodriguez; Ruthie Hagemeister, Linda's neighbor; Julia Simmons, Mark's niece; Michiel Oakes; Amanda Oakes, Michiel's daughter; Teresa Vaux-Michael, Mark's fiancée; Leigh Hearon, private investigator; Amber Baker and Stephanie Poor, Mark's employees; Tami Gilden, Mark's neighbor; Jennifer Thompson, Michiel's ex-wife; Sergeant Gene Davis. 02/12/11

48 HOURS MYSTERY: “The Dog Trainer, the Heiress and the Bodyguard” - Part two of a two part report on the October 2009 death of Mark Stover, a professional dog trainer. Michiel Oakes was charged with the murder of Mark Stover. Michiel claimed that Mark had invited him to his house on October 28, 2009 and that the shooting was in self-defense because Mark pulled a gun on him. After the shooting, Michiel removed Mark’s body from his house and drove to the home of his ex-wife, Jennifer Thompson. Jennifer told police that Michiel implied that he had been hired by someone as a hitman to kill someone. Linda Opdycke briefly spoke to police the night Oakes was arrested, but the next day she refused to answer any questions on the advice of her attorney. Oakes was freed on bail, he and Linda were forbidden by court order to see each other or communicate. During the trial, Oakes testified in his own defense. Linda Opdycke testified that Mark Stover could be very dangerous. During her testimony, prosecutors told her if Oakes was found to be acting in self-defense, then she herself would not have any liability. Linda told them that she did not have any liability in this case. Prosecutors have never charged her with any crime. After four days of deliberation, the jury came to a unanimous verdict. Michiel Oakes was found guilty of premeditated murder. He was given the maximum sentence of 26 years, with no chance of parole. The case is still open and Linda Opdycke has not been charged with being an accomplice. Onscreen graphics: Vickie Simmons has posted a $50,000 reward for information leading to the arrest and conviction of accomplices in her brother’s murder. Michiel Oakes is appealing his conviction. Stover’s dog, Dingo, survived her gunshot wounds, but died months later of cancer. Interviewed: Dan Luvera, lead detective; Vickie Simmons, Mark Stover’s sister; Leigh Hearon, private investigator; Linda Opdycke; Amanda and April Oakes, Michiel’s daughters; Corrie Oakes, Michiel’s mother; Michiel Oakes; Stephanie Poor, employee of Mark; Jennifer Thompson, Michiel’s ex-wife; Julia Simmons, Mark’s niece; Teresa Vaux-Michael, Mark’s fiancée; John Henry Brown, defense attorney; Rich Weyrich, prosecutor; Meghan Mataya, employee of Mark; Jurors Heidi Toussint, Tom Jenkins; Judge Mike Reichardt. 02/19/11

48 HOURS MYSTERY: “Playing with Fire” - In the early morning hours of September 2, 2002, two young men were found executed in a burning Mercedes SUV in an upscale North Hollywood, California neighborhood. The victims were Michael Tardio, 35, a part-time model and doorman at The Garden of Eden – at the time Hollywood’s hottest nightclub – and his friend, 31-year-old Christopher Monson. What initially looked like a drug or gang-related murder, turned out to be something entirely different, but the crime scene left little forensic evidence to go on. Retired veteran Los Angeles Police Department Detective Bill Cox, who spent four years on the case learned that Tardio’s girlfriend was Sandy Bentley, who along with her twin sister, was a former live-in girlfriend of Hugh Hefner at the Playboy Mansion. She was also an ex-girlfriend of Mark Yagalla, a former Wall Street hedge fund manager who was convicted of running a multi-million dollar Ponzi scheme. During her relationship with Yagalla, he gave her more than $6 million worth of expensive gifts. When federal officials came after these gifts, Bentley secretly kept $1 million worth of jewels and furs she was legally required to forfeit. Police believe that Tardio and Monson were murdered when Tardio set up a deal to sell the jewelry to an unidentified buyer. When Bentley was questioned by police, she initially denied the fact that Tardio and Monson were selling the jewelry. When threatened with a possible jail sentence, she told them the truth. The strongest lead police had was a telephone number Tardio gave to Bentley for Michael Jacobs, a convicted felon who was seen with Tardio at the Garden of Eden. Police believe he was the middle man in the jewelry transaction and the only person who knows the identity of the intended buyer, known only as “Mister Big”. Jacobs has refused to give any information to the police or 48 HOURS. Authorities are hoping that viewers of this broadcast may provide a new lead that could help them in solving the case. Interviewed: Retired LAPD Detective Bill Cox; Andrew Blankstein of the Los Angeles Times; Izabella St. James, former girlfriend of Hugh Hefner; Mark Yagalla; Brian Bieber, Yagalla’s lawyer; Michelle Braun, Internet madam; Mike Degnan, FBI Special Agent; Attorney Eugene Licker; Linda Kim, jewelry collector and international weapons broker; Chris O’Connell, 48 HOURS investigative producer. Onscreen graphics: The Los Angeles City Council has renewed a $75,000 reward for information leading to a conviction in this case. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Chris O’Connell, Ira Sutow, Greg Fisher)

02/26/11

48 HOURS MYSTERY: LIVE TO TELL: "Hunting Humans" - On July 29, 2007 Shea McDonough of Chelmsford, Massachusetts, returned home and left the back door open for her brother, not knowing he was spending the night at a friend's house. Hours later, her parents were startled by a sound coming from her room. They thought Shea was having a bad dream. When her father Kevin went to her room to check on her, he saw a large masked man standing over her with a knife at her throat. He jumped on top of him and they struggled and tumbled to the floor. His wife Jeannie came to the room and tried to grab the blade of the knife with her bare hand. Kevin told Shea to call 911. When the police arrived they were able to apprehend the intruder, Adam Leroy Lane, a trucker from North Carolina. A search of his truck revealed more weapons and a DVD about a serial killer, entitled "Hunting Humans". Police put out an APB to other police departments on the East Coast to see if there were similar incidents. Seventeen days before the attack on the McDonough family, a Pennsylvania woman, Darlene Ewalt, was murdered while talking on the phone on her front porch. Her husband Todd would become the prime suspect. One day before the attack on the McDonough family, Monica Massaro of Bloomsbury, New Jersey was murdered in her home, which was in the vicinity of a truck stop. Detective Sergeant Geoff Noble had seen the APB about Lane and contacted the police in Chelmsford. They told him they had found a receipt in Lane's truck from Bloomsbury, New Jersey. When Noble arrived in Chelmsford, he and his team inquired about the whereabouts of Lane's truck and were told that the rented truck had been returned to its owner, who threw Lane's possessions into a dumpster. They retrieved his personal property and sent it back to their forensic lab in New Jersey. Before they returned home, they questioned Lane, who realized they knew he had killed Monica Massaro so he eventually confessed to stabbing her. Several weeks after his knives were submitted to the forensic lab in New Jersey, the results showed that they contained DNA from Monica Massaro and Darlene Ewalt. This information exonerated Todd Ewalt. Lane reached a plea bargain in the McDonough case and was sentenced to 25-30 years in a Massachusetts state prison. For the murder of Monica Massaro, he was sentenced to serve 50 years in a New Jersey state prison. As part of another guilty plea deal, Lane was sentenced to life in prison for killing Darlene Ewalt. The McDonough family attended all of the sentencing hearings to support the other families. Jeannie McDonough wanted to know what would make someone like Lane start killing people and decided to write a book about it. Onscreen graphics: Adam Leroy Lane was convicted of assaulting another woman in Pennsylvania. He will spend the rest of his life in prison. Jeannie finished her book, "Caught in the Act". Narrated by: Shea, Jeannie and Kevin McDonough; Detective George Tyros of the Chelmsford Police Department; Todd Ewalt; Ed Marsico, Jr., District Attorney from Pennsylvania; Nicole Pogasic, Todd and Darlene Ewalt's daughter; Kerry Ahern, Assistant District Attorney from Massachusetts; Detective Sergeant Geoff Noble of the New Jersey State Police Department. 48 HOURS MYSTERY

03/05/11

48 HOURS MYSTERY - "Shelley's Last Breath" - an investigation into the 1999 scuba diving death of Shelley Tyre while on vacation on the Caribbean isle of Tortola. Police questioned her husband and dive partner David Swain about every detail of the dive; autopsy results were inconclusive. Shelley, a school principal who, in the early 1990s, had met and married David Swain, a divorced father of two, who ran a dive shop, was an adventurous woman who couldn't care less about money. Her parents insisted on a pre-nuptial agreement and David Swain agreed he would receive no money if they divorced. With her death, he collected more than $600,000 from her estate. What her parents could not understand was Swain's lack of emotion regarding Shelley's death. He explained that he didn't know had happened to Shelley during the dive. Although divers are supposed to swim in pairs, she was diving alone - he had gone elsewhere in the water. One year after her death, her parents hired an attorney and sent him and his team of experts to Tortola to investigate. After several months, they uncovered evidence which they believed proved David Swain was lying. 48 HOURS hired an underwater forensic expert to examine the evidence; he also concluded that it was much more than a diving accident. Her parents believed that Shelley's decision to change jobs and take a substantial pay cut may have been the motive for murder. In 2006, they sued David Swain in civil court for wrongful death and won. Armed with this, the Tyres persuaded the authorities in Tortola to re-open the case: island prosecutors charged Swain with the murder of his wife. Ten years after Shelley's death and after two years in a Tortola prison, the trial began. Certain information about David Swain became public during the trial - his father had been convicted of sexual abuse and sent to prison. His mother was bludgeoned to death by his brother, Richard. This information, along with testimony from his children and ex-wife was used to explain his behavior. In the end, David Swain was found guilty of murder and sentenced to life in prison. Onscreen graphics: David Swain is appealing on the grounds that defense experts were not allowed to testify. He is eligible for parole in 2032, when he will be 76 years old. Interviewed: David Swain; Jen Bloom and Jeremy Swain, David's children; Richard and Lisa Tyre, Shelley's parents; Don Badger, Shelley's co-worker; John Langella, David's friend and fellow scuba instructor; Sandy Wheeler, David's ex-wife; Jeff Morgan, San Bernardino, California Sheriff's Department; Keith Royle, dive boat captain; Bill Oliver, scuba gear designer; Neil Tassel and Tim Bradl, David's defense attorneys; Jim Erickson, former Minneapolis assistant district attorney; Hayden St. Clair Douglas, local counsel working with David's defense team. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

03/12/11

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Betting Her Life" - a followup to the original "Betting Her Life" (OAD: 05/15/10), which itself was a followup to "Right or Wrong" (OAD: 04/24/04; updated 01/01/08). This followup contains new and original footage from Susan Wright's new sentencing hearing, held in the fall of 2010. Susan Wright was a 27-year-old stay-at-home mother from Houston, Texas who stabbed her husband Jeff, 193 times. She claimed she was a victim of domestic abuse and that on January 13, 2003, her husband attacked her with a knife and she fought back in self-defense. Prosecutors charged that she was a cold-blooded killer who lured her husband to bed with the promise of sex, tied him up and then brutally murdered him. A jury found Susan Wright guilty of murder and sentenced her to 25 years in prison. Six years passed and new attorney Brian Wice took on her case, believing that Susan Wright deserved a new sentencing hearing because, he argued, prosecutor Kelly Siegler chose to inflame rather than inform the jury, and that Wright's original lawyers should have called more witnesses, including experts on battered women. Wice also had a new witness - Misty McMichael, a woman who was once engaged to Jeff Wright. Though she and Susan had never met, her story was very similar: both were topless dancers, and Misty also claimed that she was abused by Jeff Wright. Judge Wallace ordered a new sentencing hearing -- not to determine Susan's guilt, but to see if she might be given a sentence other than the 25 years she is now serving. In the fall of 2010, a more mature Susan Wright arrived for the hearing. Brian Wice handed the case over to a new lawyer, John Munier, who seeks to prove that Wright was a battered woman. The new prosecutors, Connie Spence and John Jordan, intend to prove that she killed Jeff Wright out of anger, not fear. A parade of witnesses are presented and for the first time, Wright's sister, Cindy Stewart, takes the stand. Her mother, Sue Wyche, also testifies; now a widow, Wyche admits that she lied at the original trial because she was afraid of the consequences from her husband if she admitted the truth. Misty McMichael also testified. The jury deliberated and the new sentence surprised everyone, because during deliberation, the jurors had asked about probation with community service, but instead, she is sentenced to twenty years, with credit for time served -- five years off of the original sentence. And then, finally, Susan Wright apologized to the Wright family. Onscreen graphics: Susan Wright's children, Bradley and Kaily, are now 12 and 9. They were adopted by Ron Wright, Jr. Susan Wright will be eligible for parole in 2014. She will be 38 years old. Interviewed: Susan Wright; Cindy Stewart, Susan's sister; Ron Wright, Jeff's father; Prosecutor Kelly Siegler; medical examiner Dwayne Wolf; Attorney Brian Wice; Judge Jim Wallace; Dr. Jerome Brown, an expert on battered women; Misty McMichael. New interviews for the 03/12/11 followup: prosecutors Connie Spence, John Jordan; Cindy Stewart. (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Clare Friedland, Jenna Jackson, Chuck Stevenson)

48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "River's Edge" - On January 8, 2000, college students Danielle Keener and Dan Zapp were on a date, walking along a river's edge outside York, Pennsylvania, when they were kidnapped at gunpoint by a man in a pick-up truck. The gunman put Dan in the back of the truck with his Rottweiler dog; he put Danielle in the passenger seat, where he then raped her. Afterwards, he then put them both out of the truck, and ordered them to walk down towards the river. From behind, he then shot them both in the face. Feigning death, they floated down the river, out of the gunman's view. They were soon picked up by a hunter, Pete Prowell, who was able to contact the police and get them to a hospital. Dan -- on a respirator and unable to speak -- wrote on a notepad what he remembered of the gunman and gave the police the clues they needed to find him. Police then tracked down and arrested William Babner for the crime. Six months after the shooting, Babner went on trial; he was convicted and sentenced to one-hundred and seventeen and a half to two-hundred and thirty five years in prison. Includes narration by Danielle Keener; Dan Zapp; Pete Prowell, the couple's rescuer; Brent Keener, Danielle's father; Elizabeth Martin, Danielle's college roommate; Dr. John Hankle, attending physician, York Hospital; Detective Doug Demangone, York police; Police Chief Darryl Albright; Police Captain Roland Camacho; Ed Paskey, York County Prosecutor. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Lost Night" - a followup to "Dream Killer" (OAD: 02/18/06). Kent Heitholt, the popular sports editor of The Daily Tribune in Columbus, Missouri was found bludgeoned and strangled near his car on Halloween night 2001. Two years later, 19-year-old Charles "Chuck" Erickson told a friend that he had a dream about his involvement in the crime. Although his memory of events was hazy, Erickson told police about events leading up to the murder and implicated his high school friend Ryan Ferguson. He said that he and Ferguson were out drinking the night of the murder and, when they ran out of money, decided to rob someone. According to Erickson, when he and Ferguson approached Heitholt, things got out of hand and Heitholt was killed in the struggle. Both Erickson and Ferguson were taken into custody and charged with murder. Four years after Heitholt's death, Ferguson, who claimed innocence, was tried for murder. The state's star witness was his former friend, Erickson, who claimed his involvement in the crime but maintained that Ferguson was the instigator. Found guilty of second-degree murder and first-degree robbery, Ryan Ferguson was sentenced to 40 years in prison. He will be eligible for parole in 2040. The followup details the unceasing efforts of Ferguson's father, Bill, to prove his son's innocence. In the course of his determined investigation, Bill uncovered evidence that contradicted earlier testimony from Erickson. In addition, Erickson recanted his claim that Ferguson was the instigator and active participant. Janitor Jerry Trump, who initially claimed that he saw Erickson and Ferguson at the crime scene, also now recanted his testimony. That new information, along with the assistance of Kathleen Zellner, a new attorney who agreed to take the case pro bono after seeing an earlier airing of the story on 48 HOURS, helped to secure a new hearing. Onscreen graphics: The Missouri Attorney General's office will respond to the request for a hearing by May 2nd. Former prosecutor Kevin Crane, now a judge, expects to be called as a witness. Ethics rules prohibit him from commenting. Interviewed: Bill Ferguson, Ryan's father; Ryan Ferguson; Rus Baer, sports reporter for Columbia Missouri's newspaper The Tribune; Mike Boyd, part-time writer who was a witness; Shawna Ornt, janitor; Leslie Ferguson, Ryan's mother; Prosecutor Kevin Crane; Christine Varner, manager of the agency who employed janitor Jerry Trump; Kathleen Zellner, Ryan's new attorney.
