| ISSUE/TITLE/SOURCE | PROGRAM/TYPE | DATE/DURATION |
|--|--------------|---------------|
| 1. Job Market | | |
| 6P Education leaders met at Delta College, along with students, teachers and a local senator. Purpose was to address the fact that the United States is falling behind other countries for math and science majors. Organizers say students need to be interested in science, technology, engineering and math, which interest starts in the classroom. | LOC/NEWS | 4/14/12 1:30 |
| 5P Local corrections officers picket over cost cutting measures at the State's prisons. Residents have now joined their efforts upset over State officials reducing the perimeter security vehicle, driven by an armed guard, from 24-7 patrols to random, less frequent ones. The State says these changes will save $25 million, but corrections officers say they are essentially doing more work for less pay. | LOC/NEWS | 4/16/12 1:33 |
| 11P TV5 interviewed Flint's Emergency Financial Manager and his assistant to discuss the budget plan presented today. Questions centered on a proposed cut in public safety employees, when a public safety chief was just hired at an annual salary of $135,000. We're told it's part of larger plan to be unveiled next week. | LOC/NEWS | 4/23/12 1:30 |
| 6P Organizers gather signatures to put a proposal for eight new casinos on the ballot. In order for the proposal to make it onto the ballot, the group needs to collect a little more than 322,000 signatures by July. Voters seem equally divided in whether or not they want more casinos. | LOC/NEWS | 5/3/12 1:30 |
| 6P Flint city firefighters and administration met to work out how to minimize losing more police and firefighters to help the city balance their budget. Police say they continue to see their officers cut, while city leaders say with less money, they may have to provide fewer services. | LOC/NEWS | 5/8/12 1:30 |
| 6P Saginaw City Council voted to eliminate 20 public safety jobs, and has not filled the fire chief position, which has been vacant for 3 months. City leaders say the 3 battalion chiefs will continue to run day-to-day operations, under the Assistant City Manager. | LOC/NEWS | 5/22/12 1:56 |
| 11P The City of Flint received a $6.9 million grant from the Federal Emergency Management Agency, allowing for an additional 13 firefighters added to Flint's Fire Departments. The grant lasts two years, buying time for city leaders to find other money to keep these jobs. | LOC/NEWS | 5/30/12 1:30 |

5P LOC/NEWS 6/1/12 1:30

A new jobs report published today shows only 69,000 new jobs were added in May—the fewest in a year. The unemployment rate rose for the first time in nearly a year from 8.1 to 8.2 percent. In addition, the government announced about 50,000 fewer jobs were created in March and April than originally estimated. The Federal Reserve may take new action to help the economy, but some investors are skeptical.

11P LOC/NEWS 6/21/12 1:36

An online auction website that does business globally moves their operations to Flint, creating 30 jobs in the next year, and possibly more than 100 jobs in the next few years. The company has another building in the Grand Rapids area. The Genesee County Chamber of Commerce helped Coordinate the move.

6P LOC/NEWS 6/26/12 :28

The group “Citizens for More Michigan Jobs” has enough signatures to put the casino proposal on the November ballot. The proposal calls for 8 casinos in places like Detroit, Lansing and Birch Run. The group estimates the new casinos will generate $275 million annually.

2. Economy/Business

530P NAT/NEWS 4/3/12 1:30

March proved to be a good month for the Big Three, with Ford, Chrysler and General Motors all posting gains. With many Americans looking for cars getting better gas mileage, General Motors reported strong consumer demand for small fuel-efficient cars. Dealers are not as optimistic for truck sales, if gas continues to hover at $4 per gallon.

5P LOC/NEWS 4/12/12 1:30

A growing local business is moving its headquarters to the former Global Watt building. Currently the company has 2 separate buildings—one for manufacturing and one for administration. The building is being remodeled to include office space, and allow the company to manufacture new products, all under one roof.

11P LOC/NEWS 4/30/12 1:26

Flint’s Emergency Financial Manager held a public meeting tonight explaining the next steps for the City of Flint. They included closing two fire stations, water and sewer rates increase, layoffs and a new “super chief” to oversee fire and police. There was much reaction to this news by those present at the meeting.

530P LOC/NEWS 5/14/12 1:28

Shopping online to avoid state taxes could be a thing of the past. The Michigan Retailers Association wants the State to collect sales tax from consumers online, which would have a huge impact on State revenue. At least 13 states are targeting Amazon.com.

6P LOC/NEWS 4/18/12 1:44

The Michigan State Department orders an audit of the state's 70,000 parolees and probationers. A spokesperson for the department said four cases have been brought to light—mistakes that parole and probation officers have made in the way they handle their caseloads. Those officers are not currently on the job.

11P LOC/NEWS 5/3/12 1:30

The prime suspect of a stabbing spree goes to trial soon. The jury for Elias Abuelazam has been chosen—a total of 16 jurors. Because of the notoriety caused by the stabbing spree, there was question as to whether or not it could go to trial locally. Now that the jury is seated, the trial starts next week.

6P LOC/NEWS 5/9/12 1:38

A new law signed by Governor Snyder allows people who have a concealed weapons license to now carry a taser. A local gun dealer says the tasers will arrive soon and sell for between $400 and $600. The dealer plans to hold classes to teach customers about using them responsibly.

6P LOC/NEWS 5/14/12 1:10

Three people are recovering after being injured during a shoot-out at a gas station in Saginaw. Police are comparing notes to see if the latest incident is related to several other recent shootings in the area.

6P LOC/NEWS 5/22/12 1:30

After deliberating for just one hour, a jury convicted serial stabber Elias Abuelazam of first degree murder. The jury foreman indicated it was "very easy" to reach a guilty verdict. Family members of the victims react to the verdict.

6P LOC/NEWS 6/5/12 1:30

More people are using dangerous synthetic drugs, known as "K2" and "spice". Because of growing concern, a State House Committee has approved tough new standards which, if passed, would soon make it tougher to sell the product. The bill is now being sent to the House and Senate for approval.

11P LOC/NEWS 6/7/12 1:30

Residents in a Saginaw neighborhood are in shock over the death of a 12-year-old boy overnight. The boy was visiting his grandparents, and was shot to death while sleeping in a chair in the living room. It was believed another family member was the target.

5P LOC/NEWS 6/26/12 2:13
Family members from murder victims gathered in the Saginaw Prosecutor's office tonight, upset at the ruling by the Supreme Court allowing juvenile lifers the opportunity to get their sentence lightened. The High Court ruled such sentences for juveniles constitute cruel and unusual punishment. The Saginaw prosecutor is outraged with the Supreme Court ruling.

4. Politics

11P NAT/NEWS 4/3/12 1:30
Republican votes in Maryland, Wisconsin and Washington, DC chose the candidate today they want to see challenge President Obama. Mitt Romney now has more than half the delegates needed to secure the Republican Presidential nomination. The next primaries are in three weeks.

6P LOC/NEWS 4/10/12 1:30
The Lieutenant Governor of Michigan spoke at the Bay City Rotary today, discussing candidly a group collecting petitions to recall Governor Snyder. It's the second "Recall Snyder" effort in less than a year; the first failed last fall. With the state's unemployment rate dropping and personal income growing, Michigan has less $5.6 billion less debt than last year, making a case for Snyder's governing skills.

530P NAT/NEWS 4/25/12 1:38
Testimony continues in the criminal case against John Edwards, the former presidential candidate, accused of violating campaign finance law. Today his former aid revealed new details about their relationship. He testifies with immunity from prosecution.

6P LOC/NEWS 5/8/12 1:30
Mitt Romney made a stop in Lansing today, trying to win over more voters since winning this state's primary. Speaking to a packed audience, he was quick to attack Mr. Obama's economic policies. Many union workers, however, remember Romney taking credit for the auto industry comeback, which they feel isn't true.

5P NAT/NEWS 5/23/12 1:30
Lawmakers question the head of the Secret Service after 12 agents were involved with a prostitution scandal ahead of the President's trip to Columbia. The hearing came after some of the agents told The Washington Post they're being made scapegoats for behavior supervisors knew about and tolerated. Both Democrats and Republics express doubt that the Columbian incident was an isolated one.

5P NAT/NEWS 5/30/12 1:40
Republican Presidential candidate Mitt Romney has clinched the nomination; he even got a phone call from President Obama congratulating him. But his victory is being overshadowed by supporter Donald Trump, who once again challenges whether the President was born in the U.S.

5P NAT/NEWS 6/14/12 1:30
At a community college outside Cleveland, President Obama presented himself as a defender of the middle class. Ohio and its 18 electoral votes are critical of both candidates. The Romney campaign launched a new TV ad, ahead of the Ohio speech, saying the president's record is long on words and short on action.

5P NAT/NEWS 6/20/12 1:30
On Capitol Hill a House panel spent hours debating whether to hold the U.S. Attorney General in contempt of Congress for not turning over subpoenaed documents from a Justice Department investigation into a botched Mexican gun-running sting. Republicans say a U.S. border agent lost his life because of the "Operation Fast and Furious" debacle. Some Republicans have called for the Attorney General's resignation, but the AG says he still has the full confidence of the President.

11P LOC/NEWS 6/22/12 :32
The current prosecutor and sheriff of Bay County, along with candidates running against them in the August election held a public forum in Bay City to answer questions and make their views know to voters.

5. Health

5P LOC/NEWS 4/4/12 1:30
Data from Poison Control in 2011 ranks Midland County second in the state for bath salt-related calls to Poison Control. The drug is a stimulant, and the Midland Sheriff says someone on bath salts can stay away for days. Also their body can reach dangerous temperatures, sometimes more than 107 degrees. The Sheriff's Department has responded to at least 10 confirmed bath salts-related incidents since March, 2011—including a stabbing. A recent Michigan law made certain chemicals found in bath salts illegal.

6P LOC/NEWS 4/5/12 1:30
Bath salts is a deadly designer drug used by people to get high. TV5 talked with students, teens and parents to find out how much they know about the salts, which are not intended for your bathtub. Until police figure out a way to get this drug off the streets, health experts worry about the harm it can cause, and the danger to the community.

6P LOC/NEWS 4/10/12 1:52
Police uncover a pit bull fighting ring run by a 14-year-old teen. Police found 5 dogs, badly mauled and injured at the location where the fights occur. Two of the pitbulls were rescued, but the other three were euthanized as their injuries were too severe.

 A local community stands behind a firefighter, diagnosed with a brain tumor. The young man is only in his twenties, holds down three jobs, plus pursues a degree in broadcasting. He does not have insurance, so his fellow Thomas Township firefighters are helping with fundraisers for his medical bills.

5P LOC/NEWS 5/9/12 1:30
 A local family gets forced out of their home after the discovery of black mold, leaving everything behind. The family's son has asthma and had to leave his nebulizer behind. The school attended by two of the family's children got involved, setting them up in a hotel. Money was donated for food, clothing or whatever is needed by the family to start over.

6P LOC/NEWS 5/11/12 1:38
 A Central Michigan student came home for summer break and has died from bacterial meningitis. An alert is out for students who may have come into contact with him to be on the alert. Health officials say no new cases have been reported, and since the dorm is closed for the summer break, they believe it unlikely others will get sick.

6P LOC/NEWS 5/31/12 1:16
 A 10-year-old girl lost her leg to cancer 3 years ago but still competes in this year's "Thunder in the Valley" games. This is an event for disabled athletes and is held at Saginaw Valley State University. Sixty athletes take part in the different events which include archery, running track, archery, and other competitions.

6P LOC/NEWS 6/13/12 1:47
 Protestors gather outside the State House in Lansing upset with a controversial package of abortion bills up for debate today on the House floor. If passed, the new measure would place strict new operating standards on clinics before they open their doors. It would also increase the amount of malpractice insurance for doctors performing abortions. Finally it would outlaw abortions after 20 weeks and regulate the disposal of fetal remains.

11P LOC/NEWS 6/14/12 1:30
 An environmental activist came to Midland tonight, interested in the clean-up of Midland, after receiving e-mails from concerned Midland citizens. Earlier this month, Michigan's Department of Environmental Quality approved Dow's clean-up plan which includes cleaning up approximately 1,300 properties surrounding the Midland Plant.

6P LOC/NEWS 6/21/12 1:45
 A local family held their reunion in northern Michigan, only to have several members become ill upon their return home. Several persons were airlifted to the University of Michigan Hospital in Ann Arbor, overnight while several more from the same family group are recovering at a local hospital. The illness has yet to be determined, but the family was told symptoms were similar to Legionnaire's Disease.

11P LOC/NEWS 6/25/12 1:41
The Saginaw County Health Department worked over the weekend interviewing members of a family to determine where they ate, slept and traveled while on their northern family reunion. At least 4 of the family are in the hospital, while 10 more have become mildly sick or are taking antibiotics. The most common denominator for the family was the lodge where they all stayed for their week's reunion. The illness has not yet been diagnosed.

6. Safety

11P LOC/NEWS 4/18/12 1:30
Studies show that texting while driving is as dangerous as driving drunk. Cell phone companies and programmers are responding with a new app called "Drive Mode." When it is activated, it can be set to block all other apps, and all incoming and outgoing phone calls, except for 9-1-1. It is free for A T & T customers with an android or blackberry phone.

11P LOC/NEWS 4/19/12 1:30
Current Michigan laws allow residents to carry a gun. The State House just passed three bills that would make it legal for residents to carry a taser, if they have a concealed pistol license and training. The bills will now head back to the Senate for some revision before being sent to Governor Snyder's desk for signature.

6P LOC/NEWS 4/25/12 1:30
Bad Axe Police picked up an 18-month-old found wandering near a busy intersection dressed only in a diaper and t-shirt in 30-degree temperatures. Officers say an 11-year-old child was supposed to be watching the toddler, but fell asleep. The incident is at least the fifth case like this in Huron County since May.

6P LOC/NEWS 5/10/12 1:43
Surveillance video shows a 7-11 employee narrowly escapes injury when a 67 year old driver's car jumps the curb and crashes through the front of the store. The vehicle smashed into displays, pushing some of them into freezer doors, shattering them too. The people inside the store were thankful no one was injured.

530P LOC/NEWS 5/21/12 1:40
The statewide campaign "Click it or Ticket" is in full swing tonight. Police around the area are conducting day and night seat belt enforcement zones. State Police say 200 people, not wearing seatbelts, were killed last year. Michigan ranks in the top ten for states in seat belt usage.

11P LOC/NEWS 5/30/12 2:06
A 6-year old girl took a sip from a water bottle, and the cap got stuck in her throat. When the Heimlich maneuver did not work on the child, her grandmother began to panic. Right at that time, a state police vehicle was spotted and flagged down. Before the car was even parked, one trooper jumped out of the vehicle, assessed the situation, put on gloves and swept the child's mouth, dislodging the cap. The child survived and the officer is hailed as a hero by those who witnessed the rescue.

11P LOC/NEWS 6/7/12 1:30

It's been five years since one man flipped his car on the Zilwaukee Bridge, and was trapped inside. Zilwaukee Firefighters remember the incident clearly, because of the severity of the injuries. After being told he would never walk or talk again, the man visits the Zilwaukee Fire Department to thank those who worked to get him out of the wreckage that night.

6P LOC/NEWS 6/7/12 1:40

A local church group patrol neighborhoods, hold rallies and prayer vigils in an effort to diminish the violence in their Saginaw neighborhoods. After the latest murder of an innocent 12-year-old boy, the organizer feels the group needs to step up its efforts. Another group works at keeping kids off the street and out of jail by providing them with activities at their facility.

6P LOC/NEWS 6/26/12 1:03

A mother found her one-year-old daughter in a pond in Swan Creek Township. She rushed her child to a neighbor's home, where lifesaving procedures were unsuccessful. Authorities assume she drowned, but await autopsy results for a final determination.

7. Weather

6P NAT/NEWS 4/14/12 1:30

Oklahoma had its first round with severe weather with a tornado touching down, leaving widespread damage in the town of Norman. There have been no reports of serious injuries, but forecasters predict the severe weather threat is not gone yet.

11P NAT/NEWS 4/15/12 1:10

This weekend's deadly storm system plowed its way through Oklahoma, Kansas, Nebraska and Iowa. Authorities warned millions of residents to make emergency preparations, which the Kansas governor says is crucial for survival. Red Cross emergency shelters opening in Kansas for evacuated storm victims. The National Weather Service had more than 100 reports of possible tornado touchdowns.

6P LOC/NEWS 4/17/12 1:25

A Saginaw woman describes how scared she was as she watched a massive tree topple onto her house. The woman's family had just sat down to dinner when severe winds uprooted the tree and caused it to fall on their two-story home, leaving a huge hole in the roof. She is in the process of buying it and does not have insurance.

Genesee County received almost 7 inches of rain overnight, causing severe flooding to many basements. Residents had bricks falling through the walls and water pouring into their homes. Cars are flooded too, leaving victims without homes or transportation.

530P LOC/NEWS 5/14/12 1:20
Parts of mid-Michigan are under a fire watch tonight, after firefighters battled a massive blaze in Ogemaw County. The fire burned 125 acres, and 4 miles away, another fire burned about 350 acres. A DNR spokesperson said no injuries or property damage was reported, but local residents caution travelers to practice safe fire practices to prevent more wildfires, due to the extremely dry conditions.

5P LOC/NEWS 5/16/12 1:30
Homeowners continue cleaning up after flooding left Genesee County in a State of Emergency. Many lost everything in the flooding and are hauling what's now garbage out to the curb. New research shows storms with heavy rain have become more common over the years. Suggestions to minimize damage are better infrastructure and more green areas to absorb the rain water.

11P LOC/NEWS 5/20/12 1:34
Officials blame a freight train for a rash of fires that followed the route of a mid-Michigan rail line. The fires started in the southern part of Bay City, jumped the Saginaw County line into Kochville Township, through Zilwaukee, Carrollton and into the City of Saginaw. High temperatures and low humidity added up to the perfect scenario to create the fires generated by sparks from the train.

11P LOC/NEWS 6/4/12 1:30
It's been one month since historic flooding left parts of Genesee County under water. Governor Snyder waits for word from the White House on whether President Obama will declare a state of emergency for the area. Residents still struggle with the damage.

5P LOC/NEWS 6/20/12 1:25
Many people are trying to keep cool tonight, heading to the store for a fan or air conditioner. Sales of these items are brisk, with inventory on some brands getting low. Retailers predict a long, hot season that is just getting underway.

11P LOC/NEWS 6/22/12 :39
The heat and humidity are bringing out mosquitoes--keeping Mosquito Control workers busy during the night time hours. Except for the Bay City State Recreation Area, who declined their services this year. The new park manager is scheduled to meet with Mosquito Control to better understand the types of treatments they use. He wants to be able to give visitors full disclosure of what chemicals are in the area.

8. Veterans/Middle East Wars

11P LOC/NEWS 4/12/12 1:30

A local soldier is tragically injured in Afghanistan. The man lost both his arms and legs after stepping on an improvised explosive device this week. While in high school the young man was captain of the football, basketball and baseball teams. Family says the military was a perfect fit for him. They felt he has enough determination and will to make him come back, and be a competitor again.

11P LOC/NEWS 4/20/12 1:38

A local soldier, severely injured while fighting in Afghanistan, underwent another surgery today at the Walter Reed Medical Center in Washington. Several fundraisers are planned or in the works to help ease the financial burden on the family. The injuries the soldier sustained will take a long time to completely heal and the community wants to make sure his family can be with him through it all.

11P LOC/NEWS 4/20/12 1:00

Family and friends of a U.S. navy Seabee gather in Frankenmuth to say a final goodbye. The Patriot Guard escorted the soldier's back from Detroit to his hometown where people gathered along the road, in the rain, to pay their last respects. The man was killed in a motorcycle accident while stationed in Mississippi. The Seabee served tours of duty in Iraq, Kuwait and Afghanistan. He also helped in Haiti after the earthquake there in 2010. The family lost his brother one year ago, making this news doubly hard.

5P LOC/NEWS 5/22/12 1:30

A mid-Michigan soldier, injured while fighting in Afghanistan, is on the road to recovery tonight. The young man lost both arms and legs when he stepped on an explosive, but continues to make remarkable progress toward recovery. Video posted shows he can now roll over and sit up without any help. He has been fitted with prosthetic limbs and is way ahead of schedule in his recovery, says a family spokesperson.

530P LOC/NEWS 5/28/12 1:54

5P NAT/NEWS 6/6/12 1:30
 It took less than 2 days to select a jury for accused child predator, former Penn State Assistant Coach Jerry Sandusky. Many of the jurors have ties to the university, including a current and former professor, an administrative employee, alumni and even a football season ticket holder. Sandusky's defense asked the judge to postpone the trial, saying the gag order had been violated when love letters from Sandusky were leaked to the media. The judge denied the request.

5P NAT/NEWS 6/12/12 1:30
 Day Two of emotional testimony wrapped up in the Jerry Sandusky sex abuse trial. Jurors heard from a former Penn State assistant coach who said he witnessed sex acts between a young boy and Sandusky. Earlier, testimony was given by a teen about sleepovers at Sandusky's home.

11P NAT/NEWS 6/23/12 1:33
 In Pennsylvania, Jerry Sandusky spent his first night in the Centre County Correctional Facility, as a convicted child predator. The coach wants to appeal his convictions. He was found guilty on 45 out of 48 sexual abuse counts. Eight victims testified that they were boys when Sandusky forced them to engage in sex with him. Famed football coach Joe Paterno and the university president were also fired, following the scandal.

10. School/Campus

5P LOC/NEWS 4/12/12 1:30
 Local schools are cracking down on bullying. The third summit for Genesee County schools took place today, bringing people together to explore their similarities not exploit their differences. It brought together all 21 school districts in Genesee County to talk about ways to stop bullying.

11P LOC/NEWS 4/16/12 :55
 As mandated by state law, Saginaw Township schools have rolled out a new anti-bullying policy. Very little comment was received by the public, despite what could be some big changes. The law expands the description of bullying to anything written, verbal, physical, act or electronic communication. The bullying section of the Saginaw Township School student handbook will be different for a kindergartener than a high school student.

11P LOC/NEWS 4/24/12 1:20
 Ervin "Magic" Johnson was known for his assists. Tonight he gave a big assist to the Saginaw Promise, who are trying to raise money and get that program up and running. The program promises up to $8,000 per year towards college for every graduate of the Saginaw School District. Saginaw Promise gets no federal or state money; it is hoping to raise $500,000 this year, with Magic's help.

5P LOC/NEWS 5/9/12 1:30
The Flint Community School District announced the closure of two middle schools and two elementary schools. There are two proposed plans that call for closing two middle schools and creating high schools that would house children in grades 7 through 12. This idea is not very popular with parents. The schools earmarked for closure fit the demographic and financial picture needed by the district to balance their budget.

6P LOC/NEWS 5/17/12 1:40
State Senator Roger Kahn of Saginaw Township laid out his plan to the State Senate, to eliminate pensions for newly hired teachers across the state. After hours of debate, the Senate approved a measure to end pensions for newly hired teachers, and replace them with a 401K retirement plan. It shifts a bigger portion of the retirement burden to the teachers themselves.

48 HOURS MYSTERY

06/02/12

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Secrets of a Marriage" - a report on questions surrounding the apparent suicide of Jocelyn Earnest, a successful businesswoman who was found dead in her Forest, Virginia home in December 2007, from a gunshot wound to her head -- with a revolver by her side and a suicide note on the floor. Investigators believe that the scene was set up: she was shot, her body was then moved and the scene arranged to suggest a sexual assault. Also, the note mentioned financial problems and a new love. To the investigators, it did not seem like a suicide note. They also found two fingerprints on the note they say matched those of her estranged husband Wesley Earnest, who was living and working in Chesapeake, Virginia -- more than three hours away. Jocelyn and Wesley Earnest met and married in 1995. With both making good salaries, they decided to build a multi-million dollar vacation getaway home on Smith Mountain Lake; but soon after, the couple's nine-year marriage was crumbling. Wesley was seeing another woman, Shameka Wright. When Jocelyn learned about Shameka Wright, she and Wesley separated and she filed for divorce. As the divorce proceedings started, it was the lake house they fought over: she wanted it sold. Investigators say he didn't want to let it go. In fact, Wesley, who was in charge of the couple's finances, was in a fix with loans, credit card debt and a more than $6000-a-month mortgage on the lake house. Investigators thought Wesley Earnest had killed Jocelyn for money. Fifteen months after the death, another bizarre twist occurred in this case: the multi-million dollar lake house burned to the ground while Wesley Earnest was out on bond awaiting trial. Investigators believed he was involved because the huge insurance payoff would resolve a lot of debt. At his April 2010 trial, the prosecution painted Earnest as a manipulative, desperate, greedy man who staged the murder scene and typed the suicide note himself. The jury found him guilty, but a mistrial was declared when it was revealed that jurors had read Jocelyn's journals, which had been ruled inadmissible, but were mistakenly provided to the jury. Seven months later, and more than two-and a half years after Jocelyn Earnest's death, another trial began. Once again, Wesley Earnest was found guilty of first-degree murder. The jury recommended a sentence of life in prison plus three years. The judge agreed. Onscreen text graphic: Wesley Earnest's first appeal was denied. Earnest and Shameka Wright have ended their relationship. On screen text graphic for the 06/02/12 rebroadcast: Wesley Earnest is appealing his conviction. Earnest and Shameka Wright have ended their relationship. Included interviews with: Wesley Earnest; his mother Patricia Wimmer; his girlfriend Shameka Wright; Jocelyn Earnest's sister Laura Rogers, mother Joyce Young and father Bill Branham; Marcy Shepherd, close friend of Jocelyn's; investigators Mike Mayhew and Gary Babb; Joey Sanzone, defense lawyer; prosecutors Wes Nance and Randy Krantz; Wesley Earnest's friends Tim McGovern, Sonya Stevens; Jocelyn Earnest's friend Jennifer Kerns. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Facebook Detectives" (10:00-11:00p) - A report about three Texas housewives, Tammye Markle, Joni Shannon and Tina Wiley, who call themselves the "Facebook Detectives" and who used the Internet to try to find their friend Lisa Stone, who disappeared from her Dallas home in June 2010. The four women had been friends in high school, but now kept in touch with each other via Facebook. Lisa posted every day, and her friends became worried when she abruptly stopped posting in June 2010. They confronted Lisa's former life partner Sherry Henry, who said that Lisa was out of town. That is also what she told the police. The three friends did not believe her and feared for Lisa's safety. They formed a Facebook page dedicated to finding Lisa. One evening when Joni Shannon was going back to question Sherry Henry, she realized that Sherry was in the car next to hers and she followed her. Sherry pulled in to a 7-11 parking lot, took things out of her car and put them into a dumpster. When Sherry left, Joni examined the dumpster and found personal items which had belonged to Lisa, including her birth certificate. When the women brought this new information to the attention of the police, they agreed to take another look at the case. The police confronted Sherry Henry, who still insisted that she did not know where Lisa was. She said that Lisa had financial problems and was dependent on medication for depression. Sherry claimed she was also using cocaine. Sherry said Lisa often went off for a few days, and that is why she didn't file a missing persons report. Homicide detective Jim Gallagher believes that Lisa Stone is dead. He feels that Sherry Henry is a person of interest in the case, but does not have enough evidence against her. Sherry Henry insists she is innocent and does not know where Lisa is. Lisa's friends are continuing their investigation on Facebook. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

06/09/12

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Redemption Song" - a report on the 1985 death of Natalie Antonetti, a woman who was part of the Austin, Texas music community. She was found beaten at home by her son, Johnny Goodie, and remained in a coma for two weeks before she died. The police investigation at the time focused on Marty Odem, a restaurant manager and sometime male stripper, who had a track record of violence. Police just did not have enough to go on, and he was never charged. He was later convicted of an unrelated rape and sent to prison; police then considered the case closed. In 2007, Austin Police Detective Tom Walsh reopened the cold case when an anonymous call came in naming Dennis Davis, a well-known name in the Austin music scene as a suspect. Davis had dated Antonetti, and at the time had what seemed like a solid alibi. But now, his wife, Becki Davis, was the one who called the police. Detective Walsh has found several women who have become key players in the investigation: Davis' then-girlfriend Ampour Garcia-Crow is certain he was not with her on the night in question; Linda Bless, who has seen his anger; and an ex-girlfriend Gelinda, who says that Dennis Davis confessed the murder to her. In 2009, 24 years after the murder, Davis was arrested. In April 2011, the case went to trial. Though the prosecution's case was largely circumstantial, they had the phone call that started it all. Dennis Davis was found guilty of the murder. At the sentencing hearing there was another shock: Becki and Dennis Davis had reconciled. He was sentenced to 36 years behind bars. The defense team still insisted they had a solid rebuttal but were unable to present their case. On screen graphic: Dennis Davis will be eligible for parole in 2028. He will be 78. He is appealing the verdict. The 06/09/12 v/o epilogue: A year after the verdict, the DA's office decided to take another look at the physical evidence in this case, and compare it to two similar crimes in Austin from the 1980s. They will search for DNA to see if it matches that of a suspect in those cases. ADA Mark Pryor says he's "happy to have a look" but, he says, he's confident the jury convicted the right man for murdering Natalie Antonetti. Included interviews with: Natalie Antonetti's son and musician Johnny Goodie; Mark Pryor, Austin Assistant District Attorney; Mark Hallman, Antonetti's friend; Austin Police Detective Tom Walsh; Dennis Davis, the suspect; Davis' former girlfriends, Amparo Garcia-Crow and Linda Bless; defense attorneys Wade Russell, Efrain De La Fuente. 06/12/12

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Name, Rank, Serial Killer?" (10:00-11:00p) - a report on Colonel Russell Williams, a highly-regarded Canadian military officer, and a crime spree that began with a series of bizarre thefts of lingerie and ultimately led to the discovery that he was a serial killer. In 2007, a series of crimes occurred in and around the town of Tweed, Ontario, where Col. Williams lived. In 2009, Laurie Massicotte, one of Williams' neighbors, was sexually terrorized in her home. Shortly afterwards, Marie France Comeau, a corporal at Trenton Airbase, where Williams was stationed, was beaten, raped, and suffocated to death. There were no leads in either case. Two months later, Jessica Lloyd went missing in the nearby town of Belleville, and authorities discovered their first solid clues: tire tracks and boot prints. In 2010, Col. Williams was stopped at a random roadblock. Police noticed his tire tracks matched the ones found near Jessica Lloyd's home. He was brought in for questioning and the ensuing battle of wits between the colonel and Det. Sergeant Jim Smith, the police interrogator from the Ontario Provincial Police, would uncover the details of his chilling double life. After nine hours of interrogation, he confessed, and told police where they could find videos of the crimes. The most surprising evidence however, were the trophies Williams kept to commemorate his crimes: thousands of underpants, bras and camisoles, found in his garage, and photos of him modeling the items. Authorities also found child pornography on his computer. In a deal that almost fell apart over the pornography issue, Williams pleaded guilty to the murders of Comeau and Lloyd, to two sexual assaults and to eighty-two counts of breaking and entering -- the bizarre underwear thefts that started it all. The judge sentenced him to the maximum, life behind bars, which he is serving at the penitentiary in Kingston, Ontario. Although the Canadian government stripped Williams of his rank, burned his uniform and crushed his car, he got to keep his air force pension. Concluding onscreen graphic: Laurie Massicotte is planning to sue the Ontario police for failing to protect her from Russell Williams. Onscreen text graphic for the 08/02/11 rebroadcast: Russell Williams' first assault victim is suing for 2.6 million dollars in damages. Laurie Massicotte is also suing Williams for damages; and she is suing the Ontario provincial police for failing to protect her. Onscreen text graphic for the 06/12/12 rebroadcast: Jessica Lloyd's family, Laurie Massicotte and the first assault victim are all suing Russell Williams for damages totaling more than $13 million. Laurie Massicotte is also suing the Ontario Provincial Police Department for failing to protect her after Williams assaulted a woman in her neighborhood. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Murder at the Manor" (10:00-11:00p) - a report about Harold "H" Landry, a self-made Cajun millionaire who left behind his life in Louisiana to pursue an international romance with a British woman he met online and how this seemingly perfect relationship ended when Lucy Landry was murdered at their home in February 2010. Landry confessed to stabbing his wife to death. Landry, or "H", as he is known to his friends, is a larger-than-life man who, after making a fortune in Louisiana, went looking for love online at the age of fifty-three. In 1989, he met Lucy Davies, a 28-year-old woman with a child who lived in the United Kingdom. His friends thought the romance seemed more like a business deal, and when Lucy became pregnant, Landry settled into a new life as a retiree and new father. Ten years later, Lucy asked for a divorce. According to his friends, he was in a terrible state and didn't know what to do. Then Lucy Landry was dead. He didn't deny that he killed her. The trial began for "the American Millionaire Murderer", as he was known in England, and the past came back to haunt him. In 1994, Landry had shot a man named Chris Pine, the angry husband of his girlfriend at the time. According to his attorney, who subsequently became a friend, his defense was that it was self-defense. He listened to his lawyer and was found guilty of the much lesser charge -- aggravated battery. He appealed, and eventually all he got was probation, a fine and some community service. Shortly afterwards, he began his new life with Lucy, who, he says, knew all about his previous crime. According to his friends, the marriage was collapsing because Landry believed Lucy was having an affair. He went to Mexico to cool off and when he returned, she had moved her boyfriend into the house. He was furious; divorce proceedings began -- and then Lucy Landry was dead. Shortly afterwards, the trial began, with Landry receiving an initial advantage: the Chris Pine shooting was ruled as inadmissible. His lawyers argued that the fight was the latest and last example of Lucy goading him with never-ending financial demands and threats. In a relatively brief trial, very different from American standards, that lasted eight days, Landry was convicted of murder. On screen text graphic: Landry is planning to appeal both murder conviction and sentence, a process which may take years. Interviewed: Harold "H" Landry; Lucy Landry's son James, from a previous marriage; Landry friends Wanda and Ernie Richardson; Pat Fanning (lawyer and friend); Helen Knifton; Police Officers Steve Elcocks, Ian Booth, Barney Tyrney; Kristin Harton (Landry family babysitter from 1994); Richard Vernalls, reporter, Worcester News; Andy Childs, one of Landry's attorneys. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Long Island Serial Killer" - a followup report to "Long Island Serial Killer" (OAD: 07/12/11; 1st rebroadcast: 12/17/11) on the disappearance of professional escort Shannan Gilbert, near Gilgo Beach, New York. The search for Shannan led to the discovery of a total of ten bodies in the scrub brush of Gilgo Beach, Long Island, New York, leading police to suspect the work of a serial killer. In this report, Suffolk County Police Commissioner Richard Dormer appears in his first one-on-one interview with Correspondent Erin Moriarty since remains identified as Shannan's were found this week. The other identified bodies included: Melissa Barthelemy, Amber Costello, Megan Waterman, and Maureen Brainard-Barnes, all who had been working as escorts, advertising their services on Craigslist. After police found and identified the previous four women, they discovered more bodies and body parts along the beach. Possible suspects include: Joseph Brewer, who hired Shannan; Michael Pak, Shannan's driver, who took her to Brewer's house; and Peter Hackett, a retired emergency services doctor who called Shannan's mother a few days after she went missing. Interviewed: Sherre and Sarra Gilbert, Shannan's sisters; Suffolk County Police Commissioner Richard Dormer (new and original footage); Attorney Robin Sax who was hired by the Gilbert family to help with the investigation of Shannan's disappearance; Gus Colletti, whose house Shannan ran to for help, resident of Oak Beach and neighbor of Joseph Brewer; Lynn Barthelemy, Melissa's mother; Steven Cohen, the Barthelemy family attorney; Vernon Geberth, retired New York City homicide commander; Dave Schaller, Amber Costello's roommate; Lorraine Ela, Megan Waterman's mother; and Melissa Cann, Maureen Brainard-Barnes' sister. (Andrew Strickler, a crime reporter with Long Island's Newsday, who had appeared in the original 07/12/11 broadcast, did not appear in the 12/17/11 rebroadcast or the 06/23/12 rebroadcast.) Onscreen graphics: Suffolk County Crime Stoppers is offering a cash reward of up to $25,000 for information leading to an arrest in the Long Island Serial Killer case. The 06/23/12 followup includes: an interview with John Ray, attorney for the Gilbert family. Authorities still believe Shannan was not a victim of foul play. Ray put the police's theory to the test by traveling into the marsh at the same time of year and day on what police believe was Shannan's path. Ray highlights houses nearby where Shannan most likely would have traveled to, the harshness of the marsh indicating Shannan would not have taken off her clothes, and shallow waters where her body was found making it unlikely for her to have drowned. Ray and his team did this to further defend his theory that Shannan was murdered in connection with the serial killer and believes her remains were dumped 100 ft. off of Ocean Parkway. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

06/26/12

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Pvt. Needham's War" (10:00-11:00p) - a report on the case of Pvt. John Needham, a decorated soldier diagnosed with traumatic brain injury (TBI) and post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), and who investigators say beat his 19-year-old girlfriend Jacque Villagomez to death with his bare hands in September 2008. Needham took responsibility for the murder, but remembered little of the crime, recognizing only that something inside him had snapped. After serving in Iraq, Needham had returned home, shattered physically and emotionally. He also suffered from combat injuries and was prescribed drugs which he downed with alcohol. He had known Villagomez, who had also struggled on and off with drug addiction, for only a few months when she moved in with him; his drinking escalated after that. After his father, Mike Needham Sr., told Jacque that she had to move out and she had agreed, an old girlfriend, Renee Stoner, came to the house, which upset Villagomez. An argument between the two women broke out, resulting in Stoner's departure and a call to 911. When police arrived, they found Jacque Villagomez battered and near death, with John Needham naked, crying, and smeared in blood. There was no evidence that anything other than Needham's fists were used to beat Villagomez and he was never able to provide a clear explanation for the killing. Released on bail, his father sought to get his son the care he believed he needed and insisted that the crime was not murder. The father argued that if not for Needham's war injuries, Villagomez would be alive today. To make his case, Mike Needham Sr. allowed investigative reporter Michael de Yoanna and a team of filmmakers to document the unraveling of his son's life. Before his trial, John visited his mother in Tucson, AZ in 2010 for additional back surgery. His brother, Mike Needham Jr., came to visit from California. Shortly after his arrival, Mike found his brother unresponsive -- he was dead at the age twenty-six. His death was determined to be from an overdose of painkillers, but the question remains as to whether it was an accident or suicide. The prosecutors in the Villagomez case says that John Needham may have been a good soldier, but that he needed to be held accountable for what he did. On screen text graphic: 48 Hours Mystery reached out repeatedly to the Army for a response to John Needham's story. The Army declined to comment. On screen text graphic for the 06/26/12 rebroadcast: On the anniversary of Jacque's death, the Savino sisters tossed flowers in the ocean in her memory. We reached out repeatedly to the army for an official response to John's story. The army declined to comment. Interviewed are: Villagomez's close friends Sarah and Spencer Savino; Mike Needham, Sr. (father) and Mike Needham, Jr. (brother); Joe Gaul, Orange County homicide detective; Michael de Yoanna, investigative journalist and CBS News consultant; Dr. Richard Friedman, Professor of Psychiatry, Weill Cornell Medical College; Michael Becker, public defender; Steve McGreevy, Orange County prosecutor. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

06/30/12

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Showdown in the Bedroom" - a followup to "Shootout at the Hills" (OAD: 11/27/10), a report on the November 14, 2006 shooting of Danny Hill, by his wife, Charlene. Charlene claimed that their seemingly happy life together was a facade and that she shot him in self-defense. Charlene's years of suffering physical abuse from Danny was well documented by police reports and hospital visits. Their children even admitted that their father, Danny, was abusive, but that he had mellowed after he and their mother had survived a near-fatal motorcycle accident in August 2003 and that their mother had often instigated the arguments, leaving Danny with no choice but to react the way he did. At the trial, prosecutors questioned Charlene's claim of self-defense and claimed that the multi-million dollar estate was the motive. The jury deliberated for two days, before the judge declared a mistrial. Prosecutors decided to try her for a second time. In January 2011, the second trial began. Prosecutors decided the focus would be on science and not sentiment. They presented a case based on forensics and had crime scene investigators and medical examiners testify. Charlene Hill again testified about why she believed her life was in jeopardy. The jurors even took a field trip to Charlene and Danny's bedroom. When deliberations began, it seemed to be another mistrial. The judge encouraged attorneys to broker a plea deal. They came to an agreement: no prison time but Charlene must admit that she murdered her husband. Charlene initially resisted, but agreed to the deal. When she was about to sign the agreement, the jury announced they had reached a verdict. Without reading the verdict, the judge made a decision -- he let both sides seal the deal. After the plea, it was found out that the verdict was guilty, and Charlene would have been sentenced to jail. The jurors were satisfied -- they believed that Charlene was guilty, but had suffered enough. Today, Charlene is trying to build a new life; however, her son Jeremy wants nothing to do with her, but her daughter Jamie has decided to forgive her after a bitter estrangement. On screen text graphic: Charlene Hill is on probation for 10 years. She's required to speak before battered women's groups, but she's forbidden from ever saying that she shot Danny in self-defense. Interviewed: Charlene Hill; her children, Jamie and Jeremy Hill; friends of Charlene's, Jennifer Hinch and Susan Watts; Charlene's defense attorneys, George Parnham and Dee McWilliams; Silvia Less-Sie, juror in the original trial who thought Charlene was innocent; original trial Bailiff Mary Charles; Judge James Shoemaker; Jose Trevino, Fort Bend, Texas Sheriff's Deputy; second trial prosecutors Jill Stotts and Chad Bridges; investigators Lester Phipps and Jeremy Goodrich; Dr. Sara Doyle, Medical Examiner; Dr. Stephen Pustilnik, Galveston County (TX) Medical Examiner. 04/29/12 “Hard Measures” - an interview with Jose Rodriguez, former head of the C.I.A.’s Clandestine Service, its counterterrorist unit. He discusses and defends the use of “enhanced interrogation techniques” - waterboarding, sleep deprivation, and confinement boxes - used on al Qaeda terrorist suspects, including Abu Zubaydah, captured in Pakistan in 2002; and Khalid Sheik Mohammed, the mastermind of 9/11. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Richard Bonin)
DOUBLE LENGTH SEGMENT
“Hooked” - an interview with Dr. Nora Volkow, head of the National Institute on Drug Abuse, who uses MRI scans on the brains of addicts to help explain the chemistry of drug addiction and other addictive behaviors, including eating. Dr. Volkow, who grew up in Mexico City, also discusses her family background, including her great-grandfather: Leon Trotsky, the Russian revolutionary who was killed in the house where she was raised. Also includes comments by Esteban Volkow, Nora’s father; and Patricia and Natalia Volkow, Nora’s sisters. (C: Morley Safer - P: David Browning, Jonathan Schienberg)

48 HOURS MYSTERY

04/07/12 48 HOURS MYSTERY: “A Family’s Honor” In October of 2009, 20-year-old Noor Almaleki and Amal Khalaf, the mother of her boyfriend Marwan, walked out of a Peoria, Arizona DES office and were struck by an SUV driven by Noor’s father and Iraqi immigrant, Faleh Hassan Almaleki. Detective Chris Boughey suspected this to be an “honor killing”. Honor killing is a practice found in some cultures, that allows a father to kill his daughter if he believes she acted in a dishonorable or disrespectful way. Amal Khalaf survived; however, Noor died from her injuries. The Almaleki family had moved from Iraq to Arizona in the mid 1990’s, and Faleh wanted his children to adhere to Iraqi traditions -- but Noor wanted to be a typical American girl. She had been brought back to Iraq to enter an arranged marriage when she was 17, but she left the marriage, returned to the United States, and eventually moved in with her boyfriend, Marwan Khalaf and his mother Amal. Noor’s parents made numerous verbal threats to her to return home, but she refused. Soon afterwards, her father struck her with his SUV. Faleh fled the country, but was later apprehended in London, and returned to the United States. He claimed that hitting the two women was an accident, but evidence of incriminating tire marks at the scene and the fact that the vehicle had no brake problems, seemed to indicate otherwise. However, these facts and other incriminating evidence were not enough to convince a jury that Noor’s father was guilty of first degree murder. Instead, the jury found Faleh guilty of the lesser charge of second-degree murder, meaning they did not agree the attack on Noor was premeditated, or an honor killing. Judge Roland Steinle sentenced Faleh to 34-and-a-half years in prison for killing Noor and gravely injuring Amal. On-Screen Graphics: While members of Noor’s family were questioned about the crime, no one other than her father was charged. Interviewed: Peoria, Arizona Police Detective Chris Boughey; CBS News Consultant Abigail Pesta; Adhi, Noor’s friend; Amal Khalaf, Noor’s boyfriend’s mother; Marwan Khalaf, Noor’s boyfriend; Nuha, Noor’s friend; Jasvinder Sanghera, founder, Karma Nirvana; Lina, Karma Nirvana caller; Laura Reckart, prosecutor; Elizabeth Mullins, defense attorney; Jeff Kirchler, defense attorney; Charles Cooper, witness; Shaneil Nakamoto, witness; Ali, Noor’s brother. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Stranger Beside Me" - On March 18, 2010, Jamie Laiaddee vanished from her home in a suburb of Phoenix, Arizona. Her live-in boyfriend Bryan Stewart told everyone she had moved to Denver, Colorado to take a new job. When detectives started searching for Jamie, they discovered Bryan was a con man, and suspected he was also her killer. Jamie and Bryan met through a University of Michigan Alumni Club, and dated for more than two years. Bryan lied to Jamie about most of his life. His real name was Rick Wayne Valentini; he never attended the University of Michigan; he served two years in military prison; and he had three ex-wives and two daughters. When detectives searched Bryan/Rick's apartment they found Jamie's wallet and a small white envelope containing Jamie's driver's license, some credit cards, and her University of Michigan Alumni card, cut up into pieces. Moreover, Bryan/Rick was using her credit cards for online dating websites. He continued to claim Jamie took $100,000 and moved to Colorado for a new job, but this claim was dismissed after Jamie's new boss showed up in court detailing how he had just hired Jamie - in Arizona. A jailhouse snitch took the stand and said Bryan/Rick told him that the police knew he killed Jamie. Bryan/Rick testified last and claimed he and Jamie communicated via e-mail and telephone after her disappearance, but the prosecution forced him to admit he had not seen or spoken to her. On March 24, 2011, a Grand Jury indicted Bryan/Rick on charges of second-degree murder of his girlfriend, Jamie Laiaddee. He was also charged with fraud for using her credit cards without her permission. On-Screen Graphics: Bryan Stewart is now inmate 268586 and is known to his jailers as Rick Wayne Valentini. His sentence for murder and fraud: 54 years. Interviewed: Sheila Dubs, Gweneth Newman and Jennifer Langguth, Jamie's college friends; Vunnee and Jimmy Laiaddee, Jamie's parents; Marlene Buffa, University of Michigan Alumni Group President; Burke Files, private investigator; Troy Spielman, detective; Nate Moffat, detective; Juan Martinez, prosecutor; Andrea Aardsma, witness; Kevin Tierney, who would have been Jamie's new boss; David Beauchamp, lawyer; Valarie Shafer, juror; Max Covil, attorney; Leon Lead, juror. 48 HOURS MYSTERY - "Mystery on Twin Peaks Drive" - a report on the December 16, 1998 death of Ronda Reynolds, whose husband found her lifeless body with a gunshot wound to the head in her home on Twin Peaks Drive in Toledo, Washington. The death was quickly ruled a suicide. Refusing to accept the findings, Ronda's mother, Barb Thompson, launched her own investigation. She enlisted the help of world-famous true crime writer Ann Rule, who eventually wrote the bestseller "In the Still of the Night", about the case. Their investigation led Washington State authorities to revisit the case by holding a coroner's inquest -- a rare and unusual proceeding -- to determine the cause of death and who might be responsible. The inquest resulted in the death being reclassified as a homicide and it determined that she had died at the hands of either her husband Ronald A. Reynolds and/or Ronald's son, Jonathan A. Reynolds. However, the Lewis County prosecutor announced he would not prosecute either man because most of the evidence had been destroyed after Ronda's death. The case remains an open investigation. On Screen Text graphic: The Reynolds family is contemplating suing Barb Thompson, Ann Rule and the Lewis County Coroner. Changes were proposed to Washington State's law following the Reynold's case. A judge or prosecutor would have to approve any coroner's arrest warrant. Interviewed: Barb Thompson, Ronda Reynolds' mother; Ann Rule, author; Ron Reynolds, husband; Jonathan Reynolds, Ron Reynolds' son from a previous marriage; Detective Jerry Berry and Detective Sergeant Glade Austin, members of the Lewis County Sheriff's Department; Coroner Warren McLeod. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Death Wish" - a report on questions surrounding the July 2009 death of Jeffrey Locker, whose body was found slumped over the steering wheel of his car in Harlem, New York. Initially, it appeared that Locker had simply been in the wrong place at the wrong time; however, when authorities tracked Locker's ATM card to Kenneth Minor and questioned him, Minor said Locker had begged Minor to kill him. 48 HOURS MYSTERY interviewed Minor in depth and he described how Locker was circling around a block in Harlem and approached Minor about how to find a gun. Then, Locker told Minor that he wanted him to shoot him. Minor asked for $60, went to buy drugs, and later called Locker and told him he couldn't find a gun. Minor questioned Locker as to why he needed Minor to kill him and Locker explained that he wanted his family to collect millions from his life insurance policies and if he committed suicide, there was no payment on the policy. Furthermore he told Minor how he was caught in a Ponzi scheme and had several lawsuits against him. Minor was promised money from Locker if he helped to kill him, and Locker gave him his ATM card and PIN. As they sat in Locker's car, Minor was asked to get a knife out of the glove compartment, and Locker asked him to hold it at the steering wheel, and Locker lunged at the knife numerous times, killing himself. To help prove Minor's story, his defense lawyer found another man, Melvin Fleming, who said Locker had approached him days prior, with the same request. Instead, Fleming decided to con Locker and did not help him. During Minor's trial, the defense argued that this was a case of assisted suicide. Evidence revealed during the trial highlighted Locker's severe financial troubles, pending lawsuits, and most notably, a multimillion-dollar life insurance policy that Locker had purchased months before his death. The prosecution challenged the assisted suicide claim and argued that Minor was simply a cold-blooded killer. After hours of deliberation, Minor was found guilty of murder and sentenced to 20 years to life. On-Screen Graphics: Locker's widow is suing to get $4 million worth of life insurance from a policy he bought a month-and-a-half before his death. As for the other $8 million in policies, the insurance companies refuse to say whether they paid the family. Interviewed: Robert Stewart, NYPD detective; Laura Italiano, New York Post reporter; Steve D'Annunzio, Locker's friend; Robert Miller, insurance executive; Al Brodbeck, who hired Locker as a business coach; Kevin Flynn and Jeff Hershman, detectives; Kenneth Minor, murder suspect; Dan Gotlin, Minor's defense lawyer; Melvin Fleming, Harlem resident; Murray Weiss, police reporter and CBS News Consultant; Peter Casolaro, prosecutor; Michael Barry, investigator; Cyril Wecht, forensic scientist; Kirt Markle, jury member. CBS RELIGIOUS AND CULTURAL SPECIAL

"What They Believe" - a report on the deep traditions, beliefs, and interesting spiritual histories of three religions not well known in the United States -- Hinduism, Zoroastrianism, and the Bahá'í faith. (1) Hinduism is the world's oldest faith tradition that does not have a prophet, a common creed, or doctrine. North America is home to an estimated 1.5 million Hindus, with the majority of adherents living in India. (2) Zoroastrianism is a 3,500-year-old faith tradition based on the teachings of the prophet Zarathustra in ancient Persia, now Iran. Zoroastrians believe in one God (monotheism) and that through the acts of good thoughts, words, and deeds one can triumph over evil. Their population was once in the millions, but today it is estimated at about 125,000 worldwide with an estimated 25,000 Zoroastrians in the United States. (3) The Bahá'í faith was founded by Bahá'u'lláh in 19th-century Persia (now Iran). Bahá'ís believe that there is only one religion which has been progressively revealed by a series of Divine Messengers of which their prophet, Bahá'u'lláh, is said to be the latest in a succession that includes Krishna, Abraham, Zoroaster, Moses, Buddha, Christ and Mohammed. Includes comments from: John H. Hawley, Professor of Religion, Barnard College; Anand Venkatkrishnan, Columbia University, Doctoral Student of Religion; Dr. Uma Mysorekar, President, Hindu Temple Society of North America; members of the Rivetna family: Rohinton Rivetna, Founder & Former President, Federation of the Zoroastrian Association of North America (FEZANA); his wife, Roshan Rivetna, Former Editor of Fezana, a publication dedicated to Zoroastrianism in North America; and their son Cyrus Rivetna, an architect; Glen Fullmer, Director of Communications, Bahá'í National Center; Scott Conrad, Project Manager, Bahá'í Temple Restoration. 48 HOURS MYSTERY

- 05/05/12 48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Writing on the Wall" - a report on the investigation into the May 5, 2009 murders of the wife and two children of Christopher Coleman, the security chief for televangelist Joyce Meyer Ministries. In Columbia, Illinois on the morning of May 5, Coleman called his neighbor, police detective Justin Barlow, and asked him to check on his wife, Sheri, and their two young sons, Gavin and Garrett, after his own calls had gone unanswered. In months prior he had made local police aware of explicit death threats he was receiving regarding his involvement in Meyer's ministry. Barlow entered the house that morning through an unlocked basement window and upon entry he found spray-painted messages on the walls, with the phrases "you have paid" and "punished", and when he went upstairs he discovered the bodies of Coleman's family strangled to death in each of their beds. An investigation began and soon after police discovered Coleman was having a serious affair with cocktail waitress Tara Lintz, a high school friend of Sheri's. Sheri's friends came to her defense telling police Sheri said her husband was having an affair and if anything happened to her, Chris did it. Moreover, the crime scene lab found the handwriting on the wall matched up to Coleman's script. Two weeks after the murders police had enough evidence to charge Coleman with first-degree murder of his family. The trial for Coleman began two years later and the prosecution's computer experts discovered the e-mail threats came from Coleman's laptop, and one can of the spray paint used on the walls of his house was purchased at a local hardware store with a computerized signature linked to Coleman. The jury needed more evidence though, and it came from one of the jurors who noticed the date on a picture of Coleman and Lintz kissing which proved Coleman lied to them about when the affair began. After a guilty verdict, the judge sentenced Coleman to life in prison. 48 HOURS MYSTERY spoke to Coleman by phone and he denied planning to divorce Sheri to marry his mistress and said he did not know who murdered his family. On Screen Text Graphics: Sheri's family is suing Joyce Meyer Ministries. They claim the murders might have been prevented if the Ministries had investigated the threats more seriously. May 5th is the three-year anniversary of the murders of Sheri, Garrett and Gavin Coleman. Interviewed: Chris Coleman; Justin Barlow, detective; Joe Edwards, Columbia Police Chief; Major Jeff Connor, Major Case Squad, St. Louis; Vanessa Riegerix, neighbor; Nick Pistor, St. Louis Post-Dispatch reporter; Kathy LaPlante, Sheri's friend; Angela DiCiccio, Sheri's mother; Meegan Turnbeaugh, Sheri's friend; Connie and Ron Coleman; Chris' parents; Ed Parkinson, prosecutor; Bill Margulis, Chris's lawyer; Gina West, juror; Olivia Shopinski, juror; Jonece Pearman, jury foreperson. 05/12/12

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Ransom" - a report on the mysterious 2008 disappearance of Robert Wiles, the son of millionaire business owner Tom Wiles, who received an e-mail ransom note demanding $750,000 for the safe return of the 26-year-old, who had been working at the family business, National Flight Services in Lakeland, Florida, an aircraft maintenance company with offices and clients worldwide. On April 3, Tom Wiles opened an e-mail from his son Robert. It was a ransom demand signed, "Group X", and asked for Tom to put $750,000 in Robert's office if he ever wanted to see his son alive again. Robert was last seen by his co-worker Stobert (Toby) Holt on April 1, 2008, and the kidnappers set a deadline of April 8th to receive the money. Tom involved the FBI with the ransom note, and when Tom arrived in Florida they set up a sting operation in Robert's office to try to find out who the kidnappers were. After monitoring a box placed in Robert's office filled with coffee that weighed the same as $750,000, days started to pass by with no one entering the room. Toby Holt, Operations Manager, was handpicked by Tom to assist the FBI in monitoring Robert's office. There were no leads in the case until agents tracked Robert's phone records to see which cell towers were used, and this lead them to subpoena the Florida Turnpike Authority to view video of toll booths on the Polk Parkway. When Tom viewed the tape, he recognized Toby Holt's car pass through a toll. In the picture Toby's right arm looks to be in a position of holding a phone, and when agents went through Holt's phone record, it showed his number was not in use while going through the tolls, piquing the FBI's interest. This is when the investigation, which had been focused on the Wiles' family and an alcoholic ex-employee, Steve Lindsey, turned solely towards Toby Holt. When agents brought Holt in for questioning they determined his whereabouts on the night of Robert's disappearance were unsubstantiated and he lied when he said he didn't have any guns in his car when they found a handgun under the hood. Moreover, Holt was cheating on his wife with at least a dozen women. The FBI called in reinforcements to help move along the case with local police and detectives, and this group discovered Holt and Robert's phones were traveling together to make for a good circumstantial case. On December 19, 2009 agents arrested Toby Holt for extortion, kidnapping, and first-degree murder. 48 HOURS MYSTERY spoke with Holt while he was in South County Jail through television cameras and monitors, and he maintained his innocence. The trial opened in January 2012 and the prosecution used phone records as evidence in addition to work e-mails, showcasing a contentious relationship between Robert and Holt as a motive. Holt's lawyer said he was taking a sip of Diet Dr. Pepper when the photo was taken of him going through the toll booth, not using a phone; he pinned everything on ex-worker Steve Lindsey. However, Steve Lindsey died of lung cancer while the case was under investigation. The jury spent four hours deliberating and the judge read, "...the defendant is guilty of manslaughter." Holt was sentenced to 30 years in prison for manslaughter and extortion. Robert's body has yet to be found. On Screen Text Graphics: Toby Holt is appealing his conviction based on insufficient evidence. Holt is currently scheduled for release in 2039. He will be 72 years old. Interviewed: Tom Wiles, Robert's father; Audra Wiles, Robert's sister; Pamela, Robert's mother; Tierney Wiles, Robert's sister; David Palmisano, Robert's friend; Jim Bucenell, FBI Special Agent; Dan Kelly, FBI Special Agent; Janie Beard, Robert's barber; Joel Valle, airplane engine repair company owner; Tommy Ray, Florida Special Agent; Cass Castillo, prosecutor; Howardene Garrett, Assistant Public Defender; Stobert (Toby) Holt, NFS worker; Beverly Holt, Toby's ex-wife. 48 HOURS MYSTERY: LIVE TO TELL: "An Officer and a Hero" - a report on the October 5, 2009 botched robbery and home invasion that left off-duty St. Louis Police Officer Isabella Lovadina and her then-boyfriend, firefighter Nick Koenig grievously wounded and his cousin Gina Stallis dead. Lovadina and Koenig were taking an EMT class together in October 2009 in St. Louis, Missouri, and after class one evening they went to Nick's grandmother's house to study. When Nick walked Isabella to her car at 12:30am, she placed her gun and bulletproof vest inside and went to give Nick a hug goodbye. Two males approached them with guns drawn demanding whatever they had, and when Isabella said she didn't have anything they pointed to Nick's grandmother's house and directed them to go inside. Isabella and Nick were forced to their knees in the hallway upon entry. One of the gunmen, described as wearing a red hoodie with two gold teeth, went upstairs where Ida Rask, Nick's grandmother, his Aunt Rose, his cousin Gina Stallis and her two young sons were sleeping. The gunman forced Gina to carry a large TV down the stairs and the three women were then pressured to kneel next to Nick and Isabella while the two boys were left alone. Isabella decided to lunge up against the gunman described as wearing a black hoodie and started fighting with him, while Nick fought with the other man. Rose ran out the front door and started approaching neighbor's houses for help, with no avail. Shots rung out and Isabella was struck by the man in the black hoodie five times, point blank; Nick was shot three times, and Gina suffered shots that killed her. Gina's son Sam, 9-years old at the time, called 911 and soon after police and EMT's arrived. The intruders ran away before cops arrived. Isabella and Nick were rushed to the hospital. Nick had a bullet stuck in the back of his neck, too close to the spinal cord to operate on. A short time after the robbery a man checked into the ER at Barnes Hospital across town with a gunshot wound in his hand, and the ER technician tending to him noticed his gold teeth, the red hoodie covered in blood, and told the cops immediately. Police arrived at Barnes Hospital and arrested Ledale Nathan when they identified his red hoodie, and chased the man in the black hoodie, Mario Coleman, into a park and arrested him. Police found Nick's grandmother's jewelry and a black gun tossed in the park nearby. After Isabella identified the two men they were charged with first degree murder. Nathan was 16-years old at the time of the incident but he stood trial as an adult and the jury found him guilty. Coleman's trial was next and he was also found guilty of murder. Rose Whitrock has taken custody of her grandchildren. Two and a half years after the incident Nick was in a car accident and soon after he coughed up the bullet that was lodged in his cervical spine. Isabella retired from the Police Department and at her final roll call Mayor Francis G. Slay of St. Louis proclaimed February 6, 2012 as Police Officer Isabella Lovadina day. On Screen Text Graphics: Mario Coleman and Ledale Nathan Jr. were sentenced to life without the possibility of parole. Nick hopes to one day finish the class he started and become an EMT. Interviewed: Isabella Lovadina, victim; Nick Koenig, victim; Rose Whitrock, Nick's aunt, victim; Ida Rask, Nick's grandmother, victim; Sgt. Roger Engelhardt, St. Louis Police Dept.; Officer Lori Brewer, St. Louis Police Dept.; Beth Orwick, prosecutor; John Bird, prosecutor. (Producers: Shoshanah Wolfson, Sara Rodriguez)

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "One of Their Own" - a follow-up report about how and why decorated female Los Angeles Police Detective Stephanie Lazarus was charged with the 1986 murder of Sherri Mae Rasmussen. The victim, newly married to John Ruetten, Lazarus' ex-boyfriend, was attacked, beaten and shot to death in her Los Angeles home. Police pursued a robbery motive, even though the only things missing were her car and her marriage certificate. For more than two decades, her father, Nels Rasmussen, has been on a frustrating quest to find out the truth about his daughter's murder. Believing that Sherri's husband, John Ruetten, was not involved, he says he has tried many times to get the police to focus on John's ex-girlfriend Stephanie Lazarus. Sherri had told her family that Stephanie was still obsessed with John and believed that Sherri had stolen John away from her. Recently, the LAPD cold case squad quietly re-opened the case. A piece of evidence -- a saliva sample taken from a bite mark on Sherri's arm -- was sent to a DNA lab. The results indicated that it belonged to a woman, and led police to suspect one of their own: Stephanie Lazarus. Finally Nels Rasmussen felt that police were listening to him. Detectives trailed Stephanie Lazarus to obtain a DNA sample and the results were stunning: the DNA from Sherri's bite mark and that of Stephanie Lazarus matched. In a covert operation, a team planned her arrest and in June 2009, Lazarus was charged with first-degree murder. Her trial is expect to begin shortly. 05/22/10 onscreen text graphic: If convicted, Stephanie Lazarus could face life in prison. A judge ruled out the death penalty. 07/19/11 updated onscreen text graphic: Stephanie Lazarus's trial is set for August. The 05/26/12 follow-up covers the trial of Stephanie Lazarus: The defense maintained the DNA evidence was mishandled for two decades while prosecutors still had a strong circumstantial case. After four weeks and over 60 witnesses, Lazarus was found guilty. At her sentencing Sherri's mother, sister, and husband spoke to the court describing their own pain and highlighting the type of person Sherri Mae Rasmussen was. John Ruetten apologized to the Rasmussen family, feeling particularly sorry it was someone connected to him who committed the murder. A judge sentenced Lazarus to 27 years to life in the state penitentiary with a chance of parole after 16 years. On Screen Text Graphic for the 05/26/12 follow-up: The Rasmussen's sued the LAPD for covering up a murder committed by one of their own. A judge dismissed the case. The family is appealing that decision. Interviewed: Andrew Blankstein and Joel Rubin, LA Times reporters; Sherri's sister Teresa Lane; Nels and Loretta Rasmussen, Sherri's parents; Jayne Goldberg and Peggy Crabtree, Sherri's friends; Mark Overland, Lazarus' attorney; John Taylor, the Rasmussen's attorney; Alan Tarsky, Sherri's neighbor; Burt Luper, a retired LAPD detective who is now on Lazarus' defense team; Steven Lazarus, Stephanie's brother. 48 HOURS MYSTERY (continued)

05/29/12

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Murder In The OC" (10:00-11:00p) - an updated rebroadcast of a report on the 1994 murder of millionaire businessman Bill McLaughlin in his Newport Beach, California home. After his divorce, McLaughlin, a devoted father and family man became involved with the much-younger Nanette Johnston, who it was later discovered, made a habit of seeking out wealthy men to date. Following the murder, police initially considered a business associate, but then focused their investigation closer to home. His ex-wife and daughters had airtight alibis. Nanette Johnston's alibi did not exactly check out: she had been at her son's soccer game with another man, Eric Naposki. McLaughlin's family, when asked, knew nothing about him, but police referred to him as Nanette's boyfriend. In his first on-camera interview regarding the case, Naposki, once a professional football player for the NFL, says that Nanette Johnston was his girlfriend in 1994, and he had his own plans of marrying her. He says that Johnston told him that McLaughlin was once her boss but had become her business partner and that there was no romantic relationship -- she had led him to believe that McLaughlin's money was her own. Though he was a suspect, police never had enough to bring the case to trial. Nanette was charged with theft, pleaded guilty, served some time, and then married and divorced several very wealthy men. Naposki moved on with his life; moving to the East Coast and becoming a personal trainer. In 2009, police called the McLaughlin family and told them they had arrested Nanette Johnson Packard McNeill and Eric Naposki for the murder. According to Naposki, the only person to profit from McLaughlin's murder was Nanette. With no fingerprints or DNA, Orange County Deputy District Attorney Matt Murphy had no problem with Naposki's attorneys blaming Johnston, but still believes Naposki pulled the trigger. After four weeks of trial, the jury convicted Naposki of murder. 10/29/11 on screen text graphic: Nanette Johnston sued the McLaughlin family soon after his murder for money she felt she was entitled to. They settled for $220,000. Eric Naposki's lawyers have filed to overturn his conviction. They argue favorable evidence was lost because prosecutors waited so long to file charges. The 05/29/12 update includes: At trial, Nanette Johnston was found guilty of murder. Eight months after his conviction, Eric Naposki contacted 48 HOURS with information which he said would reveal who really killed Bill McLaughlin. After pouring over evidence while incarcerated, he believes that Nanette arranged a hit for $50,000 with a Hollywood producer he had done business with and introduced her to. Police have investigated, but they consider the producer an unlikely suspect. Nanette Johnston was recently sentenced to life in prison. Naposki continues his appeal. On Screen Text Graphic: Eric Naposki is now scheduled to be sentenced in August. Included interviews with: Matt Murphy, Orange County Assistant District Attorney; daughters Jenny McLaughlin and Kim McLaughlin; brother Patrick McLaughlin; Don Kalal, McLaughlin's best friend; lead detective Tom Voth; Eric Naposki; Angela Licata, Naposki's sister; Dave Matthews, Leonard Jomsky, Rob Frias, friends of Eric Naposki's; Angelo McDonald, Gary Pohlson, John Pappalardo, Naposki's defense attorneys; Larry Montgomery, investigator; Dave Byington, retired detective.
