60 MINUTES

- 04/07/19 “The Principles of Ray Dalio” – an interview with Ray Dalio, the billionaire founder of the investment firm Bridgewater Associates, and his belief that income and wealth inequality is a national emergency. Dalio is guided by a principle “radical truth,” filming all company meetings so employees can observe and critique each other, and in the “redistribution of opportunities” through higher taxes on wealthy people. He hopes to “move the probabilities” towards a constructive solution to the wealth inequality problem. Includes an interview with Ray Dalio’s wife Barbara. (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Guy Campanile, Lucy Hatcher, LaCrai Mitchell)
- “A Radical Solution” – a report on NYU Langone Medical School, which has become the first tuition free medical school in an attempt to address the problem of debt taken on by new doctors. The medical community believes the costs associated with medical school deters people from middle class and lower income families from becoming doctors, and students and medical educators agree that the NYU program will provide a better medical education, increase access to medical education in poorer communities, and begin to address the growing shortage of primary care doctors and medical care in rural and inner city communities. Includes interviews with Dr. Ezekiel Emanuel, Chair of Medical Ethics and Health Policy at the University of Pennsylvania; Dr. Rafael Rivera, Dean of Admissions at New York University Medical School; Ken Langone, a philanthropist who donated to the tuition-free initiative; and students Joe Babinski and Elaine DeLeon. (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Rome Hartman)
- “Attu” – a report on the Japanese invasion of Attu, a small island on the western end of Alaska, during World War II, and the death of Paul Tatsuguchi, a Japanese soldier who had been conscripted from his home in America with his wife. Dick Laird, the American soldier who killed Tatsuguchi, found Tatsuguchi’s diary on Attu and was haunted for years by killing a man who should not have been there until finally making peace with Tatsuguchi’s daughter many years later. Includes interviews with Mark Obmascik, author and journalist; Harry Sasser, a U.S. soldier who fought in the Attu conflict; and Laura Tatsuguchi, daughter of Paul Tatsuguchi. (C: John Wertheim – P: Draggan Mihailovich)
- 04/14/19 “The Leader” – an interview with Nancy Pelosi, the first female speaker of the house and most powerful woman in U.S. political history, who began her second term as speaker three months ago. Pelosi discusses the different obstacles she must navigate as the leader of congressional Democrats including factions within her party, a divisive President Trump, and partisan gridlock. Includes interviews with Rep. Anna Eshoo (D-CA); Rep. Karen Bass (D-CA); Rep. Suzanne Bonamici (D-OR); Rep. Primila Jayapa (D-WA); Rep. Ann McLane Kuster (D-NH); and Rep. Jim Wright (D-TX), who was Speaker of the House from 1987-89. - “Game of Thrones” – a report on Game of Thrones, the hit HBO TV series entering its final season. George R.R. Martin, the author of the books the show is based on, and the actors who bring his fantasy world to life detail the relatable themes of the show that make it so popular and give viewers a behind the scenes look at how the theatrical series is made. Includes interviews with author George R.R. Martin; TV adaptors Dave Benioff and Dan Weiss; costume designer Barrie Gower; and actors Emilia Clarke, Maise Williams, Peter Dinklage, Nikolaj Coster-Waldau, Lena Headey, Kit Harrington, Gwendoline Christie, Liam Cunningham, and John Bradley. (C: Anderson Cooper – P: John Hamlin)
- “Last Shot in Oakland” – a report on the Golden State Warriors, the two-time defending NBA champions playing their final season in their current home arena. The fan enthusiasm for the team, which boasts some of the greatest players in basketball history, is a spectacle unlike anything else in sports. Coach Steve Kerr and players Stephen Curry, Kevin Durant, and Klay Thompson discuss what makes their team special and the challenges involved in playing for a third consecutive championship. Includes interviews with head coach Steve Kerr; owners Peter Guber and Joe Lacob; President and COO Rick Welts; players Andre Iguodala, Klay Thompson; Stephen Curry, Kevin Durant, and Eric Housen; and fan Tyri Kayshawn. 60 MINUTES (continued)

- 04/21/19 “A Marriage Made in Hell” – a report on criminal Russian hackers, specifically the prolific Evgeniy Bogachev, and the role they play in Russian espionage. Bogachev, a master hacker who created a computer virus that has stolen over 100 million dollars for businesses and individuals, was turned into an intelligence asset by the Russian government and given cover to continue his cybercrime. According to former assistant attorney general for national security John Carlin, the Russian government’s treatment of Bogachev is just one of many examples of the way Russia and the Vladimir Putin regime decline to prosecute cyber criminals, instead using their skills to spy on other countries. Includes interviews with former assistant attorney general for national security, John Carlin; Dave Hickton, a former U.S. attorney who oversaw the Borgachev investigation; Tom Burt, vice president of cybersecurity at Microsoft; and Brett Stone-Gross, an analyst from the cybersecurity firm CrowdStrike. (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Richard Bonin, Ayesha Siddiqi)
- “Superbugs” – a report on antibiotic resistant bacteria, or “superbugs,” and their growing prevalence worldwide. Studies have shown that two-thirds of all antibiotic prescriptions are unnecessary, and overuse by humans combined with the integration of antibiotics into farm animal feed has spurred the evolution and proliferation of antibiotic resistant bacteria. Includes interviews with David Ricci, former patient, infected while teaching in New Delhi, India; Ramanan Laxminarayan, an economist and senior research scholar at Princeton University; Dr. Mamta Jajoo, a doctor at the neonatal intensive care unit at Chacha Nehru Children’s Hospital in New Delhi; Michael Baym, a Harvard University biologist; Jeff O’Regan, the first American diagnosed with MCR-1; and Dr. Sarah Turbett, a microbiologist and infectious disease doctor. (C: Holly Williams – P: Denise Schrier Cetta)
- “Easter Island” – a report on the Moai, the giant, human-like statues built hundreds of years ago on Easter Island, detailing the efforts to preserve the slowly disintegrating statues and the effects of tourism on the relationship the indigenous people, whose ancestors built the Moai, have with the statues. Includes interviews with Pedro Edmunds Paoa, the mayor of the only town on Easter Island; Jo Anne Van Tilburg, a professor of archaeology at the University of California, Los Angeles; and Cristan Moreno Pakarati, a historian and tour guide on the island. (C: Anderson Cooper – P: Keith Sharman)
- 04/28/19 “On the Border” – a report on the massive number of migrant families crossing the U.S. southern border and the Department of Homeland Security’s attempts to handle the large crowds. Kevin McAleenan, the acting Secretary of Homeland Security, who enforced the department’s now defunct policy of separating children from parents at the border as a way of deterring migrants from attempting to cross, explains how DHS facilities are overrun with families, which they are not equipped to handle. McAleenan also explains how U.S. law allows migrant families to remain in the country until they’ve seen a judge, which can take up to five years with the current case backlog. McAleenan calls the situation at the border “absolutely both” a humanitarian and national security crisis. Includes interviews with Marcelino Medina, a U.S. border patrol officer; Chief Patrol Agent Rudy Karisch; Sister Norma Pimental, who runs a Catholic Charities Respite Center in Texas; and migrant families. (See also: “Chaos on the Border”, OAD: 11/25/18) (C: Sharyn Alfonsi– P: Oriana Zill de Granados, Michael Rey)
- “Online Overdose” – a report on fentanyl, a synthetic opioid that has seen a rise in popularity in the U.S. and that experts say is responsible for the recent rise in U.S. overdose deaths. Fentanyl is largely produced in Chinese labs and shipped to the U.S. through the postal service. One particularly profitable drug ring, Gordon Jin, boasts that it ships fentanyl to 5 continents and all 50 states. Includes interviews with James Raugh, whose son overdosed; Matt Cronin and Justin Herdman, U.S. attorneys; Senator Rob Portman (R-OH); and half of the team posing as Gordon Jin. - “The High North” – a report on Norway, its role in NATO, and the border it shares with Russia. Norway is the northernmost country in NATO and plays a critical role in gathering intelligence on Russian naval operations. New Russian submarines make Norway’s role even more vital, and the U.S. recently staged a military demonstration in the arctic circle as a message to Russia that the U.S. will protect Norway. Includes interviews with Lieutenant General Rune Jakobsen, Norway’s joint force commander; Captain Carina Vinterdal, who guards Norway’s northern border; Admiral James Foggo, commander of U.S. naval forces in Europe; Major Leif Otterholm, a tactical flight coordinator; and Ine Erikson Soreide, Norway’s foreign minister. 04/13/19 48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "The Vendetta" – the story of Texas judge Julie Kocurek who was shot multiple times in 2015 by an unknown man in the driveway of her home. Arriving home on a typical Friday night, mother and son were confronted by Chimene Onyeri, who pulled out a gun and started shooting. The gunman was armed with bullets which shattered into fragments upon impact, leaving the judge with hundreds of wounds. She was left critically wounded, put in a medically induced coma, and endured multiple operations to save her life. Authorities believed she was the target of someone planning to shoot a judge. Onyeri's girlfriend alerted authorities, but the district attorney's office investigator determined she was not credible and never alerted Judge Kocurek. Onyeri was arrested a few days after the shooting and eventually found guilty. Judge Kocurek discusses the terrifying moments of the shooting, how she found the strength to survive, and her efforts to protect other public officials. On screen text graphic: Other states are now following Texas' lead, moving to improve judicial security. Judge Kocurek is more determined than ever to seek re-election. Interviewed: Jude Julie Kocurek; Will Kocurek (son); Dr. Patrick Combs (craniofacial surgeon, Seton Medical Center); Derek Israel (Detective, Austin, P.D., Retired); Nathan Hecht (Chief Justice, Supreme Court of Texas); Gregg Sofer (Federal prosecutor, Austin, Texas). 48 HOURS: "What Happened In Apartment 4C?" (9:00 - 10:00p) – an updated rebroadcast on the 2016 disappearance and murder of Joey Comunale after a night of partying in New York City. While out clubbing, Comunale accepted an invitation to a party at a Sutton Place apartment with people he had just met. That was the last time he was seen. His family's search led to Larry Dilione who had been with Comunale at the Grand Sutton apartment of James Rackover, an aspiring model and the surrogate son of Jeffrey Rackover, the so-called "Jeweler to the Stars". Dilione provided information that made no sense to Comunale's father or his friend Max Branchinelli, who had located Dilione on Instagram. Dilione then provided information about Rackover and Max Gemma, whose father was once the mayor of Oceanport, NJ to the police. The investigation revealed that after the murder, Comunale's body was dumped out of a window at the Sutton Place address, driven to Oceanport, and left in a hole in the ground in a wooded area behind a florist shop. Rackover and Dilione were charged with the brutal murder of Comunale and other crimes. Max Gemma was charged with hindering prosecution and tampering with physical evidence. After the arrest, police discovered that Rackover, was not really the son of the celebrity jeweler, but an ex-con from Florida named James Beaudin, who Jeffrey Rackover had befriended, explaining he was the son he never knew about. At trial, both Rackover and Dilione said the other was responsible. The primary witness in the case was Louis Ruggiero, the troubled son of popular New York television anchor Rosanna Scotto. Ruggiero, a close friend of Rackover's, testified about what Rackover told him happened that night, becoming the first witness who directly implicated James Rackover in the crime. On November 2, 2018, the jury reached a verdict: the former James Beaudoin, now James Rackover, was convicted on all counts for the murder. Dilione's trial is set for January, with Gemma being tried at a later date. Original on-screen text graphic: James Rackover will be sentenced on December 5th. Jeffrey Rackover has moved out of the Grand Sutton and has cut ties to James Rackover. On-screen text graphic for the 04/20/19 updated rebroadcast: James Rackover was sentenced to twenty-eight and two-third years to life in prison, the maximum. Larry Dilione pleaded guilty to manslaughter for a sentence of twenty-three years in prison. Max Gemma pleaded guilty to hindering the prosecution and tampering with evidence for a sentence of six months in prison. Jeffrey Rackover moved out of the Grand Sutton and cut ties to James Rackover. Interviewed: Preetham Dhivakarababu, Stephen Naso, Mac Branchinelli, Todd Green, Mike Mullan (friends of Joey Comunale); Pat Comunale (father); Lisa Comunale (mother); Alex Comunale (sister); Murray Weiss (NY crime reporter); Bob Abrams (Comunale attorney); Maurice Sercarz and Rob Calilendo (Rackover attorney). 04/20/19 48 HOURS: "In Jason's Name" (10:00 - 11:00p) – a report on the 2015 death of Jason Corbett, an Irish businessman, killed by his American au-pair-turned-wife and her father. After his wife died, Corbett hired American Molly Martens to care for his children. Their relationship soon turned romantic and they married, moving to the United States. Tracy Lynch, Corbett's sister, says that before his death, Jason professed his unhappiness in the marriage. She believes Martens acted in fear of the family's separation. Both Martens and her father, former FBI agent Tim Masters, maintain Jason had become abusive and they acted in self-defense when he tried to strangle Molly during an argument. The prosecution said it was murder. They were both convicted of second-degree murder in 2017, but have maintained their innocence. Lynch and the children went back to Ireland. In 2019, the state appeals court moved to allow oral arguments in the case. Lynch waits for the appeals court's decision and has written a book about the case. On-screen text graphic: A wrongful death lawsuit on behalf of Jason's children was settled by Tom Martens. There was no admission of wrongdoing by Tom or Molly. Interviewed: Tracy Lynch (Jason's sister); Wayne Corbett (Jason's twin brother); Lynn Shanahan (Jason's long-time friend); Mike Earnest (Molly's uncle); Paul Dillon (Jason's best friend); Keith Maginn (Molly's former fiancé); Connor Martens (Molly's brother); Alan Martin (Assistant District Attorney). 04/27/19 48 HOURS: "A Death in Payson Canyon" – a report the 2017 death by suicide of 16-year-old teenager Jchandra Brown and the discovery that her friend Tyerell Przybycian, who had many opportunities to stop her, helped her complete the act instead. After moving from Idaho to Utah, Brown became depressed and started getting into trouble at school. Brown was discovered dead in the woods in Payson Canyon, Utah after not returning home from work one day. The scene initially looked like a clear-cut case of suicide. Then, police found a video on Brown's cell phone of the suicide, shot by someone else. During the search of the area, Przybycian approached police saying he wanted to explain what happened. He said he was merely helping Brown do what she wanted to do. At the time, there was no law against assisting a person in a suicide. Detectives later discovered new evidence, such as a text Przybycian sent to a friend saying "it's like getting away with murder," and prosecutors charged him with first-degree murder. As the trial approached, Przybycian was charged with witness tampering after urging friends not to testify. He asked for a deal and eventually pleaded guilty to child abuse/homicide and received a sentence of 5 years to life. A law was passed in Utah which considers assisting in a suicide to be manslaughter. On-screen text graphic: If you are thinking about suicide or know someone who is, please call the National Suicide Prevention Lifeline 1-800-273-8255. “Ransomware” – a report on ransomware, a type of computer virus which encrypts files to lock the owner out until a ransom is paid. The virus SAMSAM was unleashed on the Hancock Regional Hospital and city government offices in Leeds, AL, and has typically targeted municipal governments and hospitals – entities that cannot afford to lose their files and prefer to pay the modest ransom of $50,000. Though SAMSAM has gone quiet since an FBI indictment, 26% of cities and counties in the United States now report having to fend off a ransomware attack every hour, and Mike Christman of the FBI says “everyone should expect to be attacked.” Includes interviews with Hancock Regional Hospital CEO Steve Long; Mayor David Miller of Leeds, Alabama; head of the FBI cybercrime unit, Mike Christman; Tom Pace, vice president of Blackberry-Cylance; and Howard Shook, a councilman and chair of the finance committee in Atlanta, Georgia. (C: Scott Pelley – P: Henry Schuster)

“Frontotemporal Dementia” – a report on frontotemporal dementia, or FTD, the most common form of dementia among people under 60. FTD is always ultimately fatal and attacks the frontal lobe of the brain and manifests itself in patients slowly losing the ability to speak or make decisions and control impulses. Tracey Lind from Cleveland, a prominent preacher and civic leader, has slowly lost her ability to find the right words and will eventually lose the ability to speak completely. Mark Johnson suddenly stopped caring about the well-being of his wife and four children and now lives in an assisted living facility. Includes interviews with Reverend Tracey Lind; Lind’s spouse Emily Ingalls; Dr. Bruce Miller, the world’s leading expert on FTD; FTD patient Thomas Cox and his wife Lori; and Amy Johnson and her husband Mark, who has FTD. (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Rome Hartman, Sara Kuzmarov)

“Polar Punk” – a report on Tanya Tagaq, an Inuit throat singer from the arctic circle in the far north of Canada, who has brought the ancient art form into popular culture by mixing it with elements of pop and punk rock music. For Tagaq, her music is about more than just preserving the art itself, as her popularity has brought renewed attention to the long struggle of the Inuit people in Canada and the still misguided opinions they sometimes face about their culture from the outside. Includes interviews with Tagaq and her brother Carson. (C: Jon Wertheim – P: Nathalie Sommer)

The Mail - selected viewer comments on “On the Border” (OAD: 04/28/19)

05/12/19

“The Price of Generics” – a report on the State of Connecticut’s lawsuit alleging major competitors in the generic pharmaceutical drug industry are engaged in a broad conspiracy to overcharge consumers. Connecticut Attorney General William Tong chronicles the way that multiple generic drug manufacturers systemically raised prices and divided up customers and markets to ensure maximum profit, a practice which is outlawed in the United States. Includes interviews with Connecticut Attorney General William Tong; Michael Cole, head of the antitrust division in the Connecticut Attorney General’s office; prosecutor Joe Nielsen; and Dr. Thomas Pliura, who runs a clinic serving rural southern Illinois. (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Marc Lieberman, Ali Rawaf)

“The Most Unlikely Meeting” – a report on the Restorative Justice Project, a program at the University of Wisconsin Law school which introduces victims of violent crimes to the convicts who committed those crimes. The project was founded by Angel Wendt who lost her brother, Michael, to drunk driver Lee Namtvedt. Wendt described her reaction to her brother’s death as committing herself to a life of vengeance against Namtvedt, and founded the Restorative Justice Project after confronting and forgiving him so that she could move on. The program has given victims like Wendt the opportunity to move on from their grief and prisoners an opportunity for redemption. Includes interviews with Angel Wendt, Jackie Millar, and Mary Rezin, all relatives of the victims; Lee Namtvedt, Craig Sussek, and Daniel Cerney, who committed the crimes; and director of the program Jonathan Scharrer. (C: Scott Pelley – P: Aaron Weisz)

“Mark Bradford” – a report on Mark Bradford, one of the world’s most popular abstract artists. Bradford uses layers of paper that he tears, sands, and power washes to create his final work. Since selling his first work for $5000 while working as a hairdresser in 2001, he has become one of the world’s premiere artists and now sells works for as much as $10 Million. Bradford says his motto is “if they don’t sell it at Home Depot, Mark Bradford doesn’t use it,” with regard to his materials and discusses his attempts to stay true to himself while tackling serious social and political issues with his art. Includes interviews with Cleo Jackson, Danielle Wright, and Lynette Powell, who are longtime friends and hair clients of Bradford. (C: Anderson Cooper – P: Ruth Streeter, Kaylee Tully)

- 05/19/19 “One Loose Thread” – a report on Howard Wilkinson, the whistleblower who discovered and revealed Danske Bank was involved in the laundering of approximately $230 billion coming from Russia and former Soviet Union states. Wilkinson worked at a small branch of Danish bank Danske in Estonia, and when asked by a colleague for help with one of the branch’s large clients, discovered the client was merely a shell corporation whose public record claimed it was a dormant company but was passing up to $20 million a day through the bank in Russian rubles and withdrawing the money as US dollars. After Wilkinson’s whistleblower report, Danske Bank was slow to respond to his concerns and he resigned. An investigation, which is still ongoing, eventually opened into Danske Bank and the money laundering; Wilkinson says it will be very difficult to trace it now. Includes an interview with Stephen Kohn, Wilkinson’s lawyer. (C: Steve Kroft – P: Keith Sharman)
- “Rainbow Railroad” – a report on a Rainbow Railroad, a Canadian non-profit organization which works to help LGBT people living in countries where homosexuality is outlawed escape and seek asylum in other places. Rainbow Railroad’s largest and most notable operation was relocating 31 Chechens. The increased donations they have received as a result of that accomplishment has allowed them to expand operations into other LGBT-hostile countries such as Jamaica and Egypt. Includes interviews with Rainbow Road clients Ahmed Alaa, Elton McDuffus, and others who wished to remain anonymous; well-known LGBT rights worker in Cairo Farida Abo Aouf; and Rainbow Road employee Kimahli Powell. (C: Jon Wertheim – P: Nathalie Sommer, Vanessa Fica)
- “Bitcoin’s Wild Ride” – a report on Bitcoin, the virtual currency created in the 2000s that has seen massive fluctuations in value over the years, but whose success has led to the growth of the cryptocurrency industry. Bitcoin was created by a still unknown student who believed in creating a peer-to-peer network over which money could be exchanged internationally. Without the need for a big bank or money transfer company, this had the potential to revolutionize the way money changes hands worldwide. Some of bitcoin’s earliest investors tell their stories of a meteoric rise and subsequent crash as they rode the Bitcoin rollercoaster. Includes interviews with Charlie Shrem, founder of BitInstant; Neha Narula, director of the Digital Currency Initiative at the MIT Media Lab; Laszlo Hanyecz, who made what is believed to be the first real-world transaction involving cryptocurrency; Marco Streng, the CEO of Genesis Mining; and Lael Brainard, one of the governors of the Federal Reserve. “Friendly Fire” - an interview with three former U.S. soldiers: Brandon Branch, Army Paramedic; Henry Montalbano, Sergeant, Green Beret; and Derrick Anderson, team commander, Green Beret -- who dispute a classified report that blames human error for the death of six others, including two Green Berets in Afghanistan. On June 9th, 2014, an American B-1 bomber plane incapable of detecting soldier’s strobes killed its own forces after misidentifying them as Taliban. The surviving U.S. soldiers maintain that this faulty targeting system was responsible for the incident. Also includes interviews with: Woody Studenmund, father of Scott Studenmund, a Green Beret Staff Sergeant who was killed in the friendly fire attack; and Jeffrey Harrigian, former Air Force Major General. (C: Bill Whitaker – Producer listed at the beginning of Part I: Howard L. Rosenberg; Producers listed at the beginning of Part II: Howard L. 48 HOURS: “The Case Against Enrico Forti” – an investigation into whether Enrico Forti, a former television producer and windsurfing champion, was wrongly convicted of murder 20 years ago. Forti negotiated a deal to buy a hotel in Ibiza, Spain owned by Tony Pike. Tony’s sons, Dale and Brad, felt the property was worth much more due to celebrity clientele. Dale Pike flew from Australia to Miami and was found dead on a beach. When questioned, Forti lied to the police about picking up Pike from the airport. As he was the last person to see Pike alive, Forti became the prime suspect. Forti was tried, convicted of murder, and sentenced to life in prison in 2000. One juror on the case, who voted to convict, does not believe Forti is guilty. In Italy and other parts of Europe, the case has become infamous. 48 HOURS reported on new information regarding the case and traveled to Italy and Germany to find leads on an alternate suspect. On-screen text graphic: Enrico Forti is hoping to have his sentence commuted. Interviewed: Enrico Forti; Sean Crowley (former captain, NYPD, now a private investigator); Joe Tacopina and Dina Neshweiat (defense attorneys); Chaive Mesmer (shop manager); Brad Pike (brother of victim); Veronica Lee (jury member); Dr. Gregory Davis (pathologist, University of Kentucky); Manuela Moreno (Italian journalist); Francesco Gidetti and Fabrizio Pandolfi (friends of Forti); Luisa Mancastroppa (Forti’s first wife); Gianni Forti (Forti’s uncle); and Thomas Knott (possible suspect). 48 HOURS: “#FindPeterChadwick”– a report on the investigation into the search for a multimillionaire real estate investor accused of killing his wife and staging a kidnapping plot. Peter Chadwick and his wife, Q.C. Chadwick, seemed to have the perfect life. College sweethearts, they were married for 21 years and had three sons. They lived in a gated community in Newport Beach, California. That dream life collapsed one day in 2012 when neither of the Chadwicks turned up to pick up their sons from the bus stop. Investigators had little idea that day the search for the couple would lead them on an international manhunt. The next morning, San Diego authorities got a 911 call from Chadwick, claiming a house painter named Juan murdered Q.C. and forced Peter Chadwick to get her body out of the house. He said a man helped Juan and they were planning to cut up his wife’s body and dispose it south of the border. Law enforcement didn’t believe Chadwick, and he was arrested and charged with Q.C.’s murder. He was released on $1 million in bail. Then he vanished. Members of the U.S. Marshals team reveal they’ve had some key clues to where he is. Chadwick is one of the U.S. Marshals’ 15 most-wanted fugitives. The U.S. Marshals have been getting a lot of leads about Chadwick, many from around the globe, and at least one from a scammer. On-screen text graphic: Have you seen Peter Chadwick? - 05/18/19 48 HOURS: “What Happened to Rachael?” – a report on the investigation into the murder of Rachael DelTondo, a popular teacher who was gunned down outside her home in Aliquippa, Pennsylvania. It is the ninth unsolved murder in a city with an underfunded and understaffed police department, leaving many to wonder if the case will be solved. The investigation has led to several potential leads for the police to follow, including the actions of DelTondo’s ex-fiance Frank Catroppa and her friendship with Sheldon Jeter, a young Aliquippa High School athlete. Before the murder, Catroppa, was allowed access to a police report about DelTondo with a lot of sensitive personal information, but he denies showing it to anyone. Jeter, through his attorney, also denies anything to do with the murder. There is also the belief, that Sheldon Jeter was obsessed with DelTondo and there may have been some sort of inappropriate relationship. Her mother, Lisa DelTondo, also says her daughter told her she was cooperating in an ongoing investigation by state police, into alleged corruption in the Aliquippa Police Department, and had received death threats. It has been a year since the murder: her parents distrust the police, the authorities not saying anything, and a consultant believes if things were not the way they were in Aliquippa, Rachael DelTondo would still be alive. On-screen text graphic: Anyone with information on Rachael DelTondo's murder should call the Beaver County Detective Bureau at 724-773-8569. Interviewed: John Paul (investigative journalist/CBS News Consultant); Lisa and Joe DelTondo (parents); Frank Catroppa (ex-fiance); Jen Glovan (once Rachael’s best friend); Joe Perciavalle (Assistant Police Chief); Michael Santicola (Sheldon Jeter’s attorney); Jackie Belcastro (Rachael’s aunt); Lauren Watkins (17-year old friend/former student of Rachael’s); Steve Colafella (Frank Catroppa’s attorney) (C: Erin Moriarty – P: Judy Rybak and Stephanie Slifer)
- 05/25/19 48 HOURS PRESENTS: “Pvt. Needham’s War” - a report on the case of Pvt. John Needham, a decorated soldier diagnosed with traumatic brain injury (TBI) and post-traumatic stress disorder (PTSD), and who investigators say beat his 19-year-old girlfriend Jacque Villagomez to death with his bare hands in September 2008. Needham took responsibility for the murder, but remembered little of the crime, recognizing only that something inside him had snapped. After serving in Iraq, Needham returned home, shattered physically and emotionally. He suffered from combat injuries and was prescribed drugs which he downed with alcohol. He knew Villagomez, who had also struggled with drug addiction, for only a few months when she moved in with him. His drinking escalated. After his father, Mike Needham Sr., told Jacque that she had to move out and she had agreed, an old girlfriend came to the house upsetting Villagomez. An argument between the two women broke out, resulting in his ex’s departure and a call to 911. When police arrived, they found Jacque Villagomez battered and near death, with John Needham naked, crying, and smeared in blood. There was no evidence that anything other than Needham’s fists were used to beat Villagomez. Released on bail, his father sought to get his son the care he believed he needed and insisted that the crime was not murder. The father argued that if not for Needham’s war injuries, Villagomez would be alive today. Mike Needham Sr. allowed investigative reporter Michael de Yoanna and a team of filmmakers to document the unraveling of his son’s life. Before his trial, John visited his mother in Tucson, AZ in 2010 for additional back surgery. His brother, Mike Needham Jr., came to visit from California. Shortly after his arrival, Mike found his brother unresponsive -- he was dead at the age twenty-six. His death was determined to be from an overdose of painkillers, but the question remains as to whether it was an accident or suicide. The prosecutors in the Villagomez case says that John Needham may have been a good soldier, but he needed to be held accountable for what he did. Original on-screen text graphic: 48 Hours Mystery reached out repeatedly to the Army for a response to John Needham’s story. The Army declined to comment. On-screen text graphic for the 06/26/12 rebroadcast: On the anniversary of Jacque’s death, the Savino sisters tossed flowers in the ocean in her memory. NCIS: THE CASES THEY CAN'T FORGET

- 05/29/19 NCIS: THE CASES THEY CAN'T FORGET: "Road Map To Murder" (9:00-10:00pm) – a report on the investigation by NCIS agents into the case of Cory Allen Voss, a young Navy communications officer murdered after using an ATM in Virginia. This investigation, in collaboration with the Newport News Police Department – led agents on the trail of twisted relations, lies, and secret double-lives. Investigators learned that everyone had nothing but good things to say about Voss himself. They learned his wife, Cat, made up many stories about herself and took up with various men while Voss was away at sea. She went on a spending spree using almost all of a $100,000 death benefit she received on vacations, jewelry and restaurants. They came to suspect her friend, Michael Draven, spending months listening to wiretaps and conducting around-the-clock surveillance on their suspects. They ultimately learned a third party involved in the murder. Eight months after Voss was killed, his wife and two men were arrested and charged with murder. Includes interviews with Gregory Ford, Executive Assistant Director of NCIS Criminal Investigations; NCIS team members Dana Shutt, Maureen Evans, Larry Rilee, Jim Grebas, and Sandra Barrow; Ashley Doyle, a friend of Cat; Carol Wiggins, Cat's aunt; Steve Larson, Cat's ex-husband; Barbara Wilson, Cory Voss' mom; and Draven's mom Juanita Harper. (Narrator: Rocky Carroll – P: Alec Sirken)
- 05/29/19 NCIS: THE CASES THEY CAN'T FORGET: "Heartless" (10:00-11:00pm) – a report about the challenging detective work that went into cracking the murder of Lt. Lee Hartley, who fell mysteriously ill while serving aboard the USS Forestal while deployed in the Mediterranean Sea. Lt. Hartley was airlifted to a Naval hospital where his illness baffled doctors. Months later he died. His autopsy revealed he died of acute arsenic poisoning. Toxicology tests indicated he was poisoned while on duty aboard the ship. After a year, with no obvious suspects, the case went cold. Nearly thirteen years later, the NCIS cold case squad reopened the old casefile. Family, friends, and potential witnesses were re-interviewed before investigators discovered information which led them to the killer. His wife, Pamela Hartley, was unhappy in her marriage and sent homemade food to the ship which Lt. Hartley consumed. She says she didn't want to hurt him with a divorce and thought death would be a better option. She pled guilty and was sentenced to 40 years in prison. She was released six-and-a-half years later. Thirty-six years later, his daughter and her former step-mother met again. Includes interviews with retired NCIS Special Agents Pete Hughes and David Early; Gregory Ford, Executive Assistant Director of NCIS Criminal Investigations; NCIS Investigative Review Specialist Lou Eliopoulos; NCIS team member Jim Grebas; Hartley's wife Pamela; and Hartley's daughter Stephanie. 48 HOURS

- 06/01/19 48 HOURS: "Don't Scream" (9:00 - 10:00p) - an updated rebroadcast on Tiffany Mead of Davis County, Utah, a young mother who called 911 claiming she had sliced her own throat while her ex-husband and child watched. When first responders arrived, the cut was so deep, police questioned whether it was really a suicide attempt. Medical experts claim there is no physical way she could have committed the act herself. Later, Mead changed her story: it wasn't suicide, it was her estranged husband Kris Ertmann, who tried to kill her. Mead claimed she met Ertmann in a secluded park to get a child support check. He suddenly grabbed her in a bear hug and slit her throat. Thinking she was about to die, she drove the car to a parking lot which became a second crime scene. An investigation led to Ertman being arrested and charged with attempted murder. He claimed he could not remember anything and had PTSD. Additional investigating revealed Ertmann ultimately trying to arrange a hit on his estranged wife, resulting in an undercover cop posing as a hit man and getting instructions from Ertmann to kill his wife. The case never went to trial. Prosecutors offered a deal to plead no contest, and will spend the rest of his life in prison. Tiffany Mead lives with her new husband and her emotional support dog. Original on-screen text graphic: Kristopher Ertmann's next parole hearing is set for May 24, 2018. Captain Jen Daley and Lieutenant Bob Thompson will be there with Tiffany. 12/15/18 Update: Four years after Ertmann's plea he appears before the parole board. 48 HOURS (continued)

- 06/01/19 48 HOURS: "FindJodi" (10:00 - 11:00p) – a report on new information in the search for Iowa television anchor Jodi Huisentruit, who disappeared on her way to work on June 27, 1995. When Huisentruit did not arrive at the station for her morning assignment, police were alerted. Outside her apartment, they found signs of a struggle, but her car was still at the scene. An extensive search was conducted, but she was never seen again and her body has never been found. An investigation led authorities to information that Jodi had reported a possible stalker nine months before her disappearance. Several people became suspects, including close friend John Vansice, who some of her friends suspected wanted a romantic relationship, despite their 22-year age difference. Another was Tony Jackson, a serial rapist who lived nearby at the time of Jodi's disappearance. Throughout the years, friends and family members have kept up the search for Jodi, despite her family declaring her dead in 2001 as a means to settle her estate. In 2003, a group of journalists created a website to keep the story alive and to crack the case. As of 2017, John Vansice, living in Phoenix, is still considered a suspect. Mason City police believe they are close to solving the case. On June 5, 2018, which would have been Jodi's 50th birthday, four billboards were unveiled in Mason City, Iowa, keeping her memory alive with the hope of solving her disappearance. 06/01/19 Update: On June 5, 2018 on what would have been Jodi's fiftieth birthday the findjodi.com team officially unveiled four billboards around Mason City. On-screen text graphic: FindJodi. Are you someone who can crack the case? Please call the Mason City Police Department at 641-421-3636. Interviewed: Doug Merbach (1995 news director); Robin Wolfram (1995 news anchor); Amy Kuns (1995 producer); Jack Schlieper (1995 Police Chief); Joann Nathe (Jodi's sister); Staci Steinman and Kim Feist (Jodi's good friends); John Vansice (friend and suspect - seen in 1995 interviews); Ani Kruse (Mason City friend); LaDonna Woodford (friend of John Vansice); Caroline Lowe (WCCO-TV investigative journalist); Gary Peterson, John Benson (journalists); Jay Alverio (retired detective); Jeff Brinkley (current Mason City Police Chief) (C: Jim Axelrod – P: Clare Friedland, Ruth Chenetz, Chris Young Ritzen) (OAD: 12/15/18)
- 06/08/19 48 HOURS: "The Lost Boy" (9:00 - 10:00p) - a report on the 1979 disappearance of Etan Patz, a 6-year-old New York City boy who was allowed to walk to the school bus stop just two blocks from his home; and the case against Pedro Hernandez, the man charged in 2012 with killing him. The disappearance shocked the city and still haunts law enforcement investigators who have spent decades trying to find Patz. This case changed the way in which parents watch over their children. Police searched for him extensively, but the case grew cold. There was one suspect, a pedophile named Jose Ramos, but the case against him never moved forward because it lacked corroboration. In 2010, new District Attorney Cyrus Vance, Jr. vowed to take a fresh look into Etan's disappearance. In 2012, the NYPD got a tip from a relative of Pedro Hernandez, who had talked about hurting a boy around the time of the Patz disappearance. Police questioned him and he confessed to the crime. He also took them to locations near the Patz home where he said he disposed of the body. His court-appointed attorney says he's unreliable because of his psychiatric condition. In 2015, he went on trial, but the jury deadlocked and there was no verdict. At a second trial he was convicted and sentenced to 25- years-to-life. On-screen text graphic: Etan would be 45 years old. His remains have never been found. Pedro Hernandez's legal team is working on an appeal. On-screen text graphic for the 06/08/19 rebroadcast: Etan would be forty-six years old. His remains have never been found. 06/08/19 48 HOURS: "Jayme Closs: Hometown Hero" (10:00-11:00p) – a reedited and updated rebroadcast of a 48 HOURS SPECIAL: "Jayme Closs Comes Home" (OAD: 01/12/19), which includes new interviews by Gayle King, newly released evidence photos, the 911 call that came from her home during the kidnapping, and Closs' powerful statement read at the sentencing hearing of Patterson who pleaded guilty to kidnapping her and murdering her parents. Jayme Closs' story captured the world's hearts when she disappeared from her family's home in Barron, Wisconsin on October 15, 2018. She fled her captor 88 days later. The report focuses on the heroism Closs showed in outwitting her kidnapper, Jake Patterson. Closs was discovered missing after police responded to a strange 911 call from her family home. There, police found both of her parents dead. The search for Closs made national headlines. She was found alive on January 10 when she approached a woman walking her dog in a Wisconsin town about 70 miles from her home. The one-hour broadcast highlights the incredible strength and determination Closs used to survive the ordeal and how that has played into her life since returning home. Gayle King explores the impact her story has had on the community and the world at large. On-screen text graphic: Friends say Jayme is doing very well since coming home. She is seeing family and friends, and has started therapy. Includes interviews with Jayme's aunt Jennifer Smith; Baron County Sheriff Chris Fitzgerald; Neighbor Jeanne Nutter, who found Jayme; neighbors Kristen and Peter Kasinskas; Jayme's aunt Sue Allard; Jayme's cousin Lindsey Smith; and other children who have been kidnapped and members of their family. 06/15/19 48 HOURS: "Portrait of a Killer" - a report about a new controversial California law that could free Daniel Marsh, who was convicted of the murders of Oliver "Chip" Northrup and Claudia Maupin. Both the victims were savagely stabbed to death as they slept inside their Davis, California home. Police found no physical evidence. Investigation had ruled out family members and police were running out of clues. Then two months after the April 14, 2013 murders, the police received a phone call from a teenager who said his best friend, the then 15-year-old Daniel Marsh, had bragged about the murders. In an interview with police, Marsh told them what happened. Experts diagnosed him as a psychopath and said he killed for pleasure. Marsh was tried as an adult - convicted and sentenced to 52 years to life. Four years after the conviction, a new California law, Proposition 57, has thrown his sentence into jeopardy. His lawyers are arguing that he should be re-sentenced as a juvenile. If successful, Marsh, now 21, might be able to be released from prison on his 25th birthday. At a hearing, a judge listened to the evidence to determine if Marsh should be re-tried as a juvenile and receive a lighter sentence. The prosecution continued to maintain he is a psychopath. In a surprise move, Daniel Marsh took the stand. In the decision, the judge found the evidence and Marsh's testimony to be credible, but determined it was not a chance worth taking. Marsh will remain in prison. In 2018, a new law was signed into effect, saying that anyone younger than 15-years-old would never be tried as an adult. His lawyers want Marsh included retroactively. On-screen text graphic: In California, there are at least three other pending cases where juveniles have been convicted of murder and sentenced as adults. On-screen text graphic for the 06/15/19 rebroadcast: Daniel Marsh's lawyers appealed the Court's ruling and were denied. They are now considering filing an appeal to have Marsh included under SB 1391. Interviewed: Victoria Hurd and Sarah Rice (daughter and granddaughter of Marion Maupin); Robert Northrup and Mary Northrup (son and daughter of Chip Northrup); Paul Doroshov (Davis Police Lieutenant); Chris Campion (former Special Agent); Jeff Reisig (District Attorney); Alvaro Garibay (Daniel's friend); Amanda Zambor (Deputy District Attorney); Dr. Mathew Soulier (psychiatrist); Dr. Matthew Logan (forensic psychologist). - 06/22/19 48 HOURS: "Defending DJ" - a report about Danroy "DJ" Henry and the dedication and struggles his family endured trying to restore their son's reputation after he was shot dead in Pleasantville, New York, by police officer Aaron Hess in 2010. This event triggered a seven-year journey for the family as they searched for answers about what really happened. During a night out with his teammates, a fight broke out among other restaurant patrons and police were called to the scene. DJ and his friends decided to leave. They were waiting in his car in a fire lane prior to their departure. Police approached the vehicle and told DJ he should move; his friends said DJ started to slowly move away. The police claim that DJ tried to mow officers down with his car when Officer Hess approached and that was how Officer Hess ended up on the hood of the car, shooting his weapon and fatally injuring DJ as he sat behind the wheel. The police claimed Officer Hess shot because he feared for his life. DJ's friends painted a far different version of the incident. Witnesses agreed, also saying that medical attention was slow to respond. The Henry family vowed to learn the truth – even it was bad. They wanted to know what happened to their son and filed a lawsuit. Four years after the shooting, the family was still hopeful. In 2016, the Henry family accepted the decision in a wrongful death suit against the Village of Pleasantville and Aaron Hess and were awarded $6 million. In 2017, they settled a wrongful death suit with the town of Mount Pleasant for an undisclosed amount and something more valuable to them: a public apology. Seven years after DJ's death, they cleared his name. No criminal charges were brought in the case. Today, Aaron Hess works in private security. The Henry family has founded the DJ Henry Dream Foundation to honor their son's memory. On-screen text graphic: Chief Louis Alagno retired in 2013. In 2015 New York State law changed. Police shootings of unarmed civilians are now automatically assigned to a special prosecutor. - 06/29/19 48 HOURS: "Missing Marsha" (9:00 – 10:00p) - a report on the 2009 disappearance of Marsha Brantley, a Cleveland, Tennessee woman who suddenly vanished, with no one, including her husband, Donne Brantley, family, or friends reporting her missing for several months, until her hairdresser, Kelly DeLude, became concerned over a missed appointment and called the police. Her husband immediately became a suspect, but there was no physical evidence of a crime. He claimed she left him, leaving everything behind, including her dogs and her home. In 2013, Brantley was arrested, but prosecutors dropped the charges after deciding they did not have enough evidence for a conviction, even though he pleaded the Fifth Amendment or said he could not remember over 100 times in a civil suit brought against him. Family members believe her husband is responsible for her disappearance. Friends from her book club would not be surprised if she turned up sometime. Following the election of a new District Attorney, Brantley was again charged with police using essentially the same evidence. Then in 2018, two days before the trial, the charges were dismissed. Police cannot prove Marsha was murdered and were afraid the judge would throw out the case. On-screen text graphic: Donnie kept the dogs. They still live with him today. To call in a tip, contact the Bradley County Sheriff's Office at (423) 728-7336. On-screen text graphic for 06/29/19 rebroadcast: To call in a tip, contact the Bradley County Sheriff's Office at (423) 728-7336. 48 HOURS (continued)

06/29/19 48 HOURS: “Knock” (10:00 – 11:00p) - an investigation into the murders of two beloved grandmothers, Betty Jones and her friend Kathryn Crigler, who were brutally attacked in 1990 after answering a knock on the door at Crigler’s Starkville, Mississippi home; and how a driven detective and cutting-edge technology helped to solve the nearly three-decades old murder and rape. The intruder forced his way into the house and immediately killed Betty. He then raped Kathryn, who died months later of complications from her injuries. The leads went nowhere and current lead Detective Bill Lott struggled for years to solve it. Jason B. Jones, a Nashville album designer and step-grandson of Betty, wanted to know what happened. He knew little about the case, but in 2005, a chance meeting between Jason’s mother and Kathryn’s granddaughter Juky Holt led to his renewed interest. In 2017, he launched a podcast as a way to work through his own questions about the incident and perhaps uncover new information. Jason subsequently learned that Betty had sponsored a family who escaped the Khmer Rouge regime in Cambodia and the family named their daughter after Betty. In 2018, as his podcast was coming to an end, there was no finality, because no one knows who killed Betty and Kathryn. However, Detective Lott’s quest led him to Parabon NanoLabs in Reston, Virginia. Parabon NanoLabs has developed technology called genetic genealogy, which can predict what someone looks like through their DNA. The results led to a name, Michael Wayne DeVaughn, and his DNA was a match to the DNA taken from Crigler the night of the attack. Twenty-eight years after the crime, the suspected attacker was charged with Betty’s murder and the rape and sexual battery of Kathryn Crigler. All may now know who knocked on the door that night, but the storyteller in Jones still needs to know how this tale ends. On-screen text graphic: Prosecutors are presenting their case against Michael DeVaughn to a grand jury. To date, there has been no indictment and DeVaughn has not entered a plea. Sergeant Bill Lott has been promoted to Lieutenant. On-screen text graphic for the 06/29/19 rebroadcast: Michael DeVaughn pleaded not guilty in January 2019. He is awaiting trial. Sergeant Bill Lott has been promoted to lieutenant. NCIS: THE CASES THEY CAN’T FORGET

06/05/19 NCIS: THE CASES THEY CAN’T FORGET: “Shattered Glass” (9:00 – 10:00p) - Naval Criminal Investigative Service agents bring viewers inside the investigation into the attack on a marine stationed in Kuwait, which at first looked like terrorism but led them on an unexpected trail to something else. Chief Warrant Officer James “Houston” Glass was nearly killed when a grenade exploded in a guard shack in Kuwait. He barely survived the blast, suffering severe wounds to his neck, back and legs. NCIS agent Matt Timmons was stationed in Kuwait and immediately responded. The agent reveals they soon had doubts about it being a terror attack. As they dug in, they found the secret double lives of those closest to Glass, which turned the case in an unexpected direction. NCIS agents take viewers inside the case, which took shrewd detective work, including mind games on potential suspects, to find out who would want Glass dead. The case took them back to the United States, where investigation revealed a shocking conspiracy; Larry Framness, who was having an affair with Glass’ wife, admitted to throwing the grenade. NCIS: THE CASES THEY CAN'T FORGET (continued)

- 06/12/19 NCIS: THE CASES THEY CAN'T FORGET: "Unbreakable" (9:00 – 10:00p) - Naval Criminal Investigative Service agents take viewers inside the emotional investigation into the brutal attack, torture and murder of Marine Corps Sergeant Jan Pawel Pietrzak and his wife, Quiana Jenkins-Pietrzak. Sgt. Pietrzak was known as a tough disciplinarian. It was also known around the base that he had gotten a $30,000 bonus months earlier and had told some people he had kept the money at their home, which was near Marine Corps Air Station Camp Pendleton in California. Whoever attacked the couple also tried to burn their home down. NCIS agents, who worked with the Riverside Sheriff's Department on the investigations, reveal the shrewd detective work that went into the case. Early clues, including different footprints at the crime scene, led investigators to believe they were looking for more than one suspect. The investigation took a turn when agents learned someone used Quiana Jenkins-Pietrzak's card at an ATM right outside the gate of Camp Pendleton, which helped lead them to unraveling the ties that bound the four suspects and the victims together. It was later found out that four Marines entered the Pietrzak home, sexually assaulted Jenkins-Pietrzak and tortured the couple before killing them. Two of the four accused Marines worked under Pietrzak's command. Riverside County authorities maintain the motivation was robbery, and the pending murder with special circumstances and sexual assault charges do not include an assertion that the crime was racially motivated. All four of the accused plead not guilty to murdering Pietrzak and his wife. After meeting with the families of the deceased, District Attorney Rod Pacheco decided to seek the death penalty on January 22, 2009. The preliminary trial hearings to determine whether the four assailants would stand trial occurred on March 26, 2009, and April 3, 2009 in San Diego. On 24 June 2013 a jury rendered a verdict of death for two of the four assailants and life in prison without parole for a third. The fourth assailant was later also sentenced to death. (Host: Rocky Carroll – Producer: Elena DiFiore)
- 06/19/19 NCIS: THE CASES THEY CAN'T FORGET: "The Enemy Within" (9:00 – 10:00p) - When Naval Criminal Investigative Service agents and their counterparts from the Air Force Office of Special Investigations probe the murder of an Air Force sergeant in Japan, they are led on a dark, twisted trail of deception, fraud, and witchcraft. Air Force Technical Sergeant Curtis Eccleston was found brutally stabbed to death in his apartment off base in Okinawa, Japan. The respected airman had no known enemies and a career on the rise. His death shocked the Japanese island. Agents Lindsay Temes and Heather Bellar from Air Force Office of Special Investigations were among the first to arrive at the gruesome crime scene. Air Force OSI agents called in NCIS to help solve murder. NCIS and Air Force OSI agents were initially concerned because Eccleston's wife Barbara was nowhere to be found until hours after his body was discovered. Investigators soon learned Barbara was cheating on her husband. At the time of his death, the couple had been in the process of getting a divorce. She told them he had been dealing drugs and she was concerned he was killed because of a drug deal gone bad. But as agents began to look into the drug angle, something just didn't seem right. When those leads ran cold the agents went back to the scene of the crime. What they uncovered through digital forensics would reveal that the cover-up and diabolical premeditation was almost as brutal as the crime itself. Evidence revealed another airman, Nicholas Cron, murdered Eccleston because he was having an affair with his girlfriend. Both Cron and Barbara Eccleston were charged with murder. In January 2012, Cron pleaded guilty to 3 charges in an attempt to avoid the death penalty; he received life without parole. At Barbara's trial in April 2012, Cron was a witness. She was sentenced to 20 years of hard labor in a Japanese prison. (Host: Rocky Carroll – Producers: Matt Goldfarb, Lucy Craft)
