Section One: Problems & Needs

Overview: Based on WNEM-5's ascertainment of community leaders and from data gathered from community organizations, the ten highest ranking problems and needs of the Flint-Saginaw-Bay City-Midland market are:

1. Family Concerns
2. Health Care/Health Insurance
3. Economic Development/Civic Pride
4. Crime/Violence
5. Substance Abuse
6. Concerns of Disabled and Elderly
7. Education
8. Jobs/Unemployment
9. Apathetic/Uninformed Voters
10. Environmental Issues

Section Two: Issues & Programs Report

Overview: The following is the quarterly "Issues & Programs" report placed in the public file of WNEM-5 on April 9, 2000. The report covers the period from January 1, 2000 – March 31, 2000. The report is based on ten significant problems and needs determined by WNEM-5's continuous community ascertainment. Below each problem/need is a brief description of some programs broadcast during the quarter designed to address the problem or need.

Andy Rooney Topic: "Movie Reviews" - film critics

01/16/00 "MTBE" Part I & II - ten years ago Congress enacted legislation mandating that oil companies put the chemical MTBE (Methyl Tertiary Butyl Ether) in gasoline to make it burn cleaner.

Problems have arisen because the chemical has seeped into ground water and caused widespread contamination of drinking supplies. Despite potential litigation against oil companies that could run into billions of dollars, the federal government still knows little about the extent of the problem or its health consequences. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Graham Messick)
"Ben Zander" - an interview with Ben Zander, conductor of the Boston Philharmonic Orchestra who is also a motivational
speaker. (C: Morley Safer - P: Deirdre Naphin) Andy Rooney Topic: "The Moral of The Story" - what really happens

01/23/00

"Southern Exposure" - a class action lawsuit accuses the management of the Savannah River site, a giant federal nuclear complex in South Carolina, of discriminating against blacks not only in hiring and promotions but for allegedly putting them in jobs that exposed them to more radiation than white workers.
Report includes interviews with Ivan Smith, attorney for the workers and Joseph Buggy, president of Savannah River (C: Mike Wallace - P: Walt Bogdanich)
"Come Dancing" - competitive ballroom dancing has been an institution on British television for decades. Now there is a movement afoot to make it an Olympic event. (C: Morley Safer - P: John Tiffin)
"Kevin Mitnick, Cyber-Thief" - once the FBI's most wanted computer criminal, Kevin Mitnick stole corporate secrets by hacking his way into the computer systems of the world's biggest corporations. Mitnick claims that he isn't a thief but an electronic joyrider who was guilty of invasion of privacy but who made no personal gain from his transgression. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Michael Radutsky)
Andy Rooney Topic: "Symbols" - Andy doesn't think the Confederate flag should be flown over the capitol of South Carolina

01/30/00

60 MINUTES

02/06/00

"Ethnic Profiling" - Adam Ciralsky, a 28-year-old lawyer with the CIA claims he was suspended because he is a religious Jew. The agency claims that his strong ties to Israel made him an attractive target to Israeli intelligence. Ciralsky, who is considering filing a lawsuit against the CIA, says that his only goal is to clear his record. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Richard Bonin)

"Gross National Happiness" - the simple pursuit of happiness through the Buddhist religion is the way of life in the tiny kingdom of Bhutan. To date the country has resisted the incursion of tourism and some Bhutans view television, which has only recently come to the country, as a serious threat to its otherworldly way of living. (C: Morley Safer - P: Steven Reiner)

"The Court Martial of Major Bates" - Air Force Major Sonnie Bates and hundreds of other servicemen believe the military's anthrax vaccine makes people sick. Bates faces a court martial for refusing a direct order to take the vaccine and could face up to five years in prison. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Richard Greenberg)

Andy Rooney Topic: "Inventions" - 10 best unimportant inventions

02/13/00

"You're A Good Man, Charlie Schulz" - interview with "Peanuts" cartoonist Charles Schulz. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Mary Murphy) (OAD: 10/31/99)

"LAPD Confidential" - Bob Mullally, a former government worker hired to investigate the murder by a Los Angeles police officer of his wife and her boyfriend, went public with evidence showing that domestic abusers in the LAPD are rarely penalized. Mullally now faces prison for violating a court order of confidentiality. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Marty Galovic Palmer)

"Unfortunate And Untwue?" - an interview with J.H. Hatfield, the author of Fortunate Son, a biography of George W. Bush. Hatfield maintains that his failure to tell his editors that he is a convicted felon wasn't a good enough reason for them to pull the book, in which he uses anonymous sources to say George W. Bush covered up an arrest for cocaine when he was a young man - a claim widely discredited. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Jay Kernis)

Andy Rooney Topic: "All This Spare Change" - the new 'golden dollar' coin

02/20/00

"Hit List?" - a group of doctors providing abortion services in Portland, Oregon has successfully sued a group of anti-abortion activists for endangering the doctor's lives by publicizing their names and addresses. The anti-abortionists have filed an appeal saying they were simply exercising their right to free speech. (C: Ed Bradley - P: Amy Cunningham Atkinson)

"Kevin Spacey" - an interview with Kevin Spacey who has been nominated for this year's Academy Award for best actor. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Jay Kernis)

"Whose Country Is It?" - in Israel the war between Jews and Arabs has abated while the controversy between religious Jews and secular Jews has escalated. Orthodox groups claim their goal is to maintain Israel's Jewish identity. Critics fear a fundamentalist takeover of the country. (C: Bob Simon - Michael Gvashon)

Andy Rooney Topic: "The Presidential Press Conference" - how presidents have avoided answering questions

02/27/00

"Echelon" - Echelon, a secret global surveillance network run by the National Security Agency and four English-speaking allies -- Canada, Great Britain, Australia and New Zealand -- was set up to eavesdrop on enemies of the state -- foreign countries, terrorist groups and drug cartels. Questions have arisen over the extent and use of the information gathered by Echelon and whether technology for a system for scrambling transmissions called encryption will fall into the wrong hands. (C: Steve Kraft - P: Peter Klein)

"Scam" - a report on John Drewe, a British con man who paid John Myatt, a struggling artist, to copy paintings by famous painters. Drewe then created provenances for the paintings which were sold to supposedly knowledgeable dealers and galleries for large sums of money. (C: Morley Safer - P: John Tiffin)

"King Coal" - a report on a law suit arising from "mountain top removal," a controversial method of coal mining in West Virginia. Residents claim that the blasts involved have ruined their drinking water and that the dust created will cause them serious health problems. (C: Mike Wallace - P: Scott Bronstein)

Andy Rooney Topic: "Andy Rates the Candidates" - ratings for the presidential candidates

60 MINUTES II

02/01/00

"The Spy Game" - a report on how Stanislav Gusev, a Russian spy, managed to monitor a listening device placed in an office in the U.S. State Department. Gusev, who had come to the U.S. as a diplomat assigned to the Russian Embassy, was spotted by FBI agents when he aroused their suspicions by hanging around the State Department. (C: Jim Stewart - P: Andy Wolff)

"Every 26 Seconds" - in the six years since the end of apartheid in South Africa violent crime is rampant. Statistics show a dramatic rise in the number of rapes, with many going unreported. Includes interviews with Charlene Smith, a journalist who published a report of her own rape and Namfundo Walaza, a psychologist who counsels rape victims. (C: Bob Simon - P: Randall Joyce)

New Hampshire Primary - Report on the New Hampshire presidential primary where John McCain has beaten George Bush in the Republican primary and on the Democratic side Vice President Gore has emerged as the winner with a small margin over Bill Bradley. Includes interviews with Gov. Bush and former Senator McCain, (C: Dan Rather, Bob Schieffer)

02/08/00

"The Missiles" Pts. I & II - despite the fact that the Cold War is over, tension between the U.S. and Russia is greater than ever. Both countries still maintain large arsenals of nuclear weapons which are continually tested and could be launched at a moment's notice. Includes an interview with General Eugene Habiger (ret.), former commander in chief of all U.S. nuclear forces, who attempted unsuccessfully to forge a mutual disarmament agreement with Russia. (C: Dan Rather - P: George Crile, Neeraj Khemlani)

60 MINUTES II (continued)

"The Ferry Is Coming" - a report on the controversy in Alabama concerning the return of ferry service between the largely black town of Gee's Bend and the city of Camden. Newspaper owner and former segregationist Hollis Curl claims that it will make the black community less isolated. Critics claim that his motives are purely political. (C: Vicki Mabrey - P: Joel Bernstein)

"Uncommon Sense" - fund-raising (C: Jimmy Tingle)

02/15/00 "Semper Fidelis" - in 1997 two Marines, Major Michael Browne and Lt. Robert Straw, were killed when a Cobra helicopter crashed during a non-combat mission. The fliers' families filed a lawsuit against Bell Helicopter Textron, the aircraft's manufacturer, saying that it was unfit to fly. The Marine corps has refused to take any action against Bell and has brought its investigation to a halt. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Nancy Duffy)

"Com Kids" - a look at the under-35 businessmen whose internet companies have made them multi-millionaires. Includes an interview with Jason Calacanis, a magazine editor who is the chronicler of these companies. (C: Bob Simon - Tom Anderson, Neeraj Khemlani)

"What Price Genius?" - a followup to "What Price Genius?" (OAD: 60 MINUTES 03/15/87) a report on Adragon DeMello, a 10-year-old college sophomore. The followup consists of an interview with Demello who is now 23-years-old. (C: Morley Safer - P: Gail Eisen)

"Uncommon Sense" - Valentine's Day gifts lead to other events. (C: Jimmy Tingle)

02/22/00

"Your Doctor's Bonus" - a report on a misdiagnosis that almost cost the life of Cindy Herdick, an Illinois woman, and charges that HMOs are paying doctors bonuses for prescribing less costly treatment for patients. The issue of bonuses for inferior care is at the core of a case scheduled to be heard by the Supreme Court tomorrow. Also at issue are the rights of patients to sue HMOs for malpractice or mistakes. (C: Dan Rather - P: Tom Anderson)

"Murder in Vacaville" - Chad O'Connell admitted to the fatal stabbing of Jerry Alvarez English during a 1997 street fight in Vacaville, California. O'Connell was let off on probation. David Moreno and Justin Pacheco were charged with murder under an obscure law known as the provocative act rule. More than two years later, amid charges that their arrest was racially motivated, the teenagers were tried and found innocent. (C: Bob Simon - P: Michael Rosenbaum, Jill Landes)

"Carlos Santana" - an interview with Carlos Santana whose album, "Supernatural," is up for 11 Grammys. (C: Charlie Rose - P: John Hamlin)

"Uncommon Sense" - wage reform (C: Jimmy Tingle)

02/29/00

"The HMO War" - an interview with Dickie Scruggs, the lawyer best known for his victory over the tobacco industry, who now has taken on the country's largest HMOs claiming they are guilty of fraud and racketeering because they put profits before patients. Scruggs has filed a law suit on behalf of the 32 million people represented by these companies. (C: Dan Rather - P: Mary Mapes)

"Too Good For Hollywood" - a profile of filmmaker Errol Morris whose documentaries have no sets, no actors, no scripts but focus on real people who tell their own stories. (C: Scott Pelley - P: David Schneider)

"Amy's Story" - a followup to "Amy's Story" (OAD: 60 MINUTES 01/17/99), a report on the murder of Amy Biehl, a California woman who was murdered by a mob of black militants whose cause she had espoused. The followup consists of
