530PM LOC/NEWS 3/26/09 :18
More than 130 jobs will be laid off at an Alpena cement plant. That company says the move is to focus on improving efficiency, with workers being recalled in about 45 days.

2. Economy/Business

5PM NAT/NEWS 1/9/09 1:19
Today, President-elect Obama delivered an urgent pitch for his economic recovery plan. It includes tax cuts for the middle class, money for state infrastructure projects, improvements in health care and education, and increasing clean energy production.

5PM NAT/NEWS 1/27/09 1:37
In private meetings, President Barack Obama listened to Republican concerns about his Economic Rescue plan, while pushing them to support the $825 billion package. While Republicans praised the meeting with the President, they said beforehand not one member from their part would support the bill scheduled for a vote in the House on Wednesday. Everyone does agree that the economy urgently needs a jolt.

530PM NAT/NEWS 1/28/09 :39
One measure of the depth of the current recession could be dubbed the 'Starbucks barometer'. More and more Starbucks' customers are forgoing the small luxury of $4 lattes. Financial analysts say it's a sign of what's ahead. Lower sales of expensive coffee drinks mean lower sales of other luxury items.

NOON NAT/NEWS 2/3/09 1:30
GOP lawmakers are pushing tax cuts which they say will help ease the housing crisis. They want new credits for home buyers and mortgage relief for struggling homeowners. Even members of the President's own party want changes in the stimulus plan. Senators agree on one point—the price tag. The cost of the stimulus is now close to $900 billion; Republicans and some Democrats say that's too much.

6PM NAT/NEWS 2/7/09 1:37
Homeowners are trying to get the best deal for their dollar and buying a house is one of the of the biggest investments many will make. This year many home builders are bracing for a tough selling season. In the meantime, they are putting in extra work with longer days and working weekends. Builders say most clients are interested in remodeling which is a do-able investment on a tight budget.

5PM NAT/NEWS 2/17/09 1:21
Today, President Obama signed the $787 billion economic stimulus plan. Among areas the money will be used for are infrastructure projects, health care, renewable energy development, as well as tax breaks for the American people.

11PM LOC/NEWS 2/22/09 1:30
Earlier today, several governors made the Sunday Morning television circuit to criticize President Obama's plan to cut the U.S. budget in half. Other governors suggest they will refuse some of the government's stimulus money. However, Michigan's Governor Granholm says she is ready to take any money the other states don't want.

11PM LOC/NEWS 3/4/09 :21

5PM NAT/NEWS 3/31/09 1:35
President Obama lays groundwork for a G-20 summit entitled "Summit to Save the World," held in London. British police have launched security to circumvent protesters who are against the summit. Britain and the U.S. are pressing other governments to pump more money into their economies. Europeans oppose the idea.

6. DTV Conversion

11PM NAT/NEWS 1/6/09 1:43
At midnight on February 17, all full-power television stations in the United States will stop broadcasting in analog, and make the switch to digital. President Bush signed a bill that requires the FCC to provide a 30-day extension on analog signals, so that people can still get essential public safety announcements.

WAKEUP NAT/NEWS 1/9/09 :19
President-elect Obama would like the deadline for DTV conversion pushed back. He says that people are not ready and not enough is being done to educate the public on DTV.

530PM LOC/NEWS 1/13/09 :19
TV5 will be taking calls and answering questions about the DTV switch this coming Thursday. There are 35 days until the transition, and TV5 will be running tests to see if viewers are ready for the conversion.

WAKEUP, NOON, LOC/NEWS 1/15/09 Varied
4P, 5P, 530P, 6P, 11P

Tests done to check viewer readiness in all shows, plus phone bank provided for viewer Questions and answers in the afternoon and evening shows.

11PM NAT/NEWS 1/26/09 :40

The Senate has approved a four-month delay in the Digital TV conversion. The government has run out of coupons for converter boxes, but is putting people on a waiting list.

5P NAT/NEWS 1/28/09 :40

The U.S. House defeats a move today that would have delayed the DTV switch, failing to get a two-thirds majority. But the bill isn't dead yet; the house can still bring up for a majority rules vote which allows for lengthier debate and amendments.

6PM NAT/NEWS 2/4/09 :19

Congress has voted to delay the DTV transition until June 12, amid concerns that more than 6.5 million Americans wouldn't be ready for the February 17 deadline. The measure now goes to the president's desk, who is expected to sign it into law.

WAKEUP NAT/NEWS 2/12/09 :19

President Obama has signed the DTV Delay Bill, that will set back the Federal standards for going digital, by four months. TV stations have until June 12 to make the conversion.

WAKEUP NAT/NEWS 2/17/09 :32

Hundreds of television stations are turning off their analog broadcasts this week, even though the date for the changeover to all-digital signals has been pushed back to June. More than 600 stations will plan to switch off analog this week, with TV5 making the switch in June.

6PM NAT/NEWS 3/25/09 :24

The government is now accepting requests for new converter box coupons. They'll give you a $40 discount on the price of a converter. We've got the information on our website.

7. Weather

5PM LOC/NEWS 1/13/09 1:30

The City of Flint has workers on stand-by, if anyone needs immediate shelter. There are several currently staffed facilities available as temperatures drop below zero in Flint tonight. There are some extra perks at these shelters, providing a big screen television, pool tables, games and a gym.

530PM LOC/NEWS 1/19/09 1:29

A elderly man is found frozen to death in his home and now the city utility company is being asked to explain. 530PM LOC/NEWS 1/28/09 1:40

A 21-gun salute is given for a Veteran. A 93-year-old man who served as a medic in World War II is buried today, with the Patriot Guard riders on hand to pay tribute. The Senior citizen died of hypothermia in his home this past Sunday. The power to the Veteran's home was turned off and a limiter placed on the home was also off, and needed to be re-set, to provide necessary heat. The incident raised concerns nationally.

WAKEUP LOC/NEWS 2/4/09 :24

Today's frigid temperatures are the perfect environment for the U.S. Coast Guard's Ice Rescue Training program. It's happening tonight on the Saginaw River where the team will simulate rescues on the ice.

11PM NAT/NEWS 2/7/09 1:20

More than 100 fishermen were trapped on a floating piece of ice on Lake Erie in Ottawa County. The Coast Guard rescued the fishermen by boat and air, but not in time to save everyone. Officials say at least one person died. Authorities say wooden pallets were used to create a bridge over cracked ice. But the boards fell into the water when the ice shifted, stranding the fishermen.

6PM LOC/NEWS 2/11/09 :30

A Bay City man froze to death almost a month ago, because his power was turned off for not paying his utility bill. Family says the man's estate was worth roughly $600,000 and was left to Bay Regional Medical Center. The money is going toward buying equipment for the hospital's emergency team.

6PM LOC/NEWS 2/13/09 1:40

Emergency crews have pulled out sandbags, trying to save homes and businesses as water invades the Tuscola County town of Vassar. The town's main street which runs through the middle of Vassar has been closed because of the high waters of the Cass River.

11PM LOC/NEWS 2/14/09 1:18

The flood waters of Vassar receded, leaving behind many damaged homes and businesses, including the City Theater, where their basement flooded at least five feet, when the river crested. The manager says his building is now back open thanks to volunteers who helped clean up.

11PM LOC/NEWS 2/18/09 1:30
A local Vassar man says a drain project completed two years ago to protect downtown Vassar, may have worsened the effects of the flood for him. The Vassar homeowner barely made it out of his basement last week, when he felt the ground move beneath him. He's grateful for his flood insurance, but concerned over the new drain's purpose.

11PM LOC/NEWS 3/8/09 1:42
Massive blocks of ice stretch across several miles of Saginaw Bay shoreline, in some areas reaching up to 12 feet high. People who live here say it took only 30 minutes for the chunks of ice to stack up, due to the nearly 30 mile-per-hour wind coming out of the northeast.

5PM LOC/NEWS 3/10/09 1:30
The ice forced some people out of their homes and gained national attention. Tonight those mountains of ice still sit on the Lake Huron shoreline. They were driven into the beach by warmer weather and strong winds. Right now, work continues to clear the mess away from homes.

WAKEUP LOC/NEWS 3/14/09 :16
Today, residents in Dundee, Michigan are under a state of emergency. Officials say the nearby river crested and that's when the flooding began. Experts expect the water to recede in a few days.

5PM NAT/NEWS 3/25/09 1:30
Rescue boats swooped in to evacuate people just outside of Fargo, North Dakota. The Red River is already several feet above flood stage, due to rain, snow and melting ice. Residents are out in full force sandbagging.

5PM NAT/NEWS 3/31/09 1:39
Another harsh round of snow and wind are creating treacherous conditions for residents of Fargo, North Dakota. Between the flood watch, sandbagging, and a spring blizzard, neighbors are exhausted. There is also word of another possible river crest in mid-April.

8. Alternative Energy/Green

6PM LOC/NEWS 1/7/09 :22
"Michigan Wind One", the largest wind farm in the state, went into operation last month, with plans for an official ribbon cutting still to be determined. The farm can create enough energy to power about 20,000 homes.

11PM LOC/NEWS 1/10/09 :26

11PM LOC/NEWS 3/14/09 1:29
A Bay County parent calls 9-1-1 after her son was approached by a stranger in a white van with tinted windows. Moments later police arrived, canvassing the area, with no success. There have at least six reported incidents, similar to this one across Mid-Michigan recently.

6PM LOC/NEWS 3/17/09 1:15
A Flint man was arrested last month and accused of sexually assaulting an 11-year-old boy. Now police say they found charts outlining various sex acts matched with names and ages of various people, kept by the suspect. The 27-year-old male faces six counts of first degree criminal sexual conduct.

10. School Budgets, Security

11PM LOC/NEWS 1/7/09 1:32
The Bullock Creek School District is looking at several revenue and expenditure reduction options to balance their budget. Some solutions include a county enhancement millage, staff and program cuts and even closing some schools.

11PM LOC/NEWS 1/10/09 1:47

At a day-long retreat, Saginaw Public Schools officials started with presentations on ways to improve failing test scores. Those remarks were followed by areas which would have to be reduced to balance the books. An audit revealed, last month, the district spent $2.6 million more than expected. The district expects to lose 500 students over the year and is looking at $5.3 million worth of cuts.

5PM LOC/NEWS 1/15/09 1:20

Saginaw City Schools announce they plan to cut possibly 63 teaching positions to help manage budget problems. Some parents hearing this news contemplate another school for their children which would have smaller classes, making for a better teaching environment. The District says the cuts will bring counselors, principals and others qualified to teach back into the classroom.

11PM LOC/NEWS 1/26/09 1:35

The Flint Schools held the first of four community meetings, going over the concerns and budget problems now faced by the District. Parents say they understand the problem, but are concerned about what it will do to their children's education.

48 HOURS MYSTERY

- 01/03/09      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Betrayal" - an update of a report on the September 3, 2006 disappearance of Nina Reiser, a Russian doctor who had married Hans Reiser, an American computer whiz. The couple had two children, but their marriage began to fall apart and Nina began an affair with Sean Sturgeon, Hans' best friend. Embroiled in a nasty custody fight, Nina dropped off the children at Hans' house on Labor Day weekend and then mysteriously vanished. Her body had never been found. After investigation, Hans was arraigned on murder charges five weeks after Nina's disappearance, and one year later, went on trial for her murder. After three days of deliberation, the jury found him guilty of first degree murder and he was sentenced to 25 years to life. Update for this rebroadcast: In the summer of 2008, Hans Reiser offered to lead police to Nina's body in exchange for a reduced verdict and reduced time in prison. The police agreed; Hans led them to her remains, which he had buried just half a mile from his house. As part of the deal, Hans was required to provide a detailed confession of how he murdered Nina, and his voice is heard describing how he strangled her. One month later, the verdict against Hans was lowered to murder in the second degree, and sentenced him to 15 years to life. Graphic updates: Nina Reiser was buried in St. Petersburg, Russia. Her children will remain in Russia with Nina's mother. Hans Reiser will be eligible for parole in 2021. He will be 58 years old. This account includes background details, surrounding circumstances, and the consideration of a possible link between the two cases, as well as information regarding the ongoing investigation by the Georgia Bureau of Investigation and the Orlando Police Department. Among those interviewed are: Connie Grinstead, Tara's stepmother; Gary Rothwell, special agent with the Georgia Bureau of Investigation; Rob Allen, Jennifer's boyfriend; several members of Jennifer's family; Sergeant Roger Brennan and Detective Joel Wright of the Orlando Police Department. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Katherine Davis). (OAD: 07/01/08 as 48 HOURS VANISHED: "Stolen Beauty")
- 01/17/09      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Peace, Love And Murder" - A report on the murder of housewife Toni Heartsong, killed in her Jupiter, Florida home on September 26, 2000. That day, police received a phone call from her husband Bob Heartsong saying that he had come home from work to discover her dead body, brutally bludgeoned and stabbed. For various reasons, Bob was initially eliminated as a possible suspect, but in 2006, new DNA technology revealed the presence of his blood under Toni's thumbnail and his DNA on her hand. He was arrested, and in 2008 he was tried for her murder. The blood evidence presented by the prosecution was deemed inconclusive, and the jury rendered a verdict of not guilty. Among those interviewed are: Barry Soren, Toni's brother; her cousins Mel and Sandra Sorkowitz, Deb Schepp, Elissa LeJeune; Toni's sons Eli and Jake Heartsong; Florida State investigator Tim Valentine; Steve Kochakian, a former employee of Bob Heartsong; Suzye Goldstein, Bob Heartsong's new wife; Palm Beach County police John Van Houten, Bill Springer; prosecutor Barbara Burns; defense attorney Barry Maxwell; jury foreman Tony Alberto. - 01/24/09      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Lady In The Harbor" - A report on the September 2006 murder of aspiring actress Barbara Mullenix, whose body was discovered in the water at the Newport Harbor Yacht Club in California. She had been stabbed fifty-two times. An initial suspect was her ex-husband, Bruce Mullenix. Despite their divorce, Bruce had agreed to let Barbara and their 17-year-old daughter Rachael move into his small Huntington Beach apartment, a situation that worsened when Barbara would drink and become verbally abusive. But Bruce was soon ruled out as a suspect because he had been out of town on a business trip. Investigators' attention then turned to Rachael and her 21-year-old boyfriend, Ian Allen, who were nowhere to be found after the murder. When they were finally apprehended and questioned, Ian admitted to killing Barbara, and Rachael was also accused of the murder. Both Ian And Rachael were tried separately. Each was found guilty of first degree murder, and each was sentenced to 25 years to life. Includes interviews with Bruce Mullenix; Rachael Mullenix; Newport police investigators Steve Mack and Joe Cartwright; Kelsey Douglas, friend of Rachael Mullenix; Sonia Balleste, Orange County prosecutor; David Cohn, Rachel's attorney; Sean Enloe, pathologist; Dr. Al Ravitz, child psychiatrist. (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Ira Sutow, Allen Alter)
- 01/31/09      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Conspiracy To Kill" - A report on the suspiciously similar circumstances surrounding the deaths, 19 years apart, of the two husbands of Sonia Rios, who herself was later murdered. Rios, a native of the Philippines, first married Earl Bourdeau, a U.S. Marine whom she met in the Philippines. They settled in Lomita, California. After a stormy 21-year marriage, Earl wanted a divorce. But before Sonia would grant him one, she demanded that he go to the Philippines by himself to sell a family taxi business. Earl went, and, in August 1987, while sleeping on the couch in the home of Sonia's relatives, he was shot in the head at point-blank range. In 1990, Sonia then married Navy Commander Larry Risken. By 2006, their marriage had deteriorated, and Larry wanted a divorce. Sonia consented, but only if Larry went alone on a long-planned trip to the Philippines to visit two of Sonia's young relatives of whom he was very fond. He made the trip, and in April 2006 Larry was killed in the parking lot of a hospital there. One year later, in April 2007, Sonia herself was shot to death in her Lomita, California home. Both Earl and Larry's families are convinced that Sonia had both of her husbands murdered for their insurance money. But the murders of both men -- and the murder of Sonia Rios -- remain unsolved. Includes interviews with Sherry Jackson, sister of Larry Risken; Dennis Bourdeau, brother of Earl Bourdeau; Larry Altman, crime reporter; Henry Hoskins, friend of Sonia Rios; Bong Oteza, private investigator; Mike Rodriguez, L.A. County Sheriff's detective; Dr. Rachel Fortun, forensic pathologist. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Joe Halderman, Sara Rodriguez)

- 02/08/09      "Saving Flight 1549" - a three-part report on the incredible water landing in the Hudson River on January 15, 2009 of a U.S. Air flight which saved the lives of all 155 people aboard. Part I is an interview with Hero pilot Captain Chesley "Sully" Sullenberger. Part II is an interview with Captain Sullenberger and his crew, and with his wife. Part III consists of coverage of a reunion between the passengers and the crew, as well as additional remarks from Captain Sullenberger and his family. Part I: (C: Katie Couric - P: Tanya Simon, Michael Radutzky, Lori Beecher) Part II: (C: Katie Couric - P: Michael Radutzky, Lori Beecher, Jenny Dubin) Part III: (C: Katie Couric - P: Tanya Simon, Lori Beecher, Andrew Metz) DOUBLE-LENGTH SEGMENT
"Coldplay" - a profile of the British rock group, Coldplay, who provide a rare look inside their world, which includes a candid interview with frontman and singer Chris Martin. Also interviewed: guitarist Jonny Buckland, bass player Guy Berryman and drummer Will Champion. (C: Steve Kroft - P: John Hamlin)
- 02/15/09      "Buy American" - a report on the "buy American" clause included in the economic stimulus package passed by Congress this week. Fought hard for by the steel industry, it mandates that any infrastructure project paid for with stimulus dollars must use steel made in the USA and not cheaper imports. American businesses that export overseas now worry foreign governments will retaliate and keep U.S. products out of their market, thus hurting their business. Interviewed: Dan Dimicco, CEO of Nucor, the United States' biggest steel maker; Doug Jellison, Nucor plant manager; cold saw operator Jeremy Davis; and Jim Owens, CEO of Caterpillar. (C: Lesley Stahl - P: Shachar Bar-On)
"World of Trouble" - Paul Bishop was a mortgage salesman at the San Francisco branch of World Savings of California, the United States' second largest savings and loan. In an interview, he recounts how - three years before the housing market crash - he warned his superiors that many of the mortgages they were granting were misleading and predatory. This practice contributed to the eventual self-destruction of the mortgage industry, setting off an economic collapse that ruined the finances of millions of Americans. Also interviewed: Betty Townes, financially ruined after being sold a series of World Savings mortgages she couldn't afford; Maeve-Elyse Brown, lawyer for a non-profit group working to save homeowners from foreclosure; and Bob Simpson, whose company, IMARC, investigates failed mortgages. (C: Scott Pelley - P: Graham Messick)
"War In Pakistan" - a report on the conflicts in Pakistan, featuring an interview with President Asif Ali Zardari. The Muslim nation, whose support is critical to the U.S. mission in Afghanistan, is not only broke and embroiled in another crisis with its arch enemy India, it's also now at war with Muslim extremists trying to destroy the government. This growing insurgency, run by the Taliban and al Qaeda, is threatening the stability of a key U.S. ally that is believed to have as many as a hundred nuclear weapons. Also interviewed: General Tariq Khan, commander of Pakistan's forces in the tribal territories; Bruce Riedel, a senior fellow at the Brookings Institute, who has spent thirty years as a CIA analyst and has advised President Barack Obama on the situation in Pakistan; and Khalid Khawaja, former Pakistani intelligence officer and friend of Osama bin Laden. (C: Steve Kroft - P: Draggan Mihailovich)

02/22/09

"The Drinking Age" - an examination of the debate over lowering the legal drinking age from 21 to 18, a controversial idea embraced by some and roundly criticized by groups such as Mothers Against Drunk Driving (MADD). Includes interviews with: John McCardell, former president of Middlebury College in Vermont, who started the movement dedicated to lowering the drinking age back to 18; Mark Beckner, Chief of Police, Boulder, Colorado; Leslie and Michael Lanahan, mother and stepfather of University of Colorado freshman Gordie Bailey, who died of alcohol poisoning when he underwent a Chi Psi fraternity initiation; and Chuck Hurley, Executive Director of MADD. (C: Leslie Stahl - P: Ruth Streeker)

"Kidnapped in Basra" - a report on the war in Iraq, featuring an interview with CBS News producer/cameraman Richard Butler, who was kidnapped in Basra in 2008. At that time, the southern city was in total chaos, at the mercy of warring Shiite factions -- many of whom were taking their orders from Iran and Hezbollah. In one of the first major Iraqi-led military missions since the United States invasion, Iraqi troops, along with their U.S. counterparts, invaded the city, took control, and rescued Butler, leading to an understanding that the new Iraqi government could successfully combat the militias. Also includes an interview with Colonel Peter Mansoor, former executive officer to America's top commander in Iraq. (C: Lara Logan - P: Peter Klein)

"The Mascot" - an interview/profile of Alex Kurzem, who at the age of six watched his family being shot by the Nazis. Born Elia Solomonovich Kalperin in Koidanov, Belorussia, he decided to flee into the forest the morning his Jewish family was to be exterminated and survived there for months, before being captured by Nazi soldiers, who not knowing he was Jewish, made him the youngest corporal in the Nazi army. After the war, he migrated to Australia, married and had his own family, but did not reveal his true identity -- a secret he kept for more than fifty years. Though unable to remember his true identity, with help from his son, he was able to rediscover his past, the fate of his family, and meet a half-brother he didn't even know existed. (C: Bob Simon - P: Robert G. Anderson)

Andy Rooney Topic: "Presidents: Best To Worst" - Andy takes a look at a new list of the best and worst presidents

48 HOURS MYSTERY

02/07/09

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "An Invisible Enemy" - a follow-up to "An Invisible Enemy" (OAD: 12/08/07). In January 2007, Cynthia Sommer was convicted of murdering her Marine Sgt. husband Todd in February 2002 with a lethal dose of arsenic. But ten months after her conviction, she was granted a new trial because of questions about the validity of the lab tests that found arsenic in some of Todd Sommer's tissue samples but not in others. His tissue samples were now sent to another lab to be tested for arsenic -- and none was found. Because of this, the prosecution concluded that there was a reasonable doubt; murder charges against Cynthia Sommer were dropped, and the case was dismissed. However, Todd Sommer's death is still officially listed as a homicide, and the court left open the possibility that Cynthia Sommer could be charged again. Interviewed are: Cynthia Sommer; Jan Lippert, Cynthia's mother; Allen Bloom, Cynthia Sommer's new defense attorney; Mark Ridley, Naval Criminal Investigative Service special agent; Rob Terwilliger, a second NCIS special agent; Bonnie Dumanis, San Diego District Attorney; Dr. Lee Cantrell, toxicologist; Dr. Glenn Wagner, medical examiner; Eva Stoner, military police officer; Al Poklis, arsenic expert. 02/14/09

48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "The Year We Disappeared" - On August 31, 1979, John Busby, a Falmouth, Massachusetts police officer, was ambushed in his car by a gunman in a passing car who shot him point blank in the face with a shotgun. Although brutally wounded, Busby was able to write a note for police at the scene that said "Not an accident. Mel Reine." Melvin Reine, a convicted arsonist and suspected murderer of three people, was a local thug whose brother, John Reine, had been arrested by John Busby. For undetermined reasons, Melvin Reine had long intimidated the Falmouth police, and the attempted murder of John Busby was not aggressively investigated. Fearing for their safety, the Busby family moved to an undisclosed location in Tennessee. Twenty-four years after the shooting, in 2003, John Reine confessed to the police that his brother Melvin had indeed shot John Busby while he, Melvin, drove the car. However, because of the statute of limitations, the Reines will remain unpunished. Melvin is now institutionalized, in a state of dementia. John Busby and his daughter Cylin have written a memoir together, entitled "The Year We Disappeared". Includes narration by John Busby; Cylin Busby, his daughter; Kellie Collier-Driscoll, his niece; Polly Busby, his wife; Rick Smith, Falmouth police officer. (Producers: Chuck Stevenson, Liza Finley, Katherine Davis, Chris Young)

02/21/09

48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "River's Edge" - On January 8, 2000, college students Danielle Keener and Dan Zapp were on a date, walking along a river's edge outside York, Pennsylvania, when they were kidnapped at gunpoint by a man in a pick-up truck. The gunman put Dan in the back of the truck with his Rottweiler dog; he put Danielle in the passenger seat, where he then raped her. Afterwards, he then put them both out of the truck, and ordered them to walk down towards the river. From behind, he then shot them both in the face. Feigning death, they floated down the river, out of the gunman's view. They were soon picked up by a hunter, Pete Prowell, who was able to contact the police and get them to a hospital. Dan -- on a respirator and unable to speak -- wrote on a notepad what he remembered of the gunman and gave the police the clues they needed to find him. Police then tracked down and arrested William Babner for the crime. Six months after the shooting, Babner went on trial; he was convicted and sentenced to one-hundred and seventeen and a half to two-hundred and thirty five years in prison. Includes narration by Danielle Keener; Dan Zapp; Pete Prowell, the couple's rescuer; Brent Keener, Danielle's father; Elizabeth Martin, Danielle's college roommate; Dr. John Hankle, attending physician, York Hospital; Detective Doug Demangone, York police; Police Chief Darryl Albright; Police Captain Roland Camacho; Ed Paskey, York County Prosecutor. 02/28/09

48 HOURS MYSTERY: "The Secret Life Of Paige Birgfeld" (9:00-10:00p) - A report on the June 28, 2007 disappearance of Paige Birgfeld, twice-divorced mother of three and a resident of Grand Junction, Colorado and the subsequent double-life uncovered by investigators following her disappearance. Following her 2006 divorce, Paige became the primary caregiver to her children and was described as such a devoted mother that the Mesa County Sheriff's Department was convinced she would never have left on her own accord. As friends and family searched for her; her car was found abandoned and on fire in an empty lot. Her first husband, Ron Beigler became the focus of the investigation, when it was learned that the two had been on a date the day of her disappearance, but Paige's friends and family were far more suspicious of the children's father, Rob Dixon, as she had a troubled history with him. After a thorough inquiry, both men had solid alibis. As the investigation continued, it was discovered that Paige was also known as Carrie, a high-priced escort. Her family suspected she had money issues. Investigators then began to believe Paige was murdered by one of her clients. Using her cell phone records, police began carefully looking at all of her clients and eventually honed in on one man, Lester Ralph Jones, an ex-con who had served time for kidnapping and assault. Authorities searched his home, but will not discuss what evidence they uncovered. Search dogs led investigators from Paige's car to an RV shop where Jones worked as a mechanic. Although authorities have zeroed in on Lester Ralph Jones, no charges have been filed and he denies any involvement. The lack of a body, coupled with Paige's secret life, have made it that much harder to prove anything beyond a reasonable doubt. Her friends and family continue their search. (C: Harold Dow - P: Loen Kelley, Sara Ely Hulse, Ira Sutow) (OAD: 06/10/08 as 48 HOURS VANISHED: "The Secret Life Of Paige Birgfeld"; Includes brief updated text graphic at the conclusion.)

48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "Black Wave" (10:00-11:00p) - In June 2005, John and Jean Silverwood of San Diego, California, along with their four children, were sailing around the world in their 55-foot catamaran when they struck a hidden reef. A massive wave then forced the 2,500 pound mast to fall on John Silverwood, pinning him to the deck and cutting right through his leg. Through the resourcefulness of his son, Ben, and his wife, Jean, John's blood loss was stopped, and the family was moved to a coral ledge about a hundred feet away from the boat. The signal from their emergency beacon, held by son Jack, enabled the Coast Guard Station in Alameda, California, to pinpoint their location - approximately 350 nautical miles west of Tahiti Papeete. They were finally rescued and John was transported to the hospital in Tahiti. Although his leg had to be amputated, John's life was saved. Includes individual narrations by Jean and John Silverwood and their children: Ben, Amelia, Camille and Jack; Ernie Delli Gatti of Coast Guard Search and Rescue. 02/01/09

CBS REPORTS: "The Road to the White House" - a retrospective chronological review of Barack Obama's road to the presidency, incorporating never-before-seen footage along with video excerpts of previously aired 60 MINUTES segments, and unified with an original audio narrative by correspondent Steve Kroft, who was also the correspondent for all excerpted segments. Included are: (1) "The Road to the White House" (First Steps) - a look back at why 60 MINUTES chose to profile Barack Obama, a then-rising political phenomenon, who planned to announce his candidacy for the presidency on 02/10/07 (P: L. Franklin Devine, Michael Radutzky, Tom Anderson). (2) "The Road to the White House" (The Primaries) - after an enthusiastic beginning, Obama's campaign hit a wall, and on the eve of the primaries, he trailed Hillary Clinton by nearly 20 points. He learned to be a great candidate, and in Iowa, his organization outmaneuvered the Clinton campaign and achieved victory, shattering Senator Clinton's aura of inevitability. (P: L. Franklin Devine, Jennifer MacDonald). (3) "The Road to the White House" (Victory) - Obama went to the Democratic convention assured of the nomination and made history as the first African-American presidential nominee of a major political party. In the campaign, he was locked in a dead-heat with Republican rival John McCain, and eventually achieved an historic victory on election night, appearing that night to a cheering crowd in Chicago's Grant Park (no producers listed). (4) "The Road to the White House" (Looking Ahead) - after Obama's victory, he remained out of sight, getting briefings and conferring with his transition team. His first post-election interview was conducted by Steve Kroft, 12 days after the election, and included his wife, Michelle Obama. (P: L. Franklin Devine, Michael Radutzky). Excerpts were taken from the following previously aired segments: "Barack Obama" (OAD: 02/11/07); "Obama '08" (OAD: 02/10/08); "Ohio" (OAD: 03/02/08); "Obama -Biden '08" (OAD: 08/31/08); "The Candidates - Obama '08" (OAD: 09/21/08); "The Inner Circle" (OAD: 11/09/08); "The Next First Family" (OAD: 11/16/08). (OAD: 12/28/08 on 60 MINUTES)

48 HOURS MYSTERY

- 03/07/09      48 HOURS MINI-MYSTERY: "Written In Blood" - a six-part, edited version of "Written In Blood" (OAD: 09/25/04; OAD - expanded version: 08/06/05 as "Perfectly Executed") - a report on the brutal 1994 murders of the Rafay family in Bellevue, Washington, and the subsequent arrest and conviction of Atif Rafay, the only surviving family member, and his friend Sebastian Burns. Correspondent: Peter Van Sant. The six separate segments are spaced and aired within the two-hour program block of the CBS Entertainment series CRIMETIME SATURDAY: CSI:CRIME SCENE INVESTIGATION and WITHOUT A TRACE. Each of the six segments of this serialized version is approximately two-to-three minutes in duration. The cumulative duration is approximately 16 minutes.
- 03/07/09      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Picture Perfect" - On June 9, 2008, 30-year-old Travis Alexander, a successful businessman and devout Mormon, was found murdered in his Mesa, Arizona home. He had been shot and then repeatedly stabbed. For a little more than a year, he had been involved with Jodi Arias, an aspiring photographer whom he had met at a business conference. She adopted his Mormon beliefs, which forbid premarital sex -- but they did become sexually involved. Although they supposedly ended their relationship when Jodi found out that Travis was interested in some other girls, Jodi then moved to Mesa. Police investigation of the murder scene recovered a digital camera with electronically dated, sexually explicit photos Travis and Jodi had taken of themselves -- and photos of Travis during the time he was being killed or soon after. When confronted by police, Jodi claimed that two masked intruders had broken in to Travis' home and murderously assaulted him -- but that she was able to escape. She did not call anyone for help, and told no one of the assault. Five days later, Travis was found dead by his roommates. Further police investigation resulted in the arrest of Jodi Arias on charges of first-degree murder. Her trial will take place sometime in 2010. Includes interviews with Jodi Arias; Chris and Sky Hughes, friends of Travis Alexander; Samantha and Steve Alexander, Travis' sister and brother; Travis' friends Taylor Searle, Brint Hiatt, and Aaron Mortenson; Esteban Flores, detective, Mesa Police Department. - 03/14/09      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Toxic" - On December 2, 2000, 30-year-old Eric Miller died in a Raleigh, North Carolina hospital. Blood tests had revealed that he had been poisoned with arsenic. Police investigation discovered that Eric's wife, Ann, a chemist, was having an affair with Derril Willard, a biochemist who worked at the same company as she. On the day after police initially questioned him about Eric's death, Derril Willard committed suicide. Prior to doing so, he had a confidential conversation with his lawyer, Rick Gammon. Years passed -- and in the spring of 2004, the North Carolina Supreme Court ruled that Gammon must reveal what Willard had told him about Ann's role in Eric's murder. Gammon then revealed how Ann admitted to Derril Willard that she had injected a substance into Eric's IV bag...and Willard had told Gammon that he himself had never tried to kill Eric. Ann Miller was charged with Eric's murder. Because the District Attorney and the Miller family had misgivings about the outcome of a trial, Ann was offered a plea bargain: twenty-five years in prison for Eric's murder. She accepted. Among those interviewed are: Lieutenant Chris Morgan, Raleigh, N.C. Police Department; Doris and Versus Miller, Eric's parents; Pam Baltzell and Leeann Magee, Eric's sisters; Renee Henson, Ann Miller's college roommate; Deborah Regentin, detective, Raleigh, N.C. Police Department; Yvette Willard, widow of Derril Willard; Michael Teague, forensic psychologist; Rick Gammon, attorney for the late Derril Willard. (C: Troy Roberts - P: Patti Aronofsky)

03/21/09      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Point Blank" - Traci and Scott Rhode had been together for twenty years and were the parents of three sons. Traci was a nurse. Scott, a jealous man, suspected his wife of having affairs with the different doctors she worked with, and moved the family five times in thirteen years, finally ending up in Brownsville, Texas. There Traci met Shawn Michaels, the unit secretary at the hospital where she worked. She claimed Michaels was only a friend, but Scott took Traci to a lawyer's office and said that he was getting a divorce and would have custody of the boys. On the day after that -- October 15, 2003 -- Scott died from a gunshot wound to the head in the couple's Brownsville, Texas home. Traci claimed that Scott shot himself and that she found him. After a two year investigation, Traci was arrested for his murder. Throughout it all, Traci maintained that she was innocent. At her trial, the jury found her guilty. Under Texas law, the defense has the option of letting the jurors decide the punishment as well as the verdict. Traci's lawyer opted for a jury sentence, and, after hearing her testimony and that of her two oldest boys, the jury allowed her to be released on ten years probation. Includes interviews with: Traci Rhode; Vicki Lair, Traci's mother; Sam Lucio, detective, Brownsville, Texas Police Department; Nat Perez, Scott Rhode's divorce lawyer; Raina Kant, friend of the Rhodes; J.D. Robertson, Texas Ranger; Jim Odabashian, Traci Rhode's pastor; Chuck Mattingly, prosecutor, Brownsville, Texas; Sergeant Pablo Flores, Brownsville police; Richard Ernest, forensic criminalist; Ernesto Gamez, Traci Rhode's lawyer; Xavier Lopex, juror. 03/28/09      48 HOURS MYSTERY: "Memory of Murder" - In November 2004, Bethlehem, New York couple Peter and Joan Porco were brutally attacked in their bed with an ax. Peter died at the scene. Joan survived and, although initially unable to speak because of her wounds, she nodded "yes" when a detective on the scene asked her if her son Christopher was their attacker. Afterwards, when she had recovered from the attack, Joan said she doesn't recall that nod and that Christopher is innocent. 48 HOURS follows the police investigation into the case, leading to Christopher Porco's trial and conviction. Includes interviews with: Mike McDermott, chief prosecutor, Albany County; Chris Bowdish, detective; Christopher Porco; David Rossi, prosecutor; Laurie Shanks, lawyer; Terry Kindlon, lawyer; Dr. Mary Dombovy, neurologist. (C: Peter Van Sant - P: Patti Aronofsky, Katherine Davis) (OAD: 11/04/06; 1st rebroadcast: 06/26/07 - Includes an update. 2nd rebroadcast of 03/28/09 includes a new, brief graphic update.)
