General Motors announced today it will invest $118 million into the GM Powertrain Plant in Bay City. The added capital will be used for production of high efficiency engine parts. The move will bring 29 new jobs and retain another 67 at the facility. Most of those positions will be members of UAW Local 352.

5P	LOC/NEWS	5/6/16	1:33
Today, the Bay City Chamber of Commerce announced a plan to build a boardwalk to easily connect people with the water. The project could start as early as next week, and is one way the City hopes to combat the reputation the area has of muck, which keeps people from using the shoreline. The EPA maintains the muck is good for the habitat, and efforts to clean the beach are stopped at the waterline.

If you sold a home within the last four years, and the state equalized value at the time of the sale was lower or equal to the SEV when you purchased it, then you don't have to pay the state transfer tax. As a seller, if you did pay that tax, you can get it refunded. Get your SEV numbers from your real estate agent, title agent, or by contacting your local municipality, and fill out one sheet of paperwork. Your real estate or title agent can help you with it.

The latest U.S. census numbers indicate child poverty in Michigan is up 23 percent. Child poverty in Saginaw County, however, has actually decreased by 2 percent over the last 9 years. A One Week, One Street program involves faith-based youth who volunteered to help clean up homes and yards in poorer neighborhoods. Workers say it makes them aware of what a reality poverty is, and makes them want to help even more.

Today gold prices jumped 8 percent, the highest it's been in more than 2 years. The increase was generated by Britain's announcement to leave the European Union, which affects European currency. On Wall Street, investors search for safer investments, like gold. Jewelers say metals like gold can have a much higher value in the long run than a piece of paper, aka the dollar bill.

530P NAT/NEWS 6/24/16 1:29

The majority of Britains voted to leave the European Union, which had the Dow dropping 500 points in a matter of minutes. It never recovered, finishing down more than 600 points. Britain is the world's fifth largest economy, and the decision to leave the European union is expected to have an enormous impact on trade and business investment. The Federal Reserve says it's ready to step in and help other countries' central banks, if needed.

2. Crime

11P LOC/NEWS 4/11/16 1:25

A Bay County man is shot to death while vacationing in Plant City, Florida. He was protecting his wife from a man attempting to steal her purse. His children say their father was also fighting cancer, and after that diagnosis, treated every day 'like a gift.'

11P LOC/NEWS 4/18/16 1:47

After hearing a man was released from prison, but faced the possibility of being re-tried for a crime of car jacking and armed robbery in 2004, the true suspect came forward and confessed. The thief says he hopes to clear his conscience and also clear the name of Omar Pouncy who has always maintained his innocence, while serving time since 2004.

For the past 18 months, the Flint water crisis has dominated local headlines. Local leaders say they haven't forgotten other issues facing the city, such as crime. The Flint Police Chief says his department is being much more proactive, rather than reactive nowadays. He said 14 guns, along with drugs and $18,000 in drug forfeiture money were confiscated during the last two weeks.

6P    LOC/NEWS    5/3/16    1:26
A local gun shop in Bay County was robbed last month, with several firearms taken. A recent press release indicates 7 suspects were involved and 23 handguns are still out in the community—a bigger crime than previously reported. The Bureau of Alcohol, Tobacco and Firearms is handling the investigation, and say that it took a month to piece it all together in order to make it public. Two individuals are still wanted in connection with the crime.

11P    LOC/NEWS    5/19/16    1:25
An embezzlement case against the Bay County Fair in 2012 resulted in the suspect sentenced to jail time and paying back the $4,000 he stole. The Bay County Fair Board say they have only received $500 so far, and have learned the man is out of jail, and off probation. They wonder how he could be released from probation without first paying the debt he owes.

Gunfire erupted in a crowded gay club, in Orlando, Florida, just after last call on June 12. Police say security exchanged fire with the 29-year-old shooter. Additional officers engaged in another shoot-out with the attacker, who then retreated to a bathroom within the facility, with hostages. When the terrorist was finally shot by police, they found 49 dead inside the nightclub.

3. Weather

11P                                      LOC/NEWS                                      4/10/16                                      1:17

On a weekend in spring, no children play on the playgrounds. No baseball game is happening for the Loons, as their second home game is cancelled due to the April snow which fell overnight. Others braved the temperatures for today's Relay for Life in Midland. Folks say they are ready to say good-bye to cold and snow, and hello to warmer weather.

5P     LOC/NEWS     4/13/16     1:08

This week is earmarked as 'Severe Weather Awareness Week.' TV5 has received calls asking what those in senior high rises do in the event of a tornado warnings. The Saginaw Fire Chief says they should 'know their evacuation routes—know ways out of where you may be living.' Otherwise, he advises 'go to the most inner part of their living space, such as a bathroom or closet, and always away from windows.

Forecasters declared a 'tornado emergency' for communities in Oklahoma yesterday. The storm killed two people with homes in the path of the deadly twister left in pieces. Severe thunderstorms and hail in Lincoln, Nebraska pounded neighborhoods and flash floods stranded drivers.

6P     LOC/NEWS     5/13/16     1:45

Heavy rain came through a Saginaw Township neighborhood and re-kindled an old issue there. Home owners say the problem is the sewer system, and are frustrated it's still not functioning correctly. The Saginaw Township manager says the system was working, but with so much rain, it was too much for the infrastructure to handle. They are trying to solve the problem for the future.

WAKEUP     NAT/NEWS     5/30/16     1:08

Locally mid-Michigan expects a warm, sunny Memorial weekend. However, two big storm systems in the Carolinas forced many to cancel outdoor activities. Parts of Texas clove with flooding caused by days of rain. Six people died across the state and evacuation orders were issued in some areas. Forecasters say more thunderstorms could erupt in the Central, West and Plains states on Memorial Day.

530P NAT/NEWS 6/21/16 1:21

An advocacy group, called Kids and Cars, says at least 15 children have already died this year after being left in hot vehicles. This is triple the number from this time last year. New technology is hoping to end this trend with a device that is called Rear Seat Reminder. Five chimes sound and then a recording says “rear seat reminder. . .look in the rear seat.” There are also apps available that can remind parents a baby is in the back seat. General Motors plans to introduce this technology in more models next year and eventually in all cars.

Powerful storms this morning, threaten West Virginia with new flooding, while it knocked out power to 40,000 people in the state. One man was trapped on top of a roof for hours—a diabetic in need of medical attention. While waiting for help, he shot video of his daughter’s home being washed away by the flood waters.

11P LOC/NEWS 6/27/16 1:25

A stretch of hot, dry weather puts local crops in potential danger. A Bay County farmer says his crops are health now, but that could change soon. He says none of his crops are ‘growing, and they need to keep growing every day. Lack of rain will cause a ‘loss of yield’ in crops, which in the end will affect the cost of groceries at the store.

4. Flint Water

5P LOC/NEWS 4/13/16 1:55

On day 718 of the Flint Water Crisis, many Flint residents are as apprehensive now as they were nearly two years ago, when the whole thing started. City goals are to turn on faucets and leave them on, a suggestion from the EPA and Virginia Tech Professor Marc Edwards. They say it will help flush out dirt and sediment from the system and move the city one step closer to full water service. Many still have concerns about the chemical’s effects on their skins from bathing and showering, plus the cost of running all that water.

5P LOC/NEWS 4/19/16 1:30

Flint’s Mayor Weaver voices misgivings over Governor Snyder saying Flint water, filtered, is safe to drink. She says so far no official documentation from DEQ or EPA validates the claim that Flint water is totally safe to drink, be it filtered or unfiltered.

11P LOC/NEWS 4/26/16 1:16

Flint’s Mayor Weaver met with residents tonight, updating them on the State of the City. She says work on replacing some of those pipes will resume in the next 4 weeks. She says the city has about $2 million available from state reimbursement to replace nearly 400 lines, with bids already being taken from local contractors. In the meantime, people continue using bottled water and express appreciation to the Mayor for keeping them updated with Flint’s efforts to make their water safe.

6P LOC/NEWS 5/10/16 1:44

The Joint Select Committee on the Flint Water Public Health Emergency for months has been trying to piece together what caused the Flint Water Crisis and what to do about it now. After listening to 61 hours of testimony, the group now wishes to move forward to find solutions. There is support of state legislation that would send millions of additional dollars to help Flint, which bills are currently working their way through the Capitol.

5P LOC/NEWS 5/19/16 1:36

It's been 755 days of Flint residents being unable to drink unfiltered tap water. Discussion by state lawmakers to send emergency funding to Flint hasn't convinced that city's residents that real change is on the way. Mayor Weaver says Flint has received $65 million in state and federal aid so far, which is used for water bill credits, filters, bottled water, and other serviced. She would like another $260 million in aid to be used for lead line and galvanized lead line replacement, among other things.

5P LOC/NEWS 5/23/16 1:30

The City of Burton, which borders Flint is replacing its 1930 infrastructure with plastic pipes, according to their mayor. The use of plastic pipes instead of galvanized should also be considered by Flint, some residents say, since their cost is so much lower. But the City of Flint says plastic pipes are not acceptable.

5P LOC/NEWS 6/9/16 1:54

In a marathon session last night, state lawmakers approved $160 million for replacing thousands of lead pipes. About $33 million go toward environmental quality, $25 million to remove lead pipes, $14 million for the treasury category toward partial reimbursement for water bills, dating back to April, 2014, and $6 million to the Michigan State Police to purchase bottled water and filters once the federal state of emergency expires in August.

5P LOC/NEWS 6/21/16 1:27

Flint's Mayor Weaver says today the city has no choice but to honor a contract made by previous administration with the KWA pipeline. Governor Snyder announced today the state will kick in about $4 million to help start the KWA pipeline project, and Genesee County is committing dollars to the project also.

5P LOC/NEWS 6/22/16 1:17

Michigan's Attorney General filed civil lawsuits against two companies today, who, he says were paid to do a job and 'failed miserably'. The companies did not properly study Flint's water, which was then misrepresented. The AG charged them with negligence, public nuisance and fraud.

- 04/03/16      “Crime and Punishment” – a report on the German prison system, focusing primarily on Waldeck -- a maximum-security prison. Their system emphasizes humane treatment and rehabilitation, rather than punishment, and allows convicts an amount of freedom American prisoners do not have. German prisons cost less than those in America and produce fewer convicts who return. American politicians and prison supervisors are looking at Germany’s model to see what they can implement in America. Includes interviews with: German prisoners: Bernd Junge, Joerg Muehlbach (through translator) and Chris Templiner; Joerg Jesse, director of prisons in Mecklenburg-Western Pomerania; Governor Dannel Malloy, (D-CT); and John Wetzel, Pennsylvania’s secretary of corrections. (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Marc Lieberman)
- “Christopher Wheeldon” – an interview / profile of Christopher Wheeldon, one of the most celebrated ballet choreographers today. Wheeldon choreographed and directed the Broadway musical “An American in Paris”, and won a Tony award last year for his work. Includes excerpts from a performance of “An American in Paris” and a clip from “The Late Show with Stephen Colbert”. Also includes comments by: Anna Tsygankova, Russian ballerina and principal of the Dutch National Ballet. (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Ruth Streeeter, Kaylee Tully)
- “Bubba” – an interview / profile of professional golfer Gerry “Bubba” Watson on the eve of his attempt to win a third green jacket at the 2016 Masters. Unlike most professional golfers, Bubba is left-handed, self-taught, and struggles with the mental part of the game, because he has a fear of mostly everything. Also includes interviews with: Angie Watson, Bubba’s wife; Ted Scott, Bubba’s caddy; and Ricky Fowler, professional golfer. Also includes comments by Hiram Cook, general manager at Tanglewood Golf & Country Club. (C: Sharyn Alfonsi – P: Rome Hartman)
- The Mail – selected viewer comments about the 03/27/16 (Easter Sunday) edition of 60 MINUTES
- 04/10/16      “28 Pages” - a report about the classified “twenty-eight pages” from a 2003 Congressional report on the intelligence community’s preparedness for and response to the 9/11 attacks. Current and former members of Congress are urging the Obama Administration to make public and declassify the top secret section of the report that some say could show possible Saudi support for some of the 9/11 hijackers, in addition to terrorist connections to al Qaeda and Anwar al-Awlaki. Includes interviews with: Fmr. Senator Bob Graham (D-FL), chair of the Select Committee on Intelligence and co-chair of the Joint 9/11 Intelligence Inquiry; Fmr. CIA Director and Rep. Porter Goss (R-FL), co-chair of the Joint 9/11 Intelligence Inquiry; Fmr. Rep. Tim Roemer (D-IN), member of the Joint 9/11 Intelligence Inquiry; Fmr. Senator Bob Kerrey (D-NE), member of the 9/11 commission; Fmr. Secretary of the Navy John Lehman, member of the 9/11 commission; and attorneys representing family members of the 9/11 victims: Jim Kreindler and Sean Carter. (C: Steve Kroft – P: Howard L. Rosenberg, Julie Holstein)
- “Rising in the East” – a report on China’s rapidly expanding film industry and how it is hoping to compete with Hollywood. There are twenty-two new movie theaters opening every day in China, and Chinese and American filmmakers are taking notice by considering the Chinese audience before greenlighting projects. China is also home to the world’s largest film lot, Hengdian World Studios, which boasts fifteen million tourists each year. Includes interviews with: Xu Wenrong, founder of Hengdian World Studios (through translator); Li Bingbing, Chinese actress; Dennis Wang, chairman of Huayi Brothers (through translator); James Wang, CEO of Huayi Brothers (through translator); Dede Nickerson, American film producer in China; James Fong, CEO of Oriental DreamWorks; Chen Kaige, Chinese filmmaker; and Lu Chuan, Chinese filmmaker. (C: Holly Williams – P: Michael H. Gayshon, David M. Levine)
- “Switching Teams” – an interview / profile of Harvard University swimmer Schuyler Bailar, who may be the first openly transgender male athlete to compete in an NCAA Division I men’s sport. Also includes interviews with Stephanie Morawski, Harvard women’s swim coach; Kevin Tyrrell, Harvard men’s swim coach; and Terry and Gregor Bailar, Schuyler’s parents. (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Shari Finkelstein)

“Not Paid” – a report on how audits of the nation’s biggest insurance companies have uncovered a systemic practice of insurers not paying benefits on millions of policies, even when the insurance companies knew the policyholder was deceased. Although twenty-five of the nation’s biggest life insurance companies agreed to pay out over seven and a half billion dollars, about thirty-five insurance companies have not settled, and remain under investigation for not paying when the beneficiary was unaware there was a policy. Includes interviews with: Kevin McCarty, insurance commissioner of Florida; Joseph Bigony, West Virginia native and beneficiary on his sister’s insurance policy; Jeff Atwater, chief financial officer of Florida; Jeff Drubner and Jim Hartley, co-founders of Verus Financial; Betty Yee, California state controller; Ken Miller, Oklahoma state treasurer; Steve Weisbart, senior vice president and chief economist for the Insurance Information Institute Also includes comments by: John Perdue, West Virginia state treasurer. (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Richard Bonin)

“Rikers Island” – a report on Rikers Island Correctional Facility, New York City’s main jail complex, and how mentally ill prisoners there are being mistreated. The mentally ill inmates in Rikers make up over forty percent of the population. A two-year investigation, led by U.S. attorney Preet Bharara, found issues relating to violence, care, and undisciplined officers. Bharara has teamed up with the Legal Aid Society and private attorney Jonathan Abady in a class action lawsuit on behalf of a dozen Rikers inmates. Includes footage of mistreated prisoners obtained from inside Rikers. Includes interviews with: Preet Bharara, U.S. attorney for the Southern District of New York; Jonathan Abady, attorney; Norman Seabrook, president of the New York City Correction Officer’s Benevolent Association (COBA); Dr. Daniel Selling, former executive director of Mental Health at Rikers; and Ramon Echevarria, whose son, Jason Echevarria, died while incarcerated at Rikers. (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Sarah Koch, Deirdre Cohen)

“Hacking Your Phone” – a report on how cellphones, and the networks that carry their signals, can be vulnerable to hackers. Professional hackers, some of whom act as security consultants by day, demonstrate how they hacked into Sharon Alfonsi’s phone and U.S. Representative Ted Lieu’s phone by using a flaw in the global mobile network called Signaling System Seven (SS7). The flaw in SS7 affects all smartphone carriers, including iPhones and Androids. Includes interviews with: Karsten Nohl, German hacker and chief scientist at Security Research Labs; Rep. Ted Lieu, (D-CA); John Hering, founder of Lookout; and mobile device hackers: Adam Laurie and Jon Oberheide. (C: Sharyn Alfonsi – P: Howard L. Rosenberg, Julie Holstein)

- 04/24/16      "The Heroin Epidemic" – a follow-up report on how Ohio is trying to solve its increasing heroin addiction problem. Ohio, often referred to as Middle America, is combating heroin by creating drug courts to reduce the deaths and the incarcerations caused by the drug. However, former users with felony charges struggle to integrate back into society due to their criminal records, and rehab facilities are filled to capacity. Includes interviews with: Angie Pelfrey, recovery administrator at New Beginnings Freedom Hall Recovery Center; Mike DeWine, Ohio Attorney General; (Ret.) Judge Scott VanDerKarr, who created a drug court in Franklin County, Ohio; former heroin addicts Caitlyn and Robert (real names undisclosed); Jenna Morrison, recovering heroin addict; Tracy Morrison, Jenna's mother; Todd Anderson, Jenna's lawyer; Bradford Bailey, prosecutor in Hardin County, Ohio; Wayne and Christy Campbell, whose son Tyler died of a heroin overdose. Also includes comments by Greg Peterson, mayor of Dublin, Ohio. (C: Bill Whitaker – Tom Anderson)
- "Dialing For Dollars" – a report on the amount of time Congressmen spend fundraising at Democratic and Republican "call centers" on Capitol Hill, to raise money for their party and re-election campaigns. The Supreme Court's Citizens United decision in 2010 allowed unlimited spending by corporations, unions and individuals in elections, placing more pressure on candidates to raise money. Representative David Jolly (R-FL) introduced a bill called the Stop Act in February that would ban all federal-elected officials from directly soliciting donations, but only six colleagues are currently supporting his bill. With the help of a staffer at the Republican call center, 60 MINUTES gathered footage using a hidden camera to expose the inside of the call center. Includes interviews with: Rep. David Jolly (R-FL); Rep. Reid Ribble (R-WI), co-sponsor of the Stop Act; Rep. Rick Nolan (D-MN), co-sponsor of the Stop Act; and Rep. Steve Israel (D-NY). (C: Norah O'Donnell – P: Patricia Shevlin, Miles Doran)
- "Gold Star Parents" – a report on the annual gathering of California's Gold Star Parents, whose children died while serving in the military. At the event, Gold Star Parents can honor their fallen family member and relate to other people who share their pain. The event began eleven years ago in part by the Blue Star Moms of the East Bay area, whose children served in the military, by reaching out to the Marines' Memorial Association in hopes of providing comfort for grieving families. Includes interviews with: Gold Star Parents: Mary and Bill Shea (whose son Tim died), Yolanda Vega (whose son Jonathan died), Claire and Paul Good (whose daughter Alecia died), and Mike Anderson Sr. (whose son Mike Jr. died); Blue Star Moms of the East Bay area: Nancy Totman and Deb Saunders; and (Ret.) Marine Major General Mike Myatt, president and CEO of the Marines' Memorial Association. (C: Scott Pelley – P: Nicole Young)

- 04/02/16      48 HOURS: "Gone" (9:00 – 10:00p) - a report about Mark Castellano, a man who claimed to be so desperate to find Michelle Warner, the mother of his three-year-old son, that he agreed to talk to Dr. Phil McGraw on McGraw's daytime talk show regarding her 2012 disappearance. Within forty-eight hours, Castellano then told police a much different version of events. Warner had been living in Houston, Texas with Castellano, her on-again/off-again boyfriend. Castellano claimed Warner stormed out of the house after a fight and vanished without a trace, leaving her child behind. Warner's family did not believe it and filed a missing persons report. Houston homicide detectives later received the case. Castellano agreed to appear on "The Dr. Phil Show". Dr. Phil interviewed Castellano at his parents' home in West Texas; he wasn't buying Castellano's version of events and had serious doubts about his story. The police investigation continued, but there were few if any clues. Two days after the interview with Dr. Phil, Castellano voluntarily went in for an interview with the police. During the interrogation, Castellano finally cracked and admitted that he had killed Warner, put her body in his car, and buried it in a shallow grave outside of Midland, Texas. Local police and the FBI tried to locate her body but were unsuccessful. Eventually, using Apple's Face Time app and an iPhone, and with help from Castellano, police were able to scan the area and locate Warner's body. Castellano was arrested and charged with murder. Eight days later, "The Dr. Phil Show" aired its episode about the case. Also includes: Tracy Smith's interview with Mark Castellano in which he reveals deep-seated anger and resentment towards women and claims it was all an accident. At his trial, attorneys presented a new version of what he now says is the truth. After more than a week of testimony, Castellano was found guilty in the strangling death of Michelle Warner. Original on-screen text graphic: Mark Castellano will be eligible for parole in thirteen and a half years. He will be fifty-three years old. On-screen text graphic for the 04/02/16 rebroadcast: Mark Castellano will be eligible for parole in 2026. He will be 51 years old. 04/02/16 48 HOURS: "What Happened in Apartment 1601?" (10:00 – 11:00p) - a report on the 2013 death of Mark Waugh, a 23-year-old man murdered in an apartment in Silver Spring, Maryland after a night of bar-hopping with two friends. Since neither of them could remember what had happened, police employed an unusual method of interrogation. Waugh was stabbed to death in the apartment where his friends Rahul Gupta and his girlfriend Taylor Gould lived. Both Gupta and Gould were bloody and drunk, according to police, and were immediately interrogated, with Gupta apparently confessing to the crime, saying he had caught Mark and Taylor together. Then after the alcohol wore off, everything changed, with both insisting they had no idea what had happened. Gupta and Waugh were longtime friends, with successful jobs. Police struggled to understand what had happened. Police initially believed Taylor Gould's version of events, but took the unusual step of putting Gupta and Gould together alone, and monitored their conversations. Gupta kept trying to blame Gould, yet police still believed Gould's version of events. Further investigation revealed Gupta had a temper and smoked marijuana. Investigation also discovered information from a phone call between father and son after Gupta was arrested in which he told his father what had happened. Gupta was arrested and charged with murder. At trial, Gupta's defense was to point the finger at Taylor Gould. She herself was not much help on the stand; but she never blamed Gupta; she just stated she did not kill Mark Waugh. The jury found Gupta guilty. Though Taylor Gould is legally not guilty, Detective Paula Hamill believes she may have played some role in what happened that night, and that she may have possibly been involved in a relationship with Waugh behind Gupta's back. On-screen text graphic: Rahul Gupta is appealing his conviction. Interviewed: Officer Dean Skiba and Detective Paula Hamill (Montgomery County, Maryland Police); Phil Armstrong and Jennifer Page (Gupta's defense attorneys); Jason Peters (childhood friend of Mark Waugh); Sherene Gupta Rapoport (sister of Rahul Gupta); Dan Morse (Washington Post reporter); Timothy Hagan and Patrick Mays (Prosecutors). 04/09/16 48 HOURS: "A Mother Accused" - an exclusive interview with Lacey Spears, a mother who, in 2014, was tried and convicted of poisoning her 5-year-old son Garnett with salt, and who claims she is innocent of the crime. Garnett Spears died after what Spears maintains was a lifetime of illness, and for which doctors struggled to find answers. His eventual death was due to a life-threatening level of sodium in his bloodstream which investigators believe was administered through a feeding tube Garnett used for nutrition. Investigators say Spears visited multiple medical facilities, often without sharing information about what doctors said. She also moved frequently, from Alabama to Florida and then to Rockland County, NY. 48 HOURS' discussion with Spears, her attorney, investigators and others uncovered allegations that Spears suffers from Munchausen Syndrome by Proxy and warning signs which might have been missed along the way that could have saved Garnett's life. Spears and her attorneys maintain she is innocent. Investigators and law enforcement thought otherwise. Spears was charged with murder and stood trial in Westchester County, New York. On-screen text graphic: Lacey Spears will be 46 when eligible for parole. Lacey Spears' attorneys are considering filing a malpractice suit against Garnett's medical providers. Interviewed: Lacey Spears; Shawna Lynch, Christy Burnham, Valerie Plauche (former Spears friends); Dr. Ivan Darenkov (doctor who treated Garnett); Dr. Mary Sanders (clinical psychologist, associate professor, Stanford University); Dan Carfi (Westchester detective); Kirk Budnick, Greg Dunn (Ramapo detectives); Johnny Coker (investigator, Decatur Alabama DA's office and childhood friend of Spears); David Sachs and Stephen Riebling (Spears' attorneys) (C: Troy Roberts - P: Ruth Chenetz, Doug Longhini)

48 HOURS: "The Last Confession" - an updated rebroadcast on the investigation into the 1960 murder of Irena Garza, in McAllen, Texas, and the efforts which family members and police have taken to bring the suspect, a Roman Catholic priest, to trial for the crime. The night before Easter, Irene Garza went to church and disappeared. Five days later she was found dead in a canal. Police said she was sexually assaulted and suffocated. There was one immediate suspect: Father John Feit, the priest who admitted to hearing Garza's confession that night, but who has denied any involvement in the murder. Noemi Ponce Sigler, the original investigator's daughter, claims her father was told to step away from the case because a deal had been made between the Church and the police regarding Feit. In 2002, the McAllen Police Department asked the Texas Rangers Cold Case unit to re-examine the murder. The investigation took a dramatic turn when a former monk, Dale Tacheny, told police that Feit admitted to killing a young woman while Tacheny was a counselor at a monastery. Joseph O'Brien, an assistant pastor at the church in 1960, also told investigators that Feit told him that he did it. Despite these new findings, Hidalgo County District Attorney Rene Guerra doesn't believe the case is strong enough to take to court, though he would have prosecuted Feit in 1962 on the charges. Members of the Garza family have pinned their hopes on Ricardo Rodriguez, a candidate for Hidalgo County District Attorney, who has said he would look into the case. 04/16/16 Update: the new District Attorney Richard Rodriguez did as he promised: he looked into the case. Rodriguez says he has new facts and evidence and is confident that a jury will get past the threshold of beyond a reasonable doubt in this case. Fifty-six years after the murder, John Feit was flown back to Texas. Original (03/01/14) on-screen text graphic: The primary election for Hidalgo County District Attorney is Tuesday. On-screen text graphic for the 07/26/14 rebroadcast: Rene Guerra lost the election for Hidalgo County District Attorney in March 2014. District Attorney-elect Ricardo Rodriguez has promised to revisit the case when he takes office in January 2015. On-screen text graphic for the 04/16/16 updated rebroadcast: John Feit has pled not guilty. Prosecutors hope to take this to trial within the year. 48 HOURS: "Breaking Point" (9:00 - 10:00p) - the first hour of back-to-back editions dealing with the investigation into the 2012 death of 29-year-old lawyer Ryan Poston, at the hands of his on-again/off-again girlfriend Shayna Hubers, who admits to killing him, but who claims it was self-defense. At the time of his death, Ryan Poston was a young successful attorney with a bright future ahead of him. Shayna Hubers' family and friends also thought she would be successful in all she did. The couple met on Facebook and dated on and off for 18 months. Ryan was busy with his career and not ready to settle down, but found it hard to let go of Shayna. According to Ryan's friends, Shayna's behavior became obsessive. He told her he was not seeing her on the weekend of October 12, 2012, but did not tell her that he had a date with another woman. He did not make the date: a 911 call to police was made by Shayna, telling police she had shot her boyfriend in self-defense. Police were suspicious from the start. She had shot him six times. Shayna also talked endlessly during the 3-hour interrogation video and then, when alone, she danced and sang songs. Friends said Ryan was not an abuser. She was charged with murder. Investigation revealed that, after the shooting, she waited 10 minutes to call 911. She also texted endlessly; there were thousands of text messages to Ryan, most of which he did not answer. Yet, because of Kentucky laws, he could not get a restraining order. Prosecutors believe that Shayna could not deal with Ryan's rejection and that her rage sent her over the edge. She believed it was over for good and would have none of it. Now it is 2014, and she has been jailed since 2012 awaiting trial. Interviewed: friends of Ryan Poston's: Matt Herron and Allie Wagner; mentor, attorney Ken Hawley and his assistant Lori Zimmerman; Shayna's friend, Sarah Robinson; Ryan's neighbor, Nikki Carnes; Lieutenant Dave Fornash; Highland Heights, Kentucky Police Chief Bill Birkenhour; Prosecutor Michelle Snodgrass; Shayna's mother, Sharon Hubers; and neighbor Doris West. 48 HOURS: "Obsessed" (10:00 – 11:00p) - the second hour of back-to-back editions dealing with the investigation into the 2012 death of 29-year-old lawyer Ryan Poston, at the hands of his on-again/off-again girlfriend Shayna Hubers, who admits to killing him, but who claims it was self-defense. In 2014, two and a half years after the crime, the trial is set to begin. Central to the trial is what Shayna told police. Prosecutors believe the only person in danger that night was Ryan Poston, and that Shayna acted out of hate. Ryan did not want to see Shayna anymore. There were no signs of a violent struggle, as Shayna had suggested happening. Shayna's mother, Sharon Hubers, cannot comprehend what is happening to her daughter. The defense must convince the jury that Ryan was the aggressor. A verdict is reached: guilty of murder. The court re-convenes for sentencing. Shayna Hubers, who has been diagnosed as a narcissist, addresses the court, but never apologizes to Ryan's family. Shayna Hubers is sentenced to 40 years. On-screen text graphic: Shayna Hubers' appeals attorney is asking for a new trial. A convicted felon served on the jury and should have been disqualified. Interviewed: friends of Ryan Poston's: Matt Herron and Allie Wagner; mentor, attorney Ken Hawley; Highland Heights, Kentucky Police Chief Bill Birkenhaur; Prosecutor Michelle Snodgrass; Shayna's mother, Sharon Hubers; and Ryan's cousin Carissa Carlisle. 04/30/16

48 HOURS: "Blood in the Sand" - an investigation into the murders of two teenage girls, Barbara Nantais and Claire Hough, who were found dead on the same California beach, six years apart; the incredible similarities between the two killings; and the new technology that would lead police to ultimately investigate one of their own. In August 1978, 15-year-old Barbara Nantais was murdered on Torrey Pines State Beach, where she had gone camping with her boyfriend, Jim Alt. She was sexually assaulted, beaten, strangled and mutilated. Then in August 1984, 14-year-old Claire Hough was found murdered on the same beach -- sexually assaulted, beaten, strangled and mutilated in a similar way. Police had few clues to go on, but believed the cases were connected. Both cases were never solved. The cases went cold until 2012, when through improved technology, DNA hits from Hough's crime scene led to two suspects. The first was Kevin Brown, a criminalist who had worked for the San Diego Police Department crime lab and was well-known for his kinky behavior. The second was Ronald Tatro, a convicted rapist. Tatro died in a 2011 boating accident. Brown denied knowing Tatro. He took and failed a lie detector test. In 2014, as the case dragged on, he committed suicide. His wife Rebecca Brown and her attorneys say Kevin Brown was a man wrongly accused, and that his suicide was not an admission of guilt. After his death, San Diego Police publicly named Brown as one of two suspects in the Claire Hough murder case. For the Nantais family, there is no closure. Police had initially believed a suspect named William Wheeler was responsible, but have ruled him out as the killer, and the case remains unsolved. On-screen text graphic: Barbara Nantais' case remains open. The San Diego Police Department considers the Claire Hough case solved. Rebecca Brown's lawsuit against the City of San Diego is expected to go to trial in 2017. Interviewed: Jim Alt (Barbara Nantais' boyfriend); Rick Selga (friend of Jim Alt's); Ralph and Sue Nantais (parents); Judy Nantais (sister); Paul Ybarrondo (Sergeant, San Diego Police Department); Kim Jamer (Claire Hough's best friend); Penny and Sam Hough (parents); Rebecca Brown (Kevin Brown's widow); Jim Stam and John Durina (retired criminalists); Rocky Ferguson (photographer); Gretchen Von Helms and Gene Iredale (Brown family attorneys) (C: Richard Schlesinger - P: Lourdes Aguiar, Cindy Cesare)

CBS RELIGIOUS AND CULTURAL SPECIAL

04/03/16

“Faith, Spirituality & the Future” – an interfaith special that looks at how spirituality is evolving in our culture and what it means for religious institutions. While more Americans move away from organized religion, many still profess a belief in God and consider themselves spiritual, claiming to encounter God and the sacred in nature and in their relationships with friends and family, rather than within the traditional setting of a church. Featured are: (1) Diana Butler Bass, theologian and author of “Grounded: Finding God in the World—A Spiritual Revolution”. Butler Bass believes this is one of the most important shifts happening in the history of religion and that religious institutions have to figure out new ways of talking about God. (2) One of the largest demographics driving this shift in spirituality are millennials, young people between the ages of 18 to 33. Tom Beaudoin, Ph.D., Associate Professor of Religion at Fordham University, discusses why many millennials do not want to be defined by one particular religious tradition, even if they were raised in one. (3) Meditation is on the rise, acting as a spiritual outlet for many people who are unaffiliated with traditional religious organizations. New York City’s first drop-in meditation studio – MNDFL -- was co-founded by Western Buddhist meditation teacher Lodro Rinzler and Ellie Burrows, and they discuss the growing interest in the practice. (4) Rev. Erik Martínez Resly, a Unitarian Universalist minister in Washington, DC, created The Sanctuaries in 2013. Comprised of both religious and secular participants, this group of artists and community organizers explore their spirituality through art and music with the hope that it inspires positive change for the greater good. “Faith, Spirituality & the Future” also includes comments from: Julie Pennington-Russell, Baptist minister, Senior Pastor at the First Baptist Church of the City of Washington, DC; Rev. Rich Tafel, pastor, The Emanuel Swedenborg Center, Church of the Holy City, Washington, DC; Luis Davila, yoga teacher at Brahman Yoga in West Harlem, NY; and those involved in The Sanctuaries: Erin Johnson, James Bevel, Osa Obaseki, Noreen Nasir, Kevin Akiva Landsman, and Alana Gardner. (Narrator: Rolland Smith. Executive Producer: Elizabeth Kineke. Associate Producer: Natalie Baxter. Director & Senior Executive Producer: John P. Blessington. Produced in consultation with religious scholars, clergy and others including Catholic, Protestant, Jewish, Islamic, Sikh and various interfaith organizations.)

- 05/08/16      “Russia’s Dark Secret” – a report about how former Russian track star Yuliya Stepanov and her husband Vitaly Stepanov, who worked for a Russian anti-doping agency, exposed Russia’s top secret doping program for athletes. Yuliya willingly took anabolic steroids for strength and the blood-boosting substance EPO for endurance, all under the guidance of her Russian coaches and medical staff for five years. After sustaining an injury after the 2012 Summer Olympics in London, Yuliya’s coaches were unwilling to protect her from the anti-doping agency since she was not a medal contender. Yuliya, in accord with her husband, gathered evidence to force the World Anti-Doping Agency (WADA) to launch an investigation, resulting in a suspension of the Russian track team. The couple now lives in an undisclosed location in America for their protection. Includes interviews with: Yuliya Stepanov (through translator); Vitaly Stepanov, Travis Tygart, CEO of the U.S. Anti-Doping Agency; and Alysia Montano, U.S. Olympic runner. Also includes comments by Dick Pound, former WADA president. (C: Armen Keteyian – P: Guy Campanile, Andrew Bast, Michael Radutzky)
- “The Killing Machine” – a report on Father Patrick Desbois’ mission to expose genocide perpetrated by ISIS (ISIL, Daesh) that has taken the lives of at least 5,000 Yezidis in Iraq, because the terrorists think the Yezidis’ religion worships the devil. The genocide has left nearly two hundred thousand Yezidis living in refugee camps northeast of Sinjar in Kurdistan. Includes an interview with Father Patrick Desbois, French Catholic priest and president of Yahad-In Unum. Also includes footage of Father Desbois conducting interviews with survivors: Nasreen, Maha, and two unidentified brothers (all through translator) (C: Lara Logan – P: Max McClellan, Richard Butler)
- “Earthquake Alley” – a report on the high incidence of earthquakes in Oklahoma, which set a record last year with 907 earthquakes registering a magnitude of 3 or more. Scientists believe the earthquakes are a direct result of oil and gas production, not due to fracking, but caused by the amount of wastewater being injected back into the earth, which has tripled since 2009. Includes interviews with: Edmond, OK residents: Kathy Matthews and Melina Olbert; Katie Keranen, seismologist at Cornell University; Gary LaRue, president of PetroWarrior; Mark Zoback, professor of geophysics at Stanford University; John and Jerri Loveland, Prague, OK residents; Kim Hatfield, president of Crawley Petroleum Corporation; and Mike Teague, Oklahoma’s Secretary of Energy and Environment. (C: Bill Whitaker – P: David Schneider)

- 05/15/16      “Breakthrough Status” – a follow up report (“Killing Cancer”, OAD: 03/29/15) on the Duke University clinical trial of an immunotherapy that uses a re-engineered polio virus to kill cancer cells in brain cancer patients, specifically those diagnosed with glioblastoma, a deadly type of brain tumor. The Food and Drug Administration (FDA) has granted breakthrough status, which means the FDA will fast track this cancer treatment to hundreds of patients while it’s still being evaluated for final approval. Fifteen of the 23 patients who were treated with the clinical trial’s optimal dose are still alive. Includes interviews with: Dr. Annick Desjardins, neuro-oncologist at Duke; Dr. Henry Friedman, deputy director of Duke’s Brain Tumor Center; Dr. Matthias Gromeier, molecular biologist at Duke and creator of the modified polio virus used in the trial; Dr. Darell Bigner, director of Duke’s Brain Tumor Center; Dr. Smita Nair, immunologist at Duke; and trial patients: Stephanie Lipscomb, Dr. Fritz Andersen, Brendan Steele and Nancy Justice (deceased). Also includes comments by: Dr. Allan Friedman, neurosurgeon; Donna Clegg, trial patient (deceased); Greg Justice, Nancy’s widow; and Kathy Steele, Brendan’s wife. (C: Scott Pelley – Producer listed for Part I: Michael Radutzky, Denise Schrier Cetta; Producers listed for Part II: Denise Schrier Cetta, Michael Radutzky) DOUBLE LENGTH SEGMENT
- “Collateral Damage” - a report on innocent Chinese-born American citizens accused of espionage-related crimes. The U.S. government is being vigilant against Chinese theft of U.S. trade secrets and intellectual property, but it’s causing traumatic experiences for American citizens who are accused of being spies for China, which they aren’t. 48 HOURS: "The Soldier's Wife" - an interview with, and a report about Skylar Nemetz, a former Army infantryman who admits that he shot his wife Danielle, in their Lakewood, Washington home in October of 2014, after returning home from a 3-week deployment. He maintains it was an accident and that he did not think the gun was loaded. Eighteen months after the shooting, Skyler Nemetz is on trial, awaiting a jury's verdict. The prosecution maintains a jealous Nemetz shot Danielle in the back of the head while she was seated at a desk looking at her computer. She died instantly. Skyler Nemetz's mother, Danette Heller, believes in her son, and he and his family see the incident as an accident. They have hired a top-notch legal team to defend Skyler. There is no dispute that Nemetz caused Danielle's death; the question is if it was murder or manslaughter. At trial, Skyler is portrayed as a jealous, angry, and controlling husband. The defense called Skyler to testify, and called for the jury to find him guilty of manslaughter, not murder. The case goes to the jury, who deliberated for seven days: the verdict: manslaughter in the first degree. Four jurors agreed to speak to Erin Moriarty about their verdict, and even though they felt Skyler was coached, rehearsed and theatrical, they could not see that the prosecution proved its case. Three weeks later, Skyler received the maximum sentence. On-screen text graphic: Skylar Nemetz is appealing the length of his sentence. Skylar Nemetz will be eligible for parole in 12 years. He will be 33 years old. Interviewed: Skylar Nemetz; Danette Heller (Skyler's mom); James Peltier (Danielle's former neighbor and father figure); Michaela Yingling (Danielle's best friend); Erin Mikolai (Danielle's coach); Anthony Faas (Skyler's army buddy); Greg Greer and Michael Stewart (Deputy Prosecuting Attorneys); Ralph Flick, Mike Duncan, Brad Hardesty, and Shane Vandervloedt (jurors). 48 HOURS: "Death of an Olympian" - a report about the August 2009 death of Olympian Dave Laut, shot to death by his wife, Jane in Oxnard, California. She claimed it was in self-defense. In her first television interview, she relates what happened that night and why she killed him. Dave Laut competed in the 1984 Games and was aiming for the gold when an injury upended his chances. He became a school teacher, athletic director, and coach; married his high school sweetheart Jane; and adopted a son. Jane Laut originally claimed Dave was shot by an intruder, but when detectives discovered a gun hidden inside a grandfather clock, she changed her story, claiming she killed Laut in self-defense. In her first television interview, she claims she never planned to kill her husband that night, but after years of psychological and verbal abuse, Laut went too far that night and she shot him. The Laut family says that Jane is a pathological liar. The police could not confirm any abuse. The evidence collected at the scene told a different story: Laut was shot from behind with a single action revolver -- every shot indicated pre-meditation. Forensic accounting concluded the couple was deeply in debt and that Jane was a reckless spender, in trouble with the IRS. Dave Laut was apparently unaware of their circumstances. In January 2016, the prosecution presented a case of pre-meditated murder with money and divorce as the motives -- and that Jane was never in physical danger from Dave Laut. Jane Laut testified in her own defense, explaining her motivation. After four days of deliberation, the jury found Jane Laut guilty of first degree murder. On-screen text graphic: Jane Laut is expected to be formally sentenced in June. Interviewed: Jane Laut; Don and Rebecca Laut (Dave Laut's brother and sister-in-law); Dotty Laut (mother); Sonya Sanchez (Detective, Oxnard, California Police Department); Mike Young (lead detective); Nabil Khattar (gun expert); Ron Bamieh (defense attorney); Marjorie Hernandez (Ventura County Star reporter/48 HOURS consultant); Gail Pincus (executive director, Los Angeles Country Domestic Abuse Center) (C: Erin Moriarty - P: Judy Rybak, Greg Fisher, Chris Young Ritzen, Dena Goldstein)

05/21/16 48 HOURS PRESENTS: AThe Spymasters - CIA in the Crosshairs (9:00 - 11:00p) - The broadcast network premiere of the documentary AThe Spymasters - CIA in the Crosshairs, originally presented on SHOWTIME in the fall of 2015. Featured are all twelve living directors of the Central Intelligence Agency (CIA) and the focus is on the agency during one of the most controversial periods in its history, marked by the use of enhanced interrogation techniques, secret prisons, drone warfare and even alleged assassination. Key questions discussed are: how far should America go to prevent another terrorist attack; what is fair game in an unfair fight; and has the agency focused too much on lethal paramilitary action at the expense of gathering intelligence. Also included is information on the events leading up to the 9/11 terrorist attacks and the hunt for Osama bin Laden. The twelve directors featured are: former President George H.W. Bush, Stansfield Turner, William Webster, Robert Gates, James Woolsey, John Deutch, George Tenet, Porter Goss, Michael Hayden, Leon Panetta, David Petraeus, and John Brennan. Also interviewed are: Michael Morell (two-time acting director and CBS News Senior Security contributor); John McLaughlin (former Acting Director of the CIA); Cofer Black and Jose Rodriguez (former CIA personnel); Gina Bennett (CIA Senior Counter Terrorism Analyst) (Narrator: Mandy Patinkin. Directors: Jules Naudet, G d on Naudet. Writer: Chris Whipple. Executive Producers: Jules Naudet, G d on Naudet, Chris Whipple, David Hume Kennerly. Senior Executive Producer CBS News: Susan Zirinsky.)

05/28/16 48 HOURS: "Highway of Tears" (9:00 - 10:00p) - An updated rebroadcast on the more than twenty girls and women who, since 1969, have disappeared or been killed along the stretch of pavement in rural British Columbia, Canada, known as Highway 16. This week, Canada's Prime Minister Justin Trudeau has committed more than thirty million dollars to a new national investigation into the missing and murdered women. To locals, the road is now known simply as "The Highway of Tears", and Maddy Scott may be one of the roadway's many victims. On May 28, 2012, the 21-year-old went to a party with 50 others at Hogsback Lake, not far from the highway, only to never be seen again. Just six months earlier, in the same town, 15-year-old Loren Leslie's body was found on a logging road not far from Highway 16. Leslie was brutally beaten and molested. There are signs all along Highway 16 warning women not to hitchhike because a killer might be on the loose, but the murders have not ceased. Police arrested 20-year-old Cody Legebokoff in Leslie's murder. A patrolman pulled him over, thinking he was poaching game. He had Leslie's ID in his truck. Her body was just down the road. Legebokoff has since been identified as the alleged killer of three others, though police have not revealed how they've connected him to the murders that occurred in 2009 and 2010. Still, because of his age, police know Legebokoff couldn't be responsible for all of the murders along Highway 16. Just two months ago, officials at the Royal Canadian Mounted Police (RCMP) got a break in some cases because they linked DNA samples from one of the highway's victims, Colleen MacMillen, found murdered in 1974, to Bobby Jack Fowler. Police also believe Fowler, a Texas native who worked as a roofer in Prince George, may have killed as many as twenty people in the United States and Canada. Victims of Highway 16 mentioned in this broadcast: Alberta Williams, Delphine Nikal, Lana Derrick, Monica Ignas, Monica Jack, Ramona Wilson, Tamara Chipman, Gail Weys, Pamela Darlington. Original On-screen text graphics: Cody Legebokoff, accused of murdering Loren Leslie and three other women, is expected to stand trial in September 2013. Investigators believe Bobby Jack Fowler may have killed as many as 20 people across the United States and Canada. On-screen text graphic for the 05/28/16 updated rebroadcast: The RCMP later charged Garry Handlen as the killer of twelve-year-old Monica Jack, the youngest victim on the Highway of Tears. Cody Legebokoff was convicted of first-degree murder for killing teenager Loren Leslie and three other women. He was sentenced to life in prison but just this Wednesday was in court asking that his convictions be overturned. Interviewed: Dawn and Eldon Scott, Parents of Madison (Maddy) Scott; Bob Friel, investigative reporter, Outside magazine, CBS News consultant; Sgt. Ken Floyd and Constable Tom Wamsteeker, Royal Canadian Mounted Police; Amanda Fitzpatrick, Jasmine Klassen and Jordy Bolduc, Maddy's friends; Doug and Donna Leslie, parents of Loren Leslie; Charleine Laing, Loren's friend; Garrett Anatole, Cody's friend; Sgt. Wayne Clary, RCMP; Claudia Williams, Alberta's sister; Matilda Wilson, Ramona's mother; Tom Chipman, Tamara's father; Kevin and Shawn MacMillen, Colleen's brothers; Ron Benson, Investigator. 48 HOURS PRESENTS: "Cal Harris: Final Verdict" (10:00 - 11:00p) – an updated rebroadcast of "Cal Harris: Deadlocked" (OAD: 05/23/15), itself a followup to "A Time to Kill" (OAD: 11/10/07). A review of the case against Cal Harris, whom prosecutors in Northern New York believe is guilty of killing his estranged wife Michele, to preserve his fortune. This followup report includes the first interview with Cal Harris. Twice, he has been tried and found guilty, and twice those convictions have been overturned. Harris has claimed that Michele did not return home on September 11, 2001. He denied any involvement in her disappearance and suggested to investigators that they take a closer look at her personal life. Investigation discovered she was involved with two different men, both of whom had seen her on the night she disappeared. Two days after the initial search, blood specks were found in the home, making it a potential crime scene. Focus shifted to Cal, and in 2005, without a body or a murder weapon, Harris was arrested for his wife's murder. He was tried and convicted in 2007, but while awaiting his sentencing, a new witness emerged, and the conviction was overturned. In 2009, a jury reached the same verdict. The case was overturned on appeal. In February 2015, Harris went on trial for the third time, but not in Tioga County where he lives, but in Schohane, NY, with a new defense team, a new prosecutor, a new judge and new rules. Despite all this, after 12 days of deliberation, the judge was forced to declare a mistrial. Harris is out on bail, but his future is far from certain. UPDATE: On March 31, 2016, Cal Harris went back to court for his fourth trial. This time, he asked for a bench trial, which means a single judge, not twelve jurors, would decide his fate. The prosecution's case was essentially the same. The defense pinned their hopes on new witnesses because the judge, unlike earlier ones, allowed testimony pointing to other possible suspects. In the end, after deliberating for twelve hours, Judge Richard Mott reached a verdict: not guilty. Cal Harris' legal ordeal is over, but the mystery of Michele Harris still remains. Original on-screen text graphic: Lawyers are scheduled to meet in August to set a date for a fourth trial. On-screen text graphic for the 05/28/16 updated rebroadcast: Because of double jeopardy Cal Harris' criminal case is not officially over. Harris is considering a civil suit. Interviewed: Cal Harris and his children: Cayla Harris, Taylor Harris, Jenna Harris, Tanner Harris; Barb Thayer (nanny); Nikki Burdick (Michele's friend); Cindy and Tom Turner (friends of the couple); Greg and Shannon Taylor (Michele's brother and sister-in-law); Bruce Barket and Donna Aldea (Harris' attorneys); Sue Mulvey (NY State Police senior investigator); Mike Myers and Mike Young (investigators); Steve Anderson (NY State Police forensic specialist); Brian Earley (boyfriend of Michele Harris); Kevin O'Hara (Cal Harris' friend); Jerry Keene (DA, Tioga County); Kevin Tubbs (local farmer); Kirk Martin (District Attorney); Mark Lester (State Police Captain). 05/15/16 60 MINUTES – SPECIAL EDITION (8:00-9:00p)

“Morley Safer, A Reporter’s Life” – a review of the career of veteran journalist Morley Safer, virtually unmatched for its impact, scope and style, on the occasion of his retirement. The hour traces Safer’s beginnings as foreign correspondent in the 1950s with the CBC to his war reporting for CBS and ultimately, his inimitable work on 60 MINUTES. Includes interviews with Tom Brokaw, Jeff Fager, David McCullough, Lenell Geter and Retired U.S Army Brig. Gen. Joe Stringham. (“Morley Safer: A Reporter’s Life” Part I - Correspondent: Steve Kroft – Producers: David Browning, Warren Lustig; “Morley Safer” - Correspondent: Steve Kroft; and “Morley Safer: A Reporter’s Life” Part II - Correspondent: Lesley Stahl – Producers: Katy Textor, Michelle St. John)

05/22/16 60 MINUTES – SPECIAL EDITION (8:00-9:00p)

“Aftershock” – a report on the Army National Guard’s Recruiting Assistance Program, which paid a $2,000 bonus to members of the Guard who brought in a new recruit. A total of 105,000 soldiers received bonuses, but some of them scammed the system by claiming to bring in recruits they had never met. Eighty soldiers have pled guilty or been convicted, and another sixty remain under indictment. This is the fourth year into the Army’s largest criminal investigation, and some soldiers claim they did nothing illegal and are being made scapegoats for a recruiting program the Army admits was badly mismanaged. Includes interviews with: Army soldiers who were under investigation: Master Sergeant Jerry Wilson and soldier Jim Root; Lieutenant General Gary Cheek, director of the Army Staff; Lieutenant General Flora Darpino, U.S. Army lawyer; and Senator Claire McCaskill (D-MO) (C: David Martin – P: Mary Walsh)

“80 Million Dollar Con” – a report on the most lucrative art fraud scam in history, in which the Knoedler Gallery, a prestigious New York art gallery with Ann Freeman as its president, sold fake works for 15 years. Nearly forty paintings, supposedly created by famous artists of the twentieth century: Robert Motherwell, Jackson Pollock, Mark Rothko, Willem de Kooning, and more, were all fakes, painted by Pei-Shen Qian. Qian is an artist who lived in Queens and fled to China, where he was later indicted. Glafira Rosales confessed to playing a role in selling the fake paintings and is awaiting sentencing. Ann Freedman denies knowingly selling the forgeries and has had 10 civil lawsuits brought against her. Includes interviews with: Jack Flam, art historian; Jamie Martin, forensic art analyst; Domenico de Sole, chairman of Sotheby’s; Greg Clarick, attorney; and Luke Nikas, attorney. (C: Anderson Cooper – P: Katherine Davis, Sam Hornblower)

“The Last Vaquitas” – a report on the most endangered marine mammal in the world, the vaquita, whose numbers are now estimated to be well below one hundred, where they live in the waters off Baja, California and the Mexican Coast. They are dying at the hands of fisherman and their gillnets. Includes interviews with: Barbara Taylor, leader, Marine Mammal Genetics group at the National Oceanic and Atmospheric Administration (NOAA); Lorenzo Rojas-Bracho, head of marine mammal conservation and research for the National Institute of Ecology and Climate Change in Mexico; Sunshine Rodriguez, president of the Federation of Coastal Fishermen; and Rafael Pacchiano, Mexico’s Secretary of Environment and Natural Resources. 60 MINUTES (continued)

- 06/12/16 Program begins with update from Scott Pelley in Orlando, Florida about the mass shooting at Pulse nightclub.
- "Lost In The Bermuda Triangle" – a report on the worst U.S. maritime disaster in 35 years, the sinking of the cargo ship El Faro, that left 33 dead when it sank in the Atlantic Ocean during Hurricane Joaquin in October of 2015. The National Transportation Safety Board (NTSB) conducted its investigation of the vessel and allowed 60 MINUTES to broadcast footage of the sunken cargo ship. Includes interviews with: Captain Gregg Baumann, Navy supervisor of salvage and diving; Tom Roth-Roffy, NTSB investigator; Charles Kapica, chief sonar operator; and families of crew on El Faro: Glen Jackson, whose brother Jack died; Tinisha Thomas, whose husband Shawn died; Tina Riehm, whose husband Jeremie died; Deb Roberts, whose son Michael Holland died; and Frank Pusatere, whose son Richard Pusatere died. (C: Scott Pelley – P: Patricia Shevlin, Miles Doran) (OAD: 01/03/16)
- "Hamilton" – an elongated "director's cut" version with previously unseen material from Charlie Rose's original report about the unorthodox musical currently selling out on Broadway and attracting such luminaries as President Barack Obama and former Vice President Dick Cheney. Based on the life of Alexander Hamilton, the show and its diverse cast are creating waves on Broadway and beyond, while smashing box office records and garnering a record 16 Tony nominations. The lead actor and playwright of "Hamilton" is Lin-Manuel Miranda, and he uses a combination of hip-hop and rap along with popular music to portray Alexander Hamilton's life -- all sung and danced by a diverse cast. Miranda also created the winner of the 2008 Tony for best musical, "In The Heights". Includes interviews with: Lin-Manuel Miranda; Luis Miranda and Luz Towns-Miranda, Miranda's parents; and Ron Chernow, author of "Alexander Hamilton" and the show's historical advisor. Also includes a comment by Tommy Kail, the director of "Hamilton". The 06/12/16 extended segment also includes interviews with: the cast of "Hamilton": Leslie Odom Jr., Renee Elise Goldsberry, Phillipa Soo, Christopher Jackson, and Daveed Diggs. (See also: "Hamilton" OAD: 11/08/15) (C: Charlie Rose – P: Graham Messick) DOUBLE LENGTH SEGMENT
- 06/19/16 "Smart Guns" – a report on 'smart gun' technology which allows firearms to fire only in the hands of their owners - and why it is not yet mass-produced or sold in the United States. Advocates of smart guns believe they can lower the number of accidental shootings and suicides and cut down the resale of stolen guns. Opponents question: the safety of adding high-tech to guns; if the guns would be vulnerable to hacking; and if the fingerprint technology is reliable in various weather conditions. New Jersey State Senator Loretta Weinberg plans to ask the state to repeal the 13-year-old law which mandates all handguns sold in New Jersey be smart guns once they become available. Includes interviews with: Tom Lynch, CEO of Safe Gun Technology; Andy Raymond, co-owner of Engage Armament; Steve Sanetti, president of the National Shooting Sports Foundation; State Senator Loretta Weinberg (D-NJ); Jonathan Mossberg, CEO and president of iGun Technology Corp; and Ron Conway, investor. (See also: "Smart Gun" OAD: 11/02/99 on 60 MINUTES II) (C: Lesley Stahl – P: Shachar Bar-On) (OAD: 11/01/15 - includes an update)
- "28 Pages" - a report about the classified "twenty-eight pages" from a 2003 Congressional report on the intelligence community's preparedness for and response to the 9/11 attacks. Current and former members of Congress are urging the Obama Administration to make public and declassify the top secret section of the report that some say could show possible Saudi support for some of the 9/11 hijackers, in addition to terrorist connections to al Qaeda and Anwar al-Awlaki. Includes interviews with: Fmr. Senator Bob Graham (D-FL), chair of the Select Committee on Intelligence and co-chair of the Joint 9/11 Intelligence Inquiry; Fmr. CIA Director and Rep. Porter Goss (R-FL), co-chair of the Joint 9/11 Intelligence Inquiry; Fmr. Rep. Tim Roemer (D-IN), member of the Joint 9/11 Intelligence Inquiry; Fmr. Senator Bob Kerrey (D-NE), member of the 9/11 commission; Fmr. Secretary of the Navy John Lehman, member of the 9/11 commission; and attorneys representing family members of the 9/11 victims: Jim Kreindler and Sean Carter. (C: Steve Kroft – P: Howard L. Rosenberg, Julie Holstein) (OAD: 04/10/16 - includes an update)
- "Taking On The Eiger" – a report on how extreme athlete JT Holmes combined three sports: speed riding, skiing, and BASE jumping to descend down the Swiss mountain, pulling a parachute to break his 100-mph free fall. Cameras capture Holmes in action as it was attempted for the first time. Includes an interview with JT Holmes, American professional skier. Also includes comments by: Martin Schurmann, Swiss mountain guide; and Valentin Delluc, champion speed rider and cameraman. “El Chapo” – a report on the recapture of drug lord Joaquin Guzman (aka “el Chapo”) after he escaped Altiplano Prison in Mexico last July through a tunnel. Mexican and U.S. law enforcement reassembled the task force that caught el Chapo in 2014, and after some missed opportunities on both sides, el Chapo was captured in January 2016. Mexican marines infiltrated el Chapo’s safe house, killing five cartel members and taking six into custody, while el Chapo and his associate Cholo Ivan escaped through a hidden tunnel. The two men popped out of a manhole and hijacked two cars before being picked up by federal police and taken to a motel, for unknown reasons. Mexican marines intervened and took el Chapo into custody and sent him back to Altiplano Prison. Includes interviews with: Peter Vincent, Director Counselor for International Policy at BORDERPOL; Jim Dinkins, Ret. Homeland Security Investigations, Drug Enforcement Agency (DEA); Juan Pedro Badillo, el Chapo’s lawyer; and two unidentified Mexican marines who assisted with el Chapo’s capture (through translator). (See also: “Public Enemy Number 1”, OAD: 10/12/14; “The Greatest Escape”, OAD: 09/27/15; and “Sean Penn”, OAD: 01/17/16) (C: Bill Whitaker – P: Howard L. “The Resurrection of St. Benedict’s” – a report on St. Benedict’s Preparatory School, a Catholic, all-boys academy for grades seven through twelve, in Newark, New Jersey. After the 1967 riots, white families fled the city and the school fell upon hard times. It closed in the early 1970’s for a year. Former student and faculty member Edwin Leahy, who is the current headmaster, decided to re-open the school. St. Benedict’s, whose students’ race and religion now reflect the inner city neighborhood it is located in, has its students run much of the school programs, unlike most schools. Through his leadership, the school has a 98% graduation rate and 85% of the graduates go on to receive college degrees. Includes interviews with: students at St. Benedict’s: Bruce Davis, Devionne Johnson and Andrew Brice; Edwin Leahy, headmaster at St. Benedict’s; and Ivan Lamourt, psychologist. (C: Scott Pelley – P: Guy Campanile, Andrew Bast) (OAD: 03/20/16)

“Bubba” – an interview / profile of professional golfer Gerry “Bubba” Watson on the eve of his attempt to win a third green jacket at the 2016 Masters. Unlike most professional golfers, Bubba is left-handed, self-taught, and struggles with the mental part of the game, because he has a fear of mostly everything. Also includes interviews with: Angie Watson, Bubba’s wife; Ted Scott, Bubba’s caddy; and Ricky Fowler, professional golfer. Also includes comments by Hiram Cook, general manager at Tanglewood Golf & Country Club. (See also: “The Back Nine with Bubba”, OAD: 04/05/16 on 60 MINUTES SPORTS on SHOWTIME) (C: Sharyn Alfonsi – P: Rome Hartman) (OAD: 04/03/16 - includes an update)

48 HOURS SPECIAL: "Muhammad Ali: Remembering a Legend" (9:00-10:00p) – a review of the life and career of former heavyweight champion and civil rights activist Muhammad Ali, who died yesterday, in Scottsdale, Arizona. The program celebrates the life and legacy of this singular and outspoken man. Segments include: (1) an account of Ali's final days. He was taken off life support, as he had requested, surrounded by family and friends. Interviewed: Bob Gunnell and John Ramsay. (C: Carter Evans); (2) an overview of the life and times of Muhammed Ali. Born Cassius Clay, he won gold at the 1960 Olympics; was world champion in 1964-67; converted to Islam and changed his name to Muhammad Ali; refused to serve in the U.S. Army and was convicted of draft evasion (which was eventually overturned by the Supreme Court); regained his title in 1974; and fought his last fight when he was 39-years-old. He was diagnosed with boxing-related Parkinson's Disease at age 42. (C: Scott Pelley); (3) the reaction from Ali's hometown of Louisville, Kentucky, as citizens mourn his passing. In a city riddled by racism, he became a beacon of hope for oppressed people. Included: interviews with Thomas Hauser (biographer/friend) and Donald Lassere (director, Muhammad Ali Center). (C: Jericka Duncan); (4) excerpt from a 48 HOURS segment "When We Were Kings" (OAD: 02/27/97) about the making of the Academy Award-nominated documentary "When We Were Kings", about the legendary 1974 fight in Zaire between Ali and George Foreman; included are new interviews with director Leon Gast and George Foreman. (C: Harold Dow); (5) recollections of the 1974 Ali/Foreman fight (aka The Rumble in the Jungle) by boxing promoter Don King (remote from Las Vegas, Nevada) (C: Josh Elliot); (6) reaction to the news of Ali's death -- includes interviews with Andrew Zimmerman (chef); George Foreman; and Gene Kilroy (Ali's manager); (7) an interview with Dr. Todd Boyd, Professor, University of Southern California, who talks about Muhammad Ali's lasting legacy; (8) an extended excerpt from the 60 MINUTES segment "The Greatest", (OAD: 03/17/96). (C: Ed Bradley); (9) an estimation of Ali's lasting legacy (C: Josh Elliot). Interviewed: Bob Gunnell (Ali friend); Thomas Hauser (writer); Donald Lassere (director, Muhammad Ali Center); Leon Gast (director); George Foreman (boxer); Don King (boxing promoter); Andrew Zimmerman (chef); Gene Kilroy (Ali's manager); Dr. Todd Boyd (professor, University of Southern California). 06/04/16

48 HOURS: "The Doctor's Daughter" (10:00 - 11:00p) - an investigation into the 2012 death of Leslie Neulander, the wife of Dr. Robert Neulander, a prominent New York State obstetrician, and the quest to discover whether her death was an accident or murder. Leslie Neulander suffered a massive head wound while showering, but her body was found on the bedroom floor, near the bed and far from the shower. The Medical Examiner ruled the death an accidental but investigators suspected the husband, Dr. Neulander, of covering up the crime. The couple's daughter, Jenna Neulander, was the only other person in the home at the time, and made the 911 call to summon help. The investigation uncovered a troubled marriage, suggestions of a pending split and declining finances. Eighteen months after Leslie Neulander's death, her husband was charged with her murder. The defense maintained the Neulander's had a loving marriage and that Leslie had died from injuries from the fall in the shower. Prosecutors say it was murder and the doctor covered up the crime. The science of blood spatter and the 911 call for help became focal points in the trial. Jenna Neulander testified in her father's defense. Robert Neulander was found guilty. Original on-screen text graphic: Just this week, Neulander surrendered his license to practice medicine. On-screen text graphic for the 06/04/16 rebroadcast: Robert Neulander plans to appeal his conviction. Interviewed: Scott Kapral (NY Police Sergeant); Jim Stevens (attorney/CBS News Consultant); Bill Fitzpatrick (Onondage County DA); Dr. Mary Jumbelic (friend of Leslie Neulander); July Crosby (Neulander employee); Edward Menkin (defense attorney); Karen Green (forensic scientist). 06/11/16 48 HOURS: "Hannah Graham: Deadly Connections" (9:00-10:00p) - the first hour of an investigation, told in back-to-back episodes ("Hannah Graham: Stalked by Evil", 10:00-11:00p), into the 2014 death of University of Virginia college student Hannah Graham. Included is evidence that links the alleged killer to other cases in Virginia involving unsolved attacks against young women; and a report on the life of Jesse Matthew, the man who is allegedly the last person to see Graham alive. This hour concentrates on Graham's disappearance, the national attention the case garnered, the social media aspects of the case and the subsequent connections between the disappearances and deaths of Morgan Harrington, Trina Murphy and an attempted rape of another young woman. Graham's mysterious disappearance spread far beyond the Charlottesville, Virginia area in the days following her disappearance, reminding people of the death five years earlier of Morgan Harrington, a Virginia Tech student in 2009. Her case became one of the first to use social media as a crime-fighting tool. After her body was found, clothing was recovered which contained unknown DNA which was eventually linked to the 2005 assault of another woman in Fairfax, Virginia. Still there were no answers. In 2013, when 17-year-old Alexis Murphy disappeared, Morgan Harrington's parents reached out to the family. Alexis Murphy's body was never found, but DNA evidence linked Randy Taylor to the crime; he was found guilty and sentenced to life in prison. Now, the families have joined together to help the Graham family through their ordeal and the search for Hannah. Ultimately, police think they have a suspect: Jesse Leroy Matthew, Jr.. (No on-screen text graphic.) Interviewed: Neal Augenstein (WTOP Radio reporter/48 HOURS consultant); Laura French (WTVR reporter/48 HOURS consultant); John Graham (father); Craig Maniglia (Graham's coach); Leila Nasser (Graham's friend); Lloyd Snook (attorney); Gil and Dan Harrington (Morgan Harrington's parents); Lindsey Crisp (Harrington's friend); Michael Boone (detective); Mark Castro (witness); Trina and Laura Murphy (mother and aunt of Alexis Murphy); William Haith (Jesse Matthew's acquaintance); Jesse Matthew, Sr. (father of suspect); Lee Vandell (Matthew's landlady). (NOTE: On 09/14/15, 48 HOURS launched a podcast - "The Hannah Graham Story" - the series' first-ever five-part, show-specific podcast, produced in conjunction with the 09/26/15 broadcast season premiere. 48 HOURS (continued)

06/11/16

48 HOURS: "Hannah Graham: Stalked by Evil" (10:00-11:00p) - the second hour of an investigation, told in back-to-back episodes ("Hannah Graham: Deadly Connections", 9:00-10:00p), detailing the 2014 death of University of Virginia college student Hannah Graham, and the evidence that linked the alleged killer to other cases in Virginia involving unsolved attacks against young women (Morgan Harrington, Alexis Murphy, and an unidentified rape victim). This hour concentrates on Jesse Matthew, the man who was allegedly the last person to see Graham alive. Other crimes in Virginia, in which he became a suspect, are also detailed. Matthew fled from police and was located in Galveston, Texas. He does not cooperate. Thirty-five days after Graham's disappearance, her body was found. The site is close to where Morgan Harrington's body was found, near Matthew's childhood home. The challenge now is to build a case against Jesse Matthew. Meanwhile, a detective believes Matthew could be the suspect in an unsolved rape case in Fairfax, Virginia. A DNA test is taken; it is a match and that DNA is also a match to unknown DNA from the Morgan Harrington case. Matthew is indicted and will stand trial for attempted capital murder and sexual assault in the rape case. Prosecutors are still building the Graham case. Questions are also raised to a connection in the Alexis Murphy case; no link has been found. In early 2015, the rape trial begins. The victim (identified only as R.G.) returns from Asia to testify. As the defense portion of the trial is about to begin, Matthew takes an Alford plea (a kind of guilty plea where the defendant admits guilt, but does not admit to committing the crime). Then, Matthew is handed an indictment for first degree murder in the Morgan Harrington case. The Graham trial is scheduled to begin next summer. No date has been set for the Harrington trial. On-screen graphic epilogue for the 06/11/16 rebroadcast: On March 2, 2016, a few months before the Hannah Graham murder trial was to begin, Jesse Matthew accepted a deal. In exchange for pleading guilty, Matthew no longer faced the death penalty. He will serve four consecutive life terms with not possibility of ever being released. Both the Harrington and the Graham families supported the plea agreement. Original On-screen text graphic: Jesse Matthew will be sentenced in the Fairfax rape case on October 2, 2015. Matthew's trial for the murder of Hannah Graham is scheduled for July 5, 2016. If alive today, Hannah Graham and Alexis Murphy would be 19 years old. Morgan Harrington would be 26. On-screen text graphic for the 06/11/16 rebroadcast: If alive today, Hannah Graham and Alexis Murphy would be 20 years old. Morgan Harrington would be 26. Interviewed: Neal Augenstein (WTOP Radio reporter/48 HOURS consultant); Laura French (WTVR reporter/48 HOURS consultant); John Graham (father); Craig Maniglia (Graham's coach); Leila Nasser (Graham's friend); Lloyd Snook (attorney); Gil and Dan Harrington (Morgan Harrington's parents); Lindsey Crisp (Harrington's friend); Michael Boone (detective); Mark Castro (witness); Trina Murphy (mother and aunt of Alexis Murphy); Roy Murrough (Commonwealth attorney); Allen Qiu (Graham's friend). (NOTE: On 09/14/15, 48 HOURS launched a podcast - "The Hannah Graham Story" - the series' first-ever five-part, show-specific podcast, produced in conjunction with the 09/26/15 broadcast season premiere. The podcast was anchored by WTOP-FM Correspondent Neal Augenstein, who was also a consultant for this broadcast.) (Correspondent for Parts I & II: Susan Spencer - Producers for Parts I & II: Marcelena Spencer, Aimée deSimone, Josh Gelman, Ruth Chenetz. 48 HOURS (continued)

- 06/18/16 48 HOURS: "Father and Son (9:00-10:00p) - a retitled rebroadcast of "Father and Son: The Verdict", itself a followup to "Father and Son" (OAD: 04/12/14). A report about the 2011 death of Uta Von Schwedler, and her son Pelle Wall's efforts to prove that his father, pediatrician Dr. Johnny Wall, was responsible for her death. Von Schwedler, a university research scientist, was found dead in the bathtub of her Salt Lake City, Utah home by her boyfriend Nils Abramson. The cause of death was listed as "undetermined", leaving open the possibility of suicide. Investigation revealed long-standing issues between the divorced couple. Pelle Wall believed his father to be responsible and was determined to prove it. He risked everything, including his relationship with his father and future financial security, by filing a wrongful death suit against his father. This caused the authorities to re-examine the case. Dr. Wall was charged with murder. The trial began in February 2015. DNA results did nothing to clarify things and the trial became a battle of expert witnesses, with the defense suggesting Nils Abramson was responsible. Although Johnny Wall did not testify in his defense, it was ultimately his own words, in an interview with police, which led to his conviction. Epilogue for the 06/18/16 rebroadcast: Following his conviction, Uta Von Schwedler's family and friends were reunited at the sentencing hearing for her ex-husband and convicted killer Johnny Wall. Wall, finally broke his silence with a message for his children, emphatically denying any involvement in his ex-wife's death. The jury recommended Wall serve a sentence of fifteen years-to-life and the Judge agreed. Pelle Wall, like his father plans to be a physician. Original on-screen text graphic: Johnny Wall is expected to stand trial for murder by the end of 2014. Tomorrow, April 13th, is Uta Von Schwedler's birthday. On-screen text graphic for the 05/09/15 followup: Just a week before her death Uta Von Schwedler had made a breakthrough in childhood leukemia. Johnny Wall is scheduled for sentencing in July. On-screen text graphic for the 06/18/16 rebroadcast: Just a week before her death, Uta von Schwedler had made a breakthrough in the field of childhood leukemia. Interviewed: Pelle Wall; Klaus Fiebig (family friend); Heidi Schubert and Orly Ardon (friends of Uta Von Schwedler); Wendy Wall (Johnny Wall's sister); Fred Metos (defense attorney); Nils Abramson (Von Schwedler's boyfriend); Amy Oglesby (Pelle Wall's family friend). (C: Susan Spencer - P: Marcelena Spencer, Josh Gelman, Aimee deSimone, Avi Cohen) (OAD: 05/09/15 as "Father and Son: The Verdict")
- 06/18/16 48 HOURS: "The Strange Case of Kurt Sonnenfeld" (10:00-11:00p) - an investigation of Kurt Sonnenfeld, a man wanted for the 2002 murder of his wife, Nancy Sonnenfeld, in the United States, and who is now living with a new life with a new wife in Argentina, a country that has yet to agree to extradite him to the United States. He claims that the United States government wants to silence him for what he saw at Ground Zero following the 2001 terrorist attacks. He also maintains that his wife committed suicide after a New Year's Eve celebration on January 1, 2002. Police believed it to be a homicide. Her death came during a troubled time in their marriage; Nancy had filed for separation and intended to divorce Kurt. He was arrested for murder, but the charges were dropped shortly before he was to go to trial due to insufficient evidence. The investigation continued, and police eventually refiled the murder charge. By that time, Sonnenfeld had moved to Argentina, remarried and had launched a campaign to clear his name by giving interviews to the local media. He claims that he is wanted in the United States because of something he saw while working as a cameraman for FEMA at the World Trade Center Ground Zero site, and also claims that he is facing the death penalty -- which he is not. The case now drags on through the Argentine court system, and the President of Argentina even says that Kurt Sonnenfeld will not be extradited. Original On-screen text graphic: Tomorrow is Argentina's presidential election. It's not clear whether the decision to keep Sonnenfeld in Argentina will stand. On-screen text graphic for the 06/18/16 rebroadcast: Nancy's family has written to the new president of Argentina asking him to reconsider the extradition of Kurt Sonnenfeld. Interviewed: Paula Sonnenfeld (second wife); Amy Leek (Nancy's sister); Leslie Lindberg (Nancy's cousin); Jonathan Priest (retired Denver detective); Dr. Amy Martin (Denver assistant Medical Examiner); Carrie Thompson (defense attorney); Bill Ritter (District Attorney); Robert Dreyer (informant); Bill Owens (former Colorado governor); Dolores and Jorge Richar (Sonnenfeld supporters/ through translation); Adolfo Perez Esquivel (Nobel Prize winner, Sonnenfeld supporter); Rolondo Grana (Argentine TV personality); Kirk Mitchell (Denver Post reporter/48 HOURS consultant). 48 HOURS (continued)

06/25/16 48 HOURS: LIVE TO TELL: "I Remember Everything" (8:00 - 9:00p) - a report about Angela Rose (no last name given) and Delaney Henderson, two women, tied together by having survived sexual assaults and who, by going public, hope to help others. In 1996, Angela Rose was a teenager heading to a Chicago suburban high school graduation party after work. She never made it. Angela was abducted by a man with a long history of criminal acts. He put her in his car, and eventually stopped at a forest preserve where he sexually assaulted her in the car. She survived. Police knew they had a strong case, but it took four years for her attacker to be convicted. Angela Rose turned to activism. She founded an organization called PAVE (Promoting Awareness Victim Empowerment) to help others. One of those she helped was Delaney Henderson, a young woman from California, who in 2011, was sexually assaulted by two schoolmates in her family home. She hid her attack from her parents and the police, fearing she would be further attacked or even killed because one of her attackers was a popular athlete at school. Everything changed when she learned that he had allegedly raped another, younger girl. Eventually the accused, Shane Villalpando, was convicted of three counts of sex with a minor in the younger girl's case and later accepted a plea deal in Delaney's case, leading to one more count. He was sentenced to one year in jail, five years probation and must register as a sex offender. Original On-screen text graphic: Angela Rose does not want her last name used to protect her family's privacy. Delaney and her parents plan to move from California for a fresh start. On-screen text graphic for the 06/25/16 rebroadcast: Angela Rose is married and expecting her first child. The charges against rapper Anthony Murillo were reinstated. He will go on trial in July. Delaney is suing the Archdiocese of Los Angeles and her Catholic high school for allegedly failing to protect her. Interviewed: Angela Rose (no last name given); Delaney Henderson; Gary Ciccola (Sergeant, Schaumburg, Illinois Police); Richard Benbow (Sergeant, Wheeling, Illinois Police); former prosecutor Lawrence M. Lykowski; Kym Henderson (Delaney's mother); Deputy District Attorney Jennifer Karapetian. (C: Maureen Maher - P: Clare Friedland) (OAD: 10/25/14)

CBS RELIGIOUS AND CULTURAL SPECIAL

06/26/16 "Religion & Democracy" - an interfaith special examining the challenges America is facing -- as one of the most diverse democratic countries in the world -- when it comes to religious hate and intolerance. In particular, the conditions that are fueling anti-Muslim sentiment are examined. Among those featured on the program: (1) Dalia Mogahed, Director of Research at the Institute for Social Policy & Understanding (ISPU). A recent ISPU survey revealed that last year Muslims reported more religious discrimination than Jews, Protestants and Catholics. Mogahed talks about how living in a climate of fear and intolerance affects the Muslim community and society as a whole. (2) Charles C. Haynes, Founding Director of the Religious Freedom Center at the Newseum Institute, is also a senior scholar at the First Amendment Center, as well as a leading advocate for teaching about religion in public schools. While Islam is the second-largest religion in the world, the majority of Americans are misinformed about the tradition. Haynes argues that the best way to counter intolerance is through religious literacy and that teaching young people about religion is more important now than ever. (3) Chris Murray, a teacher at Walter Johnson High School in Montgomery County, Maryland, says that most students have very little understanding about religion and that his class makes them better citizens and advocates. Includes a world-religions class discussion about how Islam is portrayed in the media, and how students have been affected by the class. (4) Ilhan Omar is a Somali American who is running for Minnesota State Legislature District 60B. Muslims in America are doing what they can to counter religious bigotry by becoming more civically engaged. She shares her story of coming to America as a young refugee and explains what prompted her to run for office in one of the most diverse communities in Minneapolis. Also includes comments from her husband Ahmed Hirsi. (Narrator: Rolland Smith. Executive Producer: Elizabeth Kineke. Associate Producer: Natalie Baxter. Director & Senior Executive Producer: John P. Blessington. Produced in consultation with religious scholars, clergy and others including Catholic, Protestant, Jewish, Islamic, Sikh and various interfaith organizations.)
