The border policy also creates a pathway to bring as many as 24,000 “qualified” Venezuelans into the country. Shoppers in the Valley are now able to purchase hearing aids over the counter without a prescription. Over the counter hearing aids are not available for Children under the age of 18. Doctors who specialize in hearing problems say they should be used only on people with mild hearing loss. The doctors stress they are not a replacement for seeing a hearing specialist if you are having hearing problems. Valley Congressman Vicente Gonzalez introduced a bill that, if passed, would allow military working dogs to be buried in national and certain state veteran cemeteries. The Sgt. Fieldy Act is named after a military dog who served three tours in Afghanistan and now lives with his handler, U.S. Marine Corps Corporal Nicolas Caceres. If the bill passes, Corporal Caceres would be able to bury Sgt. Fieldy at the Rio Grande State Veteran Cemetery in Mission. The city of Harlingen has installed 50 cameras in strategic locations in their war on illegal dumping in the city. Those who are caught doing illegal dumping will face a hefty fine. Conspiracy theorist Alex Jones has been ordered to pay $965m in damages after falsely claiming the 2012 Sandy Hook school shooting was a hoax. The families of eight victims, and an FBI agent who responded to the attack, had sought at least $550m in the defamation trial in Connecticut. The United Nations General Assembly has voted overwhelmingly to condemn Russia's attempts to annex four regions of Ukraine. The resolution was supported by 143 countries, while 35 states - including China and India - abstained. A federal judge in St. Louis is weighing the fate of the Biden administration's plan to forgive student loan debt for tens of millions of Americans following a court hearing on Wednesday. No word on when he will rule but if he rules against it an appeal will be immediately file. The State Department reopened a temporary online portal for Americans to renew their passports – but the slots are likely to fill up quickly for the applicants who qualify.
News: financial, consumer affairs & various	96.9 KVMV Consumer News	10-13-2022 1:40PM	60 Seconds	If you're struggling to pay bills amid rising inflation, you have plenty of company. A new LendingTree survey found an increasing number of consumers are late paying at least some bills. Thirty-two percent have missed at least one payment in the last six months, many because they didn't have the money.

				Digital license plates could soon be coming to your state. California has just approved them for all cars and trucks. Officials say the digital plates make it easier for consumers to update their registration. It also makes it easier for police to spot cars with expired plates.  Kia is recalling as many as 70 thousand SUVs equipped with trailer hitches because the wiring harness can cause a fire. The recall covers certain late model Sorento, Sorento Hybrid, Sorento Plug-In Hybrid, and Sportage vehicles equipped with a tow hitch harness.
3	L.B. Lyon shares and prays for various issues	96.9 KVMV Prayer Points	10-13-2022 6:20AM	60 Seconds	Nigerian officials say at least 500 people have been killed and 1.4 million displaced in the worst flooding in a decade. Floods have affected nearly all of Nigeria's states and 90,000 homes have been partially or completely destroyed. More than 1,500 people were injured and the disaster had an impact on farmland across all but five of Nigeria's 36 states. Lord we pray for aid to reach Nigeria and along with the aid a message of hope found in the gospel of Christ.  Two evangelists sustained deep knife wounds after leading several Muslims to Christ at debates on Islam and Christianity in eastern Uganda. The two had debated Islamic scholars in several areas and after several people committed their lives to Christ the evangelists were attacked. The attack was the latest of many instances of persecution of Christians in Uganda. Lord we pray for healing and safety for both of these evangelists and for the persecution of Christians in Uganda to be replaced with revival.

She lost it outside her Fort Myers home just days before Hurricane Ian crashed into the coast of southwest Florida. Despite enlisting her husband and three young children to help search around their yard and garage for two days, there was no sign of the ring. "I just accepted that it was gone," Garner said. The family stayed at their home during the storm and went outside to clean up as soon as it had passed. In a pile of brush and trees next to their garage...they found the ring. Garner said she couldn't believe it. She said she prayed and thanked God for this sign of hope for their community following the destruction of Ian.

Lyon shares the rest of the news	96.9 KVMV The Rest of the News	10-13-2022 10:40AM	60 Seconds	During live broadcasts on TikTok led by singer songwriter Stephen McWhirter, more than 3,000 viewers on the short-video sharing site made decisions to follow Jesus. The born-again former drug addict said the regularly scheduled posts on his TikTok account (@stephenmcwhirtermusic) began a month ago. Now, it's a revival... and it's on TikTok. McWhirter, whose ministry includes touring churches in the United States and internationally, said he has never seen the kind of "harvest" he is seeing now.  The response to Phil Wickham's first books is blowing him away. The 40 day devotional book released last week and over the weekend Phil posted: I'm truly floored. We released my book "On Our Knees" last Tuesday, and I just got word that it was the top selling book in all of Christian non-fiction books for the week. Thank you so much to everyone who ordered one. It's been amazing hearing and reading your stories about how it's connecting. What a blessing!  FOR KING + COUNTRY is asking for prayer. They posted: As

				some of you have heard, we're hard at work on a huge project this fall. We'll be sharing more in the coming weeks, but it's quite a daunting task that will require a significant amount of effort &amp; wisdom from both us &amp; our team.... if you have a moment, we'd certainly appreciate your prayers.

He’s had some rough times...going through a divorce and losing his home and the suffering a major brain injury due to a life-threatening car crash. But in September, he finally received some good news: His horse Mongo was found. Adams and his horse went camping in the Cedar Mountains eight years ago when Mongo ran away. For three years, he never stopped searching for his horse. In 2017 Adams had given up hope and wondered if Mongo had died somewhere. The end of September Adams received a Facebook message request from a Bureau of Land Management Utah employee. The person said Mongo had been found. He’d apparently been running with the wild Mustangs. The next day Adams drove four hours to pick up Mongo. Adams says that reuniting with Mongo was a dream come true and a much-needed victory. He added that it’s the only positive thing that has happened to him in two years.

As a child, Crystal DePoo lived in the Dominican Republic with her family, and Rufina, the nanny that helped take care of her and her sister, was like a second mom. After 10 years, the family returned to the United States, and Rufina told Good Morning America that "I never in my mind thought I would see [Crystal] again." Rufina now works at a grocery store in Key West, and after tracking her down, Crystal came in to surprise her. At first, Rufina did not recognize her and thought it was a random customer who came up to hug her, but as soon as she realized it was Crystal, she began to cry. Rufina told GMA she was thrilled to see Crystal again, and it felt good to know that she wanted to find her so they could stay in touch. Rufina said, "When you give love you receive love, so I tell everybody please make something good for the world and you never know when it'll return to you,"
