

DIVINE MERCY RADIO, INC.
ISSUES AND PROGRAMS FIRST QUARTER 2015

ISSUE Education

04 02 2015 at 1900 The World Over 60 minutes EWTN Lead Anchor Raymond Arroyo hosts this weekly news program from Washington DC, with newsmakers from around the world. On today's show is the story of Myriam, a 10 year old Iraqi refugee driven from her home by ISIS, and her message of forgiveness. Egyptian journalist, Essam Nagy, who first interviewed Myriam, shares his insights. An all new exclusive behind the scenes preview of the NBC miniseries AD, The Bible Continues with its producer, Mark Burnett. And Raymond takes a look at the mysterious linen thought to be the burial cloth of Christ, the Shroud of Turin. An encore of Raymond Arroyo's special report, Investigating the Shroud.

04 16 2015 at 1900 The World Over 60 minutes EWTN Lead Anchor Raymond Arroyo hosts this weekly news program from Washington DC, with newsmakers from around the world. On today's show is Baroness Elizabeth Berridge, member of the UK Parliament, Life Peer House of Lords, and chair of the All Party Group on International Religious Freedom on the global rise of religious persecution and how Western democracies can advance religious liberty. Ian Caldwell, New York Times bestselling novelist and author of the new book, The Fifth Gospel, talks about this book, which is a thriller set in the Vatican. Kevin James, Emmy award nominated actor, comedian talks to Raymond on his new family film, Paul Blart, Mall Cop 2. Raymond concluded with a birthday tribute to Mother Angelica.

04 23 2015 at 1900 The World Over 60 minutes EWTN Lead Anchor Raymond Arroyo hosts this weekly news program from Washington DC, with newsmakers from around the world. On today's show Robert Royal, editor in chief of The Catholic Thing on the life and legacy of the late Francis Cardinal George. Rep. Ron Desantis, former Navy JAG lawyer and currently a US Congressman representing the 6th District of Florida on the framework nuclear deal with Iran and the escalation of tension in the Middle East with regards to Iran. Equado Verastegui, actor and producer came on the show about his latest family film project, Little Boy, which opens in theaters April 24.

04 30 2015 at 1900 The World Over 60 minutes EWTN Lead Anchor Raymond Arroyo hosts this weekly news program from Washington DC, with newsmakers from around the world. On today's show is Kyle Duncan, lawyer in private practice with Duncan PLLC and formerly lead counsel for Hobby Lobby on the oral arguments in the US Supreme Court same sex marriage. Also on the show is Reggie Littlejohn, human rights activist and China expert and president of Womens Rights Without Frontiers on the sad legacy of Chinas nearly 40 year old One Child Policy and her Save A Girl initiative. Lastly the Most Rev. Jean Clement Jeanbart, archbishop of Aleppo, Syria on the plight of the persecuted Christians of Syria.

05 07 2015 at 1900 The World Over 60 minutes EWTN Lead Anchor Raymond Arroyo hosts this weekly news program from Washington DC, with newsmakers from around the world. On today's show is Alan Dershowitz, Attorney and law professor Alan Dershowitz to talk about freedom of speech in the wake of the terrorist attacks in Garland, Texas and more threats of violence from ISIS. Questions posed are: Should there be free speech limits, particularly where religion is concerned? Larry Oney, permanent deacon in the Archdiocese of New Orleans, successful businessman, entrepreneur and author on his plans for inner city renewal and healing in response to what has been happening on the streets of Baltimore, MD and Ferguson, MO. Peter Lerangis, author of the Seven Wonders series of fiction for children and young adults joins Raymond for Children's Book Week to talk about his life and the long and winding career path that led to him becoming an author.

05 07 2015 at 1900 The World Over 60 minutes EWTN Lead Anchor Raymond Arroyo hosts this weekly news program from Washington DC, with newsmakers from around the world. On today's show is Rep. Ed Royce, US Congressman from California and Chairman of the House Committee on Foreign Affairs on hearings held this week in Washington on ISIS's persecution of Christians and other religious minorities in Iraq and the Middle East. Mark Morano, executive editor and chief correspondent of TheClimateDepot.com and member of the Heartland Institute and Carol Andress, Director of Legislative Operations for the Environmental Defense Fund join Raymond to debate the controversial issue of global warming/climate change. Rod Dreher, Senior Editor of TheAmericanConservative.com and author of How Dante Can Save Your Life on the lifechanging wisdom contained in Dantes The Divine Comedy.

05 28 2015 at 1900 The World Over 60 minutes EWTN Lead Anchor Raymond Arroyo hosts this weekly news program from Washington DC, with newsmakers from around the world. Raymond interviewed Edward Pentin, Rome correspondent for the National Catholic Register on the upcoming Synod of Bishops in Rome in October, the preliminary synod meetings in Rome this week, the Pop's upcoming Eco Encyclical and a preview of The World Overs exclusive interview with Cardinal Walter Kasper that will air on The World Over on June 4. Dave Barry, Pulitzer Prize winning humorist, columnist and author on his latest book for middle graders, The Worst Class Trip Ever. Dr. Ralph Martin, president of Renewal Ministries and Director of Graduate Programs at Sacred Heart Seminary in Detroit on the relationship between mercy and salvation and a theological discussion of the nature of Hell.

06 04 2015 at 1900 The World Over 60 minutes EWTN Lead Anchor Raymond Arroyo hosts this weekly news program from Washington DC, with newsmakers from around the world. The headline news of the week included an interview with Walter Cardinal Kasper, German theologian and former head of the Pontifical Council for Christian Unity on the controversial discussions about the possibility of granting Communion to divorced and remarried Catholics he led at the Synod on the Family, and his role in shaping those discussions not only at the Synod, but internationally as well. Raymond interviewed Robert Royal, president of the Faith and Reason Institute, and Fr. Gerald Murray, pastor of the Church of the Holy Family in New York City regarding their reaction to the interview with Walter Cardinal Casper. Fr. Cassian Folsom, prior of the Benedictine Monks of Norcia was interviewed regarding Benedicta: Marian Chant from Norcia, and their new CD of Gregorian Chant devoted to songs honoring the Blessed Virgin Mary.

06 11 2015 at 1900 The World Over 60 minutes EWTN Lead Anchor Raymond Arroyo hosts this weekly news program from Washington DC, with newsmakers from around the world. The headline news of the week included an interview with Walter Cardinal Kasper, German theologian and former head of the Pontifical Council for Christian Unity on his role in shaping the agenda at the Synod for the Family, what he expects to be discussed there this October, and his feelings toward those Cardinals who criticized his proposal to give Communion to some divorced and remarried Catholics. Raymond also interviewed Fr. Gerald Murray, canon lawyer and pastor of the Church of the Holy Family in New York City with reaction and analysis of the interview with Cardinal Kasper. The final interview was with Rand Paul, US Senator from the State of Kentucky and GOP candidate for President of the United States in 2016, joins us for an exclusive interview.

06 18 2015 at 1900 The World Over 60 minutes EWTN Lead Anchor Raymond Arroyo hosts this weekly news program from Washington DC, with newsmakers from around the world. The headline news of the week included a full analysis of Pope Francis new encyclical on the environment, Laudato Si, with USCCB President Archbishop Joseph Kurtz and editor in chief of The Catholic Thing.org, Robert Royal. Also Gary Sinise, Oscar nominated actor and founder of the Gary Sinise Foundation, joins Raymond to talk about his work to aid and assist the men and women in the armed forces and how his faith informs his life and work as well as his thoughts about his own father on Fathers Day 2015.

Certified by Donetta M Robben July 2, 2015