

DIVINE MERCY RADIO, INC.
ISSUES AND PROGRAMS FOURTH QUARTER 2014

ISSUE Education

10 11 2014 at 0900 Double Edged Sword 60 minutes The four Catholic bishops of Kansas talked about voting issues pertinent to voters. While the Catholic Church does not endorse any candidate or party affiliation, they do address issues to help voters form their conscience. Bishop John Brungardt, Diocese of Dodge City, talked about Life issues. Archbishop Joseph Naumann, Archdiocese of Kansas City, talked about marriage issues. Bishop Carl Kemme, Diocese of Wichita, talked about religious freedom. Lastly, Bishop Edward Weisenburger, Diocese of Salina, talked about usury and pay day loans

10 17 2014 at 1200 Double Edged Sword 40minutes Fr. Joshua Werth, pastor of Sacred Heart Parish, Plainville and Sacred Heart Parish, Stockton, talks about The Occult, What is Good, What's Evil. In this show he talked about how very few people set out to worship Satan, but how the culture is deceptive enough that they simply fall into it. He talked about power. Humans have some power. Satan has way more. God has the most. He also talked about how clever Satan is and how he tricks humans into falling into his trap.

10 25 2014 at 1200 Double Edged Sword 40minutes Fr. Fred Gatschet, pastor of St. Joseph Church and Chaplain of the Comeau Catholic Campus Center, educator and published author, talks about the Reformation. He gives a history lesson on what most schools teach, and compares that with the actual truth of what happened.

11 01 2014 at 1900 The World Over 60 minutes EWTN Lead Anchor Raymond Arroyo hosts this weekly news program from Washington DC, with newsmakers from around the world. This weeks headlines, plus, Dr. Timothy Flanigan, a physician currently volunteering in Monrovia, Liberia and Dr. Mark, Abruzzese, an infectious disease specialist in Washington, DC on the current state of the Ebola epidemic in Western Africa and what is being done there and in the US to contain the spread of the virus. Jennifer Fuffiler, Catholic blogger and author of the new memoir, Something Other than God, How I passionately Sought Happiness and Accidentally Found it, about her journey from atheism to faith. Kate Dicamillo, Newberry Medal winning children's author of the importance of reading and storytelling in a child's development, her life and career in children's literature and her latest story, Leroy Ninker Saddles Up from Candlewick Press.

11 14 2014 at 1900 The World Over 60 minutes EWTN Lead Anchor Raymond Arroyo hosts this weekly news program from Washington DC, with newsmakers from around the world. On this day, Arroyo interviews the author of over seventy books and fourteen No. 1 New York Times bestsellers, Dean Koontz, on his latest novel, The City. He also talks with Raymond about the craft of writing, the source of his inspiration, and the faith and family life that has shaped all of work. Plus, Cardinal Timothy Dolan, Archbishop Salvatore Cordileone, and U.S. Bishops president, Archbishop Joseph Kurtz speak to Raymond about the debate and dissension at the Synod for the Family in Rome, what lies ahead for the Synod, and the controversial removal of Cardinal Raymond Burke from the Vatican's high court.

11 21 2014 at 1900 The World Over 60 minutes EWTN Lead Anchor Raymond Arroyo hosts this weekly news program from Washington DC, with newsmakers from around the world. On this day Rick Warren, pastor of Saddleback Church in Southern California who is attending the Vatican Colloquium on marriage this week, joins Raymond from Rome to talk about the conference and the importance of protecting the institution of traditional marriage between a man and a woman. Francis Cardinal George, archbishop emeritus of Chicago, on his tenure as archbishop, the recent controversy over the Synod of Bishops in Rome, and his reflections on his battle with cancer and the great gift of life, Raymond spoke to him recently at the Fall Meeting of the US Conference of Catholic Bishops in Baltimore. Martha Williamson, the former executive producer and writer of Touched by an Angel on her new film, Signed, Sealed, Delivered for Christmas and the importance of great storytelling and creating inspirational family entertainment.

11 28 2014 at 1900 The World Over 60 minutes EWTN Lead Anchor Raymond Arroyo hosts this weekly news program from Washington DC, with newsmakers from around the world. On this day, Arroyo interviews Rep. Jeff Fortenberry, US Congressman from Nebraska's 1st District and member of the House Appropriations Committee on President Obamas executive action addressing illegal immigration, Congress possible response, and how it may affect future immigration policy. TIMOTHY SHRIVER, chairman of Special Olympics and author of the new memoir Fully Alive, Discovering What Matters Most. Encore of THE BOYS OF ST. PAULS CHOIR SCHOOL in Cambridge, Massachusetts, joined by their choir director JOHN ROBINSON tell us about the ONLY Catholic choir school for boys in the US and their major label debut recording, CHRISTMAS IN HARVARD SQUARE. For Thanksgiving 2014, the late poet and peacemaker, MATTIE J.T. STEPANEK, On Being Thankful.

12 05 2014 at 1900 The World Over 60 minutes EWTN Lead Anchor Raymond Arroyo hosts this weekly news program from Washington DC, with newsmakers from around the world. On this day, Arroyo interviews Judge Andrew Napolitano, senior judicial analyst for FOX News Channel and author of the new book, Suicide Pact The Radical Expansion of Presidential Powers and the Lethal Threat to American Liberty, on the unbridled expansion of power and assault on civil liberties led by American presidents throughout history. KRISTINA ARRIAGA, executive director of The Becket Fund for Religious Liberty, previews the upcoming oral arguments being heard in the Tenth Circuit Court of Appeals in the Little Sisters of the Poor case against the HHS Mandate. An encore of Raymonds interview with STACY KEACH. The renowned stage and screen actor and author of the memoir All in All. An Actors Life On and Off the Stage, discusses his career in Hollywood and Broadway, his role as St. John in the Truth and Life Audio Bible, how his faith has helped him in times of adversity and his recent work as Falstaff in Shakespeare's Henry IV at the Shakespeare Theatre here in Washington, DC.

12 12 2014 at 1900 The World Over 60 minutes EWTN Lead Anchor Raymond Arroyo hosts this weekly news program from Washington DC, with newsmakers from around the world. On this day, Arroyo reviews the analysis of the United States Senate report on torture/enhanced interrogation techniques by the Central Intelligence Agency following 9 11 with former CIA General Counsel, John Rizzo, and former CIA analyst Patrick Eddington of the Cato Institute. Christian Bale and Ridley Scott, the star and director, respectively, of the new biblical epic, Exodus, Gods and Kings on their cinematic depiction of the story of Moses and his liberation of the Israelites from Egypt. Austin Iveriegh, British journalist and author of The Great Reformer, Francis and the Making of a Radical Pope, on his new biography of Pope Francis. Mother Assumpta Long and Sr. Joseph Andrew, of the Dominicans of Mary, Mother of the Eucharist on their new musical project, The Rosary, Mysteries, Meditations and Music, featuring beautiful renditions of the prayers of the rosary set to their own sacred music.

12 19 2014 at 1900 The World Over 60 minutes EWTN Lead Anchor Raymond Arroyo hosts this weekly news program from Washington DC, with newsmakers from around the world. Today the show featured new performances by singer songwriter Michael W. Smith, the boys of St Pauls Choir School at Harvard Square, and Friar Alessandro. Plus, some classic Christmas performances by the legendary Keely Smith, Frank Sinatra, Andy Williams, Jose Feliciano, Aaron Neville, The Priests, and Liam Neeson. Also, the World Over Person of the Year. The World Over Person of the Year 2014, The Persecuted Christians of the Middle East. Religious freedom advocate Nina Shea of the Hudson institute and Fr. Benedict Keily, founder of Nazarean.org, discuss the plight of Christians in Syria, Iraq, and Africa and the horrific year they have endured.

Certified by Donetta M Robben December 31, 2014