

July 1, 2007

WBNA(TV)
MOST SIGNIFICANT QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST
April, May, June 2007

During the 2nd quarter of 2007, WBNA(TV) broadcast the following issue responsive programs:

A weekly 30 minute public affairs series called For the Record with Eric Brown which airs Saturdays at 6:00AM and 6:30 AM.

Complete program reports are attached.

Placed in the Public File on 7/10/07

SECOND QUARTER 2007
NATIONAL PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Program: For the Record with Eric Brown
Topic/Title: Second Harvest Food Bank
Air Date: Saturday, April 7, 2007
Duration: 30 Minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WGPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Hunger, Poverty
Guest: Nan Griswold, Director
Second Harvest Food Bank of Northwest NC
Winston-Salem, NC

Today, we take another look at hunger and how food banks make a difference in their local communities. We visit Second Harvest Food Bank of Northwest North Carolina and discuss how the Second Harvest Food Bank Network continues to address hunger issues. We encourage viewers to be a part of the solution by donating food, money and time to their local food bank. Second Harvest Food Bank of Northwest NC is the major distributor of donated food in the northwest region, serving 380 nonprofit partner agencies that help feed the hungry and others in need across 18 counties of North Carolina. It is a part of the national Second Harvest Food Bank Network.

Program: For the Record
Topic/Title: Fitness and Injury Prevention
Air Date: Saturday, April 7, 2007
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WHPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Fitness and Injury Prevention
Guests: Amy Bento, NRG Fitness, Founder, Instructor, Trainer

Today, we discussed the difference between being "active" and being a "weekend warrior" and why the weekend warrior mode can cause injuries. We discussed how to be active and have an active lifestyle without going to a gym and without having athletic abilities. We explained why regular activity and fitness are very important to our health and how it affects our everyday existence and well being. We talked about the common mistakes to avoid and how to stay interested and energized about being active.

Program: For the Record
Topic/Title: Working For Supplier Diversity
Air Date: Saturday April 14, 2007
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source:
Issue(s) Addressed:
Guests:

Program: For the Record with Eric Brown
Topic/Title: Amani Children's Foundation
Air Date: Saturday April 14, 2007

SECOND QUARTER 2007
NATIONAL PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WGPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Children
Guests: Dr. Jane Stephens, Founder/Director
Winston-Salem, NC

Today we discussed the services of at Amani Children's Foundation, an American outreach to children in Africa. The foundation encourages Americans to help find homes for Nairobi children, who are abandoned due to the HIV/AIDS crisis in Africa. The organization urges doctors businesses, churches and concerned citizens to assist African families and children in need of care.

Program: For the Record with Eric Brown
Topic/Title: Impact of Community Kitchens
Air Date: Saturday, April 21, 2007
Duration: 30 Minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WGPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Hunger, Employment
Guest: Jeff Bacon, Director
Michael Miles, Student
Triad Community Kitchen
Winston-Salem, NC

Today we take a look at impact of America's Second Harvest Network Community Kitchen programs and how they serve meals for the hungry and offer job training and opportunities for a better life to students. We visit the Triad Community Kitchen, which offers a ten-week job training program to participants. Also, students will earn their ServeSafe Certification. The program allows food banks to extend the shelf-life of countless pounds of perishable food, turning it into meals for partner agencies that feed the poor and needy. At present, there are 37 Community Kitchen programs within the America's Second Harvest Network around the nation.

Program: For the Record with Eric Brown
Topic/Title: Tourism
Air Date: Saturday, April 21, 2007
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WGPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Tourism
Guests: Ron Kuhlman, Director of Tourism
Virginia Beach Convention & Visitors Bureau
Virginia Beach, Virginia

Today, we discussed the role and impact of Tourism on the Economy and how the resort community of Virginia Beach attracts tourism from across the nation and Canada.

SECOND QUARTER 2007
NATIONAL PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Program: For the Record with Eric Brown
Topic/Title: The Virginian-Pilot Joy Fund
Air Date: Saturday April 28, 2007
Duration: 30 Minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WGPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Charities, Children
Guest: Linda Hollingsworth
Joy Fund Coordinator
The Virginian-Pilot, Norfolk, VA

Since 1934, The Virginian-Pilot Joy Fund has been bringing holiday happiness and gifts to more than one million underprivileged children in the Tidewater area. The Joy Fund and the Salvation Army has entered into a partnership to better serve the underprivileged children and families. The Joy Fund is responsible for identifying children and families in need. The Virginian-Pilot encourages donations from the community through its annual appeal and the Salvation Army uses the contributions to purchase the toys and distribute them to families. Today, we discuss the impact of this project and encourage viewers to participate.

Program: For the Record
Topic/Title: Corporal Punishment
Air Date: Saturday April 28, 2007
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WHPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Corporal Punishment
Guests: Ron Rohner
CEO RohnerResearch, Consultants in Family Issues

Today we discussed the international controversy regarding corporate punishment and raised questions such as: is spanking your child okay or is it too much and how much is too much? We also talked about other way there are to discipline without making physical contact and who is more likely to be a victim as well as the lingering affects it leaves on the victim.

Program: For the Record with Eric Brown
Topic/Title: The Virginian-Pilot Joy Fund
Air Date: Saturday May 5, 2007
Duration: 30 Minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WGPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Charities, Children
Guest: Linda Hollingsworth
Joy Fund Coordinator
The Virginian-Pilot, Norfolk, VA

SECOND QUARTER 2007
NATIONAL PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Since 1934, The Virginian-Pilot Joy Fund has been bringing holiday happiness and gifts to more than one million underprivileged children in the Tidewater area. The Joy Fund and the Salvation Army has entered into a partnership to better serve the underprivileged children and families. The Joy Fund is responsible for identifying children and families in need. The Virginian-Pilot encourages donations from the community through its annual appeal and the Salvation Army uses the contributions to purchase the toys and distribute them to families. Today, we discuss the impact of this project and encourage viewers to participate.

Program: For the Record
Topic/Title: Summer Camp
Air Date: Saturday, May 5, 2007
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WHPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Choosing a Summer Camp
Guests: Debra Johnson, Public Health Services Manager
Valerie Bryan, Supervising Youth Consultant
CT Department of Health

Today, we discussed how to choose the right summer camp for your child. We learned what questions to ask and how to obtain information on a variety of summer camps and the licensing requirements needed to meet the health, safety and comfort standards for the campers.

Program: For the Record
Topic/Title: Mortgage Solutions
Air Date: Saturday, May 12, 2007
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WHPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Mortgages
Guests: Olga Kemmerlin and Joseph Kunevsky, The Source Mortgage

Today, we discussed the different alternatives, options and procedures available to obtain a mortgage and how you can improve your chances via better credit.

Program: For the Record
Topic/Title: Asthma Warning
Air Date: Saturday, May 12, 2007
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WHPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Asthma & Environment
Guests: Cindy Barry, Community Health Educator, Ledge Light (Health District)

SECOND QUARTER 2007
NATIONAL PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Today, we discussed the growing concern of asthma and the impact of the environment on asthma sufferers. We talked about what people can do to change it and how to treat asthma and prevent fatal attacks.

Program: For The Record with Eric Brown
Topic/Title: Taking Back the Community Part 1
Air Date: Saturday, May 19, 2007
Duration: 30 Minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WGPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Drug Abuse, Homelessness, Poverty
Guest: Rev. Jessie Garner, Senior Pastor
Rev. Hezekiah Brayboy, Member
Open Arms Community Church, Fayetteville, NC

Today, in Part 1 of "Taking Back the Community," we discussed how concerned citizens and local churches can take back their communities that are plagued by poverty and crime. Our guests frequently walk the streets of crime-ridden areas and offer hope to those affected by drugs, crime and poverty. The Open Arms Community Church sponsors various programs to address these issues and the church is dedicated to helping drug addicts and homeless people find purpose and direction. Our guests shared the successes and challenges in working with street people.

Program: For the Record
Topic/Title: Women's Health Issues and Alternatives
Air Date: Saturday, May 19, 2007
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WHPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Women's Health Issues
Guests: Joel Evan, OB/Gyn, The Center for Women's Health

Today we discussed how conventional and alternative medicine can be used together to treat medical problems found in women, including pregnancy issues. We also discussed how to combine treatments for common and unusual health issues using standard OB/Gyn medicines along with holistic medicine. We also looked at physical, emotional and spiritual approaches to create total wellness.

Program: For the Record with Eric Brown
Topic/Title: Success in Education
Air Date: Saturday, May 26, 2007
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WGPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Education
Guests: Ruby Goodman, Writer and Educator
Fayetteville, North Carolina

SECOND QUARTER 2007
NATIONAL PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Today, in our education focus, we discussed the role of parents and teachers in motivating and encouraging students to excel in education.

Program: For the Record
Topic/Title: Allergy Free Foods
Air Date: Saturday, May 26, 2007
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WHPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Children & Food Allergies
Guests: Lori Sandler, Divvies

Today, we discussed food allergies and children and how to keep children safe from allergies while still allowing them to enjoy being a kid. We focused on fun food that is safe for everyone to eat at group gatherings instead of fearing foods with allergies.

Program: For the Record
Topic/Title: Business Coach
Air Date: Saturday, June 2, 2007
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source:
Issue(s) Addressed:
Guests:

Program: For the Record
Topic/Title: Health & Weight
Air Date: Saturday, June 2, 2007
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WHPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Health, Weight, Diet
Guest(s): Billy C. Johnson, MD, PhD
ultimatedietplus.com, bcj@ultimatedietplus.com,
www.prescriptionforhealthyweightloss.com

Today we discussed eating healthy for good health and optimum weight. How nutrients, vitamins, physical activity, calories, cooking methods, cholesterol, antioxidants effect weight and health. Our guest also discussed how to get healthy food from any source, including fast-food restaurants.

Program: For the Record with Eric Brown
Topic/Title: Education Issues in Public Schools
Air Date: Saturday, June 9, 2007
Duration: 30 Minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format

SECOND QUARTER 2007
NATIONAL PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Source: WGPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Education
Guest: Francine Mallory, Principal
Peck Elementary School, Greensboro, NC

Today, we discussed concerns facing public education and strategies to improve the problems. Also, we take another look at the "Fill the Bus" program, which matches local businesses to public schools that need help with school supplies. Our guest shares how the program benefits her school and students. The program has been featured in Family Circle magazine and has spawned similar programs in other communities in the nation. We discuss the impact of this program on schools, teachers and education.

Program: For the Record
Topic/Title: Adult Relationships
Air Date: Saturday, June 9, 2007
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WHPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Parental & Interpersonal Acceptance
Guests: Ron Rohner, CEO RohnerResearch, Consultants in Family
Issues

Today, we discussed relationships between parents and their children and between adults. We talked about how a child's relationship with his parents may effect their relationships with others as an adult and how parents can correct mistakes made in their relationship with their children.

Program: For the Record with Eric Brown
Topic/Title: Women, Business and Careers
Air Date: Saturday, June 16, 2007
Duration: 30 Minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WGPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Women, Business, Careers
Guest: Jessica Strong, New Choice Program
Rayshonia Manuel, Women's Business Center
Women's Center of Fayetteville
Fayetteville, NC

Today, we discussed business and careers for women and how women's centers are helping women reach their professional career goals through job-readiness and career counseling programs. Also, our guests give timely tips to women who desire to start their own business and discuss the impact of women-owned businesses to the economy.

Program: For the Record
Topic/Title: Quick, Fun, Tasty Food
Air Date: Saturday, June 16, 2007

SECOND QUARTER 2007
NATIONAL PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WHPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Healthy Eating
Guest(s): Penney Parkes, "Chef Penney"

Today, we discussed healthy eating and how to make it easy, simple, fun, and still tasty. Suggestions for prepping meals and snacks with healthy alternatives.

Program: For the Record with Eric Brown
Topic/Title: Adoption/Foster Care Recruitment
Air Date: Saturday, June 23, 2007
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WGPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Adoptions, Children
Guests: Sandy Cook, Director
Staff Members, Children's Home Society of North Carolina,
Greensboro, NC

Today, we talked about adoption and foster care issues, and how couples and individuals can adopt children in need of caring parents and homes. Our guests discuss the programs and services at the Children's Home Society and give valuable information about the adoption and foster care process.

Program: Carla Page "Informative"
Topic/Title: Exchange Teacher
Air Date: Saturday, June 23, 2007
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WYPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Culture / Exchange Programs / Education
Guests: Host: Carla Page
Zhou Ji – Visiting Teacher from China
Jean Michelle Nieman – AFS Host and Volunteer

Guests discussed the operation of the AFS teacher exchange program and how it benefits all the participants. Zhou Ji discussed his first visit to the United States as a visiting teacher. Ji described the culture differences between the U.S. and China. Ji has learned many useful methods and teachings here in the U.S. to implement when he get back to his classroom in China.

Program: For the Record with Eric Brown
Topic/Title: Issues in Society
Air Date: Saturday, June 30, 2007
Duration: 30 Minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format

SECOND QUARTER 2007
NATIONAL PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Source: WGPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Employment (Wages), Housing, Finances
Guest: Rev. Jesse Garner
Rev. Hezekiah Brayboy
Open Arms Community Church, Fayetteville, NC

Today, we discussed the impact of low paying, minimal wage jobs on the working poor and the need to support a living wage increase. Also, we discuss the need for better housing, as well as, financial and debt management for struggling families. Our guests are a part of the Open Arms Community Church, which addresses these issues through community outreach programs to the poor and needy.

Program: For the Record
Topic/Title: Defying Gravity
Air Date: Saturday, June 30, 2007
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WHPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Midlife Crisis: Life After 40
Guests: Prill Boyle, Author

Today, we discussed midlife anti-crisis and why life doesn't end at middle age. We learned ways to prevent the midlife crisis by looking at people who have done great things at unusual ages; how to use these stories as motivation and avoid midlife depression and restart your dreams and goals.