

January 1, 2007

WBNA(TV)
MOST SIGNIFICANT QUARTERLY ISSUES/PROGRAMS LIST
October, November, December 2006

During the 4th quarter of 2006, WBNA(TV) broadcast the following issue responsive programs:

A weekly 30 minute public affairs series called For the Record with Eric Brown which airs Saturdays at 6:00AM and 6:30 AM.

Complete program reports are attached.

Placed in the Public File on 1/10/07

SHOWS AIR AT 6:00AM 9
630AM

FOURTH QUARTER 2006
NATIONAL PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Program: For the Record
Topic/Title: Allergy Free Foods
Air Date: Saturday October 7, 2006
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WHPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Children & Food Allergies
Guests: Lori Sandler, Divvies

Today, we discussed food allergies and children and how to keep children safe from allergies while still allowing them to enjoy being a kid. We focused on fun food that is safe for everyone to eat at group gatherings instead of fearing foods with allergies.

Program: For the Record with Eric Brown
Topic/Title: Success in Education
Air Date: Saturday, October 7, 2006
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WGPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Education
Guests: Ruby Goodman, Writer and Educator
Fayetteville, North Carolina

Today, in our education focus, we discussed the role of parents and teachers in motivating and encouraging students to excel in education.

Program: For the Record with Eric Brown
Topic/Title: Lessons Learned from the '04 Hurricanes
Air Date: Saturday October 14, 2006
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source:
Issue(s) Addressed:
Guests:

Program: For the Record with Eric Brown
Topic/Title: Affordable Housing for the Homeless
Air Date: Saturday October 14, 2006
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WGPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Housing and Homelessness
Guests: Tim West, Planning & Development Coordinator
Housing/Neighborhood Development Department

FOURTH QUARTER 2006
NATIONAL PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Winston-Salem, North Carolina

Today, we discussed how a national effort aimed at eliminating homelessness through affordable housing has gained endorsement from over 100 communities nationwide with a committed goal to end homelessness in America. We also discussed the 10-year plan and how it can impact the homeless population and help them find permanent housing in their community.

Program: For the Record
Topic/Title: Women's Health Issues and Alternatives
Air Date: Saturday, October 21, 2006
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WHPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Women's Health Issues
Guests: Joel Evan, OB/Gyn, The Center for Women's Health

Today we discussed how conventional and alternative medicine can be used together to treat medical problems found in women, including pregnancy issues. We also discussed how to combine treatments for common and unusual health issues using standard OB/Gyn medicines along with holistic medicine. We also looked at physical, emotional and spiritual approaches to create total wellness.

Program: For the Record
Topic/Title: Defying Gravity
Air Date: Saturday, October 21, 2006
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WHPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Midlife Crisis: Life After 40
Guests: Prill Boyle, Author

Today, we discussed midlife anti-crisis and why life doesn't end at middle age. We learned ways to prevent the midlife crisis by looking at people who have done great things at unusual ages. How to use these stories as motivation and avoid midlife depression and restart your dreams and goals

Program: For the Record
Topic/Title: The Source Mortgage
Air Date: Saturday, October 28, 2006
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WHPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Mortgages
Guests: Olga Kemmerlin and Joseph Kunevsky, The Source Mortgage

Today, we discussed the different alternatives, options and procedures available to obtain a mortgage and how you can improve your chances via better credit.

FOURTH QUARTER 2006
NATIONAL PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Program: For the Record with Eric Brown
Topic/Title: Interfaith Hospitality Network, Part I
Air Date: Saturday, October 28, 2006
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WGPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Families and Homelessness
Guest: Denise Giles, Director
Cumberland Interfaith Hospitality Network
Fayetteville, North Carolina

Today, we explored the programs and services at the Cumberland Interfaith Hospitality Network and how it aims to help low-income and homeless families become self-sufficient. Our guest shared her personal story of being homeless and drug dependent and explained how she found her road to recovery and productivity. The Cumberland Interfaith Hospitality Network is an affiliate of the National Interfaith Hospitality Network that is dedicated to reducing chronic homelessness in America.

Program: For the Record
Topic/Title: Asthma Warning
Air Date: Saturday, November 4, 2006
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WHPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Asthma & Environment
Guests: Cindy Barry, Community Health Educator, Ledge Light (Health District)

Today, we discussed the growing concern of asthma and the impact of the environment on asthma sufferers. We talked about what people can do to change it and how to treat asthma and prevent fatal attacks.

Program: For the Record with Eric Brown
Topic/Title: Interfaith Hospitality Network, Part II
Air Date: Saturday, November 4, 2006
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WGPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Families and Homelessness
Guest: Denise Giles, Director
Cumberland Interfaith Hospitality Network
Fayetteville, North Carolina

FOURTH QUARTER 2006
NATIONAL PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Today, we continued our look at the various programs at the Cumberland Interfaith Hospitality Network and how the agency advocates for the poor and needy through special projects and community involvement. We encourage viewers to get involved with their Interfaith Hospitality Network. A website and telephone number are given for those seeking more information. The Cumberland Interfaith Hospitality Network is an affiliate of the National Interfaith Hospitality Network that is dedicated to reducing chronic homelessness in America.

Program: For the Record
Topic/Title: Toys for Tots
Air Date: Saturday, November 11, 2006
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WHPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Children in Need
Guests: Bruce Scott, Navy – Groton

Today, we discussed how Toys for Tots holds fundraisers and toy drives to provide toys for children. How the program works, which children get the toys, and how you can help or hold a toy drive. The ultimate success depends on the support of the local community and the generosity of the people's toys donations.

Program: For the Record
Topic/Title: Corporal Punishment
Air Date: Saturday, November 11, 2006
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WHPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Corporal Punishment
Guests: Ron Rohner, CEO RohnerResearch, Consultants in Family Issues

Today we discussed the international controversy regarding corporate punishment and raised questions such as: is spanking your child okay or is it too much and how much is too much? We also talked about other way there are to discipline without making physical contact and who is more likely to be a victim as well as the lingering affects it leaves on the victim.

Program: For the Record
Topic/Title: Fitness & Injury Prevention
Air Date: Saturday, November 18, 2006
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WGPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Fitness and Injury Prevention
Guests: Amy Bento, NRG Fitness, Founder, Instructor, Trainer

FOURTH QUARTER 2006
NATIONAL PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Today, we discussed the difference between being "active" and being a "weekend warrior" and why the weekend warrior mode can cause injuries. We discussed how to be active and have an active lifestyle without going to a gym and without having athletic abilities. We explained why regular activity and fitness are very important to our health and how it affects our everyday existence and well being. We talked about the common mistakes to avoid and how to stay interested and energized about being active.

Program: For the Record
Topic/Title: Adult Relationships
Air Date: Saturday, November 18, 2006
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WHPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Parental & Interpersonal Acceptance
Guests: Ron Rohner, CEO RohnerResearch, Consultants in Family Issues

Today, we discussed relationships between parents and their children and between adults. We talked about how a child's relationship with his parents may effect their relationships with others as an adult and how parents can correct mistakes made in their relationship with their children.

Program: For the Record with Eric Brown
Topic/Title: Project Hope
Air Date: Saturday, November 25, 2006
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WGPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Education
Guests: Dr. Patricia Popp

Today, we discussed the educational needs of homeless children and how organizations like Project Hope allow them to achieve academic success in education. The program is a part of a national initiative that ensures no child is left behind and acts as a voice for homeless students. The program has received great success in helping homeless children receive a quality education.

Program: For the Record
Topic/Title: Designer v. Decorator
Air Date: Saturday, November 25, 2006
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WHPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Home Improvement
Guests: Eva Johnson – Toft, Interior Design

Today, we discussed the difference between designer v. decorator. We discussed how to determine if you should do the job yourself or hire a professional. We also answered the question of how to know if a professional is qualified to do the job in order to prevent horror stories and protect you and your home.

FOURTH QUARTER 2006
NATIONAL PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Program: Rose Lee Archer Show
Topic/Title: Preventive Health Care - Diagnostic Testing
Air Date: Saturday, December 2, 2006
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: Rose Lee Archer, Producer and Host
Issue(s) Addressed: Employment of radiologic technologists and technicians
Guest: Dr. Steven Robertson, Medical Director, Delray MRI Imaging Consultants of South Florida & Director of Neuroradiology, Delray Medical Center.
Ken Esrig, CEO of Pinecrest Rehabilitation Center in Delray Beach

Today, we discussed how the trend in preventative health care is the result of US patients spending 100 billion dollars in diagnostic imaging last year. Technician's world-wide completed 60 million MRI scans, with over ¼ of them in the US. "In the past traditional MRI exams left patients feeling claustrophobic, so Delray MRI introduced the new OPART MRI system, which is open on all four sides so you can relax in quiet comfort during your scan" said. Dr. Robertson." Traditional MRI exams in the past, left patients feeling claustrophobic, while lying inside a closed tunnel.

Program: For the Record with Eric Brown
Topic/Title: Smoking and Health
Air Date: Saturday, December 2, 2006
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WGPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Youth, Health, Lung Diseases
Guests: Dr. Jessie Williams, Physician
Fayetteville, North Carolina

Today, in Part Four of our series: Teen Tobacco Abuse Prevention, we discussed the health risks associated with smoking and how to reduce lung diseases. Our guest gives medical advice and hares his personal story of tobacco addiction and how he finally kicked the habit.

Program: For the Record with Eric Brown
Topic/Title: Benefits of Mediation
Air Date: Saturday, December 9, 2006
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WGPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Conflict Resolution
Guests: Linda Cataldo, Manager
Mediation Services
Catholic Charities, Virginia Beach, VA

FOURTH QUARTER 2006
NATIONAL PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Today, we discussed the impact and significance of Mediation in resolving conflicts in family, school and neighborhood disputes. We talk in-depth about the mediation process and who benefits from this type of conflict resolution. We discussed the importance of peer mediation programs and how they can help young people resolve conflicts in a non-violent manner, and we talked about the effects of successful mediation on the community.

Program: For the Record with Eric Brown
Topic/Title: Tourism
Air Date: Saturday, December 9, 2006
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WGPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Tourism
Guests: Ron Kuhlman, Director of Tourism
Virginia Beach Convention & Visitors Bureau
Virginia Beach, Virginia

Today, we discussed the role and impact of Tourism on the Economy and how the resort community of Virginia Beach attracts tourism from across the nation and Canada.

Program: For the Record with Eric Brown
Topic/Title: Prevent Child Abuse
Air Date: Saturday, December 16, 2006
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WGPX-TV26
Issue(s) Addressed: Child Abuse
Guest(s): Pam McEvoy, Director
Child Advocacy Center, Fayetteville, NC

Today we discussed child abuse and the role Child Advocacy Centers play in being a voice for America's smallest victims of abuse. Our guest provided a scenario of a typical child abuse case and shows the public how the Advocacy Center intervenes to eliminate the trauma for children and families affected by child abuse. A website is given for individuals seeking more information.

Program: For the Record with Eric Brown
Topic/Title: Breast Cancer: Interview with a Doctor
Air Date: Saturday, December 16, 2006
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WGPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Health
Guests: Dr. Samuel Britt
Southeastern Regional Medical Center, Lumberton, NC

FOURTH QUARTER 2006
NATIONAL PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Today, we discussed Breast Cancer Awareness and Prevention and the latest medical technology used to diagnose and treat breast cancer. Our guest gives women helpful information that can save their lives.

Program: For the Record
Topic/Title: Red Cross
Air Date: Saturday, December 23, 2006
Duration: 30 Minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WHPX(TV)
Issues: Red Cross Organization
Guest: Lynn Townshend
Red Cross

Today, we discussed the Red Cross as an organization and the services it provides. We talked about the need for blood donations, what is the peak season to donate blood, what are the requirements needed, and what is the shelf life of blood.

Program:
Topic/Title: Energy Conservation
Air Date: Saturday, December 23, 2006
Duration: 30 Minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source:
Issue(s) Addressed:
Guests:

Program: For the Record
Topic/Title: Summer Camp
Air Date: Saturday, December 30, 2006
Duration: 30 minutes
Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WHPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Choosing a Summer Camp
Guests: Debra Johnson, Public Health Services Manager
Valerie Bryan, Supervising Youth Consultant, CT Department of Health

Today, we discussed how to choose the right summer camp for your child. We learned what questions to ask and how to obtain information on a variety of summer camps and the licensing requirements needed to meet the health, safety and comfort standards for the campers.

Program: For the Record
Topic/Title: Quick, Fun, Tasty Food
Air Date: Saturday, December 30, 2006
Duration: 30 minutes

FOURTH QUARTER 2006
NATIONAL PUBLIC AFFAIRS

Style/Type: Interview Format
Source: WHPX(TV)
Issue(s) Addressed: Healthy Eating
Guest(s): Penney Parkes, "Chef Penney"

Today, we discussed healthy eating and how to make it easy, simple, fun, and still tasty. Suggestions for prepping meals and snacks with healthy alternatives.