Nashville Chapter Combat Veterans Associatic

Narrative Describing the Issue or Program *

WHPY-FM was the promotional media partner with this program. A "Fallen Brothers" motorcycle ride was held in Lebanon, Tennessee in honor of servicemen and women that gave their lives to protect our homeland. The ride culminated with a dinner and silent auction to benefit the organization in Hartsville, Tennessee. WHPY-FM also conducted a "live broadcast" from the event with interviews of several people from the Combat Veterans Motorcycle Association Nashville Chapter.

Nashville Symphony Interview

Narrative Describing the Issue or Program *

WHPY-FM interviewed Alan Valentine, the President and C.E.O. of the Nashville Symphony. The interview focused on the upcoming season of the Nashville Symphony ramping up for the first time since the pandemic. Mr. Valentine discussed the hiring back of many of the musicians as well as recapping the upcoming schedule of the symphony. The symphony took a hard hit from the pandemic in particular because of the median age of the patrons of the symphony. The symphony took extra precautionary measures during the pandemic and discussed what it took to get the symphony back up to full staff and full schedule.
